4. It shall not be necessary for the Attorney-General applying for or obtaining grants of administration to the use or benefit of Her Majesty, to enter into, or cause to be entered into, any bond to the Judge of the Surrogate Court; but the Attorney-General shall, in relation to every such administration, be subject to all the liabilities and duties imposed on an administrator by the condition of the bond prescribed by the rules and orders now in force or hereafter made under The Surrogate Courts Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 60, s. 4.

Power to sell the real estate of the intestate.

5. Where administration is granted to the Attorney-General, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct the sale, either by auction or private sale, of any real estate or interest therein in Ontario to which the intestate died entitled; and the Attorney-General shall thereupon be authorized to sell in accordance with the directions of any Order in Council in that behalf, the whole, or any part of the real estate aforesaid, and to convey the same to the purchaser; and every conveyance by the Attorney-General or his successor in office shall be as valid and effectual as if the deceased were alive at the time of the making thereof, and had executed the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 60, s. 5.

6. In case subsequently to the grant of administration it is alleged or ascertained that the deceased has relatives or did not die intestate, the Attorney-General may, if he thinks fit, exercise, subject to the discretion of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, all or any of the powers by this Act conferred until some person is appointed by some Court of competent jurisdiction to deal with the estate of the deceased; and notwithstanding such appointment, any sale made in pursuance of this Act may be completed by the execution by the Attorney-General of a conveyance; and until the revocation of the letters granted, the Attorney-General may exercise fully all the powers vested in him as administrator of the estate of the deceased. R. S. O. 1877, c. 60, s. 6.

Rights of relations after the issue of administration.

7. Where administration is taken out under the provisions of this Act, the Attorney-General may apply to the High Court for an order for the making of such inquiries as may be necessary to determine whether or not Her Majesty is entitled to any portion of the estate of the deceased on account of the deceased dying intestate and without heirs or next of kin, or otherwise. Any judgment made upon such inquiry shall, unless reversed on appeal, be final and conclusive. R. S. O. 1877, c. 60, s. 7.

Inquiry as to the rights of Her Majesty.

8.—(1) Where a person dies in possession of, or entitled to real estate in Ontario, intestate as to such real estate, without any known heirs, the Attorney-General may apply to the High Court for an order for the making of such inquiries as may be necessary to determine whether or not Her Majesty is entitled to any portion of the real estate of the deceased on account of his dying intestate, and without heirs; and any judgment or order given upon such inquiry shall, unless reversed on appeal, be final and conclusive.

Recovery by Crown of real estate of persons dying intestate and without heirs.

(2) Where the Attorney-General is entitled to apply under the preceding sub-section, he may bring an action, either in his own name, on behalf of Her Majesty, or in the name of Her Majesty, to recover possession of the real estate of the deceased and shall be entitled to judgment and to recover possession, unless the person claiming adversely shews that the deceased did not die intestate; as to such real estate, or that he left heirs, or that some other person is entitled to the said real estate. 49 V. c. 16, s. 14.

9. Moneys realized from estates to which the Attorney-General is administrator under this Act, shall be kept in a separate account in such bank or invested in such manner as the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time appoint, and all moneys which have been unclaimed for ten years shall from time to time be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 60, s. 8.

Disposition of moneys.

Interest allowable to person entitled to moneys.

10. Any person proving title to such moneys shall be entitled to receive the same with interest at such a rate as the Lieutenant-Governor may, having regard to the rate realized therefrom, from time to time direct. R. S. O. 1877, c. 60, s. 9.

Rights of persons having claims upon the estate.

11. Any one claiming to be entitled to such estate or to any interest therein or to any part of the proceeds thereof, may apply to the High Court upon petition for an order or judgment declaring his rights in respect thereto; and the Court may thereupon order such inquiries as may be necessary to determine the same and may finally adjudicate thereupon: but no application under this section shall be entertained unless security for costs is given by the applicant in case the Attorney-General thinks fit to demand the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 60, s. 10.

Attorney-General may retain disbursements made in respect of inquiries.

12. The Attorney-General may deduct from moneys received on account of any estate all disbursements made by him in respect to inquiries which he may have considered it expedient to make before taking out administration, as well as disbursements otherwise made by him in respect of the estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 60, s. 11.

Protection of Attorney-General acting as administrator.

13. Where the Attorney-General is appointed or becomes administrator or trustee for an estate, and he or any of his predecessors in the trust has given such notice as under The Act respecting Trustees and Executors, and the Administration of Estates would be sufficient for the protection of an administrator, the provisions of the said Act shall apply to the Attorney-General, and to the estate. 47 V. c. 11, s. 1.

Rev. Stat. c. 110.

Distribution of assets by Attorney-General after notice.

14. After such notice, and notwithstanding the ten years limited by section 9 of this Act have not elapsed, the Attorney-General may pay any money remaining in his hands unclaimed into the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Ontario; or may pay the same or any part thereof, or assign over personal property remaining in his hands, in accordance with any direction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, made under section 6 of The Act respecting Escheats and Forfeitures. 47 V. c. 11, s. 2.

Rev. Stat. c. 95.

Her Majesty and the Province not liable where property paid away, but right to follow property not affected.

15. In such case no claim shall be maintained against Her Majesty, or this Province, in respect of any moneys or personal property paid over or assigned to any person or persons under said section 6 of the said Act respecting Escheats and Forfeitures, or under this Act; but this shall not prejudice the right of a creditor or claimant to follow the said moneys or property or proceeds into the hands of the person who may have received the same under the authority of the Order in Council 47 V. c. 11, s. 3.

Rev. Stat. c. 95.

CHAPTER 60.

An Act respecting the Limitation of certain actions.

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS—
For rent upon a demise, s. 1 (a).	Of account or between merchants, s. 2.
On specialties, s. 1 (b).	DISABILITIES, s. 3.
On recognizances, s. 1 (c).	DISTINCTION BETWEEN RESIDENTS AND NON-RESIDENTS ABOLISHED, ss. 4, 5.
On awards, s. 1 (d).	CASES OF ACTIONS AGAINST JOINT DEBTORS, ss. 6, 7.
For escape, s. 1 (e).	EFFECT OF ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, s. 8.
For money levied under execution, s. 1 (f).	LIMITATION IN INTESTACY, s. 9.
For penalties, etc., s. 1 (g).

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

1.—(1) The actions hereinafter mentioned shall be commenced within and not after the times respectively hereinafter mentioned, that is to say : Limitation of time for commencing particular actions.

- (a) Actions for rent, upon an indenture of demise,
 - (b) Actions upon a bond, or other specialty,
 - (c) Actions upon a recognizance,
- within twenty years after the cause of such actions arose ;
- (d) Actions upon an award where the submission is not by specialty,
 - (e) Actions for an escape,
 - (f) Actions for money levied on execution,
- within six years after the cause of such actions arose ;
- (g) Actions for penalties, damages, or sums of money given to the party aggrieved, by any statute,
- within two years after the cause of such actions arose ;

(2) But nothing herein contained shall extend to any action given by any statute, when the time for bringing the action is by the statute specially limited. Where time specially limited. R. S. O. 1877, c. 61, s. 1.

Actions of account, etc., to be commenced within six years.

2. All actions of account or for not accounting, or for such accounts as concern the trade of merchandise between merchant and merchant, their factors and servants, shall be commenced within six years after the cause of such actions arose; and no claim in respect of a matter which arose more than six years before the commencement of the action, shall be enforceable by action by reason only of some other matter of claim comprised in the same account, having arisen within six years next before the commencement of the action. R. S. O. 1877, c. 61, s. 2.

In case of disabilities of Plaintiff.

3. In case a person entitled to such action, as aforesaid, is at the time of the cause of action accruing within the age of twenty-one years, or non compos mentis, then such person may bring the action, within such time after coming to or being of full age, or of sound memory, as other persons having no such impediment should, according to the provisions of this Act, have done. R. S. O. 1877, c. 61, s. 3.

Non-resident Plaintiffs.

4. A plaintiff who is resident without the limits of Ontario shall have no longer period of time to commence an action than if he were resident in Ontario when the cause of action or proceeding first accrued. 42 V. c. 16, s. 1.

Non-resident Defendants.

5. If a person against whom any such cause of action accrues, is at such time without the limits of Ontario, the person entitled to the cause of action may bring the action within such times as are before limited after the return of the absent person to Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 61, s. 3.

As to cases where some joint debtors have been within and some without Ontario.

6. Where a cause of action, with respect to which the period of limitation is fixed by the Imperial Act of the 21st year of the Reign of King James the First, chapter 16, section 3, or by any Act now in force in Ontario, lies against joint debtors, the person entitled to the same shall not be entitled to any time within which to commence such action against any one of the joint debtors who was within Ontario at the time the cause of action accrued, by reason only that some other of the joint debtors was, at the time the cause of action accrued, without Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 61, s. 4.

21-Jac. I, c. 16, s. 3.

Recovery against one joint debtor, no bar to action against another who is absent.

7. The person so entitled shall not be barred from commencing an action against the joint debtor who was without Ontario at the time the cause of action accrued, after his return to Ontario, by reason only that judgment has been already recovered against the joint debtor who was within Ontario at the time aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 61, s. 5.

Effect of written acknowledgment or part payment.

8. In case an acknowledgment in writing, signed by the principal party or his agent, is made by a person liable upon an indenture, specialty or recognizance, or in case an acknowledgment is made by such person by part payment, or part satisfaction, on account of any principal or interest due on such indenture, specialty or recognizance, the person entitled may bring an action for the money remaining unpaid and so acknowledged to be due, within twenty years after such acknowledgment by writing, or part payment, or part satisfaction, as aforesaid; or in case the person entitled is at the time of the acknowledgment under disability, as aforesaid, or the party making the acknowledgment is, at the time of making the same without Ontario, then within twenty years after the disability has ceased, as aforesaid, or the party has returned, as the case may be. R. S. O. 1877, c. 61, s. 6.

9. No action or other proceeding shall be brought to recover the personal estate, or any share of the personal estate of a person dying intestate, possessed by the legal personal representative of such intestate, but within twenty years next after a present right to receive the same accrued to some person capable of giving a discharge for or release of the same, unless in the meantime some part of the estate or share, or some interest in respect thereof has been accounted for or paid, or some acknowledgment of the right thereto has been given in writing, signed by the person accountable for the same, or his agent, to the person entitled thereto, or his agent; and in such case, no action shall be brought but within twenty years after such accounting, payment or acknowledgment, or the last of such accountings, payments or acknowledgments, if more than one, was made or given. R. S. O. 1877, c. 61, s. 8.

An action to recover personal estate of an intestate or any part thereof, must be brought within twenty years.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Evidence Act." R. S. O., 1877, c. 62, s. 1.

COMPETENCY OF WITNESSES.

Witnesses not to be incapacitated by any

2. No person offered as a witness shall hereafter be excluded by reason of any alleged incapacity from crime or interest from giving evidence, according to the practice of the Court, on the trial of any action, issue, matter or proceeding, in any Court of Ontario, or before any person having, by law or by consent of parties, authority to hear, receive and examine evidence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 2.

3. Every person so offered shall be admitted to give evidence notwithstanding that such person has an interest in the matter in question, or in the event of the trial of any issue, matter, question or inquiry, or of the action or proceeding in which he is offered as a witness, and notwithstanding that such person has been previously convicted of any crime or offence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 3. Such persons admitted to give evidence.

4. On the trial of any action, issue, matter or proceeding in any Court in this Province, or before any person having, by law or by consent of parties, authority to hear, receive and examine evidence, the parties to the proceedings, and the persons in whose behalf the action or other proceeding, is brought or instituted, or opposed, or defended, shall, except as hereinafter excepted, be competent and compellable to give evidence, according to the practice of the Court, on behalf of themselves or of either or any of the parties to the action or proceeding: and the husbands and wives of such parties and persons shall, except as hereinafter excepted, be competent and compellable to give evidence, according to the practice of the Court, on behalf of either or any of the parties to the action or proceeding. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 4. Evidence of parties.

5. Nothing herein contained shall render any person compellable to answer any question tending to criminate himself or to subject him to prosecution for any penalty. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 5. Questions tending to criminate need not be answered.

6. The parties to an action for breach of promise of marriage shall be competent to give evidence in the action: Provided always that no plaintiff in an action for breach of promise of marriage shall recover a verdict unless his or her testimony is corroborated by some other material evidence in support of the promise. 45 V. c. 10, s. 3. Evidence in proceedings for breach of promise.

7. The parties to a proceeding instituted in consequence of adultery, and the husbands and wives of such parties, shall be competent to give evidence in the proceeding: Provided that in such case the husband or wife, if competent only under and by virtue of this Act, shall not be liable to be asked or bound to answer any question tending to shew that he or she has been guilty of adultery, unless he or she shall have already given evidence in the same proceeding in disproof of his or her alleged adultery. 45 V. c. 10, s. 4. Evidence in proceedings in consequence of adultery.

8. No husband shall be compellable to disclose any communication made by his wife during the marriage, and no wife shall be compellable to disclose any communication made to her by her husband during the marriage. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 8. Communications made during marriage.

Evidence in trials under
rio.

9. On the trial of any proceeding, matter or question, under any Act of the Legislature of Ontario, or on the trial of any proceeding, matter or question before any Justice of the Peace, Mayor, or Police Magistrate, in any matter cognizable by such Justice, Mayor, or Police Magistrate, not being a crime, the party opposing or defending, or the wife or husband of the person opposing or defending, shall be competent and compellable to give evidence therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 9.

In actions by or against representatives of a deceased person, the evidence of the opposite party must be corroborated.

10. In any action or proceeding by or against the heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns of a deceased person, an opposite or interested party to the action shall not obtain a verdict, judgment, or decision therein, on his own evidence, in respect of any matter occurring before the death of the deceased person, unless such evidence is corroborated by some other material evidence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 10.

In actions by or against lunatics, etc., evidence of opposite party to be corroborated.

11. In any action or proceeding by or against a person found by inquisition to be of unsound mind, or being an inmate of a lunatic asylum, an opposite or interested party shall not obtain a verdict, judgment, or decision therein, on his own evidence, unless such evidence is corroborated by some other material evidence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 11.

AFFIRMATIONS.

Quakers, Menonists, Tunkers, etc., permitted to make affirmation.

12. In any case in which an oath, declaration or affirmation is required by law, or upon any lawful occasion whatever on which the oath of any person is by law admissible, a Quaker, Menonist or Tunker, or a member of the church known as the "Unitas Fratrum," or the United Brethren, sometimes called the Moravian Church, having first made the following declaration or affirmation, viz.:

"I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I am one of the Society called Quakers, Menonists, Tunkers or Unitas Fratrum or Moravians" (as the case may be);

may make his affirmation or declaration in the form following, that is to say:

"I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely and truly affirm and declare," &c.; and such affirmation or declaration shall have the same force and effect to all intents and purposes, in all Courts and all other places, as an oath taken in the usual form. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 12.

Certain persons may make affirmation or declaration instead of oath.

13. If a person called as a witness, or required or desiring to make an affidavit or deposition in a proceeding, or on an occasion whereon or touching a matter respecting which an oath is required, whether on taking office or otherwise, refuses or is unwilling, from alleged conscientious motives, to be sworn, the Court or Judge, or other presiding officer, or person qualified to take affidavits or depositions, may permit such person, instead of being sworn, to make his or her solemn affirmation or declaration in the words following, viz.:

"I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely and truly affirm and declare that the taking of an oath is, according to my religious belief, unlawful; and I do also solemnly, sincerely and truly affirm and declare," &c.:

which solemn affirmation and declaration shall be of the same force and effect as if such person had taken an oath in the usual form. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 13.

14.—(1) If in a Court of justice, a person called to give evidence objects to take an oath, or is objected to as incompetent to take an oath, such person shall, if the presiding Judge is satisfied that the taking of an oath would have no binding effect on his conscience, make the following promise, affirmation, and declaration:

Persons who object or are incompetent to take an oath to be allowed to make a declaration.

"I solemnly promise, affirm, and declare that the evidence given by me to the court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

And upon the person making such solemn affirmation and declaration, his evidence shall be taken in the said proceeding. 45 V. c. 10, s. 5.

(2) The words "Court of justice" and the words "presiding Judge" in this section shall be deemed to include any person having by law authority to administer an oath for the taking of evidence. 45 V. c. 10, s. 2.

Interpretation.

15. Every person authorized or required to administer an oath for any purpose, may administer any affirmation or declaration as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 14.

Persons authorized to administer oaths may administer affirmation.

SUBPŒNAS.

16. Where a party in an action desires to call the opposite party as a witness at the trial, he shall either subpœna such party or give to him or his solicitor at least eight days' notice of the intention to examine him as a witness in the cause, and if such party does not attend on the notice or subpœna, his non-attendance shall be taken as an admission pro confesso against him in the action, unless otherwise ordered by the Judge and a general finding or judgment may be had against the party thereon or the plaintiff may be non-suited, or the proceedings in the action may be postponed by the Judge, on such terms as he sees fit to impose. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 18.

A party to any action may be summoned as a witness by the opposite party, and consequences of non-attendance.

ISSUE OF SUBPŒNAS INTO ANY PART OF ONTARIO OR QUEBEC.

[Sections 4-11 and 13 of C. S. C. c. 79, are as follows :

Courts may issue subpoenas to any part of Canada.

4. If in any action or suit depending in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity in Canada, it appears to the Court, or when not sitting, it appears to any Judge of the Court, that it is proper to compel the personal attendance at any trial, or enquête or examination of witnesses, of any person who may not be within the jurisdiction of the Court in which the action or suit is pending, the Court or Judge, in their or his discretion, may order that a writ called a writ of subpoena ad testificandum or of subpoena duces tecum shall issue in special form, commanding such person to attend as a witness at such trial or enquête or examination of witnesses wherever he may be in Canada. 18 V. c. 9, s. 1.

Service thereof in any part of Canada to be good.

5. The service of any such writ or process in any part of Canada shall be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been served within the jurisdiction of the Court from which it has issued, according to the practice of such Court. 18 V. c. 9, s. 1.

When not to be issued.

6. No such writ shall be issued in any case in which an action is pending for the same cause of action, in that section of the Province, whether Upper or Lower Canada respectively, within which such witness or witnesses may reside. 18 V. c. 9, s. 1.

Writs to be specially noted.

7. Every such writ shall have at the foot, or in the margin thereof, a statement or notice that the same is issued by the special order of the Court or Judge making such order and no such writ shall issue without such special order. 18 V. c. 9, s. 2.

Consequences of disobedience.

8. In case any person so served does not appear according to the exigency of such writ or process, the Court out of which the same issued may, upon proof made of the service thereof, and of such default, to the satisfaction of such Court, transmit a certificate of such default, under the seal of the same Court, to any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity in that part of Canada in which the person so served may reside, being out of the jurisdiction of the Court transmitting such certificate, and the Court to which such certificate is sent, shall thereupon proceed against and punish such person so having made default, in like manner as they might have done if such person had neglected or refused to appear to a writ of subpoena or other similar process issued out of such last mentioned Court. 18 V. c. 9, s. 3.

If expenses paid or tendered.

9. No such certificate of default shall be transmitted by any Court, nor shall any person be punished for neglect or refusal to attend any trial or enquête or examination of witnesses, in obedience to any such subpoena or other similar process, unless it be made to appear to the Court transmitting and also to the Court receiving such certificate, that a reasonable and sufficient sum of money, according to the rate per diem and per mile allowed to witnesses by the law and practice of the Superior Courts of Law within the jurisdiction of which such person was found, to defray the expenses of coming and attending to give evidence and of returning from giving evidence, had been tendered to such person at the time when the writ of subpoena, or other similar process, was served upon him. 18 V. c. 9, s. 3.

How service proved.

10. The service of such writs of subpoena or other similar process in Lower Canada, shall be proved by the certificate of a Bailiff within the jurisdiction where the service has been made, under his oath of office, and such service in Upper Canada by the affidavit of service endorsed on or annexed to such writ by the person who served the same. 18 V. c. 9, s. 3.

Costs of attendance provided for.

11. The costs of the attendance of any such witness shall not be taxed against the adverse party to such suit, beyond the amount that would have been allowed on a commission rogatoire, or to examine witnesses, unless the Court or Judge before whom such trial or enquête or examination of witnesses is had, so orders. 18 V. c. 9, s. 4.

13. Nothing herein contained shall affect the power of any Court to issue a commission for the examination of witnesses out of its jurisdiction, nor affect the admissibility of any evidence at any trial or proceeding, where such evidence is now by law receivable, on the ground of any witness being beyond the jurisdiction of the Court. 18 V. c. 9, ss. 6, 7.] Power to issue commissions to examine witnesses preserved.

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES.

17. Upon the trial of any cause a witness may be cross-examined as to previous statements made by him in writing or reduced into writing, relative to the subject matter of the cause, without the writing being shewn to him; but if it is intended to contradict the witness by the writing, his attention must, before such contradictory proof can be given, be called to those parts of the writing which are to be used for the purpose of so contradicting him; and the Judge at any time during the trial, may require the production of the writing for his inspection, and he may thereupon make such use of it for the purposes of the trial as he thinks fit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 24. Proof of contradictory written statements.

18. If a witness upon cross-examination as to a former statement made by him relative to the subject matter of the cause, and inconsistent with his present testimony, does not distinctly admit that he did make such statement, proof may be given that he did in fact make it; but before such proof can be given, the circumstances of the supposed statement, sufficient to designate the particular occasion, must be mentioned to the witness, and he must be asked whether or not he did make such statement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 25. Proof of contradictory oral statements.

19. —(1) A witness may be questioned as to whether he has been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor, and upon being so questioned, if he either denies the fact or refuses to answer, the opposite party may prove the conviction; and a certificate containing the substance and effect only (omitting the formal part) of the indictment and conviction for the offence, purporting to be signed by the clerk of the Court or other officer having the custody of the records of the Court at which the offender was convicted, or by the deputy of the clerk or officer, shall, upon proof of the identity of the witness as such convict, be sufficient evidence of his conviction, without proof of the signature or of the official character of the person appearing to have signed the certificate. Proof of previous conviction of a witness may be given if he denies it, etc.

(2) For such certificate a fee of $1 and no more may be demanded or taken. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 26. Fee.

20. A party producing a witness shall not be allowed to impeach his credit by general evidence of bad character, but in case the witness, in the opinion of the Judge, proves adverse, such party may contradict him by other evidence, or, by leave of the Judge, may prove that the witness made at other times How far a party may discredit his own witness.

a statement inconsistent with his present testimony ; but before such last mentioned proof can be given, the circumstances of the supposed statement, sufficient to designate the particular occasion, must be mentioned to the witness, and he must be asked whether or not he did make such statement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 27.

PUBLIC AND OTHER DOCUMENTS.

Official Documents.

Ontario Orders in Council, etc., printed by Queen's Printer and published with Statutes, to be prima facie evidence.

21. A copy of an Order in Council purporting to be made by the Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator of the Government of Ontario, and a copy of a departmental or other regulation purporting to be made by the said Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator in Council, or by any other person or persons authorized by law to make such regulation, purporting to be printed by the Queen's Printer at Toronto, and published with the Statutes of Ontario, shall be received in any Court as prima facie evidence of the tenor of the order or regulation. 48 V. c. 13, s. 9.

22. A copy of an Order in Council purporting to be made by the Governor-General of Canada, or his deputy, or other Chief Executive Officer or Administrator of the Government of Canada, or a copy of a departmental or other regulation made by the said Governor-General or his deputy, or other Chief Executive Officer or Administrator of the Government of Canada, or by any other person or persons authorized by law to make such regulation, purporting to be printed by the Queen's Printer at Ottawa, and published with the Statutes of Canada by the said Queen's Printer shall be received in any Court as prima facie evidence of the tenor of the order or regulation. 48 V. c. 13, s. 10.

How public or official documents proved.

23. In every case in which the original record could be received in evidence, a copy of any official or public document in this Province, purporting to be certified under the hand of the proper officer, or person in whose custody such official or public document is placed, or a copy of a document, by-law, rule, regulation or proceeding, or a copy of any entry in any register or other book of any corporation, created by charter or statute in this Province, purporting to be certified under the seal of the corporation, and the hand of the presiding officer or secretary thereof, shall be receivable in evidence without proof of the seal of the corporation, or of the signature or of the official character of the person or persons appearing to have signed the same, and without further proof thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 28.

Privilege in case of official documents.

24. Where documents are in the official possession, custody or power of a member of the Executive Council, or the Head of a Department of the Public Service of this Province, if the Deputy head or other officer of the Department has the documents in his personal possession, and is called as a witness, he shall be entitled, acting herein by the direction and on behalf of such member of the Executive Council or Head of the Department, to object to produce the documents on the ground that they are privileged; and such objection may be taken by him in the same manner, and shall have the same effect, as if such member of the Executive Council or Head of the Department were personally present and made the objection. 49 V. c. 16, s. 16.

25—(1) Where a book or other document is of so public a nature as to be admissible in evidence on its mere production from the proper custody, and no other statute exists which renders its contents provable by means of a copy, a copy thereof or extract therefrom shall be admissible in evidence in any Court of justice, or before a person having by law or by consent of parties, authority to hear, receive and examine evidence, provided it be proved that it is an examined copy or extract, or that it purports to be signed and certified as a true copy or extract by the officer to whose custody the original has been entrusted.

Copies of public books or documents admissible in evidence.

(2) Such officer shall furnish such certified copy or extract to any person applying for the same at a reasonable time, upon his paying therefor a sum not exceeding ten cents for every folio of one hundred words. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 29.

Copies to be delivered if required.

Certain Statutes.

26. Any copy of the Statutes and Ordinances of the late Province of Lower Canada, printed and published by the printer duly authorized to print and publish the same by Her Majesty, or by any of Her Royal Predecessors, shall be received as conclusive evidence of the several Statutes made and enacted prior to the Union of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada by the Legislature of the Province of Lower Canada, and of the tenor of such Statutes and Ordinances, in any Court of civil jurisdiction in Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 37.

Copies of Acts of L. C. printed by Queen's Printer to be conclusive evidence thereof.

[C. S. C. c. 5, s. 14 (1), also enacts that a similar copy shall be conclusive evidence of such Statutes and Ordinances in Courts of criminal jurisdiction in Ontario.]

Signatures of Judges.

27. All Courts, Judges, Justices, Masters, Clerks of Courts Commissioners judicially acting, and other judicial officers in this Province, shall take judicial notice of the signature of any of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, the Court of Appeal, the High Court of Justice, the County Courts of Ontario, or the Superior or Circuit Courts in Quebec, where such signature is appended or attached to any decree, order, certificate, affidavit, or judicial or official document. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 30.

Judicial notice to be taken of signatures of Judges, &c.

Foreign Judgments.

Foreign judgments, etc., how proved.

28. Any judgment, decree or other judicial proceeding recovered, made, had or taken in the Supreme Court of Judicature in England or Ireland or in any of the Superior Courts of Law, Equity or Bankruptcy in Scotland, or in any Court of Record in any of the Provinces of Canada, or in any British Colony or Possession, or in any Court of Record of the United States or of any State of the United States of America, may be proved in any action or proceeding in Ontario, in which proof of such judgment, decree or judicial proceeding may be necessary or required, by an exemplification of the same under the seal of the Court without any proof of the authenticity of such seal or other proof whatever, in the same manner as any judgment, decree, or similar judicial proceeding of the High Court in Ontario may be proved by an exemplification thereof in any judicial or other proceeding in the said Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 31; 43 V. c. 7, s. 1.

Notarial Documents.

Notarial acts in Quebec admissible.

29. A copy of a notarial act or instrument in writing made in Quebec, before a Notary, filed, enrolled or enregistered by such Notary, and certified by a Notary or Prothonotary to be a true copy of the original thereby certified to be in his possession as such Notary or Prothonotary, shall be receivable in evidence in any judicial or other proceeding in Ontario in the place and stead of the original, and shall have the same force and effect as the original would have if produced and proved. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 32.

How impeached.

30. Such certified copy may be rebutted or set aside by proof that there is no such original, or that the copy is not a true copy of the original in some material particular, or that the original is not an instrument of such nature as may, by the law of Quebec, be taken before a Notary, or be filed, enrolled or enregistered by a Notary in Quebec. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 33.

Protests of Bills and Notes.

Protests prima facie evidence.

31. All protests of bills of exchange and promissory notes shall be received in all Courts as prima facie evidence of the allegations and facts therein contained. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 34.

Certificate of notaries to be prima facie evidence.

32. Any note, memorandum or certificate at any time made by one or more Notaries Public either in Ontario or Quebec, in his own handwriting or signed by him at the foot of or embodied in any protest, or in a regular register of official acts kept by him shall be prima facie evidence in Ontario of the fact of notice of non-acceptance or non-payment of a promissory note or bill of exchange having been sent or delivered, at the time and in the manner stated in such note, certificate or memorandum. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 35.

33. The production of a protest on a promissory note or bill of exchange, under the hand or seal of one or more Notaries Public, either in Ontario or Quebec, in any Court in Ontario, shall be prima facie evidence of the making of such protest. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 36.

Production of protest to be prima facie evidence that protest was made.

Affidavits, etc., made out of Ontario.

34. Oaths, affidavits, affirmations or declarations administered, sworn, affirmed or made out of the Province of Ontario, before some one of the following persons :

Affidavits to be used in Ontario may be made before certain functionaries in the United Kingdom or foreign parts.

A Commissioner authorized to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Judicature in England or Ireland;

A Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England or Ireland;

A Judge of the Court of Session or the Justiciary Court in Scotland;

A Judge of any of the County Courts of Great Britain or Ireland, within his County;

A Notary Public certified under his hand and official seal;

The Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any City, Borough or Town corporate, in Great Britain or Ireland, or in any Colony of Her Majesty, or in any foreign country, and certified under the common seal of such City, Borough, or Town corporate;

A Judge of any Court of Record or of supreme jurisdiction in any Colony belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, or any dependency thereof, or in any foreign country;

Or, if made in the British Possessions in India, before any Magistrate or Collector certified to have been such under the hand of the Governor of such Possession;

Or, if made in Quebec, before a Judge or Prothonotary of the Superior Court or Clerk of the Circuit Court;

Or before any Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent of Her Majesty exercising his functions in any foreign place;

Or before a Commissioner authorized by the laws of Ontario to take affidavits in and for any of the Courts of Record of the Province; for the purposes of and in or concerning any cause, matter or thing depending or in any wise concerning any proceedings in any Courts in this Province, shall be as valid and effectual and shall be of like force and effect to all intents and purposes as if such oath, affidavit, affirmation or declaration had been administered, sworn, affirmed or made in this Province before a Commissioner for taking affidavits therein, or other competent authority of the like nature. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 38; 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

Seal and signature need not be proved.

35. Any document purporting to have affixed, impressed or subscribed thereon or thereto the signature of such Commissioner, or the signature and official seal of such Notary Public, or Prothonotary, or the seal of the Corporation, and the signature of such Mayor or Chief Magistrate or Governor as aforesaid, or the seal and signature of such Judge, Consul, Vice-Consul or Consular Agent in testimony of such oath, affidavit, affirmation or declaration having been administered, sworn, affirmed or made by or before him, shall be admitted in evidence without proof of such signature, or seal and signature, being the signature or the seal and signature of the person whose signature or seal and signature the same purport to be, or of the official character of such person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 39.

Formal Defects in Affidavits.

Informal headings, etc., not to invalidate.

36. No informality in the heading, or other formal requisites to any affidavit, declaration or affirmation, made or taken before a Commissioner or other person authorized to take affidavits under The Act respecting Commissioners for taking Affidavits and Recognizances or under this Act, shall be any objection to its reception in evidence, if the Court or Judge before whom it is tendered thinks proper to receive it. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 40.

Rev. Stat. c. 62.

Depositions.

Copies of depositions certified by person taking the same admissible in evidence.

37. Where an examination of a party or witness has been taken before a Judge or other officer or person appointed to take the same, copies of the examinations and depositions certified under the hand of the Judge, officer or other person taking the same, shall, without proof of the signature, be received and read in evidence, saving all just exceptions. 42 V. c. 15, s. 3.

Proof of Wills.

In actions concerning real estate, probate, etc., to be prima facie evidence of will, etc., after certain notice, save where its validity is put in issue.

38. In any action where it is necessary to produce and prove an original will in order to establish a devise or other testamentary disposition of or affecting real estate, the party intending to establish in proof the devise or other testamentary disposition, may give notice to the opposite party ten days at least before the trial or other proceeding in which the proof is intended to be adduced, that he intends at the trial, or other proceeding to give in evidence as proof of the devise or other testamentary disposition, the probate of the will or letters of administration with the will annexed, or a copy thereof, stamped with the seal of the Surrogate Court granting the same, or with the seal of the Court of Chancery, where the probate or letters of administration were granted by the former Court of Probate for Upper Canada; and in every such case the probate or letters of administration or copy thereof, respectively stamped as aforesaid, shall be sufficient evidence of such will, and of its validity and contents notwithstanding the same may not have been proved in solemn form, or have been otherwise declared valid in a contentious cause or matter, under The Surrogate Courts Act, unless the party receiving the notice within four days after the receipt, gives notice that he disputes the validity of the devise or other testamentary disposition. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 41. Rev. Stat. c. 50.

39. In every case in which in such action the original will is produced and proved, the Court or Judge before whom such evidence is given may direct by which of the parties the costs thereof shall be paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 42. As to costs of proving a will in an action.

40. In case of the death of a person in any of Her Majesty's possessions out of Ontario, after having made a will sufficient to pass real estate in Ontario, and whereby such estate has been devised, charged or affected, and in case such will has been duly proved in any Court having the proof and issuing probate of wills in any of such possessions, and remains filed in such Court, then in case notice of the intention to use such probate or certificate in the place of the original will, is given to the opposite party in such proceeding one month before the same is to be so used, the production of the probate of the will, or a certificate of the Judge, Registrar or Clerk of such Court, that the original is filed and remains in the Court, and purports to have been executed before two witnesses, shall in any proceeding in any Court in Ontario, concerning such real estate, be sufficient prima facie evidence of the will and the contents thereof, and of the same having been executed so as to pass real estate, without the production of the original will; but the probate or certificate shall not be used if, upon cause shewn before such Court, or a Judge thereof, the Court or Judge finds reason to doubt the sufficiency of the execution of the will to pass such real estate as aforesaid, and makes a rule or order disallowing the production of the probate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 43. Proof in the case of will of real estate filed in courts in other British possessions.

41. The production of the certificate, in the last preceding section mentioned, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and of the authority of the Judge, Registrar or Clerk, without proof of his appointment, authority or signature. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 44. Certificate to be prima facie evidence.

Copies of Registered Instruments.

42. The word "instrument" in the next succeeding three sections shall have the meaning assigned to the word "instrument" in section 2 of The Registry Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 47. Meaning of "instrument." Rev. Stat. c. 114, s. 2.

Registered instrument
evidence.

43. An exemplification or a certified copy of any registered instrument or memorial under the hand and seal of office of the Registrar in whose office the same is registered shall be received as prima facie evidence, in every Court in Ontario, of the original of the instrument or memorial, except in the cases provided for in section 45. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 45. See also cap. 114, s. 24.

Instrument with certificate of registration prima facie evidence.

Rev. Stat.
c. 114.

44. In case one of two or more original parts of any instrument is registered, the Registrar shall indorse upon each of such original parts, a certificate of the registration in the form of Schedule G to The Registry Act, and such original so certified shall be received as prima facie evidence of the registration and of the due execution of the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 56.

Certified copies of registered instruments may be used instead of originals after notice.

45. In any action where it would be necessary to produce and prove an original instrument which has been registered in order to establish such instrument and the contents thereof, the party intending to prove such original instrument may give notice to the opposite party ten days at least before the trial, or other proceeding in which the said proof is intended to be adduced, that he intends at the trial or other proceeding to give in evidence, as proof, of the original instrument, a copy thereof certified by the Registrar, under his hand and seal of office, and in every such case the copy so certified shall be sufficient evidence of the original instrument, and of its validity and contents, unless the party receiving the notice within four days after such receipt, gives notice that he disputes the validity of the original instrument, in which case the costs of producing and proving the original may be ordered by the Court or Judge to be paid by any or either of the parties as may be deemed right. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 46.

Exception.

Costs in such cases.

Copies of other written Instruments.

Copies of certain documents may be admitted as evidence on certain conditions.

46.—(1) In any action, or proceeding, in the cases of telegrams, letters, shipping bills, bills of lading, delivery orders, receipts, accounts and other written instruments used in business and other transactions, where it is necessary to prove the original document, the party intending to prove the original may give notice to the opposite party ten days at least before the trial or other proceeding in which the said proof is intended to be adduced, that he intends at the trial or other proceeding to give in evidence as proof of the contents, an instrument purporting to be a copy of the document.

Proviso.

(2) Such copy may then be inspected by the opposite party at some convenient time and place; and in every such case the copy shall without further proof be sufficient evidence of the contents of the original document, and be accepted and taken in lieu of the original, unless the party receiving the notice within four days after the time mentioned therein for such inspection gives notice that he intends to dispute the correctness or genuineness of the copy at the said trial or proceeding, and to require proof of the original; and the Court or Judge, before whom the question is raised may direct by which of the parties the costs which may thereupon attend any production or proof of the original document according to the rules of evidence heretofore existing, shall be paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 48.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

47.—(1) Where upon application for this purpose, it is made to appear to the High Court or a Judge thereof, or to a County Court Judge in this Province, that any Court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction in a foreign country has duly authorized, by commission, order or other process, the obtaining the testimony in or in relation to any action, suit or proceeding pending in or before such foreign Court or tribunal, of any witnesses out of the jurisdiction thereof and within the jurisdiction of the Court or Judge so applied to, such Court or Judge may order the examination before the person appointed, and in a manner and form directed, by the commission, order or other process of such witnesses accordingly; and may by the same order, or a subsequent order, command the attendance of any persons named therein for the purpose of being examined, or the production of any writings or other documents mentioned in the order; and give all such directions as to the time, place and manner of the examination, and all other matters connected therewith as may appear reasonable and just; and the order may be enforced, and any disobedience thereof punished, in like manner as in case of an order made by the same Court or Judge in a cause depending in such Court or before such Judge.

Witness may be ordered to be examined in relation to matter pending before foreign tribunal.

(2) Every person whose attendance is so ordered shall be entitled to the like conduct money and payment for expenses and loss of time as upon attendance at a trial in the High Court.

Payment of expenses of witness.

(3) Every person examined under such commission or other process as aforesaid, shall have the like right to refuse to answer questions tending to criminate himself, and any other questions which, in a case pending in the Court by which or by a Judge whereof or before the Judge by whom the order for examination was made, the witness would be entitled to refuse to answer; and no person shall be compelled to produce at the examination, any writing or document which he would not be compellable to produce at the trial of such a cause.

Right of refusal to answer questions and to produce documents.

(4) Where the commission directs, or the instructions of the Court accompanying the same, direct that the person to be examined shall be sworn or shall affirm before the commissioner or other person, the commissioner or other person shall have authority to administer an oath or affirmation to the person to be examined as aforesaid. 47 V. c. 10, s. 12.

Evidence in actions where in any person resident in Great Britain is a party.

48. In an action or other proceeding relating to any debt or account (other than an action by or on behalf of Her Majesty), wherein a person residing in Great Britain is a party, the evidence and examination of witnesses on behalf of either or any of the parties to the action or proceeding, shall be the same, and given in the same manner as in other actions or proceedings according to the practice of the Court. 45 V. c. 10, s. 6.

Evidence in actions.

Rev. Stat. c. 112, s. 1.

49. It shall not be necessary in an action to produce any evidence which by section 1 of The Act to amend the Law of Vendor and Purchaser and to Simplify Titles, is dispensed with as between vendor and purchaser; and the evidence therein declared to be sufficient as between vendor and purchaser shall be prima facie sufficient for the purposes of such action. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 49.

Attesting witness need not be called where he was required by law.

50. It shall not be necessary to prove by the attesting witness, any instrument to the validity of which attestation is not requisite, and such instrument may be proved by admission or otherwise, as if there had been no attesting witness thereto. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 50.

Comparison of disputed writing with genuine.

51. Comparison of a disputed writing with any writing proved to the satisfaction of the Judge to be genuine, shall be permitted to be made by witnesses; and such writings and the evidence of witnesses respecting the same, may be submitted to the Court and jury, as evidence of the genuineness or otherwise of the writing in dispute. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 51.

When instruments offered in evidence may be impounded.

52. Where a document is received in evidence by virtue of this Act, the Court, Judge, Commissioner or other person acting or officiating judicially, who admits the same, may, direct the same to be impounded and kept in the custody of an officer of the Court, or other person, for such period and subject to such conditions as to the Court or person who admits the document seems meet, or until further order touching the same has been made either by such Court or by the Court to which the officer belongs, or by the person or persons who constituted such Court, or by some one of the Judges of the High Court or a County Court (as the case may be), on application made for that purpose. R. S. O. 1877, c. 62, s. 52.

[See also the Act to amend the Law of Vendor and Purchaser and to Simplify Titles, Rev. Stat. c. 112.]

CHAPTER 62.

An Act respecting Commissioners for taking Affidavits and Recognizances.

COMMISSIONERS FOR TAKING AFFIDAVITS AND RECOGNIZANCES IN ONTARIO, ss. 1-9.	COMMISSIONERS FOR TAKING AFFIDAVITS IN OTHER PROVINCES FOR USE IN ONTARIO, s. 11.
COMMISSIONERS WITHOUT ONTARIO, ss. 10, 11.	AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONERS, s. 12.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

COMMISSIONERS WITHIN ONTARIO.

1. The Justices of the High Court or any two of them of whom the President of any Division of the said Court shall be one are hereby authorized to issue under the seal of the Supreme Court commissions, and the commissioners so appointed shall have the same powers as commissioners who have been appointed under any previous statute in that behalf, from time to time empowering such and so many persons as they think fit and necessary in the several counties within Ontario or in any Temporary Judicial District, Provisional Judicial District, Territorial District, or Provisional County, or in any other territory, not being part of any such district or of any county, to take and receive all and every such affidavits and affirmations (in cases where by law an affirmation is allowed) as any person or persons desire to make in or concerning any cause, matter or thing depending, or in any wise concerning any of the proceedings in the Courts of the Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 63, s. 1; c. 80 s. 1; 45 V. c. 11, s. 1, part.

Appointment of Commissioners for taking affidavits.

2. The Justices aforesaid, may from time to time empower so many of the said commissioners, or such and so many persons as they think fit and necessary to be commissioners in the several counties in Ontario, to take and receive every such recognizance of bail as any person may at any time desire to acknowledge or make in any action depending in the High Court or County Court in such manner and form and by such recognizance of bail as the Judges of the said Courts may take. R. S. O. 1877, c. 80, s. 1, part; 45 V. c. 11, s. 1, part.

Appointment of commissioners for taking recognizances of bail.

Recognizance to be filed.

3. The recognizance of bail, or bail piece so taken as aforesaid, shall be filed in the office of the Clerk or Deputy Clerk of the Crown in the County in which the same has been taken, together with an affidavit of the due taking thereof by some credible person present at the taking thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 80, s. 2.

Recognizances may be excepted to.

4. Every recognizance so taken and filed shall be of the like effect and subject to exception as to the bail, in like manner and within the same time as if taken in open Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 80, s. 3.

Any Judge of the High Court
may take bail.

5. Any Judge of the High Court may take recognizances of bail in any action, which recognizances shall be filed as aforesaid without an affidavit, and shall be of the like effect as if taken in open Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 80, s. 4.

The Judges and Clerks of County Courts may take affidavits.

6. The Judges and clerks of the several County Courts respectively, may take all affidavits, affirmations and recognizances of bail required to be taken in their respective Courts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 63, s. 6; c. 80, s. 5.

Each commissioner to be an officer of the court.

7. Every commissioner for taking affidavits appointed by the High Court shall be deemed to be an officer of the said Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 63, s. 3.

Revocation of commission.

8. The High Court may revoke the commission of any such commissioner, whether the commission was issued by such Court, or by any Court formerly authorized to issue commissions, and such revocation shall operate as a revocation for all purposes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 63, s. 4.

Commissioners for United Counties resident in Junior County may, after separation, act for Junior County.

9.—(1) All commissioners appointed for any union of counties, and resident within the junior county, at the time of the separation thereof from the union, may exercise the same powers within the junior county to take and receive affidavits and affirmations and to take and receive bail, as if they had received their commissions or appointments respectively for the junior county at the time of the separation of such union of counties.

And for
only.

(2) No commissioner shall have or exercise any such powers by virtue of his commission, save in the junior county. R. S. O. 1877, c. 63, s. 5; c. 80, s. 7.

COMMISSIONERS OUT OF ONTARIO.

Lieutenant-Governor may appoint commissioners for taking affidavits, etc., without Ontario.

10.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may, by commission under his hand and seal, from time to time empower such persons as he thinks fit and necessary to administer oaths and take and receive affidavits, declarations and affirmations without this Province in or concerning any cause, matter or thing depending or in anywise concerning any of the proceedings to be had in the High Court or any other Court in this Province, and every oath, affidavit, declaration, or affirmation taken or made as aforesaid shall be as valid and effectual, and shall be of the like force and effect to all intents and purposes as if such oath, affidavit, declaration or affirmation had been administered, taken, sworn, made or affirmed before a commissioner for taking affidavits within the Province, or other competent authority.

Effect of such affidavits, etc.

(2) The commissioners so appointed shall be styled "Commissioners for taking affidavits in and for the courts in Ontario." R. S. O. 1877, c. 63, s. 7.

Style of commissioners.

11. The Justices of the High Court or any two of them, of whom the President of any Division of the said Court shall be one, are hereby authorized to issue under the seal of the Supreme Court commissions from time to time empowering such and so many persons as they think fit and necessary to take and receive affidavits in any Province in the Dominion, in or concerning any cause, matter or thing depending, or in anywise concerning any of the proceedings to be had in the said Court, or in any other Court of Record in Ontario; and every affidavit taken as aforesaid shall be of the same force as if taken in the particular Court in which the same is entitled or intended to be used. R. S. O. 1877, c. 63, s. 8.

AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONERS, ETC.

12. Every commissioner heretofore or hereafter appointed for taking affidavits and affirmations within this Province, and every person heretofore or hereafter authorized to take affidavits to be used in any Court of this Province, may take affidavits and affirmations which any person desires to make in or concerning any action or proceeding pending in the High Court, and in the Court of Appeal, and in any County or Division Court, or before a Judge or Judges of any of said Courts, and in or concerning any application or matter made or pending before any Judge of any Court in the Province which, by any statute now or hereafter in force in Ontario, and within the legislative authority of the Province, such Judge is authorized to hear and determine, or in which he is authorized to make any order, although the application or matter be not made or pending in any Court and may also take any affidavit or affirmation authorized to be made by any statute. R. S. O. 1877, c. 63, s. 9; 44 V. c. 5, s. 73.

The commissioners, etc., may take affidavits in all courts or in matters pending before a Judge and affidavits authorized to be made by any statute.

[See also The Registry Act, c. 114, for powers under that Act.]

[As to powers of Notaries Public to act as Commissioners see Cap. 153.]

CHAPTER 63.

An Act respecting the Costs of Distress.

FEES WHICH MAY BE CHARGED, s. 1.

PENALTY FOR EXACTING UNAUTHORIZED FEES, ss. 2-6.

Costs where complaint unfounded, s. 7.

Landlord not liable unless he personally made levy, s. 8.

Right of action unaffected, s. 9.

Forms of orders, etc., s. 10.

COPY OF CHARGES TO BE GIVEN WITH DISTRESS, s. 11.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Fees to be charged, and services for which the same may be charged.

1. No person making distress for rent or for a penalty where the sum demanded and due does not exceed $80, in respect of the rent or penalty, and no person employed in making the distress, or doing any act in the course of the distress, or for carrying the same into effect, shall take or receive, from any person or out of the produce of the chattels distrained and sold, any other costs in respect of the distress, than such as are set forth in Schedule A hereunto annexed, and no person shall make a charge for anything mentioned in the said Schedule, unless such thing has been really done. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 1.

Penalty for extortion.

2. If a person offends against any of the provisions in the preceding section the party aggrieved may apply to a Justice of the Peace for the county, city or town where the offence was committed, for the redress of the grievance, whereupon the Justice shall summon the person complained of to appear before him, at a reasonable time to be fixed in the summons, and the Justice shall examine into and hear the complaint and defence; and if it appears that the person complained of has so offended, the Justice shall order and adjudge treble the amount of the money unlawfully taken and full costs to be paid by the offender to the party aggrieved. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 2.

How penalty to be levied.

3. In case of non-payment of money or costs so adjudged the Justice shall forthwith issue his warrant to levy the same by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party convicted, rendering to him the overplus, if any. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 3.

Commitment.

4. In case no sufficient distress can be had, the Justice shall by warrant under his hand and seal, commit the party to the Common Gaol within the limits of his jurisdiction, there to remain until the order or judgment is satisfied. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 4.

5. The Justice, at the request of either party, may summon and examine witnesses, and may administer an oath to them touching the complaint, or defence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 5. Justice may summon witnesses.

6. If a person so summoned neglects to obey the summons without reasonable or lawful excuse, or refuses to be examined upon oath (or affirmation, as the case may be), he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding $8, to be adjudged, levied and paid in such manner, and by such means, and with such power of commitment, as hereinbefore directed with respect to orders and judgments made or given at the instance of original complainants, excepting as regards the form thereof, which may be as the Justice thinks fit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 6. Penalty for disobeying.

7. If the Justice finds that the complaint of the party aggrieved is not well founded, he may order and adjudge costs, not exceeding $4, to be paid by the complainant to the party complained against, which order shall be carried into effect and levied and paid in the manner hereinbefore directed with respect to orders and judgments made or given at the instance of original complainants. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 7. Costs where complaint unfounded.

8. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall empower the Justice to make any order or judgment against the landlord for whose benefit the distress has been made, unless the landlord personally levied the distress. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 8. Justices not to make orders against landlord, etc.

9. No person aggrieved by a distress for rent or a penalty, or by any proceeding had in the course thereof, or by any costs or charges levied upon him in respect of the same, shall be barred from any action or remedy which he might have had before the passing of this Act, except so far as any complaint preferred under this Act has been determined by the order and judgment of the Justice before whom it has been heard and determined; and in case the matter of the complaint is made the subject of an action, the order and judgment may be given in evidence, under the defence of not guilty. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 10. Party aggrieved by distress for rent not barred of his action, etc.

10. Orders and judgments on such complaints shall be made in the words or to the effect of the forms given in Schedule B hereunto annexed; and may be proved before any Court, by proof of the signature of the Justice to such orders and judgments. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 11. Form of order and judgment.

11. Every person who makes and levies a distress shall give a copy of demand, and of all the costs and charges of the distress, signed by him, to the person on whose goods and chattels the distress is levied, although the amount of the rent or penalty demanded exceeds the sum of $80. R. S. O. 1877, c. 65, s. 9. See also Cap. 143, s. 27. Persons levying distress to give copy of charges to party distrained.

CHAPTER 64.

• An Act respecting Execution.

SHORT TITLE, s. 1.	Money and securities, ss. 17-20.
GOODS EXEMPT FROM SEIZURE, ss. 2-7.	WHAT MAY BE SOLD UNDER EXECUTION AGAINST LANDS:
DEBTS EXEMPT FROM SEIZURE, s. 8.	Equity of redemption of lands, ss. 21-24.
WHAT MAY BE SEIZED UNDER EXECUTION AGAINST GOODS:	Contingent interests, s. 25.
Stocks in certain companies, ss. 9-15.	SALES AGAINST EXECUTORS, s. 26.
Equity of redemption of goods or chattels mortgaged, s. 16.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Execution Act." R. S. O. Short title. 1877, c. 66, s. 1.

EXEMPTION.

2. The following chattels are hereby declared exempt from seizure under any writ, in respect of which this Province has legislative authority, issued out of any Court whatever in this Province, namely:

1. The bed, bedding and bedsteads (including a cradle), in ordinary use by the debtor and his family;

2. The necessary and ordinary wearing apparel of the debtor and his family;

3. One cooking stove with pipes and furnishings, one other heating stove with pipes, one crane and its appendages, one pair of andirons, one set of cooking utensils, one pair of tongs and shovel, one coal scuttle, one lamp, one table, six chairs, one washstand with furnishings, six towels, one looking glass, one hair brush, one comb, one bureau, one clothes press, one clock, one carpet, one cupboard, one broom, twelve knives, twelve forks, twelve plates, twelve tea cups, twelve saucers, one sugar basin, one milk jug, one tea pot, twelve spoons, two pails, one wash tub, one scrubbing brush, one blacking brush, one wash board, three smoothing irons, all spinning wheels and weaving looms in domestic use, one sewing machine and attachments in domestic use, thirty volumes of books, one axe, one saw, one gun, six traps, and such fishing nets and seines as are in common use, the articles in this subdivision enumerated, not exceeding in value the sum of $150;

Fuel and provisions.

4. All necessary fuel, meat, fish, flour and vegetables, actually provided for family use, not more than sufficient for the ordinary consumption of the debtor and his family for thirty days, and not exceeding in value the sum of $40 ;

Animals.

5. One cow, six sheep, four hogs, and twelve hens, in all not exceeding the value of $75, and food therefor for thirty days, and one dog ;

Tools.

6. Tools and implements of or chattels ordinarily used in the debtor's occupation, to the value of $100 ;

Bees.

7. Bees reared and kept in hives to the extent of fifteen hives. 50 V. c. 10, s. 1.

Debtor may take proceeds of sale of implements, etc., in money.

3. The debtor may in lieu of tools and implements of or chattels ordinarily used in his occupation referred to in subdivision 6 of section 2 of this Act, elect to receive the proceeds of the sale thereof up to $100, in which case the officer executing the writ shall pay the net proceeds of such sale if the same shall not exceed $100, or, if the same shall exceed $100, shall pay that sum to the debtor in satisfaction of the debtor's right to exemption under said subdivision 6, and the sum to which a debtor shall be entitled hereunder shall be exempt from attachment or seizure at the instance of a creditor. 50 V. c. 10, s. 2.

Goods exempted from seizure after death of the debtor to go to widow and family.

4. The chattels so exempt from seizure as against a debtor shall, after his death, be exempt from the claims of creditors of the deceased, and the widow shall be entitled to retain the exempted goods for the benefit of herself and the family of the debtor, or, if there is no widow, the family of the debtor shall be entitled to the exempted goods and the goods so exempt shall not be liable to seizure under attachment against the debtor as an absconding debtor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 3.

Right of selection.

5. The debtor, his widow or family, or, in the case of infants, their guardian, may select out of any larger number the several chattels exempt from seizure. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 4.

Exception.

6. Nothing herein contained shall exempt any article enumerated in subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 of section 2 of this Act from seizure in satisfaction of a debt contracted for the identical article. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 5.

Goods liable to seizure to continue so liable for debts contracted before Oct. 1, 1887.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in the next preceding five sections, the various goods and chattels which are now liable to seizure in execution for debt shall, as respects debts which have already been or shall be contracted prior to the first day of October, 1887, remain liable to seizure and sale in execution provided that the writ of execution under which they are seized has endorsed upon it a certificate signed by the Judge of the Court out of which the writ issues certifying that it is for the recovery of a debt contracted before the date hereinbefore mentioned. 50 V. c. 10, s. 3.

WHAT MAY BE SEIZED UNDER EXECUTION AGAINST GOODS.

1. Stocks in certain Companies.

8.—(1) No debt due or accruing to a mechanic, workman, labourer, servant, clerk or employee, for or in respect of his wages or salary, shall be liable to seizure or attachment, unless such debt exceeds the sum of $25, and then only to the extent of such excess.

Debts due to mechanics, etc., for wages, not to be attached, except to excess over $25

(2) Nothing in the preceding sub-section contained shall affect or impair the right or remedies of any creditor whose debt has been contracted before the first day of October, 1874. R. S. O. 1877, c. 50, ss. 318, 319.

Saving clause as to debts created before 1st Oct., 1874.

9. All shares and dividends of stockholders in any incorporated bank or other incorporated company in Ontario, having transferable joint stock, shall be held to be personal property, and shall be liable to bona fide creditors for debts, and may be attached, seized and sold under writs of execution in like manner as other personal property. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 20.

Shares and dividends etc., liable to seizure, etc.

10. The sheriff to whom a writ of execution is addressed, on being informed on behalf of the plaintiff that the defendant has such stock, and on being required to seize the same, shall forthwith serve a copy of the writ on the company with a notice that all the shares which the defendant has in the stock of the company are seized accordingly; and from the time of service no transfer of the stock by the defendant shall be valid, unless and until the seizure has been discharged; and every seizure, and sale made under the same, shall include all dividends, premiums, bonuses, or other pecuniary profits upon the shares seized, and the same shall not after notice as aforesaid, be paid by the company to any one, except the person to whom the shares have been sold by the sheriff, unless and until the seizure is discharged, on pain of paying the same twice. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 21.

Sheriff to serve a copy of the writ on the company with notice of seizure.

Stock not to be transferred while under seizure and sale under seizure to include all dividends, etc.

11. If the company has more than one place where service of process may be made upon them, and there is some place where transfers of stock may be notified to and entered by the company so as to be valid as regards the company, or where dividends or profits as aforesaid on stock may be paid other than the place where service of such notice has been made, the notice shall not affect any transfer or payment of dividends or profits duly made and entered at any such other place, so as to subject the company to pay twice, or to affect the rights of any bona fide purchaser, until after the expira-

Provisions for the case of the company having more than one place where service of process may be legally made upon them.

tion of a period from the time of service sufficient for the transmission of notice of service by post from the place where it has been made to such other place, which notice it shall be the duty of the company to transmit by post. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 22.

Shares to be personal property at the place where notice of seizure served.

12. The shares in the said stock shall be held to be personal property, found by the sheriff in the place where notice of the seizure thereof is served as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 23.

Mode of proceeding to sale.

13. Where such share is sold under a writ of execution, the sheriff, by whom the writ has been executed, shall, within ten days after sale, serve upon the company at some place where service of process may be made, an attested copy of the writ of execution, with his certificate endorsed thereon, certifying the name of the purchaser who shall thereafter be the holder of the share, and shall have the same rights, and be under the same obligations as if he had duly purchased the share from the proprietor thereof; and the proper officer of the company shall enter such sale as a transfer in the manner by law provided. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 24.

Saving of all other remedies.

14. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to impair the effect of any remedy which the plaintiff might, without this Act, have had against any shares of such stock as aforesaid, by attachment or otherwise, and the provisions of the next preceding four sections shall apply to such remedy in so far as they can be applied thereto. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 25.

What shall be deemed incorporated companies.

15. All corporations, established for the purpose of trade or profit, or for the construction of any work, or for any purpose from which revenue is intended to be derived, shall be deemed incorporated companies for the purpose of the next preceding six sections of this Act, though they are not called companies in the Act or charter incorporating them. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 26.

2. Interest of a mortgagor in goods mortgaged.

The interest of a mortgagor in goods mortgaged may be sold in execution.

16. Under any writ of execution against goods, the sheriff or other officer to whom the same is directed may seize and sell the interest or equity of redemption in any goods or chattels, including leasehold interests in any lands, of the party against whom the writ has issued, and such sale shall convey whatever interest the mortgagor had in the goods and chattels at the time of the seizure. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 27.

3. Money and Securities.

Sheriff may seize money and securities for money.

17. The sheriff or other officer having the execution of a writ against goods sued out of the High Court, or out of a County Court, shall seize any money or bank-notes (including any surplus of a former execution against the debtor), and any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, mortgages, specialties, or other securities for money, belonging to the person against whose effects the writ of execution has issued, Rev. Stat. c. 65. and subject to the provisions of The Creditors' Relief Act, shall pay or deliver to the party who sued out the execution, the money or bank-notes so seized, or a sufficient part thereof, and shall hold such cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or other securities for money, as security for the amount by the writ and endorsement thereon directed to be levied, or so much thereof as has not been otherwise levied or raised, and the sheriff or other officer may sue in his own name for the recovery of the sums secured thereby, when the time of payment thereof has arrived. Money seized to be paid over to execution creditor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 28. Sheriff to sue for securities.

18. The payment to the sheriff or other officer by the party liable on such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty or other security, with or without suit, or the recovery and levying execution against the party so liable, shall discharge him to the extent of such payment or of such recovery and levy in execution (as the case may be), from his liability thereon. Payment to sheriff to be valid R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 29.

19. Subject to the provisions of The Creditors' Relief Act, the sheriff or other officer shall pay over to the party who sued out the writ the money so recovered, or a sufficient sum to discharge the amount by the writ directed to be levied, and if, after satisfaction of the amount together with sheriff's poundage and expenses, a surplus remains in the hands of the sheriff or other officer, the same shall be paid to the party against whom the writ issued. Sheriff to pay over proceeds. Rev. Stat. c. 65. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, ss. 30, 31. Surplus to be paid to the execution debtor.

20. No sheriff or other officer shall be bound to sue any party liable upon such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty or other security, unless the party who sued out the execution enters into a bond with two sufficient sureties to indemnify the sheriff or officer from all costs and expenses to be incurred in the prosecution of the action, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof; and the expenses of the bond may be deducted out of any money recovered in the action. Sheriff not bound to sue until indemnified. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 32.

WHAT MAY BE SOLD UNDER EXECUTION AGAINST LANDS.

1. Equity of Redemption.

21. Wherever the word "mortgagor" occurs in the next succeeding three sections, it shall be read and construed as if the words "his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or person having the equity of redemption," were inserted immediately after the word "mortgagor." Interpretation R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 38.

The interest of a mortgagor in lands mortgaged may be sold
in execution.

22.—(1) The sheriff or other officer to whom a writ of execution against the lands and tenements of a mortgagor of real estate is directed, may seize, sell and convey all the interest of the mortgagor in the mortgaged lands and tenements.

(2) The equity of redemption in a freehold mortgage of real estate shall be saleable under an execution against the lands and tenements of the owner of the equity of redemption in his lifetime, or in the hands of his executors or administrators after his death, subject to the mortgage, in the same manner as lands and tenements can now be sold under an execution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 35.

The effect of

23. The effect of the seizure or taking in execution, sale and conveyance, of mortgaged lands and tenements, shall be to vest in the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, all the interest of the mortgagor therein at the time the writ was placed in the hands of the sheriff or other officer to whom the same is directed, as well as at the time of the sale, and to vest in the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, the same rights as the mortgagor would have had if the sale had not taken place; and the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, may pay, remove or satisfy any mortgage, charge or lien which at the time of the sale existed upon the lands or tenements so sold, in like manner as the mortgagor might have done, and thereupon the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, shall acquire the same estate, right and title as the mortgagor would have acquired in case the payment, removal or satisfaction had been effected by the mortgagor; and on payment of the mortgage money to the mortgagee by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, the mortgagee, his heirs or assigns, shall, if required, give to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, at his or their charge, a certificate of payment or satisfaction of the mortgage, which certificate may be in the following form, that is to say:

To the Registrar of the County of

G. H., of , } Witnesses.

And such certificate shall be of the like effect, and shall be acted upon by registrars and others to the same extent as if the same had been given to the mortgagor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 66, s. 36.

24. A mortgagee of lands and tenements so sold, or the heirs or assigns of the mortgagee (being or not being plaintiff or defendant in the judgment whereon the writ of execution under which the sale takes place has issued), may be the purchaser at the sale, and shall acquire the same estate, interest and rights thereby as any other purchaser: but in the event of the mortgagee becoming the purchaser, he shall give to the mortgagor a release of the mortgage debt; and if another person becomes the purchaser, and if the mortgagee enforces payment of the mortgage debt against the mortgagor, then the purchaser shall repay the debt and interest to the mortgagor, and in default of payment thereof within one month after demand, the mortgagor may recover the debt and interest from the purchaser, and shall have a charge therefor upon the mortgaged lands. HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Creditors' Relief Act." 43 V. c. 10, s. 1.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act the word "sheriff" shall include coroners; the word "judge" shall mean the judge of the county court of the county or district in which the claims are filed, and shall include a junior or deputy-judge, or a judge of another county authorized to act for the judge of the county court in which the claims are filed. If a judge is disqualified to act in a matter arising under this Act, the Judge of the County Court of an adjoining county shall have jurisdiction to act in his place.

43 V. c. 10, s. 2.

3. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, there shall be no priority among creditors by execution from the High Court or County Courts. 43 V. c. 10, s. 4.

4.—(1) In case a sheriff levies money upon an execution against the property of a debtor, he shall forthwith enter in a book to be kept in his office, open to public inspection without charge, a notice stating that such levy has been made, and the amount thereof; and the money shall thereafter be distributed ratably, amongst all execution creditors and other creditors whose writs, or certificates given under this Act, were in the sheriff's hands at the time of the levy, or who shall deliver their writs or certificates to the said sheriff within one month from the entry of notice; subject, however, to the provisions hereinafter contained as to the retention of dividends in the case of contested claims, and to the payment of the costs of the creditor under whose writ the amount was made.

(2) The notice shall state the day upon which it was entered and may be in Form A, given in the schedule hereto. 43 V. c. 10, s. 5 (1, 2); 49 V. c. 16, s. 35.

(3) Where proceedings are taken by the sheriff or other officer for relief under any provisions relating to interpleader, those creditors only who are parties thereto and who agree to contribute pro rata (in proportion to the amount of their executions or certificates) to the expense of contesting any adverse claim, shall be entitled to share in any benefit which may be derived from the contestation of such claim so far as may be necessary to satisfy their executions or certificates. The Court or Judge may direct that one creditor shall have the carriage of the interpleader proceedings on behalf of all creditors interested, and the costs thereof, as between solicitor and client shall be a first charge upon the moneys or goods which may be found by the proceedings to be applicable upon the executions or certificates. 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

(4) In case the sheriff shall, subsequently to the entry of the notice, but within the month, levy a further amount from the property of a debtor, the same shall be dealt with as if such amount had been levied prior to the entry of the notice, but if after the month a further amount is levied a new notice shall be entered; and the distribution to be made of the amount so levied and of the further amount levied within a month of the entry of the last mentioned notice shall be governed by the entry thereof in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section; and so on from time to time. 43 V. c. 10, s. 5 (3).

[As to rights of employees of execution debtors, see Cap. 127.]

solicitor.

5. No creditor shall be entitled to share in the distribution of money levied from the property of a debtor unless either by the delivery of a writ of execution, or otherwise under this Act, he has established a claim against the debtor either alone or jointly with some other person. 43 V. c. 10, s. 6.

Proceedings where debtor allows executions to remain unsatisfied.

6. If a debtor permits an execution issued against him under which any of his goods or chattels are seized by a sheriff, to remain unsatisfied in the sheriff's hands till within two days of the time fixed by the sheriff for the sale thereof, or for twenty days after the seizure, or allows an execution against his lands to remain unsatisfied for nine months after it is placed in the sheriff's hands, the proceedings hereinafter authorized may be taken by other creditors as claimants in respect of debts which are overdue. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7, 1st part.

Affidavit by creditor.

7.—(1) An affidavit to the effect of form B, in the schedule to the Act, of the debt and the particulars thereof, may be made in duplicate by the creditor, or by one of the creditors in case of a joint debt, or by a person cognizant of the facts. Prior to or simultaneously with the filing with the clerk of the County Court of the affidavit, there shall be filed with the clerk the certificate of the sheriff, or an affidavit, shewing that such proceedings have been had against the debtor as entitle the creditor to proceed under this Act.

debtor.

(2) The claimant is to serve on the debtor one of the duplicates, and a notice stating that the claimant intends to file the other duplicate with the clerk of the County Court by reason of there being in the sheriff's hands a writ of execution against the goods and chattels (or lands) of the debtor, and that the claimant intends to call on the sheriff to levy the said debt out of the property of the debtor under the authority of this Act: which notice is to contain the other particulars, and may be in the form C, given in the schedule to this Act. The notice may be either attached to the affidavit served, or endorsed thereon; where the affidavit is to be served out of Ontario the Judge shall limit the time at which the next step may be taken by the claimant as hereinafter provided. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (1, 2).

debtor of address for service.

8.—(1) An execution debtor may give notice in writing to the sheriff that any claims to be served upon him may be served upon any solicitor in the Province, whose name and address shall be given, or by mailing the same to an address stated in the notice: the sheriff shall thereupon enter the notice in the said book, and so long as any execution, which was in the sheriff's hands at the time the notice was given shall remain in his hands, shall repeat such entry immediately below any notice (Form A) given in respect of the execution, unless the notice be revoked in writing, in which case the entry or entries thereof shall be marked "revoked ;"

(2) So long as the notice remains unrevoked as aforesaid, an affidavit of claim and accompanying notice under this Act, may be served upon an execution debtor by serving the same upon the solicitor in accordance with this Act, where a solicitor is named, or if mailing is required, then by mailing the same, enclosed in an envelope, prepaid and registered, to the address given in the notice.

Who entitled to share in distribution.

(3) In case the notice (Form C) served on a debtor does not state some place in or within three miles of the county town of the county in which the proceedings are being taken, at which service may be made upon the claimant, or does not give the name and address of some solicitor in the Province who may be served in the claimant's behalf, service of any notice, paper or document requiring service may be made upon the claimant by mailing the same, prepaid and registered, enclosed in an envelope addressed to the claimant at the county town.

Service on claimant.

(4) The claimant is to file with the clerk of the County Court of the County, the sheriff of which has the execution, one of the said duplicate affidavits of claim, and a copy of the said notice, with an affidavit of due service; which affidavit may be in the Form D.

Affidavits to be filed with clerk of county court.

(5) The copy of affidavit and the notice shall, where practicable, be personally served upon the debtor; but if it be made to appear to a Judge that the claimant is unable to effect prompt personal service, the Judge may order substituted or other service, or may appoint some act to be done which shall be deemed sufficient service. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (3-7).

Mode of service.

9.—(1) If the claim is not contested in manner hereinafter mentioned, the County Court clerk—after ten days from the day of personal service, or service under sub-section 2 of section 8, or within the time mentioned in the order (as the case may be), on application and the filing with him of proof of personal service upon the debtor of an affidavit and notice in accordance with this Act, or proof of compliance with a Judge's order in that behalf, or upon the determination of the dispute in favour of the claimant, either in whole or in part—shall deliver to the creditor, or any one on his behalf, a certificate to the effect of Form E, in the schedule hereto; and in case the claim is only disputed as to a part, the creditor may elect, by a writing filed with the clerk, to abandon such part and obtain a certificate as to the residue.

Certificate to be given to creditor where claim not disputed.

(2) This certificate is to be delivered to the sheriff, and thereby from the time of the delivery the claimant shall be deemed to be an execution creditor within the meaning of this Act, and to be entitled to share in whatever is made under the executions of creditors in the sheriff's hands, as if he had delivered to the sheriff an execution against lands or goods, or both, as the case may be, and the certificate is in like manner to bind the lands and goods of the debtor; subject, however, to the debt being afterwards disputed as hereinafter provided for.

Effect of certificate.

Certificate an execution for interpleader purposes.

Address for service to be endorsed on certificate.

(3) A certificate under this Act shall in interpleader proceedings be deemed to be an execution.

(4) If the certificate is obtained by a solicitor, the name and place of abode of the solicitor are to be endorsed thereon; and if the certificate is sued out by the claimant in person there shall be endorsed thereon a statement of some place in, or within three miles of the county town of the county in which the proceedings are being taken, at which service may be made upon the claimant; and, in default thereof, service of any notice, paper or document requiring service, may be made upon the claimant by mailing the same, prepaid and registered, enclosed in an envelope addressed to the claimant at the county town.

On receipt of certificate sheriff to make further levy.

(5) On receiving the certificate the sheriff shall make a further seizure of the lands and tenements, or goods and chattels, as the case may be (if any), of the debtor to the amount of the debt so claimed, and the sheriff's fees; and so on from time to time in case more notices are received after the further seizure so made. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (8-12).

Disputing claim.

10—(1) The claim may be contested by the execution debtor or by a creditor interested in contesting the same.

Affidavit of debtor.

(2) If the debtor contests the same, he is for that purpose to file with the clerk an affidavit stating that he has a good defence to the claim, or to a specified part of the claim on the merits, but the Judge may dispense with the affidavit on terms or otherwise.

Filing and service of affidavit.

(3) The debtor is to file the affidavit and serve upon the claimant a copy thereof within ten days after the personal service, or service under sub-section 2 of section 8, upon him of the affidavit of claim and the notice, or within the time which the Judge by an order dispensing with personal service directed, or within any further time which the Judge may allow: the affidavit is to have endorsed thereon a statement of some place in, or within three miles of, the county town of the county in which the proceedings are being taken, at which service may be made upon the debtor, or the address of some solicitor in the Province who may be served in the debtor's behalf, and in default thereof, service of any notice, paper, or document requiring service, may be made upon the debtor by mailing the same, prepaid and registered, enclosed in an envelope addressed to the debtor at such county town.

Creditor disputing claim.

(4) If the contest is by a creditor, he is for that purpose to file with the clerk an affidavit to the effect that he has reason to believe that the debt claimed is not really and in good faith due from the debtor to the claimant; but the Judge may dispense with the affidavit on terms or otherwise.

Time for filing affidavit.

(5) Such affidavit by a creditor may be so filed, and a certificate thereof delivered to the sheriff, at any time before distribution is made. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (13-17).

11.—(1) In case of a claim being contested by a creditor after a certificate has been placed in the sheriff's hands, the sheriff, unless the Judge otherwise orders, shall proceed and levy as if such contestation had not been made, and the sheriff shall, until the determination of the contestation, retain in the bank the amount which would be apportionable to the claim if valid, and he shall, as soon after the expiry of the said month as practicable, distribute the residue of the money made amongst those entitled.

Distribution by sheriff in case of contestation.

(2) The claimant whose claim is contested may apply to a Judge for an order allowing his claim and determining the amount; and in case he does not make such application within eight days of his receiving notice of the contestation (or within such further time, if any, as the Judge upon the delays being reasonably accounted for may allow), he shall be taken to have abandoned his claim; if the contestant is a creditor and there is reason to believe that the contestation is not being carried on in good faith, any other creditor may apply for an order permitting him to intervene in the contest. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (18, 19).

Proceedings to enforce claim.

12.—(1) The Judge may determine any questions in dispute in a summary manner, or may direct an action or issue, in any Court or county, for the trial thereof, and may make such order as to the costs of the proceedings as may be just.

Mode of determining questions in dispute.

(2) Where there is a dispute as to material facts, and the sum in controversy appears to be over $400, exclusive of costs, the Judge shall direct the trial to be in the High Court and may name the county in which the trial is to take place, subject to any order which the High Court or a Judge thereof may see fit to make in that behalf. In case an issue is directed it shall be tried in all respects as if it had been an action in the Court in which it was ordered to be tried. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (20, 21).

Where sum in dispute is over $400.

13. The same proceedings may be had for the examination of parties or others, either before or at the trial, as may be taken in an ordinary action, and such proceedings, may also be taken prior to the application to the Judge, and as a foundation therefor. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (22).

Examination of parties.

14. A creditor who has recovered a judgment in a Division Court against the debtor may serve upon the sheriff a memorandum of the amount of his judgment and of the costs to which he is entitled, under the hand of the clerk and the seal of the Division Court; and the memorandum so served shall have the same effect for the purposes of this Act as if the creditor had delivered to the sheriff a writ of execution directed to the said sheriff from a County Court. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (23).

Proceedings by creditor who has obtained a division court judgment.

15. Where a creditor has taken in one county the prescribed proceedings in respect of his claim, and desires to establish his claim for the purposes of this Act in another county also, he may do so by obtaining from the said County Court clerk another certificate (Form E), and delivering the same to the sheriff of such other county, and the delivery of the certificate to the sheriff shall have the same effect for the purposes of this Act in the county in which the same takes place, from the day of the delivery, as if a new notice and affidavit of claim had been served for the county and other proceedings had in respect thereof under the previous provisions of this Act. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (24).

Establishing claim in second county.

Writs may be sued out into any county.

16. A creditor, entitled to a certificate from the County Court clerk, may sue out a writ of execution into any county in the same manner as on an ordinary judgment. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (25).

Decision in one county binding in others.

17. In case a claim is contested in one county, the decision thereon shall, as between the parties to it, determine the amount of the claim for the purposes of this Act in all other counties in which the claim is filed, and the certificate of the clerk of the County Court of the county in which the contest has taken place, of the result thereof, shall be prima facie proof of the decision. A certificate shall, upon payment of a fee of fifty cents, be granted to any party to the proceedings who applies therefor. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (26).

Clerk of county court to keep book of reference.

18.—(1) The clerk of the County Court shall keep a book in which, before granting a certificate or issuing an execution for a claim, he shall enter the following particulars with reference to every claim in respect of which he gives a certificate under this Act ;

- (a) The name of every claimant, and of every debtor ;
- (b) The date of entry of judgment ;
- (c) The amount of debt, exclusive of costs ;
- (d) The amount of costs ;
- (e) If the proceedings have been set aside, this fact, and shortly the reason therefor ;

Effect of entry.

(2) The entry shall (subject to the provisions of this Act) be an award of judgment for the debt and costs, and shall have the same effect as an entry of judgment for non-appearance to a specially endorsed writ. The clerk shall index the entries in the book alphabetically under the name of every debtor.

Index to book of reference.

Copy of entry evidence.

(3) In case the original papers happen to be lost or destroyed, a copy of the entry in the book shall be evidence of all matters therein set forth. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (27-29).

Granting time to debtor.

19.—(1) With respect to claims, the Judge, before or after a certificate is issued by the clerk under this Act, or delivered to the sheriff, may, on the application of the debtor, and notice to a claimant, give to the debtor further time to pay the claim where the Judge is of opinion that this can be done without injustice to the creditor, or may give to the debtor further time on terms which in the opinion of the Judge may be just. There may be successive orders for this purpose, but no claim shall be delayed by such orders for more than three months in all.

(2) This section is not to apply to creditors who have obtained judgment in the ordinary way; and the orders for time are not to prejudice executions obtained by such creditors on such judgments. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (30, 31). Preceding subsection not to apply in certain cases.

20.—(1) In case the debtor, without any sale by the sheriff, pays the full amount owing in respect of the executions and claims in the sheriff's hands at the time of such payment, and no other claim has been served on the debtor, or in case all executions and claims in the sheriff's hands are withdrawn, and any claims served are paid or withdrawn, no notice shall be entered as required by section 4 of this Act, and no further proceedings shall be taken under this Act against the debtor by virtue of the executions having been in the sheriff's hands. Payment by debtor before sale.

(2) Save as aforesaid, after a certificate has been filed with the sheriff, the withdrawal or expiry of the writ, upon which the proceedings are founded, or any stay upon the writ, or the satisfaction of the plaintiff's claim thereon, or the setting aside or return of the writ, shall not affect the proceedings to be taken under this Act, and except so far as the action taken in regard to the writ may affect the amount to be levied, the sheriff shall proceed and levy upon the goods or lands of the debtor, or both, as he would have proceeded had the writ or writs remained in his hands in full force to be executed, and may also take the like proceedings as he would have been entitled to take had the writ been a writ of venditioni exponas. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (32, 33). Effect of expiry or withdrawal of writs.

21. Where the address of a solicitor is given for service, and is not within three miles of the county town where the proceedings are carried on, service may be made upon him by serving his agent in Toronto. 43 V. c. 10, s. 7 (34). Service on Toronto agent.

22. If either before or after the receipt by the sheriff of an execution against the goods or lands of a debtor, a writ of attachment under The Act respecting Absconding Debtors is placed in the hands of the sheriff before he distributes the estate of the debtor, the sheriff shall realize the estate of the debtor, as provided by The Act respecting Absconding Debtors, but the same when so realized shall be distributed under the provisions of this Act. 49 V. c. 16, s. 36. Proceedings on attachment. Rev. Stat. c. 66.

23. The clerk shall ascertain and state in his said certificate, the amount of the costs to which the claimant is entitled against the debtor. Such costs shall be the following: Costs of claimant.

1. For serving the affidavit of claim, to be allowed upon the scale of the High Court in the case of claims over $400, and on the County Court scale in the case of claims exceeding $200 and not exceeding $400, or on the Division Court scale in the case of claims of $200 and under;

2. If the claim does not exceed $200 no greater fees are to be allowed for service of the claim and notice and mileage in respect thereof, than would be allowable to the Division Court bailiff for the service of a Division Court summons and mileage in respect thereof, if the claim had been sued in the proper Division Court;

3. The fees paid to the County Court clerk under this Act are also to be allowed, which fees shall be the same as he is allowed for like proceedings in the County Court, unless the claim appears to be within the jurisdiction of the Division Court, in which case his fees shall be those allowed for like proceedings in the Division Court;

4. Where there is no contest the sum of $5 for fees of a solicitor (if employed), unless the amount of the claim is within the jurisdiction of the Division Court, in which case the sum of $2 only is to be allowed;

5. In case of a contest, such additional costs (if any) as the Judge may allow, to be taxed according to the scale of the High Court, County Courts, or Division Courts, according as the amount in dispute is within the jurisdiction of one or other of these Courts;

6. The costs of obtaining an order for substituted service or other similar order and of such service, or the costs of and incidental to service out of the Province, in either case to be taxed by the clerk of the Court, and stated in his certificate aforesaid; if the claim is within the jurisdiction of the Division Court, only such a sum to be allowed for costs as would have been incurred in obtaining a judgment in the Division Court. 43 V. c. 10, s. 8.

Payment to sheriff of fund
in court.

24. Where there is in any Court a fund belonging to an execution debtor, or to which he is entitled, the same, or a sufficient part thereof to meet the claims in the sheriff's hands, may, on the application of the sheriff or any party interested, be paid over to the sheriff, and the same shall be deemed to be money levied under execution within the meaning of this Act. 49 V. c. 16, s. 37.

Sheriff may obtain goods in hands of division court
bailiff.

25.—(1) If the sheriff does not find sufficient property of a debtor leviable under executions and claims in his hands to pay the same in full, and the sheriff finds goods and chattels in the hands of the bailiff of a Division Court under a writ of execution or attachment against the debtor, the sheriff shall demand and obtain the goods and chattels from the bailiff, who shall forthwith deliver the same to the sheriff, with a copy of every writ of execution in his hands against the debtor, and a memorandum shewing the amount to be levied thereunder, including the bailiff's fees so far as proceedings have been taken by him, and shewing the date upon which each writ was received by him.

(2) In case the bailiff fails to deliver any of the goods, he shall pay double the value of the property retained, such double value to be recovered by the sheriff from the bailiff with costs of suit, and to be by the sheriff accounted for as part of the estate of the debtor. Penalty.

(3) The sheriff shall distribute the proceeds among the creditors under the provisions of this Act, and the Division Court execution creditors shall be entitled, without further proof, to stand in the same position as execution creditors whose writs are in the sheriff's hands. Distribution. 43 V. c. 10, s. 9.

26. Where the amount levied by the sheriff is not sufficient to pay the execution debts and other claims, with costs, in full, the money shall be applied to the payment ratably of such debts and costs of the creditors, after retaining the sheriff's fees, and after payment in full of the taxed costs and the costs of the execution to the creditor at whose instance and under whose execution the seizure and levy were made. Mode of apportioning money where amount insufficient to pay claims in full. 43 V. c. 10, s. 10; 49 V. c. 16, s. 35.

27. The sheriff, if directed by an endorsement upon the certificate, shall, in addition to the amounts named in the certificate, levy interest thereon from the date of the certificate, or the date named in that behalf in the certificate, and also the sum of $1.35 for the disbursements on every renewal of the certificate: and where such renewal is made upon the application of a solicitor, he shall levy the further sum of $1.25 for the solicitor's costs on the renewal. Levying interest and costs of renewing certificate. 43 V. c. 10, s. 11.

28. Where money is to be distributed by a sheriff under this Act, the sheriff shall not be entitled to poundage as upon separate writs or claims, but only upon the net proceeds of the estate distributable by him, and at the same rate as if the whole amount had been payable upon one writ. Sheriff's poundage. 43 V. c. 10, s. 12.

29. (1) Where money is made upon a writ, the same shall be taken for the purposes of the sheriff's return, and otherwise to be made upon all the writs or certificates entitled to the benefit thereof, and the sheriff shall, upon payment being made to the person entitled upon such writ or certificate, endorse thereon a memorandum of the amount so paid, but he shall not, except on the request of the party issuing the writ, or by direction of the Court out of which the same issues, or of a Judge having the authority of a Judge of such Court, return the Money made on any writ to be considered as made on all writs entitled to benefit thereof. Return.

writ until the same has been fully satisfied, or unless the same has expired by effluxion of time, in which case the sheriff shall make a formal return of the amount made thereon.

Time certificate to remain in force.

(2) A certificate issued under this Act shall remain in force for one year from the date thereof and no longer, unless renewed, but such certificate may from time to time be renewed in the same manner as a writ of execution, but notwithstanding the expiry of a writ or certificate prior to the termination of the month during which a notice of money having been made is under this Act required to be posted, the said writ and certificate shall, as to any money levied during such month, be deemed to be in full force and effect.

Compelling payment by sheriff.

(3) The like proceedings may be taken to compel payment by the sheriff of money payable in respect to an execution or other claim as can now be had to compel the return by the sheriff of a writ of execution. 43 V. c. 10, s. 13.

Statement to be kept in sheriff's office pending distribution.

30. The sheriff shall, pending the distribution of moneys levied, keep, in the said book mentioned in section 4, in his office, a statement according to Form F in the schedule hereto, shewing, in respect of any debtor of whose property money has been levied, the following particulars:—

- (a) The amounts levied and the dates of levy;
- (b) Each execution, certificate, or order in his hands at the time of entering the notice Form A required by section 4, or subsequently received during the month, the amount thereof for debt and costs, and the date of receipt, and such statement shall be amended from time to time as an additional amount is levied, or a new execution, certificate or order is received. 43 V. c. 10, s. 14.

Sheriff to give information as to estate of debtor.

31. The sheriff shall at all times without fee answer any reasonable question which he may be asked orally in respect to the estate of the debtor by a creditor, or any one acting upon behalf of a creditor, and shall facilitate the obtaining by him of full information as to the value of the estate, and the probable dividend to be realized therefrom in his county, or any other information in connection with the estate which the creditor may reasonably desire to obtain. 43 V. c. 10, s. 15.

Distribution by sheriff where amount levied insufficient to meet claims.

32. Where the money levied is insufficient to pay all claims in full, and the time has come for distributing the money levied, the sheriff may forthwith distribute the same as directed by this Act; or he may first prepare for examination by the debtor and his creditors a list of the creditors entitled to share in the distribution of the amount levied, with the amount due to each for principal, interest and costs; the list to be arranged so as, among other things, to shew the amount going to each creditor under the provisions of this Act, and the total amount to be distributed; and the sheriff may deliver, or send (prepaid and registered) by post to each creditor or his solicitor, a copy of the list, with the several particulars aforesaid; and in such case the further proceedings may be as follows:

1. If within eight days after all the said copies have been delivered or posted, or within any further time the Judge may allow, no objection is made as provided by this Act, the sheriff shall make distribution forthwith pursuant to such list:

2. In case an objection is made as provided by this Act, the sheriff shall forthwith distribute such an amount of the money made, and to such persons pari passu, as may not interfere with the effect of the objection in case the same should be allowed;

3. The sheriff may disregard objections which are frivolous, or manifestly insufficient to interfere with the distribution proposed, and distribute as if such objections had not been made;

4. Any person prejudiced by the proposed scheme of distribution, may contest the same in manner following, viz., by giving a notice in writing to the sheriff, stating therein distinctly his objection to the scheme (or any part thereof) and the grounds of objection, and by, at the same time, delivering to the sheriff an affidavit of previous service of a copy of the notice on the debtor and the creditors interested in resisting the objection, unless the Judge shall by order have dispensed with service, or on affidavit of service as the Judge shall have sanctioned;

5. The contestant shall, within eight days thereafter, apply (upon notice) to the Judge for an order adjudicating upon the matter in dispute; and otherwise the contestation shall be taken to be abandoned. The notice may be in the Form G in the schedule hereto;

6. The Judge may determine any questions in dispute in a summary manner, or may direct an issue or action for the trial thereof, either by a jury or otherwise and in any Court or county, and may make such order as to the costs of the proceedings as may be just. This sub-section is subject to the same provisions as are set forth in sub-section 2 of section 11 of this Act;

7. In the event of a claimant under a contestation being held not entitled, or only entitled to part of his claim, the money retained pending the contestation, or the portion as to which the claimant shall have failed, shall be distributed among the execution creditors and other creditors who would have been entitled thereto, as the same would have been distributed had the claim in respect thereof not been made. 43 V. c. 10, s. 16.

Directions by Judge to avoid unnecessary parties and trials.

33. In case several creditors are interested in a contestation, either for or against the same, the Judge shall have authority to give, and shall give, such directions for saving the expense of an unnecessary number of parties and trials, and of unnecessary proceedings, as may be just, and he shall direct by whom and in what proportions any costs incurred in the contestation, or in any proceedings thereunder, shall be paid; and whether any and what costs shall be paid out of the money levied. 43 V. c. 10, s. 17.

Direction by Judge to sheriff where claims disputed.

34.—(1) The Judge may, if he sees fit, direct the sheriff to levy for an amount sufficient to cover a claim which is in dispute, or part thereof, or in case it appears to the Judge that it is improbable that the defendant has other sufficient property, may order the sheriff to retain in his hands during the contestation the share which, if the claim is sustained, will be apportionable to it, or may make an order combining the orders above authorized, or such similar order as may be just.

(2) An order to levy under this section shall clothe the sheriff with the same authority as he would possess under a writ of execution, duly issued against the debtor, directing the sheriff to levy the like amount out of the goods and lands of the debtor. 43 V. c. 10, s. 18.

Decisions to be binding on all creditors.

35. The decision of a county court Judge or the Court of Appeal under this Act, shall bind all creditors, unless it appears that the decision was obtained by fraud or collusion by the parties to the contestation. 43 V. c. 10, s. 19.

Sheriff to deposit moneys in bank.

36. In case a sheriff has money in his hands, which, by reason of the provisions of this Act, or otherwise, he cannot immediately pay over to the execution creditors, or other claimants under this Act, he shall deposit the money, whenever the same amounts to $100, in some incorporated bank designated for this purpose from time to time by order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or where there is no such bank, then in some incorporated bank in which public money of the Province is then being deposited: the deposit to be made in the name of the sheriff, but to a special account in his name as "Trustee for the creditors of _____" (the debtor). 43. V. c. 10, s. 20.

Attaching orders by sheriff or creditors.

37.—(1) Where there are in the sheriff's hands several executions and claims, and there are not, or do not appear to be, sufficient lands or goods, as the case may be, to pay all and his own fees, he may apply for an order attaching any debt owing to the execution debtor by any person resident in the county of such sheriff, whether the debt is owing by such person alone or jointly with another person resident or not resident in such county, and to procure the attachment the sheriff may take the same proceedings as a creditor: and in such case a writ of execution, or other writ in the course of the proceedings, may be directed to him in the same manner as if the attachment were by a creditor; and the proceeds of the debts attached shall be distributed in the same manner as if he had realized the same under execution.

(2) In case the sheriff does not take such proceedings, any person entitled to distribution may take the same for the benefit of himself and all other persons entitled to distribution as aforesaid, and the person owing the attached debt shall pay the same to the sheriff.

(3) Any judgment creditor who attaches a debt shall be deemed to do so for the benefit of himself and all creditors entitled under this Act; payment of such debt shall be made to the sheriff, who in making distribution will apportion to such judgment creditor a share pro rata, according to the amount owing upon his judgment, of the whole amount to be distributed under the provisions of this Act, but such share shall not exceed the amount recovered by the garnishee proceedings unless the judgment creditor has placed a writ in the sheriff's hands.

(4) Money garnished and paid into the sheriff's hands shall be deemed to be money levied under execution, within the meaning of this Act, except that, unless the garnishee proceedings were taken by him, the sheriff shall only be entitled to charge poundage on such moneys at the rate of one and a quarter per cent. 43 V. c. 10, s. 21.

(5) The provisions of sub-sections 3 and 4 of this section shall also apply, as nearly as may be, to any person who attaches a debt in the Division Court before judgment, and to the money so attached.

(6) In case a garnishee, under an order of the Court, pays to the attaching creditor, or in case a garnishee, without notice that the sheriff is entitled, pays the amount of his debt into Court and the same is paid out to the said creditor, the sheriff may recover from him the amount so received. 48 V. c. 15, s. 1.

38. If any party to any contestation, matter or thing upon Appeal, which a Judge has made or rendered any final order or judgment, is dissatisfied with such order or judgment, and the same is in respect to a question involving a sum greater than $100, he may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal, subject to the like practice as near as may be, including the giving of security for costs, as may be from time to time in force in respect of appeals from the County Court, unless and until the Judges of the Court of Appeal shall enact rules establishing a different practice for such proceedings under this Act; and the said Judges, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized to frame and enact rules to govern such practice. 43 V. s. 10, s. 22.

39. The provisions of section 107 of The Judicature Act, Rev. Stat. c. 14, shall apply to this Act. 43 V. c. 10, s. 23. s. 107, to apply.

Judge.

40. A Judge for the purpose of giving effect to this Act and carrying out its provisions shall have all the powers which a County Court or a Judge thereof has by law for other purposes; and any proceedings wrongly taken under this Act may be set aside by the Judge, with or without costs as he may think fit. 43 V. c. 10, s. 25.

Defects of form.

41. No proceeding under this Act shall be void for any defect of form; and the rules, for amending or otherwise curing irregularities or defects, which may from time to time be in force in the County Courts shall apply to this Act. 43 V. c. 10, s. 26.

Scale of fees.

42. Besides the fees otherwise authorized to be paid to the clerk of the County Court for his own use, the following fees shall be levied on the following proceedings under this Act upon all claims filed, where the amount of the claim exceeds $200, and the same shall be payable to the Crown in stamps, subject to the provisions of The Act respecting Law Stamps, and shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province:—

Rev. Stat.
c. 22.

	$	cts.
On an affidavit of claim, where the amount claimed exceeds $200 but does not exceed $400.....	0	75
On every such affidavit where the claim exceeds $400..	1	50
On every certificate of clerk given under sec. 9, where the claim exceeds $200, but does not exceed $400..	0	75
On every such certificate where the claim exceeds $400.	1	50
On every order made by the Judge allowing or disallowing a claim, where the claim exceeds $200, but does not exceed $400	0	50
On every such order where the claim exceeds $400...	1	00

Where the claim is contested, on the proceedings after the order, the same fees as are now payable on like proceedings in the High Court. 43 V. c. 10, s. 27.

Act not to interfere with Insolvency Laws.

43. This Act is not intended to interfere with the Insolvency Laws which may from time to time be in force in this Province, but this Act is intended to be subject to such laws, and subject as aforesaid to apply to all debtors whether solvent or not. 43 V. c. 10, s. 28.

WHAT PROPERTY MAY BE ATTACHED, s. 13.	RATABLE DISTRIBUTION AMONG CLAIMANTS, ss. 26, 27.
PERISHABLE PROPERTY, ss. 14, 15.	SURPLUS TO BE RESTORED TO DEBTOR, s. 28.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. If a person resident in Ontario indebted to any other person, departs from Ontario with intent to defraud his creditors, and at the time of his so departing is possessed to his own use and benefit, of any real or personal property, credits or effects therein not exempt by law from seizure, he shall be deemed an absconding debtor, and his property, credits or effects aforesaid, may be seized and taken for the satisfying of his debts by a writ of attachment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 1.

Who to be regarded as an absconding
debtor.

PROCEDURE TO OBTAIN WRIT OF ATTACHMENT.

In the High Court.

2. Upon affidavit made by a plaintiff, his servant or agent that a person so departing is indebted to the plaintiff in a sum exceeding $100, and stating the cause of action, and that the deponent has good reason to believe and does verily believe that the person has departed from Ontario and has gone to (stating some place to which the absconding debtor is believed to have fled, or that the deponent is unable to obtain any information as to what place he has fled to), with intent to defraud the plaintiff of his just dues, or to avoid being arrested or served with process, and was, at the time of his so departing, possessed of real or personal property, credits or effects, not exempt by law from seizure, to his own use and benefit in Ontario, and upon the further affidavit of two other credible persons, that they are well acquainted with the debtor mentioned in the first named affidavit, and have good reason to believe and do believe that the debtor has departed from Ontario with intent to defraud the plaintiff, or to avoid being arrested or served with process, the High Court, or a Judge thereof, or the Judge of a County Court, may order a writ of attachment to issue from the High Court, and may in the order appoint the time for the defendant's putting in special bail, which time shall be regulated by the distance from Ontario of the place to which the absconding debtor is supposed to have fled, having due regard to the means of and necessary time for postal or other communication. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 2.

In County Courts.

Proceedings in cases within County Court
jurisdiction.

3. In case the sum claimed is within the jurisdiction of the County Courts, such Court or the Judge or acting Judge thereof, may in like manner order a writ of attachment to issue from such Court, and the proceedings thereon shall be the same as in this Act provided. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 3.

WRIT OF ATTACHMENT AND SUMMONS.

Contents of writ.

4. The writ of attachment shall also contain a summons to the absconding debtor, and shall be in the form given in the Schedule to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 4.

To be dated on day of issue and to be in force six months.

5. The writ shall be dated on the day on which it is issued, and shall be in force for six months from its date, and may be renewed for the purpose of effecting service on the defendant, in like manner as a writ of summons. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 5.

Writ of attachment to issue in duplicate.

6. Every writ of attachment shall issue in duplicate, and shall be so marked by the officer issuing the same (the costs of suing out the same being allowed only as if a single writ issued) and one writ shall be delivered to the sheriff to whom the same is directed, and the other shall be used for the purpose of effecting service on the defendant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 6.

Plaintiff may obtain concurrent writs to other sheriffs.

7. The plaintiff may, at any time within six months from the date of the original writ of attachment, without further order from the Court or a Judge, issue from the office whence the original writ issued, one or more concurrent writ or writs of attachment, to bear teste on the same day as the original writ, and to be marked by the officer issuing the same with the word "Concurrent" in the margin, which concurrent writ or writs of attachment may be directed to any sheriff other than the sheriff to whom the original writ was issued, and need not be sued out in duplicate or be served on the defendant, but shall operate merely for the attachment of his real or personal property, credits, or effects in aid of the original writ. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 7.

PROCEDURE AFTER SERVICE OF WRIT.

8. In case it is shewn by affidavit to the Court or a Judge that a copy of the writ was personally served on the defendant, or that reasonable efforts were made to effect service, and that the writ came to his knowledge, or that the defendant has absconded in such a manner that after diligent inquiry no information can be obtained as to the place he has fled to, the Court or Judge, if the defendant has not put in special bail may either require some further attempt to effect service or may appoint some act to be done which shall be deemed good service, and thereupon (or on the first application, if the Court or Judge thinks fit), the Court or Judge may authorize the plaintiff to proceed in the action in such manner and subject to such conditions as the Court or Judge may direct or impose. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 8.

Further proceedings after service, etc.

9. Before the plaintiff obtains judgment he shall prove the amount of the debt or damages claimed by him in the action, either before a jury on an assessment, or by reference as provided in section 1 of The Act Respecting Arbitration and References, according to the nature of the case, and no execution shall issue until the plaintiff, his solicitor or agent, has made and filed an affidavit of the sum justly due to the plaintiff by the absconding debtor, after giving him credit for all payments and claims which might be set off or lawfully claimed by the debtor at the time of making the affidavit, and the execution shall be endorsed to levy the sum so sworn to with the taxed costs, or the amount of the judgment including the costs, whichever is the smaller sum of the two. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 9.

Plaintiff must prove his claim, etc.

Rev. Stat. c. 53.

BAIL.

10. The Court or a Judge at any time before or after final judgment, but before execution executed, upon an application supported by affidavits satisfactorily accounting for the defendant's delay and default and disclosing a good defence on the merits, may, having regard to the time of the application and other circumstances, let in the defendant to put in special bail and to defend the action. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 10.

Court may allow defendant to put in special bail.

11. The special bail (whether put in within the time limited by the writ or within such time as the Court or a Judge directs), shall be put in and perfected in like manner as if the defendant had been arrested on a writ of capias for the amount sworn to on obtaining the attachment; and after being so put in and perfected, the defendant shall be let in to defend, and the action shall proceed as in ordinary cases. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 11.

Defendant may be let in to defend.

Defendant's property to be restored on bail being put in.

12. Upon the defendant so putting in and perfecting special bail, all his property, credits and effects attached in that action (excepting any which may have been disposed of as perishable, and then the net proceeds of the goods so disposed of), shall be restored and paid to him unless there be some other lawful ground for the Sheriff to withhold or detain the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 12.

WHAT PROPERTY MAY BE ATTACHED.—INVENTORY, ETC.

Sheriff to attach all the property and credits of defendant.

13. All the property, credits and effects of an absconding debtor, including all rights and shares in any association or corporation, may be attached in the same manner as they might be seized in execution; and the sheriff to whom a writ of attachment is directed shall forthwith take into his charge all such property and effects according to the exigency of the writ, and shall be allowed all necessary disbursements for keeping the same, and he shall immediately call to his assistance two substantial freeholders of his county, and with their aid he shall make a just and true inventory of all the personal property, credits and effects, evidences of title or debt, books of account, vouchers and papers that he has attached, and shall return such inventory signed by himself and the said freeholders, together with the writ of attachment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 13.

Inventory to be made.

PERISHABLE PROPERTY.

Sale of perishable goods on plaintiff giving security.

14. In case horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, or perishable goods or chattels, or such as from their nature (as timber or staves) cannot be safely kept or conveniently taken care of, are taken under a writ of attachment, the sheriff who attached the same shall have them appraised and valued, on oath, by two competent persons; and in case the plaintiff desires it and deposits with the sheriff a bond to the defendant executed by two freeholders (whose sufficiency shall be approved of by the sheriff), in double the amount of the appraised value of the articles, conditioned for the payment of the appraised value to the defendant, his executors or administrators, together with all costs and damages incurred by the seizure and sale thereof, in case judgment is not obtained by the plaintiff against the defendant, then the sheriff shall proceed to sell all or any of such enumerated articles at auction, to the highest bidder, giving not less than six days' notice of the sale, unless any of the articles are of such a nature as not to allow of that delay, in which case the sheriff may sell such articles last mentioned forthwith; and the sheriff shall hold the proceeds of the sale for the same purposes as he would hold property seized under the attachment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 14.

Sheriff to hold proceeds.

15. If the plaintiff, after notice to himself or his solicitor of the seizure of any articles enumerated in the last preceding section, neglects or refuses to deposit the bond, or only offers a bond with sureties insufficient in the judgment of the sheriff, then, after the lapse of four days next after the notice, the sheriff shall be relieved from all liability to the plaintiff in respect to the articles so seized, and the sheriff shall forthwith restore the same to the person from whose possession he took such articles. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 15.

The goods to be restored if plaintiff fails to give sufficient security.

WHEN DIVISION COURT ATTACHMENT SUPERSEDED.

16. If the sheriff to whom a writ of attachment is delivered for execution, finds any property or effects, or the proceeds of any property or effects which have been sold as perishable, belonging to the absconding debtor named in the writ of attachment, in the custody of a constable or of a bailiff or clerk of a Division Court by virtue of a warrant of attachment issued or money paid into Court under a garnishee summons under The Division Courts Act, the sheriff shall demand and take from the constable, bailiff or clerk, the property or effects, or the proceeds of any part thereof and the constable, bailiff or clerk, on demand by the sheriff and notice of the writ of attachment, shall forthwith deliver all the property, effects and proceeds aforesaid to the sheriff, upon penalty of forfeiting double the value of the amount thereof, to be recovered by the sheriff, with costs of suit, and to be by him accounted for after deducting his own costs, as part of the property and effects of the absconding debtor; but the creditor who has duly sued out the warrant of attachment may proceed to judgment against the absconding debtor in the Division Court, and on obtaining judgment, and serving a memorandum of the amount thereof, and of the costs to be certified under the hand of the clerk of the Division Court, the creditor shall be entitled to satisfaction in like manner as, and in ratable proportion with, the other creditors of the absconding debtor who obtain judgment as hereinafter mentioned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 16; 48 V. c. 15, s. 2.

Proceeding if Sheriff finds property in the hands of a Bailiff or Clerk of a Division Court.

Rev. Stat. c. 51.

Creditor in Division Court may proceed to judgment.

SHERIFF'S COSTS.

17. The costs of the sheriff for seizing and taking charge of property, credits and effects under a writ of attachment, including the sums paid to persons for assisting in taking an inventory, and for appraising (which shall be paid for at the rate of $1 for each day actually required for and occupied in making the inventory or appraisal) shall be paid in the first instance by the plaintiff, and may, after having been taxed, be recovered by the sheriff by action in any Court having jurisdiction, and such costs shall be taxed to the party who pays the same as part of the disbursements in the action against the absconding debtor, and be so recovered from him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 17.

Sheriff's costs and how paid.

Cost of new inventory not allowed on receipt of new writ.

18. The sheriff having made an inventory and appraisement on the first writ of attachment against any absconding debtor, shall not be required to make, nor shall he be allowed to charge for, a new inventory and appraisement upon a subsequent writ of attachment coming into his hands. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 18.

COSTS IN CASE OF ATTACHMENT NOT WARRANTED.

When defendant to recover costs of defence.

19. If, before execution issues, it appears to the Court upon motion and upon hearing the parties by affidavit, that the defendant was not an absconding debtor within the meaning of this Act, at the time of the issue of the writ of attachment against him, he shall recover his costs of defence, and the plaintiff shall not have execution for the amount of the verdict rendered or ascertained upon reference or otherwise recovered in the action, unless the same exceeds, and then for such sum only as the same exceeds the amount of the taxed costs of the defendant, and in case the sum so recovered is less than the taxed costs of the defendant, he shall be entitled, after deducting the amount of the sum recovered from the amount of the taxed costs, to take out execution for the balance. R. S. O., 1877, c. 68, s. 19.

SALE OF CHATTELS.

Sale of goods under writ of attachment.

20.—(1) The Court or a Judge may, at any time after a writ of attachment has been in the hands of a sheriff, or other officer, for one month, direct him to sell any goods or chattels, except chattels real which have been attached.

(2) An order for sale may be made upon the application of a creditor having a writ of attachment, or a writ of execution, in the hands of the sheriff, and shall be made if the Court or Judge is satisfied that the alleged debtor has in fact absconded indebted to the applicant, and that the property attached is not sufficient to pay in full the claims of the persons who have sued out writs of attachment, or execution, but this provision shall not be construed to restrict the authority of the Court or Judge to make an order in other cases; and in all cases terms may be imposed.

(3) The costs of the first writ of attachment shall have priority over all execution debts and other costs. 46 V. c. 6, s. 4. (1-3).

[As to the application of sections 10 to 13 of "The Execution Act," see section 14 of that Act, Cap. 64.]

ATTACHMENT OF DEBTS DUE TO ABSCONDING DEBTOR.

Liability of persons paying debts to absconding debtor after notice of attachment.

21. In case notice in writing of the writ of attachment has been duly served by the sheriff, or by or on behalf of the plaintiff in the writ, upon a person owing a debt or demand to, or who has the custody or possession of property or effects of, an absconding debtor, and in case such person after such notice pays the debt or demand or delivers the property or effects to the absconding debtor, or to any one for him, he shall be deemed to have done so fraudulently, and if the plaintiff recovers judgment against the absconding debtor, and the property and effects seized by the sheriff are insufficient to satisfy the judgment, such person shall be liable for the amount of the debt or demand, and for the property and effects or the value thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 22.

22. If after notice as aforesaid a person indebted to the absconding debtor, or having custody of his property as aforesaid, is sued for the debt, demand or property by the absconding debtor, or by the person to whom the absconding debtor has assigned the debt, demand or property since the date of the writ of attachment, he may, on affidavit, apply to the Court or a Judge, to stay proceedings in the action against himself, until it is known whether the property and effects so seized by the sheriff, are sufficient to discharge the sum or sums recovered against the absconding debtor, and the Court or Judge may direct an issue to try any disputed question of fact or make such other order as is proper. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 23.

Debtor if sued after service of notice of attachment may obtain stay of proceedings.

WHEN SHERIFF MAY SUE FOR OUTSTANDING DEBTS.

23. If the real and personal property, credits and effects of an absconding debtor prove insufficient to satisfy the executions obtained against him and claims certified under The Creditors' Relief Act, the sheriff may, by order of the Court or a Judge, to be granted on the application of any plaintiff or claimant sue for and recover from any person indebted to the absconding debtor, the debt, claim, property or right of action attachable under this Act, and owing to or recoverable by the absconding debtor, with costs of suit, in which action the defendant shall be allowed to set up any defence which would have availed him against the absconding debtor at the date of the writ of attachment, and a recovery in the action by the sheriff shall operate as a discharge as against the absconding debtor; and the sheriff shall hold and apply the moneys recovered by him as part of the assets of the absconding debtor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 24.

Debtor of defendant may be sued if defendant's property is not sufficient to satisfy claims.

Rev. Stat. c. 65.

24. The statement of claim in the action by the sheriff shall contain an introductory averment to the effect following:

The plaintiff is Sheriff of (etc.) and sues under the provisions of The Act respecting Absconding Debtors, in order to recover from C. D., debtor to E. F., an absconding debtor, the debt due (or other claim, according to the facts) by the said C. D., to the said E. F., etc.

Averment to be inserted in Sheriff's statement of claim.

R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 25.

25. The sheriff shall not be bound to sue as aforesaid until a bond is given by one or more of the plaintiffs or claimants with two sufficient sureties, who may be other of the plaintiffs or claimants, payable to the sheriff by his name of office in double the amount or value of the debt or property sued for, conditioned to indemnify him from all costs, losses and expenses to be incurred in the prosecution of the action or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 26.

Sheriff not bound to sue until creditor gives bond of indemnity.

DISTRIBUTION OF PROCEEDS.

Who entitled to share if property proves insufficient to pay all.

Rev. Stat. cc. 65 and 51.

26. In case the property and effects of the absconding debtor are insufficient to satisfy the executions and other claims certified, none shall be allowed to share, unless their proceedings under this Act or The Creditors' Relief Act, or the provisions of The Division Courts Act respecting absconding debtors were commenced within six months from the date of the first writ of attachment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 30.

Delay of distribution until claims established.

27. The Court or a Judge may delay the distribution, in order to give reasonable time for the obtaining of judgment or allowance of claim by persons who have commenced proceedings in due time against the absconding debtor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 28.

SURPLUS TO BE RESTORED.

When all seizing creditors are satisfied, remaining property to be delivered up.

28. In case at any time the sheriff has levied for distribution sufficient to pay all debts and claims for which proceedings had then been commenced, including costs, and one month has elapsed without proceedings being taken in respect of any other debt or claim, or in case after a period of one month from a distribution under the order of the Court or a Judge, whichever last happens, and after satisfying the several plaintiffs and claimants entitled, there is no other writ of attachment or execution against the same property and effects in the hands of the sheriff, or claim certified against the debtor, then, all the property and effects of the absconding debtor, or unappropriated money the proceeds of any part of such property and effects, remaining in the hands of the Sheriff, together with all books of account, evidences of title or of debt, vouchers and papers whatsoever belonging thereto, shall be delivered to the absconding debtor or to the person or persons in whose custody the same were found, or to the authorized agent of the absconding debtor, and thereupon the responsibility of the sheriff in respect thereto shall determine. R. S. O. 1877, c. 68, s. 31.

CUSTODY OF PERSONS ARRESTED, s. 12.	DEBTORS IN CRIMINAL CUSTODY, s. 31.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

ARREST.

Defendant may be held to bail on affidavit of certain facts and order of a judge

1. In case a party or plaintiff being a creditor of, or having a cause of action against a person liable to arrest, by affidavit of himself or some other person shews to the satisfaction of a Judge of the High Court, or to the Judge or acting Judge of a County Court, that such party or plaintiff has cause of action against such person to the amount of $100 or upwards or that he has sustained damage to that amount, and also by affidavit shews such facts and circumstances as satisfy the Judge, that there is good and probable cause for believing that such person, unless he be forthwith apprehended, is about to quit Ontario with intent to defraud his creditors generally or the said party or plaintiff in particular, the Judge may order that the person against whom the application is made, shall be held to bail for such sum as the Judge thinks fit, and thereupon the party or plaintiff, within the time expressed in the order, but not afterwards, may sue out a writ of capias and one or more concurrent writs of capias in the High Court, or County Court, against the person ordered to be held to bail, and the Judge or the acting Judge of the County Court, may grant orders to hold to bail where process is intended to be sued out of or an action has been commenced in the High Court, as well as in his own Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 5.

Capias may issue on such order within a limited time.

Affidavit need not be at first entitled in any Court.

2. If the affidavit at the time of the making thereof is not entitled in any Court, the title of the Court may be added at the time of suing out the writ. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 6.

3. A party or plaintiff formerly entitled to obtain the writ of arrest called ne exeat Provincia, is now to proceed under section 1 of this Act, which applies to actions in every Division of the High Court. Application of statute.

4. No writ of capias to arrest and hold to bail shall be issued for a cause of action less than $100, but such writ may be issued when the cause of action equals or exceeds that sum. Arrest restricted to not less than $100. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 1.

5. No person shall be subject to arrest who, by reason of any privilege, usage or otherwise, is by law exempt therefrom. Privileged persons not to be arrested. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 2.

6. Process of contempt for non-payment of any sum of money, or for non-payment of any costs, charges or expenses, payable by a judgment or order of the High Court or of a Judge thereof, or by a judgment or order of a County Court or a Judge thereof, is abolished; and no person shall be liable to arrest for non-payment of costs. Arrest for non-payment of money, costs, etc., abolished. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, ss. 3, 10, part.

7. No married woman shall be liable to arrest either on mesne or final process. No married woman to be arrested. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 3.

8. No person shall be arrested or imprisoned on a claim or on a judgment recovered against him as a debtor for a penalty or sum of money in the nature of a penalty or forfeiture, whether the claim or judgment be in the name of such person alone, or in the form of proceeding known as qui tam, etc. (notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any statute providing for the recovery of such penalties or sums by action), except in cases and under circumstances where, on claims or judgments for ordinary debts, parties can be arrested or imprisoned. Arrest on claim or judgment for a penalty. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 4.

WRITS OF CAPIAS AD SATISFACIENDUM.

9. Where the defendant has been held to special bail upon a writ of capias issued on a Judge's order made under this Act, it shall not be necessary to obtain an order before suing out a writ of capias ad satisfaciendum or to file any further affidavit than that upon which the order was obtained in the first instance; but where the defendant has not been so held to special bail, if the plaintiff in the action, by the affidavit of himself or some other person shews to the satisfaction of a Judge of the High Court, or where the case is in a County Court, to the Judge or acting Judge of such Court, that he has recovered judgment against the defendant for the sum of $100 or upwards, exclusive of costs, and also by affidavit shews such facts and circumstances as satisfy the Judge that there is good When writs of ca. sa. may issue without further affidavit.

When a further affidavit necessary and the contents thereof.

and probable cause for believing either that the defendant, unless he be forthwith apprehended, is about to quit Ontario with intent to defraud his creditors generally or the plaintiff in particular, or that the defendant has parted with his property or made some secret or fraudulent conveyance thereof in order to prevent its being taken in execution, the Judge may order that a writ of cupias ad satisfaciendum be issued. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 7.

Orders for payment of money to be deemed judgments.

10. Every order of the High Court, and of a County Court, directing payment of money or of costs, charges or expenses, shall, so far as it relates to such money, costs, charges, or expenses, be deemed a judgment, and the person to receive payment a creditor, and the person to make payment a debtor, within the meaning of this Act; and the said persons shall respectively have the same remedies, and the Courts and Judges and the officers of justice shall in such cases have the same powers and duties, as in corresponding cases under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 12.

Person having carriage of the judgment, etc., to be deemed the plaintiff.

11. In case a judgment or order of the High Court directs the payment of money into Court, or to the credit of any cause, or otherwise than to any person, the person having the carriage of the judgment or order, so far as relates to the payment, shall be deemed the person to receive payment or the plaintiff (as the case may be) within the meaning of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 13.

CUSTODY OF PERSONS ARRESTED.

Person arrested out of his county may be transferred to it, paying the cost.

12. A person arrested and committed to gaol in any other county than that in which he resided or carried on business at the time, shall be entitled to be transferred to the gaol of his own county, on prepaying the expense of his removal; and the sheriff in whose county he was arrested may, if he is satisfied of the facts, transfer him accordingly; but if the sheriff declines to act without an order of the Court or a Judge, such an order shall be made on the application of the prisoner, and notice to the opposite party. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 14.

GAOL LIMITS.

Gaol limits.

13. The limits of every county for judicial purposes shall be the limits of the gaol of the county. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 15.

SECURITY FROM DEBTORS IN CIVIL CUSTODY.

Sheriff may take security from debtors in custody.

14. The sheriff of a county may take from a debtor confined in the gaol thereof, in execution or upon mesne process, a bond with not less than two nor more than four sufficient sureties, to be jointly and severally bound in a penalty of double the amount for which the debtor is so confined, conditioned, that the debtor will observe and obey all notices, or orders of Court touching or concerning the debtor, or his appearing to be examined viva voce, or his returning and being remanded into close custody, and that upon reasonable notice to them or any of them, requiring them so to do, they will produce the debtor to the sheriff, and also that the debtor will within thirty days, cause the bond, or the bond that may be substituted for the same, according to the provisions hereinafter contained, to be allowed by the Judge of the County Court of the County wherein the debtor is confined, and the allowance to be endorsed thereon by the Judge: and for this purpose the sheriff shall, upon reasonable notice given by the debtor, cause such first mentioned bond to be produced before the Judge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 16.

15. The sheriff may also require each surety, where there are only two, to make oath in writing, to be annexed to the bond, that he is a freeholder or householder in some part of Ontario (stating where), and is worth the sum for which the debtor is in custody (naming it) and $200 more, over and above what will pay all his debts; or where there are more than two sureties, then he may require each surety to make oath as aforesaid, that he is a freeholder or householder as aforesaid, and is worth one-half the sum for which the debtor is in custody (naming it), and $200 more, over and above what will pay all his debts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 17.

Surety to make affidavit, etc.

16. Upon receipt of the bond, accompanied by an affidavit of a subscribing witness of the due execution thereof, and by the sureties' affidavits of solvency, if required by the sheriff, the sheriff may permit and allow the debtor to go out of close custody in gaol; and so long as the debtor in all respects observes the conditions of the bond, the sheriff shall not be liable to the party at whose suit the debtor is confined in any action for the escape of the debtor from gaol. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 18.

On receipt of bond, Sheriff may allow the debtor to go at large.

17. The debtor may apply for the allowance of the bond upon four clear days' notice in writing to the plaintiff or his solicitor, who at the time of the application may object to the sufficiency of the sureties; and if the Judge refuses allowance of the bond, then the debtor may cause another bond, made to the sheriff in the same terms and under the same conditions, to be executed without further application to the sheriff, and may apply in like manner and upon like notice for the allowance thereof; and the bond, if allowed and endorsed as aforesaid, shall be substituted for and have the like effect in all respects, and the like remedies shall be had thereon, as the bond so first given to the sheriff as aforesaid would have had upon the allowance thereof, and the first given bond shall thereupon become void. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 19.

Application for allowance of bond to be made on motion, etc.

When bond allowed, Sheriff discharged from responsibility.

18. Upon the allowance being so endorsed, the sheriff shall be discharged from all responsibility respecting the debtor, unless the debtor is again committed to the close custody of the sheriff in due form of law. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 20.

Conditions of bail-bond under writ of ca. sa. or of attachment under sec. 10.

19. Persons who give bail under a writ of capias ad satisfaciendum shall not be bound to remain within the gaol limits, but may depart therefrom at their discretion; and when a person desires to give bail under such a writ the condition of the bond to the sheriff shall provide that the person arrested shall observe and obey all notices, orders and rules of the Court concerning the debtor or person ordered to pay, or his appearing to be examined viva voce or otherwise, or his returning and being remanded into close custody; and the party or his bail shall not be entitled to claim longer time for so observing or obeying than he would have been entitled to if the party had been on the limits according to the practice before the 4th day of May, 1859, but the Court may grant further time if of opinion that the same may be done without substantial injury to the interests of the party to receive the money. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 21.

If the sureties become insufficient, Sheriff may re-take the debtor.

20. In case the sheriff has good reason to apprehend that any surety has after entering into the bond, become insufficient to pay the amount sworn to, the sheriff may again arrest the debtor, and detain him in close custody. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 22.

The sureties may plead such arrest.

21. The sureties of the debtor may set up the arrest and detention as a defence to any action brought against them upon the bond entered into by them, and the defence if sustained in proof shall wholly discharge them; and the debtor may again be allowed to go at large, on giving to the sheriff a new bond with sureties as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 23.

Bonds may be assigned.

22. Upon breach of the condition of any such bond, the party at whose suit the debtor is confined may require the sheriff to assign the same to him, and the assignment shall be made in writing, under the seal of the sheriff and attested by at least one witness, and the assignee of the sheriff or the executors or administrators of the assignee may maintain an action in his or their own names upon the bond, which action the sheriff shall have no power to release; but upon executing an assignment as aforesaid, the sheriff shall be thenceforth discharged from all liability on account of the debtor or his safe custody. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 24.

Sureties may surrender debtor.

23. The sureties of any debtor may surrender him into the custody of the sheriff at the gaol, and the sheriff, his deputy or gaoler shall there receive the debtor into custody.

and the sureties may set up the surrender or offer to surrender and the refusal of the sheriff, his deputy or gaoler to receive the debtor into custody at the gaol, as a defence to any action brought on the bond for a breach of the condition happening after the surrender or tender and refusal, and the defence if sustained in proof, shall discharge them; but the debtor may again be allowed to go at large, on giving to the sheriff a new bond, with sureties as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 25.

24. The party at whose suit any debtor has been confined may, at any time while the debtor is at large upon bail, apply to the Court or Judge for an order for the examination of the debtor, in the manner provided in The Act respecting the Relief of Indigent Debtors, and in case the debtor neglects or omits to submit himself to be examined pursuant to the order, or refuses to make full answer in respect to the matters touching which he is examined, to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge, the Court or a Judge may order the debtor to be committed to close custody, and the sheriff, on due notice of the order, shall forthwith take the debtor and commit him to close custody until he obtains an order of the Court or a Judge for again allowing him to go out of close custody, on giving the necessary bond as aforesaid, or until he is otherwise discharged by due course of law. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 26.

Debtor on bail liable to be examined.

Rev. Stat. c. 68.

Or be re-committed.

25. A new order may be granted on the debtor shewing that he has submitted himself to be examined and made full answer as aforesaid, and has thereafter given to the plaintiff or his solicitor ten days' notice of his intention to apply. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 27.

On answering debtor may be again allowed to go at large.

26. The party at whose suit a debtor has been confined in execution may, wherever the debtor has been admitted to bail, sue out a writ against his goods or lands, notwithstanding that the debtor has been charged in execution; and the writ shall not be stayed, but shall be proceeded with until executed, although the debtor be re-committed to close custody. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 28.

Plaintiff may have execution against property of debtor on bail.

DISCHARGED FROM CUSTODY.

27. A person arrested under a writ of capias ad satisfaciendum or under a writ of attachment, though he is not confined to close custody but has given bail may apply for and obtain his discharge in the same manner and subject to the same terms and conditions as nearly as may be as an execution debtor who is confined to close custody. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 31.

CASES OF SEPARATION OF UNITED COUNTIES.

Proceedings under bailable process in cases of dissolution of a Union of Counties.

28. A person arrested or held to bail before the separation of a junior from a senior county, and liable to be imprisoned, shall be so imprisoned in the gaol of the county in which he was arrested; and all proceedings in the action in which a person was so arrested or held to bail, and all proceedings after judgment founded on the arrest or holding to bail, shall be carried on as if the arrest or holding to bail had taken place in such county as a separate county; and in case the proceedings are to be had in the junior county, all the records and papers relative to the case shall be transmitted to the proper officer of the junior county. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 29.

Gaol for debtor where United Counties dissolved.

29. In case a debtor or other person is admitted to bail in a union of counties, and the union is afterwards dissolved, or one or more counties are separated therefrom, and in case such person after the dissolution of the union is surrendered or ordered to be committed to close custody, he shall be surrendered or committed to the sheriff of the county in which he is arrested, and be imprisoned in the gaol thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 30.

LIABILITY OF SHERIFF FOR ESCAPE.

Sheriff only to be liable for damages sustained.

30. If a debtor in execution escapes out of legal custody, the sheriff, bailiff, or other person having the custody of the debtor, shall be liable only to an action for damages sustained by the person or persons at whose suit the debtor was taken or imprisoned, and shall not be liable to any other action in consequence of the escape. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 33. See also cap. 16, s. 30.

DEBTORS IN CRIMINAL CUSTODY.

This Act not to extend to debtors in custody on criminal charges.

31. None of the foregoing provisions relative to the discharge from custody or admission to bail shall extend or be applicable to debtors who are at the same time in custody upon any criminal charge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 67, s. 32.

Application for discharge, ss. 8-10.
Examination of debtor, ss. 8-10.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Indigent Debtors' Act." short title.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 1.

2. If a debtor in close custody:

1. Upon mesne process; or

2. In execution; or

3. Upon any other final process, for non-payment of any sum of money awarded, or for non-payment of any claim in the nature of a debt or demand due, being a sum certain or capable of being ascertained by computation and not being in the nature of a penalty to enforce the doing of some act other than the payment of a sum of money (in which several cases the debtor shall be deemed to be a prisoner in execution),—

In what cases debtors in close custody to be entitled to weekly allowance.

Makes oath;

(a) That he is a prisoner in close custody, setting forth on Affidavit which of the causes of detention above specified; and required.

(b) That he is unable to find bail; and

(c) That he is not worth the sum of $20;

And in case he is in custody on mesne process,

- (d) That he does not believe the demand of the plaintiff to be just, and for that cause, and no other, resists payment of the same and refuses to confess judgment for the sum sworn to,

The allowance when payable.

the Court from which the process issued, or a Judge shall make an order on the plaintiff at whose suit the debtor is detained, to pay to the debtor on the third Monday after the service of the order, and upon each Monday thereafter, so long as the debtor is detained in prison at the suit of the plaintiff the sum of $2, and the payment shall be made to the debtor or to the gaoler in whose custody he is, for the use of the debtor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 2.

When debtor entitled to be discharged if allowance not paid.

3. In default of payment of the allowance, the debtor on his affidavit of the default and upon notice to the plaintiff shall, unless sufficient cause is shewn be entitled to an order for discharge; but the discharge shall not, in case the debtor was confined on mesne process, prevent the plaintiff from proceeding to judgment and execution against the body, lands or goods, according to the practice, and in case the debtor is a prisoner in execution, the discharge shall not be a release or satisfaction of the judgment or other debt or demand, or deprive the plaintiff of any remedy against the lands or goods of the debtor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 3.

Effect of discharge.

Debtor not entitled to allowance or to his discharge in default of payment until he has answered satisfactorily touching his property.

4. Where a debtor applies for the weekly allowance, or to be discharged from custody for non-payment thereof, the plaintiff may apply for an order that the debtor shall be examined viva voce on oath for the purpose of discovering any property or effects the debtor may be possessed of or entitled to, or which may be in the possession or under the control of some other person for his use or benefit, or which he may have fraudulently disposed of to injure his creditor, and until the debtor has made full answer respecting the same to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge, no order for the payment of the weekly allowance shall be made, or if previously made, no order for his discharge for non-payment thereof shall be made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 4.

Examination of debtor.

5. If the debtor has obtained an order for payment of the weekly allowance, the plaintiff may at any time apply for an order for examination, and the Court or Judge, on the application of the plaintiff, may stay further payment until the debtor has made full answer as aforesaid to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 5.

Defendant in custody on several writs, only entitled to one allowance, etc.

6. In case the debtor is a prisoner in close custody in several actions or matters, he must make all the plaintiffs parties to his application for the weekly allowance, and he shall only be entitled to one weekly sum of $2; and if the weekly allowance be unpaid, the debtor shall have the same right as when in custody in one action only, to be discharged from custody in all the actions or matters named in the order for payment, and the plaintiffs named in the order must all be made parties on an application for the debtor's discharge on account of non-payment, and all the plaintiffs must join in the examination of the defendant, and they shall regulate among themselves the apportionment and the payment of the weekly allowance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 6.

7. The plaintiff shall be entitled to recover from his debtor all sums paid to him for weekly allowance while a prisoner on mesne process, and upon proof before the taxing officer, the amount shall be taxed as disbursements in the action. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 7.

Allowance may be recovered from debtor as costs.

8. In case a debtor, according to the intent and meaning of this Act, confined in close custody in execution, gives to the party at whose suit he is a prisoner or to his solicitor, a notice in writing that he will, after the expiration of ten days from the day of service apply to be discharged from custody, the plaintiff, at whose suit he is confined, may apply to the Court or a Judge for an order that the debtor be examined viva voce on oath, for the purpose of discovering any property or effects which the debtor is possessed of or entitled to, or which are in the possession or under the control of some other person for the use or benefit of the debtor, or which the debtor, having been in possession of, may have fraudulently disposed of to injure his creditor, and touching the debtor's estate and effects, and the circumstances under which he contracted the debt or incurred the liability which was the subject of the action in which judgment has been rendered against him, and as to the means and expectations the debtor then had, and as to the property and means he still has, and as to the disposal he may have made of his property. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 8.

A debtor in custody in execution, may apply to be discharged.

Examination of debtor as to his property, etc.

9. After the expiration of ten days from the day of the service of notice as aforesaid, and upon the debtor's making oath that he is not worth $20 exclusive of the goods and chattels exempt from execution, and that he has submitted himself to be examined pursuant to order (or that no such order has been served), the debtor may upon notice apply to the Court or a Judge for an order of discharge, and upon the hearing of the application, where such examination has taken place, if the matter thereof is deemed satisfactory, the debtor shall be discharged from custody, and the discharge shall have effect only as a discharge for non-payment of the weekly allowance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 9.

Application of debtor for discharge.

Discharge and its effect.

10. In case the plaintiff has already caused the debtor to be examined viva voce, and in case upon the hearing of the application, further enquiry appears requisite for the ends of justice, the Court or Judge may allow the plaintiff a reasonable time to cause the debtor to be further examined

Further examination of debtor may be ordered.

viva voce, and may allow a reasonable time for the debtor to submit to the further examination, before the application is finally disposed of. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 10.

Discharge may be on condition of assignment by debtor.

11. It may be a condition of the debtor's discharge that he shall first, by an assignment or conveyance, to be approved of by the Court or Judge assign and convey to the party at whose suit he is in custody, any right or interest which he may have or be presumed to have in and to any property, real or personal, credits and effects, other than goods and chattels exempt from execution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 11.

Re-committal for not more than 12 months, in cases of fraud, seduction, libel, etc.

12. In case it appears that the debt for which the debtor is confined was contracted by any manner of fraud or breach of trust, or under false pretences, or that the debtor wilfully contracted the debt or incurred the liability without having had at the same time a reasonable assurance of being able to pay or discharge the same, or that he is confined by reason of any judgment in an action for breach of promise of marriage, seduction, criminal conversation, libel or slander, the Court or Judge may order the applicant to be re-committed to close custody for a period not exceeding twelve months, and to be then discharged. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 12.

Debtor unduly obtaining discharge may be re-taken in execution.

13. In case a discharge granted under this Act has been unduly or fraudulently obtained by a false allegation of circumstances which, if true, might have entitled the debtor to be discharged by virtue of this Act, the debtor shall, upon the same being made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court or a Judge as aforesaid, be liable to be again taken in execution and remanded to his former custody by order of the Court or a Judge; but no sheriff or gaoler shall be liable as for an escape of the debtor in respect of his enlargement during the time he has been at large by means of his undue discharge as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 13.

Debtor to be taken before the Judge or officer for examination.

14. The Court or Judge making any order for examination of a debtor under this Act may issue an order to the sheriff or gaoler having the custody of the debtor, to bring the debtor before him or before some person (to be named in the order), for the purpose of being so examined, and the sheriff or gaoler shall take the debtor before the Judge or person named as aforesaid, for examination under the authority of this Act, in the same manner as if the sheriff or gaoler were acting in obedience to a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 14.

Judicature Act and Rules to apply to this Act.

15. The Judicature Act and Rules shall so far as applicable apply to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 15.

Debtors in custody on criminal charges excepted.

16. None of the foregoing provisions relative to the weekly allowance, or discharge from custody on account of indigence, shall extend or be applicable to debtors who are at the same time in custody upon a criminal charge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 69, s. 16.

CHAPTER 69.

An Act respecting the Restitution of Stolen Goods.

WHEREAS it often happens that property supposed or alleged to be stolen is found in possession of a person who is afterwards convicted of felony, or misdemeanour, in stealing, taking, obtaining, extorting, embezzling, appropriating, converting or disposing of, or in knowingly receiving other chattels, money, valuable security, or other property, and one or more other charge or charges is or are pending against such prisoner, and there is no intention of proceeding upon such other charge or charges, because of the person having been convicted as aforesaid, and because no additional punishment would be imposed if additional convictions were obtained; and whereas it is expedient in such case to give to the owners or other persons entitled to the possession of the property a summary remedy for the recovery thereof;

Preamble.

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. If in such a case the counsel acting for the Crown intimates that the Crown does not intend to proceed upon any charge in respect of the property so found in the prisoner's possession as first aforesaid, the Judge before whom the prisoner was convicted may, upon the application of the prosecutor or other person claiming the property, summarily try at the same sittings of the Court or at a subsequent time, the right of the prisoner and of the claimant to the property; and if the Judge finds that the claimant is the owner or is entitled to the possession thereof, he may order the property to be delivered to the claimant, and the order shall be an absolute protection to the officer or other person who has the custody of the property in delivering the same as directed by the order. 45 V. c. 12, s. 1.

Order for delivery of property after summary trial.

2. Nothing herein contained shall be held to bar the right of the person convicted to take proceedings for the recovery of the property against the person receiving the same under the order; and the Judge may, if he thinks fit, require the person in whose favour the order is made to give security for the return of the property to the person so convicted, in case the latter should thereafter be held to be entitled thereto. 45 V. c. 12, s. 2.

Right of person convicted not barred by order.

3. If, before an order is made, it appears that a valuable security so found in a prisoner's possession has been bona fide paid or discharged by some person liable to the payment thereof, or, being a negotiable instrument, has been bona fide taken or received by transfer or delivery by some person for a just and valuable consideration, without notice, or without reasonable cause to suspect, that the same had been, by felony or misdemeanour, stolen, taken, obtained, extorted, embezzled, converted or disposed of, in such case the Court shall not order the restitution of the security. 45 V. c. 12, s. 3.

Application of
Act.

4. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to the case of a prosecution of a trustee, banker, merchant, attorney, factor, broker, or other agent entrusted with the possession of goods or documents of title to goods, for a misdemeanour against the Act of the Parliament of Canada, intituled An Act respecting Larceny and similar offences. 45 V. c. 12, s. 4.

Right of Crown preserved.

5. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as intended to affect the right of the Crown to claim property as forfeited for felony. 45 V. c. 12, s. 5.

An Act for more effectually securing the Liberty of the Subject.

Habeas Corpus ad subjiciendum, WHEN AWARDED, s. 1.	Certiorari TO BRING PAPERS AND PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE COURT, s. 5.
PROCEEDINGS IN CASE OF DISOBEDIENCE TO WRIT, ss. 2, 3.	APPEAL TO THE COURT OF APPEAL FROM A REMANDMENT TO CUSTODY, s. 6.
PROCEEDINGS FOR INQUIRING INTO TRUTH OF RETURN, s. 4.	ACT TO EXTEND TO ALL CASES WHERE WRIT ISSUES, s. 7.
	RULES AND ORDERS, s. 8.

Preamble.

Imp. Act, 31,
Car. ii. c. 2.

WHEREAS the writ of Habeas Corpus has been found by experience to be an expeditious and effectual method of restoring any person to his liberty, who has been unjustly deprived thereof; and whereas extending the remedy of the writ, and enforcing obedience thereunto, and preventing delays in the execution thereof, will be advantageous to the public; and whereas the provisions made by an Act passed in England, in the 31st year of King Charles the Second entitled, An Act for the better securing the Liberty of the Subject and for prevention of imprisonment, beyond the seas, only extend to cases of commitment or detainer for criminal or supposed criminal matter;

1. Where a person is confined or restrained of his liberty (except persons imprisoned for debt, or by process in any action, or by the judgment, conviction or order of a Court of Record, Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, or Court of General Sessions of the Peace,) a Judge of the High Court shall, upon complaint made, by or on behalf of the person so confined or restrained, if it appears by affidavit (or affirmation in cases where by law an affirmation is allowed) that there is probable and reasonable ground for the complaint, to award at any time a writ of habeas corpus ad subjiciendum under the seal of the Court directed to the person in whose custody or power the party so confined or restrained is, returnable immediately before the Judge so awarding the same, or before the Judge in Chambers for the time being, or before a Divisional Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 70, s. 1.

2. If the person to whom a writ of habeas corpus is directed according to the provisions of this Act, upon service of the writ, either by the actual delivery thereof to him, or by leaving the same at the place where the party is confined or restrained, with any servant or agent of the person so confining or restraining, wilfully neglects or refuses to make a return or pay obedience thereto, he shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of Court, and the Court or Judge, upon proof by affidavit of wilful disobedience of the writ, may issue a warrant for apprehending and bringing before the Court or Judge, the person so wilfully disobeying the writ, to the end that he may be bound to Her Majesty with two sufficient sureties in such sum as in the warrant is expressed, with the condition to appear in the Court, at a day to be mentioned in the warrant, to answer the matter of contempt with which he is charged. R. S. O. 1877, c. 70, s. 2.

contempt.

3. In case of neglect or refusal to become bound as aforesaid, the Court or Judge may commit the person so neglecting or refusing, to the Common Gaol of the County wherein he resides, or may be found, there to remain until he becomes bound as aforesaid, or is discharged by order of the Court, or a Judge; and the recognizance to be taken thereupon shall be returned and filed and shall continue in force until the matter of the contempt has been heard and determined, unless sooner ordered by the Court to be discharged. R. S. O. 1877, c. 70, s. 3.

Committal.

4. In cases provided for by this Act, though the return to a writ of habeas corpus is good and sufficient in law, the Court or Judge before whom the writ is returnable, may proceed to examine into the truth of the facts set forth in the return, by affidavit or other evidence, and may order and determine touching the discharging, bailing, or remanding the party. R. S. O. 1877, c. 70, s. 6.

Certiorari to bring proceedings and papers before the Court for examination.

5. In cases in which a writ of habeas corpus is issued under the authority of this Act, or otherwise, the Court or Judge may direct the issuing of a writ of certiorari directed to the person by whom or by whose authority any person is confined or restrained of his liberty, or other person having the custody or control thereof, requiring him to certify and return to the Court or Judge as by the writ may be provided, all the evidence, depositions, convictions, and all proceedings had or taken, touching or concerning such confinement or restraint of liberty, to the end that the same may be viewed and considered by the Court or Judge, and to the end that the sufficiency thereof to warrant such confinement or restraint, may be determined. R. S. O. 1877, c. 70, s. 8.

Appeal from remandment to custody.

6. In case a person confined or restrained of his liberty, is brought before the Court or Judge upon a writ of habeas corpus, and is remanded to custody again upon the original order or warrant of commitment, or by virtue of any warrant, order or rule of such Court or Judge, such person may appeal from the decision or judgment of the said Court or Judge to the Court of Appeal; and thereupon the writ of habeas corpus, the return thereto, and all and singular the affidavits, depositions, evidence, conviction and other proceedings shall be certified by the proper officer under the seal of the Court, to the Court of Appeal; and the Court of Appeal shall thereupon hear and determine the appeal without any formal pleadings whatever; and if the Court of Appeal adjudges or determines that the confinement or restraint is illegal, the Court shall certify the same, under the seal of the Court, to the person having the custody or charge of the person so confined or restrained, and shall order his immediate discharge, and he shall be discharged accordingly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 70, s. 9.

Certifying proceedings to Court of Appeal.

Court may order discharge.

Certain provisions of this Act to extend to all cases where the writ issues.

7. The several provisions made in this Act, shall extend to all writs of habeas corpus awarded in pursuance of the said Act passed in England in the 31st year of the reign of King Charles the Second, or otherwise, in as ample and beneficial a manner as if such writs and the said cases arising thereon had been hereinbefore specially named and provided for respectively. R. S. O. 1877, c. 70, s. 10.

Rules and Orders.

8. The Supreme Court and the Court of Appeal respectively, may, from time to time, and as often as occasion requires, make such rules of practice in reference to the proceedings on writs of habeas corpus as may seem necessary or expedient. R. S. O. 1877, c. 70, s. 11.

[See 29-30 V. c. 45, Canada.]

7. ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN CRIMINAL MATTERS.

1. Justices of the Peace.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. Every Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, of the Ex- Judges to be chequer Court of Canada, and of the Supreme Court of justices of the Judicature for Ontario, shall be, ex-officio, a Justice of the Peace ex-for every county and part of Ontario. 41 V. c. 4, s. 1.

2. The following sections of this Act shall not apply to the Provisions in members of Her Majesty's Executive Council, or to the Judges of this Act not to the Supreme Court of Judicature, or to any County Judge, or to extend to per-any Police Magistrate, or to Her Majesty's Attorney-General, sons holding or to any of Her Majesty's Counsel in the Law, or to any certain situa-Mayor, Alderman, Reeve or Deputy-Reeve of any Municipality.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 22; 49 V. c. 16, s. 18.

3. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, whenever Appointment he thinks fit, to appoint under the Great Seal of Ontario or the by the Lieut.- Privy Seal of the Lieutenant-Governor, as the case may require, Governor in one or more Justices of the Peace in and for every County, Council.

City, and Town in the Province and in and for any Provisional Judicial, Temporary Judicial or Territorial District or Provisional County, or for any portion of the territory of the Province not attached to any County for ordinary municipal and judicial purposes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 1. See also Cap. 91, s. 8.

Revocation by new Commission.

4. Where a new general commission of the peace is issued, all and such like former general commissions shall become absolutely revoked and cancelled; but nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the re-appointment of any Justice of the Peace named in the former commission, if the Lieutenant-Governor thinks fit, and the issue of a supplementary commission of the peace for any County shall not operate as a revocation of a General Commission. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 2.

Revocation of Commissions for a town when it becomes a city.

5. Where a town has been erected into a city, and the council of the city duly organized, every commission of the peace theretofore issued for the town shall cease. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 3.

Justices of the Peace to be of the most sufficient persons.

6. Except where otherwise specially provided, all Justices of the Peace appointed in this Province shall be of the most sufficient persons dwelling in the counties, districts or places respectively for which they are appointed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 4.

Unless specially provided no practising solicitor to be Justice of the Peace.

7. Except where otherwise specially provided by law, no solicitor in any Court whatever shall be a Justice of the Peace during the time he continues to practise as a solicitor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 5.

Sheriffs and Coroners acting as such disqualified from acting as Justices of the Peace.

8. No person having, using or exercising the office of sheriff or coroner in and for any county, district or place in Ontario shall be competent or qualified to be a Justice of the Peace or to act as such for any county, district or place wherein he is sheriff or coroner, during the time that he uses or exercises such office, under the penalties hereinafter mentioned; and every act done by a sheriff or coroner, by the authority of any commission of the peace, during the time aforesaid, shall be absolutely void and of none effect; but a stipendiary magistrate for any territorial or temporary judicial district may be a coroner for the district. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 6; 48 V. c. 13, s. 30.

Property qualification.

9. Except where otherwise provided by law, no person shall be a Justice of the Peace, or act as such, who has not in his actual possession, to and for his own proper use and benefit, an estate in free and common soccage, in absolute property, or for life, or lease for one or more lives, or originally created for a term not less than twenty-one years, in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, lying and being in this Province, of or above the value of $1,200 over and above what will satisfy and discharge all incumbrances affecting the same, and over and above all rents and charges payable out of or affecting the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 7.

10. Every Justice of the Peace before he takes upon himself to act as a Justice of the Peace, shall take and subscribe the oath following, before some Justice of the Peace, or before any person appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to administer oaths and declarations, or before the clerk of the peace for the county or district for which he intends to act, that is to say :

Oath of Qualification.

“ I, A. B., do swear, that I truly and bona fide have to and for my own proper use and benefit such an estate as qualifies me to act as a Justice of the Peace for the County (or as the case may be) of _____, according to the true intent and meaning of The Act respecting the Qualification and Appointment of Justices of the Peace to wit (nature of such estate, whether land and if land, designating), and that the same is lying and being (or is issuing out of lands, tenements and hereditaments, situate) within the Township (or in the several Townships or as the case may be) of _____ .
—So help me God.”

R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 8.

[Stipendiary and Police Magistrates do not require a property qualification. See cap. 72, s. 24; cap. 91, s. 5.]

11. Any Justice of the Peace, in lieu of the oath of office heretofore taken by Justices of the Peace, may take the oath following, and the same may be taken before any other Justice of the Peace, or before any person appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to administer oaths and declarations, or before the clerk of the peace of the county or district in which the Justice is to act, that is to say :

Oath of office.

“ I, A. B., of the _____, in the County of _____ do swear that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria in the office of Justice of the Peace, and I will do right to all manner of people, after the laws and usages of this Province, without fear or favour, affection or ill will : So help me God.”

41 V. c. 4, s. 8 (1) and Sched. A.

12.—(1) Every oath of qualification, and every oath of office or allegiance taken by a Justice of the Peace, shall forthwith after the same is taken be transmitted or delivered by the Justice of the Peace to the clerk of the peace of the county or district within which the Justice of the Peace is to act, and shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the peace.

Oaths to be sent to Clerk of Peace.

(2) In the case of Justices of the Peace for the Temporary Judicial District of Nipissing, the oath shall be filed with the clerk of the peace for the county of Renfrew. 41 V. c. 4, s. 8 (3); R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 9.

Clerks of the Peace to deliver on demand an attested copy of such oath.

13. The clerk of the peace shall upon demand, forthwith deliver a true and attested copy of the oath in writing to any person paying the sum of twenty cents for the same; which copy being produced as evidence on the trial of any action under this Act, shall have the same force and effect as the record of the oath would have if produced. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 10.

No new oath required from persons who have before qualified.

14. It shall not be necessary for any Justice of the Peace named in any commission who, after his appointment as such Justice by a former commission took the oath of allegiance and the oath of office as a Justice of the Peace, to again take such oaths or either of them before acting under the new commission, nor shall it be necessary for any such Justice who has under any former Commission qualified himself in the terms of section 10 of this Act, and deposited the oath in the office of the clerk of the peace, to take any oath of qualification before acting under such new commission, unless the Justice, since he took the oath of qualification, has parted with the estate in right of which he qualified. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 11; 41 V. c. 4, s. 8 (3); 48 V. c. 13, s. 33.

Penalty on Justices of the Peace acting without having taken the oath and not being qualified.

15. When not otherwise provided, any person who acts as Justice of the Peace in and for any county, district or place in this Province, without having taken and subscribed the oath of qualification referred to in section 10, or without being qualified according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of $100, one moiety to Her Majesty, and the other moiety to such person as sues for the same, to be recovered, with full costs, by action in any Court having competent jurisdiction in the county, district or place wherein the offence has been committed, and in every such action the proof of his qualification shall be upon the defendant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 12.

Manner of proceeding to enforce such penalty.

16. If the defendant in such action intends to insist upon any lands, tenements or real estate, not mentioned in the oath aforesaid, as constituting the whole or any part of his qualification to act as a Justice of the Peace, at the time of the offence alleged against him, he shall, at or before the time of his pleading, deliver to the plaintiff or to his solicitor notice in writing, specifying such lands, tenements or real estate, and the township or place, and the county or district in which the same are respectively situate, and if the plaintiff, in the action, thinks fit thereupon not to proceed any further, he may, with leave of the Court, discontinue on payment of such costs as the defendant may be entitled to, according to the practice of the Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 13.

Defendant may give notice of other lands.

Lands not mentioned in the oath or notice inadmissible in proof of qualification.

17. Upon the trial of such action, no lands, tenements, or real estate which are not mentioned in the oath or notice aforesaid, shall be insisted upon by the defendant as part of his qualification. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 14.

18. Where the lands, tenements or real property mentioned in the oath or notice, are, together with other lands, tenements or real property belonging to the person taking the oath, or delivering the notice, liable to any charges, rents or incumbrances, then the lands, tenements and real property, mentioned in the oath or notice, shall be deemed liable and chargeable only so far as the other lands, tenements and real property so jointly charged are not sufficient to pay, satisfy or discharge the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 15.

When charges on land limited.

19. Where the qualification hereby required, or any part thereof, consists of rent, it shall be sufficient to specify in the oath or notice, so much of the lands, tenements, or real property out of which the rent is issuing, as is of sufficient value to secure the rent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 16.

If qualification consists of rent.

20. In case the plaintiff in such action discontinues the same, otherwise than as aforesaid, or judgment is given against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 17.

Defendant if successful to recover treble costs.

21. In case an action is brought, and due notice thereof is given to the defendant, no proceedings shall be had upon any subsequent action, against the same person, for any offence committed before the time of giving the notice; and the Court wherein a subsequent action is brought and pending, may, upon the defendant's motion, stay the proceedings if the first action is prosecuted without fraud and with effect, and no action shall be deemed an action, within this Act, unless it is so prosecuted. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 18.

When subsequent action to be stayed.

22. The Court in which an action is brought for the recovery of a penalty imposed by this Act, shall require from the plaintiff his declaration upon oath that the action is brought without fraud, and not for the purpose of protecting the defendant from any action which might be brought by any other person, by reason of the same offence; and if the declaration is not made to the satisfaction of the Court, the action shall be immediately dismissed with costs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 19.

Manner of proceeding in actions instituted for the recovery of penalties.

23. Every action under this Act, shall be commenced within the space of six months next after the fact committed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 20.

Limitation of actions.

24. The fines and penalties incurred and payable to Her Majesty, by virtue of this Act, shall be paid into the hands of the Provincial Treasurer, for the public uses of the Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 71, s. 21.

Fines and penalties to be paid to Provincial Treasurer.]

An Act respecting Police Magistrates.

TENURE OF OFFICE, s. 1.

APPOINTMENTS,

In Cities and Towns, ss. 2-7.

In Counties, ss. 8-17.

GENERAL PROVISIONS, ss. 18-30.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Tenure of office.

1. Every Police Magistrate shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor, and shall hold office during pleasure. R. S. O. 1877, c. 72, s. 3; 50 V. c. 11, s. 4.

IN CITIES, AND TOWNS.

In what cases Police Magistrate to be appointed.

2.—(1) Every city and every town having more than five thousand inhabitants, shall have a Police Magistrate, and the salary of the Police Magistrate shall not be less than on the following scale :—

Salaries of Police Magistrates in cities.

(a) In cities $1,400 per annum (but any salary of a larger amount paid to any Police Magistrate, on the 29th day of March, 1873, shall be continued whilst such Magistrate remains in office);

In towns.

(b) In towns—where the population is not more than six thousand—$800 per annum; where the population is over six thousand and not more than eight thousand—$1,000 per annum; where the population is over eight thousand—$1,200 per annum.

and the salaries shall be paid half-yearly by the city or town. R. S. O. 1877, c. 72, s. 1.

Police Magistrates in towns having less than 5,000 inhabitants.

3.—(1) Every other town may, if the Lieutenant-Governor in Council sees fit to make an appointment, have a Police Magistrate.

(2) No appointment of a salaried Police Magistrate shall in the first instance be made for a town not having more than five thousand inhabitants, until two-thirds of the members of the council do, in council, pass a resolution affirming the expediency thereof; and the council may by the resolution fix the salary to be paid to the Police Magistrate; but no Police Magistrate appointed before the 29th day of March, 1873, in a town with a less population than five thousand, shall be affected by this section. R. S. O. 1877, c. 72 s. 2, (1, 2); 50 V. c. 29, s. 17.

4.—(1) The council of a town with a population of less than five thousand inhabitants in which a salaried Police Magistrate has been appointed may, by the vote of two-thirds of all the members of the council, pass a by-law to reduce the salary of the Police Magistrate, to a sum less than that fixed by the council in the first instance, and may name a sum in the by-law at which the Council desires the salary thereafter to be fixed. Reduction of salary.

(2) Upon being furnished with a duly certified copy of the by-law and with satisfactory proof that the same was passed by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the council, and after notice to the magistrate, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may fix such salary to be paid after a date to be named in the Order, either at the sum named in the by-law or at such other sum, not exceeding the sum fixed in the first instance, as to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may seem meet and proper in view of all the circumstances of the case.

(3) The sum so fixed by the Order in Council shall thereafter be paid as the salary of the Police Magistrate in lieu of that fixed in the first instance as aforesaid. 48 V. c. 39, s. 10.

5. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, at all times, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, appoint a Police Magistrate without salary for any town. R. S. O. 1877, c. 72, s. 2 (3). Appointment without salary.

6. No Justice of the Peace shall admit to bail, or discharge a prisoner, or adjudicate upon, or otherwise act in any case for a town or city where there is a Police Magistrate, except at the Court of General Sessions of the Peace, or in the case of the illness, absence, or at the request of the Police Magistrate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 72, s. 6. When there is a Police Magistrate, other Justices of the Peace not to act.

7. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace for the county in which a town having no Police Magistrate is situate, over offences committed in the town. R. S. O. 1877, c. 72, s. 9. Jurisdiction of County Justices in certain towns.

IN COUNTIES.

8.—(1) Where the county council of a county passes a resolution affirming the expediency of the appointment of a salaried Police Magistrate for the county, the Lieutenant-Governor may make such an appointment, the salary to be paid by the county. 48 V. c. 17, s. 1. When Police Magistrate may be appointed with salary.

(2) The salary to be paid to the Police Magistrate shall not be less than $600; every such Police Magistrate shall be also entitled to be repaid by the county his reasonable and necessary travelling expenses while attending to his duties. The County Council may at any time by resolution assign to the Police Magistrate a larger salary than is hereinbefore named. 48 V. c. 17, s. 2.

Lt.-Governor may appoint police magistrates without salary.

9. Where the Lieutenant-Governor in Council is of opinion that the due administration of justice requires the temporary appointment of a Police Magistrate for a county or district, or any part of a county or district, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint a Police Magistrate accordingly; the appointee shall hold office without salary; but the said provision as to salary shall not apply to any case in which the Legislature, or the County Council, or other Municipal Council, shall see fit to appropriate or pay a salary to the Police Magistrate. 41 V. c. 4, s. 9 (1); 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

More police magistrates than one may be appointed for a county in which Temperance Acts in force.

R. S. C. c. 106.

10.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint more Police Magistrates than one for any county or union of counties or district or part of a district in which The Canada Temperance Act, or a like Act, is in force. Every such Magistrate shall hold office during pleasure, but shall cease to be such Police Magistrate in case, and from the time that, the said Act, or any new Act which may be substituted therefor, ceases to be in force in the county, or union of counties, or district or part of district aforesaid.

Salary.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may determine the salary (if any) to be paid to a county or district Police Magistrate; the same not to exceed the salary provided for by section 8 of this Act, and may also allow the travelling expenses of the said Magistrate at some amount not less than $150 and not more than $300.

(3) Only one Police Magistrate appointed for any county or district, shall receive a salary under authority of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, but the municipal council of a county may grant a salary to any other Police Magistrate or Magistrates appointed for the county, such other Police Magistrate or Magistrates consenting thereto.

(4) Such salary and expenses of a county Police Magistrate shall be paid by the county quarterly. 50 V. c. 11, s. 1.

Jurisdiction.

11. The commission appointing a Police Magistrate for a county or district, may exclude any city or town which has a Police Magistrate, and otherwise a Police Magistrate appointed for a county or district shall have jurisdiction in the whole of the county or district, inclusive of every city or town therein, whether such city or town has or has not also a Police Magistrate of its own. 50 V. c. 11, s. 3.

12. Any Police Magistrate appointed under the preceding four sections shall have and exercise within the county or territory for which he is appointed all the powers, authorities, rights, privileges and jurisdiction by law appertaining to Police Magistrates appointed for cities, and shall be entitled to take the same fees as other Justices of the Peace. 48 V. c. 17, s. 3; 50 V. c. 11, s. 5.

Powers of
trate.

13. No Justice of the Peace shall admit to bail or discharge a prisoner, or adjudicate upon or otherwise act until after judgment in any case prosecuted under the authority of any statute of Ontario where the initiatory proceedings were taken by or before a Police Magistrate, except at the General Sessions of the Peace, or in the case of the illness, or absence, or at the request, of the Police Magistrate. 41 V. c. 4, s. 9 (3).

Proceedings

trate.

15. It shall not be necessary for any county Police Magistrate to be actually resident within the county or district for which, or for part of which, he is appointed. 41 V. c. 4, s. 9 (7).

Residence of county Police Magistrates.

16. A Police Magistrate for a county, or part of a county, may sit or hold his Courts within a town separated from the county, or a city situate within the limits of the county for judicial purposes, whether such city or town has a Police Magistrate or not, and may in such town or city hear complaints, and dispose thereof as Police Magistrate in respect of all matters arising within the county, or the part of the county for which he is appointed, and do all acts, matters and things in the discharge of the duties and powers of his office as fully as when sitting or holding Court in any other part of the county for which he is appointed. 50 V. c. 11, s. 7.

Place of holding Court.

17. The County Council shall provide a proper office, together with fuel, light and furniture, for every county Police Magistrate. 48 V. c. 17, s. 4, part; 50 V. c. 11, s. 5.

Use of Court room.

Proviso.

19. Every Police Magistrate shall, whenever he deems there is occasion therefor, have a right to use any court room or town hall belonging to the county or to any municipality therein (which has no Police Magistrate of its own), for the hearing of cases brought before him; provided the magistrate in so using the court room, or town hall, shall not interfere with the ordinary use of the court rooms for the other Courts for which they are required, or with the use of the town hall for the purposes for which the same was built. 48 V. c. 17, s. 4, part; 50 V. c. 11, s. 5.

Provision in case of absence of Police Magistrate.

20. In case of the absence, or illness, or at the request of a Police Magistrate, any two or more Justices of the Peace may act in his place in any matter within the jurisdiction of the Police Magistrate, and the said Justices of the Peace, or a majority of them shall in such case have all the powers which by any statute are given to the Police Magistrate; but this section shall not be construed to prevent one Justice of the Peace from acting for the Police Magistrate, wherever by law one Justice of the Peace has jurisdiction in that behalf. 41 V. c. 4, s. 7.

Police Magistrate may sit alone with powers of two Justices.

21. A Police Magistrate sitting at a Police Court, or other place appointed in that behalf, shall have full power to do alone whatever is authorized, by any statute in force in this Province relating to matters within the legislative authority of the Legislature of the Province, to be done by two or more Justices of the Peace; and every Police Magistrate shall have such power while acting anywhere within the county for which he is ex officio a Justice of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 72, s. 7; 41 V. c. 4, s. 9, (4).

Oath in lieu of oath of office.

22. The following oath may be taken by any Police Magistrate in lieu of the oath of office heretofore taken by Justices of the Peace, and the same may be taken before any Justice of the Peace or before any person appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to administer oaths and declarations, or before the Clerk of the Peace of the county or district in which the Police Magistrate is to act.

I, A. B., of the of in the County of do swear that I will well and truly serve Our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, in the office of Police Magistrate, and I will do right to all manner of people after the laws and usages of this Province, without fear or favour, affection or ill will. So help me God.

41 V. c. 4, s. 8 (2), and Sched. A.

Oath to be sent to Clerk of the Peace.

23. Every oath of office or allegiance taken by a Police Magistrate shall forthwith after the same is taken be transmitted or delivered by the Police Magistrate to the Clerk of the Peace of the county or district within which the Police Magistrate is to act, and shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Peace. 41 V. c. 4, s. 8 (3 part).

24. No Police Magistrate shall be required to have any property qualification, or to take any further oath to enable him to act as a Justice of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 72, s. 5. Property qualification not requisite.

25. Every Police Magistrate shall be entitled to receive the same fees and emoluments as are paid to Justices of the Peace; and in case a Police Magistrate is paid by a fixed salary, the said fees and emoluments, whether received by him as Police Magistrate or as a Justice of the Peace, shall be paid to the municipality and form part of its funds; but this section shall not authorize the imposition of such fees by a Police Magistrate, who is paid by fixed salary, upon any Inspector of Licenses or upon any Provincial officer appointed under The Liquor License Act in or in respect of any case or complaint prosecuted by him or them under the said License Act or under The Canada Temperance Act, or upon any person who, by the written authority of the Attorney-General of this Province, prosecutes any complaint under either of the said Acts. 46 V. c. 18, s. 433 (3); 50 V. c. 11, s. 2; c. 29, s. 17. Fees of Police Magistrate.
Rev. Stat. c. 194.
R. S. C. c. 106.

26. No Police Magistrate need act in any case arising outside of the limits of the city, town or place for which he is Police Magistrate, unless he sees fit so to do. 46 V. c. 18, s. 433 (5). When Police Magistrate need not act

27. No Police Magistrate, and no partner or clerk of any Police Magistrate, shall act as agent, solicitor or counsel in any cause, matter, prosecution, or proceeding of a criminal nature; nor shall such Police Magistrate, partner or clerk act as aforesaid in any case which by law may be investigated or tried before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace. 49 V. c. 16, s. 19. Police Magistrates not to act for offenders or criminals.

28. No municipal council shall have power to reduce the salary of a Police Magistrate without the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 46 V. c. 18, s. 433 (4). Reduction of Police Magistrate's salary.

29.—(1) No action shall lie against a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate for or by reason of any process issued, or conviction made by, or any proceedings of any kind taken before him alone, or authorized by him, in good faith, in any case which, by the law applicable thereto, was not cognizable by such Police Magistrate, or not by him sitting alone, or should have been heard by two justices of the peace, or by the mayor of a city or town within the district, county, union of counties, or part of a district or county or union of counties, for which the Stipendiary or Police Magistrate was appointed. Action not to lie against stipendiary or police magistrates, etc., for certain mistakes as to jurisdiction under Canada Temperance Act.

(2) This section shall not prevent an action from being maintained where and so far as the action would be maintainable against the mayor or justices of the peace if the process had been issued or conviction made by, or proceedings taken before, or authority given by him or them, in a matter in which he or they had jurisdiction.

(3) No action shall lie against a constable or peace officer for anything done by him under and by virtue of process issued or authority given, as in sub-section 1 mentioned, unless the action would be maintainable if the process had been issued or authority given by a person or persons legally qualified to issue the process or give the authority.

(4) This section shall apply to pending actions, and also to actions (whether brought before or after this Act) for anything done before the passing of this Act, as well as to actions in respect of acts which may hereafter be done. 50 V. c. 11, s. 9.

30. Except in cases of urgent necessity no attendance of the Police Magistrate is required at the Police Office on Sundays or other holidays, or on any day set apart by the Municipal Council as a civic holiday. 46 V. c. 18, s. 433 (2); 50 V. c. 29, s. 17.

PROTECTION OF PERSONS OBEYING WRIT OF MANDAMUS, s. 24.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1.—(1) In case an action is brought against a Police Magistrate or other Justice of the Peace for any act done by him in the execution of his duty as such Justice, with respect to any matter within his jurisdiction as such Justice, or against any other officer or person fulfilling any public duty, for anything by him done in the performance of such public duty, whether such duties arise out of the Common Law or are imposed by any Act either of the Imperial or Dominion Parliament, or of the Legislature of this Province, it shall be expressly alleged in the statement of claim that the act was done maliciously and without reasonable and probable cause; and if at the trial of the action, the plaintiff fails to prove such allegation, he shall be non-suited, or a verdict or judgment shall be given for the defendant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 1; 50 V. c. 11, s. 8.

In actions for things done within the jurisdiction of a Justice of the Peace or by other officers, malice and want of probable cause must be alleged and proved.

(2) So far as applicable, the whole of this Act shall apply for the protection of every officer and person mentioned in the preceding sub-section, for anything done in the execution of his office as therein expressed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 20.

Application of Act.

2. For any act done by a Justice of the Peace in a matter in which by law he has not jurisdiction, or in which he has exceeded his jurisdiction, or for any act done under a conviction or order made or warrant issued by the Justice in such matter, any person injured thereby may maintain an action against the Justice in the same case as he might have done before the passing of this Act, without making any allegation in his statement of claim that the act complained of was done maliciously and without reasonable and probable cause. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 2.

Action when jurisdiction exceeded may be without allegation.

3. Where a conviction or order has been made by a Justice of the Peace, and a warrant of distress or of commitment has been granted thereon by some other Justice of the Peace, bona fide and without collusion, no action shall be brought against the Justice who granted the warrant by reason of any defect in the conviction or order, or for any want of jurisdiction in the Justice who made the same, but the action (if any is brought) shall be against the Justice who made the conviction or order. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 3.

Justice of the Peace who grants a warrant under a conviction or order made by another Justice of the Peace, may not be liable for the same.

4. No action as mentioned in this Act shall be brought for anything done under a conviction or order until the conviction or order has been quashed, either upon appeal or upon application to the High Court; nor shall any such action be brought for anything done under any warrant issued by such Justice to procure the appearance of the party, and which has been followed by a conviction or order in the same matter, until the conviction or order has been quashed as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 4; 41 V. c. 8, s. 10.

No action for anything done under a conviction or order until the same is quashed.

No action for anything done under a warrant to compel appearance, if summons is previously served and not obeyed.

5. If the last mentioned warrant has not been followed by a conviction or order, or in case it is a warrant upon an information for an alleged indictable offence, if a summons was issued previously to the warrant, and the summons was served upon such person, either personally or by leaving the same for him with some person at his last or most usual place of abode, and he did not appear according to the exigency of the summons, in such case no such action shall be maintained against the Justice for anything done under the warrant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 5.

If a justice refuses to do any act, the High Court or the County Judge may order him to do it, and no action shall then lie against him for doing it.

6. In all cases where a Justice of the Peace refuses to do any act relating to the duties of his office as such Justice, the party requiring the act to be done may, upon an affidavit of the facts, apply to the High Court or to the Judge of the County Court of the county or united counties in which the Justice resides, for an order nisi calling upon the Justice, and also the party to be affected by the act, to shew cause why the act should not be done; and if, after due service of the order, good cause is not shewn against it, the Court may make the same absolute, with or without or upon payment of costs, as may seem meet, and the Justice, upon being served with the order absolute, shall obey the same, and shall do the act required; and no action or proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against the Justice for having obeyed the order and done the act required as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 6.

After conviction, etc., confirmed on appeal, no action to lie for an act done under a warrant.

7. In case a Justice of the Peace has granted a warrant of distress or a warrant of commitment upon any conviction or order which, either before or after the granting of the warrant has been confirmed upon appeal, no action shall be brought against the Justice by reason of any defect in the conviction or order for anything done under the warrant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 7.

Protection to those acting under statutes ultra vires.

8.—(1) No action shall be brought against any Judge, Stipendiary or Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or officer, for any act or thing by him done under the supposed authority of a statute or statutory provision of the Province, or of the Dominion of Canada, which statute or statutory provision was beyond the legislative jurisdiction of the Legislature of the Province or of the Parliament of Canada, as the case may be, provided the action would not lie against him, if the statute or statutory provision had been within the legislative jurisdiction of the Parliament or Legislature, which assumed to enact the same.

Cases wherein above does not protect.

(2) Where, notwithstanding the above sub-section, an action is sustainable against a Judge, Stipendiary or Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or officer, for any act or thing by him done under the authority of a statute, or statutory provision, as in the said sub-section, the action shall only be sustainable subject to the like provisions as the action would be subject to if the statute or statutory provision were valid; and the like damages, and no more, shall be recoverable in such action as under the like circumstances could have been recovered if the statute or statutory provision had been valid. 41 V. c. 4, s. 2, (1, 2)

9. No defect in form, in an information or warrant taken before or signed by a Justice of the Peace, shall prevent the Justice from claiming the benefit and protection of this Act if the Court before which, or the Judge before whom, the action is tried shall be of opinion that the Justice acted in good faith, and that the informant or complainant intended, by the facts stated to the Justice, to charge the commission of an offence which, if the same had been set forth in proper form in the information or warrant, would be one within the jurisdiction of the Justice, and in such case the informant or complainant shall be liable to prosecution, as if the information had charged in proper form the commission of the offence so intended to be charged. 41 V. c. 4, s. 3.

Defects in form of informations and warrants not to prevent Justices from claiming protection hereunder.

10. Where an order is made by the High Court quashing a summary conviction the Court may, if it thinks fit so to do, provide that no action for a trespass shall be brought against the Justice of the Peace who made the conviction. 41 V. c. 4, s. 4.

Condition on quashing summary conviction.

11. No person who has in good faith as aforesaid intended to charge another person, who shall hereafter be arrested by the direction of the person so charging the said offence, under a warrant signed by a Justice of the Peace, with the commission of any offence, shall be liable to be sued for a trespass, in consequence only of the information sworn before a Justice of the Peace, or the warrant signed by him not containing a proper description of the offence. 41 V. c. 4, s. 5.

Actions when information does not contain a proper description of the offence.

12. In case an action is brought, where by this Act it is enacted that no action shall be brought under the particular circumstances, a Judge of the Court in which the action is pending shall, upon application of the defendant, and upon an affidavit of facts, set aside the proceedings in the action, with or without costs, as to him seems meet. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 8.

If any action is brought contrary to this Act, Judge may set aside the proceedings.

13. No action shall be brought against a Justice of the Peace for anything done by him in the execution of his office unless the same is commenced within six months next after the act complained of was committed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 9.

Limitation of actions.

Notice of action to be given.

14. No such action shall be commenced against a Justice of the Peace until one month at least after a notice in writing of the intended action has been delivered to him, or left for him at his usual place of abode, by the party intending to commence the action, or by his solicitor or agent, in which notice the cause of action, and the Court in which the same is intended to be brought, shall be clearly and explicitly stated; and upon the back thereof shall be endorsed the name and place of abode of the party intending to sue, and also the name and place of abode or of business of his solicitor or agent, if the notice is served by the solicitor or agent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 10.

Place of trial.

Defendant
may plead not guilty
by statute.

15. Every such action shall be tried in the County where the act complained of was committed, and in actions in County or Division Courts, the action shall be brought in the County or Division within which the act complained of was committed, or in which the defendant resides, and the defendant may plead not guilty by statute, and may, at the trial of the action, give any special matter of defence, excuse or justification in evidence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 11.

Action not to be brought in County or Division Court, if the Justice objects.

16. No action shall be brought in any County or Division Court against a Justice of the Peace for anything done by him in the execution of his office if the Justice objects thereto; and if, within six days after being served with a notice of the action, the Justice, or his solicitor or agent, gives a written notice to the plaintiff in the intended action that he objects to being sued in such County or Division Court for such cause of action, no proceedings shall afterwards be had in such County or Division Court in the action, but it shall not be necessary to give another notice of action in order to sue the Justice in any other Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 12.

Tender and payment of money into Court by Justice.

17. In every such case, after notice of action has been given as aforesaid, and before an action has been commenced, the Justice to whom the notice has been given may tender to the party complaining, or to his solicitor or agent, such sum of money as he thinks fit as amends for the injury complained of in the notice; and after the action has been commenced, and at any time before issue joined therein, the defendant, if he has not made a tender, or in addition to the tender, may pay into Court such sum of money as he thinks fit, and the tender and payment of money into Court, or either of them, may afterwards be given in evidence by the defendant at the trial under such defence of not guilty. R. S. O. 1877 c. 73, s. 13.

If Judge or jury think plaintiff entitled to no greater damages, verdict to be for defendant.

18. If the jury (or the Judge, if the case be tried without a jury) at the trial be of opinion that the plaintiff is not entitled to damages beyond the sum so tendered or paid into Court, a verdict or judgment shall be given for the defendant, and the plaintiff shall not be at liberty to elect to be nonsuited, and the sum of money, if any, so paid into Court, or so much thereof as is sufficient to pay or satisfy the defendant's costs in that behalf, shall thereupon be paid out of Court to him, and the residue, if any, shall be paid to the plaintiff. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 14.

19. In case money is paid into Court in such action, and the plaintiff elects to accept the same in satisfaction of his damages in the action, he may obtain from a Judge of the Court in which the action has been brought, an order that the money shall be paid out of Court to him, and that the defendant shall pay him his costs to be taxed, and thereupon the said action shall be determined, and the order shall be a bar to any other action for the same cause. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 15. ⁶³

If the plaintiff accepts the money.

20. If at the trial of the action the plaintiff does not prove,

If plaintiff fails to prove certain particulars, he shall be non-suited or verdict given for the defendant.

1. That the action was brought within the time hereinbefore limited in that behalf; and

2. That notice as aforesaid was given one month before the action was commenced; and

3. The cause of action stated in the notice; and

4. That the cause of action arose in the county or district, the County Town of which is named in the statement of claim as the place of trial; and

5. Where the plaintiff sues in a County, District or Division Court, that the cause of action arose within the county, district or united counties for which such Court is holden ; then, and in any such case, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or a verdict shall be given for the defendant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 16.

21. In case the plaintiff in such action is entitled to recover, and he proves the levying or payment of any penalty or sum of money under any conviction or order as parcel of the damages he seeks to recover, or if he proves that he was imprisoned under the conviction or order, and seeks to recover damages for the imprisonment, and it is proved that he was actually guilty of the offence of which he was so convicted, or that he was liable by law to pay the sum he was so ordered to pay, and with respect to the imprisonment that he has undergone no greater punishment than that assigned by law for the offence of which he was so convicted, or for non payment of the sum he was so ordered to pay, he shall not be entitled to recover the amount of the penalty or sum so levied or paid, or any sum beyond the sum of three cents as damages for the imprisonment, or any costs of suit whatsoever. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 17.

Damages limited in certain cases.

If plaintiff recovers verdict, etc., to be entitled to costs. 22. If the plaintiff in such action recovers a verdict or the defendant allows judgment to pass against him by default, the plaintiff shall be entitled to costs in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 18.

If malice and want of probable cause be alleged and plaintiff recovers, he shall be entitled to full costs. 23. If in any case it is alleged in the statement of claim or in the summons and particulars if the plaintiff sues in the Division Court, that the act complained of was done maliciously and without reasonable or probable cause, the plaintiff, if he recovers a verdict for any damages, or if the defendant allows judgment to pass against him by default, shall be entitled to his costs to be taxed as between solicitor and client; and in every action against a Justice of the Peace for anything done by him in the execution of his office, the defendant, if he obtains judgment, shall be entitled to his full cost in that behalf, to be taxed as between solicitor and client. R. S. O. 1877, c. 73, s. 19.

Persons obeying writs of mandamus, indemnified. 24. No action, or other proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against any person or persons whomsoever, for or by reason of anything done in obedience to a peremptory writ of mandamus issued by any Court having authority to issue writs of mandamus. R. S. O. 1877, c. 52, s. 29.

CHAPTER 74.

An Act respecting Summary Convictions before Justices of the Peace and Appeals to General Sessions.

PROCEDURE BEFORE JUSTICES, ss. 1-3.
Except in appeals, to be according to the practice under the Acts of Canada, from time to time in force, ss. 1, 2.
Costs, s. 2.

APPEALS FROM JUSTICES TO GENERAL SESSIONS, ss. 4-8.
IN CASE OF AMENDMENT OF ACTS OF CANADA, WHEN AMENDED ACTS TO APPLY, s. 9.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

PROCEDURE BEFORE JUSTICES.

Procedure before Justices, etc., to be the same as under Dominion Acts respecting procedure in summary convictions. 1.—(1) Where a penalty or punishment is imposed under the authority of any statute of the Province of Ontario, or of any other statute or law in force in Ontario, and relating to matters within the legislative authority of the Legislature of the Province, and is recoverable before, or may be inflicted by, a Justice of the Peace, or a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, the like proceedings, and no other, shall and may be had for recovering the penalty, compelling the attendance of the parties or witnesses, hearing the complaint, and for the conduct of the Court, the taking and estreating of recognizances, and the infliction of the punishment, and otherwise in respect thereof, and the convicting Justice, or Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, shall perform the like duties in respect thereto, and in respect of any conviction or order made by him or them by virtue of such statute, as, under the statutes of the Dominion of Canada then in force, might be had and should be performed, if the penalty or punishment had been imposed by a statute of Canada unless in any Act hereafter passed imposing the penalty or punishment, it is otherwise declared.

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall confer upon any person who considers himself aggrieved by a conviction or order made by any Justice, or Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, the right of appealing to the General Sessions of the Peace, or shall affect procedure on appeals. R. S. O. 1877, c. 74, s. 1. Procedure on appeals not affected.

2.—(1) In all cases of summary conviction, or of orders made by a Justice of the Peace, Police Magistrate, or Stipendiary Magistrate under this Act, the Justice, Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate may, in his discretion, award and order, in and by the conviction or order, that the defendant shall pay to the prosecutor or complainant, such costs as to the Justice, Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate seems reasonable in that behalf, the same not being inconsistent with the fees established by law to be taken on proceedings had by and before Justices of the Peace. Magistrate may order defendant to pay costs.

(2) In cases where the Justice or Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate, instead of convicting or making any order, dismisses the information or complaint, he may, in his discretion, in and by the order of dismissal, award and order that the prosecutor or complainant shall pay to the defendant such costs as to the Justice, or Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate, seem reasonable and are consistent with the law. Magistrate may order prosecutor to pay costs.

(3) The sums so allowed for costs shall be specified in the conviction or order, and shall be recoverable in the same manner and under the same warrants as a penalty adjudged to be paid by conviction or order is recovered. Recovery of costs with penalty.

(4) Where there is no penalty to be recovered, the costs shall be recoverable only by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party. 49 V. c. 16, s. 20. Recovery of costs where no penalty.

Convictions and recognizances to be transmitted to Clerk of the Peace.

3. The Clerk of the Peace for the county shall be the proper officer to whom shall be transmitted convictions to be filed, and recognizances in respect of which proceedings require to be taken at the General Sessions of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 74, s. 2.

APPEALS TO GENERAL SESSIONS.

Appeal from convictions to the General Sessions.

4. Any party who considers himself aggrieved by a conviction or order made by a Justice of the Peace, or by a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, under the authority of any statute in force in Ontario, and relating to matters within the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario, may, unless it is otherwise provided by the particular Act under which the conviction or order is made, appeal therefrom to the General Sessions of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 74, s. 3.

Practice and proceedings on appeal.

5. In case an appeal lies to the Court of General Sessions of the Peace from a conviction or order made, as aforesaid, under the authority of a statute of the Legislature of Ontario or other statute or law in force in the Province of Ontario, and relating to matters within the legislative authority of the Legislature, the practice and proceedings on the appeal and preliminary thereto, and otherwise in respect thereof, save as is herein otherwise expressed, shall be the same as the practice and proceedings under the statutes of the Dominion of Canada then in force, on an appeal to the General Sessions of the Peace from a conviction before a Justice of the Peace, made under the authority of a statute of Canada; except that either of the parties to the appeal may call witnesses and adduce evidence in addition to the witnesses called, and evidence adduced at the original hearing. R. S. O. 1877, c. 74, s. 4.

evidence on appeal.

Notice of appeal.

6.—(1) Where an appeal lies to the General Sessions of the Peace from a conviction or order made by a Justice of the Peace, or by a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, under the authority of any statute in force in Ontario, and relating to matters within the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario, the notice of appeal may be given within ten days after the conviction or order.

(2) If the conviction or order is made more than fourteen days before the sittings of the General Sessions, the appeal shall be made to the then next sittings of the Court, but if the conviction or order be made within fourteen days of the sittings of the Court, then to the second sittings next after the conviction of order. 48 V. c. 19, s. 1.

7. If upon the trial at the General Sessions of the Peace of an appeal from a decision of a Justice of the Peace upon any matter within the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario, it is proved upon the oath or affirmation of any credible witness that a person whose deposition has been taken upon the original hearing, is dead, or is so ill as not to be able to travel, or is absent from Ontario, or if it is proved in like manner that after diligent inquiry such person cannot be found to be served with a subpœna, and if it is also proved that such deposition was taken in presence of the person accused, and that he, his counsel or solicitor, had a full opportunity of cross-examining the witness, and if the deposition purports to be signed by the Justice by or before whom the same purports to have been taken, it shall be received as evidence in the prosecution without further proof thereof, unless it is proved that the deposition was not in fact signed by the Justice purporting to have signed the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 74, s. 5.

At General Sessions of the Peace, on appeal, the original depositions to be evidence in certain cases.

8. An appellant may abandon his appeal by giving the opposite party notice of his intention in writing six days before the Sessions appealed to; and thereupon the Justice, or Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, may tax the additional costs if any, of the respondent, and add the same to the original costs, and proceed on the original conviction, or order, in the same manner as if there had been no appeal thereon. R. S. O. 1877, c. 74, s. 6.

Abandonment of appeal; costs.

WHEN AMENDED ACTS OF CANADA TO APPLY.

9. If the Parliament of Canada amends any statute, the operation whereof is extended by virtue of this Act, no such amendment shall have any force in Ontario, by virtue of this Act, until after the termination of the Session of the Legislature of Ontario held next after the passing of the amending statute. R. S. O. 1877, c. 74, s. 7.

When amendments of Dominion Acts shall take effect under this Act.

CHAPTER 75.

An Act respecting the procedure on Appeals to the Judge of a County Court from Summary Convictions.

INTERPRETATION, s. 1.	JUDGE AFFIRMING OR QUASHING CONVICTION, ss. 8-12.
PROCEDURE WHERE APPEAL LIES TO COUNTY JUDGE, ss. 2-7 :	APPEALS TO BE ON THE MERITS NOTWITHSTANDING DEFECTS IN FORM, s. 13.
Giving of security and transmission of papers, etc., to Clerk of County Court, s. 3.	DEALING WITH MONEY DEPOSITED ON SECURITY, s. 14.
Liberation of prisoner on security being given, ss. 4, 5.	CONVICTIONS NOT TO BE QUASHED FOR DEFECT OF FORM, ss. 15, 16.
Summons to quash conviction, ss. 6, 7.	POWERS OF JUDGE, s. 17.
PROCEEDINGS ON ORDER OF COUNTY	FORMS, s. 18.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario enacts as follows :—

Interpretation :

1. Where the following words occur in this Act or in the schedules thereto they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned unless a contrary intention appears :—

“Justice,” “Justice of the Peace,”

1. “Justice” or “Justice of the Peace,” shall include a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate ;

“Conviction.”

2. “Conviction” shall include an order made by a Justice of the Peace ; and “Person convicted.”

3. “Person convicted” shall include any person, against whom an order is made as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 1.

Appeals to be to the Judge of the County wherein conviction made.

2. Where, by any statute of Ontario, an appeal is given to the Judge of the County Court without a jury, from a summary conviction had or made before a Justice of the Peace, and no special provision is made therefor, the appeal shall be to the Judge of the County Court of the County in which the conviction is made, sitting in Chambers, and the proceedings thereon shall be as hereinafter provided. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 2.

Procedure.

3. In any of the following cases, namely :

First, appeal from conviction imposing money penalty, and security given by appellant.

Firstly. If the appeal is against a conviction whereby only a money penalty is imposed, then, in case the person convicted deposits with the convicting Justice the amount of the penalty and the costs and a further sum of $10, or with two sufficient sureties enters into a recognizance (Form 1) before a Justice of the Peace, in a sum double the amount of the penalty and the costs, conditioned duly to prosecute the appeal, and to abide by and perform the order of the Judge thereupon, and to pay such costs as he may order ;

Secondly. If the appeal is against a conviction whereby imprisonment is imposed, then, in case the person convicted, with two sufficient sureties, enters into a recognizance (Form 2), before a Justice of the Peace in a sum not less than $100 nor more than $200, as the convicting Justice directs, and in double the amount of the penalty and costs which the person convicted has been ordered to pay, conditioned as aforesaid, and also containing the further condition that the person convicted will surrender himself if the conviction is affirmed ;

Appeal where imprisonment imposed, and security given by appellant.

Thirdly. If the person convicted is in custody for non-payment of a fine and costs, or in consequence of imprisonment being imposed as aforesaid, and fails to make the required deposit, or to enter into a recognizance, as hereinbefore provided, but deposits with the said Justice the sum of $10 ;

Appeal when in custody and security given by appellant.

the said Justice shall, at the request of the person convicted, made within five days after the date of the conviction, forthwith transmit to the Clerk of the County Court, by registered letter post-paid, all the proceedings and evidence ; which proceedings and evidence, with a duplicate of any order made by the Judge as hereinafter provided, shall, immediately after the matter has been finally disposed of by the Judge, be transmitted by the Clerk of the County Court, in manner aforesaid, to the Clerk of the Peace, to be by him kept with the records of convictions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 3.

4. In any of the cases of the classes firstly and secondly above mentioned, the convicting Justice, upon the recognizance being given or the deposit made, as the case may require, shall stay all proceedings upon the conviction, and if the person convicted is in custody the Justice shall issue his warrant (Form 3) to liberate such person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 4.

In the first and second of above cases, Justice to stay proceedings and liberate prisoner.

5. In any of the cases thirdly above mentioned, the person appealing shall remain in custody while the appeal is pending, unless he is in custody for non-payment of a fine or costs, in which case the convicting Justice shall order his liberation upon his depositing (in addition to the said sum of $10) the amount for the non-payment of which he is in custody. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 5.

Mode of liberation in the third case.

6.—(1) Within ten days after the date of the conviction, but not afterwards, unless it is made to appear to the Judge that the delay arose wholly from the fault of the convicting Justice, the Judge of the County Court, if he is of opinion from the evidence that the conviction may be erroneous, may grant a summons calling upon the County Crown Attorney and the prosecutor to shew cause why the conviction should not be quashed.

Summons to shew cause why conviction should not be quashed.

(2) Such summons shall not be granted in any case after the expiration of one month from the date of the conviction. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 6.

Proceedings on return of summons.

7. Upon the return of the summons the Judge upon hearing the parties may either affirm or quash the conviction, or, if he thinks fit, may hear the evidence of such other witnesses as may be produced before him, or the further evidence of any witness already examined, and may then make an order affirming, or amending and affirming, or quashing the conviction as he may think just, and may order the payment of costs and may fix the amount thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 7.

Proceedings
after order affirming or quashing
conviction.

8. Upon the production of the Judge's order affirming, or amending and affirming the conviction, the Justice who has made the conviction shall, if the case is one in which a recognizance has not been given, issue his warrant for payment of such further sum for costs as the sum deposited with him is insufficient to pay; if the conviction is quashed, the Judge shall order a return of the money deposited, and shall have authority to order payment of such sum for costs as he may tax and allow, and unless the sum is paid by the complainant, the Justice shall issue his warrant to levy the costs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 8.

The case of conviction and penalty of imprisonment or conviction affirmed, or appeal not prosecuted.

9.—(1) If by the conviction it is adjudged that the person convicted should be imprisoned, and the conviction is affirmed, or amended and affirmed, or the person convicted fails duly to prosecute the appeal, the Judge shall issue his warrant (Form 4) for the commitment to the proper gaol or other place of imprisonment of the person convicted, and unless such person, within one week thereafter, surrenders himself into the custody of the constable or other officer entrusted with the execution of the warrant, the condition of the recognizance shall be deemed broken, and the recognizance forfeited; and upon proof of default being made by affidavit of the officer or otherwise, the Judge may certify (Form 5) the default on the back of the recognizance, and shall thereupon transmit the recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace.

(2) The recognizance shall be thereafter proceeded upon at the General Sessions of the Peace in the same manner as a recognizance taken upon an appeal to the Sessions from a summary conviction may be proceeded upon; and the certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of the default of the defendant; but such proceedings shall not relieve the person convicted from undergoing the term of imprisonment to which he was sentenced; and the warrant of the Judge issued in that behalf, or any new warrant issued by him, may be executed in any part of Ontario in the same manner and subject to the like conditions as a warrant of a Justice of the Peace for the apprehension of an offender. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 9.

10. If by the conviction only a money penalty is imposed, the Judge, upon being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that default has been made upon a recognizance given on an appeal in such a case, shall certify in like manner as is provided in the preceding section, and similar proceedings shall thereupon be had in respect of the recognizance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 10.

The case of conviction and money penalty and default on recognizance.

11. In case it is proved to the satisfaction of the Judge that the person convicted had previously served a portion of his term, the Judge shall only issue his warrant for the commitment of the defendant for the residue of the term of imprisonment to which he was sentenced. The Judge may, if he thinks fit, transmit his warrant to the convicting Justice in order that he may place the same in the hands of a constable for execution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 11.

Service of portion of term of imprisonment before order made on appeal.

Transmission of Judge's warrant.

12. A warrant issued under this Act may be directed in the same manner, and executed by the like officers, as a warrant of commitment upon a summary conviction made under a statute of the Parliament of Canada. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 12.

Warrants, direction and execution of.

13. In all cases of appeal to a County Court Judge from a summary conviction had before a Justice, the Judge to whom the appeal is made shall hear and determine the charge or complaint on which the conviction has been had, upon the merits, notwithstanding any defect of form or otherwise in the conviction; and if the person charged or complained against is found guilty, the conviction shall be affirmed, and the Judge shall amend the same if necessary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 13.

Hearing on appeal to be on the merits.

Power to amend.

14. The Justice shall retain any moneys deposited with him as aforesaid for the period of six months, unless judgment is sooner given; and upon the judgment in appeal being given, or upon the expiration of six months from the day of the date of the conviction, the Justice shall pay over such moneys to the person or persons entitled thereto, in accordance with the judgment; and if the judgment in appeal is not delivered within six months from the day of the date of the conviction, the conviction shall stand, but the respondent shall not be entitled to any costs of the appeal; and in case imprisonment was adjudged by the conviction, the convicting Justice shall, or any other Justice may, issue his warrant for the commitment of the person convicted for any portion of the term which he has not served, and no further proceedings shall be taken on the appeal. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 14.

Dealing with money deposited.

The case of judgment not given within six months from conviction.

Judgment of imprisonment.

15. No conviction affirmed or amended and affirmed on appeal by the County Court Judge shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari into the High Court; and no warrant or commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, provided it is therein alleged that the party has been convicted, and there is a good and valid conviction to sustain the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 75, s. 15.

No conviction affirmed to be invalid for want of form, or defect in warrant or commitment.

CHAPTER 77.

An Act respecting Returns of Convictions by Stipendiary and Police Magistrates.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Record of convictions.

1. Every Police Magistrate, except as hereinafter mentioned, and every Stipendiary Magistrate shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the place where he most usually holds his Court, a book ruled in the same manner as the form of return of convictions given in The Act respecting Returns of Convictions and Fines by Justices of the Peace, and shall, from time to time enter, or cause to be entered in the said book, in respect of convictions had before him whether the conviction is under a law within Dominion or Provincial authority, the information required to be given in the returns prescribed by the said Act. 49 V. c. 17, s. 1.

Rev. Stat. c. 76.

Cost of book in which record kept.

2. In the case of a Police Magistrate the cost of the book shall be returned to him by the municipality of which he is a Police Magistrate; or if he is a Police Magistrate of territory composed of two or more municipalities, the cost shall be repaid by the county, and in case of a Stipendiary Magistrate the cost of the book shall be repaid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province. 49 V. c. 17, s. 2.

When entries to be made.

3. The required entries shall be made forthwith upon the happening of the event in respect of which information is to be given; and in case the fine, forfeiture, penalty, or damages imposed, is or are not collected within three months after the imposition thereof, the cause of the same not having been collected shall be written in the column for observations. 49 V. c. 17, s. 3.

Record to be open to inspection.

4. Any person shall be at liberty to inspect the book under this Act at any reasonable time upon the payment of a fee of ten cents, to be paid to the clerk, or to the magistrate, if there is no clerk; but any person upon whom any fine, forfeiture, penalty, or damages has or have been imposed, or any person in his behalf, may at any reasonable time gratuitously inspect the entry in respect of his conviction; and the book kept by or for a Police Magistrate shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the gratuitous inspection of any of the officers of the municipality. 49 V. c. 17, s. 4.

Penalty.

5. In case a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate before whom a conviction takes place, or who receives any such moneys, neglects to make, or cause to be made, the proper entry in respect thereto for more than one month after the conviction takes place, or after the receipt of money paid him in respect of the imposition of a fine, forfeiture, penalty or damages, such Magistrate shall forfeit and pay the sum of $80, together with full costs of suit, to be recovered by any person who sues for the same in any Court of Record in the Province, one moiety of which sum shall be paid to the party suing and the other moiety to the Treasurer of the Province for the public use of the Province; and the provisions of section 4 of The Act respecting Returns of Convictions and Fines by Justices of the Peace shall apply to any action brought under this section for the recovery of a penalty. 49 V. c. 17, s. 5. Rev., Stat. c. 76.

6. The provisions of section 1 of the said Act shall not be held to apply to a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, nor shall it be necessary that convictions by Police or Stipendiary Magistrates should be published in any newspaper. 49 V. c. 17, s. 6. Application of
s. 1, limited.

7. The council of any municipality may at any time cause copies of such entries to be made, and may cause the same to be published in any newspaper, or otherwise, as may be deemed fitting. 49 V. c. 17, s. 7. Publication of entries.

8. Except as hereinafter mentioned, every Police Magistrate shall forward to the Clerk of the Peace of the county, for which, or within which, he is Police Magistrate, and to the Inspector of legal offices at Toronto, on or before the second Tuesday in each of the months of March, June, September and December, of every year, a copy certified by him to be a true copy of the entries in his book aforesaid with reference to convictions had before him, or fines, forfeitures, penalties or damages, imposed by him, during the three months ending on the last day of the month of February, May, August, or November, next preceding such second Tuesday; and he shall also append to the copy a statement of any transactions which have taken place during the time covered by the said period with reference to any conviction made, or fine, forfeiture, penalty or damages, imposed by him during any previous period. 49 V. c. 17, s. 8. Return of convictions

9. In the case of a city or town which has a salaried clerk of the police court other than the clerk of the council of the city or town, the duties directed by this Act to be performed by the Police Magistrate shall under the like penalties and within the like periods be performed by the clerk. The Police Magistrate shall supervise the performance of the said duties by the clerk. 49 V. c. 17, s. 9. Duties of clerk of police court.

10. This Act shall not apply to the City of Toronto. 49 V. c. 17, s. 10. Act not to apply to Toronto.

as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The County Crown Attorneys Act." R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 1.

Interpretation.

2. Unless there is something in the context repugnant to such construction, the word "Assizes," when used in this Act, shall be understood to mean the sittings of the High Court for the trial of criminal causes, or the sittings of any Court of Assize or of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 2.

Lieutenant-Governor to appoint, remove, etc.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor shall from time to time appoint a Crown Attorney for each county in Ontario, to hold office during pleasure. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 3.

Who qualified to be appointed.

4. No person shall be appointed a County Crown Attorney, or shall act in that capacity, who is not a barrister-at-law of at least three years' standing at the Bar of Ontario, and a resident in the county for which he is appointed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 4.

5. Every County Crown Attorney shall give security for the due performance of the duties of his office, and for the due payment of all moneys received by him by virtue thereof, in such sum, and with so many sureties, and in such manner and form as the Lieutenant-Governor directs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 5.

County Crown Attorneys to give security.

6. No County Crown Attorney shall be qualified to act as such until he has taken, before some County Judge, the following oath, that is to say :

Oath of office.

“I do swear that I will truly and faithfully, according to the best of my skill and ability, execute the several duties, powers and trusts of County Crown Attorney for the County of _____, without favour or affection to any party : So help me God.”

R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 6.

7. No County Crown Attorney shall by himself or his partner in business, act or be directly or indirectly concerned as counsel or solicitor for any prisoner or party, in respect to any charge against such prisoner or party of treason, felony or other offence, punishable under the criminal law in force in this Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 7.

Not to act as counsel for prisoners.

8. The County Crown Attorney for each county shall aid in the local administration of justice, and perform the duties by this Act or any other Act, either of Canada or of this Province, assigned to County Crown Attorneys. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 8.

Duties generally.

9. Every County Crown Attorney—

Special duties.

1. Shall receive and examine all informations, examinations, depositions, recognizances, inquisitions and papers connected with criminal charges which the Justices of the Peace and Coroners of the county are required to transmit to him, and where necessary, he shall cause such charges to be further investigated, and additional evidence to be collected, and shall sue out process to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, so that prosecutions at the Assizes, General Sessions and County Judge's Criminal Court, may not be unnecessarily delayed or fail through want of proof ;

To receive and examine informations, etc.

To secure attendance of witnesses.

2. He shall institute and conduct on the part of the Crown prosecutions for felonies and misdemeanors at the Court of General Sessions, and the County Judge's Criminal Court for the county he is appointed to, in the same manner as the Law Officers of the Crown institute and conduct similar prosecutions at the Assizes, and with like rights and privileges, except as to the right of entering a nolle prosequi, and generally he shall attend to all criminal business at the Court of General Sessions and the County Judge's Criminal Court ;

To institute and conduct prosecutions at Sessions, etc.

To watch certain cases brought by private prosecutors.

3. He shall watch over the conduct of cases at the Court of General Sessions wherein it is questionable if the conduct complained of be punishable by law, or where the particular act or omission presents more of the features of a private injury than a public offence; and without unnecessarily interfering with private individuals who wish in such cases to prosecute, may assume wholly the conduct of the case where justice towards the accused seems to demand his interposition ;

To deliver papers connected with criminal business at Assizes to Crown Officer.

4. He shall deliver to the Crown Officer or Counsel appointed by the Attorney-General, all papers connected with the criminal business at the Assizes on or before the opening of the Court ; he shall be present at the Court, and, if required, shall assist the Crown Officer or Counsel with the criminal business, and in the absence of the Law Officers of the Crown and of such Counsel, he shall represent the Crown, and take the charge and conduct of the criminal business to be done at the Assizes for his County ;

When to officiate thereat.

To institute and conduct summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace in certain cases.

5. If required by the general regulations touching his office made in pursuance of the provisions hereinafter contained, he shall institute and conduct proceedings before Justices of the Peace under any Act or law conferring summary powers to convict, for offences in relation to the public revenue, the public property, the public domain, the public peace, the public health, and any other matter made punishable on summary conviction before Justices of the Peace ; and the County Crown Attorney is hereby empowered to institute such proceedings, on a complaint in writing, or as public prosecutor, in cases wherein the public interests require the exercise of such office ;

To advise Justices of the Peace at their request.

6. If by any Justice of the Peace requested in writing containing a statement of the particular case, he shall advise and instruct the Justice in respect to criminal offences brought before him for preliminary investigation or for adjudication :

To perform duties to be assigned by regulations in Council.

7. He shall perform such duties and services as the Lieutenant-Governor, by regulations in Council, from time to time prescribes and directs for carrying out the provisions of any Act imposing duties upon County Crown Attorneys, and also touching the office of County Crown Attorney and the prosecution of criminal offenders. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 9.

Justices committing or bailing on criminal charges, to deliver informations, etc., to County Crown Attorney, who shall be "the proper officer," within R. S. C. c. 174. Sec. 30 et. seq.

10. In every case where a person is committed for trial, or bailed to answer to a criminal charge, the Justice of the Peace so committing or bailing shall deliver or cause to be delivered without delay to the County Crown Attorney the informations, depositions, examinations, recognizances and papers connected with the charge ; and subject to the provisions of section 3 of chapter 74 of these Revised Statutes, the County Crown Attorney shall be deemed the "proper officer" of the Courts within the meaning of The Criminal Procedure Act, and in every case of inquisition found before a Coroner, the inquisition and every recognizance taken before him, with the written information (if any), and the depositions and statements (if any) of the accused, shall be forthwith delivered to the Crown Attorney of the County in which the inquisition has been found; and in every case in which an information has been laid or complaint made before a Justice of the Peace, whether proceedings have been taken therein or not, the Justice shall hand over to the County Crown Attorney all papers connected therewith, on being by him required so to do. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 10. See also as to Coroners, Cap. 80, s. 13.

Like provision in case of inquisitions before Coroners.

And in other cases on requisition of County Crown Attorney.

11. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time make such general regulations as to him seem expedient, for carrying out the provisions of any Act imposing duties upon County Crown Attorneys, and also touching the office of County Crown Attorney, and for the prosecution of offenders against the criminal laws of this Province, and may from time to time alter such regulations. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 11.

Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make regulations as to duties of County Crown Attorney.

12. In case of the illness or unavoidable absence of the County Crown Attorney, the Judge of the County Court of the County may appoint some barrister-at-law to act for the County Crown Attorney during his illness or absence, and notice of the appointment and of the cause thereof shall be sent by the County Crown Attorney to the Lieutenant-Governor, who may at any time annul the appointment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 12.

Case of unavoidable absence or illness of County Crown Attorney provided for.

13. In every case of misdemeanour tried at the Court of General Sessions, in which costs are or may be ordered to be paid by a defendant, the County Crown Attorney shall be entitled to fees as solicitor and counsel for services rendered in the case, to be taxed by the Court according to the scale of allowance in the County Courts as nearly as the nature of the services will allow; such fees in case of conviction shall form part of the costs payable by a defendant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 13.

Fees in cases conducted by him at trial, where costs are paid by defendant.

14. In all cases of felony tried as aforesaid, and in all cases of misdemeanour in which no costs have been ordered to be paid, or, if ordered to be paid, cannot be made of the defendant, the County Crown Attorney shall be entitled to receive for the services rendered by him in every such case the sum of $5, the same to be paid upon certificate of the Judge presiding at the Court of General Sessions, and to form a portion of the expenses of the administration of criminal justice in Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 14.

Fees in cases of felony or misdemeanour when costs are not paid by defendant.

15. For services in the County Judges' Criminal Court, the County Crown Attorney shall be entitled to the same fees as for like services at the Court of General Sessions of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 78, s. 15.

Fees in County Judges' Criminal Court.

Percentage on money coming into his hands.

16. Every County Crown Attorney shall be allowed a percentage of $4 on every $100 of public moneys coming into his hands. R. S. O 1877, c. 78, s. 16.

Return of fees.

17. Every County Crown Attorney and Clerk of the Peace shall, on or before the 15th day of January in every year, make, under oath, a return to the Inspector of Legal Offices of the aggregate amount of the fees and emoluments of his office during the preceding year, up to and including the 31st day of December. 43 V. c. 3, s. 1; 47 V. c. 10, s. 16 (1).

RETURNS OF INQUISITIONS, ETC., ss, 13, 14.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Appointment of Coroners.

1. The Lieutenant-Governor may, whenever he thinks fit, appoint, under the Great Seal, one or more Coroners in and for every County, City and Town in the Province of Ontario, and for any Provisional Judicial, Temporary Judicial, or Territorial District, or Provisional County, or for any portion of the territory of Ontario, not attached to a County for ordinary municipal and judicial purposes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 1.

[Appointment of Stipendiary Magistrate as Coroner. See Cap. 71, s. 8.]

In what cases only inquests shall be held.

2. Except as provided in the next section, no inquest shall be held on the body of any deceased person by a Coroner until it has been made to appear to the Coroner that there is reason to believe that the deceased died from violence or unfair means, or by culpable or negligent conduct, either of himself or of others, under such circumstances as require investigation, and not through mere accident or mischance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 2.

3. Upon the death of a prisoner, the warden, gaoler, keeper or superintendent of the penitentiary, gaol, prison, house of correction, lock-up house, or house of industry in which the prisoner dies, shall immediately give notice thereof to some Coroner of the county, city or town in which the death has taken place, and the Coroner shall proceed forthwith to hold an inquest upon the body. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 3.

Proceedings in case of the death of a prisoner.

4.—(1) No fees shall be claimable by a Coroner in respect of an inquest, unless, prior to the issuing of his warrant for summoning the jury, he shall have made a declaration in writing under oath (which oath may be administered by a justice of the peace, commissioner for taking affidavits in the High Court, or a notary public, and shall be returned and filed with the inquisition), stating that from information received by the Coroner, he is of opinion that there is reason for believing that the deceased did not come to his death from natural causes or from mere accident or mischance, but came to his death from violence or unfair means or culpable or negligent conduct of others, under circumstances requiring investigation by a coroner's inquest. 43 V. c. 11, s. 1; 48 V. c. 16, s. 1.

Fees for inquest not allowed to coroners in certain cases.

(2) This section shall not apply to an inquest held upon the written request of the County Attorney, or to an inquest held in the Districts of Muskoka, Parry Sound, Rainy River and Nipissing, upon the written request of a stipendiary magistrate; or to an inquest held under the preceding section, or under other similar provisions. 43 V. c. 11, s. 2.

5. If a person, having been duly summoned as a juror to serve, or as a witness to give evidence upon a Coroner's inquest, does not, after being openly called three times, appear and serve as a juror, or appear and give evidence as a witness, the Coroner may impose upon the delinquent a fine not exceeding $4; and shall thereupon make out and sign a certificate containing the name, residence, and trade or calling of the delinquent, the amount of the fine imposed, and the cause of the fine, and shall transmit the certificate to the clerk of the peace of the county in which the delinquent resides, on or before the first day of the General Sessions of the Peace then next ensuing, and shall cause a copy of the certificate to be served upon such delinquent by leaving it at his residence, within a reasonable time after the inquest. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 4.

Fine on persons summoned to attend inquest and not attending.

6. The fine so certified shall be estreated, levied and applied in like manner, and subject to the like powers, provisions and penalties in all respects, as if it had been part of the fines imposed at the General Sessions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 5.

Fine how enforced.

7. Where, upon the summoning or holding of a Coroner's inquest, the Coroner finds that the deceased was attended during his last illness, or at his death, by any legally

Coroner may order medical attendant of deceased to attend inquest.

qualified medical practitioner, the Coroner may issue his order for the attendance of such practitioner as a witness at the inquest in the form following :

CORONER'S INQUEST AT _____, UPON THE BODY OF _____

By virtue of this my order, as Coroner for you are required to appear before me and the Jury, at the _____ day of _____, at _____ o'clock, to give evidence touching the cause of the death of _____ [and when the witness is required to make or assist at a post mortem examination, add : and make (or assist) in making a post mortem examination of the body, with (or without) an analysis (as the case may be), and report thereon at the said Inquest.]

Signed, _____ C. P., Coroner.

R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 6.

If no medical attendant Coroner may order attendance of any qualified practitioner.

8. If the Coroner finds that the deceased was not so attended, he may issue his order for the attendance of any legally qualified medical practitioner being at the time in actual practice in or near the place where the death happened ; and the Coroner may, at any time before the termination of the inquest, direct a post mortem examination, with or without an analysis of the contents of the stomach or intestines, by the medical witness summoned to attend at the inquest ; but if any person states upon oath before the Coroner, that in his belief the death was caused partly or entirely by the improper or negligent treatment of a medical practitioner or other person, such medical practitioner or other person shall not assist at the post mortem examination. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 7.

A majority of the jury may require the Coroner to summon another medical practitioner.

9.—(1) Where it appears to the majority of the jury sitting at a Coroner's inquest that the cause of death has not been satisfactorily explained by the evidence of the medical practitioner or other witnesses examined in the first instance, such majority may name to the Coroner, in writing, any other legally qualified medical practitioner or practitioners, and require the Coroner to issue his order in the form hereinbefore mentioned for the attendance of such last mentioned medical practitioner or practitioners, as a witness or witnesses, and for the performance of a post mortem examination as in the last preceding section mentioned, and whether a post mortem examination has been previously made or not. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 8.

Request for additional medical witnesses to be attached to order for payment of fees.

(2) The written request of the jury for any additional medical witnesses, under the provisions of this section, or a copy thereof certified by the Coroner, shall be attached by the Coroner to each order given by him on the treasurer of the county for the payment of the fees of such medical witness or witnesses. 47 V. c. 12, s. 1.

Allowance to medical practitioner.

10. Where a legally qualified medical practitioner has attended in obedience to any order aforesaid, he shall receive for his attendance, if without a post mortem examination,

$5; if with a post mortem examination, without an analysis of the contents of the stomach or intestines, $10; if with such analysis, $20; together with the sum of twenty cents per mile for each mile he has to travel to and from the inquest, such travel to be proved by his own oath to the Coroner, who may administer the same; and the Coroner shall make his order on the treasurer of the county when the inquest is held in the county, and on the treasurer of the city when death occurs, and the inquest is held in a city, in favour of such medical practitioner, for the payment of the fees or remuneration, and the treasurer shall pay the sum mentioned in the order to the medical witness out of any funds he may then have in the county or city treasury. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 9; 42 V. c. 17, s. 1.

To be paid on Coroner's order, and by whom.

11. Where any such order for the attendance of any medical practitioner has been personally served, or if not personally served, has been received by him or left at his residence in sufficient time for him to have obeyed the order, and he has not obeyed the same, he shall forfeit the sum of $40 upon complaint by the Coroner who held or by any two of the jury who sat on the inquest, made before any two Justices of the Peace of the county where the inquest has been held, or of the county where the medical practitioner resides; and the Justices shall proceed to hear and adjudicate upon the complaint; and if the medical practitioner does not shew a sufficient reason for not having obeyed the order, they shall enforce the penalty by distress and sale of the offender's goods in the same manner as they are empowered to do by The Act respecting Summary Convictions before Justices of the Peace and Appeals to General Sessions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 10.

Penalty on practitioner summoned and failing to attend.

Rev. Stat. c. 74.

12. Nothing herein contained shall affect any power otherwise by law vested in any Coroner for compelling any person to appear and give evidence before him, or for punishing any person for contempt of Court, in not so appearing and giving evidence or otherwise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 11.

Former powers of Coroner not affected.

13. Every Coroner shall forthwith after an inquisition found before him return the same and every recognizance taken before him, with the written information (if any) and the depositions and statements (if any) of the accused, to the Crown Attorney of the county in which the inquisition has been found. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 13. See also cap. 79, s. 9 (1) and s. 10.

Return of inquisitions to County Crown Attorney.

14. Every Coroner shall, on or before the first day of January in every year, return to the Provincial Treasurer a list of the inquests held by him during the preceding year, together with the findings of the Juries. R. S. O. 1877, c. 79, s. 14.

Coroners to return lists inquests.

[For Coroner's fees, see Rev. Stat. Cap. 83.]

[For Duties of Coroners in relation to the Investigation of Accidents by Fire, see Rev. Stat. Cap. 196.]

[As to application of Cap. 16, ss. 27, 28, The Act respecting the Office of Sheriff, see p. 243.]

1. Every Commissioner of Police duly appointed under the Great Seal of Canada to be and act as such within the Province of Ontario, under and by virtue of the "Act respecting the Police of Canada," and authorized in that behalf by commission from the Lieutenant-Governor, under the Great Seal of this Province, shall have and exercise within the several Counties, Temporary Judicial, Provisional Judicial or Territorial Districts, or Provisional Counties within this Province, all the powers and authority, rights and privileges, by law appertaining to Police Magistrates of Cities, and all the powers and authority, rights and privileges appertaining to Justices of the Peace generally; and shall be subject in all respects, except as otherwise provided by this Act, to the requirements of the law of this Province respecting Police Magistrates and the office of Justice of the Peace; but it shall not be necessary for a Commissioner of Police as aforesaid to possess any property qualification or to be actually resident within any County or other territorial division for which the administration of criminal Justice is provided, nor shall it be necessary for any Commissioner of Police to take or subscribe any oath of allegiance or of office within any County or District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 81, s. 1.

2. The police constables appointed or employed by a Commissioner of Police shall be charged with all the powers, rights and responsibilities which belong by law to constables duly appointed in this Province, and they shall be subject to the Commissioner of Police, and liable to all the responsibilities, forfeitures and penalties provided by or expressed in the said Act respecting the Police of Canada. R. S. O. 1877, c. 81, s. 2.

3. The Commissioners of Police, and the police constables, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, shall as such have no power or authority in respect of offences against municipal by-laws, or as such with any other purely municipal matters; and this Province shall not be liable to any charge for the maintenance of the Commissioners of Police or police constables. R. S. O. 1877, c. 81, s. 3.

4. In case the Lieutenant-Governor revokes a commission issued by him under this Act, the authority of such Commissioner, and of any constable appointed by him, as far as the same are given under or by virtue of this Act, shall forthwith cease. R. S. O. 1877, c. 81, s. 4.

PROTECTION OF PERSONS ACTING UNDER sec. 13 et seq., ss. 34, 35.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

APPOINTMENT BY GENERAL SESSIONS.

1. The Justices of the Peace may from time to time, at any sitting or adjourned sitting of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace, appoint a County High Constable, and a sufficient number of fit and proper persons to act as Constables in each township, incorporated village, police village and place within their county, and may, in like manner, from time to time, in their discretion, dismiss any Constable so appointed. R.S.O. 1877, c. 82, s. 1.

2. The persons so appointed shall, before entering on the duties of their office, take and subscribe the following oath, which any Justice of the Peace may administer :

"I, _____, having been appointed High Constable (or Constable) for the County (or United Counties) of _____ do solemnly swear that I will truly, faithfully and impartially perform the duties appertaining to the said office, according to the best of my skill and ability : So help me God."

R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 2.

Continuance in office.

3. Every Constable so appointed, and having taken the aforesaid oath, shall continue in office at least one year, and shall further continue in office from year to year without re-appointment, unless he claims exemption from serving as Constable, in which case he shall be released at any time after the end of the first year. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 3.

APPOINTMENT BY COUNTY JUDGE.

Appointment of Constables by County Court Judges.

4. To prevent injurious delay in appointing County Constables, arising from the long intervals between the sittings of the Courts of General Sessions of the Peace, any Judge of a County Court may, at any time, and from time to time, appoint any person or persons to be a Constable or Constables for the County or United Counties of the County Court of which such Judge is a Judge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 4.

Clerk of the Peace to be notified.

5. The Judge making the appointment shall forthwith notify the Clerk of the Peace thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 5.

Clerk to report to the General Sessions.

6. The Clerk of the Peace shall report every such appointment to the next Court of General Sessions of the Peace which is holden after he receives notice thereof from the Judge, and unless at such Court the appointment is revoked by order duly passed in Sessions, the same shall continue as if the same had originally been made at such Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 6.

Authority of Constables.

7. A Constable so appointed by a Judge as aforesaid shall, during the continuance of the appointment, have the same authority and privileges and be subject to the same liability and the performance of the same duties as if originally appointed by the Court of General Sessions of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 7.

Certain Police Magistrates may appoint temporary Constables.

8.—(1) A salaried county or district Police Magistrate shall have power from time to time to appoint a Constable for the county or union of counties or district of which he is a Police Magistrate, such Constable to hold office for not more than thirty days.

(2) The Police Magistrate making any such appointment shall forthwith notify the Provincial Secretary thereof.

(3) The appointment may be revoked by the Police Magistrate, or by the Provincial Secretary, before the expiration of the thirty days.

(4) A Constable appointed by a Police Magistrate shall have the same authority and privileges, and be subject to the same liability and the performance of the same duties, as if appointed by the Court of General Sessions of the Peace. 50 V. c. 11, s. 6.

SUSPENSION FROM OFFICE.

9. The Judge of the County Court may suspend from office any County Constable for any period in the discretion of the Judge, but not beyond one week after the time appointed for the next sittings of the General Sessions of the Peace; the suspension shall be by notice in writing, and in case the Judge considers the suspended officer deserving of dismissal, the Judge shall, immediately after suspending him, report the case fully to the Clerk of the Peace for submission to the Justices at the next General Sessions of the Peace; and the Justices may dismiss the officer, or direct him to be restored to his office, after the period of his suspension has expired, or after such further period of suspension as they may order. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 8.

Suspension of Constables by County Court
Judge.

APPOINTMENT BY LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

Provincial Constables.

10. The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint, either permanently or for such a period as he may think fit, persons to be Provincial Constables, and every person so appointed shall, while he holds office, be a Constable of every county and district in Ontario, and, as such, shall have authority to act in any part of this Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 9.

Appointment of Provincial Constables by Lieutenant-Governor.

In Unorganized Districts.

11. The Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, appoint Constables for any Provisional Judicial, Temporary Judicial or Territorial District, or Provisional County, or for any portion of the territory of Ontario not attached to a county for ordinary municipal and judicial purposes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 10. See also Cap. 91, s. 78.

Appointment
of Constables in unorganized Districts.

EXEMPTIONS.

12. The officers, non-commissioned officers and men of corps of volunteers shall, while they continue such, be exempt from serving as Constables (except as special constables); and a certificate under the hand of the officer commanding any such corps shall be sufficient evidence of the service in his corps of any officer, non-commissioned officer or man for the then current year, and of his exemption as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 82, s. 11.

Exemption of Volunteers from serving as Constables.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL CONSTABLES.

13. In case it is made to appear to any two or more Justices of the Peace of any territorial division in this Province, upon the oath of any credible witness, that any tumult, riot, or felony has taken place or is continuing, or may be reasonably apprehended in any territorial division or place situate within the limits for which the respective Justices usually act, and in case the Justices are of opinion that the ordinary officers appointed for preserving the peace are not sufficient for the preservation of the peace and for the protection of the inhabitants and the security of the property in such territorial division or place as aforesaid, then and in every such case the Justices or any two or more Justices acting for the same limits may nominate and appoint, by precept in writing under their hands, so many as they think fit of the householders or other persons not legally exempt from serving in the office of Constable, residing in such territorial division or place as aforesaid, or in the neighbourhood thereof, to act as Special Constables for such time and in such manner as to the said Justices respectively seems necessary for the preservation of the public peace and for the protection of the inhabitants and the security of property in the territorial division or place. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 1.

Such Justices may administer an oath of office to the person so appointed.

14. The Justices of the Peace who appoint Special Constables by virtue of this Act, or any one of them, or any other Justice of the Peace acting for the same limit, may administer to any person so appointed the following oath, that is to say :

Oath.

“ I, A. B., do swear that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lady the Queen in the office of Special Constable for the _____ of _____, without favour or affection, malice or ill-will ; and that I will, to the best of my power, cause the peace to be kept and preserved, and will prevent all offences against the persons and properties of Her Majesty's subjects ; and that while I continue to hold the said office I will to the best of my skill and knowledge discharge all the duties thereof faithfully according to law : So help me God.”

R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 2.

Notice of appointment to be sent to Provincial Secretary.

15. In case it is deemed necessary to nominate and appoint Special Constables as aforesaid, notice of the nomination and appointment, and of the circumstances which rendered it expedient, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Justice making the nomination and appointment to the Secretary of the Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 3.

Justices may make regulations touching constables.

16. The Justices of the Peace who appoint any Special Constables under this Act, or any two of them, or the Justices acting for the limit within which the Special Constables have been called out, may, at a special session of the last mentioned Justices, or the major part of the last mentioned Justices, at such special session, make such orders and regulations as may from time to time be necessary and expedient for rendering the Special Constables more efficient for the preservation of the public peace, and may remove any such Special Constable from his office for any misconduct or neglect of duty therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 4.

17. Every Special Constable appointed under this Act shall, not only within the territorial division or place for which he has been appointed, but also throughout the entire jurisdiction of the Justices who appoint him, have, exercise and enjoy all such powers, authorities, advantages and immunities, and be liable to all such duties and responsibilities, as any Constable duly appointed has by virtue of any law or statute whatsoever. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 5.

Powers of special constables, and local extent of such powers.

18. Where Special Constables appointed under this Act are serving within a territorial division or place, and two or more Justices of the Peace of an adjoining territorial division or place, make it appear, to the satisfaction of two or more Justices of the Peace, acting for the limits within which the Special Constables are serving, that extraordinary circumstances exist which render it expedient that the Special Constables should act in such adjoining territorial division or place, then and in every such case the last mentioned Justices may, if they think fit, order all or any of the Special Constables to act in the adjoining territorial division or place in such manner as to the last mentioned Justices seems meet. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 6.

Constables may act in an adjoining division in certain cases.

19. Every such Special Constable, during the time he so acts in such adjoining territorial division or place, shall have, exercise and enjoy all such powers, authorities, advantages and immunities, and be liable to the same duties and responsibilities, as if he were acting within the territorial division or place for which he was originally appointed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 7.

Their powers in such adjoining division.

20. The Justices of the Peace acting for the limits within which the Special Constables have been called out to serve, may, at a special session to be held for that purpose, or the major part of the Justices at such special session, may from time to time order such reasonable allowances for their trouble, loss of time and expenses, not exceeding $1 per diem, to be paid to such Special Constables who have so served or are then serving, as to the Justices or to the major part of them seems proper. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 8.

Special constables may be paid a per diem allowance.

21. The Justices so ordering shall make every order for the payment of the allowances and expenses upon the Treasurer of the territorial division or other municipal division within which the Special Constables have been called out to serve, and the Treasurer shall pay the same out of any moneys in his hands at the time, and the Treasurer shall be allowed the same in his accounts, and the sum shall be provided for by the council of the territorial division or other municipal division wherein the expense arises. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 9.

Allowance to be paid by the Treasurer of the municipality.

Special sessions may be adjourned and shall be held legal until the contrary is proved.

22. The Justices of the Peace assembled at a special session for any of the purposes mentioned in this Act, may adjourn the same from time to time as they think proper; and every special session actually holden for any of the purposes mentioned in this Act, shall be deemed and taken to have been legally holden until the contrary is proved. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 10.

Justices may suspend or determine the services of special constables.

23. The Justices who have appointed Special Constables under this Act, or the Justices acting for the limits within which the Special Constables have been called out, at a special session to be held for that purpose, or the major part of such last mentioned Justices at such special session, may suspend or determine the service of all or any of the Special Constables so called out, as to the Justices respectively seems meet; and notice of the suspension or determination of the services of all or any of the Special Constables shall be forthwith transmitted by the respective Justices to the Secretary of the Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 11.

Special constables to deliver up their staves, etc., when discharged.

24. Every Special Constable shall, within one week after the expiration of his office, or after he has ceased to hold or exercise the same pursuant to this Act, deliver over to his successor, if any has been appointed, or otherwise to such person and at such time and place as may be directed by a Justice of the Peace acting for the limits within which the Special Constable has been called out, every staff, weapon and other article which has been provided for such Special Constable under this Act; and if any Special Constable omits or refuses so to do, he shall, on conviction thereof before two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay for the offence such sum of money, not exceeding $8, as to the convicting Justices seems meet. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 12.

Penalty.

Penalty on persons appointed and refusing to take the oath.

25. If any person being appointed a Special Constable as aforesaid refuses to take the oath hereinbefore mentioned when thereunto required by the Justices of the Peace who so appointed him, or by any two of them, or by any other two Justices of the Peace acting for the same limits, he may be convicted thereof forthwith before the Justices so requiring him, and shall forfeit and pay such sum of money, not exceeding $20, as to the convicting Justices seems meet. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 13.

Penalty for neglect to appear at place appointed for taking such oath.

26. If a person, being appointed a Special Constable as aforesaid, neglects or refuses to appear for the purpose of taking the said oath at the time and place for which he has been summoned, he may be convicted thereof before the Justices who appointed him, or any two of them, or before any other two Justices of the Peace acting for the same limits, and shall forfeit and pay such sum of money, not exceeding $20, as to the convicting Justices seems meet, unless such person proves to the satisfaction of the Justices that he was prevented by sickness or some unavoidable accident which in the judgment of the Justices is a sufficient excuse. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 14.

27. If a person having been appointed a Special Constable as aforesaid, and being called upon to serve, neglects or refuses to serve as such Special Constable, or to obey such lawful orders or directions as may be given to him for the performance of the duties of his office, the person so offending shall, on conviction thereof before two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay for every such neglect or refusal such sum of money, not exceeding $20, as to the Justices seems meet, unless the person proves to the satisfaction of the Justices that he was prevented by sickness or some unavoidable accident in the judgment of the Justices constituting a sufficient excuse. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 15.

Penalty for refusing to act or to obey orders.

28. The Justices of the Peace before whom any person is summarily convicted of an offence against this Act may cause the conviction to be drawn up in the following form of words, or to the like effect, that is to say :

Form of conviction.

To Wit : } Be it remembered, that on the day of

A. B.

R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 16.

29. The Justices of the Peace by whom any person is summarily convicted and adjudged to pay any sum of money for an offence against this Act, may adjudge that such person shall pay the same either immediately or within such period as the Justice thinks fit; and in case such sum of money is not paid by the time so appointed, the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, together with the reasonable charges of the distress; and for want of sufficient distress the offender shall be imprisoned in the common gaol for any term not exceeding one month when the fine to be paid does not exceed $20, and for any term not exceeding two months in any other case; the imprisonment to cease in every case upon payment of the sum due. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 17.

How penalties may be levied if not paid within the time appointed.

Convictions not to be removed or declared void for want of form, etc.

30. No conviction for an offence against this Act shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari or otherwise into the High Court; and no warrant of commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, provided it is therein alleged that it is founded on a conviction, and there is a good and valid conviction to sustain the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 18.

Provisions as to distress and proceedings under it.

31. Where a distress has been made for levying moneys by virtue of this Act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making the same be deemed a trespasser on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant, distress or other proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but the person aggrieved by the irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage, if any. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 19.

Limitations of prosecutions.

32. The prosecution for every offence punishable upon summary conviction by virtue of this Act, shall be commenced within two months after the commission of the offence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 20.

Application of penalties.

33. Every penalty or forfeiture for any offence against this Act shall be paid to the Treasurer of the territorial division or other municipal division within which the offence was committed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 21.

PROTECTION OF PERSONS ACTING UNDER SECTION 13 AND FOLLOWING SECTIONS.

Actions to be tried in the County, and within six months.

34. All actions and prosecutions against any person for anything done in pursuance of section 13 and the subsequent sections of this Act shall be tried in the county or district where the fact was committed, and shall be commenced within six months after the fact committed, and not otherwise; and notice in writing of such cause of action shall be given to the defendant one month at least before the commencement of the action. R. S. O. 1877 c. 83, s. 22.

Tender of amends.

35. No plaintiff shall recover in such action if tender of sufficient amends was, by or on behalf of the defendant, made before action brought, or if a sufficient sum of money has been paid into Court since action brought; and though a verdict is given for the plaintiff in the action, the plaintiff shall not have costs against the defendant, unless the Judge before whom the trial is had certifies his approbation of the action and of the verdict obtained. R. S. O. 1877, c. 83, s. 23.

No costs unless on certificate of Judge.

3. Expenses of Administration of Justice.

CHAPTER 83.

An Act respecting the Fees of Counsel and other Officers in the Administration of Justice.

FEES OF COUNSEL AND SOLICITORS, s. 1.	Mode of levying, s. 5.
FEES OF SHERIFFS, CORONERS, CLERKS OF THE PEACE, CON- STABLES AND CRIERS, ss. 2-4, 6, 10-12. .	PENALTIES FOR TAKING UNAUTHOR- IZED FEES, ss. 7, 8.
	FEES TO GAOL SURGEONS, s. 9.

1.—(1) Where not otherwise provided by law, the Judges The High Court to frame tariff of fees to be allowed to Counsel, etc., in criminal and Exchequer cases.
authorized to make rules under sections 105 and 108 of The Judicature Act may from time to time determine and by Rule or Order declare the fees to be allowed to any Counsel, Solicitor, or other such officer or person for or in respect of any business done or transacted in the High Court in criminal prosecutions, and in all matters, causes and proceedings which relate to the Queen's Revenue, and in all prosecutions, matters and proceedings under any Commission or Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, or under any Special Commission or Court of Oyer and Terminer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 1 (1); 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

(2) The Judges shall, in tables to be framed by them as aforesaid, distinguish the fees to be paid by private individuals. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 1 (2).

2. Subject to any Rules of Court made under The Judicature Act, the table of fees in the Schedule appended to this Act, shall be and constitute the fees to be taken by Sheriffs, Coroners, Clerks of the Peace, Constables and Criers respectively, for the services therein mentioned in respect of any business by them done and transacted in all such prosecutions, matters, causes and proceedings as aforesaid, and in proceedings in the County Judge's Criminal Court and before Coroners or Justices of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 2.

Arrangement may be made with Clerk of the Peace
as to his fees.

Proviso.

3. It shall be lawful for a county council to agree from time to time with the clerk of the peace for the payment to him of a gross annual sum, in lieu of all fees chargeable by him to the county, and which are not repayable to the county by the Province: Provided always, that either of the parties to any such agreement may determine the same on the 31st day of December in any year, by giving to the other one month's notice, in writing, of his or their intention so to do. 42 V. c. 18, s. 1.

Fees to contables.

4. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time alter the fees to be taken by constables for services rendered by such officers in the administration of criminal justice or in any proceedings had before coroners or Justices of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 3.

Mode of levying fees.

5. All percentage, fees or allowances, on levying fines and recognizances, may be levied over and above the amount of the fines and recognizances. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 4.

Fees for services not mentioned herein.

6. Nothing herein contained shall deprive any of the before mentioned officers of fees allowed by any Act of Parliament, or of the Legislature of this Province, for other services not herein provided for. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 5.

Penalty for taking higher fees.

7. If any officer hereinbefore mentioned wilfully and knowingly demands or receives any other or greater fee or allowance than the fee and allowance to which he is entitled under this Act, for any of the services performed by him (unless allowed by some other Act of Parliament, or of the Legislature of this Province or by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under section 4 of this Act), he shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of $40 to any person who sues therefor in any Court of competent jurisdiction. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 6.

Limitation of actions for penalties.

8. Every such action must be brought before the end of six months after the offence was committed, and not otherwise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 7.

Fees of Gaol
Surgeon.

9. There may be paid to Gaol Surgeons for the examination of every prisoner eligible for removal, or sentenced to the Central Prison, and for the examination of every prisoner whom it is proposed to sentence or remove to the Female Reformatory, including certificate, the fee of $1. R. S. O. 1877, c. 84, s. 8; 44 V. c. 8, s. 3, part.

Fees of sheriffs.

10. The tariff of fees established by this Act, for the services of sheriffs in connection with offenders sentenced or liable to be removed to the Central Prison, shall apply also to offenders sentenced or liable to be removed to the Female Reformatory, or to the Reformatory for Boys; the fees shall in the first instance, be paid out of county funds, unless the gaol is owned and maintained by a city municipality in which case the fees, in respect of prisoners convicted for offences committed within the city limits, shall be paid in the first instance out of the city funds, and so far as they relate to prisoners convicted for offences committed in the county without the limits of the city, shall be paid in the first instance out of the county funds; and the county or city may be subsequently repaid from the Consolidated Revenue such proportion thereof as relates to prisoners convicted of indictable offences at the Assizes, General Sessions or County Judges' Criminal Court, or convicted by Police or Stipendiary Magistrates, under The Summary Trials Act. 44 R. S. C. c. 176. V. c. 8, s. 3, part; 45 V. c. 11, s. 10; 46 V. c. 8, s. 2.

11. Items numbered 13, 31, 37 and 38, in the schedule, as to Sheriff's fees, shall not apply to the counties of Bruce, Carleton, Essex, Grey, Hastings, Huron, Kent, Lambton, Leeds and Grenville, Lincoln, Middlesex, Northumberland and Durham, Oxford, Perth, Simcoe, Victoria, Welland, Wellington, Wentworth and York, the City of Toronto, or the Districts of Algoma and Thunder Bay, and items numbered 29, 39, 40 and 41, shall not apply to the County of York or the City of Toronto. 45 V. c. 11, s. 14; 47 V. c. 10, s. 15; 48 V. c. 13, s. 28.

Items 13, 31, 37 and 38 not to apply to certain counties.
Items 29, 39-41 not to apply to York or Toronto.

12.—(1) In any case in which in the opinion of the warden and county attorney of a county, special services not covered by the ordinary tariff are necessary for the detection of crime or the capture of persons who are believed to have committed crimes of a serious character, the warden and county attorney aforesaid may authorize any constable or other person, to perform these services and shall certify upon the account to be rendered by the constable or other person what they deem a reasonable allowance to be paid to the person employed, and the amount so certified shall be allowed to such person in the accounts in respect of the administration of justice, and shall be paid in the first instance by the county, and one-half thereof shall be repaid to the county by the Province. 48 V. c. 18, s. 1.

(2) No allowance shall in any other case be made hereunder to any salaried constable or other officer, unless the constable or officer is entitled to receive for his own use in addition to his salary, the fees earned by him. 48 V. c. 18, s. 2.

Such of the said accounts and demands as have been so delivered shall be audited by a board of audit, composed of the Judge, or Junior or Acting Judge, of the County Court, and two other persons, who shall be appointed annually for that purpose by the county council of the county or union of counties, not more than one of such persons being a member of the county council for the time being, and the accounts and demands shall be taken into consideration by the board of audit between the first and fifteenth days of the months of January, April, July and October, in each and every year, and disposed of as soon as practicable; and the board shall, at the completion of the audit, so to be made in the month of October, make a report to the council of any irregularity in the accounts presented to them, or of any claim that may be made contrary to law, or of any other matter which the auditors may consider ought to be brought under the notice of the council. 47 V. c. 13, s. 1.

Report by auditors.

Duties of Clerk of the Peace at audit.

8. The clerk of the peace shall convene the board of audit on the direction of the Judge of the County Court, for the purpose of submitting to the board the accounts lodged with him and shall attend the audit, record the proceedings thereat and carry out the orders of the board in respect of the same, as formerly done by him at and after Session audits. R. S. O. 1877, c. 85, s. 8.

9. All orders or cheques of the board of audit, except for the payment of constables or services rendered during the sitting of the Court of General Sessions, shall express the Act, if any, under which the expenditure is authorized. R. S. O. 1877, c. 85, s. 9.

Orders or cheques given to specify Act authorizing payment.

10. The treasurer of the county shall furnish the board of audit with a copy of the items disallowed by the Provincial Treasurer in the criminal justice accounts of the previous quarter, and the board shall have power, in their discretion, to deduct the amounts so disallowed from the next, or any accounts of the same officers submitted for audit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 85, s. 10.

Items disallowed by Prov. Treas. may be deducted from next accounts.

11. The board shall also have power to direct the treasurer to defer payment of any account, or any item in any account, connected with criminal justice, payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province, of which they may have doubt either as to the liability of the Province or the correctness of the amount charged, until the decision of the Provincial Treasurer as to the correctness or allowance of the said account or item, has been notified to the county treasurer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 85, s. 11.

Doubtful items in accounts.

12. The treasurer of every county shall, without further authority, pay the amount of the fees which are payable out of county funds, when duly allowed by the board of audit, in the following order, and in preference to all other charges unless otherwise provided by law—that is to say, after the expenses of levying and collecting and managing the rates and taxes imposed in the county are paid ;

County Treasurer's duty.

Order of payment of accounts.

1. All sums of money payable to the sheriff, coroner, gaoler, surgeon of the county gaol, or to any other officer or person, for the support, care or safe keeping of the prisoners in the county gaol, or for the repairing and maintaining of the court house or gaol ;

2. The accounts of public officers and officers of the Court of General Sessions ;

3. All sums of money payable for any other purpose whatever connected with the administration of justice within the county ;

4. All other sums of money allowed by the board of audit in the order in which the same were allowed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 85, s. 12.

 MISCELLANEOUS, 16-18.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Interpretation.

1. In the sections of this Act numbered from 3 to 7 inclusive,

“Court.”

“Court,” shall include the High Court, Courts of Oyer and Terminer, General Gaol Delivery, General Sessions of the Peace, and County Judges’ Criminal Courts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 1.

Fees to witnesses in cases above misde-meanour.

2. Except as provided in this Act or other Act in that behalf no witness in any cases above the degree of misdemeanour shall be allowed anything for his attendance or travel. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 2.

In certain cases Crown witnesses may be compensated for attendance on prosecution or trial.

3. In case of a prosecution or trial for treason or felony, or any offence which is punishable by imprisonment only, or any offence for which whipping may be imposed, the Judge who holds the Court before which the prosecution or trial for the offence takes place, may grant, to any one who attends on recognizance or subpoena, or on the request of the Crown Counsel, to give evidence, or who gives evidence, on the part of the Crown, an order for payment of such sum of money as to the Judge seems reasonable and sufficient to compensate the witness for his costs and charges in attending as such witness; but such sum shall not exceed the amount then payable to the like witnesses in civil cases in the High Court; and no allowance shall be made to any witness who resides in the County Town where the offence is tried, or within one mile thereof, except in the case of medical or indigent witnesses. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 3.

4. Where no bill of indictment has been preferred, or where the trial has not been proceeded with, the Court may make a similar order in favour of any person who, in the opinion of the Court, bona fide attended the Court in obedience to a recognizance or subpoena. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 4.

5.—(1) The order is not to be made except on a certificate by the Counsel, if any, for the Crown in the case, and by the County Crown Attorney (unless the County Crown Attorney is also the Counsel for the Crown, and certifies as such); and the certificate shall contain the particulars necessary in the affidavit required in civil cases to entitle a party to disbursements to witnesses and shall be to the like effect: but the Court may require further evidence, and shall have a discretion to grant or refuse the order.

Certificate whereon order to be made.

Discretion as to order.

(2) If the County Crown Attorney is absent, and for this or for some other reason some other person is acting for him, the certificate of the latter may be given instead of the certificate of the County Crown Attorney. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 5.

Certificate in absence of Crown Attorney.

6. The order may embrace any number of witnesses and any number of cases, or may be for one witness only. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 6.

Order may include several cases and witnesses.

7. Every order for payment shall be forthwith made out and delivered by the proper officer of the Court, and shall be directed to the treasurer of the county in which the offence was committed, or was supposed to have been committed; or if the offence was committed or was supposed to have been committed in a city, or in a town separated for municipal purposes from the county, the order shall be directed to the treasurer of the city or town. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 7.

Order, how made out and directed.

8. The treasurer to whom the order is directed shall forthwith, out of the funds of the municipality in his hands, pay to the witness, or each of the witnesses named, the amount ascertained by the certificate, on the witness signing a receipt therefor in person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 8.

Payment by a Treasurer on whom order made.

9. In case the trial takes place in a county other than the county in which the offence was committed, the treasurer of the county in which the trial takes place, if applied to by the witnesses, shall forthwith pay the money in the first instance out of the funds of the municipality in his hands, and shall forthwith be reimbursed by the treasurer to whom the order is directed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 9.

Payment by a Treasurer on whom order is not made.

10. One-third of the amount paid to witnesses under this Act shall be repaid to the municipality out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province, except as is hereinafter mentioned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 10.

One-third to be paid to municipality.

Expenses of witnesses in cases sent from unorganized districts, for trial in a county.

11. In respect of witnesses under sections 3 and 4 of this Act, in cases sent from the unorganized districts for trial in any county, the expenses of the witnesses shall be repaid in full out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 11.

Witnesses in cases tried in unorganized districts.

12. The like fees shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund to witnesses attending sittings of any of the Courts mentioned in section 1 of this Act, held within any of the said unorganized districts, upon the prosecution or trial of any treason, felony or other offence mentioned in sections 3 and 4 of this Act, and shall be so paid under such regulations as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may adopt. R. S. O. 1877, c. 87, s. 12.

On recovery from prosecutor or defendant, the Municipality to be repaid.

13. In case witness fees paid under the provisions of this Act are, by virtue of the judgment of the Court, afterwards recovered from the prosecutor or defendant, the same shall be repaid to the municipality, and one-third accounted for by the municipality to the Crown. tion and capias, according to the form in the Schedule to this Act, to the Sheriff of the county in and for which such Court was holden, which writ, if unexecuted, shall remain in force for one year and no longer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 2.

Mode of proceeding to levy fine, etc.

3. Such writ shall be authority to the Sheriff for proceeding to the immediate levying and recovering of such fines, issues, amerciaments and forfeited recognizances, on the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the several persons named therein, or for taking into custody the bodies of such persons respectively, in case sufficient goods and chattels, lands or tenements cannot be found, whereof the sums required can be made; and every person so taken shall be lodged in the Common Gaol of the county until satisfaction is made, or until the High Court upon cause shewn by the party as hereinafter mentioned, makes an order in the case, and until the order has been fully complied with. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 3.

Fines, etc., incurred at General Sessions to be entered and extracted on a roll in duplicate.

4. Unless otherwise provided, all fines, issues, amerciaments and forfeited recognizances, the disposal of which is within the power of the Province, set, imposed, lost or forfeited, by or before any Court of General Sessions of the Peace, shall, within twenty-one days after the adjournment of the Court, be fairly entered and extracted on a roll by the Clerk of the Peace, which roll shall be made out in duplicate, and shall be signed by the Clerk of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 4

How rolls disposed of and issued.

5. One of the rolls shall remain deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Peace, and the other shall, so soon as the same is prepared, be sent by the Clerk of the Peace, with a writ of execution and capias, according to the form in the Schedule to this Act, to the Sheriff of the county in which the Court of General Sessions was held. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 5.

Duty of Sheriff under the execution.

6. The writ shall be authority to the Sheriff for proceeding to the immediate levying and recovering of such fines, issues, amerciaments, and forfeited recognizances, on the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the several persons named therein, or for taking into custody the bodies of such persons respectively, in case sufficient goods and chattels, lands or tenements cannot be found, whereof the sums required can be made; and every person so taken shall be lodged in the Common Gaol of the county until satisfaction is made, or until the Court of General Sessions of the county, upon cause shewn by the party as hereinafter mentioned, makes an order in the case, and until the order has been fully complied with. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 6.

Estreat of recognizance, etc.

7. In case any person bound by recognizance for his appearance, (or for whose appearance any other person has become so bound) to prosecute or give evidence in any case of misdemeanour for the commission of which a fine or penalty is imposed, which the Province is entitled to receive, makes default, the officer of the Court by whom the estreats are made out, shall prepare a list in writing, specifying the name of every person so making default, and the nature of the offence in respect of which such person, or his surety was so bound, together with the residence, trade, profession, or calling of every such person and surety, and shall in the list distinguish the principals from the sureties, and shall state the cause, if known, why each such person did not appear, and whether by reason of his non-appearance the ends of justice have been defeated or delayed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 7.

8. Every officer shall, before a recognizance is estreated lay the list, if at a sittings of the High Court or at a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery or General Sessions of the Peace in any district or county, before the Judge or, one of the Judges who presided at the Court, who are respectively required to examine the list and to make such order touching the estreating or putting in process the recognizance as appears just; and no officer of the Court shall estreat or put in process a recognizance without the written order of the Judge, before whom the list has been laid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 8.

Recognizances, etc., not to be estreated without Judge's order.

9. Except in the cases of persons bound by recognizance for their appearance (or for whose appearance any other person has become bound) to prosecute or give evidence, in every case of default whereby a recognizance has become forfeited, if the cause of absence is made known to the Court in which the party was bound to appear, the Court, on consideration of the cause, and considering also whether by the non-appearance of such person the ends of justice have been defeated or delayed, may forbear to order the recognizance to be estreated; and with respect to all recognizances estreated and all fines imposed by any Court for the non-attendance of a juror or constable, or of a public officer bound to attend at the Court, if it appears to the satisfaction of the Judge who presided thereat, that the absence of the person for whose appearance a recognizance was entered into, or that the absence of a person fined for non-attendance, was owing to circumstances which rendered his absence justifiable, the Judge may make an order directing that the sum forfeited upon the estreated recognizance, or the fine imposed shall not be levied. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 9.

Court may forbear estreating recognizances under certain circumstances.

10. For this purpose, the clerk before sending to the sheriff the roll, with a writ of execution and capias, as directed by this Act, shall submit the same to the Judge who presided at the Court for his revision; and the Judge, may make a minute on the roll and writ of any forfeited recognizances and fines which he thinks fit to direct not to be levied; and the sheriff shall observe the direction in the minute, and shall forbear accordingly to levy the forfeited recognizance or fine. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 10.

Presiding Judge may direct Sheriff to forbear levying fines, etc., under certain circumstances.

Mode of proceeding where lands are seized for payment of fines, etc.

11. If upon a writ issued under this Act, the sheriff takes lands or tenements in execution, he shall advertise the same in like manner as he is required to do before the sale of lands in execution in other cases; and no sale shall take place in less than twelve months from the time the writ comes to the hands of the sheriff. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 11.

Deputy Clerk of Crown, etc., to make affidavit.

12. The Clerk shall, at the foot of every roll made out as herein directed, make affidavit in the following form, that is to say :

Form.

"I. A. B., (describing his office), make oath that this roll is truly and carefully made up and examined, and that all fines, issues, amerciaments, recognizances and forfeitures which were set, lost, imposed or forfeited, at or by the Court therein mentioned, and which in right and due course of law ought to be levied and paid, are, to the best of my knowledge and understanding, inserted in the said roll; and that in the said roll are also contained and expressed all such fines as have been paid to or received by me, either in Court or otherwise, without any wilful discharge, omission, misnomer, or defect whatever: So help me God." which affidavit any Justice of the Peace for the county is hereby authorized to administer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 12.

Conditions upon which a party in custody of the Sheriff may be released.

13. If a person on whose goods and chattels a sheriff bailiff or other officer is authorized to levy a forfeited recognizance, gives security to the sheriff or other officer for his appearance in the Court into which the writ is returnable within thirty days after the giving of the security, or so soon thereafter as the Court shall sit, then and there to abide the decision of the Court, and also to pay the forfeited recognizance, or sum of money to be paid in lieu or satisfaction thereof, together with all such expenses as may be adjudged and ordered by the Court, the sheriff or officer shall discharge such person out of custody; and in case the person does not appear in pursuance of his undertaking, the Court may forthwith issue a writ of execution and capias against the surety or sureties of the person so bound as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 13.

Court under certain circumstances may discharge forfeited recognizances, etc.

14. The High Court or Court of General Sessions, into which any writ of execution and capias issued under this Act, is returnable, may inquire into the circumstances of the case, and may, in its discretion, order the discharge of the whole of the forfeited recognizance, or sum of money paid or to be paid in lieu or satisfaction thereof, and make such order thereon as to the Court appears just; and the order shall accordingly be a discharge to the sheriff or to the party, according to the circumstances of the case. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 14.

15. The sheriff to whom a writ is directed under this Act, shall with his return state on the back of the roll attached to the writ, what has been done in the execution thereof; and the return shall be filed in the Court into which it is made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 88, s. 15.

Manner of return by Sheriff, etc.

16. A copy of the roll and return, certified by the clerk of the peace, or by the registrar of one of the Divisions of the High Court (as the case may be), shall be forthwith transmitted to the Treasurer of the Province, and the inspector of legal offices, with a minute thereon of any of the sums therein mentioned, which have been remitted by order of the Court, in the whole or in part, or directed to be forborne, under the authority of this Act. CHAPTER 89.

An Act respecting the Appropriation of certain Fines and Forfeitures.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

The portion of all fines distributed by the law of England to the poor shall be paid to the Treasurer of the county or city in which conviction took place.

1. In all cases not otherwise provided for, in which, by any Imperial Statute in force in Ontario, a fine or penalty is imposed, in respect to matters within the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario, and the whole or part of the fine or penalty is in any manner appropriated for the support of the poor, or to any parochial or other purpose, inapplicable to the existing state of Ontario, the fine or penalty, or the part thereof so appropriated, shall when received be paid to the Treasurer of the county or city in which the conviction has taken place, to be appropriated to the purposes thereof, and accounted for in the same manner as the general rates and assessments levied therein are applicable and accountable by law. R. S. O. 1877, c. 89, s. 1.

Where no appropriation specified, fines etc., shall be paid to the Provincial Treasurer.

2. Every fine and penalty imposed for the punishment of any offence prohibited by any statute now or hereafter in force in this Province, and the proceeds of every forfeiture imposed and given to the Crown by any statute now or hereafter in force in this Province, shall, where the disposal of the same is within the power of the Province and no other provision is made in respect thereto, be paid to the treasurer of the Province, and shall form part of the consolidated revenue fund. R. S. O. 1877, c. 89, s. 2. See C. S. U. C. c. 118, s. 2; see also Rev. Stat. Cap. 1, s. 8 (30).

[By R. S. C. c. 180, s. 1, provision is made for the appropriation of fines, etc., the disposal of which is not within the authority of the Province.]

CHAPTER 90.

An Act respecting the Remission of certain Penalties.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. Where a pecuniary penalty or forfeiture is imposed by any Act of this Province or by any other Act now in force in this Province, within the legislative authority of this Province, the Court or Judge having cognizance of the proceedings may, at any time after the commencement thereof, remit in whole or in part any sum of money by such Act imposed as a penalty or forfeiture on a convicted offender, and may do so whether the money is in whole or in part payable to the Crown or to some person other than the Crown, and whether the same is recoverable by indictment, information, summary process, action, or any other process. 48 V. c. 13, s. 16 (1, 2). Remission of penalties by Court.

2. This Act shall not be held to give to a Police Magistrate or Justice of Peace the authority herein mentioned. 48 V. c. 13, s. 16 (2). Act not to apply to Magistrates.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall also have power at any time to remit any such penalty or forfeiture, in whole or in part, unless the same is imposed by The Act respecting the Legislative Assembly, or by some Act respecting elections of members of the Legislative Assembly, or is recoverable in respect of an offence committed in connection with an election of a member of the said Assembly. 48 V. c. 13, s. 16 (3). Lieutenant-Governor. Rev. Stat. c. 11.

4. This Act shall not be construed to include the power of remitting any costs incurred up to the time of remitting the penalty or forfeiture. 48 V. c. 13, s. 16 (4). Not to apply to costs.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Unorganized Territory Act."

Lieutenant-Governor may erect certain unorganized tracts into Temporary Judicial Districts.

2.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time, by proclamation, declare that, from and after a day to be named therein, certain parts of the unorganized tracts of country bordering on and adjacent to Lakes Superior and Huron, including the islands in those lakes which belong to this Province, and also all other parts of Ontario, not included within the settled limits of any county shall form a Temporary Judicial District or Temporary Judicial Districts, and in such proclamation may define the limits of such District or Districts, and name the same respectively : and the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time alter the limits and extent of such District or Districts.

(2) Any portion or portions of a county not included in any township may, for all purposes connected with the administration of justice under this Act, be included within the limits of any Temporary Judicial District as aforesaid, and may again be separated therefrom by the Lieutenant-Governor. Tracts not included in Townships may be annexed to such Districts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 1.

3.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time appoint in and for each of the said Districts and for the Districts of Muskoka, Parry Sound and Rainy River a fit and proper person to be Stipendiary Magistrate thereof, who shall exercise within the District the magisterial, judicial and other functions herein expressed or provided, and who shall reside in such place within the District as the Lieutenant-Governor directs. Stipendiary magistrate may be appointed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 4; c. 90, s. 2.

(2) Two Stipendiary Magistrates may be appointed for the Temporary Judicial District of Nipissing, and the expression "Stipendiary Magistrate" shall, when used with reference to that District, be taken to apply to either of the Stipendiary Magistrates so appointed. 43 V. c. 12, ss. 3-4; 47 V. c. 14 s. 1.

4. Every Stipendiary Magistrate may, besides the salary voted to him by the Legislature, have and take, to his own use, the fees authorized to be taken by Justices of the Peace or by their clerks, in cases of summary proceedings or convictions. Salary and fees. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 5; c. 90, s. 3.

5. Every Stipendiary Magistrate shall be ex officio a Justice of the Peace for the District for which he is appointed, and shall have all the powers, jurisdiction and authority, and shall perform all the duties which a Justice of the Peace in any county now has, and is required to perform within any such county; and all the protections and provisions of law applicable to such Justices of the Peace shall extend and apply to such Stipendiary Magistrate acting within the limits of his District; and such Stipendiary Magistrate may and shall act in the execution of the office of Justice of the Peace for the District, although he has not the property qualification required by The Act respecting the Qualification and Appointment of Justices of the Peace. Such Magistrate to be a Justice of the Peace; powers as such, etc. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 4. Rev. Stat. c. 71.

6. The oath to be taken by every Stipendiary Magistrate, in addition to his oath of office as a Justice of the Peace, shall be as follows: Form of oath.

"I, A. B., do swear, that I will truly and faithfully execute the several powers, duties and trusts committed to, or required of me, as Stipendiary Magistrate for the District of (naming it) without fear, without favour, and without malice: So help me God."

R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 6; c. 90, s. 11.

Stipendiary
Magistrate may sit alone with powers of two Justices.

7. Every Stipendiary Magistrate shall have full power, to do, alone, whatever is authorized by any Statute in force in this Province relating to matters within the legislative authority of the Legislature of the Province to be done by two or more Justices of the Peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 44.

Justice of the Peace. Property qualification, etc.
not necessary.

8. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, from time to time, appoint fit and proper persons to be Justices of the Peace in and for each of the said Districts, and it shall not be necessary for such Justice of the Peace to possess any property qualification whatever, or to be resident within the District for which he is appointed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 7; c. 90, s. 46; 44 V. c. 5, s. 88.

Authority of such Justices.

9. The Justices of the Peace appointed under this Act shall have, hold and exercise all the powers and authority, and be subject in all respects (except as to any matters incident to the residence or property qualification, required in cases not within the meaning of this Act) to the requirements of the laws in force in this Province, respecting the office of Justice of the Peace, in so far as the same may be applicable to the persons appointed under this Act, and not inconsistent with the removal of the restrictions hereby intended to be imposed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 8.

Returns of convictions.

10. All returns of convictions required by law to be made by any Justice or Justices of the Peace shall be made,

- (a) For the Districts of Muskoka and Parry Sound to the clerk of the peace for the County of Simcoe;
- (b) For the District of Rainy River to the clerk of the peace for the District of Thunder Bay;
- (c) For the District of Nipissing to the clerk of the peace of the County of Renfrew. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 9; 47 V. c. 15, s. 1, (1); 48 V. c. 20, s. 8.

Appeal from decisions of Magistrates.

11.—(1) In all cases arising in the said Districts in which, according to the general laws of this Province, an appeal lies from the decision of the Stipendiary Magistrate or of any one or more Justices of the Peace to the General Sessions of the Peace, the appeal shall lie to, and may be brought before, and heard and determined,

- (a) In cases arising in the Districts of Muskoka and Parry Sound, by the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for the County of Simcoe;
- (b) In cases arising in the District of Rainy River, by the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for the District of Thunder Bay;
- (c) In cases arising in the District of Nipissing by the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for the County of Renfrew.

(2) Such appeal shall be claimed and allowed and prosecuted in the same manner, and within the same period, as if the same had arisen within the limits of the County of Simcoe, the District of Thunder Bay or the County of Renfrew respectively. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 10; 47 V. c. 15, s. 1.

12. The Stipendiary Magistrate shall from time to time appoint a keeper to every common gaol in his District, and the gaol keeper shall perform all the duties, and be under and subject to all the liabilities that the gaolers of the common gaols in the several counties in Ontario now perform and are subject to, and shall give such security for the due performance of the duties of his office as the Lieutenant-Governor from time to time prescribes, and every such gaol-keeper shall be paid out of the consolidated revenue fund, such sums of money Appoint-ment of gaoler. annually as the Lieutenant-Governor may think reasonable for his remunera-tion. the services performed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 6.

13. All moneys arising from penalties, forfeitures and fines imposed by a Stipendiary Magistrate, or by a Justice of the Peace acting within his District when paid and levied, shall (if not directed by law to be otherwise appropriated) be from time to time paid to such Stipendiary Magistrate who shall account for the same, and pay over or disburse the moneys arising therefrom, at such times, in such manner, and to such person as the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time direct. Application of fines and for-feitures. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 7.

14. Every Stipendiary Magistrate shall keep minutes of every proceeding had by and before him, and shall keep such accounts, make such returns, and collect such information, Stipendiary Magistrate to keep minutes, accounts, etc. with respect to the District for which he is appointed and the state and condition thereof, as the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time prescribe and require. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 8.

15.—(1) Any gaol or lock-up erected in either of the Districts of Muskoka or Parry Sound, under the authority of the Lieutenant-Governor, or any building so declared by Order in Council, shall be a common gaol of such District, and of the County of Simcoe, for the safe custody of persons charged with the commission, within such District, of crimes, or with the commission therein of offences against any of the statutes of this Province, or against any municipal by-law, who may not have been finally committed for trial; or for the safe custody of persons finally committed for trial, charged as aforesaid, who are to be tried within the District; or for the confinement of persons sentenced within the District for crimes or offences aforesaid, for periods not exceeding one month; or for the confinement of persons sentenced as aforesaid, for periods exceeding one month, until such persons can be conveniently removed to the gaol at Barrie, or other lawful prison to which they are sentenced. Gaols of Mus-koka and Parry Sound to be also common gaols of Simcoe. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 15.

(2) Nothing contained in the preceding sub-section shall be construed to prevent any Court or Magistrate from direct-Preceding sub-section not to prevent committal to gaol at Barrie. ing the committal, either for safe custody or for punishment, of any person whom it may be considered expedient to commit to the common gaol at Barrie. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 17.

Lock ups in Rainy River.

(2) Any gaol or lock-up erected in the District of Rainy River under the authority of the Lieutenant-Governor, or any building so declared by Order in Council, shall be a common gaol of the district, for the safe custody of persons charged with the commission, within the District, of crimes, or with the commission therein of offences against any statute of this Province, or against any municipal by-law, who may not have been finally committed for trial, or for the safe custody of persons finally committed for trial, charged as aforesaid who are to be tried within the District of Rainy River; or for the confinement of persons sentenced within the said District for crimes or for offences as aforesaid, for periods not exceeding six months; or for the confinement of persons sentenced as aforesaid for periods exceeding six months until such persons can be conveniently removed to the gaol at Rat Portage, or other lawful prison to which they are sentenced.

Gaol at Rat Portage.

(3) The gaol at Rat Portage shall be the chief common gaol of the District of Rainy River, and, besides being for the detention of persons held for safe custody as mentioned in this section, shall also be for the confinement of persons sentenced within the said District for crimes or offences as aforesaid for periods less than two years. 48 V. c. 20, s. 10.

17. Any gaol or lock-up erected in the District of Nipissing under the authority of the Lieutenant-Governor, or any building so declared by Order in Council, shall be a common gaol of the District for the safe custody of persons charged with the commission, within the District, of crimes, or with the commission therein of offences against any statute of this Province, or against any municipal by-law, who may not have been finally committed for trial or for the safe custody of persons finally committed for trial, charged as aforesaid, who are to be tried within the said District; or for the confinement of persons sentenced, within the District, for crimes or offences as aforesaid for periods not exceeding six months; or for the confinement of persons sentenced, as aforesaid, for periods exceeding six months, until such persons can be conveniently removed to any other lawful prison to which they are sentenced. 48 V. c. 13, s. 29.

Division Courts.

18. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may divide each of the said Districts into two or more divisions, and appoint, and from time to time alter the number, limits and extent of every such division, and may number the same consecutively, commencing at number one. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 18; c. 90, s. 9.

District may be divided into divisions.

19.—(1) A Court shall be held in every such division in a Territorial District once in every three months, or oftener at the discretion of the Stipendiary Magistrate, who may appoint, and from time to time alter the times and places within such divisions when and at which such Courts shall be held, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

Court to be held in each division.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time make such regulations as he considers expedient in order to secure the due and convenient holding of Courts in the said Districts, and within all other Districts now or hereafter to be formed in any part of the unorganized territory in Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 19; c. 90, s. 10; 43 V. c. 12, s. 4, last part; 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

20.—(1) The Stipendiary Magistrate shall act as Division Court Judge of the District for which he is appointed and, besides any additional jurisdiction given to him by this Act, shall have the like jurisdiction and powers as are possessed by the County Court Judges in Division Courts in counties, and shall perform the like duties.

Stipendiary Magistrate to be Judge of Division Court.

(2) The Stipendiary Magistrate shall be the sole Judge in all actions brought in the said Division Courts, and shall determine all questions as well of fact as of law in relation thereto in the summary manner authorized by this Act; but if he thinks fit to have any fact or facts controverted in a cause, tried by a jury, a jury of five persons present shall be returned instantly by the Clerk of the Court to try such fact or facts, and the Stipendiary Magistrate may give judgment on the verdict of the jury. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 20; c. 90, ss. 11, 12.

Stipendiary Magistrate to be sole Judge.

Jury trial.

21.—(1) The provisions of law from time to time in force relating to Division Courts in counties, and the officers thereof, including the rules or forms made or to be made by the Board of County Judges, and the fees payable to the clerks and bailiffs, shall apply to the Division Courts of the said Districts, except where inconsistent with this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 20; c. 90, s. 13; 45 V. c. 7, s. 2.

Procedure.

(2) Sections 150, 154, 158 and 170 of The Division Courts

Act shall not apply to the Division Courts of the said Districts. 45 V. c. 7, s. 1 (1).

Holding of Division Courts in Simcoe, Muskoka and Parry Sound.

22.—(1) The Judge or Junior Judge of the County Court of the County of Simcoe, may, if he thinks fit, at the request of the Stipendiary Magistrate of the District, hold any Division Court in the District of Muskoka, or in the District of Parry Sound; and the Stipendiary Magistrate of either of such Districts, may if he thinks fit, at the request of the Judge or Junior Judge of the said County of Simcoe, hold any Division Court in such county.

(2) Every Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate while holding any such Court shall have all the rights, powers and privileges of the officer at whose request he is holding Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 21.

Certain causes of action not recognizable.

23. The Division Courts of the said Districts shall not have cognizance of any action for any gambling debt, or for any spirituous, malt, or other like liquors nor of any action whether brought by the payee or any other person on a note of hand, the consideration or any part of the consideration of which was for a gambling debt or for such liquors, nor of any action for the recovery of land, or any action in which the title to any corporeal or incorporeal hereditaments, or to any toll, custom or franchise is in question, or in which the validity of any devise, bequest or limitation under any will or settlement is disputed, nor of any action for malicious prosecution, or for libel or slander, or for criminal conversation or seduction, or breach of promise of marriage. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 14.

Jurisdiction of the Court.

Rev. Stat.
s. 51.

Mode of proceeding.

24. The said Division Courts, in addition to the jurisdiction given to Division Courts under The Division Courts Act, shall have jurisdiction in all personal actions where the amount claimed does not exceed $100, and the Stipendiary Magistrate shall hear and determine such actions and matters in relation thereto in a summary way, and make such orders and judgments as appear to him just and agreeable to equity and good conscience. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 16.

Executor, etc., may sue and be sued.

And minors may sue for wages, etc.

25. Any executor or administrator may sue and be sued in any such Division Court, in like manner as if he were a party in his own right, and judgment and execution shall be such as in the like cases would be given or issued in the High Court; and any one under the age of twenty-one years may prosecute an action, in any such Court for any sum of money not exceeding $100, due to him for wages or piece work, or for work as a servant, in the same manner as if he were of full age. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 18.

26. With the consent of both parties to the action, the Stipendiary Magistrate may try any action within his jurisdiction against a Division Court Clerk of his District in any Division Court within the District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 19.

27. An action by or against a Stipendiary Magistrate, if the same is within the jurisdiction of any Division Court of his District, may be brought in any Division Court of any adjoining County or District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 45.

28.—(1) The Stipendiary Magistrate holding any Division Court as aforesaid, may, in any case, with the consent in writing of both parties to the action, order the same, with or without other matters in dispute between the parties and within the jurisdiction of the Court as to subject matter but irrespective of amount if not exceeding $800, to be referred to arbitration to such persons, and in such manner and on such terms as he may think reasonable and just; and such reference shall not be revocable by either party, except by consent of the Stipendiary Magistrate; and the award of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, shall be entered in the cause as a judgment of the Court, and shall be binding and effectual, to all intents and purposes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 20.

(2) Where a reference has been made by such order, either of the parties to the action may obtain from the clerk of any Division Court, and cause to be duly served a summons or subpoena requiring the attendance before the said arbitrators, of any witness resident within the District, in like manner as before the Stipendiary Magistrate at the sittings of the said Division Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 21, part.

29. The Stipendiary Magistrate may, on application to him within fourteen days after the entry of the award, set the same aside, or may, with the consent in writing of both parties revoke the said reference and order another reference to be made in the manner aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 22; c. 90, s. 21, part.

30.—(1) If the parties between whom differences have arisen agree by a writing signed by them to refer their causes of action, claims and demands to the Stipendiary Magistrate and agree that the Stipendiary Magistrate may try and determine the same, the said Stipendiary Magistrate shall have power and jurisdiction so to do, provided the subject matter of difference is upon a cause or causes of action not exceeding $800 in amount, and not within the subjects excepted from the jurisdiction of the said Division Courts.

(2) Every such agreement shall be executed in duplicate, one of which duplicates shall be filed with the said Stipendiary Magistrate and the other with the clerk of the Division Court and the Court shall thereupon have jurisdiction in respect of the matter so referred.

May be filed and proceedings thereon had to judgment in one of the Division Courts.

(3) Upon such agreement being filed the plaintiff may enter his claim for suit in such Division Court, and sue out a summons thereupon as in ordinary cases, and the proceedings in the said action may be conducted to judgment and execution (irrespective of the amount recovered, provided it does not exceed $800) in the same manner as in other actions in the said Court, and the judgment in such action shall have the same effect as any other judgment of the Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, ss. 22, 23 and 24.

Appeals from Stipendiary Magistrate.

31. From the judgment of a Stipendiary Magistrate pronounced in a case tried under the preceding two sections an appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal subject to such rules as to security, stay of proceedings, and otherwise, as the said Court may make in respect thereto, and subject until such rules are made, to the like rules, and statutory restrictions as are applicable to appeals from the decision of a Judge of a County Court; but the entry of judgment shall not prevent the appeal being had or proceeded with. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 25.

Service on application for new trial.

32. Upon an application for a new trial in a cause wherein either party may appeal, personal service may be effected, or all papers requiring service may be delivered to the clerk of the Division Court where the action was tried, or left at his office for the person entitled thereto. The clerk shall forthwith mail by registered letter all such papers to the person entitled to the same, or his authorized agent. 45 V. c. 7, s. 1 (4).

Stay of proceedings.

33. On the application of the party proposing to appeal his counsel, solicitor or agent, the Stipendiary Magistrate shall stay the proceedings in the cause for a time not exceeding twenty days, from the day of giving judgment on the application for a new trial, in order to afford time to give the security required for appeal. 43 V. c. 8, s. 18; 45 V. c. 7, s. 1 (3).

Parties may agree not to appeal from Stipendiary Magistrates.

34. No appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal if, before the Court opens, or if (without the intervention of the Stipendiary Magistrate), before the commencement of the trial, there shall be filed with the clerk an agreement in writing not to appeal, signed by both parties, or by their solicitors or agents. The Stipendiary Magistrate shall note in his minutes whether such agreement was filed or not, and the minutes shall be evidence upon that point. 49 V. c. 16, s. 22.

REGISTRATION OF DEEDS, ETC.

Registrar of Deeds may be appointed.

35.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint a registrar of deeds in and for each of the Districts of Algoma, Thunder Bay exclusive of Rainy River, Muskoka, Parry Sound, Rainy River and Nipissing, who shall hold office during pleasure, and shall register all deeds, and other conveyances and instruments relating to lands laid out and surveyed by the Crown in any part of his District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 23 ; c. 90, ss. 58, 59 ; 48 V. c. 20, s. 1.

(2) The said registrar shall keep his office in a place to be named for that purpose in his commission, or at such other place as may be appointed from time to time by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and his duties shall be the same as the duties of other registrars under the registry laws of this Province; and his fees shall be the same as those appointed and established by such registry laws. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 24 ; c. 90, ss. 59-60.

Office, duties, and fees of Registrar.

(3) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may order an annual salary, not exceeding $800, to be paid to the registrar of a Temporary Judicial District out of the consolidated revenue fund of this Province, in lieu of such fees; which fees shall in such case be paid into the consolidated revenue fund. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 61.

Salary may be allowed.

36. The provisions of law relating to securities to be given by registrars of deeds in other parts of Ontario shall also apply to the registrars of the said Districts, except that the covenant to be given by such officers shall be for such an amount as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may determine. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 25 ; c. 90, s. 62 ; 47 V. c. 14, s. 9 ; 48 V. c. 20, s. 7.

Securities by Registrars.

37. The registrars of any of the said Districts when thereunto required by the Lieutenant-Governor, shall transfer and deliver to the registrars of any other of the said Districts all books, deeds, papers, plans and documents in their possession respectively as such registrars referring or relating exclusively to any lands within such other District or Districts; and all the provisions of the Registry Laws of this Province relating to the transfer of books, deeds, memorials, plans and other documents or instruments from one registry office to another registry office when a part of a county has been detached therefrom and set apart for registration purposes, shall apply to the registrars and registry offices in the said Districts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 26 ; c. 111, s. 28.

Transfer of books, deeds, etc.

38. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, from time to time, by proclamation, limit the territory which, for registry purposes, shall be included within the districts of Algoma, Thunder Bay and Nipissing respectively. 43 V. c. 12, s. 2.

Alteration of limits of territory for registry purposes.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

39. For all judicial purposes not provided for by this Act, the townships and territory composing the Districts of Muskoka and Parry Sound shall continue to form part of the County of Simcoe or Thunder Bay.

For certain judicial purposes, Districts

Thunder Bay.

of Simcoe, and the townships and territory composing the District of Rainy River shall continue to form part of the District of Thunder Bay. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 27; 47 V. c. 14, s. 16 (2).

Execution of writs.

40.—(1) The Queen's writs shall run and may be executed in any parts of the said Districts, and shall have the same force and effect upon persons and property as similar writs have in the organized parts of Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 12 (1); c. 90, s. 26.

Writs to whom to be directed.

(2) Such writs, in the Districts of Muskoka and Parry Sound, shall be directed to the sheriff of the County of Simcoe; and all writs and other process requiring to be directed to a sheriff and intended to be executed within the District of Rainy River shall be directed to the sheriff of Rainy River, and in a Temporary Judicial District shall, unless otherwise specially provided by law, be directed to the sheriff of any county next adjacent thereto. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 12 (2); c. 90, s. 26; 48 V. c. 20, s. 6 (2).

District of Nipissing.

Execution against goods in Nipissing to bind from seizure.

41. No writ of execution issued against goods and chattels in the District of Nipissing shall have any force or effect to bind such goods and chattels before actual seizure thereof under such writ, unless such writ is directed and delivered to the sheriff of the County of Renfrew to be executed; and all writs of execution against lands, or for recovering possession of any lands or tenements, in the said District, shall be directed to the sheriff of the said County of Renfrew; and every writ of execution against lands or goods directed to the said sheriff of the County of Renfrew shall bind the goods and lands of the debtor within the said District from the time they are delivered to the said sheriff to be executed; and for the purposes in this section mentioned, the said District shall be part of the bailiwick of the said sheriff of the County of Renfrew. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 28.

Actions for causes arising in Nipissing, and not within the jurisdiction of the Division
Court.

42. When a cause of action wherein the venue is local and which is not within the jurisdiction of the Division Courts of the District, arises in the Temporary Judicial District of Nipissing, the action may be brought and the trial had in any county or union of counties, adjoining any part of the said District, with the same effect as if the said District of Nipissing was a part of such county or union of counties; but the Court or a Judge on the application of either party may order that the trial shall take place in any other county. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 27.

District of Rainy River.

Jurisdiction of Stipendiary Magistrate in actions.

43.—(1) In respect of actions commenced or to be commenced by the issue of process out of the office of the deputy clerk for the District of Rainy River, the Stipendiary Magistrate for the District of Rainy River may, subject to an appeal to the Judge of the District Court of the Provisional Judicial District of Thunder Bay, do all such things and transact all such business and exercise all such authority and jurisdiction as, by virtue of any statute or custom, or by the rules and practice in force in the said District Court, may be done, transacted or exercised by the said Judge in Chambers, except (unless by consent of the parties) in respect of the following proceedings and matters, that is to say:—

- (a) The referring of causes under any Act in force respecting references;
- (b) Reviewing taxation of costs; and
- (c) Staying proceedings between verdict and judgment.

(2) In such excepted matters, the Stipendiary Magistrate may issue a summons returnable before the said Judge, with or without a stay of proceedings, as he may think proper.

(3) In case any matter shall appear to the Stipendiary Magistrate to be proper for the decision of the Judge, the Stipendiary Magistrate may refer the same to the Judge, and the Judge may either dispose of the matter, or refer the same back to the Stipendiary Magistrate with such directions as he may think fit.

(4) Appeals from the Stipendiary Magistrate's order or decision may be made by summons, such summons to be taken out within ten days after the decision complained of, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Judge, or by the Stipendiary Magistrate.

Appeals from orders of Stipendiary
Magistrate.

(5) An appeal shall be no stay unless so ordered by the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate.

(6) The costs of an appeal shall be in the discretion of the Judge.

(7) The fees and the scale of allowance thereof; for all matters done by and before the Stipendiary Magistrate, shall be the same as are authorized for business done by and before the Judge.

(8) The Stipendiary Magistrate in granting a summons or order may impose upon the party obtaining the same such terms or conditions as he deems expedient. 49 V. c. 19, s. 7.

PROVISIONAL JUDICIAL DISTRICTS.

44. The Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time, by proclamation under the Great Seal, declare that, from and after a day to be therein named, either of the Districts of Muskoka or Parry Sound with or without any other territory and any other part or parts of the unorganized tracts of country in this Province bordering upon and adjacent to Lakes Superior and Huron, including the islands in those lakes within this

R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 28; c. 90, s. 29.

Any territory not included in any Township may be included in a Provisional Judicial District.

45. The Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation as aforesaid, include within the limits of any such Provisional Judicial District, any portion of any county in Ontario not included in any township; and thereupon such portion shall for all purposes connected with the administration of justice cease to belong to such county; but whenever such portion, or any part thereof, is formed or erected into a township, the same shall thereupon cease to belong to or form part of the Provisional Judicial District, and shall belong to the county from which it has been detached; and whenever any portion of such Provisional Judicial District which at the time of the formation thereof was not included in any township or county, is formed or erected into a township or townships, and attached to any county, the same shall in like manner thereupon immediately cease to belong to or form part of such Provisional Judicial District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 30.

When it shall be again separated.

Powers of Justices of the Peace.

46. The Justices of the Peace appointed for a Provisional Judicial District, or for any part or parts of this Province included therein, or wherein the same may be included, whether in General Sessions assembled within such Provisional Judicial District, or out of Sessions, and the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for any Provisional Judicial District shall have, use, exercise and enjoy within such Provisional Judicial District all the jurisdiction, powers and authorities, and discharge and perform all the duties which Justices of the Peace in and for any county, whether in General Sessions assembled or out of Sessions, and the Court of General Sessions of the Peace in and for the county, by law are entitled and required to use, exercise and enjoy, discharge and perform. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 35.

Certain buildings to be deemed gaols of such Provisional Judicial Districts.

47. All buildings and erections provided by the Commissioner of Public Works by direction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for the holding of Courts and for the safe custody of prisoners in any Provisional Judicial District shall for the time being be deemed the Court House and Gaol of such District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 31.

Governor may authorize the holding of certain Courts in Districts.

48. The Lieutenant-Governor may issue the necessary commissions authorizing the holding of Courts of Assize and Nisi Prius, Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery in any Provisional Judicial District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 32.

49. The Lieutenant-Governor may pay to the sheriffs and other officers of every Provisional Judicial District, by way of salary or otherwise, out of any unappropriated moneys belonging to the consolidated revenue fund of this Province, such several sums of money as he may think reasonable for the services performed by such officers respectively. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 36.

Lieutenant-Governor may pay Sheriff, etc., of such Districts.

50. The sheriff or other officer whose duty it is or who may be legally required to summon and return jurors or persons to serve as jurors, within any of the Provisional Judicial Districts, shall and may select, choose and return for such jurors any of the inhabitants of such Provisional Judicial Districts respectively, without reference to the mode prescribed for selecting, balloting or returning jurors by The Jurors' Act; and juries de medietate lingue, and juries of a like nature may be ordered by the Court before which any cause in any of the said Provisional Judicial Districts may be pending. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 37.

Any persons may be returned as jurors in the said Provisional Judicial Districts.

Rev. Stat. c. 52.

51. As soon as a Provisional Judicial District is formed as hereinbefore provided, including any Temporary Judicial District formed under this Act, the provisions herein contained relating to Temporary Judicial Districts, shall cease to have any force therein except so far as may be necessary for supporting any process and proceedings issued, had or taken before or at the time when such Provisional District is formed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 38.

Provisions respecting temporary judicial districts not to apply on erection of Provisional Districts.

52. There shall be a District Judge appointed in every Provisional Judicial District, and such Judge shall be a Barrister of not less than five years' standing at the Bar of Ontario; and such Judge shall have the same powers, duties and emoluments as a County Judge, and he shall hold his office during good behaviour, and shall reside within the limits of his Provisional Judicial District, and shall not, directly or indirectly, practise or carry on or conduct any business in the profession or practice of the law while holding his office as Judge, on pain of forfeiting the same, and under a penalty of $400. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 33; 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

Judges of such Provisional Districts, their powers, etc.

53.—(1) The Act respecting the County Judges' Criminal Courts, shall extend to the Judges of the District Courts of the Districts of Algoma and Thunder Bay, and to the Judge of every Provisional Judicial District hereafter established; and the laws now in force or which may be hereafter passed with respect to Courts of General Sessions of the Peace in Counties, and the powers of the Justices thereat, or with respect to County and Division Courts, or the power, authority or jurisdiction of the Judges of such Courts, whether sitting in or out of Court, and to the appointment and duties of Local Crown Attorneys, Clerks of the Peace, Sheriffs, Coroners, Clerks, Constables and all other officers attached to such Courts or employed in the administration of justice in connection therewith, shall, unless it is otherwise provided, or unless there is something in the context indicating a different intention, apply to each of the said Provisional Judicial Districts, and to every Provisional Judicial District hereafter established. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 34; 47 V. c. 14, s. 9.

Rev. Stat. c. 49, extended to Algoma and all future Provisional Judicial Districts.

Where Courts to be held.

(2) Such Courts shall be held in each such new Provisional Judicial District at the place which the Lieutenant-Governor in Council by proclamation from time to time appoints, and the word "District" shall be substituted for the word "County" in the titles of such Courts and officers, as well as in the interpretation of such laws, in their application to such Provisional Judicial Districts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 34.

54.—(1) The District and Surrogate Courts established for the Provisional Judicial Districts of Algoma and Thunder Bay are hereby continued.

(2) The District Courts respectively are to be presided over by a Judge to be appointed in accordance with the provisions of the British North America Act, 1867, and the District Judges shall be the Judges of the Surrogate Courts. 47 V. c. 14, s. 2.

Laws respecting Surrogate Courts or Judges in Counties to apply.

55. The laws now in force, or which may hereafter be passed with respect to Surrogate Courts or Judges in counties and the officers thereof, shall apply to the Surrogate Courts and Judges of Algoma and Thunder Bay. 47 V. c. 14, s. 3.

General Jurisdiction.

56.—(1) Subject to the exceptions in section 58 contained, the District Courts of Algoma and Thunder Bay shall, in addition to the jurisdiction possessed by County Courts, each have jurisdiction and hold plea subject to appeal;

(a) In all actions relating to debt, covenant and contract
Provided always, where the case is beyond the jurisdiction of County Courts, that the contract was made within the district, or the cause of action arose therein, or the defendant resides therein;

(b) In replevin, where the value of the goods or other property or effects distrained, taken or detained, does not exceed the sum of $400, and the goods, property, or effects to be replevied are in the said district;

(c) In all other personal actions where the amount claimed does not exceed $400;

(d) For the recovery of land situate in the district.

(2) After a trial, in an action for the recovery of land, or in replevin where the value of the goods claimed exceeds $200, or in any other case where the cause of action is beyond the jurisdiction possessed by County Courts, and a verdict or judgment exceeding $200 is obtained, any party entitled to move to set aside or vary the verdict or judgment, or to enter a non-suit, may, if he so desires, instead of moving in the District Court and without removing the cause into the High Court by certiorari or otherwise, move in the High Court for such rule or order as he claims to be entitled to. The motion shall be made in the same manner, and subject to the like limitations as to time and otherwise, as the motion would have been subject to if the action had been in the High Court and had been tried at a sittings thereof, and the judgment or order of the High Court shall be acted upon as if it were a judgment or order of the said District Court. The High Court shall have jurisdiction to make any order, or give any judgment which could be made or given in the cause by the District Court.

(3) Where a party is entitled and desires to move under the next preceding sub-section, he shall notify the clerk of the District Court in writing to transmit the record or certified copy of the pleadings and any exhibits filed at the trial to the Registrar at Toronto of the Division of the High Court in which he intends to move, and subject to any general rules, the subsequent practice shall be the same as in case of a trial in the High Court. 47 V. c. 14, s. 4.

57—(1) The District Courts of the Districts of Algoma and Thunder Bay, shall have the same jurisdiction as the High Court with respect to injunctions restraining the committing of waste or trespass on property, by unlawfully cutting, destroying or removing trees or timber and with respect to incidental relief, and the practice in the exercise of such jurisdiction shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as the practice of the High Court. Jurisdiction in cases of waste and trespass.

(2) The High Court, or a Judge thereof, on the application of any party to the proceeding made on notice, may order that the whole proceeding be transferred to the High Court, or to any Division thereof; and in that case all papers filed in the District Court shall be transmitted by the clerk, or other proper officer of the District Court to the High Court; and the action shall thenceforth be continued and prosecuted in the High Court, as if it had been originally commenced therein. Removal of action into High Court.

(3) The order may be made on such terms as to payment of costs, giving security and otherwise, as the Court or Judge thinks fit. Terms may be imposed.

(4) No such case shall be transferred unless the value of the subject matter or the damage to either party appears to amount to upwards of $1,000, nor unless the case appears to the Court or Judge fit to be tried in the High Court. 50 V. c. 12, ss. 1-3. In what cases action shall be removable.

58. The said District Courts shall not have jurisdiction in any of the following cases:— Exceptions to jurisdiction.

1. Actions for a gambling debt; or upon a note of hand or other document given wholly or partly in consideration of a gambling debt;

2. Actions for malicious prosecution, libel, slander, criminal conversation, seduction, or breach of promise of marriage, if the damages sought to be recovered exceed $200.

3. Actions against a Justice of the Peace for anything done by him in the execution of his office, if the damages claimed exceed $100. 47 V. c. 14, s. 5.

Sittings of District Courts.

59. The sittings at the district towns of the District Courts of Algoma and Thunder Bay, for trials and assessments by jury, and of the General Sessions of the said districts, shall be held on the second Tuesday of the months of June and November of each year. 47 V. c. 10, s. 8; c. 14, ss. 6 and 18.

Time allowed for appearance to writ issued in said Districts ;

60.—(1) The time allowed for appearance to a writ of summons issued in either of the said districts, whether out of the High Court of Justice or the district Court for service within Ontario, or to a writ of capias or replevin issued as aforesaid shall be 20 days after the service of the writ, inclusive of the day of service.

for putting in special bail ;

(2) The time allowed in any writ of capias issued as aforesaid, for putting in special bail, shall be 30 days, inclusive of the day of execution, unless a different time is fixed by the order for the writ.

in ejectment.

(3) The time allowed for appearance to any writ in an action for the recovery of land issued as aforesaid, shall be 30 days, inclusive of the day of service.

Additional time allowed when writ served or executed between Nov. 1 and June 30.

(4) Where any of the said writs is served or executed between the 1st day of November and the 30th day of June, or on either of the said days, a defendant shall be entitled to an additional period of ten days for appearing to the writ or putting in special bail.

Same time allowed when writ served or executed in District as when issued there.

(5) The time allowed for appearance to any such writ, issued in any part of Ontario out of the High Court or out of any County Court, served within Algoma or Thunder Bay, and for putting in special bail to any writ of capias executed within either of the said districts shall be the same as is hereinbefore provided in the case of a like writ issued therein. 47 V. c. 14, s. 7.

Costs.

61.—(1) Where the amount claimed in any action in the said District Courts, or where in the case of an action for the recovery of land or in replevin the subject matter of the action, as appearing in the writ in the action or in the affidavit filed to obtain the writ in replevin, is beyond the jurisdiction of the County Courts in other parts of Ontario, costs to a successful defendant shall be taxed according to the High Court tariff.

(2) In like manner where the plaintiff recovers in respect to a cause of action beyond the jurisdiction of the County Courts, costs shall be taxed to him according to the High Court tariff, subject however to his obtaining the certificate or order of the Judge where in a like case such certificate or order is required in the High Court.

(3) In respect to any action within the provisions of the first part of this section the solicitor of an unsuccessful plaintiff shall be entitled to charge his client County Court costs only, unless he was instructed in writing by such client to sue in respect to a matter beyond the jurisdiction of the said County Courts, in which case the said solicitor shall be entitled to charge costs according to the High Court tariff. 43 V. c. 12, s. 11, (1-3); 47 V. c. 14, s. 9.

62.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint a sheriff of the said District of Thunder Bay, who shall keep an office at the Town of Port Arthur in the said district. Lieutenant-Governor may appoint a sheriff for Thunder Bay.

(2) All writs and other process requiring to be directed to a sheriff and intended to be executed within that portion of the said District of Thunder Bay which is not included within the District of Rainy River shall be directed to the sheriff of Thunder Bay. Writs to whom be to directed.

(3) The Act respecting the Office of Sheriff shall apply to the said sheriff of Thunder Bay and of Rainy River, except that it shall not be necessary for the sheriff to justify in a sum greater than $2,000 over and above his just debts, nor shall it be requisite that such sheriff shall be possessed of real estate to the said amount. 43 V. c. 12, s. 12 (5); 48 V. c. 20, s. 6 (4). Rev. Stat. c. 16 to apply.

63.—(1) The sheriff of Algoma, Thunder Bay, or Rainy River shall not be required to execute or serve any writ, paper or proceeding for any party other than the Crown, until an amount reasonably sufficient to cover his mileage in travelling for the purpose of executing or serving the writ, paper, or proceeding is paid or tendered to him, unless the distance to be travelled for the purpose of such execution or service is less than ten miles. Sheriff not required to effect service until mileage paid.

(2) Where the distance is less than ten miles such sheriff shall not be required to execute or serve such writ, paper, or proceeding without such reasonable sum as aforesaid being paid or tendered him if he has previously notified the solicitor, or party whose name is endorsed on such writ, paper, or proceeding, or by whom such service is required, that prepayment of mileage will be required before execution or service of any writ, paper or proceeding which such solicitor or party may desire to have served. Provision in case distance less than ten miles.

(3) No sheriff, deputy sheriff, or other officer shall sell or expose for sale under execution, any lands or tenements in the Districts of Algoma, Thunder Bay or Rainy River, except during the months of July, August, September, or October. 43 V. c. 12, s. 12 (6-8); 48 V. c. 20, s. 6 (4). Time for sales of land limited.

Precepts for return of panels dispensed with.

64.—(1) It shall not be necessary to issue precepts for the return of panels of grand or petit jurors for any sittings of the District Court of the Districts of Algoma or Thunder Bay, or of the General Sessions of the Peace for the said districts, if it appears to the Judge of the said District Court that at such sittings there will be no business to be brought before such jurors. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 40; 47 V. c. 14, s. 9.

Clerk of the Peace and District Court to inform the Judges of necessity for precept.

(2) Where there appears to be need that precepts should issue for the return of panels of jurors aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Peace of the district, and the Clerk of the District Court, to inform the said Judge thereof, in order that precepts may be issued for the return of jurors at the ensuing sittings of the Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 41; 47 V. c. 14, s. 9.

Precepts when jurors required.

(3) In case jurors are required for either of the said Courts the necessary precepts shall be issued for both of the said Courts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 42; 47 V. c. 14, s. 9.

Where jurors required, and no opportunity to summon before the sittings.

65. If the business to be brought before jurors arises so shortly before the sittings, that the jurors cannot reasonably be summoned in sufficient time to attend on the day appointed for the commencement of the sittings, the said Judge may order that the jurors be summoned for a subsequent day, and the said Court shall in such case commence its sittings upon the day by law appointed therefor, and shall dispose of such business as may be disposed of without a jury, and shall be thereafter adjourned to the day for which the jurors are summoned as aforesaid. The Judge may make the order hereinbefore authorized, on the day upon which the sittings of the said Court commence, or upon any earlier day. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 43; 47 V. c. 14, s. 9.

Sittings of High Court.

66.—(1) Sittings of the High Court, for the trial of civil and criminal causes, and for other purposes shall be held once a year at Sault Ste. Marie and at Port Arthur respectively on such days as may from time to time be appointed therefor by the Judges of the High Court. If the Judges of the High Court upon inquiry ascertain on any occasion that any of the sittings are not required for the due administration of justice it shall not be necessary to appoint a day for the holding thereof. 47 V. c. 14, s. 13. See Chap. 44, s. 90.

Judges to issue precepts for jurors.

(2) In case the sittings are to be held, the Judges of the High Court, or some of them, shall issue the necessary precepts for the summoning of grand and petit jurors. 47 V. c. 14, s. 14.

Appointment of Deputy Clerk.

67.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time appoint, under the great seal, an officer for the District Court of the Provisional Judicial District of Thunder Bay, to be called the deputy clerk for Rainy River, who shall hold office during pleasure, and shall keep his office at Rat Portage.

(2) In case after an appointment has been made a vacancy occurs in such office, the clerk of the Division Court at Rat Portage shall, ex-officio, be deputy clerk until another appointment is made. Vacancy in the office of Deputy Clerk.

(3) The said deputy clerk shall issue writs for the commencement of actions in the District Court, and shall, in respect of actions so commenced and of proceedings therein, perform the like duties and have the like powers and rights as are performed or possessed by the clerk of the District Court at Port Arthur in respect of actions commenced by writs issued out of his office, and of proceedings therein; and the said deputy clerk shall also issue such writs and process as may be required in such actions as may in like cases be issued by the said clerk of the District Court, and may renew any such writs as by law may be renewed. Powers and Duties of Deputy Clerk.

(4) No writ of capias issued under the next preceding section shall be executed outside of the District of Rainy River; and every writ of capias so issued shall be marked by the clerk as follows: "Only to be executed within the District of Rainy River," but this shall not prevent a copy of such writ of capias being served at any place within Ontario. Capias.

(5) The deputy clerk of the said District Court shall have the custody of a seal similar in design to the seal of the Court in the custody of the clerk at Port Arthur, and the said deputy clerk shall seal with the said seal all writs, process and proceedings requiring the seal of the said Court; and every writ, process or proceeding sealed with such seal shall be held to be duly sealed with the seal of the said Court. 48 V. c. 20, s. 2. Seal.

68. In actions arising in the District of Rainy River in which the venue is local the writ shall be issued out of the office of the deputy clerk, and Rat Portage shall be named as the place of trial in the same manner as if the said district was a separate county; but the judge may, if he sees fit, change the place of trial in any action. 48 V. c. 20, s. 3. Venue in actions arising in Rainy River.

69.—(1) The deputy clerk for the Rainy River District of the District Court of Thunder Bay shall, ex-officio, be deputy registrar for Rainy River of the Surrogate Court of Thunder Bay; and he shall keep his office of deputy registrar at the same place as he is required by law to keep his office of deputy clerk. Deputy Clerk to be Registrar of Surrogate Court.

(2) Sections 11, 12, 13 and 14 of The Surrogate Courts Act, shall apply as nearly as may be to the deputy registrar for Rainy River; and he shall observe and conform to the provisions thereof; and shall perform the like duties, and shall have the like powers and rights, under and by virtue of the said Act, within the District of Rainy River, as are performed or possessed by the registrar of the Surrogate Court for Thunder Bay at Port Arthur; and the latter shall not exercise Rev. Stat. c. 50, ss. 11-14, to apply to Deputy Registrar.

the powers and rights of registrar of the Surrogate Court for Thunder Bay, in regard to applications for probate, or letters of administration, in respect of the will, or estate, of any person who had at the time of his death his fixed place of abode in the District of Rainy River, or of any person who having no fixed place of abode within Ontario had, at the time of his death, real or personal estate in the District of Rainy River and not elsewhere in Thunder Bay, which but for this section would have been exercised by him as registrar of the Surrogate Court for Thunder Bay.

Surrogate
Seal.

(3) The said deputy registrar of Surrogate shall have the custody of a seal similar in design to the seal of the Court in the custody of the registrar, and such seal shall be the seal of the Court for the purpose of sealing all grants, letters, writs, certificates, papers or proceedings in connection with any matter or thing in the office of the said deputy registrar requiring to be sealed. 48 V. c. 20, s. 4.

Sittings of Surrogate
Court.

70. The Surrogate Court for Thunder Bay shall, at Rat Portage, in the District of Rainy River, in respect of matters arising within the District of Rainy River, and at Port Arthur in respect of matters arising within the rest of the Provisional Judicial District of Thunder Bay, hold such sittings as the Judge of the Surrogate Court of the Provisional Judicial District of Thunder Bay may think proper and necessary, but the said Judge may, when he deems it more convenient for the parties interested, perform any judicial or ministerial act affecting either of the said Surrogate divisions in the other of such divisions. 48 V. c. 20, s. 5.

Appointment of Sheriff of Rainy River.

71.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint a sheriff of the said District of Rainy River, who shall keep his office at Rat Portage.

(2) All writs and other process requiring to be directed to a sheriff and intended to be executed within the said District of Rainy River shall be directed to the said sheriff. 48 V. c. 20 s. 6, (1, 2).

Sittings of District Court.

72.—(1) Besides the sittings at the district town, the District Court of Thunder Bay shall hold sittings on the first Tuesday of the month of June and the fourth Tuesday of the month of November of each year, at Rat Portage, for trials and assessments by jury and sittings of the General Sessions of the Peace of Thunder Bay shall be held on the same days.

Sittings of General Sessions.

Trial of appeals.

(2) The said General Sessions of the Peace shall be for the trial of causes within the jurisdiction of the General Sessions where the offence to be tried was committed within the District of Rainy River, and for the trial of appeals to the General Sessions from a decision, order or conviction made by a Justice of the Peace within such district. 48 V. c. 20, s. 9.

COURTS IN DISTRICTS AND PROVISIONAL COUNTIES.

73.—(1) The Judge of any County or District Court to whose jurisdiction any district or provisional county belongs, may appoint additional sittings of the County or District Court and of the Court of the General Sessions of the Peace, or of either of such Courts, to be held at such place or places within such district or provisional county as he thinks fit.

(2) Such sittings of the County Court shall be for the trial of causes, where the contract was made within the district or provisional county; or if the action is not upon contract, then where the cause of action arose within the district or provisional county.

(3) Such Sessions of the Peace shall be for the trial of causes within the jurisdiction of the General Sessions of the Peace, provided the offence to be tried was committed within the district or provisional County. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 52.

74. Sittings in any of the said Courts shall also be held at such times and places as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 53.

75.—(1) In case the Lieutenant-Governor directs sittings of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace of any county or district to be held at regular periods at some place within a district or provisional county, and issues his proclamation in that behalf, such sittings shall thereafter be the proper Court for the trial of appeals to the General Sessions from a decision, order or conviction, made by a Justice of the Peace within such district or provisional county, and such Court shall have full and complete jurisdiction and authority for the trial of every such appeal, as well as for the trial, under section 73 of this Act, of any person charged with an offence committed within the district or provisional county over which the Sessions have jurisdiction.

(2) Where an offender may be more conveniently tried within that portion of the county or district outside of such district or provisional county, such offender may be so tried. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 54.

76. The High Court or a Judge thereof may direct that any action for the recovery of lands lying in the provisional judicial district, territorial district, or provisional county in which any sittings of a County or District Court are to be held, or any other action pending in the High Court, shall be tried at such sittings; or may order that the witnesses shall be examined and the facts ascertained at such sittings and the questions of law arising thereon reserved for the opinion of the Court; or may make such like order for the purpose of facilitating the determination of the matters in dispute in the action as he may think fit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 55 (1).

Summoning jurors.

Rev. Stat. c. 52.

77. When such sittings are held in a provisional county the sheriff or other officer whose duty it is, or who may be legally required, to summon and return jurors or persons to serve as jurors for such Courts, may select, choose and return for such jurors, in case jurors are required, any of the inhabitants of such provisional county, without reference to the mode prescribed for selecting, balloting or returning jurors by The Jurors' Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 56.

CONSTABLES IN DISTRICTS AND PROVISIONAL COUNTIES.

Constables in Territorial Districts.

78.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time appoint Constables for any district or provisional county or for any portion of the territory of Ontario not attached to a county for ordinary municipal and judicial purposes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 46. See also Cap. 71, s. 3; Cap. 80, s. 1; Cap. 82, s. 11.

Suspension for misconduct.

(2) In case of any misconduct on the part of a constable appointed under the preceding sub-section, the Chairman of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace of the district, or provisional county or the Stipendiary Magistrate, shall have authority to suspend from office indefinitely, or for any period the said Chairman or Stipendiary Magistrate deems fitting. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 47; 50 V. c. 8. Sched.

Report of such suspension to Provincial Secretary.

(3) The Chairman of the Sessions or the Stipendiary Magistrate, upon any such constable being suspended, shall forthwith report the particulars thereof to the Provincial Secretary, in order that the Lieutenant-Governor may take such action as to the revocation of the suspension or dismissal of such constable, or otherwise, as he deems proper. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 48.

Punishment of constable misbehaving.

79. If a constable appointed under the authority of this Act is guilty of disobedience of orders, neglect of duty, or of any misconduct as such constable, and is convicted thereof before the Stipendiary Magistrate for the district, or before a Justice of the Peace acting therein, he shall forfeit a sum to be fixed by the Magistrate or Justice not exceeding $40 and costs, and in default of immediate payment thereof, shall suffer imprisonment for any time not exceeding three months unless the fine and costs are sooner paid; but in such case such person is proceeded against by indictment for any offence committed by him as constable, he shall not in addition be liable to the penalty or punishment imposed by this section. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 51.

ALTERATION OF LIMITS.

Lieut.-Gov. may alter limits of districts.

80.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time, by proclamation, detach any township or territory from any provisional judicial, temporary judicial, or territorial district, and annex the same to any adjoining district. R. S. O. 1877, c. 7, s. 28; 43 V. c. 12, s. 2; 47 V. c. 3, s. 9, and c. 14, s. 16, (4).

(2) In case a portion of a county is detached from a county, or from a provisional judicial or other district, and formed into or annexed to a temporary judicial, or territorial district, the Justices of the Peace residing in the territory so detached, shall be Justices of the Peace for the Temporary Judicial, or Territorial District in which they reside at the time of the same being so detached, and shall not act out of Sessions as Justices of the Peace for the County or Provisional Judicial District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, s. 50.

Position of Justices of the Peace in territory affected by alteration.

81. The Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time direct that one or more suitable erections shall be provided by the Commissioner of Public Works in each district or provisional county for the safe custody of prisoners charged with crime or convicted of any offence, and every erection so provided shall be deemed a common gaol, and the common gaol of such district or county. R. S. O. 1877, c. 90, ss. 5, 57.

Gaols to be provided.

TRESPASSES BY ANIMALS.

82. No damages shall be recovered in respect of injuries committed in any of the said districts upon any land by horses, cattle, sheep or swine, straying upon such land, unless the animal so straying was running at large contrary to a municipal by-law in that behalf; and where no by-law, prohibiting or regulating the running at large of the class of animals to which the animal trespassing belongs, is in force in the municipality, township, or place, then no such damages shall be recovered unless such animal has broken through or jumped over a fence then being in reasonably good order and of the height of four and one-half feet; but this section shall not apply to unruly or breachy animals. 42 V. c. 31, s. 32.

Damages by animals trespassing.

9. ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN THE VICINITY OF THE FALLS OF NIAGARA.

CHAPTER 92.

An Act to provide for the better Government of that part of Ontario situated in the Vicinity of the Falls of Niagara.

APPOINTMENT OF POLICE MAGIS-	APPEALS, s. 7.
TRATE, s. 1.	CONSTABLES, s. 8.
POWERS AND DUTIES, ss. 2-6	EXPENSES UNDER THIS ACT, s. 9.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Appointment of Police Magistrate.

1. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, from time to time, appoint a fit and proper person to be Police Magistrate for the Town of Niagara Falls in the County of Welland. R. S. O. 1877 c. 91, s. 1.

Powers and duties of Police Magistrate.

2. The Police magistrate shall be ex officio a Justice of the Peace of and for the County of Lincoln, and of and for the county of Welland; and may exercise within the said counties the jurisdiction and authority of two Justices of the Peace in relation to all matters in respect to which the Legislature of this Province has authority so to enact. R. S. O. 1877, c. 91, s. 2.

Police Court at Fort Erie.

3. The Police Magistrate shall, as often as he considers necessary, or in case the Lieutenant-Governor in Council gives a direction in that behalf, then as often as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council directs, hold a Police Court in the village of Fort Erie. R. S. O. 1877, c. 91, s. 3.

What complaints to be heard.

4. Subject to the provisions of the preceding section, it shall not be the duty of the Police Magistrate, unless he finds it convenient so to do, to entertain any complaint except with reference to offences committed within the limits of the town of Niagara Falls or of the township of Stamford; and he shall, as far as practicable, give precedence to complaints in which persons residing at a distance are concerned, either as parties or as witnesses, over complaints concerning only persons residing in the neighbourhood. R. S. O. 1877, c. 91, s. 4.

5. In addition to any other penalty imposed by any statute or by any by-law of the municipality, as a punishment for any offence, the Police Magistrate shall have authority to inflict as an additional punishment, the revocation or the suspension for such period as he may consider just, of any license granted or issued to the person convicted by the municipal officers of the town of Niagara Falls or of the township of Stamford, or of the village of Fort Erie, or of the township of Bertie, or granted or issued by the Board of License Commissioners or Inspector of Licenses, within whose license district any of said municipalities respectively is situate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 91, s. 5. Power of revocation of licenses.

6. The Police Magistrate shall, in all cases of complaint under this Act, reduce to writing the whole of the evidence of the witnesses examined before him, and shall read the same over to the witnesses, who shall sign the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 91, s. 6. Evidence to be reduced to writing.

7. An appeal shall lie from a conviction had under this Act to the Judge of the County Court of the county in which the conviction is made, without a jury: and except as aforesaid, no appeal shall lie either to any Court of General Sessions of the Peace, or to any other Court, from the conviction or order of the Police Magistrate, for an offence against any statute relating to matters within the legislative authority of the Legislature of this Province, or for an offence against a by-law of a municipality. R. S. O. 1877, c. 91, s. 7. Appeals.

8.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint as many constables as he may consider requisite for the efficient administration of justice in the neighbourhood of the Falls of Niagara. Appointment of constables.

(2) No constable shall be entitled to charge any fees for his own use. R. S. O. 1877, c. 91, s. 8.

9.—(1) The Police Magistrate shall keep proper accounts of all fines, penalties and costs imposed in the Police Court of the said town of Niagara Falls and village of Fort Erie, or elsewhere imposed by him; and shall immediately upon such fines, penalties and costs (other than fines arising from prosecutions under The Liquor License Act.) being collected and received, or at such periods as the Treasurer of Ontario from time to time directs, deposit the amount thereof in such bank as the Treasurer from time to time directs, to the credit of a fund to be called the "Niagara Falls Police Fund." Police Magistrate to keep accounts of fines, etc. Deposit of fines, etc. Rev. Stat. c. 194.

(2) All fines from prosecutions under The Liquor License Act, shall form part of the license fund of the district, to be dealt with as provided by said Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 91, s. 9. Rev. Stat. c. 194.

CHAPTER 93.

An Act adopting the Law of England in Certain Matters.

WHEREAS by the first Act passed in the first Session of the Parliament of Upper Canada, on the 15th day of October, 1792, it was among other things enacted, that in all matters of controversy relative to property and civil rights, the laws of England should be the rule for the decision of the same, and that all matters relative to testimony and legal proof in the investigation of fact should be regulated by the rules of evidence established in England, but that nothing therein contained should extinguish, release, discharge or affect any right, lawful claim or incumbrance to and upon any lands, tenements or hereditaments within Upper Canada, or should rescind, vacate or affect any contract or security then made and executed conformably to the Laws of Canada under the Imperial Statute passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,” or vary or interfere with any of the subsisting provisions respecting ecclesiastical rights or dues, or should introduce any of the laws of England respecting the maintenance of the poor, or respecting bankrupts;

Therefore, subject to the exceptions and provisions above recited, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

The law of England on 15th Oct., 1792, to be the rule of decision.

1. In all matters of controversy relative to property and civil rights, resort shall continue to be had to the laws of England as they stood on the said 15th day of October, 1792, as the rule for the decision of the same, and all matters relative to testimony and legal proof in the investigation of fact and the forms thereof in the several Courts in Ontario, shall continue to be regulated by the rules of evidence established in England, as they existed on the day and year last aforesaid—except so far as the said laws and rules have been since repealed, altered, varied, modified or affected by any Act of the Imperial Parliament, still having the force of law in Ontario, or by any Act of the late Province of Upper Canada, or of the Province of Canada, or of the Province of Ontario, still having the force of law in Ontario, or by these Revised Statutes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 92, s. 1.

2. The Statutes of Jeofails, of Limitations, and for the amendment of the law, excepting those of mere local expediency, which previous to the 17th day of January, 1822, had been enacted respecting the law of England and then continued in force, shall be valid and effectual for the same purposes in Ontario, excepting so far as the same have, since the day last aforesaid, been repealed, altered, varied, modified or affected in the manner mentioned in section 1 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 92, s. 2. See also Caps. 60, 111.

CHAPTER 94.

An Act respecting Crown Debtors.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Bonds, etc., to the Crown, to bind only such property as would be bound in other cases.

1. No bond, covenant or other security made or entered into since the 15th day of August, 1866, or hereafter made or entered into by any person to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or to any person on behalf of or in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall bind the real or personal property of the persons so making and entering into such bond, covenant or other security, to any further, other or greater extent than if the bond, covenant or other security had been made or entered into between subject and subject of Her Majesty. R. S. O. 1877, c. 93, s. 1.

And so as to property of Crown debtors.

2. The real or personal property of any debtor to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or to any person in trust for or on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, for any debt since the said date or hereafter contracted, shall be bound only to the same extent and in the same manner as the real or personal property of a debtor where a debt is due from one subject of Her Majesty to another. R. S. O. 1877, c. 93, s. 2.

3. From and after the 1st day of January, 1874, lands theretofore bound by the registration, in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Queen's Bench in Toronto, of any deed, bond, contract or other instrument whereby a debt, obligation or duty is incurred or created to Her Majesty, in respect of any matter within the authority of the Government of Ontario, shall be released from the charge created by such registration. R. S. O. 1877, c. 93, s. 3.

Crown liens by registry of bonds, etc., in Q.B. abolished as to Ontario,

4. Nothing in the last section contained shall be construed to affect the obligations of the parties to such deed, bond, contract or other instrument, to Her Majesty, or to each other, or to release any charge which may have been, previous to the said first day of January, obtained against such lands by virtue of any writ or other proceeding. R. S. O. 1877, c. 93, s. 4.

except where proceedings had already caused a charge.

CHAPTER 95.

An Act respecting Escheats and Forfeitures.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. Where lands, tenements or hereditaments situate in this Province have escheated to the Crown by reason of the person last seised thereof, or entitled thereto, having died intestate, and without lawful heirs, or have become forfeited for any cause except crime, the Attorney-General may cause possession of the lands, tenements or hereditaments to be taken in the name of the Crown; or, in case possession is withheld, he may cause an action to be brought for the recovery thereof, without any inquisition being first necessary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 94, s. 1.

Attorney-General may take possession of, or bring action for recovery of, escheated or forfeited lands without inquest of office.

2. The proceedings in the action may be in all respects similar to those in other actions for the recovery of land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 94, s. 2.

Proceedings.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make any grant of lands, tenements or hereditaments, which have heretofore so escheated or become forfeited or hereafter escheat or become forfeited for any cause except crime, or of any portion thereof,

Lieutenant-Governor may make grants of escheated or forfeited lands.

or of any interest therein, to any person, for the purpose of transferring or restoring the same to any person or persons having a legal or moral claim upon the person to whom the same had belonged, or of carrying into effect any disposition thereof which such person may have contemplated, or of rewarding any person making discovery of the escheat, or forfeiture as to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may seem meet. R. S. O. 1877, c. 94, s. 3.

Grant may be made without entry or inquest of office being first found.

4. Any such grant may be made without actual entry or inquisition being first necessary, and although the lands, tenements or hereditaments are not in the actual possession of the Crown, and notwithstanding that some person claims title thereto adversely to the person whose estates the same had been; and in case possession of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments is withheld, the person to whom the grant is made shall thereupon be entitled to institute in any Court of competent jurisdiction proceedings for the recovery of the said lands, tenements or hereditaments. R. S. O. 1877, c. 94, s. 4.

Lieutenant-Governor may release forfeited property or waive the forfeiture.

5. Where a forfeiture takes place of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any interest therein, as aforesaid, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may waive or release any right which the Crown may thereby have become entitled to, so as, by the waiver or release, to vest the property, either absolutely or otherwise, in the persons who would have been entitled thereto but for the forfeiture; and the waiver or release may be either for valuable consideration or otherwise, and may be upon such terms and conditions as to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may seem fit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 94, s. 5.

Lieutenant-Governor may assign personalty to which the Crown has become entitled.

6. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make any assignment of personal property to which the Crown is entitled by reason of the person last entitled thereto having died intestate and without leaving any kin or other persons entitled to succeed thereto, or by reason of the same having become forfeited to the Crown, for any cause except crime, or may make an assignment of any portion of such personal property, for the purpose of transferring or restoring the same to any person or persons having a legal or moral claim upon the person to whom the same had belonged, or for carrying into effect any disposition thereof which such person may have contemplated, or of rewarding the person making discovery of the right of the Crown to such property, as to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may seem meet. R. S. O. 1877, c. 94, s. 6.

CHAPTER 96.

An Act respecting Voluntary and Fraudulent Conveyances.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario enacts as follows :—

VOLUNTARY CONVEYANCES.

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of the statute passed in the 27th year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, and chaptered four, no conveyance, grant, charge, lease, estate, incumbrance, limitation of use or uses which is executed in good faith, and duly registered in the proper registry office before the execution of the conveyance to, and before the creation of any binding contract for the conveyance to any subsequent purchaser from the same grantor of the same lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any part or parcel thereof, or any rent, profit or commodity in or out of the same, shall be or be deemed or taken to be, merely by reason of the absence of a valuable consideration, void, frustrate, or of none effect as against such purchaser, or his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or any person claiming by, from, or under any of them. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 11.

No voluntary conveyance, etc., executed in good faith and duly registered to be void merely from absence of valuable consideration

2. Nothing in the preceding section contained shall have the effect of making valid any instrument which is for any reason other than or in addition to the absence of a valuable consideration void under the said statute or otherwise; nor shall anything in the preceding section contained have the effect of making valid any instrument as against a purchaser who had, before the 28th day of February, 1868, entered into a binding contract for, or received his conveyance upon such purchase. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 12.

Instruments otherwise void not to be valid under preceding section.

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES.

3. Whereas by the first and second clauses of the Act passed in the 13th year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, it is enacted as follows:—

Recital of ss. 1 and 2 of 13 Eliz. c. 5, that conveyances,

“For the avoiding and abolishing of feigned, covinous and fraudulent feoffments, gifts, grants, alienations, conveyances, bonds, suits, judgments and executions more commonly used and practised in these days than hath been seen or heard of heretofore, which feoffments, gifts, grants, alienations, conveyances, bonds, suits, judgments and executions have been and are devised or contrived of malice, fraud, covin, collusion or judgments, etc., to hinder or defraud creditors be void.

"guile, to the end, purpose and intent to delay, hinder and defraud creditors and others of their just and lawful actions, suits, debts, accounts, damages, penalties, forfeitures, heriots, mortuaries and reliefs, not only to the let or hindrance of the due course and execution of law and justice, but also to the overthrow of all true and plain dealing, bargain and chevi- sance between man and man, without the which no common- wealth or civil society can be maintained or continued; all and every feoffment, gift, grant, alienation, bargain and con- veyance of lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods and chat- tels, or of any of them, or of any lease, rent, common or other profit or charge out of the same lands, tenements, heredita- ments, goods and chattels, or any of them, by writing or other- wise, and all and every bond, writ, judgment and execution, at any time had or made since the beginning of the Queen's Majesty's reign, that now is or at any time hereafter to be had or made to or for any intent or purpose before declared or expressed, shall be from thenceforth deemed and taken only as against that person or persons, his or their heirs, suc- cessors, executors, administrators and assigns, and every of them, whose actions, suits, debts, accounts, damages, penalties, forfeitures, heriots, mortuaries and reliefs, by such guileful, covinous and fraudulent devices and practices as is aforesaid, are or shall or might be in any ways disturbed, hindered, de- layed or defrauded, to be clearly and utterly void, frustrate and of none effect, any pretence, colour, feigned consideration expressing of use or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas it is also by the sixth clause of the said Act provided and enacted as follows :

Recital of s. 6, 13 Eliz. c. 5, that that Act should not extend to any interest conveyed for good consideration, bona fide, without notice of fraud.

"This Act or anything herein contained shall not extend to any estate or interest in lands, tenements, hereditaments, leases, rents, commons, profits, goods or chattels had, made, conveyed or assured, or hereafter to be had, made, conveyed or assured, which estate or interest is or shall be upon good consideration and bona fide lawfully conveyed or assured to any person or persons, or bodies politic or corporate, not hav- ing at the time of such conveyance or assurance to them made any manner of notice or knowledge of such covin, fraud or collusion as is aforesaid, anything before mentioned to the contrary thereof notwithstanding."

And whereas there are doubts as to the true construction of the said Act, and it is expedient to declare the true construc- tion of the same :

Therefore it is enacted as follows:—

Valuable consideration and intent to pass the interest shall

1. The first and second clauses of the said Act apply to all instruments executed to the end, purpose and intent in the said clauses set forth, notwithstanding that the same may be ex-executed upon a valuable consideration, and with the intention, as between the parties to the same, of actually transferring to and for the benefit of the transferee the interest expressed to be thereby transferred, unless the same is protected under the sixth clause of the said Act by reason of bona fides and want of notice or knowledge on the part of the purchaser.

CHAPTER 97.

An Act respecting Powers of Attorney.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. In case a power of attorney for the sale or management of real or personal estate, or for any other purpose, provides that the same may be exercised in the name and on the behalf of the heirs or devisees, executors or administrators of the person executing the same, or provides by any form of words that the same shall not be revoked by the death of the person executing the same, such provision shall be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, according to the tenor and effect thereof, and subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as may be therein contained. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 14.

CHAPTER 98.

An Act respecting the right of Property in Swarms of Bees.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Bees in a state of freedom to be the property of their discoverer.

1. Bees living in a state of freedom shall be the property of the person discovering them, whether he is or is not the proprietor of the land on which they have established themselves. R. S. O. 1877, c. 96, s. 1.

Bees reared in hives to be private property.

2. Bees reared and kept in hives shall be private property. R. S. O. 1877, c. 96, s. 2.

[As to exemption from seizure under execution, See Cap 64, s. 2 (?).]

Rights of owner in case of bees abandoning their hives.

3. Where a swarm of bees leaves a hive the owner may reclaim them, so long as he can prove his right of property therein, and shall be entitled to take possession of them at any place on which the swarm settles, even if such place be on the land of another person, but the owner shall notify the proprietor of such land beforehand and compensate him for all damages. If a swarm settles in a hive which is already occupied, the owner shall lose all right of property in such swarm. R. S. O. 1877, c. 96, s. 3.

Proviso.

Unpursued swarms.

4. Any unpursued swarm which lodges on any property whatsoever, without settling thereon, may be secured by the first comer unless the proprietor of the land objects. R. S. O. 1877, c. 96, s. 4.

Property where owner declines to follow his bees.

5. If the owner of a swarm of bees declines to follow the swarm, and another person undertakes the pursuit, such other person shall be substituted in the rights of the owner, and every swarm which is not followed shall become the property of the proprietor of the land on which it settles, without regard to the place from which it has come. R. S. O. 1877, c. 96, s. 5.

CHAPTER 99.

An Act respecting the rights of Aliens in relation to Real Property.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

1. On and from the 23rd day of November, 1849, every alien shall be deemed to have had and shall hereafter have the same capacity to take by gift, conveyance, descent, devise, or otherwise howsoever, and to hold, possess, enjoy, claim, recover, convey, devise, impart and transmit real estate in this Province, as natural born or naturalized subjects of Her Majesty. Aliens to have the same powers as to real estate as subjects of Her Majesty. R. S. O. 1877, c. 97, s. 1.

2. The real estate in this Province of an alien dying intestate, shall descend and be transmitted as if the same had been the real estate of a natural born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty. Descent of real estate of aliens. R. S. O. 1877, c. 97, s. 2.

3. Nothing herein contained shall alter, impair or affect or be construed to alter, impair or affect in any manner or way whatsoever, any right or title legally vested in or acquired by any person or persons whomsoever before the 23rd day of November, 1849. Provido as to rights before 23rd November, 1849. R. S. O. 1877, c. 97, s. 3.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Interpretation.

1. Where the words following occur in this Act they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:

"Land."

1. "Land" shall extend to messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, and to any undivided share thereof, and to any estate or interest therein, and to money subject to be invested in the purchase of land or of any interest therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 1 (1); 49 V. c. 20, s. 3 (2).

"Mortgage."

2. "Mortgage" shall include every instrument by virtue whereof land is in any manner conveyed, assigned, pledged or charged as security for the repayment of money or money's worth lent, and to be reconveyed, re-assigned or released on satisfaction of the debt. R. S. O. 1877 c. 98, s. 1 (3).

3. "Mortgagor" shall include every person by whom any "Mortgagor." such conveyance, assignment, pledge or charge as aforesaid is made.

4. "Mortgagee" shall include every person to whom or in "Mortgagee." whose favour any such conveyance, assignment, pledge or charge as aforesaid is made or transferred. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 1 (4, 5).

5. "Property" shall include real and personal property, "Property." and any debt, and any thing in action, and any other right Imp. Act, 44-45 V. c. 41. s. 2. or interest. 49 V. c. 20, s. 3 (1).

6. "Conveyance" shall include feoffment, grant, assignment, "Convey- appointment, lease, settlement, and other assurance, and covenant ance." to surrender, made by deed, on a sale, mortgage, demise, or settle- ment of any property or on any other dealing with or for any property; and "convey" has a meaning corresponding with "Convey." that of conveyance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 1 (2); 49 V. c. 20, s. 3 (3).

7. "Purchaser" shall include a lessee or mortgagee, and an "Purchaser." intending purchaser, lessee or mortgagee, or other person, who, for valuable consideration, takes or deals for any property; and "purchase" has a meaning corresponding with that of pur- "Purchase." chaser; but sale means only a sale properly so called. 49 V. c. 20, s. 3 (6).

2. All corporeal tenements and hereditaments shall, as re- Corporeal ten- gards the conveyance of the immediate freehold thereof, be ements, etc., deemed to lie in grant as well as in livery. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 2. deemed to lie in grant, etc.

3. A feoffment otherwise than by deed shall be void at law. Feoffments unless by deed to be void. and no feoffment shall have any tortious operation. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 3.

4.—(1) In a deed, or other instrument, it shall not be Words of necessary, in the limitation of an estate in fee simple to use limitation unnecessary. the word heirs; or in the limitation of an estate in tail to use the words heirs of the body; or in the limitation of an estate in tail male or in tail female, to use the words heirs male of the body, or heirs female of the body. Imp. Act, sec. 51.

(2) For the purpose of such limitation it shall be suffi- cient in a deed, or other instrument, as in a will to use the words in fee simple, in tail, in tail male, or in tail female, according to the limitations intended, or to use any other words sufficiently indicating the limitation intended.

(3) Where no words of limitation are used, a conveyance Provision for shall pass all the estate, right, title, interest, claim and demand, all the estate, etc. which the conveying parties respectively have, in, to, or on the property conveyed, or expressed or intended so to be, or which they respectively have power to convey in, to, or on the same. Imp. Act, sec. 63. This sub-section applies only if and as far as a contrary intention does not appear from the conveyance, and shall have effect subject to the terms of the conveyance and to the provisions therein contained.

(4) This section applies only to conveyances made after the 1st day of July, 1886. 49 V. c. 20, s. 4.

cient.

Imp. Act, ss.
54, 55.

6. A receipt for consideration money or securities contained in the body of a conveyance shall be a sufficient discharge to the person paying or delivering the same, without any further receipt being indorsed on the conveyance, and shall, in favour of a subsequent purchaser not having notice that the money or other consideration thereby acknowledged to be received was not in fact paid or given wholly or in part, be sufficient evidence of the payment or giving of the whole amount thereof. 49 V. c. 20, s. 10.

Rights of purchaser as to execution of purchased deed.
Imp. Act, s. 8.

7. On a sale, the purchaser shall not be entitled to require that the conveyance to him be executed in his presence, or in that of his solicitor, as such; but shall be entitled to have, at his own cost, the execution of the conveyance attested by some person appointed by him, who may, if he thinks fit, be his solicitor. 49 V. c. 20, s. 11 (1).

Partition or exchange of land, etc., unless by deed to be void.

8. A partition and an exchange of land, and a lease required by law to be in writing of land, and an assignment of a chattel interest in land, and a surrender in writing of land not being an interest which might by law have been created without writing, shall be void at law, unless made by deed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 4.

Certain interests in land may be disposed of by deed.

9. A contingent, an executory, and a future interest, and a possibility coupled with an interest in land, whether the object of the gift or limitation of such interest or possibility be or be not ascertained, also a right of entry, whether immediate or future, and whether vested or contingent, into or upon land, may be disposed of by deed; but no such disposition shall by force only of this Act defeat or enlarge an estate tail. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 5; 47 V. c. 19, s. 22.

No implied warranty, etc., to be created by the word
"grant" or "exchange."

10. Neither of the words "grant," or "exchange," in any deed, shall create any warranty or right of re-entry, or covenant by implication except in cases where by any Act in force in Ontario, it is declared that the word "grant" shall have such effect. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 6.

11. The preceding three sections of this Act shall not extend to any deed, act or thing executed or done, or to any estate, right or interest created before the 1st day of January, 1856, but they shall extend to and have operation and effect on and from that day. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 7.

Preceding three sections not to extend to deeds, etc., executed before 1st January, 1850.

12.—(1) Every conveyance of land, unless an exception is specially made therein, shall be held and construed to include all houses, out-houses, edifices, barns, stables, yards, gardens, orchards, commons, trees, woods, underwoods, mounds, fences, hedges, ditches, ways, waters, water-courses, lights, liberties, privileges, easements, profits, commodities, emoluments, hereditaments and appurtenances whatsoever, to the lands therein comprised, belonging or in anywise appertaining, or with the same demised, held, used, occupied and enjoyed, or taken or known as part or parcel thereof; and if the same purports to convey an estate in fee, also the reversion or reversions, remainder and remainders, yearly and other rents, issues and profits of the same lands, and of every part and parcel thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, inheritance, use, trust, property, profit, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, of the grantor, in, to, out of, or upon the same lands, and every part and parcel thereof, with their and every of their appurtenances.

Conveyance to include all houses, etc., and the reversion, and all the estate, etc.

(2) Except as to conveyances under the former Acts relating to short forms of conveyances, this section applies only to conveyances made after the 1st day of July, 1886. R. S. O. 1877, c. 102, s. 4; 49 V. c. 20, s. 5.

13. Any corporation aggregate in Ontario, capable of taking and conveying land, shall be deemed to have been and to be capable of taking and conveying land by deed of bargain and sale, in like manner as any person in his natural capacity, subject nevertheless to any general limitations or restrictions and to any special provisions as to holding or conveying real estate which may be applicable to such corporation. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 8.

Corporations aggregate may convey by bargain and sale.

14. No deed of bargain and sale of land in Ontario, executed subsequently to the 6th day of March, 1834, shall require enrolment or registration to supply the place of enrolment, for the mere purpose of rendering such bargain and sale a valid and effectual conveyance for passing the land thereby intended to be bargained and sold, but this shall not affect any question of priority under The Registry Act, or any Act heretofore in force respecting the registration of instruments relating to real estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 9.

Enrolment or registration not necessary to validity of deeds of bargain and sale.

This shall not affect priority under Rev. Stat. c. 114.

15.—(1) Where land subject to any incumbrance, whether immediately payable or not, is sold by the Court or out of Court, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of any party to the sale, direct or allow payment into Court—in case of an annual sum charged on the land, or of a capital sum charged on a determinable interest in the land—of such amount as, when invested in securities approved by the Court, the Court considers will be sufficient by means of the dividends thereof to keep down or otherwise provide for that charge; and—in any other case of capital money charged on the land—of the amount sufficient to meet the incumbrance and any interest due thereon; but in either case there shall also be paid into Court such additional amount as the Court considers will be sufficient to meet the contingency of further costs, expenses, and interest, and any other contingency except depreciation of investments, not exceeding one-tenth part of the original amount to be paid in, unless the Court for special reasons thinks fit to require a larger additional amount.

(2) Thereupon the Court may, if it thinks fit, and either after or without any notice to the incumbrancer as the Court thinks fit, declare the land to be freed from the incumbrance; and make any order for conveyance, or vesting order, proper for giving effect to the sale; and give directions for the retention and investment of the money in Court.

(3) After notice served on the persons interested in or entitled to the money or fund in Court, the Court may direct payment or transfer thereof to the persons entitled to receive or give a discharge for the same, and generally may give directions respecting the application or distribution of the capital or income thereof. 49 V. c. 20, s. 12 (1-3).

Regulations respecting payments into court and applications.
Imp. Act,
s. 69.

16.—(1) Payment of money into Court shall effectually exonerate therefrom the person making the payment.

(2) Every application to the Court shall, except where it is otherwise expressed, be made in chambers, and on notice.

(3) On an application by a purchaser, notice shall be served in the first instance on the vendor.

(4) On an application by a vendor, notice shall be served in the first instance on the purchaser.

(5) On any application, notice shall be served on such persons, as the Court thinks fit.

(6) The Court shall have full power and discretion to make such order as it thinks fit respecting the costs, charges or expenses of all or any of the parties to any application. 49 V. c. 20, s. 19.

Covenants to be implied.
Imp. Act, 44-
s. 7.

17.—(1) In a conveyance made on or after the 1st day of July, 1886, there shall, in the several cases in this section mentioned, be deemed to be included, and there shall in those several cases be implied, covenants to the effect in this section stated, by the person or by each person who conveys, as far as regards the subject-matter or share of subject-matter expressed to be conveyed by him, with the person, if one, to whom the conveyance is made, or with the person jointly, if more than one, to whom the conveyance is made as joint tenants, or with each of the persons, if more than one, to whom the conveyance is made as tenants in common, that is to say:

- (a) In a conveyance for valuable consideration, other than a mortgage, the following covenants by the person who conveys, and is expressed to convey, as beneficial owner, namely: On conveyance for value by beneficial owner. Imp. Act, s. 7.

Covenants for right to convey ;

Quiet enjoyment ;

Freedom from incumbrances ; and Further assurance ;

According to the tenor and effect of the several and respective forms of covenants for the said purposes set forth in Schedule B to The Act respecting Short Forms of Conveyances, and therein numbered 2, 3, 4 and 5, respectively, subject to the directions in the said schedule contained. Rev. Stat. c. 105.

- (b) In a conveyance of leasehold property for valuable consideration, other than a mortgage, the following further covenant, by the person who conveys, and is expressed to convey, as beneficial owner (namely): On conveyance of leasehold for value, by beneficial owner.

That, notwithstanding anything by the person who so conveys, made, done, executed or omitted, or knowingly suffered, the lease or grant creating the term or estate for which the land is conveyed is, at the time of conveyance, a good, valid, and effectual lease or grant of the property conveyed, and is in full force, unforfeited, unsurrendered, and in nowise become void or voidable, and that, notwithstanding anything as aforesaid, all the rents reserved by and all the covenants, conditions and agreements contained in the lease or grant, and on the part of the lessee or grantee, and the persons deriving title under him to be paid, observed, and performed, have been paid, observed and performed, up to the time of conveyance. 49 V. c. 20, s. 13 (1 a, b.) Validity of lease.

- (c) In a conveyance, the following covenant by every person who conveys, and is expressed to convey, as trustee or mortgagee, or as personal representative of a deceased person, or as committee of a lunatic so found by inquisition or judicial declaration, or under an order of the Court, which covenant shall be deemed to extend to every such person's own acts only (namely): On conveyance by trustee, etc. Imp. Act, s. 7.

That the person so conveying has not executed, or done, or knowingly suffered, or been party or privy to, any Against incumbrances.

deed or thing, whereby, or by means whereof the subject-matter of the conveyance, or any part thereof is, or may be impeached, charged, affected, or incumbered in title, estate or otherwise, or whereby or by means whereof the person who so conveys is in anywise hindered from conveying the subject-matter of the conveyance or any part thereof, in the manner in which it is expressed to be conveyed. 49 V. c. 20, s. 13 (1 f).

On conveyance by beneficial
owner.

(2) Where in a conveyance it is expressed that by direction of a person expressed to direct as beneficial owner another person conveys, then the person giving the direction, whether he conveys and is expressed to convey as beneficial owner or not, shall be deemed to convey, and to be expressed to convey as beneficial owner the subject-matter so conveyed by his direction; and a covenant on his part shall be implied accordingly.

Where covenants not implied.

(3) Where in a conveyance, a person conveying is not expressed to convey as beneficial owner, or as settlor, or as trustee, or as mortgagee, or as personal representative of a deceased person, or as committee of a lunatic so found by inquisition, or under an order of the Court, or by direction of a person as beneficial owner, no covenant on the part of the person conveying shall be by virtue of this section implied in the conveyance.

Enforcing covenants.

(4) The benefit of a covenant, implied as aforesaid, shall be annexed and incident to and shall go with the estate or interest of the implied covenantee, and shall be capable of being enforced by every person in whom that estate or interest is for the whole or any part thereof from time to time vested.

Variation of covenants.

(5) A covenant implied as aforesaid, may be varied or extended by deed, and as so varied or extended, shall, as far as may be, operate in the like manner, and with all the like incidents, effects and consequences, as if such variations or extensions were directed in this section to be implied. 49 V. c. 20, s. 13 (2-5).

POWERS.

Mode of executing powers.

18. A deed hereafter executed in the presence of, and attested by two or more witnesses in the manner in which deeds are ordinarily executed and attested, shall, so far as respects the execution and attestation thereof, be a valid execution of a power of appointment by deed or by any instrument in writing, not testamentary, notwithstanding that it is especially required that a deed or instrument in writing, made in exercise of such power, shall be executed or attested with some additional or other form of execution or attestation or solemnity: but this provision shall not operate to defeat any direction in the instrument creating the power, that the consent of any particular person shall be necessary to a valid execution, or that any act shall be performed in order to give validity to any appointment, having no relation to the mode of executing and attesting the instrument; and nothing herein contained shall prevent the donee of a power from executing it conformably to the power, by writing or otherwise than by an instrument executed and attested as an ordinary deed, and to any such execution of a power this provision shall not extend. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 10.

19. A person to whom a power, whether coupled with an interest or not, is given may by deed release, or contract not to exercise, the power, whether the power was created by an instrument coming into operation before or after the commencement of this Act. 50 V. c. 7, s. 9.

Person to whom a power is given may release or contract not to exercise same.

20. Where, under a power of sale, a bona fide sale is made of an estate, with the timber thereon, or any other articles attached thereto, and the tenant for life, or any other party to the transaction, is by mistake allowed to receive for his own benefit a portion of the purchase money or value of the timber or other articles, it shall be lawful for the High Court upon an action brought or upon application made in a summary way, as the case may require or permit, to declare, that upon payment by the purchaser, or the claimant under him, of the full value of the timber and articles at the time of sale, with such interest thereon as the Court directs, and the settlement of the said principal moneys and interest under the direction of the Court, upon such parties as in the opinion of the Court are entitled thereto, the sale ought to be established; and upon payment and settlement being made accordingly, the Court may declare that the sale is valid, and thereupon the legal estate shall vest and go in like manner as if the power had been duly executed, and the costs of the application, as between solicitor and client, shall be paid by the purchaser or the claimant under him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 11.

Sale under power not to be avoided by reason of mistaken payment to tenant for life. Imp. Act 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 13.

AUCTIONS OF ESTATES.

21. In construing the next succeeding three sections of this Act, Construction of particular words.

1. "Auctioneer" shall mean any person selling by public auction; "Auctioneer."

2. "Puffer" shall mean a person appointed to bid on the part of the seller. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 12.

22. Unless in the particulars or conditions of sale by auction of any land it is stated that such land will be sold subject to a reserved price, or to a right of the seller to bid, the sale shall be deemed and taken to be without reserve. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 13.

When sale shall be deemed without reserve.

Seller not to bid at unreserved sales.

23. Upon any sale of land by auction, without reserve, it shall not be lawful for a seller or for a puffer to bid at such sale, or for the auctioneer to take, knowingly, any bidding from the seller or from a puffer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 14.

At reserved sales the seller may bid.

24. Upon any sale of land by auction, subject to a right for the seller to bid, it shall be lawful for the seller or any one puffer to bid at such auction, in such manner as the seller may think proper. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 15.

Seller not authorized to purchase.

25. Nothing in the next preceding four sections contained shall be taken to authorize any seller to become the purchaser at the sale. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 16.

Application of ss. 21-25.

26. The next preceding five sections shall not apply to any sale which took place before the 4th day of March, 1868. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 17.

RENT-CHARGES.

Release of part of land charged not to be an extinguishment of the charge on the rest, etc., Imp. Act 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 10.

27. The release from a rent-charge of part of the hereditaments charged therewith shall not extinguish the whole rent-charge, but shall operate only to bar the right to recover any part of the rent-charge out of the hereditaments released, without prejudice, nevertheless, to the rights of all persons interested in the hereditaments remaining unreleased, and not concurring in or confirming the release. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 1.

FUTURE AND CONTINGENT USES.

In case of limitation to uses, they shall take effect as they arise without continued seisin or scintilla juris in the persons originally seised. Imp. Act 23-24 V. c. 38, s. 7.

28. Where by any instrument any hereditaments are limited to uses, all uses thereunder, whether expressed or implied by law, and whether immediate or future, or contingent or executory, or to be declared under any power therein contained, shall take effect when and as they arise by force of and by relation to the estate and seisin originally vested in the person seised to the uses; and the continued existence in him or elsewhere of any seisin to uses or scintilla juris, shall not be deemed necessary for the support of, or to give effect to future or contingent or executory uses; nor shall any such seisin to uses or scintilla juris be deemed to be suspended, or to remain or to subsist in him or elsewhere. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 2.

CONTINGENT REMAINDERS.

Certain contingent remainders not to be defeated by forfeiture, surrender or merger of preceding estate.

29. Every contingent remainder existing on the 2nd day of March, 1877, or created since that day or hereafter, shall be, and every contingent remainder, which existed at any time between the 30th day of May, 1849, and the 2nd day of August, 1851, shall be deemed to have been capable of taking effect, notwithstanding the determination by forfeiture, surrender or merger, of any preceding estate of fee simple. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 3.

IMPROVEMENTS UNDER MISTAKE OF TITLE.

30. In every case in which a person makes lasting improvements on land under the belief that the land is his own, he or his assigns shall be entitled to a lien upon the same to the extent of the amount by which the value of the land is enhanced by such improvements; or shall be entitled or may be required, to retain the land if the Court is of opinion or requires that such should be done, according as may, under all the circumstances of the case, be most just, making compensation for the land, if retained, as the Court may direct. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 4.

Persons improving lands to have a lien on lands.

31. In case an action for the recovery of land is brought against a person who, after any line or limit has been established according to The Act respecting Surveyors and the Survey of Lands, is found, in consequence of unskilful survey, to have improved on lands not his own, the Judge before whom the action is tried shall assess or direct the jury to assess damages for the defendant for any loss he may sustain in consequence of any improvement made before the commencement of the action, and also assess or direct the jury to assess the value of the land to be recovered and if the verdict or finding be for the plaintiff, no writ of possession shall issue until the plaintiff has tendered or paid the amount of such damages, or has offered to release the land to the defendant, provided that defendant, before the fourth day of the ensuing sittings of the High Court pays or tenders to the plaintiff the value of the land so assessed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 29.

As to cases where, from unskilful survey, a party has improved lands afterwards found to belong to his neighbor. Rev. Stat. c. 152.

32. In all cases in which the Judge or the jury before whom such action is tried, assess damages for the defendant as provided in the next preceding section, for improvements made upon land not his own in consequence of unskilful survey, and where it satisfactorily appears that the defendant does not contest the plaintiff's action for any other purpose than to obtain the value of the improvements made upon the land previous to the alteration and establishment of the lines according to law, the Judge before whom the action is tried shall certify such fact upon the record, and thereupon the defendant shall be entitled to the costs of the defence: provided the defendant at the time of appearing, gave notice in writing to the plaintiff or his solicitor of the amount claimed for such improvements, and that on payment the defendant or person in possession would surrender the possession to the plaintiff, and that the defendant did not intend at the trial to contest the title of the plaintiff; and if on the trial it be found that notice was not given as aforesaid, or if there be assessed for the defendant a less amount than that claimed, in the notice, or if be found that the defendant had refused to surrender possession of the land after tender made of the amount claimed, then and in such case the Judge shall not certify, and the Plaintiff not to have costs from the time defendant offers to give up the lands on receiving the value of his improvements

Unless the improvements are assessed at less than the sum demanded.

When no proof of title is made by the defendant shall pay costs to the plaintiff; and upon the trial of any action after such notice no evidence shall be required in proof of the title of the plaintiff. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, c. 30.

PURCHASES OF REVERSIONS.

"Purchase"—what it shall mean. 33. In the succeeding two sections the word "Purchase" shall mean any kind of contract, conveyance or assignment, under or by which any kind of property may be acquired. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 7.

Onus probandi of undervalue to lie on plaintiff in setting aside purchase of a reversion before 4th March, 1868. 34. In case any purchase made before the 4th day of March, 1868, of any reversionary interest in real or personal estate is sought to be opened or set aside on the ground of undervalue, the onus of proving undervalue shall lie upon the plaintiff. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 5.

Purchases after March 1868, affording no ground of undervalue. 35. No purchase made after the said date bona fide, and without fraud, of any reversionary interest in real or personal estate shall be opened or set aside on the ground of undervalue. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 6.

PURCHASER FOR VALUE WITHOUT NOTICE.

of payment of money unnecessary. 36. It shall in no case be necessary, in order to maintain the defence of a purchase for value without notice, to prove payment of the mortgage money or purchase money, or any part thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 9.

FRAUDS ON SALES AND MORTGAGES.

Liability of vendor or mortgagor for concealment of deeds, etc., or falsifying pedigree. Inq. Acts 22 23 V., c. 35, s. 24, and 23 24 V., c. 35, s. 5. 37. If any seller or mortgagor of land, or of any chattels real or personal, or choses in action conveyed or assigned to a purchaser or mortgagee, or the solicitor or agent of any such seller or mortgagor, conceals any settlement, deed, will or other instrument material to the title, or any incumbrance, from the purchaser or mortgagee, or falsifies any pedigree upon which the title depends or may depend, in order to induce him to accept the title offered or produced to him, with intent in any or such cases to defraud, he shall, in addition to any criminal liability he may thereby incur, be liable to an action for damages at the suit of the purchaser or mortgagee, or those claiming under the purchaser or mortgagee, for any loss sustained by them or either or any of them, in consequence of the settlement, deed, will or other instrument or incumbrance so concealed, or of any claim made by any person under such pedigree, but whose right was concealed by the falsification of such pedigree; and in estimating such damages where the estate is recovered from such purchaser or mortgagee, or from those claiming under the purchaser or mortgagee, regard shall be had to any expenditure by them, or either or any of them, in improvements on the land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 98, s. 18.

CHAPTER 101.

An Act respecting Petty Trespasses.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. Any person who unlawfully enters into, comes upon, or passes through or in any way trespasses upon any land or premises whatsoever, being wholly enclosed, and being the property of another person, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $1 nor more than $10 for any such offence, irrespective of any damage having or not having been occasioned thereby; and such penalty may be recovered, with costs, in every case of conviction before any one Justice of the Peace, who shall decide the matter in a summary way, and award costs in case of conviction, which may be had either on view or on confession of the party complained against, or on the oath of one credible witness. But nothing herein contained shall extend to any case where the party trespassing acted under a fair and reasonable supposition that he had a right to do the act complained of, or to any case within the meaning of section 59 of The Act respecting Malicious Injuries to Property. 25 V. R. S. C. c. 168. c. 22, s. 2. Penalty for unlawful trespass.
Recovery of penalty.
Proviso.

2. Any person found committing such trespass as aforesaid, may be apprehended without a warrant by any peace officer, or by the owner of the property on which it is committed, or the servant, or any person authorized by him, and be forthwith taken to the nearest Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to law. C. S. U. C. c. 105, s. 2. Trespasser may be arrested without warrant.

3. Except as herein otherwise provided, all proceedings under this Act shall be subject to and in accordance with the

R. S. C. c. 178. provisions of the Summary Convictions Act, which shall apply to cases arising under this Act. C. S. U. C. c. 105, s. 3.

Act not to affect any case involving title o land.

1. Nothing in this Act contained shall authorize any Justice of the Peace to hear and determine any case of trespass in which the title to land, or any interest therein or accruing thereupon, shall be called in question or affected in any manner howsoever; but every such case of trespass shall be dealt with according to law in the same manner, in all respects, as if this Act had not been passed. C. S. U. C. c. 105, s. 4.

DISCHARGE OF MORTGAGE MAY BE MADE AT ANY TIME, s. 13.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Interpretation.

1. Where the words following occur in this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears—

“Property.”

1. “Property” includes real and personal property, and any debt, and any thing in action, and any other right or interest.

2. "Land" includes tenements and hereditaments, corporeal "Land." or incorporeal; and houses and other buildings; also an undivided share in land.

3. "Conveyance" includes assignment, appointment, lease, "Conveyance." settlement, and other assurance and covenant to surrender, made by deed, on a sale, mortgage, demise, or settlement of any property or on any other dealing with or for any property; and "convey" has a meaning corresponding with that of "Convey." conveyance.

4. "Mortgage" includes any charge on any property for securing money or money's worth; and "mortgage money" means "Mortgage money or money's worth, secured by a mortgage; and "mortgagor" includes any person from time to time deriving title "Mortgagor." under the original mortgagor, or entitled to redeem a mortgage, according to his estate, interest, or right, in the mortgaged property; and "mortgagee" includes any person from time to time "Mortgagee." deriving title under the original mortgagee.

5. "Incumbrance" includes a mortgage in fee, or for a less estate, and a trust for securing money, and a lien, and a charge "Incumbrance." of a portion, annuity or other capital or annual sum; and "incumbrancer" has a meaning corresponding with that of "Incumbrancer." incumbrance, and includes every person entitled to the benefit of an incumbrance, or to require payment or discharge thereof.

49 V. c. 20, s. 3 (1-5).

PART I.

2.—(1) Where a mortgagor is entitled to redeem, he shall, by virtue of this Act, have power to require the mortgagee, instead of giving a certificate of payment or re-conveying, and on the terms on which he would be bound to re-convey, to assign the mortgage debt and convey the mortgaged property to any third person, as the mortgagor directs; and the mortgagee shall, by virtue of this Act be bound to assign and convey accordingly.

Obligation on mortgagee to transfer instead of re-conveying.
Imp. Act 44 and 45, V. c. 11, s. 15.

(2) This section does not apply in the case of a mortgagee being or having been in possession.

(3) This section shall have effect notwithstanding any stipulation to the contrary. 49 V. c. 20, s. 7.

3.—(1) A mortgagor, as long as his right to redeem subsists, shall, by virtue of this Act, be entitled from time to time, at reasonable times, on his request, and at his own cost, and on payment of the mortgagee's costs and expenses in this behalf, to inspect and make copies or abstracts of or extracts from the documents of title relating to the mortgaged property in the custody or power of the mortgagee.

Power for mortgagor to inspect title deeds.
Imp. Act, sec. 16.

(2) This section applies only to mortgages made after the 1st day of July, 1886, and shall have effect notwithstanding any stipulation to the contrary. 49 V. c. 20, s. 8.

Insurance money.
Imp. Act,
23.

4.—(1) All money payable on an insurance to a mortgagor shall, if the mortgagee so requires, be applied by the mortgagor in making good the loss or damage in respect of which the money is received.

(2) Without prejudice to any obligation to the contrary imposed by law or by special contract, a mortgagee may require that all money received on an insurance be applied in or towards the discharge of the money due under his mortgage. 49 V. c. 20, s. 9.

Covenants to be implied.
Imp. Act, s. 7.

5.—(1) There shall, in the several cases in this section mentioned, be deemed to be included, and there shall in those several cases by virtue of this Act be implied, covenants to the effect in this section stated, by the person or by each person who conveys, as far as regards the subject-matter or share of subject-matter expressed to be conveyed by him, with the person, if one, to whom the conveyance is made, or with the persons jointly, if more than one, to whom the conveyance is made as joint tenants, or with each of the persons, if more than one, to whom the conveyance is made as tenants in common, that is to say:—

On mortgage,
by beneficial
owner.

(a) In a conveyance by way of mortgage, the following covenants by the person who conveys, and is expressed to convey as beneficial owner (namely):

For payment of the mortgage money and interest, and observance in other respects of the proviso in the mortgage;

Good title;

Right to convey;

That, on default, the mortgagee shall have quiet possession of the land;

Free from all incumbrances;

That the mortgagor will execute such further assurances of the said lands as may be requisite; and

That the mortgagor has done no act to incumber the land mortgaged;

According to the tenor and effect of the several and respective forms of covenants for the said purposes set forth in Schedule B to The Act respecting Short Forms of Mortgages.

Rev. Stat.
c. 107.

On mortgage of leaseholds, by beneficial
owner.

(b) In a conveyance by way of mortgage of leasehold property, the following further covenant by the person who conveys, and is expressed to convey, as beneficial owner (namely):

That the lease or grant creating the term or estate for which the land is held is, at the time of conveyance, a good, valid, and effectual lease or grant of the land conveyed, and is in full force, unforfeited, and unsurrendered, and in nowise become void, or voidable, and that all the rents reserved by, and all the covenants, conditions and agreements contained in, the lease, or grant, and on the part of the lessee or grantee and the persons deriving title under him to be paid, observed, and performed, have been paid, observed and performed, up to the time of conveyance;

Validity of lease.

And also, that the person so conveying, or the persons deriving title under him, will at all times, as long as any money remains on the security of the conveyance, pay, observe, and perform, or cause to be paid, observed and performed, all the rents reserved by, and all the covenants, conditions and agreements, contained in the lease or grant, and on the part of the lessee or grantee, and the persons deriving title under him, to be paid, observed and performed, and will keep the person to whom the conveyance is made, and those deriving title under him, indemnified against all accidents, proceedings, costs, charges, damages, claims and demands, if any, to be incurred or sustained by him or them, by reason of the non-payment of such rent, or the non-observance or non-performance of such covenants, conditions and agreements, or any of them: 49 V. c. 20, s. 13, (1 c. d.)

Payment of rent and performance of covenants.

6. In a mortgage, where more persons than one are expressed to convey as mortgagors, or to join as covenantors, the implied covenants on their part shall be deemed to be joint and several covenants by them; and where there are more mortgagees than one, the implied covenant with them shall be deemed to be a covenant with them jointly, unless the amount secured is expressed to be secured to them in shares or distinct sums; in which latter case the implied covenant with them shall be deemed to be a covenant with each severally in respect of the share or distinct sum secured to him. 49 V. c. 20, s. 14 (1).

Implied covenants in mortgage, where joint and several. Temp. Act, 28.

7. The preceding two sections apply only to mortgages made after the 1st day of July, 1886. 49 V. c. 20, ss. 13 (6), 14 (2).

Application of ss. 5, 6.

8. Any mortgagee of freehold or leasehold property, or any assignee of such mortgagee, may take and receive from the mortgagor or his assignee a release of the equity of redemption in such property, or may purchase the same under any judgment or order of a court of law, without merger of debt.

Mortgagee of freehold property, etc., may receive release, etc., without merger of debt.

ment or decree or execution without thereby merging the mortgage debt as against any subsequent mortgagee or person having a charge on the same property. R. S. O. 1877, c. 99, s. 1.

Where mortgagee acquires equity of redemption, subsequent mortgagee not entitled to foreclose or sell property without redeeming, etc.

9. In case such prior mortgagee or his assignee acquires the equity of redemption of the mortgagor in the manner aforesaid, no subsequent mortgagee or his assignees shall be entitled to foreclose or sell such property without redeeming or selling, subject to the rights of such prior mortgagee or his assignee, in the same manner as if such prior mortgagee or his assignee had not acquired such equity of redemption. R. S. O. 1877, c. 99, s. 2.

Priority under Registry Laws not to be affected.

10. The preceding two sections shall not affect any priority or claim which any mortgagee may have under the Registry Laws. R. S. O. 1877, c. 99, s. 3.

In proceedings for foreclosure, etc., state of mortgage account may be proved prima facie, by statement on oath of assignee of mortgagee.

11. On any proceeding for foreclosure by or for redemption against an assignee of a mortgagee, the statement of the mortgage account, under the oath of such assignee, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of the state of such account, and no affidavit or oath shall be required from the mortgagee or any intermediate assignee denying any payment to such mortgagee or intermediate assignee, unless the mortgagor or his assignee, or the party proceeding to redeem, denies by oath or affidavit the correctness of such statement of account. R. S. O. 1877, c. 99, s. 4.

Executors of mortgagee may assign, etc.

12. Where a person entitled to any freehold land by way of mortgage has departed this life, and his executor or administrator has become entitled to the money secured by the mortgage, or has assented to a bequest thereof, or has assigned the mortgage debt, such executor or administrator, if the mortgage money was paid to the testator or intestate in his lifetime, or on payment of the principal money and interest due on the mortgage, or on receipt of the consideration money for the assignment, may convey, assign, release or discharge the mortgage debt and the legal estate in the land; and such executor or administrator shall have the same power as to any portion of the lands on payment of some part of the mortgage debt, or on any arrangement for exonerating the estate, or any part of the mortgage lands, without payment of money; and such conveyance, assignment, release or discharge shall be as effectual as if the same had been made by the person having the legal estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 99, s. 5. See also Rev. Stat. Cap. 110, s. 16.

Certificate of payment, etc. to be valid, at whatever time given.

13. Every certificate of payment or discharge of a mortgage, or of the conditions therein, or of the lands or of any part of the same, or of any part of the money, by the mortgagee, or his assignee, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or any one of them, at whatsoever time given, and whether before or after the time limited by the mortgage for payment or performance, shall, if in conformity with The Registry Act, be valid, to all intents and purposes whatsoever. R. S. O. 1877, c. 99, s. 6. c. 114. See also Rev. Stat. Cap. 110, s. 17 ; Cap. 114, ss. 69, 72.

14.—(1) Where in a mortgage or an obligation for payment of money, or a transfer of mortgage or of such obligation, the sum, or any part of the sum, advanced or owing is expressed to be advanced by or owing to more persons than one out of money, or as money, belonging to them on a joint account, or where a mortgage, or such an obligation, or such a transfer is made to more persons than one, jointly, and not in shares—the mortgage money, or other money or money's worth, for the time being due to those persons on the mortgage or obligation, shall be deemed to be and remain money or money's worth belonging to those persons on a joint account, as between them and the mortgagor or obligor ; and the receipt in writing of the survivors or last survivor of them, or of the personal representatives of the last survivor, shall be a complete discharge for all money or money's worth for the time being due, notwithstanding any notice to the payer of a severance of the joint account.

Effect of advance on joint account, etc.

Imp. Act 44,
45 V. c. 41,
s. 61.

(3) This section applies only to a mortgage, or obligation, or transfer made after the 1st day of July, 1886. 49 V. c. 20, s. 15.

15. The bona fide payment of any money to and the receipt thereof by any person to whom the same is payable upon any express or implied trust, or for any limited purpose, and such payment to and receipt by the survivor or survivors of two or more mortgagees or holders, or the executors or administrators of such survivor, or their or his assigns, shall effectually discharge the person paying the same from seeing to the application or being answerable for the misapplication thereof, unless the contrary is expressly declared by the instrument creating the trust or security. R. S. O. 1877, c. 99, s. 7. See also Rev. Stat. Cap. 110, s. 8.

Receipts of mortgagees, etc., to be effectual discharges.

16. The right of a mortgagee to distrain for interest in arrear upon a mortgage, shall be limited to the goods and chattels of the mortgagor, and as to such goods and chattels, limited as to goods, to such only as are not exempt from seizure under execution. This section shall not apply to mortgages existing on the 25th day of March, 1886. 49 V. c. 29, s. 3.

Right of mortgagee to distrain limited as to goods.

Mortgagee's right of distress limited to one year's interest or rent.

17.—(1) As against creditors of any mortgagor or person in possession of mortgaged premises under a mortgagor, the right, if any, to distrain upon the mortgaged premises for arrears of interest or for rent, in the nature of or in lieu of interest under the provisions of any mortgage to be executed after the 23rd day of April, 1887, shall be restricted to one year's arrears of such interest or rent, but this restriction shall not apply unless some one of such creditors shall be an execution creditor, or unless there shall be an assignee for the general benefit of such creditors appointed before lawful sale of the goods distrained, nor unless the officer executing such writ of execution, or such assignee shall, by notice in writing to be given to the person distraining, or his attorney, bailiff, or agent, before such lawful sale, claim the benefit of the said restriction, and in case such notice is so given, the distrainer shall relinquish to the officer or assignee the goods distrained, upon receiving one year's arrears of such interest or rent and his reasonable costs of distress, or if such arrears and costs shall not be paid or tendered he shall sell only so much of the goods distrained as shall be necessary to satisfy one year's arrears of such interest or rent and the reasonable costs of distress and sale, and shall thereupon relinquish any residue of goods, and pay any residue of moneys, proceeds of goods so distrained, to the said officer or assignee.

Reimbursement of officer or assignee.

(2) Any officer executing a writ of execution, or an assignee who shall pay any money to relieve goods from distress under the next preceding sub-section, shall be entitled to reimburse himself therefor out of the proceeds of the sale of such goods.

Notice of sale.

(3) Goods distrained for arrears of interest or rent, as aforesaid, shall not be sold except after such public notice as is now required to be given by a landlord who sells goods distrained for rent. 50 V. c. 7, ss. 36-38.

PART II.

Powers incident to mortgages.

18. Where any principal money is secured or charged by deed executed after the 11th day of March, 1879, on any hereditaments of any tenure, or on any interest therein, the person to whom the money shall, for the time being, be payable, his executors, administrators and assigns, shall, at any time after the expiration of six months from the time when the principal money shall have become payable, according to the terms of the deed, or after any interest on the principal money shall have been in arrear for six months, or after any omission to pay any premium or any insurance which, by the terms of the deed, ought to be paid by the person entitled to the property subject to the charge, have the following powers, to the same extent (but no more) as if they had been in terms conferred by the person creating the charge, namely:

1st. A power to sell, or concur with any other person in selling, the whole or any part of the property by public auction or private contract, subject to any reasonable conditions he may think fit to make, and to rescind or vary contracts for sale, or buy in and re-sell the property, from time to time, in like manner.

2nd. A power to insure, and keep insured, from loss or damage by fire, the whole or any part of the property (whether affixed to the freehold or not) which is in its nature insurable, and to add the premiums paid for such insurance to the principal money secured at the same rate of interest. 42 V. c. 20, s. 1.

19. Receipts for purchase money given by the person or persons exercising the power of sale by the preceding section conferred, shall be sufficient discharges to the purchaser, who shall not be bound to see to the application of such purchase money. 42 V. c. 20, s. 2. Receipts for purchase money sufficient discharges.

20.—(1) No sale as aforesaid shall be made until after three months' notice in writing has been given to any subsequent incumbrancer, and to the person entitled to the property subject to the charge and to such incumbrance, the notice to be given either personally or at his usual or last place of residence in this Province, which notice may be given at any time after any default in making a payment provided for by the deed. Notice before sale.

(2) In case of the death of the person entitled subject to the charge, and of his interest therein passing to infant heirs or devisees, the notice shall be given as aforesaid to his executors or administrators, as well as to his heirs or devisees, as the case may be.

(3) The notice for an infant heir is to be served upon his guardian, and is also to be served upon the infant himself, if over the age of twelve years. 42 V. c. 20, s. 3.

21. When a sale has been effected in professed exercise of the powers hereby conferred, the title of the purchaser shall not be liable to be impeached on the ground that no case had arisen to authorize the exercise of such power, or that such power has been improperly or irregularly exercised, or that no such notice as aforesaid has been given: but any person damaged by any such unauthorized, improper, or irregular exercise of such power, shall have his remedy against the person selling. 42 V. c. 20, s. 4. Improper sale not to defeat title of purchaser.

22. The notice of sale may be in the following form or to the following effect: Form of notice.

I hereby require you on or before the day of 18 , (a day not less than three calendar months from the service of the notice, and not less than six months after the default) to pay off the principal money and interest secured by a certain indenture dated the day of 18 and expressed to be made between (here state parties and describe mortgage property) which said mortgage was registered on the day of (and if the mortgage has been assigned add: and has since become the property of the undersigned). And I hereby give you notice that the amount due on the said mortgage for principal, interest, and costs respectively, is as follows: (set the same forth).

And unless the said principal money and interest and costs are paid on or before the said day of I shall sell the property comprised in the said indenture under the authority of the Act entitled An Act respecting Mortgages of Real Estate. Dated the day of 18 .
42 V. c. 20, s. 5.

Registration of notice.

23. The notice of sale of lands may be registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the lands are situate, in the same manner as any other instrument affecting the land, and such registration shall have the same effect, and the duties of the registrar in respect of the same shall be as in the case of any other registered instrument, and the fee to be paid such registrar for registering the same shall be fifty cents.
42 V. c. 20, s. 6.

Affidavit for
registration.

24.—(1) The affidavit for the purpose of registering the notice shall be made by the person who served the same, and shall prove the time, place, and manner of such service, and that the copy delivered to the registrar is a true copy of the notice served.

Certified copy of registered notice to be evidence.

(2) A copy of such registered notice and affidavit, certified under the hand and seal of office of the registrar, shall in all cases be received as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. 42 V. c. 20, s. 7.

Application of
money.

25. The money arising by a sale effected as aforesaid shall be applied by the person receiving the same as follows: first, in payment of all the expenses incident to the sale or incurred in any attempted sale; secondly, in discharge of all interest and costs then due in respect of the charge in consequence whereof the sale was made; and thirdly, in discharge of all the principal moneys then due in respect of such charge; and the residue of such money shall be paid to the subsequent encumbrancers according to their priorities, and the balance to the person entitled to the property subject to the charge, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, as the case may be. 42 V. c. 20, s. 8.

the purchaser.

26. The person exercising the power of sale hereby conferred shall have power by deed to convey or assign to and vest in the purchaser the property sold, for all the estate and interest therein, which the person who created the charge had power to dispose of. 42 V. c. 20, s. 9.

27. At any time after the power of sale hereby conferred shall have become exercisable, the person entitled to exercise the same shall be entitled to demand and recover, from the person entitled to the property subject to the charge, all the deeds and documents in his possession or power relating to the same property, or to the title thereto, which he would have been entitled to demand and recover if the same property had been conveyed, appointed, surrendered, or assigned to and were then vested in him for all the estate and interest which the person creating the charge had power to dispose of; and where the legal estate shall be outstanding in a trustee, the person entitled to a charge created by a person equitably entitled, or any purchaser from such person, shall be entitled to call for a conveyance of the legal estate to the same extent as the person creating the charge could have called for such a conveyance if the charge had not been made. 42 V. c. 20, s. 10.

Owner of charge may call for title deeds and conveyance of legal estate.

28. The mortgagee's costs may, without an order, be taxed by one of the taxing officers or by the local master, at the instance of any party interested. 42 V. c. 20, s. 11.

Taxation of costs.

29. So much of Part II of this Act as provides for a power to sell shall not apply in the case of a deed which contains a power of sale; and so much of this Act as provides a power to insure shall not apply in the case of a deed which contains a power to insure, nor shall any of the provisions of Part II. of this Act apply to any deed which contains a declaration that Part II. of this Act is not to apply thereto. 42 V. c. 20, s. 12.

Provisions as to sale, etc., not to apply in certain cases.

PART III.

30. (1) In order to prevent the making of unnecessary and vexatious costs in respect to mortgages, it is hereby enacted that, where pursuant to any condition or proviso contained in a mortgage there has been made or given a demand or notice either requiring payment of the moneys or any part thereof secured by such mortgage, or declaring an intention to proceed under and exercise the power of sale contained in such mortgage, no further proceedings and no action either to enforce such mortgage, or with respect to any clause, covenant or provision therein contained, or the lands or any part thereof thereby mortgaged shall, until after the lapse of the time at or after which, according to such demand or notice, payment of the moneys is to be made, or the power of sale is to be exercised or proceeded under, be commenced or taken unless and until an order permitting the same shall first be had and obtained either from the Judge of a County Court or from a Judge of the High Court.

When demand of payment made or notice of intention to exercise power of sale given, no further proceedings to be taken until expiration of time named in notice or demand, without order of a judge.

(2) Such order may be obtained ex parte, but only upon such affidavits and proof as will satisfy the Judge that it is reasonable and equitable that the proposed action or proceeding should be allowed to be taken and proceeded with.

Proof on which order may be granted.

Title of affidavit or order.

(3) Such affidavit or order may be entitled as follows:—

“In the matter of a mortgage purporting to be made between (describing the parties thereto as in the mortgage) and bearing date on the day of .”

This section not to apply to proceedings to stay waste etc.

(4) This section shall not apply to proceedings to stay waste or other injury to the mortgaged premises, and the costs of any application thereunder shall be in the discretion of the Judge.
47 V. c. 16, s. 2.

Payment to be accepted if made in terms of notice.

31. When such demand or notice requires payment of all moneys secured to be paid by or under a mortgage, the party making such demand or giving such notice shall accept and receive payment of the same if made as required by the terms of such notice or demand; and if there be any dispute as to the costs payable by the person by or on whose behalf such payment is either made or tendered then such costs shall, on three clear days' notice to such person by the person claiming the same, be taxed and ascertained by the clerk of a County Court, or by a local master, and thereupon and in such case, if within ten days after said costs have been so taxed and ascertained, payment of said moneys and costs are duly made or tendered to the person entitled thereto, or to his solicitor or agent in that behalf, the same shall be deemed and taken to have been paid or tendered, as the case may be, within the meaning of such notice or demand, and in compliance therewith.
47 V. c. 16, s. 3.

Purchaser of mortgage may set up defence or purchase for value without notice.

32. The purchaser in good faith of a mortgage may to the extent of the mortgage (and except as against the mortgagor, his heirs, executors, or administrators), set up the defence of purchase for value without notice in the same manner as a purchaser of the property mortgaged might do. HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario,
enacts as follows :—

1.—(1) Where the words and expressions following occur in this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears : Interpretation.

“Lands” shall extend to advowsons, rectories, messuages, “Lands.” lands, tenements, rents and hereditaments of any tenure and whether corporeal or incorporeal, and any undivided share thereof ;

“Estate” shall extend to an estate in equity as well as at law and shall also extend to any interest, charge, lien or incumbrance in, upon or affecting lands, either at law or in equity, and shall also extend to any interest, charge, lien or incumbrance in, upon or affecting money subject to be invested in the purchase of lands ;

“Base fee.” “Base fee” shall mean exclusively that estate in fee simple into which an estate tail is converted where the issue in tail are barred, but persons claiming estates by way of remainder or otherwise are not barred ;

“Estate tail.” “Estate tail,” in addition to its usual meaning, shall mean a base fee into which an estate tail has been converted ;

“Actual tenant in tail.” “Actual tenant in tail” shall mean exclusively the tenant of an estate tail which has not been barred, and such tenant shall be deemed an actual tenant in tail, although the estate tail may have been divested or turned to a right ;

“Tenant in tail.” “Tenant in tail” shall mean, not only an actual tenant in tail, but also a person who, where an estate tail has been barred and converted into a base fee, would have been tenant of such estate tail if the same had not been barred ;

“Tenant in tail entitled to a base fee.” “Tenant in tail entitled to a base fee” shall mean a person entitled to a base fee, or to the ultimate beneficial interest in a base fee, and who, if the base fee had not been created, would have been actual tenant in tail ;

“Money subject to be invested in the purchase of lands.” “Money subject to be invested in the purchase of lands” shall include money, whether raised or to be raised, and whether the amount thereof be or be not ascertained, and shall extend to stocks and funds, and real and other securities, the produce of which is directed to be invested in the purchase of lands, and the lands to be purchased with such money or produce shall extend to lands of any tenure out of Ontario, where such lands or any of them are within the scope or meaning of the trust or power directing or authorizing the purchase.

Settlement. (2) Every assurance already made or hereafter to be made, whether by deed, will, Private Act of Parliament or Act of the Legislature, or otherwise, by which lands heretofore have been or may hereafter be entailed, or agreed or directed to be entailed, shall be deemed a settlement.

Appointment in exercise of a power under a settlement. (3) Every appointment made in exercise of any power contained in any settlement, or of any other power arising out of the power contained in any settlement, shall be considered as a part of such settlement, and the estate created by such appointment shall be considered as having been created by such settlement.

Settlement by will to date from testator's death. (4) Where such settlement is made by will, the time of the death of the testator shall be considered the time when such settlement was made.

Proviso. (5) But those words and expressions occurring in this section, to which more than one meaning is to be attached, shall not have the different meanings given to them by this section in those cases in which there is anything in the subject or context repugnant to such construction. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 1

2. All warranties of lands made or entered into by a tenant in tail thereof, shall be absolutely void against the issue in tail, and all persons whose estates are to take effect after the determination or in defeasance of the estate tail. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 2.

Estates tail and estates expectant thereon, no longer barrable by warranty.

3. Every actual tenant in tail, whether in possession, remainder, contingency or otherwise, may dispose of, for an estate in fee simple absolute, or for any less estate, the lands entailed, as against all persons claiming the lands entailed by force of any estate tail vested in or which might be claimed by or which, but for some previous act, would have been vested in, or might have been claimed by the person making the disposition, at the time of his making the same, and also as against all persons, including Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, whose estates are to take effect after the determination, or in defeasance of such estate tail; saving always the rights of all persons in respect of estates prior to the estate tail in respect of which such disposition is made, and the rights of all other persons except those against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 3.

Power to dispose of lands in fee simple or for a less estate, etc.

4. Where, under a settlement made before the 18th day of May, 1846, a woman is tenant in tail of lands within the provisions of the Act passed in the 11th year of the reign of His Majesty King Henry the Seventh, entitled Certain Alienations made by the wife, of the lands of her deceased husband, shall be void, the power of disposition hereinbefore contained as to such lands shall not be exercised by her, except with such assent as, if this Act had not been passed, would, under the provisions of the said Act of King Henry the Seventh, have rendered valid a fine or common recovery levied or suffered by her of such lands. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 4.

Power of disposition not to be exercised by women tenants in tail, or provisions vin. etc.

11 Hen. vii. c. 20.

5. Except as to lands comprised in any settlement made before the 18th day of May, 1846, the said Act of the 11th year of the reign of His Majesty King Henry the Seventh shall be of no force in Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 5.

11 H. vii. c. 20, repealed except as to certain lands.

6. The power of disposition hereinbefore contained shall not extend to tenants of estates tail, who, by the Act passed in the 34th and 35th years of the reign of His Majesty King Henry the Eighth, entitled An Act to embar feigned recovery of lands wherein the King is in reversion, or by any other Act, are restrained from barring their estates tail, or to tenants in tail after possibility of issue extinct. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 6.

Power of disposition not to extend to certain tenants in tail.

34-5 Hen. viii. c. 20.

7. In every case in which an estate tail in any lands has been barred and converted into a base fee, the person who, if such estate tail had not been barred, would have been actual tenant in tail of the same lands, may dispose of such lands as against all persons, including Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, whose estates are to take effect after the determination, or in defeasance of the base fee into which the estate tail has been converted, so as to enlarge the base fee into a fee simple absolute, saving always the rights of all persons, in respect of estates prior to the estate tail which has been converted into a base fee, and the rights of all other persons, except those against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 7.

Power to enlarge base fees saving the rights of certain persons.

Issue inheritable not to bar expectancies.

8. Nothing in this Act contained shall enable any person to dispose of any lands entailed in respect of any expectant interest which he may have as issue inheritable to any estate tail therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 8.

Extent of estate created by a tenant in tail by way of mortgage or for any other limited purpose.

9. If a tenant in tail of lands makes a disposition of the same under this Act, by way of mortgage, or for any other limited purpose, then such disposition shall, to the extent of the estate thereby created, be an absolute bar in Equity, as well as at Law, to all persons as against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made, notwithstanding any intention to the contrary expressed or implied in the deed by which the disposition is effected; but if the estate created by such disposition is only an estate pur autre vie, or for years absolute or determinable, or if, by a disposition under this Act by a tenant in tail of lands, an interest, charge, lien or incumbrance is created without a term of years absolute or determinable, or any greater estate for securing or raising the same, then such disposition shall, in Equity, be a bar only so far as may be necessary to give full effect to the mortgage, or to such other limited purpose, or to such interests, lien, charge or incumbrance, notwithstanding any intention to the contrary expressed or implied in the deed by which the disposition is effected. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 9.

The owner of the first existing estate under settlement prior to an estate tail under the same settlement to be the protector of the settlement.

10. If at the time there is a tenant in tail of lands under a settlement, and there is subsisting in the same lands, or any of them, under the same settlement, any estate for years, determinable on the dropping of a life or lives, or any greater estate (not being an estate for years) prior to the estate tail, then the person who is the owner of the prior estate, or the first of such prior estates, if more than one, then subsisting under the same settlement, or who would have been so if no absolute disposition thereof had been made (the first of such prior estates, if more than one, being for all the purposes of this Act, deemed the prior estate), shall be the protector of the settlement, so far as regards the lands in which such prior estate is subsisting, and shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be deemed the owner of such prior estate, although the same may have been charged or incumbered, either by the owner thereof or by the settlor, or otherwise howsoever, and although the whole of the rents and profits are exhausted, or are required for the payment of the charges and incumbrances on such prior estate, and although such prior estate may have been absolutely disposed of by the owner thereof, or by or in consequence of the bankruptcy or insolvency of such owner, or by any other act or default of such owner; and an estate by the curtesy in respect of the estate tail, or of any prior estate created by the same settlement, shall be deemed a prior estate under the same settlement within the meaning of this clause; and an estate by way of resulting use or trust to or for the settlor, shall be deemed an estate under the same settlement, within the meaning of this clause. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 10.

11. Where two or more persons are owners, under a settlement within the meaning of this Act, of a prior estate, the sole owner of which estate, if there had been only one, would in respect thereof have been the protector of such settlement, each of such persons, in respect of such undivided share as he could dispose of, shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be deemed the owner of a prior estate, and shall in exclusion of the other or others of them, be the sole protector of such settlement to the extent of such undivided share. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 11.

Each of two or more owners of a prior estate to be the sole protector as to his share.

12. Where a married woman would, if single, be the protector of a settlement in respect of a prior estate, which is not thereby settled or agreed, or directed to be settled to her separate use, she and her husband together shall, in respect of such estate, be the protector of such settlement, and shall be deemed one owner; but if such prior estate has by such settlement been settled or agreed, or directed to be settled to her separate use, then she alone shall, in respect of such estate, be the protector of such settlement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 12.

When a married woman alone shall be the protector, and where she and her husband together shall be protector.

13. Except in the case of a lease hereinafter provided for where an estate is limited by a settlement, by way of confirmation, or where the settlement merely has the effect of restoring an estate, in either of those cases, such estate shall, for the purposes of this Act, so far as regards the protector of the settlement be deemed an estate subsisting under such settlement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 13.

As to estates confirmed or restored by settlement.

14. Where a lease at a rent is created or confirmed by a settlement, the person in whose favour such lease is created or confirmed, shall not, in respect thereof, be the protector of such settlement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 14.

As to leases at rent created by settlement.

15. No woman in respect of her dower, and (except in the case, hereinafter provided for, of a bare trustee under a settlement made on or before the 1st day of July, 1846, no bare trustee, heir, executor, administrator or assign, in respect of any estate taken by him as such bare trustee, heir, executor, administrator or assign, shall be the protector of a settlement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 15.

No bare trustee, tenant in dower, etc., to be protector except under sect. 19.

Who shall be the protector where the owner of the prior estate is, by the two last sections, excluded.

16. Where under a settlement there is more than one estate prior to an estate tail, and the person who is the owner, within the meaning of this Act, of such prior estate, in respect of which, but for the last preceding two sections, or one of them, he would have been the protector of the settlement, is by virtue of such sections, or either of them, excluded from being the protector—then the person (if any) who, if such estate did not exist, would be the protector of the settlement, shall be such protector. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 16.

Where in the case of the disposition of an estate before the 1st July, 1846, the person to make the tenant to the writ of entry in a recovery shall be the protector.

17. Where on or before the 1st day of July, 1846, an estate under a settlement had been disposed of, either absolutely or otherwise, and either for valuable consideration or not, the person who in respect of such estate would, before the 1st day of January, 1834, have been the proper person to have made the tenant to the writ of entry or other writ for suffering a common recovery of the lands entailed by such settlement, shall, during the continuance of the estate which conferred the right to make the tenant to such writ of entry or other writ, be the protector of such settlement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 17.

Where in the case of the disposition of a reversion on or before the 1st July, 1846, the person to make the tenant to the writ of entry in a recovery shall be the protector.

18. Where any person having, on or before the 1st day of July, 1846, either for valuable consideration or not, disposed of, either absolutely or otherwise, a remainder or reversion in fee in any lands, or created any estate out of such remainder or reversion, would, under this Act, if this clause had not been inserted, have been the protector of the settlement by which the lands were entailed in which such remainder or reversion is subsisting, and thereby be enabled to concur in the barring of such remainder or reversion, which he could not have done if he had not become such protector; then the person who, before the 1st day of January, 1834, would have been the proper person to have made the tenant to the writ of entry or other writ for suffering a common recovery of such lands, shall, during the continuance of the estate which conferred the right to make the tenant to such writ of entry or other writ, be the protector of such settlement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 18.

Where a bare trustee, &c.

19. Where, under a settlement of lands made before the 1st day of January, 1834, the person who, if this Act had not been passed, would have been the proper person to make the tenant to the writ of entry or other writ for suffering a common recovery of such lands, for the purpose of barring any estate tail or other estate under such settlement, is a bare trustee, such trustee shall, during the continuance of the estate conferring on him the right to make the tenant to such writ of entry or other writ, be the protector of such settlement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 19.

20. Any settlor entailing lands may appoint, by the settlement by which the lands are entailed, any number of persons in esse, not exceeding three, and not being aliens, to be protector of the settlement, in lieu of the person who would have been the protector if this clause had not been inserted, and either for the whole or any part of the period for which such person might have continued protector; and, by means of a power to be inserted in such settlement, to perpetuate, during the whole or any part of such period, the protectorship of the settlement in any one person or number of persons in esse, and not being an alien or aliens, whom the donee of the power thinks proper, by deed, to appoint protector of the settlement, in the place of any one person, or number of persons, who may die, or by deed relinquish his or their office of protector; and the person or persons so appointed shall, in case of there being no other person then protector of the settlement, be the protector, and shall, in case of there being any other person then protector of the settlement, be protector jointly with such other person; but the number of the persons to compose the protector by virtue or means of any such appointment, shall never exceed three. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 20.

Power to any settlor to appoint protector.

21. Every deed by which a protector is appointed under a power in a settlement, and every deed by which a protector relinquishes his office, shall be void unless registered in the registry office of the registry division wherein the lands referred to lie, within six months after the execution thereof; and the person who, but for the last preceding section, would have been sole protector of the settlement, may be one of the persons to be appointed protector under that section, if the settlor thinks fit, and shall, unless otherwise directed by the settlor act as sole protector, if the other persons constituting the protector have ceased to be so by death or relinquishment of the office by deed, and no other person has been appointed in their place. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 21.

Deeds appointing protectors to be registered.

22. If any person, protector of a settlement, is a lunatic, idiot, or of unsound mind, and whether he has been found such by inquisition or not, then the High Court shall be the protector of such settlement, in lieu of the person who is such lunatic or idiot, or of unsound mind, as aforesaid; or, if any person, protector of a settlement, is convicted of treason or felony, or, if a person not being the owner of a prior estate under a settlement, is protector of such settlement, and is an infant; or, if it is uncertain whether such last mentioned person is living or dead—then the High Court shall be the protector of such settlement, in lieu of the person convicted as aforesaid, or of the person who is an infant, or whose existence cannot be ascertained as aforesaid; or, if any settlor entailing lands declares, in the settlement by which the lands are entailed, that the person who, as owner of a prior estate under such settlement, would be entitled to be protector of the settlement, shall not be the protector, and does not appoint any person to be protector in his stead, then the said High Court shall, as to the lands in which the prior estate is subsisting, be the protector of the settlement during the continuance of such estate; or, if in any other case, there is subsisting under a settlement an estate prior to an estate tail under the same settlement, and such prior estate is sufficient to qualify the owner thereof to be protector of the settlement, and there happens at any time to be no protector of the settlement as to the lands in which the prior estate is subsisting, the said High Court shall, while there is no such protector, and the prior estate is subsisting, be the protector of the settlement as to such lands. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 22.

High Court to be the protector of lunatic, etc.

Where there is a protector, his consent requisite to enable an actual tenant in tail to create a larger estate than a base fee.

23. If at the time when any person, actual tenant in tail of lands under a settlement, but not entitled to the remainder or reversion in fee immediately expectant on the determination of his estate tail, is desirous of making under this Act a disposition of the lands entailed, there is a protector of such settlement, then the consent of such protector shall be requisite to enable such actual tenant in tail to dispose of the lands entailed to the full extent to which he is hereinbefore authorized to dispose of the same; but such actual tenant in tail may, without such consent, make a disposition under this Act of the lands entailed, which shall be good against all persons who, by force of any estate tail vested in or which might be claimed by, or which but for some previous act or default would have been vested in or might have been claimed by, the person making the disposition at the time of his making the same, may claim the lands entailed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 23.

Where a base fee and a protector, his consent requisite to the exercising of a power of disposition.

24. Where an estate tail has been converted into a base fee in such case, so long as there is a protector of the settlement by which the estate tail was created, the consent of such protector shall be requisite to enable the person who would have been tenant of the estate tail if the same had not been barred, to exercise, as to the lands in respect of which there is such protector, the power of disposition hereinbefore contained. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 24.

The protector to be subject to no control in the exercise of his power of consenting.

25. Any device, shift, or contrivance by which it is attempted to control the protector of a settlement in giving his consent, or to prevent him in any way from using his absolute discretion in regard to his consent, and also any agreement entered into by the protector of a settlement to withhold his consent, shall be void; and the protector of a settlement shall not be deemed to be a trustee in respect of his power of consent; and no Court shall control or interfere to restrain the exercise of his power of consent, or treat his giving consent as a breach of trust. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 25.

26. The rules of equity in relation to dealings and transactions between the donee of a power and any object of the power in whose favour the same may be exercised, shall not be held to apply to dealings and transactions between the protector of a settlement and a tenant in tail under the same settlement, upon the occasion of the protector giving his consent to a disposition by a tenant in tail under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 26.

Certain rules of equity not to apply between the protector and a tenant in tail.

27. Where a tenant in tail of lands under a settlement has created in such lands, or any of them, a voidable estate in favour of a purchaser for valuable consideration and afterwards, by any assurance other than a lease not requiring enrolment, makes a disposition, under this Act, of the lands in which such voidable estate has been created, or any of them, such disposition, whatever its object may be, and whatever may be the extent of the estate intended to be thereby created, shall, if made by the tenant in tail with the consent of the protector (if any) of the settlement, or by the tenant in tail alone, if there be no such protector, have the effect of confirming such voidable estate in the lands thereby disposed of to its full extent as against all persons except those whose rights are saved by this Act; but if, at the time of making the disposition, there is a protector of the settlement, and such protector does not consent to the disposition, and the tenant in tail is not without such consent capable under this Act of confirming the voidable estate to its full extent, then such disposition shall have the effect of confirming such voidable estate so far as such tenant in tail would then be capable under this Act of confirming the same without such consent; but if such disposition is made to a purchaser for valuable consideration, not having express notice of the voidable estate, then and in such case the voidable estate shall not be confirmed as against such purchaser and the person claiming under him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 27.

A voidable estate by a tenant in tail in favour of a purchaser confirmed by a subsequent disposition of such tenant in tail under this Act, but not against a purchaser for value without notice.

28. If a base fee in any lands, and the remainder or reversion in fee in the same lands, were on the 18th day of May, 1846, or at any time since have been, or after this Act takes effect are united in the same person, and there is no intermediate estate between the base fee and the remainder or reversion, then the base fee shall not merge, but shall be ipso facto enlarged into as large an estate as the tenant in tail, with the consent of the protector, if any, might have created by any disposition under this Act, if such remainder or reversion had been vested in any other person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 28.

Base fees when united with the immediate reversions enlarged instead of being merged.

29. Every disposition of lands under this Act by a tenant in tail thereof shall be effected by some one of the assurances (not being a will) by which such tenant in tail could, before The Ontario Judicature Act, 1881, have made the disposition if his estate were an estate at law in fee simple absolute; but no disposition by a tenant in tail shall be of any force, under this Act, unless made or evidenced by deed; and no dispo-

Tenant in tail may make a disposition by deed but not by will or contract. 44 V. c. 5.

sition by a tenant in tail resting only in contract, either express or implied, or otherwise, and whether supported by a valuable or meritorious consideration or not, shall be of any force under this Act, notwithstanding such disposition is made or evidenced by deed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 29; 47 V. c. 19, s. 22.

Assurances by a tenant in tail, other than certain leases to be inoperative unless registered within six months.

30. No assurance by which any disposition of lands is effected under this Act by a tenant in tail thereof (except a lease for any term not exceeding twenty-one years, to commence from the date of such lease, or from any time not exceeding twelve months from the date of such lease, where a rent is thereby reserved, which, at the time of granting such a lease is rack-rent, or not less than five-sixth parts of a rack-rent) shall have any operation under this Act unless it is registered in the registry office of the registry division wherein the lands referred to lie, within six months after the execution thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 30.

Consent of protector to be by the same or a distinct deed.

31. The consent of a protector of a settlement to the disposition under this Act of a tenant in tail, shall be given either by the same assurance by which the disposition is effected, or by a deed distinct from the assurance, and executed either on or at any time before the day on which the assurance is made, otherwise the consent shall be void. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 31.

If by distinct deed, to be deemed unqualified unless otherwise expressed.

32. If the protector of a settlement gives his consent to the disposition of a tenant in tail by a distinct deed, it shall be considered that such protector has given an absolute and unqualified consent, unless in such deed he refers to the particular assurance by which the disposition is effected, and confines his consent to the disposition thereby made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 32.

Protector not to revoke his consent.

33. The protector of a settlement, who, under this Act has given his consent to the disposition of a tenant in tail, shall not revoke such consent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 33.

A married woman protector.

34. A married woman, being, either alone or jointly with her husband, protector of a settlement, may, under this Act in the same manner as if she were a feme sole, give her consent to the disposition of a tenant in tail. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 34.

Consent by distinct deed void, unless registered with or before assurance.

35. The consent of a protector to the disposition of a tenant in tail shall, if given by a deed distinct from the assurance by which the disposition is effected by the tenant in tail, be void, unless such deed is registered in the registry office of the registry division wherein the lands referred to lie, either at or before the time of the registry of the assurance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 35.

36. In cases of disposition of lands under this Act by tenants in tail thereof, and also in cases of consents by protectors of settlements to dispositions of lands under this Act by tenants in tail thereof, the equitable jurisdiction of the Courts shall be altogether excluded, either on the behalf of a person claiming for a valuable or meritorious consideration, or not, in regard to the specific performance of contracts and the supplying of defects in the execution either of the powers of disposition given by this Act to tenants in tail, or of the powers of consent given by this Act to protectors of settlements, and the supplying under any circumstances of the want of execution of such powers of disposition and consent respectively, and in regard to giving effect in any other manner to any act or deed by a tenant in tail or protector of a settlement, which in a Court of Law, before the passing of the The Administration of Justice Act of 1873, would not, but for the provisions conferring equitable jurisdiction on Courts of Law enacted by the said Act, and re-enacted in the Revised Statutes, 1877, be an effectual disposition or consent within the meaning of this Act; and no disposition of lands under this Act by a tenant in tail thereof in Equity, and no consent by a protector of a settlement to a disposition of land under this Act by a tenant in tail thereof in Equity, shall be of any force, unless such disposition or consent would have been, in case of an estate tail at Law, before the said Administration of Justice Act, an effectual disposition or consent within the meaning of this Act in a Court of Law, but for the provisions aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 36.

Equitable jurisdiction of the Courts excluded from giving any effect to dispositions in tail, etc.

36 V. c. 8.

37. In every case in which the High Court is the protector of a settlement, such Court, while protector of such settlement, shall, on motion or petition in a summary way by a tenant in tail under such settlement, have full power to consent to a disposition, under this Act, by such tenant in tail; and the disposition to be made by such tenant in tail upon such motion or petition as aforesaid, shall be such as may be approved of by the said Court, and the said Court may make such orders in the matter as may be thought necessary; and if such Court, in lieu of any such person as aforesaid, is the protector of a settlement, and there is any other person protector of the same settlement jointly with such person as aforesaid, then and in every such case the disposition by the tenant in tail, though approved of as aforesaid, shall not be valid, unless such other person, being protector as aforesaid, consents thereto in the manner in which the consent of the protector is by this Act required to be given. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 37.

When the High Court may consent to a disposition by a tenant in tail and make such orders as are thought necessary.

38. In every case in which the High Court is the protector of a settlement, no document or instrument, as evidence of the consent of such protector to the disposition of a tenant in tail under such settlement, shall be requisite beyond the order in obedience to which the disposition has been made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100, s. 38.

Order of the High Court to be evidence of consent.

Mode of disposition of money subject to be invested in lands to be entailed.

39. Lands to be sold, whether freehold or leasehold, or of any other tenure, where the money arising from the sale thereof is subject to be invested in the purchase of lands to be settled, so that any person, if the lands were purchased, would have an estate tail therein, and also money subject to be invested in the purchase of lands to be settled, so that any person, if the lands were purchased, would have an estate tail therein, shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be treated as the lands to be purchased, and be considered subject to the same estates as the lands to be purchased would, if purchased, have been actually subject to; and all the previous clauses in this Act, so far as circumstances will admit, shall, in the case of the lands to be sold as aforesaid being either freehold or leasehold, or of any other tenure, apply to such lands in the same manner as if the lands to be purchased with the money to arise from the sale thereof were directed to be freehold, and were actually purchased and settled; and shall, in case of money subject to be invested in the purchase of lands to be so settled as aforesaid, apply to such money in the same manner as if such money were directed to be laid out in the purchase of freehold lands, and such lands were actually purchased and settled; except that in every case, where under this section a disposition is to be made of leasehold lands for years absolute or determinable, so circumstanced as aforesaid, or of money so circumstanced as aforesaid, such leasehold lands or money shall, as to the person in whose favour or for whose benefit the disposition is made, be treated as personal estate, and the assurance by which the disposition of such leasehold lands or money is effected shall be an assignment by deed, which shall have no operation under this Act unless registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the lands therein referred to lie, within six months after the execution thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 100. s. 39.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Partition Act." R. S. O. Short title. 1877, c. 101, s. 1.

2. Where the following words occur in this Act they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears—

1. "Land" and "Lands" shall include lands, tenements, "Land." and hereditaments, and all estates and interests therein ;

2. "Petitioner" or "Plaintiff" shall include all parties petitioning by virtue of this Act; and all parties, or those made parties to the proceedings under this Act (other than the plaintiffs or petitioners), shall be defendants. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 2.

Jurisdiction
of High Court.

3. In regard to the partition and sale of estates of joint-tenants, tenants in common and coparceners, the High Court, in addition to the powers hereinafter conferred, shall possess the same jurisdiction as by the laws of England on the 10th of August, 1850, was possessed by the Court of Chancery in England, and also as by the laws in force in Ontario, was possessed by the Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas. presentative

4. The Judge of the Surrogate Court in every county shall be the real representative for all real property within the county, in respect of or to which any person being seised of, or entitled to any estate in fee simple therein, dies intestate, and for all other purposes hereinafter mentioned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 3.

All parties having interest or lien may be compelled to make partition or sale.

5. All joint tenants, tenants in common, and co-parceners, all dowresses, and parties entitled to dower, tenants by the curtesy, mortgagees or other creditors having liens on, and all parties whosever interested in, to or out of, any lands in Ontario, may be compelled to make or suffer partition or sale of the said lands, or any part or parts thereof, as hereinafter mentioned and provided, and the partition may be had whether the estate is legal or equitable, or equitable only. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, ss. 4, 7.

In what Court proceedings to be instituted.

6. Where the lands are situate in two or more counties, the proceedings shall be instituted in the High Court, and where the lands are situate in one county only, the proceedings may be instituted in the County Court of the county, or in the High Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 5.

Proceedings removable from County Court to High Court.

7. The proceedings, upon petition, if commenced in a County Court, may at any time before judgment be removed into the High Court by certiorari, to be allowed by a Judge of the Court, on security being given by the party applying for the certiorari, for the costs of the proceedings on petition, to the satisfaction of the Judge; and upon any final judgment, decree or order, an appeal may be had by any of the parties interested, in the same manner, and with the same consequences, as in other cases of appeal from the decision of any Court rendering such judgment, decree or order. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 6.

Any parties interested may petition for partition or sale.

8. Any party interested in any land in this Province, or the duly authorized agent of such party, or the guardian (duly appointed by a Surrogate Court) of an infant entitled to the immediate possession of any estate therein, may file a petition in any of the Courts aforesaid, praying that partition of such lands may be made, or that the same may be sold under the directions of the Court wherein the proceedings are taken, or of a Judge thereof: provided that such sale be considered by the said Court or Judge more advantageous to the parties interested: but no proceedings shall be taken under this Act until one year next after the decease of the testator or party dying intestate, in whom the lands or estate in lands to be so partitioned or sold may be vested. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 8

9. All proceedings under this Act shall be entitled in the Court in which the same are instituted, and shall be further described as follows:

"In the matter of partition between A. B. (naming the petitioner, or if more than one, naming all the petitioners in full), plaintiff (or plaintiffs), and C. D. (naming every then known party having any legal estate in the lands other than the petitioners) defendants."

R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 9.

10. Every party having, at the time of filing the petition, any interest as aforesaid, shall be made a party to the partition proceedings; and the petition shall particularly describe the lands sought to be partitioned or sold, and shall also set forth the interest of the petitioner or petitioners therein, and his, or their respective place or places of residence and occupation, and the estate, rights and titles of all parties interested therein in anywise whatsoever, so far as the same are known to the party or parties petitioning as aforesaid; and in case one or more of such parties, or the share or extent of interest, or estate in the said lands of any party interested, is or are unknown to the petitioner or petitioners, he or they shall set forth the fact thereof in the petition. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 10.

Every person having an interest shall be made party.

What petition shall set forth.

11.—(1) The truth of the petition, and matters contained therein, shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of at least one petitioner, or his agent or guardian, as the case may be. The oath or affirmation may be taken before a Judge of any of the said Courts, a Commissioner for taking affidavits therein, or a Notary Public. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 11; 48 V. c. 16, s. 1.

To be verified by oath.

(2) If in such case there is more than one infant defendant, for whom service is to be made on the official guardian, one copy only need be so served.

(3) From the time of such service the official guardian shall become and be the guardian ad litem of the infant unless and until the Court otherwise orders; and it shall be his duty forthwith to attend actively to the interests of the infant in the action, and for that purpose to communicate with all proper parties, including the father or guardian (if any) of the infant, and also the person with whom or under whose care the infant resides, in case such person is not the infant's father or guardian; and the guardian is to make such other inquiries and to take such other proceedings as the interests of the infant may require. 44 V. c. 5, Rule 36, part.

In case party interested be an infant.

12. In case any of the parties interested, other than a petitioner by guardian, is an infant, and the petition is not served on the official guardian under the preceding section, and in case it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court or a Judge that at least fourteen days' notice has been served on the infant, if resident in the Province of Ontario, or otherwise served as hereinafter provided, that proceedings will be taken under this Act for the partition or sale of the lands, and that the Court or Judge will be applied to, at the time and place specified in the notice, to appoint a guardian to represent the infant in the proceedings, the Court or Judge shall and may thereupon, whether the said infant resides within or without the Province, appoint a suitable and disinterested person to be a guardian for the infant for the special purpose of taking charge of the interests of the infant in the proceedings upon the petition. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 12.

Guardians to enter into a bond with sureties.

13. Every guardian appointed under the preceding section unless he is the official guardian, shall, before entering upon his duties, execute to the real representative of the county wherein the estate, or any part thereof, is situate, by his own name of office as Surrogate Judge and real representative for the county, and his successors in office, and according to the terms of the rule or order appointing the guardian, a bond in such penalty, and with such sureties as the Court in which the proceedings are to be taken, or a Judge thereof presiding in Chambers, directs, and to be allowed by an officer of the Court to be named in the order, upon proper proof of the sufficiency thereof, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the trust committed to the guardian, and to render a just and true account of his guardianship when required by the Court or a Judge thereof, and upon such further conditions as the Court or Judge may direct; and no proceedings shall be taken upon the petition until the bond has been filed in the office wherein the petition has been filed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 13; 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

Guardians to represent infants.

14. After the execution and filing of the bond, the guardian shall represent the infant in the proceedings upon the petition; and his acts in relation thereto shall be binding on the infant, and shall be as valid as if done by the infant after having arrived at full age. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 14.

Proof against and consent on behalf of infant.

15. It shall be necessary that everything be proved against the infant, and it shall not be competent for a guardian to give any consent on behalf of an infant, but the Court or Judge may, on behalf of an infant, where it is deemed advisable in the interest of the infant, consent to such proceeding. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 15.

Appointment of guardian to estate of person unheard of for three years.

16. If any party interested in the estate respecting which proceedings are, or are proposed to be, taken under this Act, has not been heard of for three years or upwards, and it is a matter of uncertainty whether such party is living or dead, it shall be competent for a Judge to appoint a suitable and disinterested person to be a guardian, for the special purpose of taking charge of the interest of the said party and of those who, in the event of his being dead, are entitled to his share or interest in the estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 16.

17. The application may be made by any one interested in the said estate, and the Judge making the appointment may give such directions as may be necessary for the execution of sufficient bonds which shall be entered into by the guardian so appointed, with sureties in the manner provided by section 13 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 17.

Application to appoint guardian

18. After the execution and filing of the bond, the guardian shall, in the proceedings, represent the said party, and those who, should he be dead, are entitled to his share or interest in the estate, and whether they or any of them are infants or otherwise under disability; and his acts in relation to such share or interest shall be binding on such party, and all others claiming or entitled to claim under or through him, and shall be as valid as if done by him or them. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 18.

guardian.

19. It shall be competent for the Court in which the proceedings are taken, upon proof of such long continued absence of the said party as affords reasonable ground for believing him to be dead, upon the application of the guardian, or any one interested in the estate represented by the guardian, to deal with the estate or interest of such party, or the proceeds thereof, and order the payment of the proceeds, or the income or produce thereof, to the person who, in the event of the said party being regarded as dead, appears entitled to the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 19.

Power of the Court to deal with the estate.

20. Any guardian appointed under this Act shall be at liberty to apply to the Court from time to time, for direction and guidance in the management of the estate, and for compensation for his services in connection therewith; and the Court, or Judge may make all such orders, and give such directions in reference thereto, as appear just. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 20.

Guardian may apply to the Court for guidance.

21.—(1) It shall not be compulsory, in the first instance, to make any person having a lien, on the estate, or any part thereof, by decree, mortgage or otherwise, a party to the proceedings, but the petitioner may make such creditor a party, and, in such case, the petition shall set forth the nature of the lien or incumbrance; and if the lien or incumbrance is on the undivided interest or estate of any of the parties to the petition, it shall be a lien only on the share of such party; and such share or estate, as the case may be, shall be first charged with its just proportion of the costs of the proceedings in partition in preference to any such lien.

Incumbrancers may be made parties after proceedings commenced.

Proviso.

(2) If the person having the lien is not made a party to the proceedings, his lien shall not be impaired or affected thereby. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 21.

How petition served when all parties in Ontario.

22.—(1) In cases where all the parties interested, or known to be interested, in the estate respecting which the proceedings are taken under this Act, are residents, or happen, for the time being, to be in the Province, a copy of the petition, with notice that the same will be presented to the Court wherein the proceedings are taken, or a Judge thereof presiding in Chambers, on some day and hour to be named therein, shall be personally served thirty clear days previous to the day of presenting the same as aforesaid, on all the parties, whether infants or not, resident or being as aforesaid in the Province, who are interested in the lands and estate in question, or on any duly authorized agent or attorney of any of the parties interested in the estate.

(2) Every such notice shall be addressed to all the parties interested who are known, and generally to all others who are unknown, having or claiming any interest in the estate, or whom it may concern.

(3) It shall not be necessary to serve the petition or notice upon a guardian appointed as aforesaid, if the same has been previously served upon the infant for whom the guardian has been appointed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 22.

How petition served when parties are unknown, or reside abroad, etc.

23.—(1) If any parties having such interest are unknown, or if known, reside out of the Province, or cannot be found therein, and have no known attorney or agent residing therein, the petition and notice may be served upon them, or any of them, by publication of a notice which shall set forth the names of the plaintiffs and defendants, and shall be directed to the defendants and to all unknown persons having or claiming any interest in the land, and describing it as it is described in the petition, and stating the Court to which, and the time and place when and where, the petition will be presented, and calling upon all persons then and there to appear and state what claims, if any, they have to the land, and stating that in default of their so appearing the matter will be proceeded with in their absence.

(2) The form of the notice shall be settled in each case by the Judge before publication thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 23.

Publication of notice in Gazette and news-papers.

24. The notice shall be published in the Ontario Gazette for four weeks before the presentation of the petition, and in a paper published in the county within which the lands lie, and if there is no such paper, then in a newspaper published in the City of Toronto once in each week for four weeks before the time when the petition is to be presented. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 24.

25. A copy of the notice shall be put up at or near the door of the court house of the county wherein the lands lie more than four weeks before such time, and shall at the same time be put up at the school-house of the section or school division within which the land is situate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 25.

Notice to be posted on court-house and school house.

26. Such publication, upon proof thereof by affidavit, shall to all intents and purposes be equivalent to personal service upon all or any such unknown or absent parties. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 26.

Publication of notice equivalent to personal service.

27. The petition and notice may be personally served, without such publication, on any known absent party or upon his solicitor or agent if he has any, residing in Ontario, thirty clear days previous to the presentation thereof, and the reasonable costs of serving any absent party shall be taxable as costs of the proceedings. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 27.

Service may be made upon solicitor or agent in Ontario.

28. Upon the presentation of a petition and upon such proof of service or publication thereof, with the notice as aforesaid, and of the facts justifying the mode of publication, as may be satisfactory, the Court or a Judge thereof presiding in Chambers shall and may by order allow the petition. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 28.

Allowance of petition.

29. Immediately after the allowance of the petition, upon the application of the party prosecuting the same, the officer with whom the petition has been filed, shall sign a certificate which shall set forth that the petition was allowed for partition of the lands and tenements, describing them, which certificate may be registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the lands lie. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 29.

Registration certificate of allowance.

30. Upon the petition being allowed, notice of the order of allowance, copies thereof, and all other orders, copies, notices or other paper writings in any proceeding, subsequent to the service of the petition, unless otherwise in this Act specially directed, may be served on the solicitor of any party defending, and in case there is no solicitor, by posting up the same in the office in the county wherein the estate or any part thereof is situate of the Registrar or Deputy Clerk of the Crown when the proceedings are in the Queen's Bench or Common Pleas Division, and in the office of the Clerk of Records and Writs, or Deputy Registrar when the proceedings are in the Chancery Division, and in the office of the Clerk of the County Court when the proceedings are in a County Court, which posting shall be equivalent to and as effectual as personal service on the party or parties to be affected thereby. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 30.

How notice of allowance, etc., served.

Parties interested may appear and shew title.

31. Upon the allowance of the petition the parties interested in the estate shall and may appear in person or by solicitor, and by a concise statement of facts under oath, by way of defence, and further, according to the practice of the Court in which the petition has been filed, shew title as to the proportions which they or any of them claim of the premises set forth in the petition, within fifteen days next after being served with a copy of the order, with a notice annexed thereto or endorsed thereon, requiring them to answer within the time above specified. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 31.

Parties may plead, etc.

32. A party appearing may answer under oath, either separately or jointly with one or more of his co-defendants, that the petitioners, or any of them, at the time of prosecuting the petition, were not entitled to or in possession of the premises or any part thereof; or that the defendants, or any of them, had no interest in the premises, or did not hold the same, together with the petitioners, at the time of the commencement of the proceedings as alleged in the petition: or such other matter as such person shall desire to set up in answer according to the facts; and, at the expiration of the fifteen days allowed for answering, the petitioner or petitioners may, upon a verified copy of the petition and of all pleadings that may have been filed as aforesaid, and upon exhibiting prima facie proof of his, or their title, and upon such statement or affidavit as may be necessary, apply to the Court or a Judge in Chambers to finally determine any issues or questions raised by any party or parties interested; or for an order directing the trial of any issues of fact that may have been raised by the pleadings; or that a special case may be stated for the opinion of the Court in which the petition has been filed; or both for the trial of an issue of fact or law; or for any other order that the Court or a Judge may think proper under the circumstances. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 32.

Issues to be tried thereon.

33. All issues joined and ordered to be tried by the Court or a jury, shall be tried by the Court or jury, in the same manner as other issues are determined, on a record made up of the petition and of the defence pleaded thereto; and the like proceedings shall be had thereupon in every respect as to new trials or amendments, and any other particulars as in ordinary actions; and any special case so ordered as aforesaid, may be made up and proceeded upon, inclusive of signing judgment thereon, in like manner as the law directs for the practice as to special cases. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 33.

Proceedings in default of answer, etc.

34. If none of the parties answer within fifteen days next after the service as aforesaid of the order of allowance of the petition, the petitioner shall be at liberty to sign judgment of partition, and thereupon and upon giving and serving fifteen days' written notice thereof, in manner hereinbefore provided, and upon exhibiting the evidence and proof in the next section of this Act mentioned, may apply to the Court or a Judge for the order mentioned in the next and following sections and proceed in the manner in the said sections provided. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 34.

35.—(1) The petitioners shall, whether or not the other parties who have been called upon to appear and answer have appeared and answered, exhibit prima facie proof of their title at the time of the application for the order for partition; or if an issue in fact has been ordered or a special case stated as aforesaid, then upon the final determination of the questions of law or fact, (if any,) so ordered to be tried as aforesaid, or in any or either of the cases aforesaid, the Court or a Judge shall, by order, determine and declare the rights, title and interests of all the parties concerned, and thereby order the real representative to proceed as hereinafter directed according to such rights, but not so as to affect any parties whose rights have not been ascertained. Petitioners to prove title, etc.

36. The Court or Judge shall, by the order of partition in the last section mentioned, direct the real representative to make the partition so adjudged according to the respective rights and interests of the parties, as the same may have been ascertained and determined as aforesaid; and in the order the Court or the Judge shall designate the parts or shares which remain undivided for the owners whose interests are unknown and not ascertained; and the real representative shall forthwith proceed to make such partition, according to the judgment of the Court or Judge, unless it appears to him that the partition cannot be made without prejudice to the owners of the estate, in which case he shall make a return of such fact to the Court in writing under his hand. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 36. Order on real representative to make partition.

37. In making the partition the real representative shall divide the real estate and allot the several portions and shares thereof to the respective parties so adjudged as aforesaid, designating the several shares by posts, stones or other permanent monuments; and he may employ a surveyor to assist him therein; and he shall make or cause to be made a true and accurate plan or map and field book of the land, and shall describe particularly the metes and bounds of the same; and he shall return to the Court or Judge having cognizance of the proceedings, the plan or map, field book and description, and shall report to the Court or Judge in writing the manner in which he has divided the estate, and the share allotted to each party, with the quantity, courses and distances of the bound- How partition shall be made.

Report and return thereon.

aries of each share, and a description of the posts, stones or other monuments, together with an account of his fees, which fees, together with any charges for surveys, shall be ascertained and allowed by the Court or Judge; and the amount shall be paid by the petitioners, and shall be allowed to them as part of the costs to be taxed against the estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 37.

Report to be proved, etc.

38. The report shall be proved by affidavit before a notary public or a commissioner for taking affidavits, and shall be filed in the Court; and a copy thereof, after the report is confirmed by the Court, and certified under the hand of the registrar or clerk of the Court, and under the seal of the Court, shall be registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the estate is situate, on the production of the copy to the registrar. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 38; 48 V. c. 16, s. 1.

Report to be confirmed or remitted for amendment.

39. Upon the return of the report, the Court or a Judge in Chambers may confirm the same, or remit the same back to the real representative for amendment in any particular or particulars in which there is manifest error; and upon a final confirmation a Judge's order may be granted and obtained, confirming in due form the said report; and the order shall be binding and conclusive on all known parties named in the petition, and where publication has been made as aforesaid, then also upon all unknown and absent parties, and all persons claiming from or through them; but the judgment shall not affect any person or persons having claims as tenants, tenants in dower, or by the curtesy, or for life, to the premises which form the subject of the partition, nor any person not named in the petition, either originally or by amendment, nor any unknown person, where there has not been publication as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 39.

Effect of confirmation.

Sale if partition prejudicial.

40. Upon the report of the real representative that it appears to him that partition cannot be made without prejudice to the owners of, or parties interested in the estate, the Court or a Judge in Chambers may order a sale of the estate, if deemed prudent so to do; and, by an order to be made on filing the report, may direct and order the real representative to cause the estate, or any part thereof, to be sold by a fit and proper duly licensed auctioneer (to be approved of by the real representative), at public auction to the highest bidder, reserving to the real representative power, from time to time, to adjourn the sale, if in his judgment an adequate price is not bid for the estate, or any part thereof; and in the order, the Court or Judge shall direct the terms of payment of the purchase money, and the credit which may be allowed for any portions thereof, of which the Court or Judge may think proper to direct the investment, and which are required, by the provisions hereinafter contained, to be invested for the benefit of any unknown owners, infants, parties out of the Province, or any tenants for life, in dower, or by curtesy or otherwise ; and the portions of the purchase money for which credit is allowed shall be secured at interest by a mortgage of the premises sold, by a covenant or bond of the purchaser, and by such other security as the Court or Judge aforesaid may prescribe in the order, or direct. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 40.

[See Cap. 108, ss. 54-58, as to preference of purchase given to the person who would have been heir-at-law prior to 1st Jan., 1852.]

41—(1) The real representative may take separate mortgages or other securities for such convenient shares or portions of the purchase money as have been directed to be invested as aforesaid, in his name of office as Surrogate Judge and real representative for the county, and his successors in office, and for such shares as have been directed to be invested in the name of any known owner or party interested of full age, in the name of such person. Mortgages taken on sale.

(2) Upon the sale being confirmed, the real representative shall deliver the mortgage to the clerk or registrar of the Court as the case may be, or deliver or assign the same to the known owner of the full age of twenty-one years, whose share has been ascertained and so invested. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 41.

42. Where the notice of the petition has been published as required by this Act, the order for sale shall state that the notice has been so published, and that the sale will bind absent persons, whether known or unknown. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 42. Order for sale.

43. Before making an order for sale, where the plaintiff desires to bind absent or unknown persons, the Court or Judge shall be satisfied that all persons who are known have been served with notice of the proceedings, and that the proper publication has taken place as directed by this Act; and the party prosecuting the proceedings shall produce to the Court or Judge, in addition to all title deeds, an abstract of the title of the lot, certified by the registrar of the registry division in which the lands lie. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 43. Orders binding absent or unknown persons.

44. Before making an order for sale, where any creditors have specific liens on the whole estate, or any undivided interest or estate therein of any of the parties, by means of any mortgage or other lien or security sufficient to bind lands according to the law of this Province, the Court or Judge in Chambers shall direct a reference to an officer of the Court, to be named in the order to ascertain and report whether the shares or interests in the premises of the parties in the proceeding, or any of them, are subject to any and what general lien or incumbrance as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 44. Reference as to liens, charges, etc.

Reference may be embodied in order for sale.

45. The reference may be embodied in the order directing a sale, and the order may direct payment out of the proceeds of the sale of the lands of such liens or charges. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 45.

Proceedings
on reference.

46. The officer to whom the reference is directed shall forthwith cause a notice to be published once in each week for three weeks, in some paper, if there is one, published in the county or counties where the lands are situate, or if there is none published therein, then in a paper published in the nearest county thereto, requiring all parties having any lien or incumbrance as aforesaid, on the whole or any part of the estate, to produce to the said officer, on or before a certain day to be named in the notice, full particulars of all such liens and incumbrances, together with satisfactory evidence of the amount due thereon; and the said officer shall immediately thereafter report to the Court or Judge the names of the creditors, the nature and extent of the incumbrance, the date thereof, and the several amounts appearing to be due thereon; and thereupon the Court or Judge, in the order directing the real representative to partition or sell the lands, shall also make reference to such liens and incumbrances, and define the same; and the real representative shall, in making the partition, be governed accordingly; and in any order directing the sale of the lands, or any part thereof, the Court or Judge shall and may authorize and direct the real representative to pay, satisfy and discharge the amounts of the liens or incumbrances so ascertained, with any accrued interest thereon, up to the time of payment thereof, after deducting therefrom the portion of costs, charges and expenses to which the same may be liable. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 46.

Creditors,
etc., may apply for payment out of
money.

47. Any party entitled as creditor as aforesaid or otherwise to a share of the estate, may apply to the Court or a Judge to order the part of the purchase money which he claims to be paid to him, on affidavit shewing the amount truly due on each incumbrance (if any), the owner of the incumbrance and his residence, so far as known to such party, and also on proof of the due service of a notice on the petitioners and parties to the proceedings, and on every other incumbrancer, or on their solicitors or agents, of the intention to make the application at least fifteen days previous thereto, such service in any case where not made on the solicitor or agent, to be personal, or on a grown-up person at the usual or last known place of abode of the person to be served, if residing in this Province, and if residing out of this Province, sixty days previous thereto, or by previously publishing the notice once a week for two calendar months in a weekly paper published in the county or counties where the estate is situate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 47.

48. The real representative shall and may, upon due proofs of identity, and upon the amounts thereof being ascertained and proved as aforesaid, upon the order of the Court or Judge in that behalf granted, pay each creditor as aforesaid from and out of the purchase money, the amount of his claim according to the priority thereof respectively, and shall cause the same to be duly discharged of record, first defraying and deducting the expenses and costs out of the moneys payable on the share or shares which were so incumbered; but the proceedings to ascertain the amount of the incumbrances shall not affect or delay the paying over or investing of money to or for any party upon whose estate in the premises there does not appear to be any existing incumbrance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 48.

Real representative may pay creditors on order of Court.

49.—(1) In case of an action or proceeding for partition or administration in which a partition or sale of land is ordered, and in which the estate of any tenant in dower or tenant by the curtesy or for life is established, if the person entitled to the estate is a party the Court or Judge shall determine whether the estate ought to be exempted from the sale or whether the same should be sold; and in making such determination regard shall be had to the interests of all the parties.

Sale of estate of tenant in dower, by the curtesy or for life.

(2) If a sale is ordered including such estate, all the estate and interest of every such tenant shall pass thereby; and no conveyance or release to the purchaser shall be required from such tenant; and the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, shall hold the premises freed and discharged from all claims by virtue of the estate or interest of any such tenant, whether the same be to any undivided share, or to the whole or any part of the premises sold.

(3) In such case the Court or Judge may direct the payment of such sum in gross out of the purchase money to the person entitled to dower or estate by the curtesy or for life, as may be deemed, upon the principles applicable to life annuities, a reasonable satisfaction for such estate; or may direct the payment, to the person entitled to dower or estate by the curtesy or for life, of an annual sum, or of the income or interest to be derived from the purchase money or any part thereof, as may seem just, and for that purpose may make such order for the investment or other disposition of the purchase money or any part thereof as may be necessary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 49 (1); 42 V. c. 22, s. 5.

50. Where a married woman is a party to such action or proceedings in respect to an inchoate right of dower, then in case of sale, the Court shall determine the value of such right according to the principles applicable to deferred annuities and survivorships, and shall order the amount of such value to be paid; or shall order the payment to such married woman, of an annual sum, or of such income or interest as is provided in the preceding section, and such payment shall be a bar to any right or claim of dower. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 49 (2). 42 V. c. 22, s. 6.

Determining value of claim to inchoate right of dower.

Notices of sale.

51. The real representative shall give notice of any sale to be made by him for such time and in such manner as he may see fit; and the terms of such sale shall be set out in the notice and made known at the time of the sale; and after the completion thereof, he shall report the same in writing to the Court, with a description of the different parcels of land sold to each purchaser, and the prices at which the same have been sold; and, at the expiration of fifteen days next after the said sale and the due filing of the report, the sales may be approved and confirmed by the Court or a Judge thereof; and an order shall be made directing the real representative to execute deeds pursuant to such sales; and the deeds so executed shall be recorded in the registry office of the registry division in which the lands lie in the same manner as other deeds, and shall be a bar against all known parties interested in the premises, and against all unknown parties where notice was published as aforesaid, and against all persons claiming under or through them, and also against all incumbrancers where the notice hereinbefore mentioned has been given to them, in manner and form aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 50.

Confirmation of sale.

Conveyances.

Estates of married women, etc., to be bound.

52. Any partition or sale made by the High Court shall be as effectual for the apportioning or conveying away of the estate or interest of any married woman, infant or lunatic, party to the proceedings by which the sale or partition is made or declared, as of any person competent to act for himself. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 55.

Office copy of judgment, etc., to be evidence.

53. An office copy of the judgment, order or report declaring or effecting a partition or sale by the High Court shall be sufficient evidence in all Courts of the partition declared thereby, and of the several holdings by the parties of the shares thereby allotted to them. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 56.

Deed.

54. Where the notice of the petition has been published as required by this Act, the deed to be executed by the real representative shall set forth the order for sale; and the said deed shall vest in the purchaser an absolute and indefeasible title to the estates and interests, in the lands partitioned, to which all or any of the parties interested therein as co-tenants with the petitioner, or any one claiming under them or any or either of them, or under the petitioner are entitled, and shall be conclusive evidence that every application, notice, publication, proceeding and act whatsoever which ought to have been given and done previously to the execution of the same, has been given and done by the proper parties. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 51.

Effect of Deed.

55. The Court or a Judge in Chambers shall apportion the costs of the proceedings on the petition, according to the respective shares and interests of the parties, known or unknown, and shall direct the same to be paid to the petitioners, and such order shall operate as a judgment for such costs, and, on a copy thereof being filed in the registry office of the registry division in which the lands lie, shall be a charge for such proportion against the shares representing such proportion; and execution may issue therefor; and such share or interest may be sold thereon, and a valid title on the sale be given to the purchaser thereof, as in the case of sales by sheriffs on execution; and, if judgment is rendered against the petitioners for any cause, the Court or Judge aforesaid shall adjudge costs against them, to be recovered as in ordinary actions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 52.

Apportionment of the costs.

56. The proceeds of the sale, after deducting all costs, shall be divided among the parties whose rights and interests have been sold, in proportion to their respective rights in the premises; and the shares of such as are of full age shall be paid to them by the real representative, and, in the case of infants, unknown or absent parties, shall be invested for them in the name of the real representative and his successors in office, until lawfully claimed by them or their legal representatives; and the real representative may, in his discretion, require all or any of the parties, before they receive any share of the moneys arising from the sale, to give security to his satisfaction that they will refund the said shares with interest thereon in case it should thereafter appear that such parties were not entitled thereto. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 53.

Application of proceeds.

57. All securities shall be taken in the name of the real representative and his successors in office, and the real representative shall keep, and see to the due collection of such securities. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 54 (1).

How securities taken.

58. The Court or Judge may, if it or he thinks fit, direct the interest, or an adequate portion thereof, accruing from time to time on any minor's share, to be applied towards his maintenance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 54 (2).

Allowance for maintenance of infants.

59. All investments of moneys received from sales under this Act shall be made in Dominion stock, or other public security of the Dominion of Canada, or of this Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 55.

How moneys invested.

60.—(1) All moneys which may be from time to time payable in respect of sales under this Act, or of securities taken in the name of the Surrogate Judge, shall be paid into some incorporated bank designated for this purpose, from time to time, by order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; or where there is no such bank, then into some incorporated bank in which public money of the Province is then being deposited.

Payment into Court.

Procedure. (2) The money shall be so paid in to the credit of the matter in which the payment is made, with the privity of the clerk of the County Court, and in no other manner; and such money shall only be withdrawn or reinvested on the order of the Court or a Judge thereof, with the privity of the clerk of the Court.

Clerk to keep books and render statements. (3) The clerk shall keep a book or books containing an account of all moneys so paid in, and of the withdrawal thereof; and shall prepare in the month of January in every year a statement of all moneys so paid in and withdrawn, or reinvested respectively, and a statement of the condition of the various accounts upon the 31st day of the preceding December, and shall transmit to the Provincial Secretary and to the real representative, a copy of the statement, with a declaration thereto annexed made before a justice of the peace, notary public or commissioner for taking affidavits in the form following:

Verification of statement by Clerk. I hereby solemnly declare that the annexed statement is a full and true statement of the moneys paid into the Court, to the credit of the real representative of the County of _____, under The Partition Act, during the year 18____, and that it correctly shews the state of the various accounts therein mentioned upon the thirty-first day of December last.

(Signature) A. B.,
Clerk.

Subscribed and declared before me, at _____, this _____ day of January, 18____.

C. D., Commissioner for taking affidavits, or as the case may be.

Books to be open for inspection. (4) The book or books so to be kept shall be open for inspection within office hours; and the clerk shall give a certificate of the state of any account or an extract therefrom at the desire of any party interested, or his solicitor on payment to the clerk of the sum of twenty cents for such inspection or certificate and the sum of ten cents per folio for such extract. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 56; 48 V. c. 16, s. 1.

Investments before 23 Jan., 1869, declared valid. 61.—(1) All investments made prior to the 23rd day of January, 1869, on mortgage of real estate, and all acts and proceedings before said day done and performed, by virtue of the Partition Acts then in force, by any real representative shall be and the same are hereby declared valid and effectual.

Releases and discharges. (2) The successors in office, or any of them, of any deceased or other real representative, or any real representative for the time being, shall be and each of them is hereby duly empowered, upon payment having been made to any predecessor or himself in full of any sum or sums of money secured by mortgage, by virtue of this or any former Partition Act, to any predecessor or deceased predecessor in his lifetime, or to any successor or successors in office as such Surrogate Judge and real representative, or to himself, to execute and grant all necessary releases and discharges of the same in manner and form provided by The Registry Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 57.

62. The Judge or Junior or acting Judge of the County Court for the time being shall, in case of the decease or absence of the proper Surrogate Judge, be and he is hereby vested, for the time being, with all the functions, powers and authorities for the county, of the person hereby appointed the real representative, and shall perform the duties thereof till the appointment of or return of the Surrogate Judge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 58.

63. Proceedings under this Act shall not abate or be suspended by any death, or transmission or change of interest, but in any such event, if known, the Court or Judge may require notices to be given to persons becoming interested, or may make such order for carrying on the proceedings, or otherwise, in relation thereto, as may be just. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 59.

64. The Court or a Judge shall have the same powers of amendment of all or any of the proceedings under this Act, as are possessed by the Court or a Judge in ordinary actions and proceedings pending in the Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 60.

65. In case at any time during the course of the proceedings it appears that any person not already a party thereto has any interest in the land, the Judge may, upon such terms as to him seem just, order such person to be named as a party and served with notice of the proceedings, and from the time of the service of the order, the said party shall be bound by the proceedings in the same manner as if he had actually been made a party to the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 61.

66. A Judge in Chambers shall have equal power and jurisdiction with the full Court, in all proceedings under this Act, as fully as if specially named therein, except where the word "Court" is in this Act used alone. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 62.

67. All affidavits, orders, reports and other papers and documents filed with any deputy clerk of the crown or deputy registrar, during the progress of any proceeding under this Act, shall be by him immediately thereafter transmitted to the registrar or clerk of records and writs, or other proper officer of the Division of the High Court in which the petition has been filed, as the case may be, to be preserved and safely kept as muniments of title. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 63.

68. In the month of January in each year the real representative, the registrar, the clerk of records and writs, or other officer of the Court having in any case the custody of any moneys, bonds, mortgages, securities or investments arising from the sales of such estates for the benefit of any unknown, absent, infant or lunatic parties, where no claim has been made on their behalf for any interest or principal of such investments during the preceding year, shall cause to be published in the Ontario Gazette and a weekly or daily paper published in the county in which the lands or any part thereof are situate, or if no such paper is published therein then in a daily or weekly paper published in the next adjoining or nearest county where such paper is published, weekly for the period of four weeks, a statement of the securities or investments remaining unclaimed, shewing the name of the intestate party, the amount unclaimed, and the property from which the claim has arisen; and such statement shall be verified by the real representative, clerk, or other officer aforesaid under oath; and a copy thereof shall be filed among the records of the Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 64.

Rules and orders.

Rev. Stat. c. 44, ss. 105, 108.

69. The Judges of the Supreme Court, acting under sections 105 and 108 of The Judicature Act, shall make such tariff of fees, Rules and Orders for the proceedings on petitions under this Act as they may deem expedient and advisable. R. S. O. 1877, c. 101, s. 65.

CHAPTER 105.

An Act respecting Short Forms of Conveyances.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Interpretation.

1. Where the words following occur in this Act, or in the Schedules thereto, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:

“Lands.”

1. “Lands” shall extend to all freehold tenements and hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, or any undivided part or share therein, respectively.

“Party.”

2. “Party” shall mean and include any body politic, or corporate, or collegiate, as well as an individual. R. S. O. 1877, c. 102, s. 1.

Where words of column 1 of Schedule B are employed the deed to have the same effect as if the words in column 2 were inserted.

2. Where a deed expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act, or referring thereto, contains any of the forms of words contained in column one of Schedule B hereto annexed, and distinguished by any number therein, such deed shall be taken to have the same effect, and be construed as if it contained the form of words contained in column two of said Schedule B, and distinguished by the same number as is annexed to the form of words used in the deed; but it shall not be necessary, in any such deed, to insert any such number. R. S. O. 1877, c. 102, s. 2.

3. Any deed or part of a deed which fails to take effect by virtue of this Act, shall, nevertheless, be as effectual to bind the parties thereto, as if this Act had not been made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 102, s. 3.

Deeds failing to take effect under this Act to be as valid as if Act not made.

4. Every such deed, unless an exception is specially made therein, shall be held and construed to include all houses, out-houses; edifices, barns, stables, yards, gardens, orchards, commons, trees, woods, underwoods, mounds, fences, hedges, ditches, ways, waters, water-courses, lights, liberties, privileges, easements, profits, commodities, emoluments, hereditaments and appurtenances whatsoever, to the lands therein comprised, belonging or in anywise appertaining, or with the same demised, held, used, occupied and enjoyed, or taken or known as part or parcel thereof; and if the same purports to convey an estate in fee, also the reversion or reversions, remainder and remainders, yearly and other rents, issues and profits of the same lands, and of every part and parcel thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, inheritance, use, trust, property, profit, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, of the grantor, in, to, out of, or upon the same lands, and every part and parcel thereof, with their and every of their appurtenances. R.S.O. 1877, c. 102, s. 4.

Deed to include all houses, etc., and the reversion and all the estate, etc.

5. The Schedules hereto, and the directions and forms therein contained, shall be deemed parts of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 102, s. 6.

Schedules, etc., to form part of Act.

SCHEDULE A.

FORM OF CONVEYANCE UNDER SECTION 2.

This Indenture made the _____ day of _____, one thousand eight hundred and _____ in pursuance of The Act respecting Short Forms of Conveyances, Between (here insert names of parties and recitals, if any,) Witnesseth, that in consideration of _____ dollars, of lawful money of Canada, now paid by the said (grantee) to the said (grantor) the receipt whereof is hereby by him acknowledged,) he the said (grantor) doth grant unto the said (grantee) in fee simple (or otherwise as the case may be) all, etc., (parcels)
(Here insert covenants, or any other provisions.)

In witness whereof, the said parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals.

R. S. O. 1877, c. 102, Sched. A.

SCHEDULE B.

(Section 2.)

DIRECTIONS AS TO THE FORMS IN THIS SCHEDULE.

1. Parties who use any of the forms in the first column of this Schedule, may substitute for the words "Covenantor" or "Covantee," or "Re-leasor" or "Releasee," "Grantor" or "Grantee," any name or names, and in every such case corresponding substitutions shall be taken to be made in the corresponding forms in the second column.

2. Such parties may substitute the feminine gender for the masculine, or the plural number for the singular, in any of the forms in the first column of this Schedule, and corresponding changes shall be taken to be made in the corresponding forms in the second column.

3 Such parties may introduce into, or annex to, any of the forms in the first column, any express exceptions from, or other express qualifications thereof respectively, and the like exceptions or qualifications shall be taken to be made from or in the corresponding forms in the second column.

4. Such parties may add the name or other designation of any person or persons, or class or classes of persons, or any other words, at the end of form two, of the first column, so as thereby to extend the words thereof to the acts of any additional person or persons, or class or classes of persons, or of all persons whomsoever: and in every such case the covenants two, three and four, or such of them as may be employed in such deed, shall be taken to extend to the acts of the person or persons, class or classes of persons, so named.

FORMS OF COVENANTS.

COLUMN ONE.

1. The said (covenantor) covenants with the said (covenantee).

2. That he has the right to convey the said lands to the said (covenantee) notwithstanding any act of the said (covenantor).

3. And that the said (covenantee) shall have quiet possession of the said lands.

4. Free from all incumbrances.

COLUMN TWO.

1. And the said covenantor doth hereby, for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, covenant, promise and agree, with and to the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, in manner following, that is to say:

2. That for and notwithstanding any act, deed, matter or thing by the said covenantor done, executed, committed, or knowingly or wilfully permitted or suffered to the contrary, he, the said covenantor, now hath in himself good right, full power, and absolute authority to convey the said lands, and other the premises hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto the said covenantee, in manner aforesaid, and according to the true intent of these presents.

3. And that it shall be lawful for the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, from time to time and at all times hereafter, peaceably and quietly to enter upon, have, hold, occupy, possess and enjoy the said land and premises hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, with their and every of their appurtenances; and to have, receive and take the rents, issues and profits thereof, and of every part thereof, to and for his and their use and benefit, without any let, suit, trouble, denial, eviction, interruption, claim or demand whatsoever of, from or by him the said covenantor, or his heirs, or any person claiming, or to claim, by, from, under or in trust for him, them or any of them.

4. And that free and clear, and freely and absolutely acquitted, exonerated and for ever discharged, or otherwise by the said covenantor or his heirs well and sufficiently saved, kept harmless and indemnified of, from and against any and every former and other gift, grant, bargain, sale, jointure, dower, use, trust, entail, will, statute, recognizance, judgment, execution, extent, rent, annuity, forfeiture, re-entry, and any and every other estate, title, charge, trouble and incumbrance whatsoever, made, executed, occasioned or suffered by the said covenantor or his heirs, or by any person claiming, or to claim, by, from, under or in trust for him, them or any of them.

5. And the said (covenantor) covenants with the said (covenantee) that he will execute such further assurances of the said lands as may be requisite.

5. And the said covenantor doth hereby, for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, covenant, promise, and agree with and to the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that he the said covenantor, his heirs, executors and administrators, and all and every other person whosoever having or claiming, or who shall or may hereafter have or claim, any estate, right, title or interest whatsoever in, to, or out of the said lands and premises hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, or any of them, or any part thereof, by, from, under or in trust for him, them, or any of them, shall and will, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, upon every reasonable request, and at the costs and charges of the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, make, do, execute, or cause to be made, done or executed, all such further and other lawful acts, deeds, things, devices, conveyances and assurances in the law whatsoever, for the better, more perfectly, and absolutely conveying and assuring the said lands and premises hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, and every part thereof, with their appurtenances, unto the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, in manner aforesaid as by the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, his or their counsel in the law, shall be reasonably devised, advised or required, so as no such further assurances contain or imply any further or other covenant or warranty than against the acts and deeds of the person who shall be required to make or execute the same, and his heirs, executors or administrators only, and so as no person who shall be required to make or execute such assurances shall be compellable for the making or executing thereof, to go or travel from his usual place of abode.

6. And the said (covenantor) covenants with the said (covenantee) that he will produce the title deeds enumerated hereunder, and allow copies to be made of them, at the expense of the said (covenantee).

6. And the said covenantor doth hereby, for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, covenant, promise and agree with and to the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that the said covenantor and his heirs shall and will, unless prevented by fire or other inevitable accident, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, at the request, costs and charges of the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or his or their solicitor, agent or counsel, at any trial or hearing in any action or otherwise, as occasion shall require, produce all and every or any deed, instrument or writing hereunder written, for the manifestation, defence and support of the estate, title and possession of the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, in or to the said lands and premises hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, and at the like request, costs and charges, shall and will make and deliver, or cause to be made and delivered, true and attested or other copies or abstracts of the same deeds, instruments and writings respectively, or any of them, and shall and will permit and suffer such copies and abstracts to be examined and compared with the said original deeds, by the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, or such person as he or they shall for that purpose direct and appoint.

COLUMN ONE.

COLUMN TWO.

7. And the said (covenantor) covenants with the said (covenantee) that he has done no act to incumber the said lands.

7. And the said covenantor, for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, doth hereby covenant, promise and agree, with and to the said covenantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that he hath not at any time heretofore made, done, committed, executed, or wilfully or knowingly suffered any act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever, whereby or by means whereof the said lands and premises hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, or any part or parcel thereof are, is, or shall or may be in anywise impeached, charged, affected or incumbered in title, estate or otherwise howsoever.

8. And the said (releasor) releases to the said (releasee) all his claims upon the said lands.

8. And the said releasor hath released, remised and for ever quitted claim, and by these presents doth release, remise and for ever quit claim, unto the said releasee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, all, and all manner of right, title, interest, claim and demand whatsoever, in, to and out of the said lands and premises hereby granted, or intended so to be, and every part and parcel thereof, so as that neither he nor his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall nor may, at any time hereafter, have claim, pretend to, challenge or demand the said lands and premises or any part thereof, in any manner howsoever, but the said releasee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, and the same lands and premises shall from henceforth for ever hereafter be exonerated and discharged of and from all claims and demands whatsoever which the said releasor might or could have upon him in respect of the said lands, or upon the said lands.

9. And the said (A.B.) wife of the said (grantor) hereby bars her dower in the said lands.

9. And the said (A.B.) wife of the said grantor, for and in consideration of the sum of dollars of lawful money of Canada, to her in hand paid by the said grantee at or before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, hath granted and released, and by these presents doth grant and release unto the said grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, all her dower and right and title which, in the event of her surviving her said husband, she might or would have to dower, in, to or out of the lands and premises hereby conveyed or intended so to be.

CHAPTER 106.

An Act respecting Short Forms of Leases.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

1. Where a deed made according to the form set forth in Schedule A, annexed to this Act, or any other deed expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act, or referring thereto, contains any of the forms of words contained in column one of Schedule B, hereto annexed, and distinguished by any number therein, such deed shall be taken to have the same effect, and be construed as if it contained the form of words contained in column two of said Schedule B, and distinguished by the same number as is annexed to the form of words used in the deed ; but it shall not be necessary, in any such deed, to insert any such number. R. S. O. 1877, c. 103, s. 1.

Where words of column 1 of Schedule B are employed, the deed to have the same effect as if the words in column 2 were inserted.

2. Any deed or part of a deed which fails to take effect by virtue of this Act, shall nevertheless be as effectual to bind the parties thereto, as if this Act had not been made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 103, s. 2.

Deeds failing to take effect under this Act to be as valid as if Act not made.

3. Every deed, unless an exception is specially made therein, shall be held and construed to include all out-houses, buildings, barns, stables, yards, gardens, cellars, ancient and other lights, paths, passages, ways, waters, watercourses, liberties, privileges, easements, profits, commodities, emoluments, hereditaments, and appurtenances whatsoever, to the lands and tenements therein comprised belonging or in any wise appertaining. R. S. O. 1877, c. 103, s. 3.

Deed to include houses, etc.

4. Unless the contrary is expressly stated in the lease, all covenants not to assign or sub-let without leave entered into by a lessee in any lease under this Act made after the 25th March, 1886, shall run with the land demised, and shall bind the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of the lessee, whether mentioned in the lease or not, unless it is by the terms of the lease otherwise expressly provided, and the proviso for re-entry contained in Schedule B to this Act shall, when inserted in a lease, apply to a breach of either an affirmative or negative covenant. 49 V. c. 21, s. 1.

Covenants to run with land.

SCHEDULE A.

SCHEDULE B.

(Section 1.)

DIRECTIONS AS TO THE FORMS IN THIS SCHEDULE.

1. Parties who use any of the forms in the first column of this Schedule, may substitute for the words "Lessee" or "Lessor" any name or names (or other designation) and in every such case corresponding substitutions shall be taken to be made in the corresponding forms in the second column.

2. Such parties may substitute the feminine gender for the masculine, or the plural number for the singular in the forms in the first column of this Schedule, and corresponding changes shall be taken to be made in the corresponding forms in the second column.

3. Such parties may introduce into or annex to any of the forms in the first column any express exceptions from or express qualifications thereof respectively, and the like exceptions or qualifications shall be taken to be made from or in the corresponding forms in the second column.

4. Where the premises demised are of freehold tenure, the covenants 1 to 8 shall be taken to be made with, and the proviso 9 to apply to the heirs and assigns of the lessor; and where the premises demised are of leasehold tenure, the covenants and proviso shall be taken to be made with, and apply to the lessor, his executors, administrators and assigns.

5. Unless the contrary is expressly stated in the lease in all leases made after the 25th day of March, 1886, the extended form of covenant numbered 7 shall be read as containing after the word "lessee" in the first line thereof the words "his executors, administrators and assigns."

FORMS OF COVENANTS.

COLUMN ONE.

COLUMN TWO.

1. That the said (lessee) covenants with the said (lessor) to pay rent.

1. And the said lessee doth hereby for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenant with the said lessor that he, the said lessee, his executors, administrators and assigns, will, during the said term, pay unto the said lessor the rent hereby reserved, in manner hereinbefore mentioned, without any deduction whatsoever.

2. And to pay taxes.

2. And also will pay all taxes, rates, duties, and assessments whatsoever, whether municipal, parliamentary or otherwise, now charged or hereafter to be charged upon the said demised premises, or upon the said lessor on account thereof.

3. And to repair.

3. And also will, during the said term, well and sufficiently repair, maintain, amend and keep the said demised premises with the appurtenances in good and substantial repair, and all fixtures and things thereto belonging, or which at any time during the said term shall be erected and made, when, where, and so often as need shall be.

4. And to keep up fences.

4. And also will, from time to time, during the said term, keep up the fences and walls of or belonging to the said premises, and make anew any parts thereof that may require to be new-made in a good and husband-like manner and at proper seasons of the year.

5. And not to cut down timber.

5. And also will not at any time during the said term hew, fell, cut down or destroy, or cause or knowingly permit or suffer to be hewed, felled, cut down or destroyed, without the consent in writing of the lessor, any timber or timber trees, except for necessary repairs, or firewood, or for the purpose of clearance as herein set forth.

6. And that the said (lessor) may enter and view state of repair, and that the said (lessee) will repair according to notice.

6. And it is hereby agreed that it shall be lawful for the lessor and his agents, at all reasonable times during the said term, to enter the said demised premises to examine the condition thereof; and further, that all want of reparation that upon such view shall be found, and for the amendment of which notice in writing shall be left at the premises, the said lessee, his executors, administrators and assigns will, within three calendar months next after such notice, well and sufficiently repair and make good accordingly.

COLUMN ONE.

COLUMN TWO.

7. And will not assign or sub-let without leave.

8. And that he will leave the premises in good repair.

9. Proviso for re-entry by the said (lessor) on non-payment of rent or non-performance of covenants.

10. The said (lessor) covenants with the said (lessee) for quiet enjoyment.

7. And also that the lessee shall not, nor will during the said term, assign, transfer or set over, or otherwise; by any act or deed procure the said premises or any of them to be assigned, transferred set over or sub-let unto any person or persons whomsoever without the consent in writing of the lessor, his heirs or assigns, first had and obtained.

8. And further, the lessee will, at the expiration, or other sooner determination of the said term, peaceably surrender and yield up unto the said lessor the said premises hereby demised, with the appurtenances, together with all buildings, erections and fixtures thereon, in good and substantial repair and condition, reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire only excepted.

9. Provided always, and it is hereby expressly agreed, that if the rent hereby reserved, or any part thereof, shall be unpaid for fifteen days after any of the days on which the same ought to have been paid, although no formal demand shall have been made thereof, or in case of the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained on the part of the lessee, his executors, administrators or assigns, then and in either of such cases it shall be lawful for the lessor at any time hereafter, into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof, in the name of the whole to re-enter, and the same to have again, re-possess and enjoy, as of his or their former estate; anything hereinafter contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

10. And the lessor doth hereby for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenant with the lessee, his executors, administrators and assigns, that he and they paying the rent hereby reserved, and performing the covenants hereinbefore on his and their part contained, shall and may peaceably possess and enjoy the said demised premises for the term hereby granted, without any interruption or disturbance from the lessor, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, or any other person or persons lawfully claiming by, from or under him, them or any of them.

COLUMN ONE.

COLUMN TWO.

1. And the said (A.B.) wife of the said mortgagor hereby bars her dower in the said lands.

1. And the said (A.B.) wife of the said mortgagor for and in consideration of the sum of lawful money of Canada, to her in hand paid by, the said mortgagee, at or before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, hath granted and released, and by these presents doth grant and release unto the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, all her dower, and right and title which, in the event of her surviving her said husband, she might or would have to dower, in, to, or out of the lands and premises hereby conveyed or intended so to be.

2. Provided: This mortgage to be void on payment of (amount of principal money) of lawful money of Canada, with interest at (rate of interest) per cent. as follows: (terms of payment of principal and interest) and taxes and performance of statute labour.

2. Provided always, and these presents are upon this express condition, that if the said mortgagor, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or any of them, do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns, the just and full sum of (amount of principal money) of lawful money of Canada, with interest thereon, at the rate of (rate of interest) per cent. per annum, on the days and times, and in manner following—that is to say (terms of payment of principal and interest), without any deduction, defalcation or abatement out of the same for or in respect of any taxes, rates, levies, charges, rents, assessments, statute labour or other impositions whatsoever already rated, charged, assessed or imposed, or hereafter to be rated, charged, assessed or imposed by authority of Parliament or of the Legislature, or otherwise howsoever, on the said lands and tenements, hereditaments and premises, with the appurtenances, or on the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, in respect of the said premises, or of the said money or interest, or any other matter or thing relating to these presents, and until such default as aforesaid shall and will well and truly pay, do and perform or cause or procure to be paid, done and performed, all matters and things in this proviso hereinbefore set forth, then these presents and everything in the same contained shall be absolutely null and void.

COLUMN ONE.

COLUMN TWO.

3. The said mortgagor covenants with the said mortgagee.

4. That the mortgagor will pay the mortgage money and interest, and observe the above proviso.

5. That the mortgagor has a good title in fee simple to the said lands.

6. And that he has the right to convey the said lands to the said mortgagee.

7. And that on default the mortgagee shall have quiet possession of the said lands.

3. And the said mortgagor doth hereby, for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, covenant, promise and agree to and with the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, in manner following, that is to say :

4. That the said mortgagor, his heirs, executors, administrators or some or one of them shall and will well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, the said sum of money in the above proviso mentioned, with interest for the same as aforesaid, at the days and times and in the manner above limited for payment thereof, and shall and will in everything well, faithfully and truly do, observe, perform, fulfil and keep all and singular the provisions, agreements and stipulations in the said above proviso particularly set forth, according to the true intent and meaning of these presents, and of the said above proviso.

5. And also, that the said mortgagor, at the time of the sealing and delivery hereof, is, and stands solely, rightfully and lawfully seised of a good, sure, perfect, absolute and indefeasible estate of inheritance, in fee simple, of and in the lands, tenements, hereditaments and all and singular other the premises hereinbefore described, with their and every of their appurtenances, and of and in every part and parcel thereof, without any manner of trusts, reservations, limitations, provisoes or conditions, except those contained in the original grant thereof from the Crown or any other matter or thing to alter, charge, change, incumber or defeat the same.

6. And also, that the said mortgagor now hath in himself good right, full power and lawful and absolute authority to convey the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and all and singular other the premises hereby conveyed or hereinbefore mentioned or intended so to be, with their and every of their appurtenances unto the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, in manner aforesaid, and according to the true intent and meaning of these presents.

7. costs and charges in the law of the said mortgagee his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, at any trial or hearing in any action, or otherwise as occasion shall require, produce all, every or any deed, instrument or writing hereunder written for the manifestation, defence and support of the estate, title and possession of the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, of, in, to or out of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises hereby conveyed or mentioned or intended so to be, and at the like request, costs and charges shall and will make and deliver, or cause or procure to be made and delivered, unto the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, true and attested or other copies or abstracts of the same deeds, instruments and writings respectively, or any of them, and shall and will permit and suffer such copies and abstracts to be examined and compared with the said original deeds by the said mortgagee, his heirs and assigns.

11. And that the said mortgagor has done no act to incumber the said lands.

11. And also that the said mortgagor hath not at any time heretofore made, done, committed, executed or wilfully or knowingly suffered any act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever whereby or by means whereof the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises hereby conveyed or mentioned or intended so to be, or any part or parcel thereof, are, is or shall or may be in any wise impeached, charged, affected or incumbered in title, estate or otherwise howsoever.

12. And that the said mortgagor will insure the buildings on the said lands to the amount of not less than currency.

12. And also that the said mortgagor or his heirs shall and will forthwith insure, unless already insured, and during the continuance of this security keep insured against loss or damage by fire, in such proportions upon each building as may be required by the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, the messuages and buildings erected on the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises hereby conveyed or mentioned, or intended so to be, in the sum of of lawful money of Canada, at the least, in some insurance office to be approved of by the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, and pay all premiums and sums of money necessary for such purpose, as the same shall become due, and will on demand assign, transfer and deliver over unto the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, the policy or policies of assurance, receipt or receipts thereto appertaining; and if the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, shall pay any premiums or sums of money for insurance of the said premises or any part thereof, the amount of such payment shall be added to the debt hereby secured, and shall bear interest at the same rate from the time of such payments, and shall be payable at the time appointed for the then next ensuing payment of interest on the said debt.

COLUMN ONE.

COLUMN TWO.

13. And the said mortgagor doth release to the said mortgagee all his claims upon the said lands subject to the said proviso.

13. And the said mortgagor hath released, remised and for ever quitted claim, and by these presents doth release, remise, and for ever quit claim unto the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, all and all manner of right, title, interest, claim and demand whatsoever, of, unto and out of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises hereby conveyed or mentioned, or intended so to be, and every part and parcel thereof, so as that neither the said mortgagor, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, shall or may at any time hereafter have, claim, pretend to, challenge or demand the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises, or any part thereof, in any manner howsoever, subject always to the said above proviso; but the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, and the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises, subject as aforesaid, shall from henceforth for ever hereafter be exonerated and discharged of and from all claims and demands whatsoever which the said mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, might or could have upon the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, in respect of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises, or upon the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises.

14. Provided, that the said mortgagee on default of payment for months, may on notice enter on and lease or sell the said lands.

14. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and agreed by and between the parties to these presents, that if the said mortgagor, his heirs, executors or administrators, shall make default in any payment of the said money or interest or any part of either of the same, according to the true intent and meaning of these presents, and of the proviso in that behalf hereinbefore contained, and calendar month shall have thereafter elapsed without such payment being made (of which default, as also of the continuance of the said principal money and interest, or some part thereof, on this security, the production of these presents shall be conclusive evidence), it shall and may be lawful to and for the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, after giving written notice to the said mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, of his intention in that behalf, either personally or at his or their usual or last place of residence within this Province not less than previous, without any further consent or concurrence of the said mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, to enter into possession of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises hereby conveyed, or mentioned or intended so to be, and to receive and take the rents, issues and profits thereof, and whether in or out of possession of the same, to make any lease or leases thereof, or of any part thereof as he shall think fit, and also to sell and absolutely dispose of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises hereby conveyed or mentioned, or intended so to be, or any part or parts thereof, with the appurtenances, by public auction make or execute any such assurances, shall be compelled for the making thereof to go or travel from his usual place of abode ; Provided always, and it is hereby further declared and agreed by and between the parties to these presents, that notwithstanding the power of sale and other the powers and provisions contained in these presents, the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, shall have and be entitled to his right of foreclosure of the equity of redemption of the said mortgagor, his heirs and assigns in the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises as fully and effectually as he might have exercised and enjoyed the same in case the power of sale, and the other former provisoes and trusts incident thereto had not been herein contained.

15. Provided that the mortgagee may distrain for arrears of interest.

15. And it is further covenanted, declared and agreed by and between the parties to these presents, that if the said mortgagor, his heirs, executors or administrators, shall make default in payment of any part of the said interest at any of the days or times hereinbefore limited for the payment thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, to distrain therefor upon the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises, or any part thereof, and, by distress warrant, to recover by way of rent reserved, as in the case of a demise, of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises, so much of such interest as shall, from time to time, be, or remain in arrear and unpaid, together with all costs, charges and expenses attending such levy or distress, as in like cases of distress for rent.

16. Provided that in default of the payment of the interest hereby secured, the principal hereby secured shall become payable.

16. Provided always, and it is hereby further expressly declared and agreed by and between the parties to these presents, that if any default shall at any time happen to be made of or in the payment of the interest money hereby secured or mentioned, or intended so to be, or any part thereof, then and in such case the principal money hereby secured or mentioned, or intended so to be, and every part thereof, shall forthwith become due and payable in like manner and with the like consequences and effects, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the time herein mentioned for payment of such principal money had fully come and expired, but that in such case the said mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, shall on payment of all arrears under these presents, with lawful costs and charges in that behalf, at any time before any judgment in the premises recovered, or within such time as, by the practice of the High Court, relief therein could be obtained, be relieved from the consequences of non-payment of so much of the money secured by these presents, or mentioned, or intended so to be, as may not then have become payable by reason of lapse of time.

COLUMN ONE.

COLUMN TWO.

17. Provided that 17. And provided also, and it is hereby further until default of pay- expressly declared and agreed by and between the ment the mortgagor parties to these presents, that until default shall shall have quiet happen to be made of or in the payment of the said possession of the sum of money hereby secured or mentioned, or said lands. intended so to be, or the interest thereof, or any part of either of the same, or the doing, observing, performing, fulfilling or keeping some one or more of the provisions, agreements or stipulations herein set forth, contrary to the true intent and meaning of these presents, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said mortgagor, his heirs and assigns, peaceably and quietly to have, hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises hereby conveyed or mentioned, or intended so to be, with their and every of their appurtenances, and receive and take the rents, issues and profits thereof to his own use and benefit, without let, suit, hindrance, interruption, or denial of or by the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or of or by any other person or persons whomsoever lawfully claiming, or who shall, or may lawfully claim by, from, under or in trust for him, her, them or any or either of them.

2. Sections 3 to 10 inclusive of this Act shall apply only to the estates of persons dying on and after the 1st day of July, 1886. 49 V. c. 22, s. 2.

3. Subject as above this and the next seven sections of this Act shall apply:—

(a) To all estates of inheritance in fee simple, or limited to the heir as special occupant, in any tenements or hereditaments in Ontario, whether corporeal or incorporeal.

Application of ss. 3-10.
Estates to which ss. 3-10 apply.

(b) To chattels real in Ontario.

(c) To all other personal property of any person who has died domiciled in Ontario.

Provided, that all real or personal property comprised in any disposition made by will in exercise of a general testamentary power of appointment shall be deemed to be within the provisions of this section, if otherwise applicable. 49 V. c. 22, s. 3.

Property to devolve on personal representative.

4.—(1) All such property as aforesaid which is vested in any person, or is comprised in any such disposition as aforesaid made by him, shall on his death, notwithstanding any testamentary disposition, devolve upon and become vested in his legal personal representatives from time to time, and subject to the payment of his debts; and so far as the said property is not disposed of by deed, will, contract or other effectual disposition, the same shall be distributed as personal property not so disposed of is hereafter to be distributed.

Saving as to dower.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to take away a widow's right to dower; but a widow may by deed or instrument in writing, attested by at least one witness, elect to take her interest under this section in her husband's undisposed of real estate, in lieu of all claims to dower in respect of real estate of which her husband was at any time seised, or to which at the time of his death he was beneficially entitled; and unless she so elects she shall not be entitled to share under this section in the undisposed of real estate aforesaid.

Saving as to husband's interest in property of wife.

(3) Any husband who, if sections 3 to 9 of this Act had not passed, would be entitled to an interest as tenant by the curtesy in any real estate of his wife, may by deed or instrument in writing executed within six months after his wife's death, and attested by at least one witness, elect to take such interest in the real and personal property of his deceased wife as he would have taken if the said sections of this Act had not passed, in which case the husband's interest therein shall be ascertained in all respects as if the said sections had not passed, and he shall be entitled to no further interest under the said sections of this Act.

Administrators to give security.

(4) Where any person applies to be appointed an administrator, and the administration applied for is a general administration, the application and the affidavit in support thereof shall shew the particulars of the real estate of the deceased; and the value or probable value thereof, and the amount of the security to be given, shall have reference to such value as well as to the value of the other estate of the deceased. 49 V. c. 22 s. 4 (1-4).

5. The real and personal property of a married woman in respect of which she has died intestate, shall be distributed as follows: one-third to her husband if she leave issue, and one-half if she leave none; and subject thereto, shall go and devolve as if her husband had pre-deceased her. 49 V. c. 22, s. 5.

Distribution of property of married woman dying intestate.

6. When a person shall die without leaving issue, and intestate as to the whole or any part of his real or personal property, his father surviving shall not be entitled to any greater share under the intestacy than his mother or any brother or sister surviving; nor shall a grandfather or grandmother of a person dying intestate share in competition with a surviving father, mother, brother or sister. 49 V. c. 22, s. 6.

Distribution of estate of person dying intestate and without issue.

7. The real and personal property of a deceased person comprised in any residuary devise or bequest shall (except so far as a contrary intention shall appear from his will or any codicil thereto) be applicable ratably, according to their respective values, to the payment of his debts. 49 V. c. 22, s. 7.

Application of property in payment of debts.

8.—(1) Where infants are concerned in real estate which but for the preceding sections of this Act would not devolve on executors or administrators, no sale or conveyance shall be valid under this Act without the written consent or approval of the Official Guardian of infants appointed under The Judicature Act, or in the absence of such consent or approval without an order of the High Court.

Sales of infants' estate.

(2) The High Court may appoint the Local Judge of any county or the Local Master therein, as Local Guardian of Infants, in such county during the pleasure of the Court, with authority to give such written consent or approval as aforesaid instead of the Official Guardian; and the Official Guardian and Local Guardian shall be subject to such general orders as the High Court may from time to time make in regard to their authority and duty under this Act. 49 V. c. 22, s. 8.

Local guardians in out counties.

9. Subject as hereinbefore provided, the legal personal representatives from time to time of a deceased person shall have power to dispose of and otherwise deal with all real property vested in them by virtue of the preceding sections of this Act, with all the like incidents, but subject to all the like rights, equities, and obligations, as if the same were personal property vested in them. 49 V. c. 22, s. 9.

Power of personal representatives over real property.

10. In the case of a person dying after the 1st day of July, 1886, his personal representative for the time being shall, in the interpretation of any Statute of this Province, or in the construction of any instrument to which the deceased was a party, or in which he was interested, be deemed in law his heirs and assigns, unless a contrary intention appears. 50 V. c. 7, s. 35.

Personal representatives to be deemed in law heirs and assigns.

Interpretation.

11. The words and expressions hereinafter mentioned which in their ordinary signification have a more confined or a different meaning, shall, where they occur in the next fifteen sections, numbered from 12 to 26 inclusive, except where the nature of the provision or the context thereof excludes such construction, be interpreted as follows, that is to say :

“Land.”

1. “Land” shall extend to messuages, and all other hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, and to money to be laid out in the purchase of land, and to chattels and other personal property transmissible to heirs, and also to any share of the same hereditaments and properties, or any of them, and to any estate of inheritance, or estate for any life or lives, or other estate transmissible to heirs, and to any possibility, right or title of entry or action, and any other interest capable of being inherited, and whether the same estates, possibilities, rights, titles and interests, or any of them, are in possession, reversion, remainder or contingency ;

2 “The purchaser” shall mean the person who last acquired the land otherwise than by descent or than by any partition, by the effect of which the land becomes part of or descendible in the same manner as other land acquired by descent ;

“Descent.”

3. “Descent” shall mean the title to inherit land by reason of consanguinity, as well where the heir is an ancestor or collateral relation, as where he is a child or other issue ;

“Descendants of any ancestor.”

4. “Descendants of any ancestor” shall extend to all persons who must trace their descent through such ancestor ;

“Person last entitled to land.”

5. “The person last entitled to land” shall extend to the last person who had a right thereto, whether he did or did not obtain the possession or the receipt of the rents and profits thereof

“Assurance.”

6. “Assurance” shall mean any deed or instrument (other than a will), by which any land may be conveyed or transferred at law or in equity ;

“Rent.”

7. “Rent” shall extend to all annuities and periodical sums of money charged upon or payable out of any land ; and

“Person through whom another person is said to claim.”

8. “Person through whom another person is said to claim” shall mean any person by, through or under, or by the act of whom the person so claiming, becomes entitled to the estate or interest claimed, as heir, issue in tail, tenant by the curtesy of England, tenant in dower, successor, special or general occupant, executor, administrator, legatee, husband, assignee, appointee, devisee or otherwise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 2.

DESCENTS BEFORE 1ST JULY, 1834.

Descents before 1 July, 1834, to be as at Common Law.

12. This Act shall not extend to any descent which took place on the death of any person who died before the first day of July, 1834. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 3.

DESCENTS SINCE 1ST JULY, 1834.

13. The seven next sections of this Act, numbered from 14 to 20 inclusive, shall not have operation retrospectively to a period of time anterior to the sixth day of March, 1834, so as, by force of any of their provisions, to render any title valid, which in regard to any particular estate had, prior to that day, been adjudged, or has been or may be in any suit which was depending on that day, adjudged invalid on account of any defect, imperfection, matter or thing which is by such sections altered, supplied or remedied; but in every such case the law in regard to any such defect, imperfection, matter or thing, shall, as applied to such title, be deemed and taken to be as if those sections of this Act had not been passed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 4.

The next seven sections not to operate retrospectively in certain cases.

14. In every case on and after the first day of July, 1834 descent shall be traced from the purchaser; and to the intent that the pedigree may never be carried further back than the circumstances of the case and the nature of the title require, the person last entitled to the land shall for the purposes of this Act be considered to have been the purchaser thereof, unless it is proved that he inherited the same, in which case the person from whom he inherited the same shall be considered to have been the purchaser, unless it is proved that he inherited the same; and, in like manner, the last person from whom the land is proved to have been inherited shall in every case be considered to have been the purchaser, unless it is proved that he inherited the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 5.

Descent shall always be traced from the purchaser, etc.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 2.

15. Where land is devised by a testator dying after the first day of July, 1834, to the heir or to the person who shall be the heir of such testator, such heir shall be considered to have acquired the land as a devisee and not by descent; and where any land is limited by any assurance, executed after the said first day of July, 1834, to the person or to the heirs of the person who thereby conveys the same land, such person shall be considered to have acquired the same as a purchaser, by virtue of such assurance, and shall not be considered to be entitled thereto as of his former estate or part thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 6.

Heir entitled under a will shall take as devisee, and a limitation to the grantor or his heir shall create an estate by purchase.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 3.

16. Where a person acquires land by purchase, under a limitation to the heirs, or to the heirs of the body of any of his ancestors, contained in an assurance executed after the first day of July, 1834, or under a limitation to the heirs, or to the heirs of the body of any of his ancestors, or under any limitation having the same effect, contained in a will of any testator dying after the said first day of July, 1834, then and in any of such cases, such land shall descend, and the descent thereof shall be traced as if the ancestor named in such limitation had been the purchaser of such land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 7.

Where heirs take by purchase under limitations to the heirs of their ancestor the land shall descend, as if the ancestor had been the purchaser.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 4.

After the death of a person attainted, his descendants may inherit.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 10.

17. Where the person from whom the descent of any land is to be traced has had any relation who, having been attainted, died before such descent took place, then such attainer shall not prevent any person from inheriting such land who would have been capable of inheriting the same by tracing his descent through such relation if he had not been attainted, unless such land escheated in consequence of such attainder before the first day of July, 1834. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 8.

Heir-at-law need not prove entry.

18. Proof of entry by the heir after the death of the ancestor shall in no case be necessary in order to prove title in such heir, or in any person claiming by or through him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 9.

Limitations made before 1st July, 1834, to the heirs of a person then living, shall take effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 12.

9. Where any assurance executed before the said first day of July, 1834, or the will of any person who died before that day, contains any limitation or gift to the heir or heirs of any person under which the person or persons answering the description of heir is entitled to an estate by purchase, then the person or persons who would have answered such description of heir if this Act had not been passed shall become entitled by virtue of such limitation or gift, whether the person named as ancestor was or was not living on or after the said first day of July, 1834. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 10.

Grantees, devisees, etc., shall not take as joint-tenants unless such intention be expressed.

20. Where by any letters patent, assurance or will, made and executed after the first day of July, 1834, land has been or is granted, conveyed or devised to two or more persons other than executors or trustees in fee simple, or for any less estate, it shall be considered that such persons took or take as tenants in common, and not as joint tenants, unless an intention sufficiently appears on the face of such letters patent, assurance or will, that they are to take as joint tenants. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 11.

DESCENTS BETWEEN 1ST JULY, 1834, AND 1ST JANUARY, 1852.

Descents between the 1st July, 1834, and 31st December, 1851.

21. As respects every descent between the first day of July, 1834, and the thirty-first day of December, 1851, both days included, and as respects any descent not included or provided for in the sections of this Act numbered from 31 to 57, both included, the following sections, numbered from 22 to 26, both included, shall apply retrospectively to the first day of July, 1834, and also prospectively, as the case may be, and shall be construed as if the same had been passed on the said first day of July, 1834. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 12.

Brothers and sisters shall trace descent through parents. Imp. Act, s. 5.

22. No brother or sister shall be considered to inherit immediately from his or her brother or sister, but every descent from a brother or sister shall be traced through the parent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 13.

23. Every lineal ancestor shall be capable of being heir to any of his issue, and in any case where there is no issue of the purchaser, his nearest lineal ancestor shall be his heir in preference to any person who would have been entitled to inherit, either by tracing his descent through such lineal ancestor, or in consequence of there being no descendant of such lineal ancestor; so that the father shall be preferred to a brother or sister, and a more remote lineal ancestor to any of his issue, other than a nearer lineal ancestor or his issue. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 14.

Lineal ancestor to be heir in preference to collateral persons claiming through him.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 6.

24. None of the maternal ancestors of the person from whom the descent is to be traced, nor any of their descendants, shall be capable of inheriting until all his paternal ancestors and their descendants have failed; and no female paternal ancestor of such person, nor any of her descendants, shall be capable of inheriting until all his male paternal ancestors and their descendants have failed; and no female maternal ancestor of such person, nor any of her descendants, shall be capable of inheriting until all his male maternal ancestors and their descendants have failed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 15.

The male line to be preferred.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 7.

25. Where there is a failure of male paternal ancestors of the person from whom the descent is to be traced, and their descendants, the mother of his more remote male paternal ancestor, or her descendants, shall be the heir or heirs of such person, in preference to the mother of a less remote male paternal ancestor, or her descendants; and where there is a failure of male maternal ancestors of such person, and their descendants, the mother of his more remote male maternal ancestor, and her descendants, shall be the heir or heirs of such person, in preference to the mother of a less remote male maternal ancestor and her descendants. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 16.

The mother of the more remote male ancestor to be preferred to the mother of a less remote male ancestor.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 8.

26. Any person related to the person from whom the descent is to be traced by the half blood, shall be capable of being his heir, and the place in which any such relation by the half blood shall stand in the order of inheritance, so as to be entitled to inherit, shall be next after any relation in the same degree of the whole blood and his issue, where the common ancestor is a male, and next after the common ancestor where such common ancestor is a female; so that the brother of the half blood on the part of the father shall inherit next after the sisters of the whole blood on the part of the father and their issue, and the brother of the half blood on the part of the mother shall inherit next after the mother. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 17.

Half blood to inherit after the whole blood of the same degree.

Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 106, s. 9.

DESCENTS ON AND AFTER 1ST OF JANUARY, 1852.

27. The twenty-seven sections numbered from 31 to 57, both included, shall apply retrospectively to the first day of January, 1852 inclusive, and also prospectively, as the case may be, and shall be construed as if the same had been passed on the said first day of January, 1852, and shall not apply to estates of persons dying on or after the 1st day of July, 1886. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 18.

Descents since the 1st January, 1852.

28. In the said twenty-seven sections of this Act numbered from 31 to 57, both inclusive—

“Real estate.” 1. “Real estate” shall be construed to include every estate, interest and right, legal and equitable, held in fee simple or for the life of another (except as in section 49 is excepted) in lands, tenements and hereditaments in Ontario, but not such as are determined or extinguished by the death of the intestate seised or possessed thereof, or so otherwise entitled thereto, nor to leases for years; and “Inheritance.” 2. “Inheritance,” as therein used, shall be understood to mean real estate as herein defined, descended or succeeded to, according to the provisions of the said twenty-seven sections. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 19.

29. Where, in the said sections, numbered from 31 to 57 both included, any person is described as living, it shall be understood that he was living at the time of the death of the intestate from whom the descent or succession came, and where any person is described as having died, it shall be understood that he died before such intestate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 20.

30. Where in any of the said sections the expressions “where the estate came to the intestate on the part of the father” or “mother,” as the case may be, are used, the same shall be construed to include every case where the inheritance came to the intestate by devise, gift or descent from the parent referred to, or from any relative of the blood of such parent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 21.

31. Where any person dies seised in fee simple or for the life of another of any real estate in Ontario, without having lawfully devised the same, such real estate shall descend or pass by way of succession in manner following, that is to say:—

Firstly. To his lineal descendants, and those claiming by or under them, per stirpes;

Secondly. To his father;

Thirdly. To his mother; and Fourthly. To his collateral relatives subject in all cases to the rules and regulations hereinafter prescribed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 22.

32. If the intestate leaves several descendants in the direct line of lineal descent, and all of equal degree of consanguinity to such intestate, the inheritance shall descend to such persons in equal parts, however remote from the intestate the common degree of consanguinity may be. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 23.

33. If one or more of the children of such intestate are living and one or more are dead, the inheritance shall descend to the children who are living, and to the descendants of such children as have died; so that each child who is living shall inherit such share as would have descended to him if all the children of the intestate, who have died leaving issue, had been living; and so that the descendants of each child who is dead shall inherit in equal shares the share which their parent would have received if living. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 24.

If some children be living and others dead leaving issue.

34. The rule of descent prescribed in the last preceding section shall apply in every case where the descendants of the intestate, entitled to share in the inheritance, are of unequal degrees of consanguinity to the intestate, so that those who are in the nearest degree of consanguinity shall take the shares which would have descended to them, had all the descendants in the same degree of consanguinity who have died leaving issue, been living, and so that the issue of the descendants who have died, shall respectively take the shares which their parents, if living, would have received. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 25.

Same rule as to other descendants in unequal degrees of consanguinity.

35. In case the intestate dies without lawful descendants and leaving a father, then the inheritance shall go to such father, unless the inheritance came to the intestate on the part of his mother, and such mother is living; and if such mother is dead, the inheritance descending on her part shall go to the father for life, and the reversion to the brothers and sisters of the intestate and their descendants, according to the law of inheritance by collateral relatives hereinafter provided; and if there are no such brothers or sisters, or their descendants living, such inheritance shall descend to the father. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 26.

If the intestate leaves no descendants in right of father, mother, etc.

36. If the intestate dies without descendants and leaving no father, or leaving a father not entitled to take the inheritance under the last preceding section, and leaving a mother and brothers or sisters, or the descendants of brothers or sisters, then the inheritance shall descend to the mother during her life, and the reversion to such brothers or sisters of the intestate, as are living, and the descendants of such as are dead, according to the same law of inheritance hereinafter provided; and if the intestate in such case leaves no brother or sister, nor any descendant of any brother or sister, the inheritance shall descend to the mother. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 27.

If there be no father entitled to inherit.

37. If there is no father or mother capable of inheriting the estate, it shall descend in the cases hereinafter specified to the collateral relatives of the intestate; and if there are several ther.

And if there is neither father nor mother.

of such relatives all of equal degree of consanguinity to the intestate, the inheritance shall descend to them in equal parts, however remote from the intestate the common degree of consanguinity may be. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 28.

Succession of brothers and sisters and their descendants.

38. If all the brothers and sisters of the intestate are living, the inheritance shall descend to such brothers and sisters; and if any one or more of them are living and any one or more are dead, then to the brothers and sisters and every of them who are living, and to the descendants of such brothers and sisters as have died, so that each brother or sister who is living shall inherit such share as would have descended to him or her, if all the brothers or sisters of the intestate who have died leaving issue had been living, and so that such descendants shall inherit in equal shares the share which their parent, if living, would have received. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 29.

As to such descendants in unequal degrees.

39. The same law of inheritance prescribed in the last section shall prevail as to the other direct lineal descendants of every brother and sister of the intestate, to the remotest degree, wherever such descendants are of unequal degree. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 30.

If there be no heir under the preceding 13 sections.

40. If there is no heir entitled to take under any of the preceding thirteen sections, the inheritance if the same came to the intestate on the part of his father, shall descend:

Firstly. To the brothers and sisters of the father of the intestate in equal shares, if all are living;

Secondly. If one or more are living, and one or more have died leaving issue, then to such brothers and sisters as are living, and to the descendants of such of the said brothers and sisters as have died—in equal shares;

Thirdly. If all such brothers and sisters have died, then to their descendants; and in all such cases the inheritance shall descend in the same manner as if all such brothers and sisters had been the brothers and sisters of the intestate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 31.

Further provision.

41. If there be no brothers or sisters, or any of them, of the father of the intestate, and no descendants of such brothers or sisters, then the inheritance shall descend to the brothers and sisters of the mother of the intestate, and to the descendants of such of the said brothers and sisters as have died, or if all have died, then to their descendants, in the same manner as if all such brothers and sisters had been the brothers and sisters of the father. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 32.

Further provision if the estate came on the mother's side.

42. In all cases not provided for by the next preceding fifteen sections, where the inheritance came to the intestate on the part of his mother, the same, instead of descending to the brothers and sisters of the intestate's father, and their descendants, as prescribed in section 40, shall descend to the brothers and sisters of the intestate's mother, and to their descendants, as directed in the last preceding section; and if there are no such brothers and sisters or descendants of them, then the inheritance shall descend to the brothers and sisters, and their descendants, of the intestate's father, as before prescribed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 33.

43. In cases where the inheritance did not come to the intestate on the part of either the father or the mother, the inheritance shall descend to the brothers and sisters both of the father and mother of the intestate in equal shares, and to their descendants, in the same manner as if all such brothers and sisters had been the brothers and sisters of the intestate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 34.

If estate came neither on father's nor mother's side.

44. Relatives of the half blood shall inherit equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree, and the descendants of such relatives shall inherit in the same manner as the descendants of the whole blood, unless the inheritance came to the intestate by descent, devise or gift from some one of his ancestors; in which case all those who are not of the blood of such ancestor shall be excluded from such inheritance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 35.

Half blood to succeed with whole blood.

45. On failure of heirs under the preceding rules, the inheritance shall descend to the remaining next of kin of the intestate, according to the rules in the English Statute of Distribution of Personal Estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 36.

In cases not provided for, 22-3 Car. ii. c. 10, and 29 Car. ii. c. 3, to apply.

46. Where there is but one person entitled to inherit according to the provisions of section 27 and following sections of this Act, he shall take and hold the inheritance solely; and where an inheritance, or a share of an inheritance, descends to several persons under such provisions, they shall take as tenants in common, in proportion to their respective rights. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 37.

Co-heirs to take as tenants in common.

47. Descendants and relatives of the intestate begotten before his death, but born thereafter, shall in all cases inherit in the same manner as if they had been born in the lifetime of the intestate and had survived him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 38.

Descendants etc., born after death of intestate, to inherit.

48. Children and relatives who are illegitimate shall not be entitled to inherit under any of the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 39.

Illegitimate persons not to inherit.

49. The estate of the husband as tenant by the curtesy, or of a widow as tenant in dower, shall not be affected by any of the provisions of the last preceding twenty-two sections of this Curtesy, dower and estates by will or will, excepted.

Act, nor shall the same affect any limitation of any estate by deed or will, or any estate which, although held in fee simple or for the life of another, is so held in trust for any other person, but all such estates shall remain, pass and descend, as if the last twenty-two sections of this Act numbered from 27 to 48, both included had not been passed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 40.

Cases of children who have been advanced by settlement, etc.

50. If any child of an intestate has been advanced by the intestate by settlement, or portion of real or personal estate, or both of them, and the same has been so expressed by the intestate in writing, or so acknowledged in writing by the child, the value thereof shall be reckoned, for the purposes of this section only, as part of the real and personal estate of such intestate descendible to his heirs, and to be distributed to his next of kin according to law; and if such advancement is equal or superior to the amount of the share which such child would be entitled to receive of the real and personal estate of the deceased, as above reckoned, then such child and his descendants shall be excluded from any share in the real and personal estate of the intestate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 41.

If such advancement be not equal.

51. If such advancement is not equal to such share, such child and his descendants shall be entitled to receive so much only of the personal estate, and to inherit so much only of the real estate of the intestate, as is sufficient to make all the shares of the children in such real and personal estate and advancement to be equal, as nearly as can be estimated. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 42.

Value of property advanced, how estimated.

52. The value of any real or personal estate so advanced shall be deemed to be that, if any, which has been acknowledged by the child by any instrument in writing, otherwise such value shall be estimated according to the value of the property when given. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 43.

Education, etc., not advancement.

53. The maintaining or educating, or the giving of money to a child, without a view to a portion or settlement in life shall not be deemed an advancement within the meaning of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 44.

As to the purchase by any of the parties interested of real estate subject to partition.

54. The parties authorized to make partition of any such real estate according to law, shall receive from any of the persons entitled to a share of such real estate, an offer or proposition to purchase the share or shares of the other parties interested therein, giving the preference to the person who would have been the heir-at-law thereto, had section 27 and the following sections of this Act not been passed; and next after such heir-at-law, giving such preference to the several persons successively who would have been such heir-at-law, had the said last mentioned sections of this Act not been passed, and had those persons preceding them respectively in the series of such preference been dead at the time of the death of the intestate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 45.

55. The parties so authorized to make such partition shall certify particularly to the Court in which proceedings for a partition are commenced or pending, the particulars of such offer or proposition for purchase, the nature, quantity and value of the estate or share proposed to be purchased, and whether they advise such offer or proposition to be accepted or rejected, and their reasons therefor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 46.

Particulars of offer to purchase to be certified to the Court.

56. Any Court authorized to make partition of real estate may direct a sale of the same if it thinks it right so to do, upon the application of any of the parties beneficially interested therein, giving however the preference at all times to the person who would have been the heir-at-law to such real estate had section 27 and the following sections of this Act not been passed, and after such heir-at-law, then giving such preference to the several persons successively who would have been such heir-at-law, had the said last mentioned sections of this Act not been passed, and had those persons preceding them respectively in the series of such preference been dead at the time of the death of the intestate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 47.

Any Court authorized to make partition may direct a sale, giving preference to the heir-at-law.

57. Every such preference shall be upon and subject to such terms, security and conditions, as the Court thinks it right to direct. R. S. O. 1877, c. 105, s. 48.

Terms on which preference to be given.

IMPERIAL ACTS REPEALED, s. 39.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario,
enacts as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as “The Wills Act of Ontario.” R.
S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 1.

WILLS BEFORE 1ST JANUARY, 1874.

“Land.” 2. In the next succeeding three sections of this Act the word “land” shall extend to messuages, and all other hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, and to money to be laid out in the purchase of land, and to chattels and other personal property transmissible to heirs, and also to any share of the same hereditaments and properties, or any of them, and to any estate of inheritance, or estate for any life or lives, or other estate transmissible to heirs, and to any possibility, right or title of entry or action, and any other interest capable of being inherited, and whether the same estates, possibilities, rights, titles and interests, or any of them, are in possession, reversion, remainder or contingency. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 2.

3. Where a will made before and not re-executed, republished or revived after the first day of January, 1874, by any person dying after the sixth day of March, 1834, contains a devise in any form of words of all such real estate as the testator dies seised or possessed of, or of any part or proportion thereof, such will shall be valid and effectual to pass any land acquired by the devisor after the making of such will, in the same manner as if the title thereto had been acquired before the making thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 3.

Estates acquired after the making of a will may pass by the will where such intention is expressed.

4. Where land is devised in any such will as aforesaid, it shall be considered that the devisor intended to devise all such estate as he was seised of in the same land, whether in fee simple or otherwise, unless it appears upon the face of such will that he intended to devise only an estate for life, or other estate less than he was seised of at the time of making the will containing such devise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 4.

A devise of land shall be taken to carry as large an estate as the testator had in the land, unless a contrary intention is expressed.

5. Any will affecting land executed after the sixth day of March, 1834, and before the first day of January, 1874, in the presence of and attested by two or more witnesses, shall have the same validity and effect as if executed in the presence of and attested by three witnesses; and it shall be sufficient if the witnesses subscribed their names in presence of each other, although their names were not subscribed in presence of the testator. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 5.

Witnesses need not subscribe in the presence of the testator.

6. After the fourth day of May, 1859, and before the first day of January, 1874, every married woman might, by devise or bequest executed in the presence of two or more witnesses, neither of whom was her husband, make any devise or bequest of her separate property, real or personal, or of any rights therein, whether such property was acquired before or after marriage, to or among her child or children issue of any marriage, and failing there being any issue, then to her husband, or as she might see fit, in the same manner as if she were sole and unmarried. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 6.

Will by married woman between 4th May, 1859, and 1st January, 1874.

WILLS AFTER 1ST JANUARY, 1874.

7. Unless herein otherwise expressly provided, the subsequent sections of this Act shall not extend to any will made before the first day of January, 1874; but every will re-

Operation of succeeding sections.

Imp. Act 1 V. c. 26, s. 34. executed or re-published, or revived by any codicil, shall, for the purposes of the said sections, be deemed to have been made at the time at which the same was so re-executed, re-published or revived. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 7.

Application of sections 20-22, 25 and 26. 8. Sections 20, 21, 22, 25 and 26 of this Act shall not apply to the will of any person who was dead before the first day of January, 1869, but shall apply to the will of every person who has died since the thirty-first day of December, 1868, or who dies after the passing of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 8.

Interpretation. Imp. Act 1 V. c. 26, s. 1. 9. In the construction of the sections numbered 10 to 39 inclusive in this Act,

"Will." 1. "Will" shall extend to a testament, and to a codicil, and to an appointment by will, or by writing in the nature of a will in exercise of a power, and also to a disposition by will and testament, or devise of the custody and tuition of any child, by virtue of the Act passed in the twelfth year of the reign of King Charles the Second, entitled "An Act for taking away the Court of Wards, and liveries and tenures in capite, and by knight's service and purveyance, and for settling a revenue upon His Majesty in lieu thereof," and to any other testamentary disposition;

"Real estate." 2. "Real estate" shall extend to messuages, lands, rents, and hereditaments, whether freehold or of any other tenure, and whether corporeal, incorporeal or personal, and to any undivided share thereof, and to any estate, right, or interest (other than a chattel interest) therein;

"Personal estate." 3. "Personal estate" shall extend to leasehold estates and other chattels real, and also to moneys, shares of government and other funds, securities for money (not being real estates), debts, choses in action, rights, credits, goods, and all other property whatsoever which by law devolves upon the executor or administrator, and to any share or interest therein;

"Mortgage." 4. "Mortgage" shall include any lien for unpaid purchase money and any charge, incumbrance, or obligation of any nature whatever upon any lands or tenements of a testator or intestate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 9.

Power to dispose of all property. Imp. Act 1 V. c. 26, s. 3. 10. Every person may devise, bequeath, or dispose of by will executed in manner hereinafter mentioned, all real estate and personal estate to which he may be entitled, at the time of his death, and which, if not so devised, bequeathed, or disposed of, would devolve upon his heir at law, or upon his executor or administrator; and the power hereby given shall extend to estates pur autre vie, whether there be or be not any special occupant thereof, and whether the same be a corporeal or incorporeal hereditament; and also to all contingent, executory, or other future interests in any real or personal estate, whether the testator be or be not ascertained as the person or one of the persons in whom the same may respectively become vested, and whether he be entitled thereto under the instrument by which the same were respectively created, or under any disposition thereof by deed or will, and also to all rights of entry for conditions broken and other rights of entry, and also to such of the same estates, interests and rights respectively, and other real and personal estate, as the testator may be entitled to at the time of his death, notwithstanding that he may become entitled to the same subsequently to the execution of his will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 10.

Rights of entry.

Property acquired after the will.

11. No will made by any person under the age of twenty-one years shall be valid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 11.

Wills by infants invalid. Imp. Act 1 V. c. 26, s. 7.

12.—(1) No will shall be valid unless it is in writing, and executed in manner hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, it shall be signed at the foot or end thereof by the testator, or by some other person in his presence, and by his direction; and such signature shall be made or acknowledged by the testator in the presence of two or more witnesses present at the same time, and such witnesses, shall attest and shall subscribe the will in the presence of the testator; but no form of attestation shall be necessary.

Execution. Imp. Act 1 V. c. 26, s. 9.

Attestation.

(2) Every will, so far only as regards the position of the signature of the testator, or of the person signing for him as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be valid, within the meaning of this Act, if the signature is so placed, at, or after, or following, or under, or beside, or opposite to the end of the will, that it is apparent on the face of the will that the testator intended to give effect by such signature to the writing signed as his will; and no such will shall be affected by the circumstance that the signature does not follow or is not immediately after the foot or end of the will, or by the circumstance that a blank space intervenes between the concluding word of the will and the signature, or by the circumstance that the signature is placed among the words of the testimonium clause, or of the clause of attestation, or follows or is after or under the clause of attestation either with or without a blank space intervening, or follows, or is after, or under, or beside the names or one of the names of the subscribing witnesses, or by the circumstance that the signature is on a side, or page, or other portion of the paper or papers containing the will, whereon no clause or paragraph or disposing part of the will is written above the signature, or by the circumstance that there appears to be sufficient space on or at the bottom of the preceding side or page or other portion of the same paper on which the will is written to contain the signature; and the enumeration of the above circumstances shall not restrict the generality of the above enactment; but no signature under this Act shall be operative to give effect to any disposition or direction which is underneath, or which follows it, nor shall it give effect to any disposition or direction inserted after the signature was made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 12.

Signature. Imp. Act 15-16 V. c. 24, s. 1.

Appointments
by will how to be exercised.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 10.

13. No appointment made by will, in exercise of any power, shall be valid, unless the same is executed in manner hereinbefore required; and every will executed in manner hereinbefore required, shall, so far as respects the execution and attestation thereof, be a valid execution of a power of appointment by will, notwithstanding it has been expressly required that a will made in exercise of such power shall be executed with some additional or other form of execution or solemnity. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 13.

Wills of personality of soldiers and sailors.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 11.

14. Any soldier being in actual military service, or any mariner or seaman being at sea, may dispose of his personal estate as he might have done before the passing of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 14.

Publication
unnecessary.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 13.

15. Every will executed in manner hereinbefore required shall be valid without any other publication thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 15.

Will not invalid if witness incompetent.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 14.

16. If any person who attests the execution of a will is, at the time of the execution thereof, or becomes at any time afterwards, incompetent to be admitted a witness to prove the execution thereof, such will shall not on that account be invalid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 16.

Gifts, etc., to witness invalid.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 15.

17. If any person attests the execution of any will, to whom, or to whose wife or husband any beneficial devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift, or appointment of or affecting any real or personal estate (other than and except charges and directions for the payment of any debt or debts) is thereby given or made, such devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift, or appointment shall, so far only as concerns such person attesting the execution of such will, or the wife or husband of such person, or any person claiming under such person or wife or husband, be utterly null and void, and such person so attesting shall be admitted as a witness to prove the execution of such will, or to prove the validity or invalidity thereof, notwithstanding such devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift, or appointment mentioned in such will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 17.

Creditors
competent witnesses.
c. 26, s. 16.

18. In case by any will any real or personal estate is charged with any debt or debts, and any creditor, or the wife or husband of any creditor whose debt is so charged attests the execution of such will, such creditor, notwithstanding such charge, shall be admitted a witness to prove the execution of such will, or to prove the validity or invalidity thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 18.

Executor competent witness.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 17.

19. No person shall, on account of his being an executor of a will, be incompetent to be admitted a witness to prove the execution of such will, or a witness to prove the validity or invalidity thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 19.

20. Every will shall be revoked by the marriage of the testator, except a will made in the exercise of a power of appointment where the real or personal estate thereby appointed would not, in default of such appointment, pass to the testator's heir, executor or administrator, or the person entitled as the testator's next of kin under The Statute of Distributions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 20. See section 8 of this Act.

Revocation by marriage.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 18.

21. No will shall be revoked by any presumption of an intention, on the ground of an alteration in circumstances. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 21. See section 8 of this Act.

No presumption by change of circumstances.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 19.

22. No will or codicil, or any part thereof, shall be revoked otherwise than as aforesaid, or by another will or codicil executed in manner hereinbefore required, or by some writing declaring an intention to revoke the same, and executed in the manner in which a will is hereinbefore required to be executed, or by the burning, tearing, or otherwise destroying the same, by the testator, or by some person in his presence and by his direction, with the intention of revoking the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 22. See section 8 of this Act.

How only will may be revoked.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 20.

23. No obliteration, interlineation or other alteration made in any will after the execution thereof, shall be valid or have any effect, except so far as the words or effect of the will before such alteration are not apparent, unless such alteration is executed in like manner as hereinbefore is required for the execution of the will; but the will, with such alteration as part thereof, shall be deemed to be duly executed, if the signature of the testator and the subscription of the witnesses are made in the margin or in some other part of the will opposite or near to such alteration, or at the foot or end of, or opposite to, a memorandum referring to such alteration, and written at the end or in some other part of the will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 23.

Of obliterations, interlineations,
etc.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 21.

24. No will or codicil, or any part thereof, which has been in any manner revoked, shall be revived otherwise than by the re-execution thereof, or by a codicil executed in manner hereinbefore required, and shewing an intention to revive the same; and where any will or codicil which has been partly revoked, and afterwards wholly revoked, is revived, such revival shall not extend to so much thereof as was revoked before the revocation of the whole thereof, unless an intention to the contrary is shewn. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 24.

Revival.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 22.

25. No conveyance or other act made or done subsequently to the execution of a will, of or relating to any real or personal estate therein comprised, except an act by which such will is revoked as aforesaid, shall prevent the operation of the will with respect to such estate, or interest in such real or personal estate, as the testator had power to dispose of by will at the time of his death. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 25. See section 8 of this Act.

No act as to property named in the will to prevent operation of the will as to any interest left in testator.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 23.

Will to speak on death.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 24.

26. Every will shall be construed, with reference to the real and personal estate comprised in it, to speak and take effect as if it had been executed immediately before the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention appears by the will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 26. See section 8 of this Act.

Lapsed devise or interest in a residuary devise.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 25.

27. Unless a contrary intention appears by the will, such real estate or interest therein as is comprised or intended to be comprised in any devise, in such will contained, which fails or becomes void by reason of the death of the devisee in the lifetime of the testator, or by reason of such devise being contrary to law, or otherwise incapable of taking effect, shall be included in the residuary devise (if any) contained in such will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 27.

Leaseholds, when they may pass under a general devise.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 26.

28. A devise of the land of the testator, or of the land of the testator in any place or in the occupation of any person mentioned in his will, or otherwise described in a general manner and any other general devise which would describe a leasehold estate, if the testator had no freehold estate which could be described by it, shall be construed to include his leasehold estates, or any of them to which such description will extend (as the case may be), as well as freehold estates, unless a contrary intention appears by the will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 28.

A general gift of realty or personalty to include property over which testator has a general power of appointment.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 27.

29. A general devise of the real estate of the testator, or of the real estate of the testator in any place or in the occupation of any person mentioned in his will, or otherwise described in a general manner, shall be construed to include any real estate, or any real estate to which such description will extend (as the case may be), which he may have power to appoint in any manner he may think proper, and shall operate as an execution of such power, unless a contrary intention appears by the will, and in like manner a bequest of the personal estate of the testator, or any bequest of personal estate described in a general manner, shall be construed to include any personal estate, or any personal estate to which such description will extend (as the case may be), which he may have power to appoint in any manner he may think proper, and shall operate as an execution of such power, unless a contrary intention appears by the will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 29.

General devise
to pass whole estate in the land devised.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 28.
Rev. Stat. c.
108.

30. Where any real estate is devised to any person without any words of limitation, such devise shall, subject to The Devolution of Estates Act, be construed to pass the fee simple, or other the whole estate or interest, which the testator had power to dispose of by will, unless a contrary intention appears by the will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 30.

Meaning of "heir" in a devise of real estate.

31. Where any real estate is devised by any testator, dying after the 5th day of March, 1880, to the heir or heirs of such testator, or of any other person, and no contrary or other intention is signified by the will, the words "heir" or "heirs" shall be construed to mean the person or persons to whom such real estate would descend under the law of Ontario in case of an intestacy. 43 V. c. 14, s. 2.

32. In any devise or bequest of real or personal estate, the words "die without issue," or "die without leaving issue," or "have no issue," or any other words which import either a want or failure of issue of any person in his lifetime, or at the time of his death, or an indefinite failure of his issue, shall be construed to mean a want or failure of issue in the lifetime or at the time of the death of such person, and not an indefinite failure of his issue, unless a contrary intention appears by the will, by reason of such person having a prior estate tail, or of a preceding gift being; without any implication arising from such words, a limitation of an estate tail to such person or issue, or otherwise: but this Act shall not extend to cases where such words as aforesaid import if no issue described in a preceding gift be born, or if there be no issue who live to attain the age, or otherwise answer the description required for obtaining a vested estate by a preceding gift to such issue. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 31.

Import of words "die without issue" or "have no issue" with art. 15 or to that Act 1 V. c. 29, s. 29.

Proviso.

33. Where any real estate is devised to a trustee or executor, such devise shall be construed to pass the fee simple or other the whole estate or interest which the testator had power to dispose of by will in such real estate unless a definite term of years absolute or determinable, or an estate of freehold is thereby given to him expressly or by implication. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 32.

When devise to a trustee or executor shall pass whole estate of testator. Imp. Act 1 V. c. 26, s. 30.

34. Where any real estate is devised to a trustee without any express limitation of the estate to be taken by such trustee, and the beneficial interest in such real estate, or in the surpluses and profits thereof, is not given to any person for life, or such beneficial interest is given to any person for life, but the purposes of the trust may continue beyond the life of such person, such devise shall, subject to The Devolution of Estates Act, be construed to vest in such trustee the fee simple or other the whole legal estate which the testator had power to dispose of by will in such real estate, and not an estate determinable when the purposes of the trust are satisfied. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 33.

When devise to a trustee shall pass the whole estate beyond which is requisite to the trust. Imp. Act 1 V. c. 26, s. 31. Rev. Stat. c. 108.

35. Where any person to whom any real estate is devised for an estate tail or an estate in quasi entail dies in the lifetime of the testator, leaving issue who would be inheritable under such entail, and any such issue are living at the time of the death of the testator, such devise shall not lapse, but shall take effect as if the death of such person had happened immediately after the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention appears by the will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 34.

When devise for an estate tail or in quasi entail shall not lapse. Imp. Act 1 V. c. 26, s. 32.

Gifts to issue who leave issue on testator's death, shall not lapse.
Imp. Act 1 V.
c. 26, s. 33.

36. Where any person, being a child or other issue of the testator, to whom any real or personal estate is devised or bequeathed for any estate or interest not determinable at or before the death of such person, dies in the lifetime of the testator, leaving issue, and any of the issue of such person are living at the time of the death of the testator, such devise or bequest shall not lapse, but shall take effect as if the death of such person had happened immediately after the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention appears by the will. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 35.

Mortgage debts to be primarily chargeable on the lands.
Imp. Act 17-
18 V. c. 113.

37.—(1) Where any person has died since the 31st day of December, 1865, or hereafter dies seised of or entitled to any estate or interest in any real estate, which, at the time of his death, was or is charged with the payment of any sum or sums of money by way of mortgage, and such person has not, by his will or deed or other document, signified any contrary or other intention, the heir or devisee to whom such real estate lands or is devised shall not be entitled to have the mortgage debt discharged or satisfied out of the personal estate, or any other real estate of such person; but the real estate so charged shall, as between the different persons claiming through or under the deceased person, be primarily liable to the payment of all mortgage debts with which the same is charged, every part thereof according to its value bearing a proportionate part of the mortgage debts charged on the whole thereof.

Proviso.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall affect or diminish any right of the mortgagee on such real estate to obtain full payment or satisfaction of his mortgage debt, either out of the personal estate of the person so dying as aforesaid, or otherwise; and nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any person claiming under or by virtue of any will, deed, or document made before the first day of January, 1874. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 36.

Consequence of direction that testator's debts be paid out of personalty. Imp.
Act 30-31 V.
c. 69, s. 1.

38. In the construction of any will or deed or other document to which the next preceding section of this Act relates, a general direction that the debts or that all the debts of the testator shall be paid out of his personal estate shall not be deemed to be a declaration of an intention contrary to or other than the rule in the said section contained, unless such contrary or other intention is further declared by words expressly or by necessary implication referring to all or some of the testator's debts or debt charged by way of mortgage on any part of his real estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 37.

Acts repealed.

39. The Acts of the Imperial Parliament described in the schedule to this Act (except so far as the same relate to any wills to which section 7 and the following sections of this Act do not extend) are, and shall continue to be, repealed to the extent in the third column of the said schedule mentioned; but such repeal shall not revive any Act or provision of law repealed by them, nor shall the said repeal prevent the application of any of the said Acts, or of any Act or provision of law formerly in force, to any transaction, matter or thing anterior to the time of the repeal of the said Acts and to which they would otherwise apply. R. S. O. 1877, c. 106, s. 38.

Interpretation.

Rev. Stat. c. 109.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

1. In the construction of this Act the words "Will," "Real Estate," "Personal Estate," "Person" and "Testator," shall have the meaning assigned to them respectively by section 9, of The Wills Act of Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 1.

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF TRUSTEES.

Every instrument to be deemed to contain a clause

in the words or to the effect following, that is to say :—“ That the trustees or trustee, for the time being, of the said deed, will or other instrument, shall be respectively chargeable only for such moneys, stocks, funds and securities as they shall respectively actually receive, notwithstanding their respectively signing any receipt for the sake of conformity, and shall be answerable and accountable only for their own acts, receipts, neglects or defaults, and not for those of each other, nor for any banker, broker, or other person with whom any trust moneys or securities may be deposited ; nor for the insufficiency or deficiency of any stocks, funds, or securities, nor for any other loss, unless the same shall happen through their own wilful default respectively ; and also that it shall be lawful for the trustees or trustee for the time being, of the said deed, will or other instrument, to reimburse themselves or himself, or pay or discharge out of the trust premises all expenses incurred in or about the execution of the trusts or powers of the said deed, will or other instrument.” R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 2.

3.—(1) Where a trustee, either original or substituted and whether appointed by the High Court or otherwise, dies, or desires to be discharged from, or refuses, or becomes unfit or incapable, to act in the trusts or powers in him reposed, before the same have been fully discharged and performed, it shall be lawful for the person or persons nominated for that purpose by the deed, will or other instrument creating the trust (if any), or if there be no such person, or no such person able and willing to act, then for the surviving or continuing trustees or trustee for the time being, or the acting executors or executor or administrators or administrator of the last surviving and continuing trustee, or for the last retiring trustee, by writing, to appoint any other person or persons to be a trustee or trustees, in place of the trustee or trustees dying, or desiring to be discharged, or refusing, or becoming unfit, or incapable to act as aforesaid ; and so often as any new trustee or trustees is or are so appointed as aforesaid, all the trust property (if any), which for the time being is vested in the surviving or continuing trustees or trustee, or in the heirs, executors or administrators of any trustees or trustee, shall, with all convenient speed be conveyed, assigned and transferred, so that the same may be legally and effectually vested in such new trustee or trustees, either solely or jointly with the surviving or continuing trustees, or a surviving or continuing trustee, as the case may require ; and every new trustee to be appointed as aforesaid, as well before as after such conveyance, assignment or transfer as aforesaid, and also every trustee appointed by the High Court, either before or after the passing of this Act, shall have the same powers, authorities and discretions, and and shall in all respects act as if he had originally been nominated a trustee by the deed, will, or other instrument creating the trust.

for the indemnity and reimbursement of the trustees. Imp. Act 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 31.

Appointment of new trustees. Imp. Act 23-24 V. c. 145, s. 27.

(2) The power of appointing new trustees hereinbefore contained, may be exercised in cases where a trustee, nominated in a will, has died in the lifetime of the testator. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 4.

Vesting of trust property in new or continuing trustees.

Imp. Act 44 and 45, V. c. 41, s. 34.

4.—(1) Where an instrument by which a new trustee is appointed to perform any trust contains a declaration by the appointor to the effect that any estate or interest in any land subject to the trust, or in any chattel so subject, or the right to recover and receive any debt or other thing in action so subject, shall vest in the persons who by virtue of such instrument become and are the trustees for performing the trust, that declaration shall, without any conveyance or assignment, operate to vest in those persons, as joint tenants, and for the purposes of the trust, that estate, interest or right.

(2) Where an instrument by which a retiring trustee is discharged under this Act contains such a declaration as is in this section mentioned by the retiring and continuing trustees, and by the other person, if any, empowered to appoint trustees, that declaration shall, without any conveyance or assignment, operate to vest in the continuing trustees alone, as joint tenants, and for the purposes of the trust, the estate, interest, or right to which the declaration relates.

(3) This section does not extend to any such share, stock, annuity, or property as is only transferable in books kept by a company or other body, or in manner prescribed by or under an Act of Parliament or of this Legislature.

(4) For purposes of registration of an instrument in any registry, the person or persons making the declaration shall be deemed the conveying party or parties, and the conveyance shall be deemed to be made by him or them under a power conferred by this Act.

(5) This section applies only to instruments executed after the 1st day of July, 1886. 49 V. c. 20, s. 17.

Trustees buying or selling.

Rev. Stat. c. 112.

5. Trustees who are vendors or purchasers may sell or buy without excluding the application of section 1 of The Act to amend the Law of Vendor and Purchaser and to Simplify Titles. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 4.

Fee simple estates of bare trustees to vest in their personal representatives.

6. Upon the death of a bare trustee of any corporeal or incorporeal hereditament of which such trustee was seised in fee simple, such hereditaments shall vest in the legal personal representative, from time to time, of such trustee. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 5.

Conveyances by married woman as bare trustee.

7. Where any freehold hereditament is vested in a married woman as a bare trustee, she may convey or surrender the same as if she were a feme sole, and without her husband joining in the conveyance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 6.

8. The bona fide payment of any money to and the receipt thereof by any person to whom the same is payable upon any express or implied trust, or for any limited purpose, and such payment to and receipt by the survivors or survivor of two or more mortgagees or holders, or the executors or administrators of such survivor, or their or his assigns, shall effectually discharge the person paying the same from seeing to the application or being answerable for the misapplication thereof, unless the contrary is expressly declared by the instrument creating the trust or security. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 7. See also Cap. 102, s. 15. Receipts of money paid to or received by any person for or on behalf of a trust or estate, or for or on behalf of a mortgagee or holder, or for or on behalf of the survivors or survivor of two or more mortgagees or holders, or for or on behalf of the executors or administrators of such survivor, or for or on behalf of their or his assigns, shall effectually discharge the person paying the same from seeing to the application or being answerable for the misapplication thereof, unless the contrary is expressly declared by the instrument creating the trust or security.

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF EXECUTORS, ETC.

9. The executors or administrators of any deceased person may maintain an action for all torts or injuries to the person or to the real or personal estate of the deceased, except in cases of libel and slander, in the same manner, and with the same rights and remedies as the deceased would, if living, have been entitled to do; and the damages when recovered shall form part of the personal estate of the deceased; but such action shall be brought within one year after his decease. 49 V. c. 16, s. 23. Actions by executors or administrators for torts.

10. In case any deceased person committed a wrong to another in respect of his person, or of his real or personal property, the person so wronged may maintain an action against the executors or administrators of the person who committed the wrong. The action shall be brought at latest within one year after the decease. This section does not apply to libel or slander. 49 V. c. 16, s. 23; 50 V. c. 7, s. 33. Actions by persons wronged by executors or administrators for torts.

11. In estimating the damages in any action under either of the preceding two sections, the benefit, gain, profit or advantage which, in consequence of or resulting from the wrong committed, may have accrued to the estate of the person who committed the wrong, shall be taken into consideration, and shall form part, or may constitute the whole, of the damages to be recovered, and whether or not any property, or the proceeds or value of property, belonging to the person bringing the action or to his estate, has or have been appropriated by or added to the estate or moneys of the person who committed the wrong. 49 V. c. 16, s. 23. Damages in actions under two preceding sections.

12. The executors or administrators of any lessor or landlord may distrain upon the lands demised for any term or at will, for the arrearages of rent due to such lessor or landlord in his lifetime, in like manner as such lessor or landlord might have done if living. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 10. Executors or administrators of a lessor may distrain for arrearages.

Such arrearages of rent may be distrained for within six months after determination of the lease.

13. Such arrearages may be distrained for at any time within six months after the determination of the term or lease, and during the continuance of the possession of the tenant from whom the arrears became due; and the powers and provisions contained in the several statutes relating to distresses for rent shall be applicable to the distresses so made as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 11.

Interest in real estate devised by a judgment creditor.

14. The title and interest of a testator or intestate in real estate may be seized and sold under a judgment, and execution recovered by a creditor of the testator or intestate, against his executor or administrator, in the same manner as if the same process that the same could be sold under a judgment against the testator or intestate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 13. See also Chap. 64, s. 26.

Representatives of joint contractors, obligors or partners, including those living.

15. In case any one or more joint contractors, obligors or partners die, the person interested in the contract, obligation or promise entered into by such joint contractors, obligors or partners, may proceed by action against the representatives of the deceased contractor, obligor or partner, in the same manner as if the contract, obligation or promise, had been joint and several, and this, notwithstanding there may be another person liable under such contract, obligation or promise still living, and an action pending against such person; but the property and effects of stockholders in chartered banks or the members of other incorporated companies, shall not be liable to a greater extent than they would have been if this section had not been passed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 14.

Where any person entitled to any freehold land by way of mortgage has departed this life, and his executor or administrator has become entitled to the money secured by the mortgage or has assented to a bequest thereof, or has assigned the mortgage debt, such executor or administrator, if the mortgage money was paid to the testator or intestate in his lifetime, or on payment of the principal money and interest due on the mortgage, or on receipt of the consideration money for the assignment, may convey, assign, release or discharge the mortgage debt and the mortgagee's estate in the land; and such executor or administrator shall have the same power as to any portion of the lands on payment of some part of the mortgage debt, or on any arrangement for exonerating the estate, or any part of the mortgage lands without payment of money; and such conveyance, assignment, release or discharge shall be as effectual as if the same had been made by the person having the mortgagee's estate in the land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 15. See also Chap. 102, s. 12.

16. Where any person entitled to any freehold land by way of mortgage has departed this life, and his executor or administrator has become entitled to the money secured by the mortgage or has assented to a bequest thereof, or has assigned the mortgage debt, such executor or administrator, if the mortgage money was paid to the testator or intestate in his lifetime, or on payment of the principal money and interest due on the mortgage, or on receipt of the consideration money for the assignment, may convey, assign, release or discharge the mortgage debt and the mortgagee's estate in the land; and such executor or administrator shall have the same power as to any portion of the lands on payment of some part of the mortgage debt, or on any arrangement for exonerating the estate, or any part of the mortgage lands without payment of money; and such conveyance, assignment, release or discharge shall be as effectual as if the same had been made by the person having the mortgagee's estate in the land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 15. See also Chap. 102, s. 12.

Certificate of payment of mortgage, and at whatever time.

17. Every certificate of payment or discharge of a mortgage, or of the conditions therein, or of the lands or of any part of the same, or of any part of the money by the mortgagee or his executor, administrator, assignor or assignee, or any one of them, at whatsoever time given, and whether before or after the time limited by the mortgage for payment or performance, shall, if in conformity with The Registry Act, be valid to all intents and purposes whatsoever. R.S.O. 1877, c. 107, s. 16. Rev. Stat. c. 114.

See also Cap. 102, s. 13.

18. Where, by any will coming into operation after the eighteenth day of September, 1865, or after the passing of this Act, a testator charges his real estate, or any specific portion thereof, with the payment of his debts or with the payment of any legacy or other specific sum of money, and devises the estate so charged to any trustee or trustees for the whole of his estate or interest therein, and does not make any express provision for the raising of such debt, legacy or sum of money out of such estate, the said devisee or devisees in trust, notwithstanding any trusts actually declared by the testator, may raise such debt, legacy or money as aforesaid by a sale and absolute disposition, by public auction or private contract, of the said real estate or any part thereof, or by a mortgage of the same, or partly in one mode and partly in the other, and any deed or deeds of mortgage so executed may reserve such rate of interest and fix such period or periods of repayment as the person or persons executing the same think proper. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 17. Devisee in trust may raise money by sale or mortgage to satisfy charges, notwithstanding want of express power in the will. Imp. Act 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 14.

19. The powers conferred by the last section shall extend to all and every the person or persons in whom the estate devised is for the time being vested by survivorship, descent or devise, or to any person or persons appointed under any power in the will or by the High Court to succeed to the trusteeship vested in such devisee or devisees in trust as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 18. Power given by last section extended to survivors, devisees, &c. Imp. Act 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 15.

20. If a testator who creates such a charge as is described in section 18 does not devise the real estate charged as aforesaid in such terms as that his whole estate and interest therein become vested in any trustee or trustees, the executor or executors for the time being named in the will (if any) shall have the same or the like power of raising the said moneys as is hereinbefore conferred upon the devisee or devisees in trust of the said real estate; and such powers shall from time to time devolve to and become vested in the person or persons (if any) in whom the executorship is for the time being vested; but any sale or mortgage under this Act shall operate only on the estate and interest of the testator. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 19. Executor to have power of raising money where there is no sufficient devise. Imp. Act, 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 16.

21. Purchasers or mortgagees shall not be bound to inquire whether the powers conferred by the preceding three sections of this Act, or any of them, have been duly and correctly exercised by the person or persons acting in virtue thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 20. Purchasers, &c., not bound to inquire as to exercise of powers. Imp. Act, 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 17.

Sections 18 to 21 not to affect certain sales nor to extend to devises in fee or in tail.
Imp. Act, 22-23 V. c. 33, s. 18.

22. The provisions contained in the preceding four sections shall not in any way prejudice or affect any sale or mortgage already made or hereafter to be made under or in pursuance of any will coming into operation before the eighteenth day of September, 1865; but the validity of any such sale or mortgage shall be ascertained and determined in all respects as if this Act had not been passed; and the said several sections shall not extend to a devise to any person or persons in fee or in tail, or for the testator's whole estate and interest charged with debts or legacies, nor shall they affect the power of any such devisee or devisees to sell or mortgage as he or they may by law now do. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 21.

Powers of sale etc., may be exercised by executor when no other person is appointed to exercise same.

23. Where there is in any will or codicil of any deceased person, (whether such will has been made, or such person has died before or after the said first day of January, 1874, any direction whether express or implied, to sell, dispose of, appoint, mortgage, incumber or lease any real estate, and no person is by the said will, or some codicil thereto, or otherwise by the testator appointed to execute and carry the same into effect, the executor or executors (if any) named in such will or codicil shall and may execute and carry into effect every such direction to sell, dispose of, appoint, incumber or lease such real estate, and any estate or interest therein, in as full, large, and ample a manner, and with the same legal effect, as if the executor or executors of the testator were appointed by the testator to execute and carry the same into effect. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 22.

Administrator with will annexed may exercise powers of sale, given to the executor.

24. Where there is in any will or codicil thereto of any deceased person, (whether such will has been made, or such person has died before or after the first day of January, 1874, any power to any executor or executors in such will to sell, dispose of, appoint, mortgage, incumber, or lease any real estate, or any estate or interest therein, whether such power is express, or arises by implication, and where, from any cause, letters of administration with such will annexed have been by a Court of competent jurisdiction in Ontario committed to any person, and such person has given the additional security required by section 55 of The Surrogate Courts Act, such person shall and may exercise every such power, and sell, dispose of, appoint, mortgage, incumber, or lease such real estate, and any estate or interest therein in as full, large, and ample a manner, and with the same legal effect for all purposes, as the said executor or executors might have done. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 23.

Rev. Stat. c. 50, s. 55.

Or when no one named in the will to execute powers of sale, etc.

25. Where there is in any will or codicil thereto of any deceased person (whether such will has been made or such person has died before or after the first day of January, 1874,) any power to sell, dispose of, appoint, mortgage, incumber, or lease any real estate, or any estate or interest therein, whether such power is express, or arises by implication, and no person is by the said will, or some codicil thereto, or otherwise by the testator appointed to execute such power, and letters of administration with such will annexed, have been by a Court of competent jurisdiction in Ontario, committed to any person, and such person has given the additional security before mentioned such person shall and may exercise every such power, and sell, dispose of, appoint, mortgage, incumber or lease such real estate, and any estate or interest therein, in as full, large, and ample a manner, and with the same legal effect, as if such last named person had been appointed by the testator to execute such power. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 24.

26. Where any person has entered into a contract in writing for the sale and conveyance of real estate, or of any estate or interest therein, and such person has died intestate, or without providing by will for the conveyance of such real estate, or estate or interest therein, to the person entitled or to become entitled to such conveyance under such contract, then, where, upon the supposition of the deceased being alive, he would be liable to execute a conveyance, the executor, administrator, or administrator with the will annexed (as the case may be), of such deceased person, shall make and give to the person entitled to the same a good and sufficient conveyance or conveyances of such estates, and of such nature as the said deceased, if living, would be liable to give, but without covenants, except as against the acts of the grantor; and such conveyances shall be as valid and effectual as if the deceased were alive at the time of the making thereof, and had executed the same, but shall not have any further validity. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 25.

Executor etc., may convey in pursuance of a contract for sale made by deceased.

27. Every executor, administrator, and administrator with the will annexed, shall, as respects the additional powers vested in him by this Act, and any money or assets by him received in consequence of the exercise of such powers, be subject to all the liabilities, and compellable to discharge all the duties of whatsoever kind, which, as respects the acts to be done by him under such powers, would have been imposed upon an executor or other person appointed by the testator to execute the same, or in case of there being no such executor or person, would have been imposed by law upon any person appointed by law, or by any Court or Judge of competent jurisdiction to execute such powers. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 26.

Duties and liabilities of an executor and administrator acting under the powers in this Act.

28. Where there are several executors, administrators, or administrators with the will annexed, and one or more of them die, the powers hereby created shall vest in the survivor or survivors. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 27.

Powers given by this Act to two or more to survive.

[As to moneys paid under Life Assurance Policies. See Rev. Stat. c. 167, s. 13.]

INVESTMENTS BY TRUSTEES OR EXECUTORS.

Trustees or executors may invest trust moneys in stock or securities of Dominion or of Province.

Investments already made may be held properly invested. Imp. Stat. 23-24 V. c. 115, s. 25.

29.—(1) Trustees or executors having trust money in their hands, which it is in their duty, or which it is in their discretion to invest at interest, shall be at liberty at their discretion, to invest the same in any stock, debentures or securities of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, or of this Province; or in securities which are a first charge on land held in fee simple, provided that such investments are in other respects reasonable and proper, and such trustees or executors shall also be at liberty, at their discretion, to call in any trust funds invested in any other securities than as aforesaid, and to invest the same in any such stock, debentures or securities aforesaid, and also, from time to time, at their discretion, to vary any such investments as aforesaid, for others of the same nature; and any such moneys already invested in any such stock, debentures or securities as aforesaid, shall be held and taken to have been lawfully and properly invested.

When powers not to be exercised.

(2) None of the powers by this section conferred shall take effect, or be exercisable, by virtue of this Act, by any trustees or executors, if it is expressly declared in the deed, will or other instrument creating such trustees or executors, that such trustees or executors shall not have such power.

This section to apply to all trustees, etc.

(3) This section shall apply and extend to both present and future trustees and executors. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 28; 49 V. c. 16, s. 24.

Trustees may invest in debentures of certain companies.

30.—(1) Any trustee, executor or administrator, if not, by the instrument creating his trust, expressly forbidden to do so, may invest any trust fund in debentures of any society or company incorporated under chapter 164 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1877, or any Act incorporated therewith, or under Chapter 169 of these Revised Statutes having a capitalized, fixed and permanent stock not liable to be withdrawn therefrom, amounting to at least $100,000, and he shall not on account of the investment be liable as for a breach of trust, provided that such investment shall in other respects be reasonable and proper, and that the debentures are registered and transferable only on the books of such society or company in his name as trustee for the particular trust estate for which they are held. 42 V. c. 21, s. 1.

Proviso.

(2) This section shall not apply to any instrument creating a trust executed before the first day of January, 1880. 42 V. c. 21, s. 2.

ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES.

Executors may pay debts, etc.

31.—(1) It shall be lawful for any executors to pay any debts or claims upon any evidence that they may think sufficient and to accept any composition or any security, real or personal, for any debts due to the deceased, and to allow any time for payment of any such debts as they may think fit, and also to compromise, compound, or submit to arbitration all debts, accounts, claims and things whatsoever relating to the estate of the deceased, and, for any of the purposes aforesaid, to enter into, give and execute such agreements, instruments of composition, releases and other things, as they may think expedient, without being responsible for any loss occasioned thereby.

Accept composition or security for same, etc.,

And compound same, etc.,

Imp. Stat. 23-24 V. c. 145, s. 30.

(2) None of the powers in this section conferred shall take effect, or be exercisable, by virtue of this Act, by any trustees or executors, if it is expressly declared in the deed, will or other instrument creating such trustees or executors, that such trustees or executors shall not have such power.

When powers not to be exercised.

(3) This section shall apply and extend to both present and future trustees and executors. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 29.

This section to apply to all trustees.

32. On the administration of the estate of a deceased person, in case of a deficiency of assets, debts due to the Crown and to the executor or administrator of the deceased person, and debts to others, including therein respectively debts by judgment or order, and other debts of record, debts by specialty, simple contract debts, and such claims for damages as by statute are payable in like order of administration as simple contract debts—shall be paid pari passu and without any preference or priority of debts of one rank or nature over those of another; but nothing herein contained shall prejudice any lien existing during the lifetime of the debtor on any of his real or personal estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 30.

In case of deficiency of assets, certain debts to rank pari passu.

Exception.

33. In case the executor or administrator gives notice in writing referring to this section and of his intention to avail himself thereof to any creditor or other person of whose claims against the estate he has notice, or to the attorney or agent of such creditor or other person, that he the executor or administrator rejects or disputes the claim, it shall be the duty of the claimant to commence his action in respect of the claim within six months after the notice is given, in case the debt or some part thereof was due at the time of the notice, or within six months from the time the debt or some part thereof falls due if no part thereof was due at the time of the notice, and in default the claim shall be forever barred: provided always that in case the claimant shall be nonsuited at the trial the claimant, or his executors or administrators, may commence a new action within a further period of one month from the time of the nonsuit. 50 V. c. 7, s. 11.

If claim is referred an action must be brought within a certain period or be barred.

Proviso.

34. Where an executor or administrator, liable as such to the rents, covenants or agreements contained in any lease or agreement for a lease granted or assigned to the testator or intestate whose estate is being administered, has satisfied all such liabilities under the said lease or agreement for any lease, as may have accrued due and been claimed up to the time of

35. In like manner where an executor or administrator, liable as such to the rent, covenants or agreements contained in any conveyance on chief rent or rent-charge (whether any such rent be by limitation of use, grant or reservation), or agreement for such conveyance, granted or assigned to or made and entered into with the testator or intestate whose estate is being administered, has satisfied all such liabilities under the said conveyance, or agreement for a conveyance, as may have accrued due and been claimed up to the time of the conveyance hereinafter mentioned, and has set apart a sufficient fund to answer any future claim that may be made in respect of any fixed and ascertained sum covenanted or agreed by the grantee to be laid out on the property conveyed, or agreed to be conveyed, although the period for laying out the same may not have arrived, and has conveyed such property, or assigned the said agreement for such conveyance as aforesaid, to a purchaser thereof, he shall be at liberty to distribute the residuary personal estate of the deceased to and amongst the parties entitled thereto respectively, without appropriating any part, or any further part (as the case may be), of the personal estate of the deceased, to meet any future liability under the said conveyance, or agreement for a conveyance; and the executor or administrator so distributing the residuary estate shall not, after having made or executed such conveyance or assignment, and having, where necessary, set apart such sufficient fund as aforesaid, be personally liable in respect of any subsequent claim under the said conveyance, or agreement for conveyance; but nothing herein contained shall prejudice the right of the grantor, or those claiming under him, to follow the assets of the deceased into the hands of the person or persons to or among whom the said assets may have been distributed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 33.

36. Where a trustee or assignee acting under the trusts of a deed or assignment for the benefit of creditors generally, or a particular class or classes of creditors, where the creditors are not designated by name therein, or an executor or an administrator has given such or the like notices as in the opinion of the Court in which such trustee, assignee, executor, or administrator is sought to be charged, would have been given by the High Court in an action for the execution of the trusts of such deed or assignment, or an administration suit (as the case may be), for creditors and others, to send into such trustee, assignee, executor or administrator, their claims against the person for the benefit of the creditors of whom such deed or assignment is made, or the estate of the testator or intestate, (as the case may be), the trustee, assignee, executor or administrator shall, at the expiration of the time named in the said notices, or the last of the said notices, for sending in such claims, be at liberty to distribute the proceeds of the trust estate, or the assets of the testator or intestate (as the case may be), or any part thereof amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims of which the trustee, assignee, executor or administrator has then notice, and shall not be liable for the proceeds of the trust estate, or assets (as the case may be), or any part thereof, so distributed to any person of whose claim the trustee, assignee, executor or administrator had not notice at the time of the distribution thereof or a part thereof (as the case may be); but nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice the right of any creditor or claimant to follow the proceeds of the trust estate or assets (as the case may be), or any part thereof, into the hands of the person or persons who may have received the same respectively. 46 V. c. 9, s. 1.

Distribution of assets under trust deeds for benefit of creditors, or of the assets of a testator or intestate after notice given by trustee, executor or administrator.

Summary Application to Court for Advice.

37.—(1) Any trustee, executor or administrator, shall be at liberty, without the institution of an action, to apply by petition to a Judge of the High Court, or by summons upon a written statement to any such Judge in Chambers, for the opinion, advice or direction of such Judge on any question respecting the management or administration of the trust property or the assets of a testator or intestate.

Trustee, executor, etc., may apply by petition to Judge for opinion, advice, etc., in management, etc., of trust property.
Imp. Act 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 30.

(2) The petition or statement shall be accompanied by a certificate of counsel, to the effect that in his judgment the case stated is a proper one for the opinion, advice, or direction of the Judge under this Act; and the application shall be served upon, or the hearing thereof shall be attended by all persons interested in the application, or such of them as the Judge thinks expedient.

(3) The costs of the application shall be in the discretion of the Judge to whom the application is made.

(4) The trustee, executor or administrator, acting upon the opinion, advice or direction given by the Judge, shall be deemed, so far as regards his own responsibility, to have discharged his duty as such trustee, executor or administrator, in the subject matter of the said application: but this provision shall not extend to indemnify a trustee, executor or administrator in respect of any act done in accordance with such opinion, advice or direction as aforesaid, if the trustee, executor or administrator has been guilty of any fraud or wilful concealment or misrepresentation in obtaining such opinion, advice or direction. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 35.

ALLOWANCE TO TRUSTEES AND EXECUTORS.

Allowance to trustees.

38. Any trustee under a deed, settlement or will, any executor or administrator, any guardian appointed by any Court, and any testamentary guardian, or any other trustee, howsoever the trust is created, shall be entitled to such fair and reasonable allowance for his care, pains and trouble, and his time expended in and about the trust estate, as may be allowed by the High Court or Judge, or by any master or referee thereof, to whom the matter may be referred. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, ss. 36, 37.

Allowance to be made though the estate not before the Court.

39. A Judge of the High Court may, on application to him for the purpose, settle the amount of such compensation, although the trust estate is not before the Court in any action. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 38.

Act to apply to existing as well as future trusts.

40. Compensation may be allowed in the case of any trust heretofore created, as well as in any to be hereafter created. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 40.

Surrogate Judge may order an allowance to be made to executor or administrator out of the estate for his trouble.

41. The Judge of any Surrogate Court may allow to the executor or trustee or administrator acting under will or letters of administration, a fair and reasonable allowance for his care, pains and trouble, and his time expended in or about the executorship, trusteeship or administration of the estate and effects vested in him under any will or letters of administration, and in administering, disposing of and arranging and settling the same, and generally in arranging and settling the affairs of the estate, and may make an order or orders from time to time therefor and the same shall be allowed to an executor, trustee or administrator in passing his accounts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 41.

Allowance fixed by the instrument.

42. Nothing in the preceding four sections shall apply to any case in which the allowance is fixed by the instrument creating the trust. R. S. O. 1877, c. 107, s. 39.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Real Property Limitation Act." R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 1.

Interpretation.

2. Where the following words occur in this Act they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears :—

"Land."

1. "Land" shall extend to messuages and all other hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, and to money to be laid out in the purchase of land (and to chattels and other personal property transmissible to heirs), and also to any share of the same hereditaments and properties or any of them, and to any estate of inheritance, or estate for any life or lives, or other estate transmissible to heirs, and to any possibility, right or title of entry or action, and any other interest capable of being inherited, and whether the same estates, possibilities, rights, titles and interests, or any of them, are in possession, reversion, remainder or contingency ;

"Assurance."

2. "Assurance" shall mean any deed or instrument (other than a will) by which any land may be conveyed or transferred ; and

"Rent."

3. "Rent" shall extend to all annuities and periodical sums of money charged upon or payable out of any land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 2.

Commencement of Act.

88 ; 32 V. c. 7.
s. 22.

3. This Act shall commence and be deemed to have taken effect, and chapter 88 of the Consolidated Statutes of Upper Canada, and section 22 of the Act passed in the thirty-second year of Her Majesty's reign, and chaptered 7, to have been repealed, on and after the first day of July in the year of our Lord 1877, as respects any person who on and for twelve months continuously after the twenty-first day of December, 1874, resided without this Province, and is a person entitled to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover any land or rent ; or so resident, is a mortgagor, or person entitled to redeem within the meaning of sections 19, 20 or 21 of this Act; or so resident is a person entitled to, or claiming under a mortgage within the meaning of section 22; or so resident is a person entitled to bring an action, or other proceeding within the meaning of section 23; or so resident is a person entitled to an action or other proceeding within the meaning of section 24; or so resident is a person claiming an estate, interest or right, to take effect after or in defeasance of an estate tail within the meaning of section 29; or so resident is a person entitled to demand dower; and except as respects the persons, and in the cases, mentioned above in this section, this Act shall be deemed to have commenced and taken effect and the said Acts to have been repealed from and after the first day of July, 1876. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 3.

LAND OR RENT.

4. No person shall make an entry or distress, or bring any action to recover any land or rent, but within ten years next after the time at which the right to make such entry or distress, or to bring such action, first accrued to some person through whom he claims; or if such right did not accrue to any person through whom he claims, then within ten years next after the time at which the right to make such entry or distress, or to bring such action, first accrued to the person making or bringing the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, ss. 4, 29.

No land or rent to be recovered but within ten years after the right of action accrued.

Imp. 3-4 Wm. iv. c. 27, s. 2; 37-38 V. c. 57, s. 1.

5. In the construction of this Act, the right to make an entry or distress, or bring an action to recover any land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued at such time as hereinafter is mentioned;

When the right shall be deemed to have first accrued.

1. Where the person claiming such land or rent, or some person through whom he claims, has, in respect of the estate or interest claimed, been in possession or in the receipt of the profits of such land, or in receipt of such rent, and has, while entitled thereto, been dispossessed, or has discontinued such possession or receipt, then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time of such dispossession or discontinuance of possession, or at the last time at which any such profits or rent were or was so received.

On dispossession. Imp. Act, 3-4 Wm. iv. c. 27, s. 3.

2. Where the person claiming such land or rent claims the estate or interest of some deceased person who continued in such possession or receipt, in respect of the same estate or interest, until the time of his death, and was the last person entitled to such estate or interest who was in such possession or receipt, then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time of such death.

On abatement or death. Imp. Act, 3-4 Wm. iv. c. 27, s. 3.

3. Where the person claiming such land or rent claims in respect of an estate or interest in possession, granted, appointed or otherwise assured by any instrument other than a will, to him or some person through whom he claims, by a person being in respect of the same estate or interest, in the possession or receipt of the profits of the land, or in receipt of the rent, and no person entitled under such instrument has been in possession or receipt, then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time at which the person claiming, as aforesaid, or the person through whom he claims, became entitled to such possession or receipt by virtue of such instrument.

On alienation. Imp. Act, 3-4 Wm. iv. c. 27, s. 3.

As to lands not cultivated or improved.

4. In the case of lands granted by the Crown of which the grantee, his heirs or assigns, by themselves, their servants or agents, have not taken actual possession by residing upon or cultivating some portion thereof, and in case some other person not claiming to hold under such grantee has been in possession of such land, such possession having been taken while the land was in a state of nature, then unless it can be shewn that such grantee or such person claiming under him while entitled to the lands had knowledge of the same being in the actual possession of such other person, the lapse of ten years shall not bar the right of such grantee or any person claiming under him to bring an action for the recovery of such land, but the right to bring an action shall be deemed to have accrued from the time that such knowledge was obtained: but no such action shall be brought or entry made after twenty years from the time such possession was taken as aforesaid.

Proviso.

Imp. Act, 3-4
W. iv. c. 27,
s. 8.

6. Where any person is in possession or in receipt of the profits of any land, or in receipt of any rent as tenant from year to year or other period, without any lease in writing, the right of the person entitled subject thereto, or of the person through whom he claims, to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover such land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued at the determination of the first of such years or other periods, or at the last time when any rent payable in respect of such tenancy was received (whichever last happened).

7. Where any person is in possession or in receipt of the profits of any land, or in receipt of any rent, as tenant at will, the right of the person entitled subject thereto, or of the person through whom he claims, to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover such land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued either at the determination of such tenancy, or at the expiration of one year next after the commencement of such tenancy, at which time such tenancy shall be deemed to have determined.

In the case of a tenant at will, the right shall be deemed to have accrued at the end of one year. Imp. Act, 1 W. iv. c. 27 s. 7.

8. No mortgagee or cestui que trust shall be deemed to be a tenant at will within the meaning of the next preceding subsection to his mortgagee or trustee.

Case of mortgagee or cestui que trust.

9. Where the person claiming such land or rent, or the person through whom he claims, has become entitled, by reason of any forfeiture or breach of condition, then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued when such forfeiture was incurred or such condition broken.

In case of forfeiture or breach of condition. 1. Act, 3-4 W. c. 27, s. 3.

10. Where any right to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover any land or rent, by reason of any forfeiture or breach of condition, has first accrued in respect of any estate or interest in reversion or remainder, and the land or rent has not been recovered by virtue of such right, the right to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover such land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued in respect of such estate or interest at the time when the same became an estate or interest in possession as if no such forfeiture or breach of condition had happened.

Where advantage of forfeiture is not taken by remainderman, he shall have a new right when estate comes into possession. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 3.

11. Where the estate or interest claimed is an estate or interest in reversion or remainder, or other future estate or interest, and no person has obtained the possession or receipt of the profits of such land, or the receipt of such rent, in respect of such estate or interest, then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time at which such estate or interest became an estate or interest in possession.

In case of future estates. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 3.

12. A right to make an entry or a distress, or to bring an action to recover any land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued, in respect of an estate or interest in reversion or remainder, or other future estate or interest, at the time at which the same became an estate or interest in possession, by the determination of any estate or estates in respect of which such land has been held or the profits thereof or such rent have been received, notwithstanding that the person claiming such land or rent, or some person through whom he claims, has, at any time previously to the creation of the estate or estates which have determined, been in the possession or receipt of the profits of such land, or in receipt of such rent. Provisions for case of future estates. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 5, 37-38 V. c. 57, s. 2.

Time limited as to future estates when person entitled to the particular estate out of possession, etc. Imp. Act, 37-38 V. c. 57, s. 2.

6.—(1) If the person last entitled to any particular estate on which any future estate or interest was expectant has not been in the possession or receipt of the profits of such land, or in receipt of such rent, at the time when his interest determined, no such entry or distress shall be made, and no such action shall be brought, by any person becoming entitled in possession to a future estate or interest, but within ten years next after the time when the right to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action for the recovery of such land or rent, first accrued to the person whose interest has so determined, or within five years next after the time when the estate of the person becoming entitled in possession has become vested in possession, whichever of those two periods is the longer.

The case of bar of future estate and of a subsequent interest created after right of entry, etc., accrued to owner of particular estate. Imp. Act, 37-38 V. c. 57, s. 2.

(2) If the right of any such person to make such entry or distress, or to bring any such action, has been barred under this Act, no person afterwards claiming to be entitled to the same land or rent in respect of any subsequent estate or interest under any deed, will or settlement executed or taking effect after the time when a right to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action for the recovery of such land or rent, first accrued to the owner of the particular estate whose interest has so determined as aforesaid, shall make any such entry or distress, or bring any such action, to recover such land or rent.

When the right to an estate in possession is barred, the right of the same persons to future estates shall also be barred. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 20.

(3) Where the right of any person to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover any land or rent to which he has been entitled for an estate or interest in possession, has been barred by the determination of the period, hereinbefore limited, which is applicable in such case, and such person has, at any time during the said period, been entitled to any other estate, interest, right or possibility, in reversion, remainder or otherwise, in or to the same land or rent, no entry, distress or action shall be made or brought by such person, or any person claiming through him, to recover such land or rent in respect of such other estate, interest, right or possibility, unless in the meantime such land or rent has been recovered by some person entitled to an estate, interest or right which has been limited or taken effect after or in defeasance of such estate or interest in possession. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 6.

An administrator to claim as if he obtained the estate without interval after death of deceased. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 6.

7. For the purposes of this Act, an administrator claiming the estate or interest of the deceased person of whose chattels he has been appointed administrator, shall be deemed to claim as if there had been no interval of time between the death of such deceased person and the grant of the letters of administration. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 7.

A mere entry not to be deemed possession. Idem s. 10.

8. No person shall be deemed to have been in possession of any land within the meaning of this Act, merely by reason of having made an entry thereon. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 8.

9. No continual or other claim upon or near any land shall preserve any right of making an entry or distress, or of bringing an action. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 9.

No right to be preserved by continual claim.
Idem s. 11.

10. No descent cast, discontinuance or warranty, which has happened or been made since the first day of July, 1834, or which may hereafter happen or be made, shall toll or defeat any right of entry or action for the recovery of land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 10.

No descent, warranty, &c., to bar a right of entry or action.
Idem s. 3.

11. Where any one or more of several persons entitled to any land or rent as coparceners, joint tenants or tenants in common have been in possession or receipt of the entirety, or more than his or their undivided share or shares of such land, or of the profits thereof, or of such rent, for his or their own benefit, or for the benefit of any person or persons other than the person or persons entitled to the other share or shares of the same land or rent, such possession or receipt shall not be deemed to have been the possession or receipt of or by such last mentioned person or persons, or any of them. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 11.

Possession of one coparcener, etc., to be the possession of others.
Imp. Act, W. iv. c. 11, s. 12.

12. Where a relation of the persons entitled, as heirs, to the possession, or receipt of the profits of any land, or to the receipt of any rent, enters into the possession or receipt thereof, such possession or receipt shall not be deemed to be the possession or receipt of or by the persons entitled as heirs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 12.

Possession of relations to be the possession of the heirs.
Idem s. 13.

13. Where any acknowledgment of the title of the person entitled to any land or rent has been given to him or to his agent in writing, signed by the person in possession or in receipt of the profits of such land, or in the receipt of such rent, such possession or receipt of or by the person by whom such acknowledgment was given shall be deemed, according to the meaning of this Act, to have been the possession or receipt of or by the person to whom or to whose agent such acknowledgment was given at the time of giving the same, and the right of such last mentioned person, or of any person claiming through him, to make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover such land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued at and not before the time at which such acknowledgment, or the last of such acknowledgments, if more than one, was given. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 13.

Acknowledgment in writing given to the person entitled or his agent, to be equivalent to possession or receipt of rent.
Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 14.

14. The receipt of the rent payable by any tenant from year to year, or other lessee, shall, as against such lessee or any person claiming under him, but subject to the lease, be deemed to be the receipt of the profits of the land for the purposes of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 14.

Receipt of rent to be deemed receipt of profits.
Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 35.

At the end of the period of limitation the right of the party out of possession to be extinguished. Imp. Act, 3-4, W. iv. c. 27, s. 34.

15. At the determination of the period limited by this Act to any person for making an entry or distress, or bringing any action, the right and title of such person to the land or rent, for the recovery whereof such entry, distress, or action respectively might have been made or brought within such period shall be extinguished. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 15.

ARREARS OF DOWER, RENT, AND INTEREST.

No arrears of dower to be recovered for more than six years. Idem s. 41.

16. No arrears of dower, nor any damages on account of such arrears, shall be recovered or obtained by any action for a longer period than six years next before the commencement of such action. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 16.

No arrears of rent or interest to be recovered for more than six years. Imp. Act, 3-4, W. iv. c. 27, s. 42.

17. No arrears of rent, or of interest in respect of any sum of money charged upon or payable out of any land or rent, or in respect of any legacy, or any damages in respect of such arrears of rent or interest, shall be recovered by any distress, or action, but within six years next after the same respectively has become due, or next after any acknowledgment of the same in writing has been given to the person entitled thereto, or his agent, signed by the person by whom the same was payable, or his agent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 17.

Exception in favour of subsequent mortgagee when a prior mortgagee has been in possession. Idem s. 42.

18. Where any prior mortgagee or other incumbrancer has been in possession of any land, or in the receipt of the profits thereof, within one year next before an action is brought by any person entitled to a subsequent mortgage or other incumbrance on the same land, the person entitled to such subsequent mortgage or incumbrance may recover in such action the arrears of interest which have become due during the whole time that such prior mortgagee or incumbrancer was in such possession or receipt as aforesaid, although such time may have exceeded the said term of six years. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 18.

MORTGAGES AND CHARGES ON LAND.

Mortgagor to be barred at end of ten years from the time when the mortgagee took possession, or from the last written acknowledgment. Imp. Acts, 3-4, W. iv. c. 27, s. 28; and 37-38 V. c. 57, s. 7.

19. Where a mortgagee has obtained the possession or receipt of the profits of any land or the receipt of any rent comprised in his mortgage, the mortgagor, or any person claiming through him, shall not bring any action to redeem the mortgage, but within ten years next after the time at which the mortgagee obtained such possession or receipt, unless in the meantime an acknowledgment in writing of the title of the mortgagor, or of his right to redemption, has been given to the mortgagor or some person claiming his estate, or to the agent of such mortgagor or person, signed by the mortgagee or the person claiming through him; and in such case no such action shall be brought, but within ten years next after the time at which such acknowledgment, or the last of such acknowledgments, if more than one was given. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 19.

20. In case there are more mortgagors than one, or more persons than one claiming through the mortgagor or mortgagors, such acknowledgment, if given to any of such mortgagors or persons, or his or their agent, shall be as effectual as if the same had been given to all such mortgagors or persons. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 20.

Acknowledgment to one of several mortgagors. Imp. Act. 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 28.

21. In case there are more mortgagees than one, or more persons than one claiming the estate or interest of the mortgagee or mortgagees, such acknowledgement, signed by one or more of such mortgagees or persons, shall be effectual only as against the party or parties signing as aforesaid, and the person or persons claiming any part of the mortgage money or land or rent by, from, or under him, or them, and any person or persons entitled to any estate or estates, interest or interests, to take effect after or in defeasance of his or their estate or estates, interest or interests, and shall not operate to give to the mortgagor or mortgagors a right to redeem the mortgage as against the person or persons entitled to any other undivided or divided part of the money or land or rent; and where such of the mortgagees or persons aforesaid as have given such acknowledgment are entitled to a divided part of the land or rent comprised in the mortgage or some estate or interest therein, and not to any ascertained part of the mortgage money, the mortgagor or mortgagors shall be entitled to redeem the same divided part of the land or rent on payment, with interest, of the part of the mortgage money which bears the same proportion to the whole of the mortgage money as the value of such divided part of the land or rent bears to the value of the whole of the land or rent comprised in the mortgage. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 21.

Acknowledgment by one of several mortgagees. Imp. Act. 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 28.

22. Any person entitled to or claiming under a mortgage of land, may make an entry or bring an action to recover such land, at any time within ten years next after the last payment of any part of the principal money or interest secured by such mortgage, although more than ten years have elapsed since the time at which the right to make such entry or bring such action first accrued. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 22.

Mortgagee may enter or sue within ten years from last payment. Imp. Act. 7 W. iv. & 1 V. c. 28.

23. No action or other proceeding shall be brought to recover out of any land or rent any sum of money secured by any mortgage or lien, or otherwise charged upon or payable out of such land or rent, or to recover any legacy, but within ten years next after a present right to receive the same accrued to some person capable of giving a discharge for, or release of the same, unless in the meantime some part of the principal money, or some interest thereon, has been paid, or some acknowledgment of the right thereto has been given in writing signed by the person by whom the same is payable, or his agent, to the person entitled thereto or his agent; and in such case no action or Money charged upon land and legacies to be deemed satisfied at the end of ten years, no interest paid or acknowledgment given in writing in the meantime.

 dowress ceased. This section shall not apply to any case in which the right of action has ceased before the fifth day of March, 1880. 43 V. c. 14, s. 3.

BAR OF ESTATES TAIL.

Time period 27. Where the right of a tenant in tail of any land or rent of limitation to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover elapsed against the same, has been barred by reason of the same not having a tenant in tail been made or brought within the period limited by this Act, to be deemed no such entry, distress or action shall be made or brought by to have elapsed any person claiming any estate, interest or right which such against those tenant in tail might lawfully have barred. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108,

 s. 22.

29. Where a tenant in tail of any land or rent has made an assurance thereof, which does not operate to bar the estate or estates to take effect after or in defeasance of his estate tail, and any person is by virtue of such assurance, at the time of the execution thereof, or at any time afterwards, in possession or receipt of the profits of such land, or in the receipt of such rent, and the same person or any other person whosoever (other than some person entitled to such possession or receipt in respect of an estate which has taken effect after or in defeasance of the estate tail) continues or is in such possession or receipt for the period of ten years next after the commencement of the time at which such assurance, if it had then been executed by such tenant in tail, or the person who would have been entitled to his estate tail if such assurance had not been executed, would, without the consent of any other person, have operated to bar such estate or estates as aforesaid, then, at the expiration of such period of ten years, such assurance shall be and be deemed to have been effectual as against any person claiming any estate, interest, or right to take effect after or in defeasance of such estate tail. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 28.

In case of session under an assurance by a tenant in tail, which does not bar the remainder, they shall be barred at the end of ten years after that period at which the assurance, if then executed, would have barred them. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 23; and 37-38 V. c. 57, s. 6.

EQUITABLE CLAIMS.

30.—(1) Where any land or rent is vested in a trustee upon any express trust, the right of the cestui que trust, or any person claiming through him to bring an action against the trustee or any person claiming through him, to recover such land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued, according to the meaning of this Act, at and not before the time at which such land or rent has been conveyed to a purchaser for a valuable consideration, and shall then be deemed to have accrued only as against such purchaser and any person claiming through him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 30.

In case of express trust, the right shall not be deemed to have accrued until a conveyance to a purchaser. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 25.

2) No claim of a cestui que trust against his trustee for any property held on an express trust, or in respect of any breach of such trust, shall be held to be barred by any Statute of Limitations. 44 V. c. 5, s. 17 (2).

Claim of cestui que trust against trustee.

31. In every case of a concealed fraud, the right of any person to bring an action for the recovery of any land or rent of which he or any person through whom he claims may have been deprived by such fraud shall be deemed to have first accrued at and not before the time at which such fraud was or with reasonable diligence might have been first known or discovered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 31.

In cases of fraud no time shall run whilst the fraud remains concealed. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv. c. 27, s. 26.

32. Nothing in the last preceding section contained shall enable any owner of lands or rents to bring an action for the recovery of such lands or rents, or for setting aside any conveyance of such lands or rents, on account of fraud against any bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration, who has not assisted in the commission of such fraud, and who, at the

35. No claim which may lawfully be made at the Common Law by custom, prescription or grant, to any way or other easement, or to any water-course, or the use of any water to be enjoyed, or derived upon, over, or from any land or water of our said Lady the Queen, Her Heirs or Successors, or being the property of any ecclesiastical or lay person or body corporate, when such way or other matter as herein last before mentioned has been actually enjoyed by any person claiming right thereto without interruption for the full period of twenty years shall be defeated or destroyed by shewing only that such way or other matter was first enjoyed at any time prior to the period of twenty years, but, nevertheless, such claim may be defeated in any other way by which the same is now liable to be defeated, and where such way or other matter as herein last before mentioned has been so enjoyed as aforesaid for the full period of forty years, the right thereto shall be deemed absolute and indefeasible, unless it appears that the same was enjoyed by some consent or agreement expressly given or made for that purpose by deed or writing. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 35.

Indefeasible if enjoyed over 40 years.

36. No person shall, acquire a right by prescription to the access and use of light to or for any dwelling-house, workshop or other building; but this section shall not apply to any such right which has been acquired by twenty years' use before the fifth day of March, 1880. 43 V. c. 14, s. 1.

Right to access and use of light by prescription abolished.

37. Each of the respective periods of years in the last preceding three sections mentioned shall be deemed and taken to be the period next before some action wherein the claim or matter to which such period relates was or is brought into question; and no act or other matter shall be deemed an interruption within the meaning of the said three sections, unless the same has been submitted to or acquiesced in for one year after the party interrupted has had notice thereof, and of the person making or authorizing the same to be made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 37.

How the terms shall be calculated, and what acts only shall be an interruption to the prescription.

Imp. Act. 2-3 W. iv, c. 71, s. 4.

38.—(1) In all pleadings wherein the party claiming may now allege his right generally, without averring the existence of such right from time immemorial, such general allegation shall still be deemed sufficient; and if the same is denied, all and every the matters in the next preceding four sections of this Act mentioned and provided which are applicable to the case, shall be admissible in evidence to sustain or rebut such allegation.

What allegation by the party claiming shall be sufficient.

Imp. Act 2-3 W. iv, c. 71, s. 5.

(2) In all pleadings wherein it would formerly have been necessary to allege the right to have existed from time immemorial, it shall be sufficient to allege the enjoyment thereof as of right by the occupiers of the tenement in respect whereof the same is claimed, for and during such of the periods mentioned in this Act as are applicable to the case, and without claiming in the name or right of the owner of the fee as was usually done.

What proof admitted for or against such allegation.

(3) If the other party intends to rely on any proviso, exception, incapacity, disability, contract, agreement or other matter hereinbefore mentioned, or on any cause or matter of fact or of law not inconsistent with the simple fact of enjoyment, the same shall be specially alleged, and set forth in answer to the allegation of the party claiming, and shall not be received in evidence on any general denial of such allegation. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 38.

39. In the several cases mentioned in and provided for by this Act, of claims to lights, ways, water-courses or other easements, no presumption shall be allowed or made in favour or support of any claim upon proof of the exercise or enjoyment of the right or matter claimed for any less period of time or number of years than for such period or number mentioned in this Act as is applicable to the case and to the nature of the claim. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 39.

No presumption admissible on proof of enjoyment for a less period than prescribed by this Act.

Imp. Act 2-3 W. iv, c. 71, s. 6.

44. No entry, distress or action, shall be made or brought by any person, who, at the time at which his right to make any entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover any land or rent, first accrued was under any of the disabilities hereinbefore mentioned, or by any person claiming through him, but within twenty years next after the time at which such right first accrued, although the person under disability at such time may have remained under one or more of such disabilities during the whole of such twenty years, or although the term of five years from the time at which he ceased to be under any such disability, or died, may not have expired. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 44.

Twenty years—utmost allowance for disabilities. Imp. Acts, 3-4, W. iv, c. 27, s. 17, 37-38 V. c. 57, s. 5.

45. Where any person is under any of the disabilities hereinbefore mentioned, at the time at which his right to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover any land or rents first accrues, and departs this life without having ceased to be under any such disability, no time to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover such land or rent beyond the said period of ten years next after the right of such person to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action to recover such land or rent, first accrued or the said period of five years next after the time at which such person died, shall be allowed by reason of any disability of any other person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 108, s. 45.

No further time to be allowed for a succession of disabilities. Imp. Act, 3-4 W. iv, c. 27, s. 18; 37-38 V. c. 57, s. 9.

CHAPTER 112.

An Act to amend the Law of Vendor and Purchaser and to Simplify Titles.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. In the completion of any contract of sale of land made after the 10th day of February, 1876, the rights and obligations of vendors and purchasers shall be regulated by the following rules (but subject to any stipulation in such contract to the contrary), namely:—

Rights of vendors and purchasers in contracts of sale of lands.

1. Recitals, statements and description of facts, matters and parties contained in deeds, instruments, Acts of Parliament or statutory declarations twenty years old at the date of the contract, shall, unless and except so far as they are proved to be inaccurate, be taken to be sufficient evidence of the truth of such facts, matters and descriptions.

Recital, etc. 20 years old, of facts, etc., prima facie evidence.

Memorials of discharged
mortgages.

2. Registered memorials of discharged mortgages shall be sufficient evidence of the mortgages without the production of the mortgages themselves, unless and except so far as such memorials are proved to be inaccurate; and the vendor shall not be bound to produce the mortgages unless they appear to be in his possession or power.

Memorials 20 years old, when, and of what evidence.

3. In case of registered memorials twenty years old, of other instruments, if the memorials purport to be executed by the grantor, or in other cases, if possession has been consistent with the registered title, the memorials shall be sufficient evidence without the production of the instruments to which the memorials relate, except so far as such memorials are proved to be inaccurate; and the vendor shall not be bound to produce the original instruments unless they appear to be in his possession or power; and the memorials shall be presumed to contain all the material contents of the instruments to which they relate.

Receipt in a conveyance.

4. The inability of the vendor to furnish the purchaser with a legal covenant to produce and furnish copies of documents of title, shall not be an objection to the title in case the purchaser will, on the completion of the contract, have an equitable right to the production of such documents. R. S. O. 1877, c. 109, s. 1.

Inability to furnish covenant to produce and furnish documents of title.

Evidence in actions.

2. In actions it shall not be necessary to produce any evidence which, by section 1 of this Act, is dispensed with as between vendor and purchaser; and the evidence therein declared to be sufficient as between vendor and purchaser shall be prima facie sufficient for the purposes of such actions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 109, s. 2. See also Cap. 61, s. 49.

GENERAL RULES, s. 50.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario,
enacts as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Quieting Titles Act," Short title.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 1.

2. Any owner of an estate in fee simple in land or any trustee for the sale of the fee simple, shall be entitled to have his title judicially investigated and the validity thereof ascertained and declared; and he shall be so entitled whether he has the legal estate or not, and whether his title is subject or not to any charges or incumbrances. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 2.

Owners, etc., in fee simple may obtain judicial investigation of title.

3. Any other person who has any estate or interest, in or out of land in Ontario, may also apply for the investigation of his title and a declaration of the validity thereof; but it shall be in the discretion of the Judge by or

In case of any other estate;
investigation to be discretionary with the Judge.

before whom the proceedings are taken, to grant or refuse the application for the investigation ; and such discretion may be invoked and exercised at any stage of the proceedings, and the decision of the Judge in exercising such discretion shall be subject to appeal like any other decision. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 3.

Attorney-General may apply to quiet title to Crown Lands.

Procedure.

4. Her Majesty's Attorney-General for Ontario may apply, under this Act, for an investigation of the title of the Crown to any lands in Ontario, and a declaration of the validity thereof. The application may be made by information instead of petition, but in other respects the practice and procedure upon such an application shall be the same as in ordinary cases. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 4.

Form of application and to whom.

5. The application shall be made to the High Court or a Judge thereof, and subject to the provisions of section 4, shall be by a short petition according to the form (No. 1) given in the schedule to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 5.

Registry of application.

6.—(1) A certificate by the clerk of records and writs, registrar, or other officer authorized by the Court to sign the same, of the petition being filed, shall be registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the land lies, and this certificate may be according to the form (No 2) given in the schedule to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 6.

(2) It shall not be necessary to register a preliminary certificate under this section immediately on the petition being filed, but such certificate shall be filed prior to a certificate of title being granted ; and the certificate of the registrar of the county, as to instruments registered affecting the land, shall be subsequently continued so as to include such preliminary certificate. This subsection shall not apply to the City of Toronto or the County of York. 49 V. c. 23, ss. 3, 6.

How the application must be supported.

7. The application shall be supported by the following particulars :

Title deeds.

1. The title deeds (if any) and evidences of title relating to the land that are in the possession or power of the applicant ;

Registered instruments.

2. A certified copy of all registered instruments, or registered memorials of instruments, affecting the land, or of all since the last judicial certificate, if any, under this Act, was given (as the case may be), up to the time of the registering of a certificate of the petition as provided for by section 6 ;

Registrar's certificate.

3. The certificate of the registrar of the county or other registry division in which the land lies, as to actions and proceedings relating to the land, and of which a certificate has been registered in his office ;

4. A concise statement of such facts as are necessary to make out the title, and which do not appear in the produced documents; but no abstract of produced documents shall be required except on special grounds; Statement of facts.

5. Proofs of any facts which are required to be proved in order to make out the title, and which are not established by the other produced documents, unless the Judge dispenses with such proofs until a future stage of the investigation; Proof of facts.

6. An affidavit or deposition by the person whose title is to be investigated and a certificate of one of his counsel or solicitors, to the effect hereinafter respectively mentioned, unless the Judge sees fit, for some special reason, to dispense with the same respectively; Affidavit and certificate of counsel, etc.

7. A schedule of the particulars produced under this section. Schedule.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 7.

8.—(1) The affidavit or deposition of the person whose title is to be investigated shall state to the effect, that to the best of his knowledge and belief he is the owner of the estate or interest (whatever it is) which is claimed by the petition, subject only to the charges and incumbrances set forth in the petition or in the schedule thereto, or that there is no charge or incumbrance affecting the land; that the deeds and evidences of title which he produces, and of which a list is contained in the schedule produced under the next preceding section, are all the title deeds and evidences of title relating to the land that are in his possession or power, and that he is not aware of the existence of any claim adverse to or inconsistent with his own to any part of the land or to any interest therein, or if he is aware of such adverse claim, he shall set forth every such adverse claim, and shall depose that he is not aware of any, except what he sets forth; and the affidavit or deposition shall also set forth whether any one is in possession of the land and under what claim, right or title; and shall state that to the best of the deponent's knowledge, information and belief, the said affidavit or deposition, and the other papers produced therewith, fully and fairly disclose all facts material to the title claimed by the petitioner, and all contracts and dealings which affect the same or any part thereof, or give any right as against the applicant. What the affidavit or deposition of the applicant must state.

(2) The said affidavit or deposition may, in a proper case, be dispensed with, or may be made by some other person instead of the person whose title is to be investigated, or an affidavit or deposition as to part may be made by one person, and as to part by another, at the discretion of the Judge to whom the application is made; and in such case the affidavit shall be modified accordingly. As to adverse claims or possession etc.,
In certain cases it may be dispensed with or made by another person.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 8.

What the certificate of counsel or solicitor must state.

9. The certificate of the counsel or solicitor shall state to the effect that he has investigated the title, and believes the party to be the owner of the estate which the petition claims in the land in question, subject only (if such is the case) to any charges or incumbrances that may be set forth in the schedule to the petition (or that he so believes, subject to any condition, qualification or exemption to be set forth in the certificate); and that he has conferred with the deponent on the subject of the various matters set forth in the affidavit or deposition referred to in the next preceding two sections, and believes the affidavit or deposition to be true. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 9.

On what evidence Judge may proceed.

10.—(1) The Judge in investigating the title may receive and act upon any evidence that is now received by the High Court on a question of title, and any evidence which the practice of English conveyancers authorizes to be received on an investigation of a title out of Court; or any other evidence, whether the same is or is not receivable or sufficient in point of strict law, or according to the practice of the English conveyancers, provided the same satisfies the Judge of the truth of the facts intended to be made out thereby.

Evidence in proceedings to quiet titles.

(2) It shall not be necessary to produce any evidence which, by section 1 of The Act to amend the law of Vendor and Purchaser and to Simplify Titles, is dispensed with as between vendor and purchaser, nor to produce or account for the originals of any registered deeds, documents or instruments, unless where the Judge before whom the investigation is had, otherwise directs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 10.

Rev. Stat. c. 112.

Form of proofs.

11. The proofs required may be by, or in the form of affidavits or certificates; or may be given viva voce; or may be in any other manner or form that under the circumstances of the case is satisfactory to the Judge in regard to the matters to which the same relate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 11.

Taxes must have been paid.

12. Before a certificate of title is granted, satisfactory evidence shall be given by certificate, affidavit or otherwise, that all taxes, rates and assessments, for which the land is liable, have been paid, or that all, except those for the current year, have been paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 12.

Further proof, if Judge not satisfied.

13. If the Judge is not satisfied with the evidence of title produced in the first instance, he shall give a reasonable opportunity of producing further evidence, or of removing defects in the evidence produced. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 13.

Judge to order notice to be published.

14. Before giving a certificate or conveyance under this Act the Judge shall direct to be published in the Ontario Gazette, and if he sees fit in any other newspaper or newspapers, and in such form, and for such period or periods as the Judge thinks expedient, a notice either of the application being made, or of the order or decision of the Judge thereon ; and the certificate or conveyance shall not be signed or executed until after the expiration of at least four weeks from the first publication of such notice, or such other period as the Judge may appoint. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 14.

15. Where the Judge is satisfied respecting the title, and considers that the certificate of title can safely be granted without any other notice of application than the published notice so required, he shall grant the certificate accordingly. Judge may grant certificate without further notice. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 15.

16. In case there appears to exist any claim adverse to or inconsistent with that of the petitioner to or in respect of any part of the land, the Judge shall direct such notice as he deems necessary to be mailed to or served on the adverse claimant, his agent or solicitor. Notice to adverse claimant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 16.

17. In all cases the Judge may require from time to time any further publication to take place, or any other notice to be mailed or served that he deems necessary before granting the certificate. Further publication or service of notice. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 17.

18.—(1) Any person having an adverse claim, or a claim not recognized in the applicant's petition, may at any time before the certificate of title is granted, file and serve on the applicant, his solicitor or agent, a short statement of his claim, which may be according to the form (No. 3) given in the schedule to this Act. Adverse claimants to file statements.

(2) The said claim shall be verified by an affidavit to be filed therewith. Verification. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 18.

19. In case of a contest, the Judge may either decide the question of title on the evidence before him, or may refer the same or any matter involved therein to a Divisional Court, or to any mode of investigation which is usual in other cases, or which he deems expedient, and may defer granting the certificate until afterwards, according as the circumstances of each case render just or expedient. In case of contest, Judge may decide or refer the case. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 19.

20. The Judge may, at any stage of the cause, order security for costs to be given by the applicant for a certificate, or by any person making any adverse claim. Security for costs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 20.

21. The Judge may order costs either as between party and party, or as between solicitor and client, to be paid by or to any person party to any proceeding under this Act, and may give directions as to the fund out of which any costs shall be paid. Payment of costs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 21.

Withdrawal of application.

22. The petitioner may by leave of the Judge withdraw his application at any time before final adjudication, on payment of all costs incurred in the investigation, either by himself or by any adverse claimant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 22.

Petition may be referred to Master or counsel.

23. With a view of expediting investigations, and subject to any General Rules in this behalf, the Judge, if he sees fit, may refer any petition presented under this Act to the Master or a Deputy Master or any other officer of the said Court, or to any counsel named by the Judge, and in such case the referee shall proceed as the Judge himself should do under this Act, had the reference not been made, and shall have the same powers. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 23.

Judge may require report of counsel.

24. The Judge may also refer any title to counsel named by the Judge, for a preliminary report or examination, and may call for the assistance of counsel in any other way and for any other purpose that may tend to the dispatch of business under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 24.

One certificate or several.

25. The Judge may give one certificate of title, comprising all the land mentioned in the petition, or may give separate certificates as to the title of separate parts of the land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 25.

Claims of title to be presumed to be made with certain exceptions.

26.—(1) Every claim of title under this Act shall be presumed to be subject to the following exceptions and qualifications, unless the petition for investigation expressly alleges the contrary :

- (a) The reservations (if any) contained in the original grant from the Crown ;
- (b) Any municipal charges, rates or assessments theretofore imposed for local improvements, and not yet due and payable ;
- (c) Any title or lien which, by possession or improvements or other means, the owner or person interested in any adjoining land has acquired to or in respect of the land mentioned in the certificate ;
- (d) Any lease or agreement for a lease, for a period yet to run, of not exceeding three years, where there is actual occupation under the same. R. S. O. 1877, 110, s. 26 (1).
- (e) Any public highway, any right of way, watercourse and right of water, and other easements.
- (f) Any right of the wife or husband of the applicant to dower or curtesy (as the case may be) in case of surviving such applicant.

The last preceding two clauses shall not apply to the City of Toronto or the County of York: 49 V. c. 23, ss. 5, 6.

(2) If, however, the applicant desires the certificate to declare the title to be free from the said particulars, or any of them, his petition shall so state, and the investigation shall proceed accordingly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 26 (2). But claim may be without exceptions.

27. The certificate of title shall be according to the form (No. 4) given in the schedule to this Act, and shall be under the seal of the Court, and shall be signed by one of the Judges and by one of the Registrars of the High Court, and the same and the schedule (if any) thereto, or a duplicate or counterpart of the same shall be registered in full, both in the High Court, and in the registry office of the registry division where the land lies, without any further proof thereof.

R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 27.

Form of certificate of title.

28. A memorandum or certificate of the registration may be endorsed on the certificate of title, or on any counterpart or certified copy thereof, thus :

“Registered in _____ 18 _____, Book _____ Page _____, _____
 _____ A. H., _____
 Clerk of Records and Writs (or as the case may be).

 $O\tau,$ “Registered in the Registry Office for the County (or as the case may, be), of Book , Page , (Date)

and a memorandum or certificate so signed shall be evidence of the registration mentioned therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 28.

29. The certificate of title when so sealed, signed and registered, shall be conclusive and the title therein mentioned shall be deemed absolute and indefeasible, from the day of the date of the certificate, as regards Her Majesty and all persons whatever, subject only to any charges or incumbrances, exceptions or qualifications mentioned therein, or in the schedule thereto, and shall be conclusive evidence that every application, notice, publication, proceeding, consent and act whatsoever, which ought to have been made, given and done previously to the granting of the certificate, has been made, given and done by the proper parties. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 29.

30. After a certificate of title is duly registered, a copy of the certificate, purporting to be signed and certified as such copy by one of the registrars of the High Court, or by the registrar of the registry division in which the land lies, shall be admissible evidence of the certificate for all purposes whatsoever, without further evidence of such copy, and without accounting for the non-production of the certificate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 30.

Conveyance
by the Court in case of sale.

31.—(1) In case of a sale by the High Court the Court, if it thinks fit, may investigate the title with a view to granting an indefeasible title, and in that case, a conveyance executed to the purchaser, under the seal of the Court and purporting to be under the authority of this Act, shall have the same conclusive effect as a certificate.

Form.

(2) The conveyance may be according to the form (No. 5) given in the schedule to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 31.

Where an in-defeasible title is contracted for.

32. Where judgment is given for the specific performance of a contract for the sale of an estate, and it is part of the contract that the vendor shall have an indefeasible title, the Court shall make the like investigation, and the conveyance may be according to the form (No. 5) aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 32.

JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION OF PARTICULAR FACTS AFFECTING TITLES.

Right to judicial investigation of some fact, which may affect a title.

33. In case a person domiciled in Ontario, or claiming any real estate in Ontario, desires to establish, not his title to some specific property, but generally that he is the legitimate child of his parents, or that the marriage of his father and mother, or of his grandfather and grandmother, was a valid marriage, or that his own marriage was a valid marriage, or that he is the heir, or one of the co-heirs of any person deceased, or that he is a natural born subject of Her Majesty, he may if the said Court thinks fit, have any of the said matters judicially investigated and declared. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 33.

Application.

34. The application may be by a short petition stating the object of the application. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 34.

How the petition must be supported.

35. The petition shall be supported by an affidavit of the applicant verifying the statements of the petition, and stating further that his claim is not disputed or questioned by any person; or if his claim is to his knowledge disputed or questioned, he shall set forth the facts in relation to such dispute or question, and shall depose that he is not aware of any dispute or question except what he has set forth, and he shall state in the affidavit such other facts as may satisfy the Court of the propriety of proceeding with the investigation. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 35.

Investigation,
proof, etc., in such case.

36. The investigation shall be made by the same judicial authority, and in the same manner, and on the same evidence, and the same publication or other notice shall be required, and the same proceedings generally shall be had, and the certificate granted on such investigation shall be registered in the same way, and may be proved by the same evidence, as nearly as may be respectively, as in cases under section 2 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 36.

37. Such certificate when registered shall be conclusive and indefeasible in favour of the party on whose application the same was granted, and all persons claiming by, from, through or under him, and shall be prima facie evidence in favour of all other persons, and against all persons of the truth of the fact therein declared. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 37.

Effect of certificate.

38. A separate book shall be kept in the High Court for the registering of these and other certificates of title, and conveyances given under this Act, and the certificates and conveyances registered therein shall be numbered in order, and convenient indexes to the book shall be kept in such form as the Court from time to time directs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 38.

Register to be kept.

39. In case any person who, if not under disability, might have made any application, given any consent, or done any act, or been party to any proceeding under this Act, is a minor, an idiot or a lunatic, the guardian of the minor, or committee of the estate of the idiot or lunatic, may make such application, give such consent, do such act, and be party to such proceeding as such person might, if free from disability, have made, given, done or been party to, and shall otherwise represent such person for the purposes of this Act; and if the minor has no guardian, or the idiot or lunatic no committee of his estate the Court or Judge may appoint a person with like power to act for the minor, idiot or lunatic; but a married woman shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed a feme sole. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 39.

Where any party is a minor, lunatic, etc.

Married women.

40. After a certificate is granted in regard to any of the matters investigated under this Act, any party aggrieved thereby may, on petition, and after satisfactorily accounting for his delay, have the title or claim re-investigated on such terms as may be just. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 40.

Re-investigation at the instance of any party aggrieved.

41. No proceeding on such petition shall affect the title of any person who, in the meantime, and after the registration of the certificate, has acquired, by sale, mortgage or contract, for valuable consideration, any estate or interest in the land specified in the certificate of title, or (in case the certificate was under section 33 of this Act) in any land or other property, the title to which was derived from, through or under the person named in the certificate, in the character which is thereby declared to belong to him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 41.

But those who have purchased, etc., in the meantime not to be affected.

APPEALS.

42. An appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge under this Act to a Divisional Court, or to the Court of Appeal, and from any order or decision of the Divisional Court to the Court of Appeal, as in the case of actions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 42.

Appeals.

MISCELLANEOUS.

No objections to proceeding to establish title that petitioner should first have brought an action.

43. Where a petition is filed under this Act, no objection thereto shall be allowed upon the ground that the petitioner should first have brought an action, and if it appears upon the determination of the investigation that the petitioner is entitled to the possession of the real property the title to which is sought to be quieted under this Act, he may obtain an order against the respondent for the delivery of possession thereof, and writs of execution shall issue accordingly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 43.

Proceedings not abated by certain events.

44. Proceedings under this Act shall not abate or be suspended by any death or transmission or change of interest, but in any such event the Court or Judge may require notices to be given to persons becoming interested, or may make any order for discontinuing, or suspending, or carrying on the proceedings, or otherwise, in relation thereto, as under the circumstances may be just. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 44.

Proceedings not void for want of form.

45. No petition, order, affidavit, certificate, registration or other proceeding under this Act shall be invalid by reason of any informality or technical irregularity therein, or of any mistake not affecting the substantial justice of the proceeding. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 45.

How this Act shall be construed.

46. The foregoing provisions of this Act shall be so construed and carried out as to facilitate, as much as possible, the obtaining of indefeasible titles by the owners of estates in land, through the simplest machinery, at the smallest expense, and in the shortest time, consistent with reasonable prudence in reference to the rights or claims of other persons. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 46.

Certificate to be void if obtained by fraud.

47. If in the course of any proceeding before the Court under this Act, any person acting either as principal or agent, knowingly and with intent to deceive, makes, or assists, or joins in, or is privy to the making of any material false statement or representation, or suppresses, conceals, or assists, or joins in, or is privy to the suppression, withholding, or concealing from the Court any material document, fact or matter of information, any order or declaration of title obtained by means of such fraud or falsehood, shall be null and void for or against all persons other than a purchaser for valuable consideration without notice. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 47.

Exception.

Conviction for fraud not to affect other remedy.
29 V. c. 25,
s. 48.

48. No proceeding or conviction for any contravention of section 47 of this Act, or under section 48 of chapter 25 of the Acts passed in the twenty-ninth year of Her Majesty's reign, shall affect any remedy which any person aggrieved by such contravention may be entitled to, against the person who has committed the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 110, s. 48.

49.—(1) A Judge or Referee under this Act shall, in respect of any petition before him, have the like powers as the Master of Titles has under The Land Titles Act. 49 V. c. 23, s. 1.

Power of Judge or Referee.
Rev. Stat. c. 116.

(2) The rules and procedure enacted by The Land Titles Act, or any rules hereafter made, shall apply, so far as may be, to proceedings under this Act. This does not include any rules to be hereafter made which shall thereby be declared not so to apply. 49 V. c. 23, s. 2.

Rules and procedure under c. 116 to apply to proceedings.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to dispense with supervision over Referees by the Inspector of Titles, or to prevent further rules being enacted in respect thereof. 49 V. c. 23, s. 4.

Supervision over Referees.

(4) The next preceding three sub-sections shall not apply to the City of Toronto or the County of York. 49 V. c. 23, s. 6.

Application of this section.

50. The said Court acting under section 107 of The Judicature Act may from time to time, make General Rules for referring all or any applications under this Act, to any Master, local Master or other officer of the Court, or to any counsel or other person appointed by the Court, in that behalf, and to regulate the fees to be paid on such reference; and the referee shall have the same powers as a Judge within the limits prescribed by such General Rules; and the Court may also, from time to time, make other General Rules for the purposes of this Act, and for regulating the practice under the same; and all General Rules made in pursuance of this section may, from time to time, be rescinded or altered by the said Court. HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

- Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as "The Registry Act." R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 1.
- Interpretation. 2. Where the following words occur in this Act, or in the schedules thereto, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:—
- "Instrument." 1. "Instrument" shall include every Crown grant, Order in Council of the Dominion or of this Province, deed, conveyance, mortgage, assignment of mortgage, certificate of discharge of mortgage, assurance, lease, bond, release, discharge, power of attorney, or substitution thereof, under which any such deed, conveyance, assurance, discharge of mortgage or other instrument is executed, bonds or agreements for sale or purchase of land, letter of attorney, will, probate of will, grant of administration with the will annexed, municipal road by-law, certificate of any proceedings in any Court, judgment of foreclosure, and every other certificate or judgment of any Court affecting any interest in or title to land; also, certificates of payment of taxes granted under the corporate seal of the county, city, or town by the treasurer; every sheriff's and treasurer's deed of lands sold by virtue of his office; every contract in writing; every commission and proceeding in lunacy, bankruptcy and insolvency; and every other instrument whereby lands or real estate may be transferred, disposed of, charged, incumbered or affected in any wise, affecting land in Ontario.

2. "Land" shall include lands, tenements, hereditaments, "Land," appurtenances and real estate.

3. "Will" shall include probate of will and exemplification, "Will," or notarial copies of probate of will, and letters of administration with the will annexed, and any devise whereby lands are disposed of or affected.

4. "County" shall include a union of counties, a city, "County," junior county and any part of a county or counties set apart for judicial or registration purposes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 2.

REGISTRY OFFICES.

3. The Registry Divisions at present existing are hereby continued; and whenever any county is separated for judicial purposes from a union of counties, or a new county is formed and set apart for judicial purposes there shall be a separate Registry Office established therein, by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, which office shall be kept in the county town in like manner as in other county towns. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 3; 48 V. c. 2, s. 13.

In and for what places there shall be Registry Offices.

4. Where the Registry Office in any Division appears to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to be inconveniently situated, he may by proclamation order the same to be removed to any other place in the Division. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 4.

Registry Office
may be removed.

5. For the safe-keeping and protection of all books, memorials, duplicates, and other instruments of whatever description, and plans, belonging to the office of Registrar, the council of every county where, at any time there are no safe and proper fire-proof offices and vaults provided by the council, or where hereafter any Registry Office is established, shall provide, furnish and maintain, and keep in good repair, a safe and fire-proof Registry Office, fire-proof vaulted, upon a plan and on a site to be approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; and the said council shall keep the said Registry Office furnished with fuel and furniture and in good repair, and towns separated from counties for municipal purposes, and cities in which no separate Registry Offices exist, shall bear a ratable proportion of the expense thereof, based on the assessment of all the municipalities within the jurisdiction of the county. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 5.

County Councils

REGISTRARS.

Registrars.

6. Every Registry Office shall be kept by an officer to be called the Registrar. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 6.

Registrars,
how appointed, etc.

7. The Lieutenant-Governor shall, as occasion may require from time to time, by commission, under the Great Seal of the Province, appoint a fit person to the office of Registrar, and shall, in like manner, fill up any vacancy occurring by the death, resignation, removal or forfeiture of office by any Registrar, and every Registrar heretofore appointed or hereafter to be appointed shall hold office during pleasure only. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 7.

Amount of security to be given.

8. The Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time by Order in Council fix and determine the amount of the security to be given, as hereinafter mentioned, by each Registrar; but the amount of such security shall be not less than $4,000, nor more than $10,000. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 8.

[As to security of Registrars in the unorganized Districts. See Cap. 91, s. 36.]

Security to be given by Registrars.

9.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 24 of The Act respecting Public Officers, before any Registrar is sworn into office, he shall execute and enter into a joint and several covenant in duplicate with two or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for such amounts as may be fixed and determined by Order in Council in that behalf as aforesaid.

Rev. Stat. c.
15, s. 24.

(2) Such covenant may be in the form of Schedule A to this Act, or to the like effect; and to each of such covenants shall be attached an affidavit in the form of Schedule B to this Act, or to the like effect, made by each of the sureties therein mentioned.

(3) One of the duplicates with the affidavits appended shall be forthwith transmitted to the Provincial Secretary, to be by him retained, and the other duplicate with the affidavits aforesaid, shall be by the Registrar forthwith filed in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county or union of counties where the same shall remain of record. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 9.

10. The Registrar, whether appointed before or after the passing of this Act, may at any time be required by the Inspector of Registry Offices, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, to execute new covenants in the form and to the effect hereinbefore provided, or to furnish other sureties as may be deemed expedient, or both, and in default thereof shall be subject to the penalties mentioned in section 21 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 10.

New covenants may be required by Inspector.

11. Any person may examine and obtain a copy of the Registrar's covenant and affidavits on payment to the Clerk of the Peace of a fee for the copy and search, of one dollar, or for the search, of twenty-five cents. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 11.

Copies may be obtained by any person.

12. Sections 15 to 20 inclusive of The Act respecting Public Officers, shall apply to securities given by Registrars. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 12. See also Cap. 15, ss. 24-27.

Sections 15-20 of c. 15 to apply to securities.

13. The Lieutenant-Governor, upon the application of any county or city interested, or without such application if he thinks fit, may require any Registrar to give security in such form and for such an amount as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council determines to be sufficient to secure the due payment of any moneys payable by the Registrar to the county or city. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 13.

Lieutenant-Governor may require Registrars to give security.

14.—(1) A surety for a Registrar who is no longer disposed to continue his responsibility, may give notice thereof to the Registrar and to the Provincial Secretary, and in such case the Registrar shall, under penalty of forfeiture of his office, furnish a new surety in lieu of the surety so giving notice, and shall complete and transmit the necessary covenant in that behalf to the Provincial Secretary within one month after the notice, and shall procure the approval of the new security within two months after the notice.

Sureties of Registrars

(2) All accruing responsibility on the part of the person giving the notice shall continue until the perfecting and approval of the new security, and shall thereupon cease. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 14.

15. The Registrar and his sureties shall be jointly and severally liable on their covenant to any aggrieved person or persons to indemnify him or them against any damage or loss sustained by him or them, by or through the neglect or misconduct of the Registrar or his deputy in the performance of the duties of his office, not exceeding the penalty named therein, but this provision shall not exempt the Registrar from any further responsibility to persons sustaining damage or loss as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 15.

Liability of Registrars and their sureties.

16. Every Registrar, before he enters upon the execution of his office shall, before two or more Justices of the Peace for the county, take the oath given in the form of Schedule C. to this Act, which shall be transmitted to the Provincial Secretary, together with the recognizance and covenant aforesaid. R.S.O. 1877, c. 111, s. 16.

Registrar's oath of office.

Appointment of Deputies.

17. The Registrar may by writing under his hand and his seal of office, nominate a deputy or deputies in his office, who may perform all the duties required under this Act, in the same manner and to the like effect as if done by the Registrar; and any Registrar may remove his deputy and appoint another in his place whenever he thinks it necessary; and in case of the death, resignation, removal or forfeiture of office of the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar, or in case of there being more than one, the senior Deputy Registrar, shall do and perform all and every act, matter, and thing necessary for the due execution of the said office, until a new appointment of Registrar is made by the Lieutenant-Governor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 17.

Removal.

Power of Deputy in case of death or removal of Registrar.

Deputy's oath of office.

18. Every Deputy Registrar before he enters on the execution of his office, shall, before two or more Justices of the Peace for the county take the oath appointed to be taken by the Registrar, or an oath to the like effect, which oath shall be forthwith transmitted to the Provincial Secretary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 18.

Registrars or Deputies, etc., not to act as agents, for persons taking securities on real estate, or advise as to titles, etc., in their Communities.

19. No Registrar or Deputy Registrar or clerk in his office shall, directly or indirectly, act as the agent of any corporation, society, company, person or persons investing money and taking securities on real estate within his county, nor shall the Registrar or Deputy Registrar, or clerk in the office advise, for fee or other reward, or otherwise, upon titles of land, or practise as a conveyancer, within his county, nor shall he carry on or transact within the Registry Office, any other business or occupation whatever, upon pain of forfeiture of office. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 19.

DUTIES OF REGISTRARS.

Residence of Registrars.

20. Every Registrar shall reside within ten miles of his office, and shall keep his office at the place named in his commission or otherwise as appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or by any Act in force respecting the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 20.

Removal for misconduct.

21. If the Registrar in any manner misconducts himself in his office or neglects to perform his duty in every respect, as required of him by this Act, or commits or suffers to be committed any undue or fraudulent practice in the execution thereof, then the Registrar may, at the discretion of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, be dismissed, and he shall, moreover, together with his sureties, so far as their covenants extend, be liable to pay all damages, with full costs of suit, to any person injured thereby, to be recovered by action in the High Court; and any deputy executing the office of Registrar during any vacancy by death, resignation, or forfeiture of the Registrar, shall, together with the sureties of the Registrar as far as their covenants extend, be for the same cause, and in like manner liable as the Registrar and his sureties are in this section declared to be liable. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 21.

And or Deputy executing
office.

22. The Registrar or his deputy shall, for the discharge of all duties belonging to the said office attend at his office from the hour of ten in the forenoon until four in the afternoon, every day in the year, holidays excepted, and no instrument shall be registered by him on any holiday, nor shall any instrument be received for registration by him except within the hours above named. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 22.

Hours of at tendance at office.

23. The Registrar shall, when required, and upon being tendered the legal fees for so doing, make searches and furnish copies and abstracts of or concerning all instruments or memorials registered, mentioning any lot of land as described in the patent thereof from the Crown, or any lot, described by number or letter on any registered map or plan, subsequent to the registration of the map or plan, or any part of a lot where the same is clearly described and can be identified in connection with the chain of title, or has been ascertained by actual survey; and of and concerning all wills, deeds, orders, or other instruments recorded, as may be requested of him in writing, if a writing is demanded by the Registrar; and he shall exhibit the original registered instrument, and also the books of the office relating thereto when the party desires to make a personal inspection thereof, and shall give certificates of all copies and extracts under his hand of and concerning the parties to any of such documents, or of the witnesses to the same, or any other particulars which may be required, but no Registrar shall allow any such book or instrument to be taken out of his possession or custody. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 23.

Registrars to make searches and abstracts.

To exhibit originals of instruments, etc.

To certify copies, etc.

24. Every Registrar under this Act shall have a seal of office, to be approved of by the Inspector, and on request of any person or persons, body corporate or otherwise, shall furnish an exemplification or certified copy under his hand and seal of office, of any instrument or memorial deposited, registered, or filed, and kept in his office as Registrar, which exemplification or certified copy shall be received as prima facie evidence in every Court in Ontario, in the same manner and with the same effect as if the original thereof, in his office, was produced; and no Registrar or Deputy Registrar shall be required to produce any paper in his custody as Registrar or Deputy Registrar, unless ordered by a Judge of one of the Courts of Ontario, which order shall be produced to the officer issuing the subpoena requiring such production, and shall be by him noted in the margin of the subpoena, and signed by such officer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 24. See also Cap. 61, s. 43.

BOOKS OF OFFICE.

Treasurer to provide proper books.

25. The treasurer of the county or city shall provide a fit and proper registry book for each township, reputed township, city, town, town plot laid out by the Crown, and incorporated village, the limits whereof are defined by law, and all index and other books required for the business of the office; and all registry books shall be as nearly as may be of the like size and description as those heretofore furnished, and shall continue to be of one uniform size or nearly so; and from the time the books are so provided and received at the Registry Office, the person who holds and executes the office of Registrar, shall keep and cause to be used for that purpose, a separate registry book for and of each township, reputed township, city, town, town plot laid out by the Crown, and incorporated village, the limits whereof are defined by law, within the county, for which he holds office; and he shall also keep and cause to be used for that purpose a general registry book for the whole county, in which shall be recorded all wills and instruments in which there is a general devise, conveyance or power affecting lands without local description, and in which book an alphabetical index of the names of all the parties mentioned by name in such instrument shall also be kept; and whenever any Registrar requires a new registry book, or any other book for the use of his office, the same shall, on his application therefor, in writing, be furnished to him by the treasurer, and all books so furnished shall be paid for by the treasurer out of the county or city funds as the case may be; and all books so furnished, used and kept, shall be deemed to be the property of Her Majesty for the use and benefit of the public; and the Inspector shall have power, when, for the despatch of business, he finds it necessary, by order in writing, to permit more than one registry book to be in use at the same time for the same municipality. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 25; 49 V. c. 16, s. 26.

General Registry.

New books.

If the Treasurer neglects to provide books.

26. If the treasurer refuses or neglects to furnish such books within thirty days after application therefor, the Registrar may provide the same and recover the cost thereof from the municipality of the county or city in default. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 26.

County Judge, Warden or Stipendiary Magistrate to certify books.

27. The Judge of the County Court or Warden of the county, or Mayor of a city, or the Stipendiary Magistrate of the district shall give a certificate respecting each registry or other book, so furnished or provided, in the form of Schedule

D to this Act, or to the like effect, and in case of refusal shall be liable to the same penalties as are imposed by section 30 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 27; 49 V. c. 16, s. 27.

28.—(1) Where any county, city, town, town plot laid out by the Crown, incorporated village, township, reputed township or place, making part of a county wherein a separate Registry Office is or has been kept, is or has been detached from some union or county and set apart for registration purposes, or attached to or made part of another county for which a separate Registry Office is also kept, or where a separate Registry Office is established in any county or junior county, according to the provisions of this Act, the Registrar of the county from which such localities are so detached, shall deliver to the Registrar of the county set apart, or of the county whereunto the same is attached, the registry book [or books and all other books and indexes which have been kept according to the statute, exclusively for such county, city, town, town plot, incorporated village, township or reputed township or place, the original memorials and original duplicates of all deeds, conveyances and wills of, or relating exclusively to, any lands within the same, and all other instruments, and all maps of cities, towns or villages within the same, lodged according to law in his office.

Provision when any place is separated from a County.

Certain books, etc., to be transferred.

(2) Such first mentioned Registrar shall also deliver an abstract index book of all titles to lands within each of the detached localities, registered before separate registry books were kept for each township or place; and also a proper registry book containing full and complete copies of all memorials and other registered documents affecting such lands, which, by reason of their relating to two or more localities, cannot be delivered, such copies being entered in the book in the same order and relation in which they were originally inserted; and there being inserted on the margin of the book opposite to each memorial or instrument, the number thereof and the particular time at which the memorial or instrument was originally recorded as indorsed on the back thereof by the Registrar or his deputy, at the time of the original registration thereof. The book shall be accompanied by an alphabetical index of names; he shall also deliver as aforesaid a proper registry book containing a copy of all wills and other instruments registered in any general registry book in which the names of any of the parties thereto have been entered in the alphabetical index, kept for the locality so being detached; and shall also deliver a true copy of the alphabetical index attached to any general registry book; he shall also carefully compare all of such entries with the original entries in the registry books in his office and indorse a certificate to that effect in each book before delivering the same.

(3) The Registrar receiving such books, and his successors shall keep the same among the registry books of his office, and deal with them in all respects in like manner, as those originally supplied to and kept therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 28; 49 V. c. 16, s. 28.

Penalty on Registrar refusing to make transfer, etc.

29. Any Registrar who refuses to deliver the books, plans, duplicates, indexes or memorials, aforesaid, within six months after demand in writing therefor, made upon him by the Registrar entitled to receive the same, shall upon conviction thereof, before any Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, forfeit his office, and be liable to a fine, in the discretion of the Court, not exceeding $400. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 29.

Registrar removed or resigning to deliver up books, etc.

30. In case a Registrar is removed from or resigns his office, he shall forthwith deliver up all books, plans, instruments, memorials and indexes in his possession as Registrar to the person who is appointed Registrar in his stead, or to any other person who may be specially appointed in writing, by Her Majesty's Attorney-General of Ontario to receive the same, and if the Registrar refuses to do so, the Attorney-General may direct the sheriff of the county to seize and take immediate possession of the same wheresoever found, and the Registrar so offending shall be liable to a fine, in the discretion of the Court, not exceeding $2,000, and to any term of imprisonment, if the Court thinks fit to impose it, in addition to the fine, not exceeding one year. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 30.

Proceedings in case of refusal.

When any book becomes unfit for further use copy to be made.

31. Where in any Registry Office, any book from age or use, is becoming obliterated or unfit for future use, the Inspector shall, by directions in writing under his hand, order such book to be re-copied in a book of the same description as that required under section 25 of this Act, so far as the same can be deciphered by examination thereof, and of the original memorials relating thereto, which book having the order of the Inspector for the copying thereof, under the hand of the Inspector, inserted at the beginning of the book, and having the affidavit or declaration of the Registrar or his deputy, at the end of the book, to the effect that the book so copied is a true copy of the original book of which it purports to be a copy, shall be to all intents and purposes, accepted and received as the original book, and as prima facie evidence that the copy is a true copy of the original book; every original book shall, nevertheless, be carefully preserved, notwithstanding a copy thereof has been made, and every Registrar or his deputy, shall be obliged to make his affidavit or declaration in this section mentioned, and the Inspector shall have power to order any book which is out of repair and unfit for use to be repaired in such manner as he thinks necessary; and he shall also have power to order plans and maps deposited in any Registry Office, to be copied, mounted or bound, to be preserved in such manner as he thinks necessary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 32.

Original to be preserved.

Repair of books, maps, etc.

32. The Registrar shall, in a proper book kept for the purpose, and called the "Abstract Index," keep entered under a separate and distinct head each separate lot or part of a lot of land as originally patented by the Crown, or as defined on any plan of the subdivision of such land into smaller sections or lots after such plan has been filed in the Registry Office; and every instrument registered on and after the first day of January, 1866, mentioning such parcel or lot of land or other subdivision, and the names of every person to each instrument, and the nature of it (such as a "Will," "Grant," "Lease," "Power of Attorney,") the numbers of registration of all such instruments, for each municipality in which the land mentioned therein is situate, and the day, month, and year, of their registration, and the consideration or mortgage money mentioned therein, shall, by the Registrar, in addition to all entries by law required, be entered in regular order and rotation under the proper heading of each such separate parcel or lot of land mentioned in such instrument, and the book or books, to be so kept by each Registrar, for the purpose of making the said entries, shall be in the form or nearly so of Schedule M to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 33.

Abstract
index to lots.

33. Every Registrar shall also, for each township, city, town, and incorporated village, keep an Alphabetical Index of names, exhibiting in columns the number of each instrument, the names of the different grantors, and the names of the grantees, according to the form of Schedule N to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 34.

INSTRUMENTS THAT MAY BE REGISTERED.

34. Subject to the provisions of the next section, all instruments mentioned in section 2 of this Act may be registered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 36.

Instruments which may be registered.

35. This Act shall not extend to any lease for a term not exceeding seven years, where the actual possession goes along with the lease; but it shall extend to every lease for a longer term than seven years. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 37.

Registration of leases.

PROOF FOR REGISTRATION.

36.—(1) In the case of an instrument other than a will, grant from the Crown, Order in Council, by-law or other instrument under the seal of any corporation, or certificate of judicial proceedings, a subscribing witness to the instrument shall in an affidavit setting forth his name, place of residence, and addition, occupation or calling, in full, swear to the following facts:

Facts to be proved.

(a) To the execution of the original and duplicate if any there be;

(b) To the place of execution;

(c) That he knew the parties to the instrument, if such be the fact; or that he knew such one or more of them, according to the fact;

(d) That he is subscribing witness thereto.

Form of affidavit.

(2) The affidavit may be in the form of Schedule E to this Act, or to the like effect. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 38.

Affidavit to be registered.

37. The affidavit shall be made on the instrument or securely attached thereto, and the instrument and affidavit shall be copied at full length in the Registry Book. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 39.

When different witnesses see different grantors execute.

38. Where an instrument is executed by one or more grantors, but not by all of them, in presence of the same witness or witnesses, and by one or more of the other parties thereto in presence of another witness or other witnesses, then and in such case the witness or one of the witnesses, whether the same be so executed in the same or in different places, shall make an affidavit in accordance with section 36 as to each separate and distinct execution of the instrument before the same is registered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 40.

Certain defects in affidavit not to invalidate registration.

39. No registration under this Act of any instrument shall be deemed or adjudged void, or defective by reason of the name, place of residence, addition, occupation or calling of the subscribing witness thereto not being set forth in full, or being improperly or insufficiently given or described in the affidavit mentioned in and required by section 36, nor by reason of any clerical error or omission of a merely formal or technical character in the affidavit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 41.

Name of witness need not be set forth in full in affidavit.

40. Any instrument may be registered under this Act, notwithstanding that the Christian name or names of the subscribing witness making the affidavit is or are only set forth therein by initial letter or letters, or abbreviation or abbreviations, and not in full. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 42.

Before whom to be sworn.

41. Every affidavit made under the authority of this Act shall be made before some one of the following persons:

In Ontario.

1. If made in Ontario, it shall be made before—

The Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the county in which the lands lie.

Or, before a Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature.

Or, before a Judge of a County Court within his county,

Or, before a Commissioner authorized by the High Court to take affidavits,

Or before any Justice of the Peace for the county in which the affidavit is sworn. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 43 (1),

Or before a Notary Public having authority in Ontario. 48 V. c. 16, s. 3 ; c. 23, s. 3.

2. If made in Quebec, it shall be made before—

In Quebec.

A Judge or Prothonotary of the Superior Court or Clerk of the Circuit Court,

Or, before a Commissioner authorized under the laws of Ontario to take, in Quebec, affidavits in and for any of the Courts of Record in the Province of Ontario,

Or, before any Notary Public in Quebec, certified under his official seal.

3. If made in Great Britain or Ireland, it shall be made before—

In United Kingdom.

A Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England, or Ireland, or of the Court of Session or the Justiciary Court in Scotland,

Or, before a Judge of any of the County Courts within his county,

Or, before the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city, borough or town corporate therein, and certified under the common seal of the city, borough or town corporate,

Or, before a Commissioner authorized to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Judicature in England or before a Commissioner authorized by the laws of Ontario to take, in Great Britain or Ireland, affidavits in and for any of the Courts of Record of the Province of Ontario,

Or, before a Notary Public certified under his official seal.

4. If made in any British Colony, or Possession, it shall be made before—

In a British Colony.

A Judge of a Court of Record, or of any Court of Supreme Jurisdiction in the Colony,

Or, before the Mayor of any city, borough or town corporate, and certified under the common seal of the city, borough or town,

Or, before a Notary Public, certified under his official seal,

Or, if made in the British Possessions in India, before any Magistrate or Collector, certified to have been such under the hand of the Governor of such Possession,

Or, before a Commissioner authorized by the laws of Ontario to take, in such British Colony, or Possession, affidavits in and for any of the Courts of Record of the Province of Ontario.

In a Foreign Country.

5. If made in any Foreign Country, it shall be made before—
The Mayor of any city, borough or town corporate of such country, and certified under the common seal of the city, borough or town corporate,

Or, before a Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent of Her Majesty, resident therein,

Or, before a Judge of a Court of Record or a Notary Public, certified under his official seal,

Or, before a Commissioner authorized by the laws of Ontario to take, in such country, affidavits in and for any of the Courts of Record of the Province of Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 43 (2-5).

Witnesses compellable to make affidavit.

42. Every subscribing witness shall be compellable, when necessary, by order of a Judge of the High Court or of a County Court, to make affidavit or proof of the execution of any instrument for the purpose of registration under this Act, and to do all other acts necessary for the same purpose, upon being paid or duly tendered his reasonable expenses therefor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 44.

Affirmation or declaration in certain cases.

43. The proof may be either by affidavit or by affirmation or declaration, when by the law of the country where the proof is made, an affirmation or declaration may be substituted for an affidavit; and the Registrar shall receive the instruments so proved without any other or further proof of their due execution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 45.

Parties not to take affidavits.

44. None of the persons authorized to take affidavits by this Act shall take an affidavit of the execution of an instrument, in case he is a party to the instrument; nor shall such affidavit for the proof of an instrument executed after the first day of January, 1866, be taken from a witness, unless the witness has subscribed his name in his own handwriting as such witness. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 46.

Witness to sign.

Witnesses insane, absent, &c.

45. Where the witnesses to an instrument are dead or are out of this Province, or have become insane, idiotic, imbecile, or of unsound mind or understanding, and whether so found by inquisition or not, or where an instrument, not by law requiring an attesting or subscribing witness thereto, has been executed without an attesting or subscribing witness thereto, or in case it is proved to the satisfaction of the Judge in this section mentioned that the place of abode or residence of such first above mentioned witnesses is unknown, any person who is or claims to be interested in the registration of the instrument, may make proof before the Judge of a County Court in Ontario, of the execution of the instrument, and upon a certificate (according to the form of Schedule F to this Act) endorsed on the instrument and signed by the Judge, that the Judge is satisfied by the proof adduced of the due execution of the instrument, the Registrar shall register the instrument and certificate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 47.

46. The seal of any Court of Record affixed to an instrument in writing, of itself, and the seal of any corporation affixed to any such instrument with the signature of the secretary or presiding officer thereof, shall be sufficient evidence of the due execution of the instrument by the Judge, Registrar, Clerk or officer of the Court signing the same, or by the corporation respectively, for all purposes respecting the registration thereof, and no further evidence or verification of the execution shall be required for the purpose of registration. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 48.

Seal of Court or seal of Corporation with signature of officer to suffice for registration.

47. Certificates of proceedings in the High Court for registration may be signed by one of the Registrars of the Court, or by the Clerk of Records and Writs, or by a Deputy Clerk of the Crown or Deputy Registrar, or by any other official authorized by the Court to sign the same; and such certificates may be under the seal of the Court, or under the seal of office (if any) of the officer signing the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 89; c. 111, s. 49.

Certificates for registry. Who may sign.

48. The instituting of an action or the taking of a proceeding, in which action or proceeding any title or interest in land is brought in question, shall not be deemed notice of the action or proceeding to any person not being a party thereto, until a certificate signed by one of the officers in the preceding section mentioned, has been registered in the Registry Office of the Registry Division in which the land is situate, which certificate may be in the following form:—

Action, etc., not notice unless certificate registered.

"I certify that in an action or proceeding in the High Court, between A. B., of and C. D., of some title or interest is called in question in the following land (describing it.)"

Form of certificate.

Dated at (stating date and place.)

But no certificate shall be required to be registered in any action or proceeding for foreclosure or sale upon a registered mortgage. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 90.

Not necessary in foreclosure cases.

49. Every judgment affecting land may be registered in the Registry Office of the county or other registry division where the land is situate, on a certificate signed by one of the officers in section 47 mentioned, setting forth the substance and effect of the judgment, and the land affected thereby. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 91.

Judgment affecting lands may be registered.

Registrar to deliver certified copy of power of attorney registered.

50. Where a power of attorney or any substitution thereof is registered, the Registrar shall deliver a certified copy or copies of such power or substitution as may be required of him, and of all the documents aforesaid connected with or relating to the same, under his signature and seal of office, in which certificate he shall declare the time, place and other particulars of registration as in other cases under this Act, and he shall also declare that the copy, which he so delivers, is a true copy of the power or substitution, and of all the other documents connected with or relating to the same of which they respectively purport to be copies, and that the originals have been duly deposited in his office according to the statute in that behalf. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 50.

Use and effect of such certified copy.

51. Every such certified copy where the original power or substitution is deposited as aforesaid, may be registered in any other Registry Office, by deposit thereof, without production of the original power or substitution, and without proof of any kind other than the production of the copy so certified as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 51.

Copy prima facie evidence.

52. Every such certified copy of a power of attorney or substitution, shall be received in all cases in place of the original as prima facie evidence of the original power or substitution and of due execution, provided that notice has been given in the manner set forth in section 45 of The Evidence Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 52.

Act, Stat. c. 47 s. 45.

Registry of instrument in several Registry offices.

53. Where it is desired to register an instrument other than a will in more than one Registry Office, the same may be registered in like manner as is provided as to powers of attorney by sections 50 and 51 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 53.

Registration of notarial copies of instruments executed in Quebec.

54. Every notarial copy of any instrument executed in the Province of Quebec, the original of which is filed in any notarial office according to the law of Quebec, and which cannot therefore be produced in Ontario, and every prothonotarial copy of any instrument executed in Quebec shall be received in lieu of and as prima facie evidence of the original instrument, and may be registered and treated under this Act for all purposes as if it were in fact the original instrument, and such notarial or prothonotarial copy shall be registered without any other or further proof of the execution of the same, or of the original thereof, with the seal of the Notary or Prothonotary attached. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 54.

MANNER OF REGISTERING.

Generally.

Instruments to be delivered to Registrar and registered in full.

55. All instruments that may be registered under this Act shall be registered at full length, including every certificate and affidavit, excepting certificates by the Registrar, accompanying the same, upon and by the delivery to the Registrar of the original instrument, when but one is executed, or when such instrument is in two or more original parts, upon and by delivery of one of such parts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 55.

56. Where any instrument, signed or executed by any person by attorney, shall hereafter be registered, it shall be the duty of the Registrar on registration thereof to enter a note of the fact of such signature or execution by attorney, giving the name of the attorney or attorneys, as the case may be, on the abstract indices, and on all abstracts of title thereafter furnished by him relating to the lands affected thereby. 49 V. c. 24, s. 2.

Special entry to be made when instrument executed by attorney.

57. In case one of two or more original parts is registered, the Registrar shall endorse upon each of such original parts a certificate of the registration, in the form of Schedule G to this Act, and the original, so certified, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the registration and of the due execution of the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 56. See Cap. 61, s. 44.

Instruments in two or more parts.

58. Where an instrument includes different lots or parcels of land situate in different municipalities in the same county, it shall only be necessary to furnish one duplicate original of such instrument, with an affidavit of its execution, and the duplicate original and affidavit shall be copied into the registry book pertaining to each city, town, incorporated village, township, or place wherein the lands therein mentioned are situate, and the Registrar shall make the necessary entries and certificates accordingly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 57.

Instruments relating to several lots in different localities.

59. Every deed executed prior to the fourth day of March 1868, affecting lands situate in more than one county, and of which said deed no memorial has been executed, may be recorded in any one of the counties in which some of the lands are situate, upon proof made in accordance with this Act, and in the other counties by deposit of a copy of every such deed and proof certified as is provided with respect to powers of attorney in sections 50 and 51 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 58.

Registration of deeds containing lands situate in more than one County and of which no memorial has been executed.

60. The Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the county in which the lands are situate shall, upon production to him of the original instrument, duplicate or other original part thereof, together with an affidavit of execution enter the said instrument in the registry book, in the order in which it is received, and he shall file the same with the affidavit of execution, and he shall endorse a certificate on every such instrument and upon every duplicate of the instrument in the form of Schedule G to this Act, and shall therein mention the certain year, month, day, hour and minute in which the instrument is entered and registered, expressing also in what book the same has been entered, and the number of registration; and the said and its effect.

Registrar or his deputy shall sign the said certificate when so endorsed, which certificate shall be allowed and taken as evidence of the respective registries in all Courts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 59.

Pages and instruments to be numbered.

61. Every page of the registry book, and every instrument entered therein shall be numbered, and the certain year, month, day, hour, and minute of registration shall be entered in the margin of the registry books, in the form of Schedule H to this Act; and the entry shall be signed by the Registrar or his deputy. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 60.

Crown Grants.

Crown Grants.

62. Grants from the Crown shall be registered by producing the grant or an exemplification thereof to the Registrar, with a true copy sworn to by any person who has compared the same with the original; and the copy shall be filed with the Registrar. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 61.

Orders in Council.

Orders in Council.

63. Orders of the Governor-General in Council or of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may be registered in the Registry Office of the county or other registry division in which any land to which the Order in Council relates is situate by the deposit of a copy of the Order, certified by the Clerk of the Council. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 62.

Wills.

Registration of wills.

64. Every will shall be registered at full length by the production of the original will and the deposit of a copy thereof, with an affidavit sworn to by one of the witnesses to the will, proving the due execution thereof by the testator, or by the production of probate or letters of administration with the will annexed, or an exemplification thereof, under the seal of any Court in this Province, or in Great Britain and Ireland, or in any British province, colony, or possession, or in any foreign country having jurisdiction therein, and by the deposit of a copy of the probate, letters of administration, or exemplification with an affidavit verifying such copy. 48 V. c. 23, s. 1.

Other Instruments.

Other instruments.

65. All instruments, other than grants from the Crown and wills, shall be registered by the deposit of the original instrument, or by the deposit of a duplicate or other original part thereof with all the necessary affidavits. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 64.

[As to Registration of Orders and Judgments for Alimony.
See Cap. 44, s. 30.]

Instruments executed before the 1st, January, 1866.

66. The registration of all instruments executed before the first of January, 1866, may be made through memorials or by certificate or otherwise, as provided by the law in force prior to the Registry Act passed in the year 1865. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 65. Registration of instruments executed before 1st Jan., 1866.

67. The proof that would before the first day of January 1866, have been sufficient for the registration of any instrument executed prior to the said date, shall be deemed sufficient for the registration hereafter of any such instrument; but in any such case the instrument shall be registered at full length, and the memorial and affidavit shall be deposited and filed in lieu of an original or duplicate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 66. Proof of registration of instruments executed before 1st Jan., 1866, etc.

68.—(1) Any instrument which has been registered by memorial prior to the 1st day of January, 1866, and has endorsed thereon a certificate of the registration thereof, may be re-registered at full length in the same or any other Registry Division, by the production of the original instrument and the deposit of a copy thereof, with an affidavit verifying the copy. Registration of instruments in full when memorials previously registered.

(2) In re-registering such instrument the Registrar shall copy the affidavit of verification and the certificate of former registration, and shall write in the margin of the registry book the words "Original not deposited," and where the former registration was made in the same office, the Registrar shall write upon the entry of the memorial in the registry book a memorandum as follows:—"Re-registered in full at No.——," giving a reference to the number and volume where the full registration is entered, and he shall also note the re-registration in red ink wherever in an abstract index the memorial is entered.

(3) The Registrar shall also endorse upon the original instrument a certificate of the re-registration, in a form similar to the certificate of registration given in Schedule G to this Act. 50 V. c. 7, s. 13.

Discharge of Mortgages.

69. Where a registered mortgage has been satisfied, the Registrar, on receiving a certificate executed by the mortgagee, or if the mortgage has been assigned and the assignment registered, then executed by the assignee, or by such other person as may be entitled by law to receive the money and to discharge the mortgage, in the form of Schedule J, to this Act, or to the like effect, executed in the presence of one witness, and duly proven by the oath of the subscribing witness thereto, in the same manner as herein is provided for the proof of other instruments affecting lands, shall register the same, and Satisfaction of mortgage how registered.

register.

Effect of such
registration.

every affidavit attached thereto or endorsed thereon, at full length in its proper order, in the registry book, and shall number it in like manner as other instruments are required to be registered and numbered, and shall write in the margin of the register wherein the said mortgage has been registered, words to the following effect: "—————See certificate purporting to be discharge signed by—————(naming the person who has executed the same), and see Registry number—————of such certificate—————Book (stating the same according to the fact)," and to such marginal entry the Registrar or his Deputy shall affix his name; and the same shall be deemed a discharge of the mortgage, and the certificate so registered shall be as valid and effectual in law as a release of the mortgage, and as a conveyance to the mortgagor, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or any person lawfully claiming by, through or under him or them, of the original estate of the mortgagor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 67.

How mortgages to married women
discharged.

70.—(1) It shall not be necessary to the validity of any certificate of discharge of mortgage given by a married woman, that the husband of such married woman should be a party to or should execute the same; and it is hereby declared that any discharge of mortgage heretofore executed by a married woman alone (and duly registered) shall be as effectual to discharge such mortgage and to re-convey all the estate of such married woman in the mortgaged lands as if the same had been executed by the husband and wife conjointly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 69 (1); 44 V. c. 10, s. 1.

Mode of execution by married women.

(2) Any such certificate given between the 19th day of December, 1868, and the 29th day of March, 1873, shall be deemed to have been sufficiently executed if it has been executed jointly by such married woman and her husband; and from and after the 29th day of March, 1873, and after the passing of this Act execution either jointly by the married woman and her husband, or pursuant to The Married Woman's Real Estate Act shall be deemed sufficient execution; and it shall not be necessary to produce any certificate of such married woman having been examined before any of the persons authorized by the laws in force between said dates touching her consent thereto in any wise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 69 (2).

Rev. Stat.
c. 134.

All discharges of mortgage before 19th Dec., 1868, confirmed.
32 V. c. 9.

71. All certificates of discharge of mortgage and the registering thereof, executed by married women or registered previously to the nineteenth day of December, 1868, according to the terms of the Act passed in the thirty-second year of Her Majesty's reign, and chaptered nine, shall be as valid and binding as if done after the said date. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 70.

Release of part only of lands
mortgaged.

72. In case the mortgagee or any assignee of the mortgagee desires to release or discharge part only of the lands contained in such mortgage, or to release or discharge only part of the money specified in the mortgage, he may do so by deed or by a certificate to be made, executed, proven, and registered in the same manner as in cases where the whole lands and mortgage are wholly released and discharged; and such deed or certificate shall contain as precise a description of the portion of lands so released or discharged as would be necessary to be contained in an instrument of conveyance for registration under this Act, and also a precise statement of the amount or particular sum or sums so released or discharged. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 68.

Portion released and discharged.

73.—(1) When a sheriff, bailiff of a Division Court or other officer, under a writ or warrant of execution against goods, seizes any mortgage belonging to the person against whose effects the writ or warrant has issued, on or affecting land in the Province of Ontario, the payment with or without suit in whole or in part to the sheriff, bailiff, or other officer by the mortgagor or any other person of the mortgage money thereby secured shall discharge the mortgage to the extent of such payment.

Discharge
mortgage seized under execution.

(2) After payment of the mortgage or any part thereof, the sheriff, bailiff, or other officer shall, at the request and expense of the person requiring the same, give a certificate in the form or to the effect of Schedule K to this Act, under the hand and seal of office of the sheriff or other officer, or under the hand of the bailiff, and the seal of the Court of which he is bailiff.

Form of certificate of discharge.

(3) Upon the written request of the bailiff the clerk of the Court shall affix to the certificate the seal of the Court; and he shall file the request of the bailiff in his office.

Seal of Court.

(4) The execution of the certificate shall be proved by the same oath or affirmation, and in the same manner as is provided by law for the proof for registration of other instruments affecting lands, and the certificate, shall be registered in the same manner as other certificates of discharge of mortgages are registered.

Proof of execution of certificate.

(5) Every certificate so registered, if the same is of payment in full of the mortgage, shall be as valid and effectual in law as a release of the mortgage and as a conveyance to the mortgagor, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or any person lawfully claiming by, through or under him or them, of the original estate of the mortgagor as if executed by the execution debtor.

Effect of certificate.

(6) Every certificate so registered, if the same is of payment of only a portion of the mortgage, shall be as valid and effectual in law as a release of the mortgage as to such portion, as if executed by the execution debtor.

Effect of certificate of part payment.

(7) The provisions of this section shall extend and apply to all cases in which the seizure or payment was before, or since the twenty-first day of December, 1874. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 71.

Retrospective operation.

Residence, etc., of witness to discharge of mortgage need not be given in attesting clause.

74. It shall not be necessary that the residence or occupation of the attesting witness to any certificate of discharge of mortgage be stated in the attestation clause thereof; nor shall any such certificate, registered before the twenty-ninth day of March, 1873, be invalid or inoperative by reason of the omission to state in the attestation clause the residence or occupation of such attesting witness. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 72.

By-Laws.

Registration of by-laws passed since March 29, 1873.

75.—(1) Every by-law passed since the twenty-ninth day of March, 1873, or hereafter to be passed by any municipal council under the authority of which any street, road, or highway has been or is opened upon any private property, shall before the same becomes effectual in law, be duly registered in the Registry Office of the Registry Division in which the land is situate; and for the purpose of registration a duplicate original of the by-law shall be made out, certified under the hand of the clerk and the seal of the municipality, and shall be registered without any further proof.

As to by-laws etc., made before March 29, 1873.

(2) Every by-law passed before the said day, and every order and resolution of the Quarter and General Sessions passed before the said day under the authority of which any street, road, or highway, has been opened upon any private property, may at the election of any party interested and at the cost and charges of such party or municipality, be also duly registered, upon the production to the Registrar of a duly certified copy of the by-law under the hand of the clerk of the municipality and the seal of the municipality, or by a duly certified copy of the order or resolution of the Quarter or General Sessions, given under the hand and seal of the Clerk of the Peace, as the case may be. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 73.

EFFECT OF REGISTERING OR OMITTING TO REGISTER.

Unregistered instruments after grant from the Crown to be void against subsequent registered purchaser, etc.

76. After any grant from the Crown of lands in Ontario, and letters patent issued therefor, every instrument affecting the lands or any part thereof comprised in the grant shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration without actual notice, unless such instrument is registered, in the manner herein directed, before the registering of the instrument under which the subsequent purchaser or mortgagee claims. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 74.

Wills to be registered within twelve months from death of testator.

77. All wills or the probates thereof registered within the space of twelve months next after the death of the testator or testatrix, shall be as valid and effectual against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees, as if the same had been registered immediately after such death; and in case the devisee, or person interested in the lands devised in any such will, is disabled from registering the same within the said time by reason of the contesting of such will or by any other inevitable difficulty without his or her wilful neglect or default, then, the registration of the same within the space of twelve months next after his attainment of such will or probate thereof, or the removal of the impediment aforesaid, shall be a sufficient registration within the meaning of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 75.

78. Every deed made by a treasurer or other officer for arrears of taxes shall be registered within eighteen months after the sale by such treasurer or other officer; and all deeds of lands sold under process issued from any Court in Ontario, shall be registered within six months after the sale of the lands; otherwise the parties respectively claiming under any of such sales, shall not be deemed to have preserved their priority as against a purchaser in good faith who has registered his deed prior to the registration of the deed from the treasurer or other officer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 76. See also Cap. 193, s. 184.

Registry of deeds on sales for taxes.

Other sales under process of Court.

79. Where deeds for lands sold for taxes, or under process of law, before the fourth day of March, 1868, have not been registered within one year after the said day, the parties respectively claiming under any such sales shall not be deemed to have preserved their priority as against a purchaser in good faith who has acquired priority of registration. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 77.

Sales for taxes before 4th March, 1868.

80. The registration of any instrument, under this Act, or any former Act, shall constitute notice of the instrument, to all persons claiming any interest in the lands, subsequent to such registration, notwithstanding any defect in the proof for registration, but nevertheless it shall continue to be the duty of every Registrar not to register any instrument, except on such proof as is required by this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 78.

Registry to be notice.

81. So far as by the last preceding section it is provided that notwithstanding any defect in the proof for registration the registration of an instrument shall constitute notice thereof, the said section shall only apply retrospectively from the twenty-ninth day of March, 1873, as to matters and facts within the meaning of section 39 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 79.

Retrospective operation of last section.

82. Priority of registration shall prevail unless before the prior registration there has been actual notice of the prior instrument by the party claiming under the prior registration. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 80.

Actual notice.

A. to liens,
33.

83. No equitable lien, charge, or interest affecting land shall be deemed valid in any Court in this Province, as against a registered instrument executed by the same party, his heirs or assigns; and tacking shall not be allowed in any case to prevail against the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 81.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Plans.

Registration of plans when land subdivided.

Scale of plan, and what to shew.

Duty of Registrars thereafter.

Instruments must conform to such plan.

Penalty for refusing to register plan.

How recovered.

84.—(1) Where any land is surveyed and subdivided for the purpose of being sold or conveyed in lots, by reference to a plan which has not been already registered, the person making the subdivision shall, within three months from the date of the survey, file with the Registrar a plan of the land on a scale not less than 1 inch to every 4 chains. The plan shall shew the number of the township, town or village lots and range or concession as originally laid out, and all the boundary lines thereof, within the limits of the land shewn on the said plan, and where such plan is a subdivision of a lot or lots on a former plan, it shall shew the numbers or other distinguishing marks of the lot or lots subdivided, and the boundary lines of such lot or lots. The plan shall also shew all roads, streets, lots and commons, within the same, with the courses and widths thereof respectively, and the width and length of all lots and the courses of all division lines between the respective lots within the same, together with such other information as is required to shew distinctly the position of the land being subdivided. 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

(3) In the case of refusal by such person, corporation or company, his or their executors, agents or attorneys, or successors, for two months after demand in writing for that purpose, to lodge the said plan or map when required by any person interested therein, or by the Inspector so to do, he or they shall incur a penalty of $20 for each and every calendar month the said map or plan remains unregistered, which penalty may be recovered by any person complaining, in any Division Court, in the county in which such lands are situated, in like manner as a common debt.

(4) This section shall apply as well to lands already surveyed or subdivided as to those which may hereafter be surveyed or subdivided, subject to the next succeeding section. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 82 (2-4). See also Cap. 152, s. 63.

To what land this section applies.

85. In sales of lands under surveys or subdivisions made before the fourth day of March, 1868, where such surveys or subdivisions so differ from the manner in which such land was surveyed or granted by the Crown that the parcel so sold cannot be easily indentified, the plan or survey shall be registered within six months after the passing of this Act, if the plan or survey is still in existence and procurable for registration and filing under the next preceding section, and if it is not, a new survey or plan shall be made by and at the joint expense of the persons who have made such surveys or subdivisions, and of all others interested therein, by some duly authorized Provincial land surveyor, or as nearly as may be according to the proper original survey or subdivision, and the same when so made shall be filed as if under the next preceding section of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 83.

When plan must be registered in case of lands subdivided before March 4, 1868.

86. In no case shall any plan or survey, although tiled and registered, be binding on the person so filing or registering the same, or upon any other person, unless a sale has been made according to such plan or survey, and in all cases amendments or alterations of any such plan or survey may be ordered to be made, at the instance of the person filing or registering the same or his assigns, by the High Court, or by a Judge of the said Court, or by the Judge of the County Court of the county in which the lands lie, if on application for the purpose duly made, and upon hearing all parties concerned, it be thought fit and just so to order, and upon such terms and conditions as to costs and otherwise as may be deemed expedient. An appeal shall be from any such order to the Court of Appeal. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 84.

When not binding until sale is made under it; alterations in plan.

87.—(1) Where an incorporated city, town or village, or village not incorporated, comprises different parcels of land owned at the original division thereof by different persons, and the same were not jointly surveyed and one entire plan of such survey made and filed in accordance with section 84 of this Act, the municipal council of the township within which such unincorporated village is situated or of such incorporated city, town or village, shall, upon the written request of the inspector or of any person interested, addressed to the clerk of the municipality, immediately cause a plan of such city, town or village to be made upon the scale provided for under this Act, and to be registered in the Registrar's office of the Registry Division within which the municipality lies, which map or plan shall have endorsed thereon the certificates of the clerk and head of the municipality and the surveyor, that the same is prepared according to the directions of the municipality, and in accordance with this Act, and to the map or plan the corporate seal of the municipality shall be attached.

Plans of towns or villages to be registered in certain cases.

Payment of expenses.

(2) The expense attending the preparing and depositing of the map or plan shall be paid out of the general funds of the municipality, except in the case of unincorporated villages, where the same shall be paid by a special rate to be levied by assessment on all ratable property comprised in the unincorporated village, as described by metes and bounds in a by-law to be passed by the municipality for the purpose of levying such rate; and in case of the refusal of the municipality to comply with all the requirements of this section within six months next after being required in manner aforesaid so to do, the municipality shall incur the same penalty, and the same shall be recoverable in the manner provided in section 84 of this Act.

Registration of plans of Township sub-divisions in certain cases.

(3) Where land in a township has been or shall hereafter be sold under surveys or subdivisions made in a manner which so differs from that in which such land was surveyed or granted by the Crown, that the parcel sold cannot be easily identified, and the map or plan has not been registered under this or any other Act in that behalf, the council of the township may, at the written request of the Inspector, or of any person interested, cause a plan of any such land to be made and registered in the same manner and with the same effect as in the case of an unincorporated village; and the expenses attending the preparation of and filing of the map or plan shall be paid by a special rate to be levied by assessment on the lands comprised in said map or plan, as described in a by-law to be passed by the council for the purpose of levying such rate; and the municipality shall have the like remedies for the recovering of such last mentioned expenses as it has for compelling payment of taxes.

Obligations not impaired.

(4) Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed or construed to relieve any person from any liability, duty, obligation, or penalty provided or imposed by or under any of the provisions of section 84 of this Act. 48 V. c. 23, s. 2; 49 V. c. 16, s. 30.

Plans of surveys to be deposited with treasurer of municipality.

88. Every person who is required by this Act to lodge with the Registrar a plan or map of any survey or subdivision of land made by him, or of any alteration of such survey or subdivision, shall also, within three months from the date of the survey, lodge with the treasurer of the municipality in which the land is situate a duplicate or copy of such plan or map and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, within two months after notice in writing given by such Treasurer requiring him to lodge such plan as provided by this section, every such person shall incur a penalty of $20 for each and every month during which the default shall continue. 43 V. c. 24, s. 26.

Penalty.

Re-registration where Registry Books lost, etc.

89.—(1) In any case where the registry books and papers were before the fourth day of March, 1868, lost or destroyed and the memorials are not forthcoming, upon proof being made to that effect before a Judge of any Court of Record in this Province to the satisfaction of the Judge as evidenced by a certificate under his hand, it shall be lawful for the Registrar for the Registry Division where the lands are situate to register the instrument upon production thereof, and no further proof shall be required by the Registrar than the original certificate of registration endorsed on such instrument; and any such instrument shall have priority according to the date of the original certificate.

Provisions for re-registration in case registry books or papers are lost or destroyed.

(2) The instrument shall be filed away by the Registrar and preserved with the records of his office, and in case memorials have not been copied into the registry books in their proper order, the Inspector may cause the same to be entered in proper books to be procured for the purpose, in the same manner as provided in section 25 of this Act, and the Registrar shall be paid therefor in the same manner as under sub-section 7 of section 95 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 86.

Defects in Registration cured.

90. No registration of any deed or other instrument made before the fourth day of March, 1868, shall be deemed or adjudged void by reason of the name or names, residence or residences, addition or additions of the witness or witnesses to the deed or instrument being improperly given or described in the registered memorial thereof, or being either in part or altogether omitted from such memorial, or by reason of any clerical error or omission of a formal or technical character therein; and all registrations before the said day effected in separate registry books of unincorporated villages, are hereby confirmed, where the law has been otherwise complied with; and such separate registry books shall be taken and held to form part of the registry books of the municipality of which the unincorporated village forms a part; but such books shall not be further used. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 87.

Registration made before 4th March, 1868, not to be deemed void for certain defects.

Registration in books for unincorporated villages.

Proviso.

91. The registration of an instrument had before the twenty-ninth day of March, 1873, shall not be deemed void by reason of any defect in the proof for registration; but this section shall not apply to any matter or fact adjudged or decided upon before the said date by any Court of competent jurisdiction in that behalf. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 88.

Defective registrations before 29th March, 1873, not to be deemed void.

92. No registration or entry made before the said last mentioned date shall be adjudged or held to be void by reason of the Registrar having failed or omitted to make or sign the certi-

Registrations, etc., not to be deemed void by absence of certificates, etc., in margin of books.

cate of entry, discharge, or registration required to be made in the margin of, or elsewhere in the registry books or other books of entries: and in case of such failure or omission, the certificate may be made or signed by any subsequent Registrar, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been made or signed by the Registrar whose duty it was to have made or signed it. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 89.

The case of part of a township made part of a new township without change of registry books provided for.

93.—(1) In case a part or parts of any township or townships as originally laid out, surveyed and named, had before the said last mentioned date been made or erected into a new township but, nevertheless, the registrations of instruments affecting or respecting land in said first mentioned township or townships, and the registry books and indexes therefor and relating thereto continued to be and were on the said date used, made, kept, entered and registered for and of said first mentioned township or townships, and as if the same had continued to be as so originally laid out, surveyed and named, then and in every such case, and for and in respect of all matters and purposes of or relating to any such instrument either before or after the said date and any and all such registrations, registry books and indexes, and the description therein of any land or premises, said first mentioned township or townships shall be deemed, considered and taken as if the same had continued to be and remained as so originally laid out, surveyed and named.

Provide,

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed or taken as relating to or affecting any incorporated town or village, or the land therein, or the registration of any instrument respecting the same, from or after the time of the incorporation of said town or village.

Provide,

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall impair or make defective any instrument or the registration thereof, because of any land being therein described or mentioned as situate in such new township. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 90.

List of Crown Grants to be furnished to Registrar.

Provincial Secretary to furnish statement of Crown grants once every three months.

94. The Provincial Secretary shall once in every three months, furnish to each Registrar a statement containing a list of the names of all persons to whom patents have issued from the Crown for grants of land within the county since the former statements, and of all persons whose patents have been cancelled, since the former statements, and with such general or particular descriptions, as the case may require; and the Commissioner of Crown Lands shall furnish copies of all plans or maps of towns and townships within the same, which have not been already furnished, and in cases where no proper survey of any township has been made he may cause a proper survey and plan thereof to be made and furnished. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 91. See also Cap. 24, ss. 35-37.

Maps to be furnished by Commissioner of Crown Lands.

FEES OF REGISTRARS.

95. Every Registrar shall be allowed the following fees for Fees, the following services, and no more :

1. For the necessary entries and certificate in registering every instrument other than those hereinafter specially provided for, including among such certificates the certificate on the duplicate, if any, forty cents ; and for registering every instrument, other than those hereinafter specially provided for, $1 ;

For registrations generally.

But in case the said instrument exceeds seven hundred words, then at the rate of fifteen cents for each additional one hundred words or the fractional part thereof, up to fourteen hundred words, and at the rate of ten cents for each additional hundred words or fractional part thereof over fourteen hundred ; and if the memorial or other instrument embraces different lots or parcels of land, situate in different localities in the same county, the registration and copying of such, including all necessary entries and certificates thereof into the different registry books, shall be considered separate and distinct registrations of such instruments, but shall be charged for and paid at the rate of forty cents for the necessary entries and certificate, and for the said instrument, fifteen cents for every one hundred words, or the fractional part thereof up to fourteen hundred, and of all over that, at the rate of ten cents for each hundred words or fractional part thereof ;

If the instrument includes different lots in different localities.

2. For searching the registry books and indexes relating to the title of any lot or part of a lot of land as originally patented by the Crown, or as afterwards subdivided into smaller lots, shewn by any registered map or plan thereof, when not exceeding four references, twenty-five cents, and five cents for every additional reference ; but in no case shall a general search into the title to any particular lot, piece or parcel of land exceed the sum of $2 ;

For searches as to title.

3. For searching, if specially required, the alphabetical index of names referred to in section 33 as to each name in the books of any one township, or other legally defined municipality in the county, twenty-five cents ; but if a general search as to any such name is made throughout the county, the aggregate of fees for such search shall not exceed $1 ;

Searching Alphabetical Index.

General search.

4. For every abstract of title to any specific parcel of land certified by the Registrar containing such particulars as to any number of the registered instruments affecting such parcel of land as the party searching may require, twenty-five cents ; and when such abstract exceeds one hundred words, fifteen cents for every additional hundred words ; and for copies of instruments when required, ten cents for each hundred words ;

Abstracts of title.

5. For each certificate furnished by the Registrar, except those made under sub-sections 1 and 4 of this section, twenty-five cents ;

- Of payment of taxes. 11. For registering each certificate of payment of taxes, twenty-five cents ;
- Figures, how charged. 12. In abstracts and certificates where figures are used instead of words to denote dates, numbers and quantities, the same shall be charged as if each number, though composed of several figures, were but one word. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 92 (9-13).
- Table of fees. 96. Every Registrar shall keep posted up in some conspicuous place in his office a printed schedule of the fees and charges authorized under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 93.
- Registrars to give statement of fees payable in any matter. 97. Every Registrar shall upon request of the person for whom the service is performed, furnish a statement in detail of the fees charged by him in respect of any matter for which fees are payable under the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 94.
- Recovery of fees from municipal corporations. 98. Should the treasurer of any county or city in which a separate Registry Office is established, on the request of the Registrar for the duties performed according to this Act, refuse to pay the fees and allowances for any services required by this Act, the Registrar may prove and recover the same and the cost thereof from the corporation of the county or city in any Court of Record in Ontario; and the Inspector's Evidence, certificate of the amount and of the services rendered shall be prima facie evidence of the right to recover. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 95.

99. The Registrar shall not be compelled to register any instrument unless the fees authorized by this Act are first paid thereon. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 96.

Fees payable before registration.

100. Every Registrar shall keep a separate book in which he shall enter, from day to day, all fees and emoluments received by him by virtue of his office, shewing separately the sums received for registering each instrument, and for searches, and for extracts or copies, and shall make, up to and including the thirty-first day of December of the previous year, a return, under oath, of such fees and emoluments so received to the Lieutenant-Governor, annually, on the fifteenth day of January. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 97.

Registrars to keep accounts of fees.

Return.

101. Every Registrar shall be entitled to retain to his own use in each year all the fees and emoluments received by him in that year up to $2,500. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 98.

Registrar's emolument when fees do not exceed $2,500.

102. Of the further fees and emoluments received by each Registrar in each year, in excess of $2,500, not exceeding $3,000, he shall be entitled to retain to his own use ninety per cent. and no more. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 99.

When fees are between $2,500 and $3,000.

103. Of the further fees and emoluments received by each Registrar in each year, in excess of $3,000 not exceeding $3,500, he shall be entitled to retain to his own use eighty per cent. and no more. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 100.

When fees exceed $4,500.

Application of surplus fees.

107.—(1) On the fifteenth day of January in each year every Registrar shall transmit to the treasurer of the county or city for which, or for part of which, he is Registrar, a duplicate of the return required by this Act, and shall also pay to such treasurer for the uses of the municipality such proportion of the fees and emoluments received by him during the preceding year, as under this Act he is not entitled to retain to his own use.

(2) Where a Registry Division includes a county or part of a county, and a city or town separated from the county for municipal purposes, the amount aforesaid shall be paid to the treasurer of the county and to the treasurer of the city or town for the use of the municipality in the same proportions in which the gross fees and emoluments are derived from extracts, searches, registrations, and other charges in respect of lands situate in the county, and in respect of lands situate in the city or town. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 104.

Fees under ss. 28 or 31, etc., not included in above provisions.

108. In the fees and emoluments mentioned in the seven next preceding sections of this Act, shall not be included any sums receivable from the municipality for the preparation of abstract indexes, or for work done under sections 28 or 31 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 111, s. 105.

EXPENSES OF EXECUTORS, s. 13.

REMOVAL OF DOCUMENTS FROM CUSTODY OF REGISTRAR, ss. 14, 15.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Short title.
Rev. Stat. c.
114.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Custody of Title Deeds Act," and shall be read as part of The Registry Act. 50 V. c. 14, s. 1.

Interpretation.
Rev. Stat. c.
114.

2. The word "document," herein, shall be held to include the word "instrument," as defined by The Registry Act, and also any certificate, affidavit, statutory declaration, or other proof as to the birth, baptism, marriage, divorce, death, burial, descendants, or pedigree of any person, or as to the existence or non-existence, happening or non-happening of any fact, event or occurrence upon which the title to land may depend, and notices of sale, or other notices necessary to the exercise of any power of sale or appointment or other powers relating to lands. 50 V. c. 14, s. 2.

Person having custody of deeds, etc., may deposit them in registry office.

3. Any person having any document, forming or being a title-deed or evidence or muniment of title to land in this Province may deposit the same for safe custody in the office of the registrar of any registry division in which the document or a duplicate or copy or memorial or certificate thereof has been registered; or in case it does not appear by any endorsement thereon, that the same or a duplicate or copy or memorial or certificate thereof has been registered in any registry office in Ontario, the document may be so deposited in the office of the registrar of any registry division in which any land to which the same relates is situate. 50 V. c. 14, s. 3.

4. Upon every such deposit, the person depositing shall deliver to the registrar a requisition in duplicate in the form A hereto; which requisition may include any number of documents; and the registrar shall sign a receipt upon one of the duplicates for the instruments or documents therein mentioned, and shall deliver the receipt to the person by whom the deposit is made. 50 V. c. 14, s. 4.

Requisition to be filed and receipt given.

5.—(1) Upon receiving the requisition and the documents therein mentioned, the registrar shall enter every document in consecutive order in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, to be called the “deposit index” (which may be in the form B hereto), and shall therein number all deposited documents consecutively, and shall endorse on every such document the word “deposited,” with the date of deposit and the number of the entry thereof in the deposit index; and shall file the same in consecutive order according to its number; and shall also endorse on the requisition the numbers so by him placed on the documents therein mentioned; and shall file all the requisitions in consecutive order according to such numbers.

Each document to be numbered and entered in deposit index and filed.

(2) The registrar shall also enter in an alphabetical index to be kept by him for that purpose (and which shall be called the “Alphabetical Deposit Index,”) the number of the document in the deposit index, and the name of every party to the document, or to the action, suit or proceeding to which the document relates, or if the same is a certificate or an affidavit, or a statutory declaration or other proof, as to the birth, baptism, marriage, divorce, death or burial of any person, then the name of such person.

Names to be entered in alphabetical Index.

(3) In case it appears by any certificate of registration endorsed on the document, that the same or a duplicate or a copy or memorial or certificate thereof is registered in his registry office, the registrar shall also enter in the margin of every registry book wherein the same is registered opposite the entry thereof, the words, “See deposit index No. A. D.,” referring to the number of the instrument in the deposit index, and the date of the deposit. 50 V. c. 14, s. 5.

Entry opposite registered instruments.

6.—(1) In case it appears by any certificate of registration endorsed on the document that the same or a duplicate or copy or memorial or certificate thereof is registered in any other registry division, the registrar with whom the same is so deposited shall, within ten days after the deposit send by post to such other registrar a notice thereof in duplicate, in the form C hereto.

Notice to be sent to other registry offices where registered.

(2) On receipt of the notice the registrar receiving the same shall enter in the margin of every registry book wherein the same appears to have been registered, opposite the entry thereof, the words, "See deposit index in Registry Office, No. A. D," referring to the registry office from which the notice is received, and the number and date of the deposit therein, and he shall forthwith send by post an acknowledgment written upon one of the duplicate notices of the receipt of the notice.

(3) In case such an acknowledgment is not received within fourteen days from the sending of the notice, the registrar sending the notice shall send another like notice, and shall repeat the same every fourteen days till the acknowledgment is received.

(4) Every such notice and acknowledgment shall be post paid and post registered, and a sufficient sum to pay the registrar's fees and the postage and post registration on the acknowledgment thereof shall be sent with the notice.

(5) All notices received from other registrars shall be filed by the registrar receiving the same in the order in which they are received, and all such acknowledgments shall be filed by the registrar receiving the same in the order of the receipt thereof. 50 V. c. 14, s. 6.

Registrar's fees.

7. The registrar with whom the deposit is made, shall be entitled to the following fees to be paid at the time of the deposit by the person depositing the same, that is to say:—

On every requisition.....	20 cents.
On every document deposited therewith..	10 "
For every notice necessary to be sent to other registrars, (not more than one notice to any one registrar to be charged for).....	15 "
Necessary postage and post registration fee on the notices and acknowledgments thereof.....

50 V. c. 14, s. 7.

Fees to other registrars.

8. The registrar to whom any notice under section 6 of this Act is sent, shall be entitled to a fee of twenty cents for every document, in respect of which he is to make the entries aforesaid. 50 V. c. 14, s. 8.

Deposited documents open to inspection.

9. Any person shall be entitled to inspect and make or obtain copies of or extracts from any such deposited document, in like manner as in the case of instruments registered under the provisions of The Registry Act; and the registrar shall be entitled to the same fees in respect thereof, as in the case of registered instruments. 50 V. c. 14, s. 9.

10. The deposit of any document under this Act, shall not be deemed a registration thereof within the meaning of The Registry Act; nor shall the admissibility or value of any document as evidence, be deemed to be improved or affected by the deposit. 50 V. c. 14, s. 10.

Deposit not registration and not to affect document as evidence.
Rev. Stat. c. 114.

11. The deposit of a document under the provisions of this Act, shall, while the same continues so deposited, be deemed a sufficient compliance with, and fulfilment of, any covenant or agreement theretofore entered into by any person, to produce or allow the inspection of the document, or the making of any copy of or extract from the same, and shall absolve any person liable for the production or custody thereof from any further liability in respect of such custody or production. 50 V. c. 14, s. 11.

Deposit relieves from liability.

12. The registrar with whom a document is so deposited shall keep the same safely in his office, in like manner and with the same care as the instruments registered in his office; and he and his sureties shall be responsible in respect thereof, in like manner as in respect of instruments registered under The Registry Act; and the registrar shall not part with the possession of any such document, unless in accordance with the order of a Court or Judge as hereinafter provided. 50 V. c. 14, s. 12.

Registrar to keep safely.

Rev. Stat. c. 114.

13. An executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person, and a trustee of a trust estate, may reimburse himself out of such estate any expense which he incurs in or about depositing any documents which may come to his possession or control as such executor, administrator or trustee. 50 V. c. 14, s. 13.

Expenses of executors, etc.

14.—(1) At any time within five years after the deposit of a document under the provisions hereof, any person may apply to the High Court of Justice, or the County Court of the county in which the deposit is made, or to a Judge of either of the said Courts, for the delivery of the document to such person, and the Court or Judge—upon being satisfied that the applicant would, but for the deposit, be solely entitled to the possession of the document, and that the deposit thereof was made without his consent, or the consent of any person entitled at the time of the deposit to any interest therein, and (in case the document relates to other lands than those in which the applicant is interested) that there are reasonably important grounds for removing the document from the custody of the registrar—may direct that the same shall be delivered up by the registrar to the applicant, or to any person the Court or Judge may direct.

Application within 5 years to remove custody.

(2) Before making the order, the Court or Judge may require such notice of the application as to the Court or Judge shall seem meet to be given to the person by whom the deposit was made, or to any other person, by advertisement or otherwise, or may dispense with any such notice.

Notice of application.

Costs.

(3) The order may direct that all or any part of the costs of the application, or of opposing the same, or in relation thereto, be paid by the person by whom the deposit was made, or by whom the application is made, or by any person to whom notice of the application has been given and may make such order in respect of the costs of the applicant, and of the persons who have been notified, or who may oppose the application, as to the Court or Judge seems meet. 50 V. c. 14, s. 14.

Delivery under order.

15.—(1) Upon the delivery to the registrar of the order, or a duplicate thereof, within six months after the date thereof, and upon payment to him of the sum of fifty cents, he is to deliver to the person mentioned therein the documents therein directed to be given to him, taking his receipt, or the receipt of his authorized agent therefor, and

Registration

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario,
enacts as follows:—

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Land Titles Act." 48 V. Short title.
c. 22, s. 1.

Application
of Act.

2. This Act shall apply to the city of Toronto and county of York, and to the districts of Algoma, Thunder Bay (including Rainy River), Muskoka, Parry Sound and Nipissing only, and to any other counties, cities and separated towns to which this Act may be extended under the provisions hereinafter contained. 48 V. c. 22, s. 2, (1); 50 V. c. 16, s. 1.

Interpretation.

3. When the words following occur in this Act or in the Schedules thereto, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned unless a contrary intention appears.

"Court" means the High Court of Justice; and any jurisdiction of the court under this Act may be exercised by any judge of the said court; and may be exercised by him whether sitting in open court or in chambers.

"Owner" means owner in fee simple; "Transfer" includes the whole estate and interest of the transferor.

"Person" includes a corporation or any body of persons unincorporate.

"Master of Titles," and "general rules" mean the Master of Titles, and general rules in this Act respectively in that behalf mentioned.

"Prescribed" means prescribed by this Act or by any general rules made in pursuance of this Act.

"Registered" means registered under this Act.

"Sworn Valuator" means a person appointed by the Master of Titles, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, to value land under this Act. 48 V. c. 22, s. 3.

PART I.

ENTRY OF LAND ON REGISTER OF TITLE.

Land registry
continued.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, ss.
5, 106.

4. The Land Registry heretofore established, is continued and shall be conducted by an officer to be called the Master of Titles, who shall be a barrister of not less than ten years' standing at the Bar of Ontario, and shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor by commission under the Great Seal of the Province. 48 V. c. 22, s. 4.

Application for registration with absolute or possessory
title.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 5.

5. Any person entitled for his own benefit at law or in equity to an estate in fee simple in land, whether subject or not to incumbrances, or any person capable of disposing for his own benefit by way of sale of an estate in fee simple in land, whether subject or not to incumbrances, may apply to the Master of Titles to be registered under this Act, or to have registered in his stead any nominee or nominees, as owner or owners of such land, with an Absolute, Qualified or Possessory title, as the case may be. 48 V. c. 22, s. 5.

6. Any person who has contracted to buy for his own benefit an estate in fee simple in land, whether subject or not to incumbrances, may also apply as aforesaid, provided the vendor consents to the application. 48 V. c. 22, s. 6.

Application
by purchaser.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 5.

7. Her Majesty's Attorney-General for Canada, or Her Majesty's Attorney-General for Ontario, may apply in like manner in respect to the title of the Crown to any land; and the practice and procedure upon the application shall be the same as in ordinary cases. 48 V. c. 22, s. 7.

Application
by Crown.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 65.

Trustees and Mortgagees.

8.—(1) Any person holding land on trust for sale, and any trustee, mortgagee, or other person having a power of selling land, may authorize the purchaser to make an application to be registered as first owner with any title which an owner is authorized to be registered with under this Act, and may consent to the performance of the contract being conditional on his being so registered; or any of such persons, except a mortgagee, may himself apply to be registered as such owner with the consent of the persons (if any) whose consent is required to the exercise by the applicant of his trust or power of sale.

Trustees, etc., may sell by medium of registry, or may be themselves registered.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 68.

(2) A mortgagee having a power of selling land as aforesaid, may apply to have the mortgagor or other person owning the equity of redemption registered as owner with any title as aforesaid.

(3) The amount of all costs, charges, and expenses properly incurred by such person, in or about the application, shall be ascertained and declared by the Master of Titles, and shall be deemed to be costs, charges, and expenses properly incurred by such person in the execution of his trust or in pursuance of his power; and such person may retain or reimburse the same to himself out of any money coming to him under the trust or power, and he shall not be liable to any account in equity in respect thereof. 48 V. c. 22, s. 71.

Part Owners.

9. Any two or more persons entitled for their own benefit concurrently or successively, or partly in one mode and partly in another, to such estates, rights, or interests in land as together make up such an estate as would, if vested in one person, entitle him to be registered as owner of the land, may (subject as in this Act mentioned with respect to the number of persons to be registered in respect of the same land) apply to the Master of Titles to be registered as joint owners, in the same manner and with the same incidents, so far as circumstances admit, in and with which it is in this Act declared that any individual owner may be registered. 48 V. c. 22, s. 72.

Registration of part owners.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 69.

Evidence where absolute title required.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 6.

10. Where an absolute title is required, the applicant or his nominee shall not be registered as owner of the fee simple until and unless the title is approved by the Master of Titles. 48 V. c. 22, s. 8.

Estate of first registered owner with absolute title.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 7.

11. The first registration of any person as owner of land (in this Act referred to as first registered owner) with an Absolute title, shall vest in the person so registered an estate in fee simple in such land, together with all rights, privileges, and appurtenances belonging or appurtenant thereto, subject as follows :

1. To the incumbrances, if any, entered on the register ;

2. To such liabilities, rights and interests, if any, as are by this Act declared for the purposes of the Act not to be incumbrances, unless, under the provisions of this Act, the contrary is expressed on the register.

3. Where such first registered owner is not entitled for his own benefit to the land registered, then as between him and any persons claiming under him, to any unregistered estates, rights, interests or equities to which such persons may be entitled ; but free from all other estates and interests whatsoever, including estates and interests of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, which are within the legislative jurisdiction of this Province. 48 V. c. 22, s. 9.

Evidence where possessory title required.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 6.

12. Where a possessory title only is required, the applicant or his nominee may be registered as owner of the fee simple on giving such evidence of title, and serving such notices, if any, as may for the time being be prescribed. 48 V. c. 22, s. 10.

Estate of first registered owner with possessory
title.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 8.

13. The registration of any person as first registered owner of land with a possessory title only, shall not affect or prejudice the enforcement of any estate, right, or interest adverse to or in derogation of the title of such first registered owner, and subsisting or capable of arising at the time of registration of such owner ; but, save as aforesaid, shall have the same effect as registration of a person with an Absolute title. 48 V. c. 22, s. 11.

A qualified title may be registered in certain cases.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 9.

14.—(1) Where on the examination of the title it appears to the Master of Titles that the title can be established only for a limited period, or subject to certain reservations, the Master, on the application of the party applying to be registered, may, by an entry made in the register, except from the effect of registration any estate, right, or interest arising before a specified date, or arising under a specified instrument, or otherwise particularly described in the register.

(2) A title registered subject to such excepted estate, right, or interest shall be called a qualified title.

(3) The registration of a person as first registered owner of land with a qualified title shall have the same effect as the registration of such person with an absolute title, save that registration with a qualified title shall not affect or prejudice the enforcement of any estate, right, or interest appearing by the register to be excepted. 48 V. c. 22, s. 12.

(4) Where the existence of any easement is proved the Master of Titles may, if he thinks fit, enter notice thereof on the register. Notice of easement. Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 18, sub-s. d.

(5) Where title is shewn to any easement appurtenant to the land being registered, the same may be stated in the entry of ownership and land certificate. 50 V. c. 15, s. 10 (2, 3). Statement of easement on certificate, etc.

15. On the entry of the name of the first registered owner of freehold land on the register, the Master of Titles shall, if required by the owner, deliver to him a Certificate, in this Act called a Land Certificate, in the prescribed form; the Certificate shall state whether the title of the owner therein mentioned is absolute, qualified, or possessory. 48 V. c. 22, s. 13. Land certificate given on registration. Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 10.

16. A certificate by the Master of Titles of the first registration of an owner under this Act shall be registered in the registry division in which the land is situated; and thereafter The Registry Act shall cease to apply to the said land. 48 V. c. 22, s. 14. Registry Act (Rev. Stat. c. 114), not to apply to land under this Act.

PART II.

LEASEHOLD LAND.

17. A separate register shall be kept of leasehold land, and any of the following persons; that is to say, Application for registration with or without a declaration of title of lessor to grant lease. Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 11.

1. Any person who has contracted to buy for his own benefit leasehold land held under a lease for a life or lives, or determinable on a life or lives, or for a term of years of which more than 21 are unexpired, or in respect of which the lessee or his assigns is or are entitled to a renewal term or succession of terms amounting with the portion unexpired of the current term to 21 years or over, or to a renewal for a life or lives, whether subject or not to incumbrances; and

2. Any person entitled for his own benefit, at law or in equity, to leasehold land held under any such lease as is described in this section, whether subject or not to incumbrances; and

3. Any person capable of disposing for his own benefit by way of sale of leasehold land held under any such lease as is described in this section, whether subject or not to incumbrances;

May apply to the Master of Titles to be registered, or to have registered in his stead any nominee or nominees not exceeding the prescribed number, as owner or owners of such leasehold land, with the addition, where the lease under which the land is held is derived immediately out of freehold land, and the applicant is able to submit for examination the title of the lessor, of a declaration of the title of the lessor to grant the lease under which the land is held ;

- (a) Provided that in the case of leasehold land contracted to be bought, the vendor consents to the application ;
- (b) Every applicant for registration of leasehold land shall deposit with the Master of Titles the lease of the land in respect of which the application is made, or if such lease is proved to the satisfaction of the Master of Titles to be lost, a copy of such lease or of a counterpart thereof, verified to the satisfaction of the Master of Titles ; and such lease or attested copy is in this Act referred to as the registered lease ;
- (c) Leasehold land held under a lease containing an absolute prohibition against alienation, shall not be registered in pursuance of this Act ;
- (d) Leasehold land held under a lease containing a prohibition against alienation without the license of some other person, shall not be registered under this Act until and unless provision is made in the prescribed manner for preventing alienation without such license, by entry in the register of a restriction to that effect, or otherwise. 48 V. c. 22, s. 15 ; 49 V. c. 16, s. 45.

Evidence of title required on application.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 12.

18. An applicant or his nominee shall not be registered as owner of leasehold land until and unless the title to such land is approved by the Master of Titles : and further, if he apply to be registered as owner of leasehold land with a declaration of the title of the lessor to grant the lease under which the land is held, until and unless the lessor, after an examination of his title by the Master of Titles, is declared to have had an absolute or qualified title to grant the lease under which the land is held. 48 V. c. 22, s. 16.

Estate of first registered owner of leasehold land with a declaration of absolute title of lessor to grant lease.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 13.

19. The registration under this Act of any person as first registered owner of leasehold land with a declaration that the lessor had an absolute title to grant the lease under which the land is held, shall be deemed to vest in such person the possession of the land comprised in the registered lease relating to such land for all the leasehold estate therein described, with all implied or expressed rights, privileges and appurtenances attached to such estate, but subject as follows :

1. To all implied and express covenants, obligations and liabilities incident to such leasehold estate ; and

2. To the incumbrances (if any) entered on the register ; and

3. (Unless the contrary is expressed on the register) to such liabilities, rights and interests as affect the leasehold estate and are by this Act declared not to be incumbrances in the case of registered freehold land ; and

4. Where such first proprietor is not entitled for his own benefit to the land registered as between himself and any persons claiming under him, to any unregistered estates, rights, interests or equities to which such persons may be entitled ;

But free from all other estates and interests whatsoever, including estates and interests of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in case the land is within the jurisdiction of this Legislature in that behalf. 48 V. c. 22, s. 17.

20. The registration of any person under this Act as first registered owner of leasehold land without a declaration of the title of the lessor, shall not affect or prejudice the enforcement of any estate, right, or interest affecting or in derogation of the title of the lessor to grant the lease under which the land is held ; but, save as aforesaid, shall have the same effect as the registration of any person under this Act as first registered owner of leasehold land with a declaration that the lessor had an absolute title to grant the lease under which the land is held. 48 V. c. 22, s. 18.

Estate of first registered owner of leasehold land without a declaration of title of lessor to grant lease.
Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 14.

21. Where an absolute title is required, and on the examination of the title of any lessor by the Master of Titles, it appears to him that the title of such lessor to grant the lease under which the land is held can be established only for a limited period, or subject to certain reservations, the Master of Titles may, by an entry made in the register, except from the effect of registration, any estate, right, or interest arising before a specified date or arising under a specified instrument, or otherwise particularly described in the register ; and a title of a lessor registered subject to such excepted estate, right, or interest is in this Act referred to as a qualified title ; and the registration of a person as first registered owner of the leasehold land with a declaration that the lessor had a qualified title to grant the lease under which the land is held, shall have the same effect as the registration of such person with a declaration that the lessor had an absolute title to grant the lease under which the land is held, save that registration with the declaration of a qualified title shall not affect or prejudice the enforcement of any right or interest appearing by the register to be excepted. 48 V. c. 22, s. 19.

Lessor may be declared to have a qualified title to grant lease in certain cases.
Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 15.

Office copy of lease given on registration.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 16.

22. On the entry of the name of the first registered owner of leasehold land on the register, the Master of Titles shall, if required by the owner, deliver to him a copy of the registered lease, in this Act called an office copy, authenticated in the prescribed manner, and there shall be endorsed thereon a statement whether any declaration, absolute or qualified, as to the title of the lessor has been made, and any other particulars relating to such lease entered in the register. 48 V. c. 22, s. 20.

PART III.

REGISTRATION, HOW EFFECTED.

Regulations as to examination of title by Master.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 17.

23. The examination by the Master of Titles of a title under this Act shall be conducted in the prescribed manner, provided as follows:

1. Due notice shall be given where the giving of such notice is prescribed; and sufficient opportunity shall be afforded to any persons desirous of objecting, to come in and state their objections to the Master of Titles.

2. The Master of Titles shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any such objections, subject to an appeal to the Court in the prescribed manner and on the prescribed conditions.

3. If the Master of Titles, upon the examination of any title, is of the opinion that the title is open to objection, but is nevertheless a title the holding under which will not be disturbed, he may approve of such title, or may require the applicant to apply to the Court, upon a statement signed by the Master, for its sanction to the registration.

Rev. Stat. c.
112, s. 1.

4. It shall not be necessary to produce any evidence which, by section 1 of The Act to amend the law of Vendor and Purchaser and to Simplify Titles, is dispensed with as between vendor and purchaser, nor to produce or account for the originals of any registered deeds, documents or instruments, unless where the Master of Titles otherwise directs.

5. The Master of Titles in investigating the title may receive and act upon any evidence which is now received by any of the Courts on a question of title; or any evidence which the practice of English conveyancers authorizes to be received on an investigation of a title out of Court; or any other evidence, whether the same is or is not receivable or sufficient in point of strict law, or according to the practice of English conveyancers, provided the same satisfies him of the truth of the facts intended to be made out thereby.

6. The said Master of Titles may refer to and act upon not only the evidence adduced before him in the proceeding in which such evidence is adduced, but also any evidence adduced before him in any other proceeding wherein the facts to which such evidence relates were or are in question. 48 V. c. 22, s. 21.

7. A person shall not be registered as owner of land until, if required by the Master of Titles, he has produced to him such documents of title as will in the opinion of the Master of Titles when stamped or otherwise marked, give notice to any purchaser or other person dealing with such land of the fact of the registration, and the Master of Titles shall stamp or otherwise mark the same accordingly, or until he has otherwise satisfied the Master of Titles that the fact of such registration cannot be concealed from a purchaser or other person dealing with the land. 48 V. c. 22, s. 74.

Deeds to be marked with notice of registration under this Act.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 72.

24—(1) All registered land shall, unless under the provisions of this Act the contrary is expressed on the register, be deemed to be subject to such of the following liabilities, rights, and interests as for the time being may be subsisting in reference thereto, and such liabilities, rights and interests shall not be deemed incumbrances within the meaning of this Act; (that is to say)—

Liability of registered land to easements and certain other rights.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 18.

1. Municipal taxes and water rates, for the current year;
2. Any municipal charges, rates or assessments theretofore imposed for local improvements, and payable during the current year or afterwards;
3. Any public highway, any right of way, water-course, and right of water, and other easements;
4. Any title or lien which, by possession or improvements or other means, the owner or person interested in any adjoining land has acquired to or in respect of the registered land; and the description of the land shall not, as against adjoining owners, be conclusive as to the boundaries or extent thereof;
5. Any lease or agreement for a lease, for a period yet to run, of not exceeding three years, where there is actual occupation under the same;
6. Any right of the wife or husband of the person registered as owner to dower or curtesy (as the case may be) in case of surviving such owner;
7. Any right of appropriation which may by Statute be vested in any person, or body corporate.

(2) If the applicant desires the certificate to declare the title to be free from the first six of the said particulars, or any of them, his application shall so state, and the investigation shall proceed accordingly. 48 V. c. 21, s. 22.

Determination of Incumbrances or Leases existing at First Registration.

Discharge of incumbrance.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 19.

25. Where upon the first registration of any land, notice of an incumbrance affecting such land has been entered on the register, the Master of Titles shall, on proof to his satisfaction of the discharge of such incumbrance, notify in the prescribed manner on the register, by cancelling the original entry or otherwise, the cessation of such incumbrance. 48 V. c. 22, s. 23.

Determination of lease.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 20.

26. The Master of Titles shall, on proof to his satisfaction of the determination of any lease of registered land existing at first registration, notify in the prescribed manner on the register, the determination of such lease. 48 V. c. 22, s. 24.

Adverse Possession as against Registered Owner.

No acquisition of title by adverse possession.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 21.

27.—(1) A title to any land adverse to or in derogation of the title of the registered owner shall not be acquired by any length of possession.

(2) But this section shall not prejudice, as against any person registered as first owner of land with a possessory title only, any adverse claim in respect of length of possession of any other person who was in possession of the land at the time when the registration of such first owner took place. 48 V. c. 22, s. 25.

PART IV.

TRANSFER AND MORTGAGE OF REGISTERED LAND.

Mortgage of Registered Land.

Creation of charges, and delivery of certificate of charge.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 22.

28.—(1) Every registered owner of land may, in the prescribed manner, charge the land with the payment at an appointed time of any principal sum of money either with or without interest, or as security for any other purpose, and with or without a power of sale to be exercised at or after a time appointed.

(2) The charge shall be completed by the Master of Titles entering on the register the person in whose favour the charge is made as the owner of the charge, and the particulars of the charge, and of the power of sale, if any.

(3) The Master of Titles shall also, if required, deliver to the owner of the charge a certificate of charge, in the prescribed form. 48 V. c. 22, s. 26.

29. Where a registered charge is created on land, there shall be implied on the part of the person being registered owner of the land at the time of the creation of the charge, his heirs, executors, and administrators (unless there be an entry on the register negating the implication), as follows:—

Implied covenant to pay charges.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 23.

1. A covenant with the registered owner for the time being of the charge to pay the principal sum charged, and interest, if any, thereon, at the appointed time and rate; and all taxes, rates, charges, rents, statute labour or other impositions theretofore or thereafter imposed or charged on the land and that in case of default all payments made by the owner of the charge may be added to the principal sum and bear interest.

2. A covenant, if the principal sum or any part thereof is unpaid at the appointed time, to pay interest half-yearly at the appointed rate on so much of the principal sum as for the time being remains unpaid. 48 V. c. 22, s. 27.

3. Where any charge, whether under seal or not, is expressed to be made in pursuance of The Act respecting Short Forms of Mortgages, or refers thereto, and contains any form of words contained in items numbered 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 12, 14, 15 or 16, of column one, of schedule B to the last mentioned Act, or to the like effect, whether expressed in the first or third person, such words shall have the same meaning and effect as the words under the corresponding number in column two in the said schedule; the directions in the said schedule shall also apply to the said charge. 50 V. c. 15, s. 11.

Provision where charge expressed to be made under Rev. Stat. c. 107.

30. Where a registered charge is created on any leasehold land, there shall be implied on the part of the person being registered owner of such leasehold at the time of the creation of the charge, his heirs, executors, and administrators, unless there be an entry on the register negating the implication, as follows:—

Implied covenant in case of leaseholds to pay rent, etc., and indemnify owner of charge

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 24.

1. A covenant with the registered owner for the time being of the charge, that the person being registered owner of such leasehold at the time of the creation of the charge, his executors, administrators and assigns, will pay, perform and observe the rent, covenants, and conditions by and in the registered lease reserved and contained, and on the part of the lessee to be paid, performed, and observed;

2. And will keep the owner of the charge, his heirs, executors, and administrators, indemnified against all actions, suits, expenses, and claims, on account of the non-payment of the said rent, or any part thereof, or the breach of the said covenants or conditions, or any of them. 48 V. c. 22, s. 28.

31. Subject to any entry to the contrary on the register, the registered owner of a registered charge may, for the purpose of obtaining satisfaction of any moneys due to him under the charge, at any time during the continuance of his charge,

Entry by owner of charge.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 25.

enter upon the land charged, or any part thereof, or into the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, subject nevertheless to the right of any persons appearing on the register to be prior incumbrancers, and to the liability attached to a mortgagee in possession. 48 V. c. 22, s. 29.

Foreclosure by owner of charge.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 26.

32. Subject to any entry to the contrary on the register the registered owner of a registered charge may enforce a foreclosure or sale of the land charged, in the same manner and under the same circumstances in and under which he might enforce the same if the land had been transferred to him by way of mortgage, subject to a proviso for redemption on payment of the money named at the appointed time. 48 V. c. 22, s. 30.

Remedy of owner of charge with a power of sale.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 27.

33. Subject to any entry to the contrary on the register, the registered owner of a registered charge with a power of sale may, at any time after the expiration of the appointed time, sell and transfer the land (that is, the interest therein which is the subject of the charge), or any part of such land, in the same manner as if he were the registered owner of the land, to the extent of the interest therein aforesaid. 48 V. c. 22, s. 31.

Priority of registered charges.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 28.

34. Subject to any entry to the contrary on the register, registered charges on the same land shall as between themselves rank according to the order in which they are entered on the register, and not according to the order in which they are created. 48 V. c. 22, s. 32.

Discharge to be notified on register.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 28.

35—(1) The Master of Titles shall, on the requisition of the registered owner of any land and on due proof of the satisfaction of a charge thereon, notify on the register in the prescribed manner, by cancelling the original entry or otherwise, the cessation of the charge; and thereupon the charge shall be deemed to have ceased. 48 V. c. 22, s. 33.

(2) The Master of Titles may in like manner notify the cessation of any other incumbrance. New.

Transfers after land is brought under this Act.

Transfer of land, and delivery of land certificate.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 29.

36.—(1) Every registered owner of land may, in the prescribed manner, transfer such land or any part thereof.

(2) The transfer shall be completed by the Master of Titles entering on the register the transferee as owner of the land transferred; and until such entry is made the transferor shall be deemed to remain owner of the land.

(3) Upon completion of the registration of the transferee, the Master of Titles shall, if required, deliver to him a land certificate in the prescribed form.

(4) Where part only of the land is transferred, the Master of Titles shall also, if required, deliver to the transferor a land certificate containing a description of the land retained by him. 48 V. c. 22, s. 34.

37. A transfer for valuable consideration of land registered with an absolute title shall, when registered, confer on the transferee an estate in fee simple in the land transferred, together with all rights, privileges, and appurtenances belonging or appurtenant thereto, subject as follows:—

Estate of transferee for valuable consideration of land with absolute title.

1. To the incumbrances, if any, entered on the register; and

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 30.

2. To such liabilities, rights, and interests, if any, as are by this Act declared for the purposes of the Act not to be incumbrances (unless the contrary is expressed on the register),

But free from all other estates and interests whatsoever, including estates and interests of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, which are within the legislative jurisdiction of this Province. 48 V. c. 22, s. 35.

38. A transfer for valuable consideration of land registered with a qualified title shall, when registered, have the same effect as a transfer for valuable consideration of the same land registered with an absolute title, save that such transfer shall not affect or prejudice the enforcement of any right or interest appearing by the register to be excepted. 48 V. c. 22, s. 36.

Estate of transferee for valuable consideration of land with qualified title.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 31.

39. A transfer for valuable consideration of land registered with a possessory title shall not affect or prejudice the enforcement of any right or interest adverse to or in derogation of the title of the first registered owner, and subsisting, or capable of arising, at the time of the registration of such owner; but, save as aforesaid, shall, when registered, have the same effect as a transfer for valuable consideration of the same land registered with an absolute title. 48 V. c. 22, s. 37.

Estate of transferee for valuable consideration of land with possessory title.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 32.

40. A transfer of land registered under this Act, made without valuable consideration shall, so far as the transferee is concerned, be subject to any unregistered estates, rights, interests, or equities subject to which the transferor held the same; but, save as aforesaid, shall, when registered, in all respects, and in particular as respects any registered dealings on the part of the transferee, have the same effect as a transfer of the same land for valuable consideration. 48 V. c. 22, s. 38.

Estate of voluntary transferee of land.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 33.

Transfers of leaseholds under this Act.

Transfer of leasehold land and delivery of office lease.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 34.

41.—(1) Every registered owner of any leasehold land may, in the prescribed manner, transfer the whole of his estate in such land or in any part thereof.

(2) The transfer shall be completed by the Master of Titles entering on the register the transferee as owner of the leasehold transferred, but until such entry is made the transferor shall be deemed to remain owner.

(3) Upon completion of the registration of the transferee, if the transfer includes the whole of the land comprised in the registered lease relating to such land, the transferee shall be entitled to the office copy of the registered lease.

(4) If a part only is transferred, the Master of Titles shall, if required according to any agreement that has been entered into between the transferor and transferee, deliver to the one the office copy of the registered lease and to the other a fresh office copy of such lease, each of such copies shewing, by endorsement or otherwise, the parcels of which the person to whom such copy is delivered is the registered owner. 48 V. c. 22, s. 39.

transferee for valuable consideration of leasehold land without a declaration of title of lessor.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 37.

43. A transfer for valuable consideration of leasehold land registered without a declaration of the title of the lessor, shall not affect the enforcement of any estate, right or interest affecting or in derogation of the title of the lessor to grant the lease under which the land is held; but, save as aforesaid, shall, when registered, have the same effect as a transfer for valuable consideration of the same land registered with a declaration that the lessor had an absolute title to grant the lease under which the land is held. 48 V. c. 22, s. 41.

44. A transfer for valuable consideration of leasehold land registered with a declaration that the lessor had a qualified title to grant the lease under which the land is held shall, when registered, have the same effect as a transfer for valuable consideration of the same land registered with a declaration that the lessor had an absolute title to grant the lease under which the land is held, save that such transfer shall not affect or prejudice the enforcement of any right or interest appearing by the register to be excepted from the effect of registration. 48 V. c. 22, s. 42.

Estate of transferee for valuable consideration of leasehold land with a declaration of qualified title of lessor.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 36.

45. A transfer of a registered leasehold interest in land made without valuable consideration shall, so far as the transferee is concerned, be subject to any unregistered estates, rights, interests, or equities subject to which the transferor held the same; but, save as aforesaid, shall, when registered, in all respects and in particular as respects any registered dealings on the part of the transferee, have the same effect as a transfer of the same land for valuable consideration. 48 V. c. 22, s. 43.

Estate of voluntary transferee of leasehold land.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 38.

46. On the transfer of any registered leasehold interest in land under this Act, unless there be an entry on the register negating such implication, there shall be implied as follows:—

Implied covenants on transfer of leasehold estates.

1. On the part of the transferor, a covenant with the transferee that,—notwithstanding anything by such transferor done, omitted, or knowingly suffered,—the rents, covenants, and conditions reserved and contained by and in the registered lease, and on the part of the lessee to be paid, performed, and observed, have been so paid, performed, and observed up to the date of the transfer; and

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 39.

2. On the part of the transferee, a covenant with the transferor, that he, the transferee, his executors, administrators, or assigns, will pay, perform, and observe the rents, covenants, and conditions by and in the registered lease reserved and contained, and on the part of the lessee to be paid, performed, and observed, and will keep the transferor, his heirs, executors, and administrators, indemnified against all actions, suits, expenses, and claims on account of the non-payment of the said rent or any part thereof, or the breach of the said covenants or conditions, or any of them. 48 V. c. 22, s. 44.

Transfer of Charges.

47.—(1) The registered owner of any charge may, in the prescribed manner, transfer such charge to another person as owner.

Transfer of charges on register.

(2) The transfer shall be completed by the Master of Titles entering on the register the transferee as owner of the charge transferred.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 40.

(3) The Master of Titles shall also, if required, deliver to the transferee a fresh certificate of charge.

(4) The transferor shall be deemed to remain owner of such charge until the name of the transferee is entered on the register in respect thereof. 48 V. c. 22, s. 45.

Time of Registration.

Priority.

48. The day, hour and minute, of the receipt of each instrument and copy of writ shall be noted thereon, and for the purpose of priority between mortgagees, transferees and others, the time of the receipt shall be deemed the time of registration. 50 V. c. 15, s. 12.

Transmission of Land and Charges on Owner's Death.

Transmission
on death of freehold land.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 41.

49. On the death of the sole registered owner, or of the survivor of several joint registered owners, of any freehold land, such person shall be registered as owner, in the place of the deceased owner or owners, as may on the application of any person interested in such land, be appointed by the Master of Titles, regard being had to the rights of the several persons interested in the land, and in particular to the selection of any such persons as may for the time being appear to the Master of Titles to be entitled, according to law, to be so appointed: subject to an appeal to the Court in the prescribed manner by any person aggrieved by any order of the Master under this section. 48 V. c. 22, s. 46.

Transmission
on death of leasehold land or of charge.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 42.

50. On the death of the sole registered owner, or of the survivor of several joint registered owners of any leasehold land or of any charge, the executor or administrator of such sole deceased owner, or of the survivor of such joint owners, shall be entitled to be registered as owner in his place. 48 V. c. 22, s. 47.

Nature of title of registered fiduciary
owner.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 46.

51. Any person registered in the place of a deceased owner shall hold the land or charge, in respect of which he is registered, upon the trusts and for the purposes to which the same is applicable by law, and subject to any unregistered estates, rights, interests, or equities subject to which the deceased owner held the same; but, save as aforesaid, he shall in all respects, and in particular as respects any registered dealings with such land or charge, be in the same position as if he had taken such land or charge under a transfer for a valuable consideration. 48 V. c. 22, s. 48.

Evidence of transmission of registered ownership.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 47.

52. The fact of any person having become entitled to any land or charge in consequence of the death of any registered owner, shall be proved in the prescribed manner. 48 V. c. 22, s. 49.

Sales under Execution.

53.—(1) The sheriff, forthwith after the delivery to him of any execution or other writ, and any renewal thereof, affecting registered land, shall deliver or transmit by registered letter to the Master of Titles a copy of the writ certified under his hand; and no land registered under this Act shall be bound by any such writ until such copy has been received by the Master; and from and after the receipt by him of the copy, no transfer by the execution debtor shall be effectual, except subject to the rights of the execution creditor under the writ. Notice of executions.

(2) The Master of Titles shall keep a book in the prescribed form, in which shall be entered a record of all writs received by him from the sheriff as aforesaid.

(3) No sale or transfer under any such writ shall be valid as against a person purchasing for valuable consideration before such entry is made, notwithstanding the purchaser may have had notice of the writ.

(4) Upon production to the Master of Titles of sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of any such writ, he shall cause an entry to be made in the said book to that effect; and on such entry such writ shall be deemed to be satisfied.

(5) The sheriff shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for each writ transmitted by him to the Master of Titles in manner aforesaid. 48 V. c. 22, s. 51.

(6) Every writ and renewal of a writ shall be presumed to have been spent, and the delivery or transmission of a copy thereof shall cease to have effect, at the expiration of two years from the date of the writ or renewal as appearing in the copy transmitted. New. Expiry of writ.

(7) Where an execution or other writ is issued against the registered owner under a different name from that under which he or she is registered, the execution shall have no effect under this Act, unless the person who sues out the writ serves a notice on the Master of Titles, stating the name under which the execution debtor is registered, and otherwise in the form or to the effect prescribed, or unless a like notice is written upon the copy of the writ. Notice to Master where writ issues against owner under a different name from that on the register.

(8) Where a transferor or transferee of land, or maker or owner of a charge, claims that a writ apparently affecting land does not affect the land or charge, he shall produce such evidence thereof as the Master may consider necessary, and the Master may require all parties interested to be notified of the application to register, without reference to the writ, the instrument under which the claim is made, and the Master may either himself decide the question or may direct an issue or case to be tried and may make such order as to costs as he deems just. 50 V. c. 15, s. 13. Provision in case it is claimed that land is not affected by a writ apparently affecting same.

Sale under execution.

54. Where any land which has been registered under this Act shall be sold by the sheriff under execution, the Master of Titles shall, upon the production to him of the transfer of the same by the sheriff in the prescribed form, with proof of the due execution thereof, cause a notice to be mailed to the proper post-office address of the person whose interest in the land shall have been sold; and after the expiration of two weeks from the mailing of the notice, and, on proof to his satisfaction of the payment of all municipal taxes, except the taxes for the current year, and of all charges, rates, or assessments imposed for local improvements, and due or payable up to the end of the preceding year, and if no other person has become entitled meanwhile for want of entry of the said writ or otherwise, the Master of Titles shall register the purchaser as the owner of the land, and shall, if required, issue to him a certificate in the prescribed form. 48 V. c. 22, s. 52.

Mechanics' Liens.

Liens under
Rev. Stat. c.
126, where land registered under this Act.

55.—(1) In the case of land registered under this Act, if a person entitled to a lien on the land, under The Mechanics' Lien Act, shall lodge with the Master a claim of lien, supported by an affidavit to the same effect, as is required for registration under the said last mentioned Act, such claim shall have the same effect as registration has under the said Mechanics' Lien Act, and be enforced within the same time, and discharged in like manner. 49 V. c. 16, s. 46.

(2) The claim of lien shall contain a reference to the number of the parcel of the land upon which the claim is made, and to the register in which such land is entered in the office of Land Titles.

(3) Sections 20 to 27, both inclusive, of The Mechanics' Lien Act, shall apply to liens which are or may be registered under this Act. New.

Sales for Taxes.

Sale for taxes.

56. Where any land which has been registered under this Act shall be sold for taxes, the purchaser may at any time after the sale lodge a caution against the transfer of the land; and upon the completion of the time allowed by law for redemption, and upon the production of the transfer of the land in the prescribed form, with proof of the due execution thereof by the proper officer, the Master of Titles shall cause a notice to be mailed to the proper post-office address of the several persons who appear upon the register to be interested in the land; and after the expiration of three months from the mailing of the notice, shall register the purchaser at the sale as owner of the land, with an absolute title; and shall, if required, issue to the purchaser a certificate of title in the prescribed form, unless the registration shall in the meantime be stayed by the order of the Court; and in that case the registration shall not be made, nor shall the certificate be issued, except in accordance with the order and direction of the Court. 48 V. c. 22, s. 53.

PART V.

OTHER DEALINGS WITH REGISTERED LAND.

57.—(1) The registered owner alone shall be entitled to transfer or charge registered land by a registered disposition. Effect of unregistered dispositions. Imp. 38 & 39, V. c. 87, s. 49.

(2) But, subject to the maintenance of the estate and right of such owner, any person, whether the registered owner or not of any registered land, having a sufficient estate or interest in the land, may create estates, rights, interests and equities in the same manner as he might do if the land were not registered.

(3) And any person entitled to or interested in any unregistered estates, rights, interests, or equities in registered land may protect the same from being impaired by any act of the registered owner, by entering on the register such notices, cautions, inhibitions, or other restrictions as are in this Act in that behalf mentioned.

(4) The registered owner alone shall be entitled to transfer a registered charge by a registered disposition; but, subject to the maintenance of the right of such owner, unregistered interests in a registered charge may be created in the same manner and with the same incidents, so far as the difference of the subject-matter admits, in and with which unregistered estates and interests may be created in registered land. 48 V. c. 22, s. 54.

Notices of Leases.

58.—(1) Any lessee or other person entitled to or interested in a lease or agreement for a lease of registered land made subsequently to the last entry of ownership on the register, where the term granted is for a life or lives, or is determinable on a life or lives, or exceeds three years, or where the occupation is not in accordance with such lease or agreement may apply to the Master of Titles to register notice of such lease or agreement in the prescribed manner. Lessee may apply for registration of notice of lease. Imp. 38 & 39, V. c. 87, s. 50.

(2) When so registered every registered owner of the land and every person deriving title through him, excepting owners of incumbrances registered prior to the registration of such notice, shall be deemed to be affected with notice of the lease or agreement as being an incumbrance on the land in respect of which the notice is entered. 48 V. c. 22, s. 55; 49 V. c. 16, s. 45 (2).

(3) Where notice of such lease or agreement has been registered the Master of Titles shall, on proof, to his satisfaction of the determination of the lease or agreement, notify in the prescribed manner the determination on the register. New.

Manner of registering notices of leases.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 51.

59.—(1) In order to register notice of a lease or agreement for a lease, if the registered owner of the land does not concur in such registry, the applicant shall apply to the Master of Titles on notice to the registered owner for leave to register the notice of such lease or agreement, and shall deliver to the Master of Titles, the original lease or agreement or a copy thereof; and in case the application is granted the Master shall make a note in the register identifying the lease or agreement or copy so deposited, and the lease or agreement or copy so deposited shall be deemed to be the instrument of which notice is given.

(2) If the registered owner concurs in such registry, notice may be entered in such manner as may be agreed upon. 48 V. c. 22, s. 56.

Notice of Estates in Dower or by the Curtesy.

Registration of notices of estates in dower or by the curtesy.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 52.

60. Any person entitled to an estate in dower or by the curtesy in any registered land, may apply in the prescribed manner to the Master of Titles to register notice of such estate; and the Master of Titles, if satisfied of the title of such person to such estate, shall register notice of the same accordingly in the prescribed form; and when so registered, such estate shall be an incumbrance appearing on the register, and shall be dealt with accordingly. 48 V. c. 22, s. 57.

Caution against Registered Dealings.

Caution against registered dealings, how to be lodged.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 53.

61.—(1) Any person interested in any way in any land or charge registered in the name of any other person, may lodge a caution with the Master of Titles to the effect that no dealings with such land or charge be had on the part of the registered owner until notice has been served upon the cautioner.

(2) The caution shall be supported by an affidavit or declaration made by the cautioner or his agent or solicitor in the prescribed form, and containing the prescribed particulars.

(3) Provided, that a person interested under a lease, or agreement for a lease, of which notice has been entered on the register, or a person entitled to an estate in dower, or estate by the curtesy, of which notice has been entered on the register, shall not be entitled to a caution in respect of such lease or estate in dower or by the curtesy. 48 V. c. 22, s. 58.

62.—(1) After any such caution has been lodged, the Master of Titles shall not, without the consent of the cautioner, register any dealing with the land or charge until he has served notice on the cautioner, warning him that his caution will cease to have any effect after expiration of the prescribed number of days next ensuing the date at which the notice is served.

Cautioner entitled to notice of proposed registered dealings.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 54.

(2) After the expiration of such time as aforesaid, the caution shall cease unless an order to the contrary is made by the Master.

(3) Upon the caution so ceasing, the land or charge shall be dealt with in the same manner as if no caution had been lodged. 48 V. c. 22, s. 59.

63. If before the expiration of the said period the cautioner, or some other person on his behalf, appears before the Master of Titles, and within such period, or such additional period as the Master may allow, gives sufficient security to indemnify every party against any damage that may be sustained by reason of any dealing with the land or charge being delayed, the Master of Titles may thereupon, if he thinks fit so to do, delay registering any dealing with the land or charge for such further period as he thinks just, or may instead of taking the security aforesaid register such dealing, subject to the caution, on any condition which he thinks fit to impose, as to security or otherwise. 48 V. c. 22, s. 60.

Registered dealings delayed on security being given.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 55.

Inhibition against Registered Dealings without Order of Court.

64.—(1) The Court, or the Master of Titles, upon the application of any person interested, made in the prescribed manner in relation to any registered land or charge, may, after directing such inquiries (if any) to be made and notices to be given, and hearing such persons as the Court or Master of Titles thinks expedient, issue an order or make an entry inhibiting for a time, or until the occurrence of an event to be named in such order or entry, or generally until further order or entry, any dealing with registered land or with a registered charge.

Power of court or master to inhibit registered dealings.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 57.

(2) The Court or the Master of Titles may make, or refuse to make, any such order or entry, and impose any terms or conditions the Court or Master of Titles may think fit, and may discharge the order or cancel the entry where granted, with or without costs, and generally act in the premises in such manner as the justice of the case requires. 48 V. c. 22, s. 62 (1, 2).

Power of Registered Owner to impose Restrictions.

65. Where the registered owner of any land is desirous for his own sake, or at the request of some person beneficially interested in such land, to place restrictions on transferring or charging the land, such owner may apply to the Master of Power to place restrictions on register.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 58.

Titles to make an entry in the register that no transfer shall be made of or charge created on the land unless the following things, or such of them as the owner may determine, are done; that is to say—

Unless notice of any application for a transfer or for the creation of a charge is transmitted by registered letter to such address as he may specify to the Master of Titles;

Unless the consent of some person or persons, to be named by the owner, is given to the transfer or the creation of a charge;

Unless some such other matter or thing is done as may be required by the applicant and approved by the Master of Titles. 48 V. c. 22, s. 63.

Master to enter restrictions in register.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 59.

66.—(1) The Master of Titles shall thereupon, if satisfied of the right of the applicant to give such directions, make a note of such directions on the register, and no transfer shall be made or charge created except in conformity with such directions.

(2) But it shall not be the duty of the Master of Titles to enter any of the above directions, except upon such terms as to payment of the fees and otherwise as may be prescribed, or to enter any restriction that the Master of Titles may deem unreasonable, or calculated to cause inconvenience.

(3) And any such directions may at any time be withdrawn or modified at the instance of all the persons for the time being appearing by the registry to be interested in such directions, and shall also be subject to be set aside by the order of the Court. 48 V. c. 22, s. 64.

PART VI.

PROVISIONS SUPPLEMENTAL TO FOREGOING PARTS OF ACT.

Notice of Registered Instruments.

Notice by registration.

67. No person other than the parties thereto shall be held to have any notice of the contents of any instrument, beyond the particulars contained in the register, or necessarily to be inferred therefrom. 48 V. c. 22, s. 50.

Caution against entry of Land on Register.

Caution against registration of land.

Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 60.

68. A person having or claiming such an interest in any land which is not already registered as entitles him to object to any disposition thereof being made without his consent, may lodge a caution with the Master of Titles to the effect that the cautioner is entitled to notice in the prescribed form, and to be served in the prescribed manner, of any application that may be made for the registration of such land. 48 V. c. 22 s. 65.

69. The Master of Titles shall not register any lis pendens affecting lands under this Act; but any party to an action, or his solicitor, or any person claiming to be interested in the action, may enter a caution. 48 V. c. 22, s. 66.

Lis pendens not to be registered.

70. Every caution shall be supported by an affidavit or declaration in the prescribed form, stating the nature of the interest of the cautioner, the land to be affected by the caution, and such other matters as may be prescribed. 48 V. c. 22, s. 67.

Caution to be supported by affidavit.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 61.

71. After a caution has been lodged in respect of any land not already registered, and while the same is in force, registration shall not be made of such land until notice has been served on the cautioner to appear and oppose, if he thinks fit, such registration, and until the prescribed time has elapsed since the date of the service of such notice, or the cautioner has appeared, which may first happen. 48 V. c. 22, s. 68.

V. c. 87, s. 62.

Caution Wrongfully Lodged.

72. If any person lodges a caution with the Master of Titles without reasonable cause, he shall be liable to make, to any person who may sustain damage by the lodging of such caution, such compensation as may be just; and such compensation shall be deemed to be a debt due to the person who has sustained damage from the person who has lodged the caution. 48 V. c. 22, ss. 61, 69.

Compensation for improper lodging of caution.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 63.

73. A caution lodged in pursuance of this Act shall not prejudice the claim or title of any person, and shall have no effect whatever except as in this Act mentioned. 48 V. c. 22, s. 70.

Saving as to effect of caution.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 64.

Costs.

74. The Master of Titles may order costs, either as between party and party, or as between solicitor and client to be paid by or to any person party to any proceeding under this Act, and may give directions as to the fund out of which any costs shall be paid, regard being had to the following provisions, namely:

Payment of costs.

V. c. 87, s. 73.

That any applicant under this Act is liable prima facie to pay all costs, charges, and expenses incurred by or in consequence of his application, except in a case where parties object whose rights are sufficiently secured without their appearance, or where any costs, charges, or expenses are incurred unnecessarily or improperly, and subject to this proviso, that any party aggrieved by any order of the Master of Titles under this section may appeal in the prescribed manner to the Court, which may, with or without modification, annul or confirm the order of the Master. 48 V. c. 22, s. 75 (1).

Enforcement of order.

75. If any person disobeys any order of the Master of Titles made in pursuance of the preceding section, the Master may certify such disobedience to the Court, and thereupon such person, subject to such right of appeal as aforesaid, may be punished by the Court, and execution issued to enforce the order, in the same manner in all respects as if the order made by the Master were the order of the Court. 48 V. c. 22, s. 75 (2).

Doubtful Questions arising on Title.

Master may

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 74.

76. Whenever upon the examination of the title of any land the Master of Titles entertains a doubt as to any matter of law or fact arising upon the title, he may, upon the application of any person interested in such land, refer a case for the opinion of the High Court, with power for the Court to direct an issue to be tried before a jury or otherwise, for the purpose of determining any fact. The Master may also name the parties to such case, and the manner in which the proceedings in relation thereto are to be brought before the Court. 48 V. c. 22, s. 76.

Opinion of Court, how far conclusive.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 75.

77. The opinion of any Court to whom any case is referred by the Master of Titles shall be conclusive on all the parties to such case, unless the Court before whom the case is heard permits an appeal to be had. 48 V. c. 22, s. 77.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 77.

79. The Court shall hear the allegations of all parties appearing before it. It may disapprove altogether, or may approve, either with or without modification, of the directions of the Master of Titles in respect to any case referred as to the title of land. The Court may also, if necessary, appoint a guardian or other person to appear on behalf of any infants, idiots, lunatics, persons of unsound mind, persons absent from Canada, or unborn persons; and if the Court is satisfied that the interests of the persons labouring under disability, absent, or unborn, will be sufficiently represented in any case, it shall make an order declaring that all persons, with the exceptions (if any) named in the order, are to be conclusively bound; and thereupon all persons, with such exceptions (if any) as aforesaid, shall be conclusively bound by any decision of the Court having cognizance of the case in which such persons are concerned. 48 V. c. 22, s. 79.

As to Land Certificates, Office Copies of Leases, and Certificates of Charge.

80. If any land certificate, or office copy of a registered lease, or certificate of charge is lost, mislaid, or destroyed, the Master of Titles may, upon being satisfied of the fact of such loss, mislaying, or destruction, grant a new land certificate, or office copy, or certificate of charge, in the place of the former one. 48 V. c. 22, s. 80.

Loss of land certificate, or certificate of charge, or office copy of lease.

freehold or leasehold land or of any charge as a trustee, whether the beneficiary or object of the trust is mentioned or not, shall not be deemed a notice of a trust within the meaning of this provision, nor shall such description impose upon any person dealing with such owner, the duty of making any enquiry as to the power of the owner in respect of the land or charge or the money secured by the charge, or otherwise ; but (subject to the registration of any caution or inhibition) such owner may deal with the land or charge as if such description had not been inserted ;

2. No person shall be registered as owner of any undivided share in any land or charge ; and a number of persons exceeding the prescribed number shall not be registered as owners of the same land or charge ; and if the number of persons shewing title exceeds the prescribed number, such of them not exceeding the prescribed number as may be agreed upon, or at the Master of Titles in case of difference decides, shall be registered as owners ;

3. Upon the occasion of the registry of two or more persons as owners of the same land or of the same charge, an entry may, with their consent, be made on the register, to the effect that when the number of such owners is reduced below a certain specified number, no registered disposition of such land or charge shall be made, except under the order of the Court ;

4. In such a case the words "no survivorship" in the entry shall be construed to mean that in case any one of the owners should die, no registered disposition of the land or charge shall be made except under order of the Court ;

5. Registered land shall be described in such manner as the Master of Titles thinks best calculated to secure accuracy, but such description shall not be conclusive as to the boundaries or extent of the registered land ;

6. No alteration shall be made in the registered description of land, except under the order of the Court, or under section 100 of this Act, or by way of explanation or under Rules of Court ; but this provision shall not be construed to extend to registered dealings with registered land in separate parcels, although such land was originally registered as one parcel. 45 V. c. 22, s. 85.

Annexation of conditions to registered
land.

V. c. 87, s. 84.

86. Where any land is about to be registered, or any registered land is about to be transferred to a purchaser for valuable consideration, there may be registered as annexed thereto, subject to general rules and in the prescribed manner, a condition or covenant that such land or any specified portion thereof is not to be built on, or is to be or not to be used in a particular manner, or any other condition or covenant running with or capable of being legally annexed to land ;

The first owner and every transferee, and every other person deriving title from him, shall be deemed to be affected with notice of such condition or covenant ;

Nevertheless, any such condition or covenant may be modified or discharged by order of the Court, on proof to the satisfaction of the Court that the modification will be beneficial to the persons principally interested in the enforcement of the condition or covenant. 48 V. c. 22, s. 86.

87. All the provisions of The Act respecting Trustees and Executors and the Administration of Estates, and of any Act amending the same, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act shall apply to land and charges registered under this Act, but this enactment shall not prejudice the applicability to such land and charges of any provisions of such Acts relating to land or choses in action. 48 V. c. 22, s. 87.

Registered land to be within Rev. Stat. c. 110.

Execution of instruments by married women.

Persons Under Disability.

90.—(1) In case any person who, if not under disability might have made any application, given any consent, or done any act, or been party to any proceeding under this Act, is a minor, an idiot, or a lunatic, the guardian of the minor, or committee of the estate of the idiot or lunatic, may make such application, give such consent, do such act, and be party to such proceeding as such person might, if free from disability, have made, given, done or been party to, and shall otherwise represent such person for the purposes of this Act.

Where any party is a minor, lunatic, etc.
Imp. 38 & 39 V. c. 87, s. 88.

(2) If the minor has no guardian, or the idiot or lunatic no committee of his estate, or if persons yet unborn are interested, the official guardian ad litem shall act with like power, or the Master of Titles may appoint a person with like power to act for the minor, idiot, lunatic, or person yet unborn. 48 V. c. 22, s. 89 (1, 2).

94. A purchaser for valuable consideration shall not be affected by the omission to send any notice by this Act directed to be given, or by the non-receipt thereof. 48 V. c. 22, s. 93.

Specific Performance.

Power of court in action for specific performance.

Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 93.

95. Where an action is instituted for the specific performance of a contract relating to registered land, or a registered charge, the Court having cognizance of the action may by summons, or by such other mode as it deems expedient, cause all or any parties who have registered estates or rights in the land or charge, or have entered up notices, cautions or inhibitions against the same, to appear in the action, and shew cause why the contract should not be specifically performed; and the Court may direct that any order made by the Court in the action shall be binding on such parties or any of them. 48 V. c. 22, s. 94.

96. All costs incurred by any parties so appearing in an action to enforce against a vendor specific performance of his contract to sell registered land or a registered charge, shall be taxed as between solicitor and client, and, unless the Court otherwise orders, be paid by the vendor. 48 V. c. 22, s. 95.

100.—(1) The Master may sua sponte and without affidavit enter a caution to prevent the dealing with any registered land in any case in which it appears to him that an error has been made in any entry by mis-description of such land, or otherwise.

Entry of caution by Master in case of error.

(2) Subject to rules under this Act the Master may, before the receipt of any conflicting instrument, or after notifying all persons interested, upon such evidence as appears to him sufficient, correct errors and supply omissions in certificates of title, or in the register, or in any entry therein, and may call in the outstanding certificate of title for that purpose. (New.)

Correction of errors.

As to Fraud.

101. Subject to the provisions in this Act contained with respect to registered dispositions for valuable consideration, any disposition of land or of a charge on land which if unregistered would be fraudulent and void, shall, notwithstanding registration, be fraudulent and void in like manner. 48 V. c. 22, s. 99.

106. Nothing in this Act contained shall entitle any person to refuse to answer any question or interrogatory in any civil proceeding; but no answer to any such question, or interrogatory shall be admissible in evidence against such person in any criminal proceeding in respect of which this Province has legislative authority. 48 V. c. 22, s. 104.

ASSURANCE FUND.

Assurance
fund.

107.—(1) An Assurance Fund shall be formed for the indemnity of any persons who may happen to be deprived of land or some estate or interest therein by reason of the land being brought under the provisions of this Act, or by the registration of some other person as owner of the land or of such estate or interest therein, or by reason of any misdescription, omission or other error in a certificate of title or in any entry in the register.

(2) In order to constitute such fund, there shall be paid on the first certificate of title granted under this Act in respect of any land, in addition to all other fees, a sum equal to one-fourth of one per cent. of the value of the land.

(3) (Subject to any rules to be made under the authority of this Act), money payable under the preceding subsection shall be paid into Court, with the privity of the Accountant of the Supreme Court, and shall be placed to the credit of an account to be intituled "Assurance Fund under the Land Titles Act," and shall be invested from time to time under the direction of the Court, and the interest or income derived therefrom shall be credited to the same account. 48 V. c. 22, s. 105 (1-3).

(4) Where the amount to be paid into the assurance fund is not more than $10, no fee shall be payable for a direction to the bank to receive the same, and where such amount is payable in respect of a proceeding before a Local Master of Titles, the person desiring to pay the same may, at his own risk, transmit the amount by a money order, payable to "The Accountant of the Supreme Court at Toronto," in a registered letter addressed to the said Accountant, together with a requisition in the prescribed form. 50 V. c. 15, s. 17.

(5) (Subject as aforesaid) the value of the land shall be ascertained for the purpose aforesaid by the oath or affirmation of the applicant, unless the Master of Titles dispenses therewith.

(6) (Subject as aforesaid) in case the oath or affirmation of the applicant is dispensed with, or in case the Master of Titles is not satisfied as to the correctness of the value stated by the oath or affirmation of the applicant or any other person, he may require the affidavit or certificate in that behalf of a sworn valuator: and such affidavit or certificate shall be conclusive. 48 V. c. 22, s. 105 (4, 5).

(7) If the Master thinks fit to take from any applicant for a certificate of ownership security to indemnify the Assurance Fund against loss, he may do so, by taking a bond or covenant to Her Majesty, either with or without sureties or other security as he considers expedient. New.

108.—(1) Any person wrongfully deprived of land, or of some estate or interest therein, by reason of the land being brought under this Act, or by reason of some other person being registered as owner, or by reason of any misdescription or other

error in any certificate of title, or in any entry in the register, shall be entitled to recover what is just, by way of compensation or damages, from the person on whose application the erroneous registration was made, or who acquired the title through the fraud or error.

(2) But this is not to be construed to render liable any purchaser or mortgagee bona fide for valuable consideration by reason of the vendor or mortgagor having been registered as owner through fraud or error, or having derived from or through a person registered as owner through fraud or error, whether the fraud or error consists in a wrong description of the property or otherwise howsoever.

(3) In case the person so wrongfully deprived is unable by such means or otherwise to recover just compensation for his loss, he shall be entitled to have the same paid out of the Assurance Fund, so far as the fund may be sufficient for that purpose having reference to other charges thereon, provided that the application is made within six years from the time of having been so deprived; or, in the case of a person under the disability of infancy, lunacy or unsound mind, within six years from the date at which the disability ceased.

(4) The liability of the fund for compensation and the amount of compensation shall (subject to appeal as in other cases) be determined by the Master of Titles, unless the Court or Master of Titles on application directs some other way of ascertaining and determining the same. The costs of the proceedings shall be in the discretion of the Master of Titles or the Court, as the case may be.

(5) Where any sum has been paid out of the Assurance Fund on account of a person on whose application the erroneous registration was made, or who acquired the title through the fraud or error, the same may afterwards for the benefit of the fund be recovered from such person or his estate, by action in the name of the Master of Titles; and the Master's certificate of the payment out of the Assurance Fund shall be sufficient proof of the debt. 48 V. c. 22, s. 106.

WITHDRAWING LAND FROM THE REGISTRY.

Application to withdraw registered
land.

109.—(1) Where after land has been registered under this Act, special circumstances appear, or subsequently arise, which make it inexpedient that the land should continue under the Act, the owner may apply in the prescribed manner to the Master of Titles for the withdrawal of the land from the said Act.

Certificate by Master.

(2) In case the owner proves before the Master of Titles that all persons interested in the land proposed to be withdrawn, consent to its withdrawal, and in case he satisfies the Master that special circumstances exist which render the withdrawal of such land or a portion thereof expedient, the Master may issue his certificate describing the land or such portion thereof as the consent covers and as the Master deems proper, in such a manner that the said certificate can be properly registered in the registry office for the registry division in which the land is situate, and upon the certificate being issued the said Act shall cease to apply to the land described therein, and the land shall thereafter be subject to the ordinary laws relating to real estate and to the registry laws.

(3) This section shall also apply to the Local Masters of Titles; the certificate in such case shall require to be approved and countersigned by the Inspector. Application of section.

(4) Upon the production of the certificate to the registrar of lands and payment of a fee of $1, the same shall be duly registered. Registration of certificate. 50 V. c. 15, s. 9.

V. c. 87, s. 108. 48 V. c. 22, s. 108.

112. The Master of Titles, or any officer of the office of Land Titles authorized by him in writing, or any person authorized for a like purpose under The Registry Act, may administer an oath or affirmation for any of the purposes of this Act. Administration of oaths.
Rev. Stat. c. 114. 48 V. c. 22, s. 109 (1).

113—(1) The Master of Titles may, by summons under the seal of the office, require the attendance of all such persons as he may think fit in relation to the registration of any title and may in the summons require any person to produce for inspection any documents, deeds, instruments or evidences of title to the production of which the applicant or any trustee for him is entitled. Power of Master to summon witnesses.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 109.

(2) He may also, by a like summons, require any person having the custody of any map, survey, or book made or kept in pursuance of any Act of Parliament to produce such map, survey, or book for his inspection.

(3) He may examine upon oath any person appearing before him and administer an oath accordingly; and he may allow to every person summoned by him the reasonable charges of his attendance.

(4) Any charges allowed by the Master of Titles in pursuance of this section shall be deemed to be charges incurred in or about proceedings for registration of land, and may be dealt with accordingly.

(5) If any person disobeys any order of the Master of Titles made in pursuance of this section, the Master may certify such disobedience to the Court; and thereupon such person, subject to appeal, may be punished by the Court in the same manner in all respects as if the order made by the Master of Titles were the order of the Court. 48 V. c. 22, ss. 73, 109.

Non-attendance or refusal to answer questions.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 110.

114.—(1) If any person, after the delivery to him of the summons as aforesaid, or of a copy thereof, wilfully neglects or refuses to attend in pursuance of the summons, or to produce such maps, deeds, instruments, evidences of title, surveys, books, or other documents as he may be required to produce under this Act, or to answer upon oath or otherwise such questions as may be lawfully put to him by the Master of Titles under the powers of this Act, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding $50, to be recovered on summary conviction.

(2) But no person shall be required to attend in obedience to any summons, or to produce such documents as aforesaid, unless the reasonable charges of his attendance and of the production of the documents be paid or tendered to him. 48 V. c. 22, s. 110.

Certificates as to taxes.

115. The treasurer of the proper municipality shall furnish to any person requiring the same in respect of lands registered or with reference to which an application for registration is pending, a certificate of payment of taxes, charges, rates and assessments, in the prescribed form, or as nearly corresponding thereto as the information given by his books of office will allow, and the certificate shall be binding upon the municipality. (New.)

Appointment of deputies.

116. In case the Lieutenant-Governor sees occasion in consequence of the illness or absence of the Master of Titles, or for any other cause, he may appoint a person to act as the Deputy pro tem. of the Master and such Deputy, while so acting, shall have all the powers of the Master. 48 V. c. 22, s. 111.

Oath of office.

117. The Master of Titles, before he enters upon the execution of his office, shall take, before some Judge of the Supreme Court of this Province, the oath of office in the form following:—

I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully, and to the best of my ability, perform the office and duties of Master of Titles.

48 V. c. 22, s. 112.

118. Before any Master of Titles is sworn into office, he, and two or more sufficient sureties, shall enter into a joint and several bond in writing under their hands and seals to Her Majesty, in a penal sum to be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, which bond shall be subject in all respects to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and shall be conditioned for the true and faithful performance by the Master of his duty in respect to all things directed to be done by or required of him by this Act or any law in that behalf. 48 V. c. 22, s. 113. Bond of Master.

119. The sureties in the bond shall justify under oath, and the execution by the Master of Titles and his sureties shall be verified under oath by a subscribing witness; and the bond with the affidavits of justification appended, shall be forthwith transmitted to the Provincial Secretary, and shall be filed in his office after being approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 48 V. c. 22, s. 114. Sureties to justify.
Custody of bonds.

120. The Master of Titles shall, whenever required by the Provincial Secretary, execute a new bond in the form and to the effect provided in the next preceding two sections, or furnish such other security as may be deemed expedient. 48 V. c. 22, s. 115. New bonds when required.

121. No Master of Titles, officer, or clerk appointed under this Act, shall, directly or indirectly, act as the agent of any corporation, society, company, person or persons investing money and taking securities on real estate; nor shall such Master of Titles, officer or clerk advise for any fee or reward, or otherwise, upon titles to land, or practise as a conveyancer; nor shall he carry on or transact within the office any business or occupation whatever other than his duties as such Master of Titles, officer or clerk, or as holder of some other office under the Provincial Government. 48 V. c. 22, s. 116. Master, etc., not to act as agent, etc.

Right to Inspect Registry.

122. Subject to such regulations and exceptions and to the payment of such sums as may be fixed by general rules, any person registered as owner of any land or charge, and any person authorized by any such owner, or by an order of the Court, or by general rule, may inspect and make copies of and extracts from any document in the custody of the Master of Titles relating to such land or charge. No other person save as aforesaid shall be entitled to do so. 48 V. c. 22, s. 118. Right to inspect documents.

V. c. 87, s. 119.

124. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or the Judges of the Supreme Court under sections 105 and 108 of The Judicature Act, (which are to be read as applying to this Act,) may, with the advice and assistance of the Master of Titles, from time to time make, and after making may rescind, annul, or add to, general rules in respect of all or any of the following matters; that is to say—

1. The mode in which the register is to be made and kept;
2. The forms to be observed, the precautions to be taken, the instruments to be used, the notices to be given, and the evidence to be adduced in all the proceedings before the Master of Titles or in connection with the registration, and in particular with respect to the reference to counsel of any title to land proposed to be registered with an absolute title;
3. The custody of any instruments, from time to time coming into the hands of the Master of Titles, with power to direct the destruction of any such instruments where they have become altogether superseded by entries in the register or have ceased to have any effect;
4. The duties which are to be performed by the Master of Titles and other officers employed; and what acts of the Master of Titles may be done by other officers;
5. The costs to be charged by solicitors in or incidental to or consequential on the registration of land, or any other matter required to be done for the purpose of carrying this Act into execution, with power to require such costs to be payable by commission, percentage, or otherwise, and to bear a certain proportion to the value of the land registered, or to be determined on such other principle as may be thought expedient;
6. The taxation of such costs and the persons by whom such costs are to be paid;
7. Any matter by this Act directed or authorized to be prescribed;
8. Any other matter or thing, whether similar or not to those above mentioned, in respect of which it may be expedient to make rules for the purpose of carrying this Act into execution. 48 V. c. 22, s. 120.

Effect of rules.

125. Any rules made in pursuance of the preceding section shall be deemed to be within the powers conferred by this Act, and shall be of the same force as if enacted in this Act, and shall be judicially noticed. 48 V. c. 22, s. 121.

126. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council or the Judges aforesaid may from time to time make, and after making revoke, alter or add to rules with respect to the amount of fees payable under this Act, and may have regard to the following matters :

Rules respecting fees.
Imp. 38 & 39
V. c. 87, s. 112.

1. In the case of the registration of land or of any transfer of land on the occasion of a sale,—to the value of the land, as determined by the amount of purchase money ;

2. In the case of the registration of land, or of any transfer of land on the occasion of a sale,—to the value of the land, to be ascertained in such manner as may be prescribed ;

3. In the case of registration of a charge or of any transfer of a charge,—to the amount of such charge. 48 V. c. 22, s. 122 ; 50 V. c. 15, s. 15.

127. (1) Subject to rules, the fees payable in respect of such business in the office of the Master of Titles as is analogous to the business under The Registry Act, shall be the same as the fees payable to the registrar under the said Act ; and all other fees and costs, whether in respect of business done by the Master of Titles or by other officers, or by solicitors under this Act, shall be the same as nearly as may be as are payable in case of like proceedings in the High Court. 48 V. c. 22, s. 123 (1).

Fees.

Reg. s. 114.

(2) The stamps for, all fees payable on a land certificate or a certificate of charge shall be affixed to the registered transfer or charge and not to the certificate, and all stamps payable in respect of registrations shall be affixed to the instruments registered and not to the entry in the register. 50 V. c. 15, s. 16.

Stamps to be affixed to registered transfer or charge.

128. The Judges of the High Court may from time to time assign the duties vested in the Court in relation to matters under this Act to any particular Judge or Judges of that Court. 48 V. c. 22, s. 124.

EXTENSION OF ACT TO OTHER LOCALITIES AND EXPENSES.

Adoption of Act by municipality.

132.—(1) The municipal council of a county, or of a city or town separated from the county for municipal purposes, may pass a by-law declaring it expedient that the provisions of this Act be extended to the said county, city or town.

(2) The municipal corporations of the county of York and city of Toronto and of any county, city or town which passes a by-law to the effect aforesaid, shall provide proper fire-proof and other accommodation for an office of Land Titles: and, so far as the expenses of the office are not covered by the fees collected thereat, the corporation shall pay the same, including the salary of the Master of Titles of the locality, and all necessary and proper books, stationery, furniture, and lighting, cleaning and heating of the office, and attendance and other matters and things incident to the proper conduct of the business of the office.

Rev. Stat. c.

(3) Where this Act is extended to a county which includes a city or town separated from the county for municipal purposes, the city or town and county shall share the expenses to be borne by the locality under this Act, in such proportions as may be decided by arbitration under The Municipal Act, in case the councils interested do not agree in respect thereto. 48 V. c. 22, s. 117 (2): 50 V. c. 15, s. 1.

Proclamation extending Act to municipi-pality.

133.—(1) Where a by-law to the effect aforesaid has been passed, and proper accommodation has been provided, either in connection with the county registry office or at some other convenient place, to the satisfaction of the Inspector hereinafter mentioned, and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by his proclamation, extend the operation of this Act, as amended by any subsequent Acts, to such county, city or town, from a day to be named in the proclamation.

(2) The fact of the conditions precedent to the issue of such proclamation having been performed, shall be conclusively established by the issue of the proclamation. 50 V. c. 15, s. 2.

Surplus fees

Stat. c. 114,
s. 107, to be applied in defraying expenses of office.

134. Where this Act applies to a county, city or town entitled to receive money under section 107 of The Registry Act, the registrar shall pay to the Treasurer of Ontario, to be applied, so far as necessary, in defraying the salary of the Master and other expenses of the office, the money payable either directly or indirectly, to the county, city or town under the said Act, and the Treasurer shall pay the balance to the county, city or town; and in case the amount so paid to the Treasurer aforesaid by the registrar is not sufficient, or in case nothing is payable by the registrar, the residue of such salary, or the whole of such salary (as the case may be), shall be made good to the Province by the corporation of the county, city or town. 50 V. c. 15, s. 3.

LOCAL MASTERS OF TITLES.

135. Where at the time of the issue of the proclamation there is a Referee of Titles under The Quieting Titles' Act, residing in the locality, such referee shall ex-officio be the first Local Master of Titles therefor, unless he practises as a barrister or solicitor, or is a County Judge, and he shall hold the office during the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 50 V. c. 15, s. 4 (1). Local Masters of Titles ex-officio.
Rev. Stat. c. 113.

136.—(1) Save as aforesaid, the Lieutenant-Governor may appoint a Master of Titles for any locality in which the Act is in force, to be styled "The Local Master of Titles" for the county, city, town or district, as the case may be, such officer to hold office during pleasure as aforesaid. Appointment of Local Masters.

(2) The person appointed may, in the discretion of the Lieutenant-Governor, be a County Judge, a barrister or solicitor (whether practising or not), or a registrar, if the person is deemed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to be qualified for the office of Master of Titles. Qualification.

(3) The Local Master of Titles shall be paid by salary for his services in that capacity, such salary to be fixed from time to time, with reference to the amount or probable amount of the business, on the report of the Inspector, subject to approval by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. The Order in Council is to be laid before the House of Assembly, as provided for Orders in Council under section 157 of The Judicature Act. Salary.
Rev. Stat. c. 44, s. 157.

(4) Every Local Master of Titles, before he enters upon the execution of his office, shall give security for the true and faithful performance of his duty as such Master, in such an amount as may be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and in such form as he may approve of, and shall take, before a Judge of the Supreme Court of this Province, or before some person authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor to administer oaths and declarations, an oath of office similar to that required to be taken by the Master of Titles, and such oath shall be transmitted to the Provincial Secretary Security.

(5) The Local Master of Titles shall, whenever required by the Provincial Secretary, give new security for the purposes specified in this section, to be approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 50 V. c. 15, s. 4 (2-6). New security to be given when required.

Master's authority and duties.

137. Subject to the provisions of this Act, every Local Master of Titles shall, in respect to titles of land situate within the territory for which he is appointed, have all the authority and perform all the duties which, in the county of York, are performed by the Master of Titles (including authority to grant applications for the withdrawal of land from under this Act), subject to appeal in the same manner. 50 V. c. 15, ss. 5, 9.

INSPECTOR OF OFFICES OF LAND TITLES.

Appointment
of Inspector.

138.—(1) As soon as this Act applies to ten counties, cities or towns aforesaid, the Lieutenant-Governor may appoint an officer, to be called "The Inspector of Land Titles' Offices."

Duties.

Rev. Stat. cc.
113, 114.

(2) The Inspector shall (subject to rules as hereinafter mentioned) have the like powers and duties as an Inspector under The Quieting Titles' Act, and as an Inspector under The Registry Act, respectively, and such other duties as may be required of him by rules to be made under the authority of this Act, or as he may be required by the Governor in Council to perform in respect of matters arising under the said Act.

Salary.

(3) The salary of the Inspector, to be voted by the Legislature, and his travelling expenses, and all expenses of and incidental to his office, shall be paid by the Province, and shall be repaid to the Provincial Treasurer by the corporations of the localities in which this Act is from time to time in operation, and shall be paid in such proportions as after a report from the Inspector the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may determine.

Performance of duties until Inspector appointed.

(4) Until an Inspector is appointed, the duties of the Inspector shall be performed by the Master of Titles, or by some other person authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and the expenses of and incidental thereto shall, in like manner as is hereinbefore provided be repaid to the Provincial Treasurer.

Appeal from Inspector.

(5) In all matters decided by the Inspector which are of like character as matters over which the Master of Titles has jurisdiction in the county of York, an appeal shall lie from any act, order or decision of the Inspector to the High Court, and from that Court to the Court of Appeal, as in cases within the ordinary jurisdiction of the Court; subject to any rules made in respect of such appeals. 50 V. c. 15, s. 6.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF LOCAL MASTERS.

First Registration.

Local Master to transmit title deeds, etc., to Inspector.

139.—(1) Where, upon an application for first registration, the Local Master of Titles finds that the applicant, or his nominee, is entitled to be registered, he is to sign a memorandum to that effect at the foot of the application, and is to transmit the same to the Inspector of Titles, with the deeds, evidence, and other papers before him, and a draft of the entry of ownership proposed to be made.

(2) If the Inspector concurs in the opinion of the Local Master of Titles, he shall approve thereof and shall return the papers transmitted to him, and the Local Master of Titles may thereupon register the applicant, or his said nominee as owner under this Act. Proceedings where Inspector concurs in Master's finding.

(3) In case the Inspector does not concur in the opinion of the Local Master of Titles, he shall communicate his opinion to the Local Master of Titles, and shall cause such action to be taken as he deems expedient, and in case his objections are not removed by explanations or additional evidence, the applicant or his nominee shall not be registered, unless the Court on appeal, or on a case stated for its opinion, otherwise directs. Proceedings where Inspector does not concur.

(4) If there is a contest upon the decision of the Inspector concurring in the Local Master's opinion, registration shall be delayed for ten days to enable anyone who so desires to appeal. Stay of proceedings in case appeal desired.
50 V. c. 15, s. 7.

(5) A certificate of a Local Master for the withdrawal of land from under this Act shall not be valid unless approved and countersigned by the Inspector. Certificate to be countersigned by Inspector.
50 V. c. 15, s. 9 (3).

Subsequent Registration.

140. If on the application for the registration of an instrument after a first registration or of a transmission, the Local Master of Titles is unable to come to a clear conclusion as to the action which he should take, he shall delay making the required entry until he has stated the facts to the Inspector of Titles for his opinion. In submitting the case the Local Master shall state his own view and his reasons therefor. Submission of case to Inspector where Master in doubt.
50 V. c. 15, s. 8.

REGISTRATION OF NEWLY PATENTED LANDS IN DISTRICTS.

141.—(1) When letters patent for any land situated in Algoma, Thunder Bay (including Rainy River), Muskoka, Parry Sound, or Nipissing are issued, the same shall be forwarded to the Local Master of Titles of the district, for the purpose of the patentee being entered as the first registered owner of the land, with any necessary qualification. Letters Patent granting land to be sent to Local Master.

(2) Before making such entry the Local Master shall obtain from the registrar of the registry division a certificate stating what instruments, if any, have been registered affecting the land; and in case he finds that any such instrument has been registered, he shall give notice to the patentee and to all other persons interested, before registering the patentee as owner.

(3) In case there is no contest as to the rights of the parties the Local Master may make the requisite entry and issue his certificate; but in case of a contest, he shall transmit the papers to the Inspector of Titles before registering the patentee as owner, and shall otherwise proceed as provided in section 139 of this Act. 50 V. c. 16, s. 2.

Payment to Assurance Fund.

142.—(1) Before a certificate of ownership is issued, the patentee shall pay into the Assurance Fund, one quarter of one per cent. on the value of the land patented, unless he elects to have the amount made a charge on the land; and his failure to pay the amount prior to the issue of the certificate shall be deemed an election.

(2) In that case a note shall be made on the register and on the certificate that the land is liable to pay the assurance fee; and no subsequent transfer or charge of the land, or any transmission thereof, shall be registered until the same, namely, one quarter of one per cent. on the value of the land at the time of the entry of the transfer, charge or transmission has been paid into the Assurance Fund. 50 V. c. 16, s. 3.

Notice by Master to sheriff and treasurer.

143.—(1) Upon an entry of ownership being made as aforesaid the Local Master of Titles shall, in the prescribed form, notify the sheriff in whose bailiwick the lands lie, of the entry of the patentee as owner, and shall, in the prescribed form, notify the treasurer of the municipality, if the land is situated in a municipality, of the fact that the land has become subject to this Act.

(2) The notices shall be sent by registered letter-post, and no entry of any dealing with the land shall be made in the register until fourteen days after the mailing of the notice, unless proof is previously made that the land is not liable to any execution or arrear of taxes.

(3) If within the fourteen days no copy of a writ of execution against the lands of the patentee is received from the sheriff, or no claim for arrear of taxes is received from the treasurer, the Local Master may assume that the land is not subject to any executions or taxes (other than taxes for the current year), and may enter subsequent dealing with the land accordingly; and as against such entry no claim shall afterwards be sustained in respect of an execution against the patentee, or in respect of any taxes against the land except for the current year or for a subsequent year.

(4) In case the Local Master receives from the treasurer a claim for taxes on the land, he shall enter the claim against the land, and all dealings with the land shall be subject to such claim. In case of executions affecting the land, an entry thereof shall be made in like manner, and all dealings with the land shall be subject to such executions.

(5) Where notices are not required to be given on account of instruments having been registered against the land, or otherwise, the Local Master shall be entitled to charge his actual disbursements.

(6) Where notices or other proceedings are necessary on account of instruments being registered, or on account of a caution having been lodged, or otherwise, the Local Master shall be entitled to charge in addition to his disbursements the like fees as are payable to the Master of Titles in respect of similar proceedings. 50 V. c. 16, s. 4.

144. In case a list of patented lands, furnished to the registrar of a registry division by the Provincial Secretary under section 37 of The Public Lands Act, contains any land coming within this Act, it shall be stated in the list that such land is subject to The Land Titles Act, and the registrar shall, in the abstract index, enter the fact that the land is subject to the said Act, and shall not receive for registration any instrument affecting the land. 50 V. c. 16, s. 5.

List of patented lands sent to Registrar under Rev. Stat. c. 24, s. 37.

SCHEDULE OF RULES.

(Approved by Order in Council, July 11th, 1887.)

PROCEEDINGS FOR A FIRST REGISTRATION.

Application for Registration.

1.—(1) The application for a first registration of land under this Act, shall state the nature of the interest of the applicant, and a general description, in concise terms, of the land; it shall also state whether the registration applied for is with an absolute, a qualified, or a possessory title. Rule 1, 12, and Form 6 made under Imp. Act, 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) Where the application is for the registration of a nominee, or is made by a purchaser, the consent in writing of the nominee or his solicitor, or the vendor or his solicitor, shall be left with the application.

(3) Where the application is made by virtue of a trust or power of sale, the consent in writing of the persons, if any, whose consent is required to the exercise of the trust or power shall be also left with the application. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 1.

(4) Where a qualified title is applied for, or where only a qualified title is shewn, if the qualification is of a complicated character, or if for any other reason the Master of Titles deems it improper that the land should be registered with the requisite qualification, the Master may refuse registration. New.

Possessory Title.

2.—(1) If the application is for registration with a possessory title only, there shall be left in the office with the application an affidavit made by the applicant (or by one of the applicants, if more than one, or by some person whose consent is required to the application) and his solicitor, to the best of their respective knowledge, information and belief, verifying the description, and to the effect that the applicant, either alone or with the person (if any) consenting to such application and either subject or not to incumbrances, is well entitled for his or their own benefit, or as holding the land on trust for sale, or as a trustee, or otherwise having a power of selling the land (as the case may be), to an estate in fee simple, or the power of disposing, by way of sale, of an estate in fee simple in the land, that the actual possession, or receipt of the rents and profits, thereof is in accordance with the applicant's title, stating who is in actual occupation of the land and if a tenant of the applicant is in occupation for what term he claims to be entitled, and that the applicant (or his nominee) is entitled under the Act to be registered as the owner of the land, and that the documents of title (if any) mentioned in the schedule to the affidavit comprise amongst others (if the fact be so) the last conveyance or other document under which the applicant's title is derived.

(2) Such notice (if any) of the application for registration, or of the registration, shall be given as the Master of Titles may direct.

(3) Where the Master of Titles is satisfied that it will be proper to grant the application, the registration may be made accordingly. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 2.

Absolute or Qualified Title.

Imp. Act 38 &
39 V. c. 87,
s. 70.

3. If the application is for a first registration with absolute or qualified title the application shall be supported by the following particulars, unless any thereof shall be dispensed with by the Master of Titles :

1. The title deeds (if any) and evidences of title relating to the land which are in the possession or power of the applicant ;

Rev. Stat. c.
113

2. A certified copy of the memorials of all other registered instruments affecting the land, or of all since the last judicial certificate, if any, under The Quieting Titles Act, was given (as the case may be) ;

3. The certificate of the Registrar of the county or other registry Division in which the land lies, shewing what instruments are registered affecting the land ;

4. Proofs of any facts which are required to be proved in order to make out the title, and which are not established by the other produced documents, unless the Master of Titles shall dispense with such proofs until a future stage of the investigation ;

5. An affidavit, or deposition by the person whose title is to be investigated, and a certificate of one of his counsel or solicitors, to the effect hereinafter respectively mentioned, unless the Master of Titles sees fit, for some special reason, to dispense with the same respectively ;

6. A schedule of the particulars produced under the preceding five sub-sections. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 3.

Affidavit of Applicant.

Imp. Act,
38 & 39 V.
c. 87, s. 70.
Forms 3 and 4
made under
Imp. Act.

4.—(1) The affidavit or deposition of the person whose title is to be investigated shall state to the effect, that to the best of his knowledge and belief he is the owner of the estate or interest (whatever it is) which is claimed in the application, subject only to the charges and incumbrances set forth in the application, or that there is no charge or incumbrance affecting the land ; that the deeds, wills, and instruments of title which he produces, and of which a list is contained in the schedule produced under the preceding rule, are all the title deeds and instruments of title relating to the lands which are in his possession or power ; and that he is not aware of the existence of any claim adverse to or inconsistent with his own to any part of the land or to any interest therein ; or, if he is aware of such adverse claim, he shall set forth every such adverse claim, and shall depose that he is not aware of any except what he sets forth.

(2) The affidavit or deposition shall also set forth whether any one is in occupation of the land, and under what claim, right or title; and shall state that to the best of the deponent's knowledge, information and belief, the said affidavit or deposition, and the other papers produced therewith, fully and fairly disclose all facts material to the title claimed by the applicant, and all contracts and dealings which affect the same or any part thereof, or give any right as against the applicant.

(3) The said affidavit or deposition may, in a proper case, be dispensed with, or may be made by some other person instead of the person whose title is to be investigated, or an affidavit or deposition as to part may be made by the one, and as to part by another, at the discretion of the Master of Titles; and in such case, the affidavit shall be modified accordingly. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 4.

Certificate of Counsel or Solicitor.

5. The certificate of the counsel or solicitor shall state to the effect that he has investigated the title and believes the party to be the owner of the estate which the application claims in the land in question, subject only (if such be the case) to any charges or incumbrances that may be set forth in the application (or that he so believes, subject to any condition, qualification or exemption to be set forth in the certificate); and that he has conferred with the deponent on the subject of the various matters set forth in the affidavit or deposition (if any) referred to in the next preceding two rules, and believes the affidavit or deposition to be true. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 5.

Imp. Act 38
& 39 V.
c. 87, s. 70.
Forms 3 and 4
made under
Imp. Act.

Mode of Proof.

6. The proofs required may be by, or in the form of affidavits or certificates; or may be given viva voce; or may be in any other manner or form that, under the circumstances of the case, is satisfactory to the Master of Titles in regard to the matters to which the same relate. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 6.

Payment of Taxes and Assessments.

7. Before the completion of a first registration of any land under this Act where an examination of title is required, satisfactory evidence shall be given by certificate, affidavit or otherwise, that all taxes, rates and assessments, for which the land is liable, except those for the current year have been paid or as the fact may be. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 7.

Registration of Certificates of Application.

8.—(1) A certificate by the Master of Titles, of the application for registration, shall be registered in the registry office of the registry division where the land lies before the first registration in the Land Titles Office is completed. For registering and indexing the certificate the Registrar shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 33 (3).

Registration of certificate of application.

(2) The registration of the said certificate shall be equivalent to the registration of a certificate of lis pendens in an action in the High Court. New.

Production of Further Evidence.

9. If the Master of Titles is not satisfied with the evidence of title produced in the first instance, he shall give a reasonable opportunity of producing further evidence, or of removing defects in the evidence produced. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 8.

Publication of Notice.

Rule 10 and 14
made under
Imp. Act 38 &
39 V. c. 87.

10.—(1) Before the completion of a first registration as aforesaid, the Master of Titles shall, except as hereafter provided, direct notice of the application to be published in the Ontario Gazette, and, if he sees fit, in any other newspaper or newspapers, and in such form and for such period as he thinks expedient.

(2) The registration shall not be completed until after the expiration of at least four weeks from the first publication of such notice, or such other period as the Master of Titles may appoint.

(3) If the Master of Titles is satisfied respecting the title, and considers that the registration can safely be completed without any other notice of application than the published notice so required, he shall complete the same accordingly.

(4) Notice of any number of applications may be included in one advertisement if the Master of Titles thinks fit, and in such case the expense of the advertisement shall be borne by the several applicants in such proportions as the Master of Titles may direct.

Rev. Stat. c.
113.

(5) The Master of Titles may dispense with the advertisement where the applicant is the original grantee from the Crown, or produces all the title deeds by which the title is traced from such grantee, or all the title deeds by which the title is traced for 40 years by a registered title, or where the applicant or some one through whom he claims, has obtained a Certificate of Title under The Quieting Titles Act, and the applicant produces all the title deeds subsequent to the certificate: Provided in every case that the applicant is in actual occupation of the land, or that every other person in actual occupation thereof is notified, or that the land is vacant, and the applicant is in constructive possession thereof by having paid the taxes. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 9.

Notice to Adverse Claimant.

Rule 10, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

11. In case there appears to exist any claim adverse to, or inconsistent with, that of the applicant to or in respect of any part of the land, the Master of Titles shall direct such notice as he deems necessary to be mailed to or served on the adverse claimant, his solicitor or agent. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 10.

Additional Notices.

Rule 12, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

12. In all cases the Master of Titles may require from time to time any further publication to take place, or any other notice to be mailed or served that he deems necessary before granting the Certificate. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 11.

Objections.

Rule 11, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

13.—(1) Any person having an adverse claim, or a claim not recognised in the application, may at any time before the registration under this Act is completed, file and serve on the applicant, his solicitor or agent, a short statement of his claim, which may be according to the form set forth in the Schedule of Forms.

(2) This claim shall be verified by an affidavit to be filed therewith, and shall contain an address in this Province at which service on the objector shall be made. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 12.

Hearing of Objection.

14. The applicant or his solicitor shall obtain an appointment before the Master of Titles for hearing any objection which shall have been duly left in the office. Service of the appointment shall be made on the objector or his solicitor seven clear days before it is returnable. The parties may be heard in person, or by counsel or solicitor. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 13.

Decision in Contested Cases.

15. In case of a contest, the Master of Titles may either decide the question of title on the evidence before him, or may refer the same or any matter involved therein to the Court, or to any mode of investigation which is usual in other cases, or which he deems expedient, according as the circumstances of each case render just, and may defer completing the registration until afterwards. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 14.

Costs.

16.—(1) The Master of Titles may, at any stage of the cause, order security for costs to be given by the applicant for registration, or by any person making any adverse claim. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 15.

(2) If the Master orders costs to be paid by any person, he may either fix the amount or may direct payment after taxation and in that case the said costs may be taxed by either of the taxing officers of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, who shall tax the same subject to any special direction the Master of Titles may give.

(3) Upon such taxation the like fees shall be payable to the taxing officer in stamps as are payable upon a taxation under an order of a Judge of the High Court and the practice and rules applicable to a taxation under a Judge's order shall apply to the said taxation. New.

Abatement of Proceedings.

17. In case of death or change of interest pending registration, the proceedings shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be available to such person as the Master of Titles on application, having regard to the rights of the several persons interested in the land, may direct, if such person thinks proper to adopt the same; and the Court or the Master of Titles may require notices to be given to persons becoming interested, or may make any order for discontinuing or suspending or carrying on the proceedings, or otherwise in relation thereto, as under the circumstances may be just. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 16.

Rule 5, made under Imp. Act 38 and 39 V. c. 87.

Caution Against Entry of Land on Register.

18.—(1) Every Caution lodged under section 68 of the Act shall be signed by the cautioner or his solicitor, and shall contain a place of address in this Province at which any notice may be served; and the affidavit in support of the Caution shall be left therewith and shall contain a description of the land. The period to be limited by the notice to be served on the cautioner under section 71 shall be 14 days, or such other period not less than 7 days, as the Master of Titles may direct. The notice shall be served either personally or through the post.

Rule 15 made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) Every Caution under section 68 shall be renewed before the expiration of 5 years from the date of lodging the same; otherwise it shall cease to have effect. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 17.

PROCEEDINGS ON AND AFTER FIRST REGISTRATION.

Caution against Dealing with Registered Land.

19.—(1) Every Caution lodged under section 61 of the Act shall be signed by the cautioner or his solicitor or by his agent duly authorized in writing, and shall contain a place of address in the Province, at which any notice may be served, and the affidavit in support of the caution shall contain a reference to the land or charge to which the caution applies, and to the registered number of the estate, and shall also contain the particulars of the cautioner's interest in such land or charge.

Rule 16, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) The period to be limited by the notice to be served on the cautioner under section 62 of the Act shall be 14 days, or such other period, not less than 7 days, as the Master of Titles may direct. The consent of a cautioner under section 62 shall be signed by him, or by his agent duly authorized in writing and shall be attested and duly verified. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 18.

Inhibitions.

Rule 17, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

20. Every application to the Master of Titles for an inhibiting order under section 64 of the Act shall be supported by the affidavit of the applicant or his solicitor, stating the grounds of the application and referring to the evidence in favour thereof. An appointment shall be then made for hearing the same and for production of the evidence in support thereof. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 19.

Restrictions.

Rule 18, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

21.—(1) Every application under section 65 of the Act shall state the particulars of the direction or restriction required to be entered on the register, and shall be proceeded with as the Master of Titles shall direct; and every application under section 66 of the Act to withdraw or modify any direction or restriction shall be made and signed by all persons for the time being appearing by the register to be interested in such direction or restriction, and shall be attested and duly verified.

Rule 19, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

(2) Before any entry is made upon the register under the third paragraph of section 85 of the Act the consent in writing thereto of the persons to be entered as the registered owners of the land or charge, stating the particulars of the entry required, shall be lodged in the office. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 20.

CHARGE OF REGISTERED LAND.

Rule 20, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

22.—(1) The instrument by which any charge of freehold or leasehold land shall be made under section 28 of the Act shall be left in the office, and the execution thereof by the registered owner of the land shall be attested and duly verified.

(2) Where it is desired that an entry should be made on the register negating the implied covenants referred to in sections 29 and 30 of the Act, or that any entry should be made on the register, contrary to the powers given to a registered owner of a registered charge by sections 31, 32 and 33, respectively, or contrary to the provisions of section 34 as to the priority of registered charges, the application to be made in that behalf shall state the particulars of the entry required to be made, and shall be signed, and the signature attested and verified in the same manner as is required with respect to the execution of the instrument of charge.

(3) Such verification may, where practicable, be made by the same affidavit as that verifying the execution of the instrument of charge.

(4) In the event of a foreclosure or sale being enforced by the registered owner of the charge, the Master of Titles shall, upon the application of the person entitled to the benefit of the foreclosure or sale, and on proper proof, make all necessary entries in the register. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 21.

TRANSFER OF REGISTERED CHARGE.

Rule 21, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

23. The instrument by which any transfer of charge shall be made, under section 47 of the Act, shall be left in the office, and the execution thereof by the registered owner of the charge shall be attested and duly verified. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 22.

Cessation of Charge and Determination of Lease.

24.—(1) Where the cessation of a charge entered on the register is required to be notified under section 35 of the Act, the application shall be signed by the registered owner of the land or his solicitor, and shall be attested and duly verified. Rule 22, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) If the application is not concurred in by the registered owner of the charge, due proof of the satisfaction of the charge shall be left with the application.

(3) The Master of Titles, upon being satisfied of the cessation of a charge, shall, where convenient, notify the same by cancelling the original entry, or shall otherwise enter on the register the fact of such cessation. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 23.

(4) This rule shall, where applicable, extend to applications to notify the determination of any lease or agreement for a lease under section 58. New.

TRANSFER OF REGISTERED LAND.

25. The instrument by which any transfer of land shall be made, under section 36 or 41 of the Act, shall be left in the office, and the execution thereof by the registered owner shall be attested and duly verified. Rule 23, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

Entry Negating Implied Covenants on Transfer of Leasehold Land.

26. Every application requiring an entry to be made on the register negating the implied covenants referred to in section 46 of the Act, shall state the particulars of the entry required to be made, and shall be signed, attested and verified, in the same manner as is required with respect to the execution of the instrument of transfer. The verification may, where practicable, be made by the same affidavit as that verifying the instrument of transfer. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 25. Rule 24, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

Evidence of Transmission of Registered Ownership.

27. Where it is required to prove the fact of any person having become entitled to any land or charge, in consequence of the death of any registered owner, the application shall state the fact to be proved, and the nature of the evidence in support thereof. The evidence shall be left in the office with the application, and the fact shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Master of Titles, and the matter shall be proceeded with as he shall direct. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 26. Rule 25, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

Death of Registered Owner, and Dower or Curtesy.

28.—(1) Every application under section 49, 50 or 60 of the Act, shall be supported by the affidavit of the applicant and his solicitor, showing concisely the existing rights of the several persons interested in the land or charge affected by the application. Rule 26, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) The evidence in support of the application shall be left therewith in the office, and the Master of Titles may require such other evidence (if any) and such notices to be given as he may think fit, and the matter shall be proceeded with as he shall direct. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 27.

Cessation of Incumbrances and of Leases entered on first Registration.

Rule 27, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

29.—(1) Where, upon the first registration of any freehold or leasehold land, notice of an incumbrance affecting such land has been entered on the register, the cessation of which is required to be notified under section 25 of the Act, the applicant, in case there has been any dealing with, or transmission of, or interest created or arisen in, such incumbrance, not appearing on the register, shall leave in the office an abstract of his title to make the application and prove the same in the usual way, and the matter shall be proceeded with in the mode provided in the cases of examination of title on registration, subject to any special directions of the Master of Titles.

(2) Where there has been no dealing with the incumbrance, the applicant shall produce the instrument of incumbrance with a release or receipt thereon signed by the registered owner of the incumbrance, whose signature and identity shall be duly verified.

(3) The Master of Titles, upon being satisfied of the cessation of an incumbrance, shall notify the same by cancelling, where convenient, the original entry, or otherwise by entering on the register the fact of such cessation.

(4) This rule shall, where applicable, extend to applications to notify the determination of any lease of registered leasehold land, under section 26 of the Act. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 28.

Notice of Lease or Agreement.

Rule 28, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

30.—(1) Every application to register notice of a lease or agreement, under sections 58 and 59 of the Act, shall contain a concise statement of the terms of the lease or agreement for a lease to be noticed.

(2) If the registered owner of the land does not concur, and a copy only of the original lease or agreement is deposited with the Master of Titles the lease or agreement shall be produced for comparison with the copy.

(3) If the registered owner concurs, he shall be a party to and sign the application, and his signature shall be attested and duly verified, and the application shall state the terms of the notice proposed to be entered, but such terms shall be subject to the approval of the Master of Titles.

(4) The lease or agreement shall be left with the application, and shall be stamped or endorsed to shew that a notice of it has been entered upon the register. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 29.

Entry as to Exceptions under Section 24.

Rule 29, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

31.—(1) Every application requiring an entry to be made on the register in respect to any of the liabilities, rights and interests, that are by the Act declared not to be incumbrances, shall state the particulars of the entry required to be made.

(2) The evidence in support of the application shall be left therewith, and the application shall be proceeded with in such manner as the Master of Titles shall direct. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 30.

32. Any fact to be notified on the register under section 24 of the Act shall be entered in or against the registered description of the land unless the Master of Titles otherwise directs. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 31.

Conditions and Covenants Annexed to Land.

Rule 31, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

33.—(1) Every application to register conditions or covenants as annexed to land about to be registered, or to any registered land about to be transferred, shall be made, in case of land about to be registered, either by the person who by himself or nominee is about to be registered as owner of the land, or with his consent in writing, duly verified, and, in the case of land about to be transferred, either by the person actually registered as owner of the land, with the consent in writing, duly verified, of the intended transferee, or by such transferee, with the consent in writing, duly verified, of the registered owner.

(2) In any case of conditions or covenants being annexed on application under section 86, or on first registration arising on the examination of title, a copy of the conditions or covenants, or of the document containing them, shall be left in the office, and the registration of such conditions or covenants may be made by reference on the register to such copy.

(3) On the registration of any leasehold land, held under a lease containing a prohibition against alienation without license, provision shall be made for preventing alienation without such license by an entry on the register of a reference to such prohibition. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 32.

Land Certificate.

34.—(1) A land certificate shall be under the seal of the office, and contain a copy of the registered description of the land, and the name and place of residence of the registered owner, and a short statement of such other matters (if any) as may for the time being be entered on the register as affecting the land, and shall state whether the registered ownership is absolute, qualified, or possessory.

(2) A land certificate to the transferor under section 36 where only part is transferred may, if the Master of Titles shall so think fit, consist of his subsisting land certificate, if any, with a memorandum thereon shewing the part disposed of.

(3) No new land certificate shall be issued under section 36 to the same owner unless the old certificate is delivered up, except as provided in section 80. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 33, (2, 4, 5).

(4) Where the whole parcel is transferred, the Master instead of delivering a new certificate, may write on the existing certificate a memorandum shewing the transfer, and the same shall have the effect of a new certificate to the transferee. New.

Certificate of Charge.

35. A certificate of charge shall be under the seal of the office, and may at the option of the applicant contain either a copy of the entry on the registry of such charge, with a reference to or a copy of the registered description of the land, or the same particulars as a land certificate. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 33 (6).

Registered Lease and Office Copy thereof.

36.—(1) Every lease or copy of such lease, or of a counterpart thereof, deposited with the Master of Titles under section 17 of the Act shall be retained in the office during the continuance of such lease.

Rule 34, made under Imp Act 33 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) Application for an office copy of a registered lease shall be made by the registered owner entitled to have and requiring the same. The office copy shall be marked as an office copy and authenticated under the seal of the office.

(3) In addition to or as part of the particulars required by section 22 of the Act to be endorsed on an office copy lease, a copy of or a reference to the registered description and the map, if any, annexed thereto, shall be endorsed on or annexed to such office copy.

(4) Where a fresh copy is required under section 41 of the Act, in addition to such of the particulars provided by section 22 of the Act and this rule to be endorsed on an office copy or annexed thereto, as in the Master's opinion may be applicable, there shall be annexed to such fresh office copy and referred to in an endorsement thereon a copy of the map (if any) referred to in the registered description of the part transferred, shewing the part so transferred, and an endorsement shall be made on the office copy of the part retained, shewing the part disposed of by reference to its registered description, or otherwise. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 34.

New Land Certificate, Office Copy Lease, or Certificate of Charge.

Rule 35, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

37. Every application for a new land certificate, or office copy of a registered lease, or certificate of charge to be granted, under section 80 of the Act, shall be supported by an affidavit of the applicant, stating the fact that the former one has been lost, mislaid, or destroyed, and the circumstances thereof, and the new certificate or copy shall contain a statement that it is granted in the place of the certificate or copy lost, mislaid, or destroyed. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 35.

Questions arising on Registrations.

Rule 36, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

38. If, at any time during the investigation of title, or in any registration proceeding, any question or doubt or dispute arise, notice may, with the consent of the Master of Titles, be given by the applicant to any person interested in such question or doubt or dispute, to the effect that the same will be brought before the Master of Titles at a time to be mentioned in such notice, and that such person may attend before the Master of Titles at such time by himself, or his counsel or solicitor, and take part in the investigation and settlement of such question, doubt, or dispute. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 36.

Number of Registered Owners.

Rule 37, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

39. No more than four persons shall at any time be registered as owners of the same land or charge. If the number of persons shewing title exceeds four, such of them, not exceeding four, shall be registered as they may in writing agree upon, or, in case they cannot agree, as the Master of Titles may, upon application, decide after such notices have been given (if any), and proceedings taken as the Master of Titles may direct. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 37.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Applications to be Signed.

Rule 38, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

40. Every application to be made under these Rules shall be signed by the applicant or his solicitor. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 38.

Abstracts and Documents to be Retained in Office.

Rule 40, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

41. All abstracts and copies of documents and all documents for registration left in the office shall be retained in the office, pending completion of the registration to which they relate, and shall be afterwards dealt with as the Master of Titles shall direct. Abstracts and documents shall where practicable be examined with the originals. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 39.

Documents, etc., to be fairly Written.

Rule 41, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

42. The Master of Titles may refuse to receive any abstract or document that is not fairly written, lithographed, or printed, or is not in conformity with the rules of the office. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 40.

Documents Executed by Attorney.

Rule 42, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

43. If any document, left in the office for registration purposes, has been executed under a power of attorney, the power of attorney shall be produced, and, if the Master of Titles shall so direct, left in the office, and the execution thereof by, and the identity of, the principal, and the execution of the document by, and the identity of, the attorney shall be duly verified, and such evidence furnished (if any) that the power of attorney was effectual at the date of the execution of the document thereunder as the Master of Titles may direct. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 41.

Destruction of Exhausted Instruments.

44. The Master of Titles may direct the destruction of any instruments in his possession or custody where they have become altogether superseded by entries in the register or have ceased to have any effect. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 42. Rule 43, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

Stationery, Charges, and Stamps.

45.—(1) All copies, entries, engrossments, or other writings made by a stationery clerk in the office, and all stationery and forms supplied by the office in the course of registration, shall be paid for by the applicant, in stamps or otherwise as the case may require. Rule 45, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) No entry shall be made on the register before the stamps (if any) in respect of the fees payable by stamps under the Act, and any rules thereunder, have been impressed or affixed on some document sent to or lodged in the office with reference to the proposed registration, or as the Master of Titles shall direct, and before all expenses payable under the Act and rules have been provided for.

(3) Every officer of the land registry who shall receive any document to or upon which a stamp shall be affixed or impressed, under the Act or rules, shall, immediately on receipt of such document, cancel the stamp thereon, as provided by The Act respecting Law Stamps. Rev. Stat. c. 22.

(4) The Master of Titles may refuse to receive in the office any document requiring to be and not duly stamped. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 43.

Copies of Documents.

46. In the case of any uncanceled instrument affecting land, which may be deposited, filed, kept, or registered in the office of the Master of Titles, an exemplification or certified copy attested by the Master's seal of office, shall be received as evidence in every Court in the Province in the same manner and with the same effect as in the case of instruments registered under The Registry Act. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 44. Rev. Stat. c. 114.

Verification of Instruments.

47. Where the signing or execution of any document is required to be duly verified, such signing or execution shall be attested by a witness, and such verification shall be made by his affidavit, and when the document is signed or executed by a person named or referred to on the register, such affidavit shall identify the person signing or executing the same accordingly. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 45. Rule 46, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

Evidence.

48 The Master of Titles may, if he thinks fit, require evidence to be given viva voce before him. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 46. Rule 47, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

The Register.

49.—(1) The register shall be made and kept in such mode that in every case where there is a registered owner of land, such land and any transactions relating thereto authorized to be entered on the register shall form a page or succession of pages of the register. Rule 48, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) Unless the Master of Titles shall otherwise direct, each parcel of land separately entered on the register shall be distinguished by a separate number, and where the land originally registered is dealt with in separate parcels, each new separate parcel shall also refer to the number of the original parcel.

(3) Where a part only of the registered land is comprised in the transfer, a note shall be made on the folium of the land retained, shewing the part disposed of.

(4) The Master of Titles shall note upon the register of the title of the transferor the number of the parcel of the transferee's title, and upon that of the transferee the number of the parcel of the transferor, so that reference can be readily made from one to the other as occasion may require.

(5) No entry in the register shall be set aside or called in question by reason of any irregularity or informality in any proceeding previous to the making thereof.

(6) The Master of Titles may withdraw from the register, by cancellation or otherwise, any notice or entry which he is satisfied no longer affects the registered land. 48 V. c. 22, Rules 24 (2), 47, 55.

Substituted Description.

Rule 49, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

50.—(1) In case the registered owner of any land is desirous that a revised description shall be substituted for the then registered description, the Master of Titles, if he sees good reason, may in his discretion cause a revised description to be substituted accordingly.

(2) In that case such substituted description shall thenceforth be the registered description of the land, but without prejudice to the description existing at the time of such substitution, so far as relates to estates previously registered. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 48.

Plans.

51.—(1) An owner sub-dividing land for the purpose of selling or conveying the same in lots shall deposit with the Master of Titles a map of the land on a scale not less than one inch to every four chains, which shall be marked on the plan. The plan shall shew the number of the township, town, or village lots, and range or concession as originally laid out, and all the boundary lines thereof within the limits of the land shewn on the said plan, and where the plan is a sub-division of a lot or lots on a former plan it shall shew the numbers or other distinguishing marks of the lot or lots sub-divided and the boundary lines of such lot or lots. The plan shall also shew all roads, streets, lots and commons within the same, with the courses and widths thereof respectively, and the width and length of all lots, and the courses of all division lines between the respective lots within the same, together with such other information as is required to shew distinctly the position of the land being sub-divided. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 49.

(2) Every such plan shall be signed by the owner of the land or his agent, or when a corporation is the owner by the chief officer of the corporation, and shall be certified by a Provincial Land Surveyor in the form given in the schedule appended hereto.

(3) Every such plan shall be mounted on stiff pasteboard of good quality, and in case it exceeds thirty inches in length by twenty-four inches in width shall be folded so as not to exceed this size.

(4) The Master of Titles, before filing the plan, may require evidence to be given explaining any seeming discrepancy between the measurements on the plan and the description of the land in the register, or may require evidence respecting any other matter which he considers requires to be explained. New.

52.—(1) In other cases the Master of Titles may require a person applying for registration under this Act, to deposit a map or plan of the land, with the several measurements marked thereon, certified by a licensed provincial surveyor and so many counterparts as may be required, and upon one of the following scales :—

Rules 50 & 51, made under
Imp. Act 38 &
39 V. c. 87.

(a.) If the land, or the portion thereof proposed to be transferred or dealt with, is of less area than one acre, then the map or plan shall be on a scale not less than one inch to two chains.

(b.) If the land, or the portion thereof proposed to be transferred or dealt with, is of greater area than one acre, but not exceeding five acres, then the map or plan shall be on a scale not less than one inch to five chains.

(c.) If the land, or the portion thereof proposed to be transferred or dealt with, is of greater area than five acres, but not exceeding eighty acres, then the map or plan shall be on a scale not less than one inch to ten chains.

(d.) If the land, or the portion thereof proposed to be transferred or dealt with, is of greater area than eighty acres, then the map or plan shall be on a scale of one inch to twenty chains.

(2) The owner shall sign the said plan and verify the accuracy of the same before any person authorized under section 112.

(3) If the owner neglects or refuses to comply with such requirements as aforesaid, the Master of Titles may refuse to proceed with the registration of the transfer or dealing.

(4) Subsequent sub-divisions of the same land may be delineated upon a duplicate of the map or plan of the same so deposited, if the same is upon a sufficient scale in accordance with the provisions herein contained ; and the correctness of the delineation of each such sub-division shall be acknowledged in the manner prescribed for the case of the deposit of an original map.

(5) Where parts of different legal sub-divisions are included in the same transfer, the map shall represent the whole of such legal sub-divisions, and shall indicate the location of the lands to be transferred ; this shall not be necessary in the case of lots in a city, town or village the plan of which has been registered unless the Master shall otherwise direct.
48 V. c. 22, Rule 50.

Summonses and Production of Public Documents.

53. Upon any summons being issued under section 118 of the Act, the affidavit verifying the service thereof shall also prove that the reasonable charges of the attendance of the person summoned, and of his production of the documents (if any) required to be produced, have been paid or tendered to him. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 51.

Notices, Preparation and Service of.

54.—(1) All notices and summonses required to be given or served for any purpose shall be prepared by the applicant on the official forms and under the stamp of the office, and such portions thereof as are in manuscript shall be legibly written.

Rule 53, made
under Imp.
Act 38 & 39
V. c. 87.

(2) If the service of the notices or summonses be personal, it shall be proved by affidavit.

(3) If the service be through the post, it shall be made by prepaid registered letter. In such case open official envelopes, duly stamped and addressed, and marked outside, "Office of Land Titles, Toronto," and "to be returned to the Office of Land Titles, Toronto, if not called for or delivered in ten days," or to the like effect, and with the word "Registered," and containing the notices stamped, shall be left at the office of Land Titles for mailing.

(4) Every notice required to be given shall, if sent through the post, unless returned, be deemed to have been received by the person addressed within 7 days, exclusive of the day of mailing.

(5) On the return of any letter containing any notice, the Master of Titles shall act in the matter requiring such notice to be given, in such manner as he shall think fit. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 52.

Substituted Service.

Rule 54, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

55. Substituted service on the solicitor or agent of any person shall be deemed good service on such person if the Master of Titles shall so direct. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 53.

Discretionary Power of Master.

Rule 55, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

56. —(1) The Master of Titles, if he so thinks fit, may extend the time limited by general rules for any purpose, and where the signing or execution of any document or instrument, or any act is required by such rules to be attested and verified or done by a solicitor, may accept such document or instrument though not so attested or verified, and may give such directions in respect of such act though not so done, as he may think fit, and upon such terms and conditions (if any) in every such case as he may think proper.

(2) If at any time the Master of Titles is of opinion that any further or other evidence is necessary or desirable, he may refuse to enter the instrument or dealing in the register until such further or other evidence has been produced. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 54.

Indexes and Inspection.

Rev. Stat. c. 114.

57. There shall be kept by the Master of Titles alphabetical indexes corresponding as nearly as may be to the indexes provided for by The Registry Act; and any person may inspect the said indexes or the entries in the register. Documents on which cessation of incumbrances or leases are notified need not be entered in the said indexes. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 56.

Rule 57, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

58. All copies or extracts from any register or document in the custody of the Master of Titles relating to any land or charge, shall be made by a clerk in the office. No document not referred to in the register of the existing ownership shall, without the consent of the Master of Titles, be inspected by any person other than the registered owner or any one having his written consent. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 57.

Forms.

Rule 58, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

59. —(1) The forms in the schedule hereto shall be used in all matters to which they refer or are capable of being applied or adapted, with such alterations and additions only as are necessary to meet the circumstances of each case: but no recital, reservation, covenant, declaration or other provision not referred to in or required by such forms, shall be inserted therein, unless the Master under special circumstances otherwise directs.

(2) Official copies of the forms may be supplied through the office, and may, where practicable, be used in all matters to which the forms relate.

(3) The Master of Titles may reject any document which is informal, or which he may consider is not in accordance with this rule. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 58.

Appeal.

60.—(1) Upon any application to the Court being made on the requirement of or appeal from the Master of Titles, or for the rectification of the register under section 96, a statement shall be prepared by the applicant and settled and signed by the Master of Titles, and forwarded to the Court through the office before the hearing. Rule 59, made under Imp. Act 38 & 39 V. c. 87.

(2) All applications to the Court and appeals from the Master of Titles shall be in the same manner and subject to the same regulations (as nearly as may be) as appeals from the Master in Chambers under The Judicature Act and Rules, except that the notice of appeal shall be served within 7 days after the decision complained of, or within such further time as may be allowed by a Judge of the High Court or by the Master of Titles, and the motion shall be made within 14 days after the said decision, or within such further time as may be allowed as aforesaid. Rev. Stat. c. 41

(3) No appeal from a decision or order of the Master of Titles, or of the Court, shall affect any dealing for valuable consideration duly registered before a notice in writing of such appeal has been lodged in the office on the part of the appellant, and a note thereof made, on his application, in the register.

(4) No appeal shall be brought from a decision or order of the Court, after 28 days from the date of such decision or order, without leave of the Court.

(5) Service of any order, or official copy of an order, of any Court on the Master of Titles, shall be made by leaving the same in the office, and an application shall be left at the same time for the rectification of the register being made, or any other act being done, in accordance with such order, and the matter shall be proceeded with as the Master of Titles shall direct. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 59.

Hours of Attendance.

61. Unless on Saturdays and during the long vacation, the office of the Master of Titles shall be open from the hour of ten in the forenoon until four in the afternoon every day in the year, Sundays and holidays excepted. On Saturdays and during the long vacation the said office shall be open from ten in the forenoon till two o'clock in the afternoon. 48 V. c. 22, Rule 60.

An Act respecting Ferries.

LICENSES OF FERRY, ss. 1, 2.
 LIMITS OF FERRIES, s. 3.
 FERRIES BETWEEN TWO MUNICIPALITIES :
 Licenses to municipalities, ss. 4-6.
 Conditions of license, s. 7.
 Municipality may sub-let, s. 8.

By-laws by municipalities jointly licensed, s. 9.
 PERSONS MAY KEEP BOATS AT FERRIES, s. 10.
 PENALTIES FOR INTERFERENCE WITH LICENSED FERRYMAN, ss. 11-13.
 BY-LAWS BY MUNICIPALITIES REGULATING FERRIES, s. 14.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

License to be issued under the Great Seal.

1. Every grant or license of ferry shall be issued by the Lieutenant-Governor under the Great Seal. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 1.

Ferries to be leased by public competition and only for limited time.

2. Except as herein otherwise provided, no ferry in Ontario shall hereafter be leased by the Crown, nor shall the lease thereof be renewed, or any license by the Crown to act as a ferryman thereat be granted, except by public competition, and after notice of the time and place at which tenders will be received for the lease or license for such ferry, inserted at least four times in the course of four weeks in the Ontario Gazette, and in one or more of the newspapers published in the county in which the ferry is situate, and to parties giving such security as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may require; nor shall any such ferry be leased or the license thereof be granted for a longer term than seven years at any one time. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 2.

3. In every case, except in the case of municipalities as hereinafter provided, where the limits to which the exclusive privilege of any ferry extends are not already defined, such exclusive privilege shall not be granted for a greater distance than one mile and a half on each side of the point at which the ferry is usually kept, but nothing herein contained shall invalidate or infringe upon any existing grant or right of ferry. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 3.

Limits of ferries.

4. In all cases where a ferry is required over any stream or other water within Ontario, and the two shores of the stream or other water are in different municipalities, such municipalities not being in the same county, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may grant a license to either of such municipalities exclusively, or to both conjointly, as may be most conducive to the public interest. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 4.

License for ferry between two municipalities.

5. Where a ferry is required over any stream or other water within Ontario, and the two shores of the stream or other water are in different counties, the Lieutenant-Governor may, instead of granting the license to a minor municipality, grant the same to either of the counties or to both jointly, or to one of them jointly with a city or town, or in the manner provided by the preceding section as he may consider most conducive to the public interest, 45 V. c. 13, s. 1.

Municipalities to which licenses may be granted.

6. The license shall confer a right on the municipality or municipalities to establish a ferry from shore to shore on such stream or other water, and with such limit and extent as may appear advisable to the Lieutenant Governor in Council, and be expressed in the license. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 5.

Extent of right conferred, etc.

7. The license shall be upon condition that the craft to be used for the purpose of the ferry shall be propelled by steam, and be of such dimensions, and the engine thereof be of such power as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct; and upon such further conditions as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may think fit and express in the license. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 6.

Condition of license as to steam, etc.

8. The council of the municipality to which such license is issued, may pass by-laws, not contravening the terms of the license, declaring their determination to sub-let the said ferry, and may sub-let the same for the price, and upon such terms, and to such parties, and on such conditions, and at such rates of ferriage to be paid, as the council may think fit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 7.

Municipalities may sub-let ferries.

9. Where a license is granted to two municipalities jointly, no by-law of the council of one of such municipalities with respect to the ferry shall have any force until a by-law has been passed in similar terms, as nearly as may be, by the other council. 45 V. c. 13, s. 2.

By-laws by municipalities to which license granted jointly.

Parties may keep boats for their own use.

10. Any person may keep at any such ferry a boat, vessel, or other craft, for his own private use, or may use, for the accommodation of himself or of his employer, his own or his employer's boat, vessel or craft, to cross the river or stream on which the ferry is situate; but such privilege shall in no wise be used to take, carry or convey any other persons or property for hire, gain, reward or profit, or hope thereof, or directly or indirectly to enable any of such other persons to evade the payment of tolls at the ferry. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 9.

Penalty for interfering with licensed ferryman.

11. If any person unlawfully interferes with the rights of a licensed ferryman, by taking, carrying, and conveying, at any such ferry, across the river or stream on which the same is situate, any person, cattle, carriage, or wares, in any boat, vessel, or other craft, for hire, gain, reward, profit, or hope thereof, or unlawfully does any other act or thing to lessen the tolls and profits of any lessee of the Crown of any such ferry, the offender, upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, shall forfeit and pay such sum of money not exceeding $20, as the Justice may direct, which sum shall be paid to the party aggrieved, except where he has been examined in proof of the offence, in which case the money shall be applied and accounted for in the same manner as any penalty imposed for a breach of the peace. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 10.

Offender to be committed if penalty not paid.

12. In case the sum forfeited is not paid immediately after conviction, the convicting Justice may commit the offender to the Common Gaol of the county, there to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding two months, unless the forfeiture, and the costs, are sooner paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 11.

License evidence of title to the ferry.

13. On the trial of an offender against this Act, every license heretofore issued or issued under this Act, shall be prima facie evidence of title to the ferry. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 12.

Municipal Councils may pass by-laws regulating ferries in certain places.

Rev. Stat. c. 184.

14. The council of every county, city and town separated from the county, under The Municipal Act, may pass by-laws for regulating ferries between any two places in the municipality; and establishing the rates of ferriage to be taken thereon; but no such by-law shall have effect until assented to by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; and until the council of the county, city or town separated as aforesaid pass a by-law regulating such ferries, and in the cases of ferries not between two places in the same municipality, the Lieutenant-Governor, by Order in Council, may from time to time regulate such ferries respectively, and establish the rates to be taken thereon subject to the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 112, s. 13.

BAGS TO BE MARKED, s. 2.	On the River Moira, ss. 9-12.
CONSTRUCTION OF APRONS, SLIDES, WASTE-GATES, SLASH-BOARDS, BRACKETS, ss. 3-6.	On the River Otonabee, s. 13.
Penalty for not constructing, etc., s. 7.	PENALTIES SUSPENDED WHEN DAMS, ETC., INJURED BY FLOODS, s. 14.
	NO DAMAGES FOR OVERFLOW OF ADJACENT LANDS IN CERTAIN CASES, ss. 15, 16.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. No owner or occupier of a mill, nor any person employed by him, shall demand or take as toll a greater proportion of any grain brought to him to be ground and bolted than one-twelfth part thereof, for grinding and bolting the same, under a penalty of $40 for every such offence; one moiety thereof to be paid to Her Majesty, for the public uses of the Province, and the other moiety to any person who sues for the same in any Court of Record. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 1.

No greater proportion to be taken for grinding and bolting grain than one twelfth.

2. No owner or occupier of a mill shall be bound to receive or be chargeable with the loss of any bag of grain or flour, unless the bag is marked with the initial letters of the Christian name and surname of the owner of the grain, or with some mark distinguishing the bag, which mark of distinction shall be previously communicated and made known to the owner or occupier of the mill, or his servant usually attending the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 2.

Bags must be marked.

3. Subject to any jurisdiction in this behalf of the Dominion of Canada and to any Acts of the Parliament of Canada in the exercise of such jurisdiction, in case a mill-dam is legally erected on any stream, down which lumber is usually brought, or in which salmon or pickerel abound, the owner or occupier of the dam shall construct and maintain a good and sufficient apron thereto, not less than eighteen feet wide by an inclined plane of twenty-four feet eight inches to a perpendicular of six feet, and so in proportion to the height where the width of the stream will admit of it; and in case the stream or dam is less than fifteen feet wide, the whole dam shall be aproned in like manner with the same inclined plane; and every owner or occupant who neglects to construct or maintain such apron, shall for every offence, forfeit and pay yearly the sum of $100; one moiety thereof to Her Majesty for the public uses of the Province, and the other moiety to any person who may sue for the same in any Court of Record. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 3.

Penalty and its appropriation.

Apron or slide to admit passing of logs, etc.

4. Every owner or occupier of a mill-dam at which an apron or slide is required to be constructed as aforesaid shall, if necessary, alter, or if not already built, shall construct such apron or slide so as to afford depth of water sufficient to admit of the passage over such apron or slide of such saw-logs, lumber and timber as are usually floated down the streams or rivers whereon such dams are erected; but an owner or occupier of any such dam may construct a waste-gate or put up brackets and slash-boards in, upon and across the apron, for the purposes of preventing unnecessary waste of water therefrom, and may keep the same closed when no person is ready and requires to pass or float any craft, lumber or saw-logs over such apron or slide. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 4.

Waste-gates, slash-boards.

Owners not obliged to remove brackets until rafts, etc., ready to pass.

5. The owner or occupier of such dam shall not be bound to remove the brackets or slash-boards across the apron thereof until the raft, craft, lumber or saw-logs, required to be passed, are ready to pass and have for that purpose gained the main channel of the stream. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 5.

When aprons and slides mentioned in ss. 3 and 4, not required in small streams.

6. No person shall be required to build such aprons or slides as are mentioned in sections 3 and 4, on small streams, unless required for the purpose of rafting or floating down lumber and saw-logs as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 6.

PENALTIES.

Penalty on owner of dam refusing to comply with the requirements of this Act.

How enforced.

7. Every owner or occupier of any dam mentioned in section 4 of this Act who (if not already made and constructed) neglects or refuses to make and construct and keep in repair an apron of the description therein mentioned shall pay a penalty of $2 per day for every day of such neglect, and such penalty shall be recoverable before any two Justices of the Peace for the county in which the offence has been committed, on the oath of two credible witnesses, and if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by a warrant under the hand and seal of the Justices, or one of them, and shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipal corporation having jurisdiction in the locality where the dam is erected, for the general uses of the municipality. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 7.

MILL DAMS IN SPECIFIED CASES.

1. In the County of Huron.

8. Subject to any jurisdiction of the Dominion of Canada in this behalf, and to any Acts of the Parliament of Canada in the exercise of such jurisdiction, the owner or occupier of every dam or weir erected on any river or stream in any of the townships of Williams, McGillivray, Stephen, Hay, Stanley, Goderich, Colborne, Hullet, McKillop, Tuckersmith, Hibbert, Logan, Fullarton, Usborne, Biddulph, Blanchard, Downie including the Gore of Ellice, North Easthope, and South Easthope, or any other tracts of land which on the 29th day of March, 1845, constituted the then District of Huron, shall, if the same has not been already done, construct and maintain, and, if constructed, shall maintain and keep in repair, a good and sufficient apron to such dam or weir, at least twenty-eight feet wide, if the dam or weir is of greater width, and if not, then of the same width as the dam or weir, and at least eight feet in length for every foot rise of such dam or weir, under a penalty of $1 for each day during which the requirements of this section are not complied with; and such penalty shall be recoverable before any two Justices of the Peace for the county in which the offence has been committed, on the oath of one credible witness; and if not paid, may be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand and seal of such Justices or either of them; one moiety of which penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, for the public uses of the Province, and the other moiety to the prosecutor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 8.

Dams and Weirs in the County of Huron.

2. On the River Moira.

9. Subject as aforesaid, the owner or occupier of any dam on the River Moira or its tributaries, in the county of Hastings, on which lumber is floated to market, shall construct and maintain, and if constructed, shall maintain and keep in repair a good and sufficient apron to such dam, at least thirty-two feet in width, if the dam is of that or of greater width, and if not, then of the width of the dam, and at least five feet in length for every foot rise of such dam; and the height of the dam at the place where the apron is constructed, shall be at least two feet lower than the top of the said dam at any other place (unless it occupies the whole width thereof as aforesaid); but if the rise of the dam is less than four feet, the height of the dam at the place where the apron is constructed shall not exceed one-half its height at any other place. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 9.

On the river
Moira.

10. Every such apron shall be constructed on the main channel of the stream, and its highest part shall be one foot below the level of the dam at the place where it joins the same. Penalty for contravention.

under a penalty of twenty-five cents for each day the requirement of this and the next preceding section are not complied with. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 10.

How recovered and enforced.

11. The said penalty, on the complaint of any person engaged in the lumber trade upon the said river or any tributary thereof, may be recovered before any two Justices of the Peace for the county in which the offence has been committed, upon the oath of one credible witness other than the informer, one half of which penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, for the public uses of the Province, and the other moiety to the prosecutor; and if upon conviction such penalty be not forthwith paid, it shall, by warrant under the hand and seal of such Justices, or of one of them, be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 11.

Owner not obliged to alter the apron
if constructed before 23rd March, 1848, until renewed.

12. Section 9 of this Act shall not oblige the owner or occupier of any dam on the River Moira to alter the apron thereof, if constructed before the 23rd day of March, 1848, until the renewal of such apron. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 12.

3. On the River Otonabee.

Special provisions with regard to the river Otona-bee.

13. No apron to any mill-dam on the River Otonabee shall be less than thirty-two feet wide by an inclined plane of five feet to a perpendicular of one foot, and so in proportion to the height of the dam; and side pieces of at least one foot in height shall be fixed on the outside of every such apron, to confine the water and prevent the timber from falling off at the sides. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 13.

PENALTIES SUSPENDED WHEN DAMS INJURED BY FLOODS.

If aprons injured by floods, etc., penalties suspended for a reasonable time.

14. In case an apron is carried away, destroyed or damaged by flood or otherwise, the owner or occupier of the dam to which the same was attached shall not be liable to such penalty as aforesaid if the apron is repaired or reconstructed in conformity with this Act, as soon as the state of the stream safely permits. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 14.

NO DAMAGES TO BE GIVEN FOR MILL DAMS OVERFLOWING ADJACENT LANDS IN CERTAIN CASES.

When grantee of Crown not to recover damages for overflow of his lands.

15. In case, in an action brought against the proprietor or occupier of a mill, for the overflowing of or injury to land, caused by the erection or continuation of a dam for the purposes of the mill, it appears that the overflowing or other injury was caused by the erection or continuation of a dam which was built before the purchase of the land, by the grantee of the Crown and before the grant thereof to him, and that the purchaser obtained a reduction in the price of the land, or was otherwise indemnified in consequence of its being so overflowed or otherwise injured, then on the trial of the action such facts may be taken into consideration, and, if it appears just and equitable, a verdict may in consequence thereof, be found for the defendant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 15.

16. In such action the defendant may plead not guilty by statute, and may thereupon avail himself of the matters of defence herein given. R. S. O. 1877, c. 113, s. 16.

Defendant may plead not guilty, etc.

An Act respecting Water Privileges.

RIGHT OF ENTRY UPON LANDS TO IMPROVE WATER OR MILL PRIVILEGES, s. 1.
OCCUPIED MILL PRIVILEGE, WATER POWER AND MILL LAWFULLY EXISTING, DEFINED, s. 2.
CASE OF MILL PRIVILEGE NOT IN ACTUAL USE, s. 3.
APPLICATION TO COUNTY JUDGE TO OBTAIN POWERS UNDER THIS ACT, ss., 4-10.

REGISTRATION OF JUDGE'S ORDER, s. 11.
POWERS OF JUDGE, ss. 12-14.
APPEALS FROM JUDGE'S ORDER, ss. 15-18.
MISCELLANEOUS, ss. 19-22.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. Any person desiring to use or improve any water privilege, of which, or a part of which he is at such time the owner or legal occupant, for any mechanical, manufacturing, milling or hydraulic purposes, by erecting a dam and creating a pond of water, increasing the head of water in any existing pond, or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond or lake into any other channel or channels, constructing any raceway, or other erection or work which he may require in connection with the improvement and use of the said privilege, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing or maintaining any such dam, raceway, erection, or work, or any part thereof, shall have the right to enter upon any lands which he may deem necessary to be examined, and to make an examination and survey of the same, doing no unnecessary damage in performing such work, and paying the actual damage done, if any; and if, upon an application to the County Judge as hereinafter provided, he obtains authority, he shall be at liberty to take, acquire, hold and use such portions of the said lands so examined as he may deem expedient for the completion, improvement or maintenance of the water privilege and works in connection with the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 1.

Right of persons to enter and acquire lands for improving water privileges.

Meaning of occupied mill privilege, etc.

2. An occupied mill privilege or water power or mill lawfully existing within the meaning of this Act, shall mean a mill privilege, water power, or mill which has been or is in use for mechanical, manufacturing, milling or hydraulic purposes, or for the use of which for any of such purposes the necessary works are bona fide in course of construction. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 2.

Evidence on application to Judge against owner of privilege not in actual use, as to user and intent.

3.—(1) The owners of any privilege, water power or mill having been, but not being, in actual use for such purposes, at the time of an application to the County Judge under this Act, and claiming to be the owners of an occupied mill privilege or water power, or mill lawfully existing, shall upon the application of any person who desires to obtain and exercise the powers mentioned in this Act, produce before the County Judge, satisfactory evidence that the same is held bona fide as such privilege, water power or mill, and is intended to be used again for mechanical, manufacturing, milling or hydraulic purposes; but in the event of such evidence not being produced or not being satisfactory, such original privilege, water power or mill shall not be deemed to be an occupied mill privilege, water power, or mill lawfully existing within the meaning of this Act.

(2) The County Judge in the event of finding that the same is so held bona fide, may fix and limit a time within which the necessary works or the actual use of the privilege, water power or mill, for the purposes for which the same are claimed shall be constructed, and the privilege, water power or mill actually used. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 3.

Proceedings for obtaining the powers given by this Act

4. Any person who desires to obtain or exercise the powers hereinbefore mentioned, or any of them, shall proceed as follows :—

Firstly.—He shall cause surveys and levels to be taken and made of the lands sought to be taken or acquired, held, used or otherwise affected, together with a map or plan thereof :

Secondly.—He shall cause to be prepared a statement giving,

1. A general description of the said lands ;
2. The names of the owners and occupiers thereof, so far as they can be ascertained ; and
3. Everything necessary for the right understanding of the map or plan, including a Registrar's certified abstract of the titles to all the lands, to be affected by the application :

Thirdly.—He shall cause to be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of the county wherein the lands or any part thereof are situate the said map or plan and the said statement, and shall then apply to the Judge of the County Court for an order to empower him to exercise the said powers or such of them as he may desire. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 4.

5. In addition to any other notice which the Judge directs to be given upon an application under this Act, public notice of the application stating the time when the same is to be heard, shall be inserted in a newspaper published in the county or one of the counties where the proposed works are to be erected, or any of the lands affected are situate, for such period as the Judge may direct. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 5. Public notice of application.

6. The practice upon and in reference to the application shall be the same as if the application were for an order for the partition of real estate under the provisions of any of the Acts in reference to such partition. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 6. Practice to be the same as in partition of real estate. See Rev. Stat. c. 104.

7. If the Judge is of opinion that the allowance of the application will conduce to the public good and is proper and just under all the circumstances of the case, he shall make an order describing the lands affected thereby and empowering such person to exercise the said powers or such of them as he may deem expedient, for such time and on such terms and conditions as he may determine. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 7. If the application is for the public good, Judge to grant an order.

8. In and by the order the Judge shall state the height to which the dam may be built, and he shall assess the sum to be paid as the value of the land to be taken or used, and of the damages, if any, which ought to be paid as compensation by such person for any injury thereby done, and shall make such order as to costs as to him seems just, and such costs shall be the same as in ordinary proceedings in the County Court, and shall be taxed by the clerk thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 8. Nature of the Judge's order.

9. The money, or sum assessed, together with the costs awarded, if any, shall be paid to the person entitled thereto, according to the award, or paid into the High Court as the Judge may direct, before the powers aforesaid, or any of them are exercised, and within sixty days after the said award is made; and if the same are not so paid within the said time, the order may be proceeded upon as if it had been made in any action or cause, in the County Court, or in the High Court; or the order may, at the option of the parties entitled to receive the sums awarded, or of any of them, be set aside and vacated. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 9. Payment of amount awarded. Setting aside order.

10. Upon the payment of the sum awarded and costs, if any, as aforesaid, the person obtaining the order shall be en- Conveyance of the lands.

titled to a conveyance of the lands or the rights (as the case may be,) mentioned in the order; and in case of dispute, the conveyance shall be settled by the Judge, and such person shall be further entitled to have and exercise such of the privileges mentioned in section 1 of this Act as he is authorized in and by the order to exercise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 10.

Registration of Judge's order.

11. The order of the Judge may, upon the mere production thereof, be entered and registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the lands or any of them are situate; and shall operate and may be pleaded as an effectual bar to any action, or proceeding brought in any Court in this Province in respect of the said lands or any part thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 11.

Effect of order.

Attendance of witnesses.

12. The Judge shall have the same and like powers as to compelling the attendance and examination of witnesses, the production of documents and otherwise as are possessed by him, or by any County Court, in any cause, action, matter or other proceeding carried on or pending in the County Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 12.

Judge's fees.

13. The Judge shall be entitled for his services to have and receive to his own use the like fees as are allowed to professional arbitrators. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 13.

The case of two claiming the powers under this Act.

14. In case two or more persons claim to exercise the powers conferred by this Act, in respect of the same water privilege or any part thereof, the County Judge may impose such terms as he may deem just, and limit a time within which the person whose application he allows shall construct the necessary works, and actually use such water privilege. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 14.

Appeal.

15. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, there shall be an appeal from the final order or judgment of the County Judge on any application under this Act, to the Court of Appeal, or to one of the Judges of the said Court; but an appeal to a single Judge may in his discretion be referred (on a special case to be settled) to the Court, and on such terms in the mean time as he may think necessary and fit; the decision of the Judge upon a question of fact or other question shall be open to revision by the Court or Judge to which the appeal is had. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 15.

Leave to appeal and practice.

16. The appeal shall not be permitted without leave of one of the Judges of the said Court, and the application for leave shall be made within ten days from the day on which the order or judgment appealed from is made or rendered; and the Judge to whom the application is made shall determine the time within which the appeal, if permitted, shall be set down to be heard, the security to be given by the appellants and the persons upon whom notice of the appeal shall be served and all such other matters as he may deem necessary for the most speedy and least expensive determination of the matter of the appeal. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 16.

17. If the appeal is not set down to be heard within the time limited for that purpose, or if the other conditions imposed are not complied with, the appeal shall be deemed to have been abandoned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 17.

Non-compliance with conditions of appeal an abandonment.

18. The costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the Court or Judge to which the appeal is had: and the practice and proceedings upon the appeal shall, except so far as is herein or may be by the Judge to whom the application for leave is made, otherwise provided, be similar to the practice and proceedings upon appeals from County Courts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 18.

Costs and practice on appeal.

19. No pond created or partly created under the authority of this Act shall exceed in extent twenty acres, unless the Judge of the County Court having jurisdiction, as hereinafter mentioned, by an order to be made by him orders and directs otherwise; and in and by the order the Judge shall fix the extent of the pond. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 19.

Ponds created not to exceed twenty acres, unless ordered of County Judge.

20. No occupied mill privilege or water power shall be in any manner interfered with or encroached upon under the authority of this Act without the consent of the owner thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 20.

Occupied mill privilege not to be interfered with.

21. No such dam may be erected, or other powers exercised to the injury of any mill lawfully existing, either above or below it on the stream, nor shall the privilege of the owner be affected by the erection thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 21.

Existing mill not to be injured.

22. This Act shall not authorize the navigation of any stream or river to be interfered with, and shall not authorize any stream of water to be so obstructed by the construction of such works as aforesaid as to prevent timber or logs floating down the stream during high water. R. S. O. 1877, c. 114, s. 22.

Obstructing navigation and the floating of timber.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario,
enacts as follows:—

All persons entitled to use rivers for floating down timber and saw-logs

1. All persons shall, subject to the provisions in this Act contained, have, and are hereby declared always to have had, during the spring, summer and autumn freshets, the right to, and may float and transmit saw-logs and all other timber of every kind, and all rafts and crafts, down all rivers, creeks and streams; and no person shall by felling trees or placing any other obstruction in or across any such river, creek or stream, prevent the passage thereof; and in case it may be necessary to remove any obstruction from such river, creek or stream, or construct any apron, dam, slide, gate-lock, boom, or other work therein or thereon, necessary to facilitate the floating and transmitting such saw-logs and other timber, rafts or crafts, down the same, then it shall be lawful for the person requiring so to float and transmit such saw-logs and other timber, rafts and crafts, and it is hereby declared always to have been lawful to remove such obstruction, and to construct such apron, dam, slide, gate-lock, boom or other work necessary for the purposes aforesaid, doing no unnecessary damage to the said river, creek or stream, or to the banks thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 1; 47 V. c. 17, s. 1.

2. In case there is a convenient apron, slide, gate, lock, or opening in any such dam or other structure made for the passage of saw logs and other timber, rafts and crafts authorized to be floated down such stream as aforesaid, no person using any such stream in manner and for the purposes aforesaid, shall alter, injure or destroy any such dam or other useful erection in or upon the bed of or across the stream, or do any unnecessary damage thereto or on the banks thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 2.

Persons using streams not to injure dams, etc.

3. Except in the case of round or squared timber, or of trees masts, staves, deals, boards or other sawed or manufactured lumber or saw-logs, prepared for transportation to a market, every person and every employer of such person, who cuts and fells any trees into the Grand River, the River Thames, River Nith, River Speed, Otter Creek, the River Credit, the River Otonabee from Sturgeon Lake to Rice Lake, the River Scugog, the River Trent from Rice Lake to the Bay of Quinte, Crow River, the Rivers Gananoque, Rideau, Petite Nation, Tay, Mississippi, Bonnechere, Madawaska and Goodwood in Ontario, or upon such parts of the banks thereof as are usually overflowed in the autumn or spring of the year by the rising of the water of the said rivers or creek, and who does not lop off the branches of such trees and cut up the trunks thereof into lengths of not more than eighteen feet, before they are allowed to be floated or cast into the said rivers or streams shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding ten dollars. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 3.

Conditions or which timber may be cut on the banks of certain rivers and floated thereon

4. Subject to any jurisdiction of the Dominion of Canada in this behalf and to any Acts passed in the exercise of such jurisdiction—in case a person throws, or in case an owner or occupier of a mill suffers or permits to be thrown, into any river, rivulet or water-course, excepting those hereinafter mentioned, slabs, bark, waste stuff or other refuse of any saw-mill (except saw-dust), or stumps, roots, shrubs, tan-bark or waste wood, or leached ashes; or in case a person fells, or causes to be felled, in or across such river, rivulet or water-course, timber or growing or standing trees, and allows the same to remain in or across such river, rivulet or water-course, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20 and not less than twenty cents for each day during which the obstruction remains in, over, or across such river, rivulet or water-course, over and above all damages arising therefrom. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 4.

Penalty on persons obstructing rivers and rivulets.

5. This Act shall not apply to a dam, weir or bridge erected in or over such river, rivulet or water-course, or to any thing done bona fide in or for erecting the same, or to any tree cut down or felled across such river, rivulet or water-course, for the purpose of being used as a bridge from one side thereof to the other; provided such tree does not impede the flow of water or the passing of rafts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 5.

Exception as to certain rivers.

6. This Act shall not extend to the River St. Lawrence, nor to the River Ottawa, nor to any river, or rivulet wherein salmon, pickerel, black bass or perch, do not abound. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 6.

As to obstructions not wilful.

7. No such obstruction happening without the wilful default of any party, or in the bona fide exercise of his rights, shall subject him to any fine or forfeiture unless upon default to remove the obstruction after notice and reasonable time afforded for that purpose. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 7.

be recovered.

Rev.Stat.c.74.

8. All fines, penalties, forfeitures and damages under this Act, when not together exceeding $20, may respectively, upon the oath of one credible witness, be recovered with costs, in a summary way in the manner provided by The Act respecting Summary Convictions before Justices of the Peace and Appeals to General Sessions, before any one or more of the Justices of the Peace for the county in which the offence has been committed, and unless the conviction is appealed from, if the fine or penalty and damages (as the case may be), together with the costs, are not paid at the time stated in the conviction, the convicting Justice or Justices, or one of them, when more than one, shall issue his or their warrant of distress to levy the same out of the goods and chattels of the offender; and in case there are not sufficient goods and chattels found to satisfy the same, and in case the offender does not otherwise satisfy the amount within three days after conviction, then such Justice or Justices (as the case may be) shall by warrant under hand and seal commit the offender to the common gaol of the county in which he has been convicted, for the term of ten days in case the conviction is under section 3 of this Act, or thirty days in case the conviction is under section 4 of this Act, unless the fine, penalty or forfeiture and damages (as the case may be), and costs are sooner paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 8.

Appropriation of penalties.

9. Of pecuniary penalties levied under this Act, one-third shall go to the informer, and the other two-thirds shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipality in which the offence was committed, and shall be expended in improving the public highways therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 9.

Assessed damages how to be applied.

10. In cases of damages to private property arising out of a violation of this Act, such damages may, at the request of the party aggrieved, be assessed by the convicting Justice or Justices, and included in the conviction, when such damages, together with the fine or penalty imposed, do not together exceed $20; and in case damages are assessed the same shall be paid to the party aggrieved, except in cases where he has been examined in proof of the offence, in which case the same shall be applied to the improvement of the public highways in the municipality as above provided. R. S. O. 1877, c. 115, s. 10.

11. In case any person shall construct in or upon such river, creek or stream, any apron, dam, slide, gate, lock, boom or other work necessary to facilitate the floating or transmission of saw-logs or other timber, rafts or crafts down such river, creek or stream, which was not navigable or floatable before the improvements were made, or shall blast rocks or remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the floatability of the river, creek or stream, such person shall not have the exclusive right to the use of the river, creek, or stream, or to the constructions and improvements; but all persons shall have during the spring, summer and autumn freshets, the right to float and transmit saw-logs and other timber, rafts and crafts, down such rivers, creeks or streams, and through and over the constructions and improvements, doing no unnecessary damage to the constructions and improvements, or to the banks of the said rivers, creeks or streams, subject to the payment to the person who has made the constructions and improvements, of reasonable tolls. 47 V. c. 17, s. 2.

Right to use river on which improvements have been made for the purpose of floating down timber.

12. Sections 1 and 11 of this Act and all the rights therein given, and all the provisions therein made and contained, shall extend and apply to all rivers, creeks and streams mentioned in section 1 of this Act, and to all constructions and improvements made therein or thereon, whether the bed of the river, creek or stream, or the land through which the same runs, has been granted by the Crown or not, and if granted by the Crown shall be binding upon the grantees, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns. 47 V. c. 17, s. 3.

Secs. 1 and 11 to apply whether land patented or not.

13. The Judge of the County Court of the county or Stipendiary Magistrate of the judicial district, as the case may be, in which the constructions and improvements are situated shall, upon application of the owner thereof, or of any person who may desire to use the same, fix the amounts which any person entitled to tolls under this Act shall be at liberty to charge, and may from time to time vary such amounts; and the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate in fixing the tolls shall have regard to and take into consideration the original cost of the construction and improvements, the amount required to maintain the same and to cover interest upon the original cost, as well as such other matters as under all the circumstances may seem just and equitable. 47 V. c. 17, s. 4.

Judge or County Court or stipendiary magistrate may fix tolls.

14. The Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate shall have the same and like powers as to compelling the attendance and examination of witnesses, the production of documents and otherwise, as are possessed by him, or by a County Court, in any cause, action, matter, or other proceeding, carried on or pending in a County Court. 47 V. c. 17, s. 5.

Compelling attendance of witnesses.

Appeal.

15. In case a party interested is dissatisfied with the order or judgment of the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate, he may within fifteen days from the date thereof appeal from the order or judgment to a Judge of the Court of Appeal, and the Judge to whom the appeal is made shall determine the time within which the appeal shall be set down to be heard, the security to be given by the appellant, and the persons upon whom notice of the appeal shall be served, the manner of service, and all such other matters as he may deem necessary for the most speedy and least expensive determination of the matter of the appeal. 47 V. c. 17, s. 6.

When appeal to be deemed abandoned.

16. If the appeal is not set down to be heard within the time limited for that purpose, or if the other conditions imposed are not complied with, the appeal shall be deemed to have been abandoned. 47 V. c. 17, s. 7.

Costs of appeal and practice and procedure.

17. The costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the Judge to whom the appeal is had; and the practice and proceedings upon the appeal shall, except so far as may be by the Judge to whom the appeal is made otherwise provided, be similar to the practice and proceedings upon appeals from County Courts. 47 V. c. 17, s. 8.

Provisions of Act to apply to all constructions now or hereafter made.

18. The foregoing provisions of this Act shall apply to all such constructions and improvements as may hitherto have been made, as well as to such as may be in course of construction, or shall hereafter be constructed. 47 V. c. 17, s. 9.

Persons making improvements to have lien for tolls.

19. Every person entitled to tolls under this Act shall have a lien upon the saw-logs or other timber passing through or over such constructions or improvements for the amount of the tolls, such lien to rank next after the lien (if any) which the Crown has for dues in respect to such logs or timber, and if the tolls are not paid, any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction within or adjoining the locality in which the constructions or improvements are, shall, upon the oath of the owner of the constructions or improvements, or upon the oath of his agent, that the just tolls have not been paid, issue a warrant for the seizure of such logs or timber, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy the tolls, which warrant shall be directed to any constable, or any person sworn in as a special constable for that purpose, at the discretion of the magistrate, and shall authorize the person to whom it is directed, if the tolls are not paid within fourteen days from the date thereof, to sell subject to the lien of the Crown (if any), for dues, the said logs or timber, and out of the proceeds to pay such tolls, together with the cost of the warrant and sale, rendering the surplus on demand to the owner: Provided always, that the authority to issue such warrant by such Justice of the Peace shall not exist after the expiration of one month from the time of the passage of the logs or timber through or over any of such constructions or improvements. 47 V. c. 17, s. 10.

F proviso.

20. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as interfering with the powers or rights of any company formed under The Act respecting Joint Stock Companies for the construction of works to facilitate the transmission of Timber down Rivers and Streams, or with mill-dams, or the right to erect and maintain mill-dams on streams; and The Act respecting Mills and Mill-dams and any other law conferring rights in mill-dams shall remain the same as if this Act had not been passed. 47 V. c. 17, s. 11.

Rights of companies formed under Rev. Stat. c. 160, not affected.

Rev. Stat. c. 118.

21. All persons driving saw-logs or other timber, rafts or crafts, down any such river, creek or stream shall have the right to go along the banks of such river, creek or stream, and to assist the passage of the timber over the same by all means usual amongst lumbermen, doing no unnecessary damage to the banks of the river, creek or stream. 47 V. c. 17, s. 12.

All persons driving logs etc., to have the right to go on river banks.

22. Every person entitled to tolls under this Act may make rules and regulations for the purpose of regulating the safe and orderly transmission of saw-logs, timber, rafts and crafts over or through such constructions or improvements; but no such rules or regulations shall have any force or effect until approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor, in Council, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may revoke and cancel such rules and regulations so made and approved, and from time to time approve of new rules and regulations which the person so entitled to tolls as aforesaid, shall have the power to make. 47 V. c. 17, s. 13.

Person entitled to tolls may make rules regulating transmission of timber.

23.—(1) Where in any action or other proceeding, any person shall claim, and but for this section would be entitled to, an injunction against the owner or occupier of any saw mill situate on or near the Ottawa River or any of its tributaries, for any injury or damage, direct or consequential, sustained by such person, or for any interference directly or indirectly with any rights of such person as riparian proprietor or otherwise, by reason or in consequence of the throwing or depositing of any sawdust or other mill refuse into the said river or its tributaries from the mill, or from such mill together with other mills, the Court or Judge may refuse to grant an injunction in the action or other proceeding, in case it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge by the person against whom the injunction is claimed that having regard to all the circumstances, it is on the whole, proper and expedient not to grant the same, and for that purpose shall take into consideration the importance of the lumber trade to the locality wherein the injury, damage or interference takes place, and the benefit and advantage, direct and consequential, which such trade confers on the locality and on the inhabitants thereof, and shall weigh the same against the private injury, damage or interference complained of ;

Right to injunction against owners of mills on the Ottawa restricted.

(2) Or the Court or Judge may grant an injunction to take effect after such lapse of time or upon such terms and conditions or subject to such limitations or restrictions as to the Court or Judge may seem proper ;

(3) Or may in lieu of granting an injunction direct the person against whom the injunction is claimed to take such measures or perform such acts to prevent, avoid, lessen or diminish the injury, damage or interference complained of, as to the Court or Judge may seem proper ;

(4) Provided always that in such action or other proceeding the person claiming the injunction shall nevertheless be entitled to damages against the owner or occupier of the saw mill for any such injury, damage or interference. 48 V. c. 24, s. 1.

(5) In cases where damage from the same cause continues, the party may apply from time to time, in the same action, for the assessment of subsequent damages, or any other relief to which by subsequent events he may from time to time become entitled. 49 V. c. 16, s. 48.

Application of preceding section.

24. The preceding section of this Act shall apply whether the said injury, damage or interference is a continuing one or not, and whether the person claiming any such injunction is plaintiff in the said action or other proceeding, or is a defendant therein proceeding by way of counter-claim ; but the said section shall not apply where in the opinion of the Court or Judge the injury, damage or interference complained of is of such a nature that the same cannot be adequately compensated for by the awarding of damages. 48 V. c. 24, s. 2.

and 11, s. 12.	29.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited and known as "The Saw Logs Driving Act." 50 V. c. 17, s. 29.

2. Where the words following occur in this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:—

1. "Logs" mean and include saw logs, timber, posts, ties, cordwood, and other things being parts of trees.

2. "Water" means and includes lakes, ponds, rivers, creeks and streams. 50 V. c. 17, s. 1.

3. Any person putting, or causing to be put, into any water in this Province, logs, for the purpose of floating the same in, upon or down such water, shall make adequate provisions and put on a sufficient force of men to break, and shall make all reasonable endeavours to break jams of such logs and clear the same from the banks and shores of such water with reasonable despatch, and run and drive the same so as not to unnecessarily delay or hinder the removal, floating, running or driving of other logs, or unnecessarily obstruct the floating or navigation of such water. 50 V. c. 17, s. 2.

Persons floating logs in river, etc., not to obstruct floating or navigation.

In case of neglect person obstructed may clear river, etc.

4. In case of the neglect of any person to comply with the provisions of the preceding section, it shall be lawful for any other person or persons desiring to float, run or drive logs in, upon or down such water, and whose logs would be thereby obstructed, to cause such jams to be broken and such logs to be cleared from the banks and shores of such water, and to be floated, run and driven in, upon and down such water. 50 V. c. 17, s. 3.

Person clearing obstruction to use due care.

5. The person or persons causing such jams to be broken or such logs to be cleared, floated, run or driven, pursuant to the last preceding section, shall do the same with reasonable economy and despatch, and shall take reasonable care not to leave logs on the banks or shores, and shall have a lien upon the logs in the jam or so cleared, floated, run or driven for the reasonable charges and expenses of breaking the jams and the clearing, floating, running, driving, booming and keeping possession of such logs, and may take and keep possession of such logs, or so much thereof as may be reasonably necessary to satisfy the amount of such charges and expenses pending the decision by arbitration as hereinafter provided for. The person taking possession of logs under this section shall use all reasonable care not to take such logs beyond the place of their original destination, if known, but may securely boom and keep possession of the same at or above such place. The owner or person controlling such logs, if known shall be forthwith notified of their whereabouts, and if satisfactory security be given for the amount of such charges and expenses, possession of the logs shall be given up. 50 V. c. 17, s. 4.

Provision when logs of several owners cannot conveniently be separated.

6. When logs of any person upon or in any water in this Province, or the banks or shores of such water, are so intermixed with logs of another person or persons, that the same cannot be conveniently separated for the purpose of being floated in, upon or down such water, then the several persons owning or controlling the intermixed logs, shall respectively make adequate provisions, and put on a fair proportion of the men required to break jams of such intermixed logs, and to clear the same from the banks and shores of such water with reasonable despatch, and to float, run and drive the same in, upon and down such water, and the costs and expenses thereof shall be borne by the parties in such proportions as they may agree upon, and in default of agreement as may be determined by arbitration as hereinafter provided for. 50 V. c. 17, s. 5.

Provision when owner of any portion of logs is in default.

7. In case of neglect of any person to comply with the provisions of the last preceding section, it shall be lawful for any other person or persons whose logs are intermixed, to put on a sufficient number of men to supply the deficiency and break jams of such intermixed logs, and to clear the same from the banks and shores of such water, and to float, run and drive all such intermixed logs in, upon and down such water. 50 V. c. 17, s. 6.

8. The person or persons supplying such deficiency and causing such jams to be broken, or such intermixed logs to be cleared, floated, run or driven, pursuant to the last preceding section, shall do the same with reasonable economy and despatch, and shall take reasonable care not to leave logs on the banks or shores, and shall have a lien upon the logs owned or controlled by the person guilty of such neglect, for a fair proportion of the charges and expenses of breaking the jams, and the clearing, floating, running, driving, booming and keeping possession of such intermixed logs; and may take and keep possession of such logs, or so much thereof, as may be reasonably necessary to satisfy the amount of such fair proportion of charges and expenses pending the decision by arbitration, as hereinafter provided for. The person taking possession of logs under this section shall use all reasonable care not to take such logs beyond the place of their original destination, if known, but may securely boom and keep possession of the same at or above such place. The owner or person controlling such logs, if known, shall be forthwith notified of their whereabouts, and if satisfactory security be given for the amount of such proportion of charges and expenses, possession of the logs shall be given up. 50 V. c. 17, s. 7. Lien on logs.

9. When logs of any person, upon or in any water in this Province, or the banks or shores of such water, are intermixed with logs of another person or persons, then any of the persons whose logs are intermixed, may at any time during the drive, require his logs to be separated from the other logs at some suitable and convenient place, and after such separation he shall secure the same at his own cost and expense, in such manner as to allow free passage for such other logs; provided that when any logs so intermixed reach their place of original destination, if known, the same shall be separated from the other logs and after such separation the owner shall secure the same at his own cost and expense. 50 V. c. 17, s. 8. Separation of logs.
Proviso.

10. The several persons owning or controlling the intermixed logs shall respectively make adequate provisions and put on a fair proportion of the men required to make the separation; the cost and expense of such separation shall be borne by the parties in such proportions as they may agree upon, and in default of agreement, as may be determined by arbitration as hereinafter provided. 50 V. c. 17, s. 9. Expenses of separation to be shared.

on a sufficient number of men to supply the deficiency, and the logs owned by or controlled by the person guilty of such neglect shall be subject to a lien in favour of the person or persons supplying the deficiency, for a fair proportion of the charges and expenses of making the separation, and for the reasonable charges and expenses of booming and keeping possession, and such person or persons may take and keep possession of such logs or so much thereof as may be reasonably necessary to satisfy the amount of such fair proportion of charges and expenses pending the decision by arbitration, as hereinafter provided for. The person taking possession of logs under this section shall use all reasonable care not to take such logs beyond the place of their original destination, if known, but may securely boom and keep possession of the same at or above such place. The owner or person controlling such logs, if known, shall be forthwith notified of their whereabouts and if satisfactory security be given for the amount of such proportion of charges and expenses, possession of the logs shall be given up. 50 V. c. 17, s. 10.

Form of security.

12. The security referred to in sections 5, 8 and 11 may be by bond in form A in the schedule hereto, or by deposit of money, or in such other way as the parties may agree upon. 50 V. c. 17, s. 11.

Damages
when person has wrongfully detained logs or refused security.

13. If it be determined by arbitration, as hereinafter provided for, that any person acting under the assumed authority of this Act, has without just cause taken possession of or detained or caused to be taken possession of or detained logs of another person, or has after offer of security which the arbitrators may think should have been accepted, detained such logs, or has through want of reasonable care left logs of another person on the banks or shores or has taken logs of another person beyond the place of their original destination contrary to the provisions of sections 5, 8 or 11, then such first mentioned person shall pay to such last mentioned person such damages as the arbitrators may determine. 50 V. c. 17, s. 12.

Lien under ss.
5, 8 and 11,
subject to lien
for tolls.

14. The lien given by sections 5, 8 and 11 of this Act shall be subject to the lien (if any) of any person or corporation for tolls or dues, for the use of any works or improvements made use of in running or driving logs. 50 V. c. 17, s. 13.

Rights of Crown not affected.

15. Nothing in this Act shall affect the liens or rights of the Crown upon or in respect of any logs. 50 V. c. 17, s. 14.

Disputes to be settled by arbitration.

16. All claims, disputes and differences arising under this Act shall be determined by arbitration as hereinafter provided and not by action. 50 V. c. 17, s. 15.

17. The person claiming that another person has not complied with the provisions of this Act, or claiming payment of any charges or expenses under this Act, or claiming a lien upon any logs, or claiming damages under section 13, shall give to such other person notice in writing, stating the substance of the claims made, and appointing an arbitrator, and calling upon such other person to appoint an arbitrator within ten days after the service of the notice; if such other person does not within the ten days appoint an arbitrator the Judge of the County or District Court of the county or district, or the Stipendiary Magistrate of the provisional county or the district, as the case may be, in which the logs in connection with which the claim or part of the claim is made, or the major portion of the logs are situate at the time of the service of the notice, shall, on the application of the person giving the notice, appoint a second arbitrator; the two arbitrators so appointed shall within ten days after the appointment of the second arbitrator appoint a third; if the two arbitrators do not within the ten days appoint a third, the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate shall, on the application of either party, appoint the third arbitrator. 50 V. c. 17, s. 16.

18. If an arbitrator refuses to act or becomes incapable of acting, or dies, and the parties do not concur in appointing a new arbitrator, the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate shall, on the application of either party, appoint a new arbitrator. 50 V. c. 17, s. 17.

19. The parties may agree that the arbitration shall be by one arbitrator instead of by three, and they may either agree upon the arbitrator or may apply to the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate to appoint one. 50 V. c. 17, s. 18.

20. The person on whom a claim is made and notice of arbitration served may at any time before the arbitration is entered upon or with leave of the arbitrators during the arbitration, give the claimant notice in writing by way of counterclaim, stating the substance of any claim arising under this Act which such person may have against the claimant, and such counterclaim, unless barred under section 27, shall be determined in the arbitration and an award made with respect thereto. 50 V. c. 17, s. 19.

21. The three arbitrators or the sole arbitrator, as the case may be, shall proceed with the arbitration with due despatch, and shall make their or his award in writing, under their or his hand within thirty days from the date of the appointment of such arbitrator, or the last of such three arbitrators, as the case may be. The parties may, by consent in writing, from time to time enlarge the time for making the award, or the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate may from time to time, either before or after the expiration of the said time, enlarge the time for making the award. 50 V. c. 17, s. 20.

Witnesses and evidence.

22. The arbitrators or arbitrator may require the personal attendance and examination upon oath of the parties and their witnesses and the production of all books and documents relating to the matters in question, and may determine by whom the expense of the arbitration, and the costs of the parties shall be paid, and the amount thereof; any costs or expenses payable to a person having a lien upon logs, by virtue of this Act shall be added to the amount of such lien. 50 V. c. 17, s. 21.

Rev. Stat. c. 53, ss. 19-30 to apply.

23. Sections 19 to 30 inclusive of The Act respecting Arbitrations and References applies to arbitrations under this Act 50 V. c. 17, s. 22.

Sale by person having lien.

24. The person having a lien upon logs by virtue of this Act, may sell the same in order to realize the amount of such lien, and of the costs, charges and expenses connected with the sale. The arbitrators, or arbitrator, shall determine either by their award or by separate document the time, place and manner of such sale, and may from time to time, give directions, in writing, respecting such sale, and the realization of such lien, and of the costs, charges and expenses connected therewith. 50 V. c. 17, s. 23.

Award and directions to be final.

25. The award and directions in writing, of any two of the three arbitrators, or of the sole arbitrator, as the case may be, shall be final and binding upon and shall be obeyed by the parties, and shall be valid, notwithstanding any want or defect of form or other technical objection. 50 V. c. 17, s. 24.

Compelling attendance of witnesses and production of documents.

26. The Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate, as the case may be, may, on the application of either party, grant an order to compel any person to attend and give evidence upon the arbitration and to produce all books and documents relating to the matters in dispute, and obedience to such order may be enforced in the same way as obedience to any order of such Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate made in a cause or matter pending before him in court may be enforced, and the person neglecting or refusing, without lawful excuse, to obey such order, shall be liable to an action by any person aggrieved by such neglect or refusal for the damages sustained by him thereby. 50 V. c. 17, s. 25.

Limitation of claims.

27. All claims arising under this Act shall be made by notice in writing under section 17, within one year after the same have arisen, otherwise they shall be barred. 50 V. c. 17, s. 26.

Lieut.-Governor in Council may exempt districts from Act.

28. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time by proclamation published in the Ontario Gazette declare that any portion or portions of this Province or any water therein shall, until further proclamation, be exempt from the operation of this Act, and thereupon the same shall be exempt accordingly. 50 V. c. 17, s. 27.

29. Any portion or portions of the Province, or any water therein exempted by proclamation from the operation of this Act may, by proclamation published in the Ontario Gazette, be again brought within its operation until further proclamation, and so on from time to time. 50 V. c. 17, s. 28.

District exempted may be brought under Act.

SCHEDULE.

FORM A.

(Section 12.)

Know all men by these presents that we (here insert names of obligors, being the owner of the logs and at least one sufficient surety; or, if the signature of the owner cannot be obtained without unreasonable delay, then being two sureties), are held and firmly bound unto A. B. (here insert the name of the person claiming the lien) in the penal sum of (double the amount of the claim) $, to be paid to the said A. B., his executors, administrators and assigns, for which payment well and truly to be made, we and each of us, bind ourselves, and each of us our and each of our executors and administrators jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and signed by us this day of , A. D., 18 .

Whereas the said A. B., claiming to act under the authority of The Saw Logs Driving Act, has taken possession of certain (saw logs, timber, etc., as the case may be) owned or controlled by and claims a lien thereon for the sum of $, under the provisions of section (5, 8 or 11, as the case may be) of the said Act.

And whereas this bond is given as security for payment to the said A. B., of such sum as he may be held entitled to by arbitration pursuant to the said Act, and of any costs and expenses of the arbitration which may become payable to him.

Now the condition of the above obligation is such that if the said , his executors or administrators do pay to the said A. B., his executors, administrators or assigns, such sum as may be determined by arbitration pursuant to the said Act, to be payable to the said A. B., his executors, administrators or assigns. for charges and expenses under section (5, 8 or 11, as the case may be) of said Act, and also such sum as may become payable to the said A. B., his executors, administrators or assigns, for costs and expenses of such arbitration, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force.

STATEMENT UNDER REV. STAT. C. 157, s. 21.
---	--

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as “ The Mercantile Amendment Act. ” R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 1.

Right of sureties paying the principal debt, etc., to assignment. 2. Every person who, being surety for the debt or duty of another, or being liable with another for any debt or duty, pays the debt or performs the duty, shall be entitled to have assigned to him or a trustee for him, every judgment, specialty, or other security which is held by the creditor in respect of such debt or duty, whether such judgment, specialty or other security be or be not deemed at law to have been satisfied by the payment of the debt or the performance of the duty. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 2.

3. Such person shall be entitled to stand in the place of the creditor, and to use all the remedies, and, if need be, and on proper indemnity, to use the name of the creditor in any action or other proceeding in order to obtain from the principal debtor, or any co-surety, co-contractor or co-debtor, as the case may be, indemnification for the advances made and loss sustained by the person who has so paid such debt or performed such duty; and such payment or performance so made by such surety shall not be a defence to such action or other proceeding by him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 3.

4. No co-surety, co-contractor or co-debtor shall be entitled to recover from any other co-surety, co-contractor or co-debtor, by the means aforesaid, more than the just proportion to which, as between those parties themselves, such last mentioned person is justly liable. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 4.

BILLS OF LADING.

5. Whereas by the custom of merchants a bill of lading of goods being transferable by endorsement, the property in the goods may thereby pass to the endorsee, but nevertheless all rights in respect of the contract contained in the bill of lading continue in the original shipper or owner, and it is expedient that such rights should pass with the property; and whereas it frequently happens that the goods in respect of which bills of lading purport to be signed have not been laden on board, and it is proper that such bills of lading in the hands of a bona fide holder for value should not be questioned by the master or other person signing the same, on the ground of the goods not having been laden as aforesaid;

Therefore it is enacted as follows;

1. Every consignee of goods named in a bill of lading and every endorsee of a bill of lading to whom the property in the goods therein mentioned passes upon or by reason of such consignment or endorsement, shall have transferred to, and vested in him all rights of action, and be subject to the same liabilities in respect of the goods as if the contract contained in the bill of lading had been made to himself.

2. Nothing in this section contained shall prejudice or affect any right of stoppage in transitu, or any right to claim freight against the original shipper or owner, or any liability of the consignee or endorsee, by reason or in consequence of his being such consignee or endorsee, or of his receipt of the goods by reason or in consequence of such consignment or endorsement.

Bills of lading
as evidence against signer.

3. Every bill of lading in the hands of a consignee or endorsee for valuable consideration representing goods to have been shipped on board a vessel or train shall be conclusive evidence of the shipment as against the master or other person signing the same, notwithstanding that the goods or some part thereof may not have been so shipped, unless the holder of the bill of lading has actual notice at the time of receiving the same that the goods had not in fact been laden on board, or unless the bill of lading has a stipulation to the contrary; but the master or other person so signing, may exonerate himself in respect to such misrepresentation, by shewing that it was caused without any default on his part, and wholly by the fraud of the shipper, or of the holder, or of some person under whom the holder claims. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 5.

CHoses IN ACTION ASSIGNABLE.

Interpretation of the word
Assignee.

6. In the next succeeding six sections of this Act,

"Assignee" shall include any person now being or hereafter becoming entitled by any first or subsequent assignment, or any derivative or other title, to a chose in action, and possessing at the time of action brought the beneficial interest therein, and the right to receive and to give an effectual discharge for the moneys, or the charge, lien, incumbrance, or other obligation thereby secured. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 6.

Choses in action made assignable.

Assignee to sue in his own name.

7. Every debt and chose in action arising out of contract shall be assignable by any form of writing, but subject to such conditions or restrictions with respect to the right of transfer as are contained in the original contract; and the assignee thereof, shall sue thereon in his own name in the action, and for such relief as the original holder or assignor of such chose in action would be entitled to sue for in any Court in this Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 7.

Assignment of property to self and others.

8. Any property, real or personal, may be conveyed or assigned by a person to himself jointly with another person by the like means by which it might be conveyed or assigned by him to another person and may in like manner be conveyed or assigned by a husband to his wife and by a wife to her husband alone or jointly with another person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 95, s. 10; 49 V. c. 20, s. 6.

Bonds of corporations.

9.—(1) The bonds or debentures of corporations made payable to bearer, or to any person named therein or bearer, may be transferred by delivery, and if payable to any person or order shall (after general endorsement thereof by such person) be transferable by delivery from the time of the endorsement.

(2) Any such transfer shall vest the property of such bonds or debentures in the holder thereof to enable him to maintain an action thereon in his own name. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 8.

10. Subject to the provisions of The Judicature Act the plaintiff in any action where the assignment is required by this Act to be in writing may claim as assignee of the original party or first assignor, setting forth briefly the various assignments under which the chose in action has become vested in him; and in other respects the pleadings and proceedings in the action shall be as if the action was instituted in the name of the original party or first assignor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 9.

Pleadings and proceedings.
Rev. Stat. c. 44.

11. In case of an assignment of a debt or chose in action arising out of contract, and not assignable by delivery, the transfer shall be subject to any defence, or set-off, in respect of the whole or any part of such claim as existed at the time of, or before notice of the assignment to the debtor or other person sought to be made liable, in the same manner and to the same extent as such defence would be effectual, in case there had been no assignment thereof; and such defence or set-off shall apply as between the debtor and any assignee of the debt or chose in action. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 10.

Original right of set-off and defences, continued.

12. In case of an assignment in writing as aforesaid, and notice thereof given to the debtor or other person liable in respect of a chose in action, arising out of contract, the assignee shall have, hold, and enjoy the same, free from any claims, defences, or equities which might arise after such notice as against his assignor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 11.

Assignee entitled free from contra claims to arise after notice to the person liable.

13. The next preceding seven sections of this Act shall not apply to bills of exchange or promissory notes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 12.

Secs. 6-12 not to apply to bills and notes.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS, ETC., AS COLLATERAL SECURITY.

14. The words "goods, wares and merchandise" when used in the following sections of this Act, shall, except where, otherwise expressly provided in said sections, be held to comprise, in addition to the things usually understood thereby, timber, boards, deals, staves and other lumber. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 13.

Interpretation.

15. Any cove receipt, bill of lading, specification of timber, or any receipt given by a cove keeper, miller, or by the keeper of a warehouse, wharf, yard, harbour or other place, for cereal grains, goods, wares or merchandise laid up, stored or deposited, or to be laid up, stored or deposited in or on the cove, mill, warehouse, wharf, yard, harbour or other place in this Province, of which he is keeper, or any bill of lading or receipt given by a master of a vessel, or by a carrier for carrying cereal grains, goods, wares or merchandise shipped in such vessel or delivered to such carrier for carriage from any place whatever, to any part of this Province or through the same, or on the waters bordering thereon, or from the same to any other place whatever, and whether such cereal grains are to be delivered upon such receipt in specie or converted into flour, may, by endorsement thereon by the owner of, or person entitled to receive such cereal grains, goods, wares or merchandise, or his attorney or agent, be transferred to any private person as collateral security for any debt due to such private person, and being so endorsed shall vest in such private person from the date of the endorsement, all the right and title of the endorser to or in such cereal grains, goods, wares or merchandise, subject to the right of the endorser to have the same retransferred to him, if the debt is paid when due; and in the event of the non-payment of the debt when due, such private person may sell the said cereal grains, goods, wares or merchandise and retain the proceeds or so much thereof as will be equal to the amount due to the private person upon the debt, with any interest or costs, returning the overplus, if any, to the endorser. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 14.

Cove-keeper, etc., owning or being entitled to the goods, may give a certificate of the fact and endorse it.

16. Where a person engaged in the calling of cove-keeper, miller, or of keeper of any warehouse, wharf, yard, harbour or other place, master of a vessel or carrier, by whom a receipt or bill of lading may be given in such his capacity, as hereinbefore mentioned, for cereal grains, goods, wares or merchandise, is at the same time the owner of or entitled himself (otherwise than in his capacity of cove-keeper, miller, or of keeper of a warehouse, wharf, yard, harbour or other place, or of master of a vessel or carrier) to receive such cereal grains, goods, wares or merchandise, any such receipt or bill of lading, or any acknowledgment or certificate intended to answer the purpose of such receipt or bill of lading, given and endorsed by such person, shall be as valid and effectual for the purposes of this Act, as if the person giving such receipt or bill of lading acknowledgment or certificate, and endorsing the same, were not one and the same person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 15.

Goods not to be held beyond a certain time.

At what time any such security must be transferred.

Goods not to be sold without notice to the owner.

17. No such cereal grains, and no such goods, wares or merchandise (other than timber, boards, deals, staves or other lumber), shall be held in pledge by such private person for any period exceeding six months; and no transfer of such bill of lading, specification of timber or receipt, shall be made under this Act to secure the payment of any debt, unless the debt is contracted at the same time with the endorsement of the bill of lading, specification of timber or receipt; and further, no sale of any cereal grains or of goods, wares or merchandise, (other than timber, boards, deals, staves or other lumber, shall take place under this Act until and unless ten days notice of the time and place of the sale has been given by registered letter transmitted through the post office, to the owner of such cereal grains or such goods, wares or merchandise other than as afore-said prior to the sale thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 16.

18.—(1) No timber, boards, deals, staves or other lumber, shall be held in pledge by such private person, for any period exceeding twelve months; and no transfer of any such receipt or bill of lading shall be made under this Act to secure the payment of any debt, unless the debt is contracted at the same time with the endorsement of the receipt or bill of lading; and further, no sale of any timber, boards, deals, staves or other lumber, shall be made under this Act, until and unless thirty days' notice of the time and place of such sale has been given, by registered letter transmitted through the post office, to the owner of the timber, boards, deals, staves, or other lumber prior to the sale thereof.

Timber, etc., not to be held beyond twelve months.

Receipt to be endorsed when debt is contracted.

Timber, etc., not to be sold without notice to owner.

(2) Every such sale shall be made by public auction, after notice thereof by advertisement, stating the time and place thereof, for at least eight days consecutively, in at least two daily newspapers published in or nearest to the place where such sale is to be made.

Sale to be by auction after notice.

(3) A daily newspaper shall be deemed to be published nearest to a place if no two other daily newspapers are published in or nearer to such place.

(4) If in any place where any such sale by auction is to be made, there is not a newspaper published daily, but some newspaper or newspapers is or are published there less often than daily, then the advertisement shall also be published in every issue of such local newspaper, or of at least one of such local newspapers, during the time of its being published in daily newspapers. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 17.

In places where no daily newspaper is published.

19. All advances made on the security of any such cover receipt, bill of lading, specification, receipt, acknowledgment or certificate as aforesaid, shall give and be held to give to the person making the advances, a claim for the repayment of such advances on the cereal grains, goods, wares or merchandise therein mentioned, prior to and by preference over the claim of any unpaid vendor, or other creditor, save and except claims for wages of labour performed in making and transporting such timber, boards, deals, staves or other lumber. R. S. O. 1877, c. 116, s. 18.

Advance on cover receipt, etc., to give a first lien on timber, etc.

20. All transportation and warehouse receipts, accepted orders and certificates for crude petroleum, issued by any company heretofore, or which may, at any time hereafter, be incorporated under The Ontario Joint Stock Companies' Letters Patent Act, or by any other company incorporated under competent authority, and authorized to carry on the business of warehousing, shall be transferable by endorsement, either special or in blank, and upon being endorsed in blank shall become transferable by delivery, and every such endorsement or transfer by delivery shall transfer all right of property and possession of the petroleum mentioned in any such transportation or warehouse receipt, accepted order or certificate, to the endorsee or transferee thereof, subject to the terms and conditions of such transportation or warehouse receipt, accepted order or certificate, as fully and completely as if a sale of the petroleum mentioned therein had been made in the ordinary way; and on the delivery of any petroleum mentioned in such document, by such company, in good faith, to a person in possession of such transportation or warehouse receipt, accepted order or certificate, endorsed or transferred as aforesaid, the company shall be freed from all further liability in respect thereof, and the endorsee, or transferee or holder of every such transportation or warehouse receipt, accepted order or certificate, to whom the property in the petroleum mentioned therein passes by reason of such endorsement or delivery, shall have transferred to and vested in him all rights of action and be subject to the same liabilities in respect of such petroleum as if the contract contained in the transportation or warehouse receipt, accepted order or certificate had been made by the company with himself. 48 V. c. 25, s. 1.

Particulars as to petroleum held by company to be given in statement required by Rev. Stat. c. 157, s. 57.

21—(1) In the summary required to be made by any company under the provisions of section 57 of The Ontario Joint Stock Companies' Letters Patent Act, so long as the company carries on the business of warehousing crude petroleum, the following other particulars shall be contained in the summary:

1. The total quantity of crude petroleum actually held by the company for the purpose of answering such transportation and warehouse receipts, accepted orders and certificates as aforesaid.

2. The total quantity of crude petroleum in respect of which the company as warehousemen, or carriers, are liable to make delivery to other persons.

(2) The said section 57 shall as respects the particulars hereinbefore required to be inserted in the summary apply to every other incorporated company carrying on a business of warehousing crude petroleum in this Province, so long as such company carries on the same. 48 V. c. 25, s. 2.

As to representation regarding the character, credit, etc. of a third party.

7. No action shall be brought whereby to charge any person upon or by reason of any representation or assurance made or given concerning or relating to the character, conduct, credit, ability, trade or dealings of any other person, to the intent or purpose that such other person may obtain money, goods or credit thereupon, unless the representation or assurance is made in writing signed by the party to be charged therewith. R. S. O. 1877, c. 117, s. 9.

Consideration for promise to answer for another need not be in writing.

8. No special promise made by any person to answer for the debt, default or miscarriage of another person, being in writing and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or by some other person by him thereunto lawfully authorized, shall be deemed invalid to support an action, or other proceeding to charge the person by whom the promise has been made, by reason only that the consideration for the promise does not appear in writing, or by necessary inference from a written document. R. S. O. 1877, c. 117, s. 10.

9. Section 17 of the Act passed in England in the 29th year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, entitled, "An Act for the prevention of Frauds and Perjuries," shall extend to all contracts for the sale of goods of the value of $40 and upwards, notwithstanding that the goods may be intended to be delivered at some future time, or may not at the time of the contract be actually made, procured or provided, or fit or ready for delivery, or although some act may be requisite for the making or completing thereof, or rendering the same fit for delivery. HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. In case any person, being at the time in insolvent circumstances, or unable to pay his debts in full, or knowing himself to be on the eve of insolvency, voluntarily or by collusion with a creditor or creditors, gives a confession of judgment,

Confessions or cognovit actionem or warrant of attorney to confess judgment with intent, in giving such confession, cognovit actionem or warrant of attorney to confess judgment, to defeat or delay his creditors wholly or in part or with intent thereby to give one or more of the creditors of any such person a preference over his other creditors, or over any one or more of such creditors, every such confession, cognovit actionem or warrant of attorney to confess judgment, shall be deemed and taken to be null and void as against the creditors of the party giving the same, and shall be invalid and ineffectual to support any judgment or writ of execution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 118, s. 1.

Gifts, transfers, etc., made by insolvents,
which defeat or prejudice creditors, to be void.

2. Every gift, conveyance, assignment or transfer, delivery over or payment of goods, chattels or effects, or of bills, bonds, notes, securities, or of shares, dividends, premiums or bonus in any bank, company or corporation, or of any other property, real or personal, made by a person at a time when he is in insolvent circumstances, or is unable to pay his debts in full, or knows that he is on the eve of insolvency, with intent to defeat, delay, or prejudice his creditors, or to give to any one or more of them a preference over his other creditors, or over any one, or more of them, or which has such effect, shall, as against them, be utterly void. 48 V. c. 26, s. 2.

Assignments
for benefit of creditors and bona fide sales, etc., protected.

3.—(1) Nothing in the preceding section shall apply to any assignment made to the sheriff of the county in which the debtor resides or carries on business, or to another assignee, resident within the Province of Ontario, with the consent of the creditors as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of paying ratably and proportionately and without preference or priority all the creditors of the debtor their just debts; nor to any bona fide sale or payment made in the ordinary course of trade or calling to innocent purchasers or parties; nor to any payment of money to a creditor, nor to any bona fide gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer or delivery over of any goods, securities or property of any kind, as above-mentioned, which is made in consideration of any present actual bona fide payment in money, or by way of security for any present actual bona fide advance of money, or which is made in consideration of any present actual bona fide sale or delivery of goods or other property; provided that the money paid, or the goods or other property sold or delivered bear a fair and reasonable relative value to the consideration therefor.

Proviso.

(a) In case of a valid sale of goods, securities or property, and payment or transfer of the consideration or part thereof by the purchaser to a creditor of the vendor, under circumstances which would render void such a payment or transfer by the debtor personally and directly, the payment or transfer, even though valid as respects the purchaser, shall be void as respects the creditor to whom the same is made. 48 V. c. 26, s. 3, (1); 50 V. 19, ss. 1, 2.

(2) Every assignment for the general benefit of creditors, which is not void under section 2 of this Act, but is not made to the sheriff, nor to any other person with the prescribed consent of creditors, shall be void as against a subsequent assignment which is in conformity with this Act, and shall be subject in other respects to the provisions of this Act until and unless a subsequent assignment is executed in accordance with this Act.

(3) In case a payment has been made which is void under this Act, and any valuable security was given up in consideration of the payment, the creditor shall be entitled to have the security restored, or its value made good to him before, or as a condition of, the return of the payment. 50 V. c. 19, s. 3.

(4) Nothing herein contained is to affect The Act respecting Wages, or to prevent a debtor providing for payment of wages due by him in accordance with the provisions of the said Act. Rev. Stat. c. 127.

Nor shall anything herein contained affect any payment of money to a creditor, where such creditor by reason or on account of such payment, has lost or been deprived of, or has in good faith given up, any valid security which he held for the payment of the debt so paid, unless the value of the security is restored to the creditor. Nor shall anything herein contained invalidate a security given to a creditor for a pre-existing debt where by reason or on account of the giving of the security, an advance in money is made to the debtor by the creditor, in the bona fide belief that the advance will enable the debtor to continue his trade or business, and to pay his debts in full. 48 V. c. 26, s. 3, (2); 49 V. c. 25, s. 1.

Certain assignments to be valid.

(5) The debtor may in the first place with the consent of a majority of his creditors having claims of $100 and upwards computed according to the provisions of section 19, make a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors, to some person other than the sheriff and residing in this Province. 48 V. c. 26, s. 3, (4); 50 V. c. 19, s. 4.

4. Every assignment made under this Act, for the general benefit of creditors shall be valid and sufficient if it is in the words following, that is to say—all my personal property which may be seized and sold under execution and all my real estate, credits and effects, or if it is in words to the like effect; and an assignment so expressed shall vest in the assignee all the real and personal estate, rights, property, credits and effects; whether vested or contingent belonging at the time of the assignment to the assignor, except such as are by law exempt from seizure, or sale under execution, subject, however, as regards lands, to the provisions of the registry law as to the registration of the assignment. 48 V. c. 26, s. 4.

Form of assignment for general benefit of creditors.

How claims are to rank.

5. If any assignor or assignors executing an assignment under this Act for the general benefit of his or their creditors owes or owe, debts both individually and as a member of a co-partnership, or as a member of two different co-partnerships, the claims shall rank first upon the estate by which the debts they represent were contracted, and shall only rank upon the other after all the creditors of that other have been paid in full. 48 V. c. 26, s. 5.

Appointment
of assignee.

6.—(1) A majority in number and value of the creditors who have proved claims to the amount of $100 or upwards, may at their discretion substitute for the sheriff a person residing in the county in which the debtor resided, or carried on business at the time of the assignment. An assignee may also be removed, and another assignee may be substituted, or an additional assignee may be appointed by a Judge of the High Court, or of the County Court where the assignment is registered. 48 V. c. 26, s. 6.

Estate to vest in assignee.

(2) Where a new assignee is appointed the estate shall forthwith vest in him without a conveyance or transfer. The new assignee may register an affidavit of his appointment in the office in which the original assignment was filed, such an affidavit may also be registered under The Registry Act. The registration of the affidavit under The Registry Act shall have the same effect as the registration of a conveyance. 49 V. c. 25, s. 4.

Rev. Stat.
c. 114.

Rights of assignee.

7.—(1) Save as provided in the next succeeding sub-section the assignee shall have an exclusive right of suing for the rescission of agreements, deeds and instruments or other transactions made or entered into in fraud of creditors, or made or entered into in violation of this Act.

(2) If at any time any creditor desires to cause any proceeding to be taken which, in his opinion, would be for the benefit of the estate, and the trustee under the authority of the creditors or inspectors, refuses or neglects to take such proceeding, after being duly required so to do, the creditor shall have the right to obtain an order of the Judge authorizing him to take the proceedings in the name of the trustee, but at his own expense and risk, upon such terms and conditions as to indemnity to the assignee, as the Judge may prescribe, and thereupon any benefit derived from the proceedings shall belong exclusively to the creditor instituting the same for his benefit, but if, before such order is granted, the assignee shall signify to the Judge, his readiness to institute the proceedings for the benefit of the creditors, the order shall prescribe the time within which he shall do so, and in that case the advantage derived from the proceeding, if instituted within such time, shall appertain to the estate. 48 V. c. 26, s. 7.

8. If the person to whom any gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer, delivery or payment as in section 2 of this Act is mentioned, has been made shall have sold or disposed of the property which was the subject of such gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer, delivery or payment, or any part thereof, the moneys or other proceeds realized therefor, may be seized or recovered in any actions under the last preceding section as fully and effectually as the property if still remaining in the possession or control of such person could have been seized or recovered. 48 V. c. 26, s. 8.

Recovery of proceeds where property sold.

9. An assignment for the general benefit of creditors under this Act shall take precedence of all judgments and of all executions not completely executed by payment, subject to the lien, if any, of an execution creditor for his costs where there is but one execution in the sheriff's hands, or to the lien, if any, of the creditor for his costs who has the first execution in the sheriff's hands. 48 V. c. 26, s. 9; 49 V. c. 25, s. 2.

Assignments to take precedence of judgments and executions.

10. No advantage shall be taken or gained by any creditor of any mistake, defect or imperfection in any assignment under this Act for the general benefit of creditors if the same can be amended or corrected, and if there be any mistake, defect or imperfection therein the same shall be amended by any Judge of the High Court, or of the County Court aforesaid, on application of any creditor of the assignor, or of the assignee, on such notice being given to other parties concerned as the Judge shall think reasonable, and the amendment, when made, shall have relation back to the date of the said assignment. 48 V. c. 26, s. 10.

Amendment of assignment
by court.

11.—(1) The assignee shall receive such remuneration as shall be voted to him by the creditors at any meeting called for the purpose after the first dividend sheet has been prepared, or by the inspectors, in case of the creditors failing to provide therefor, subject to the review of the County Court of the county in which the assignment is registered or the Judge thereof, if complained of by the assignee or any of the creditors. 48 V. c. 26, s. 11.

Remuneration
of assignee.

(2) In case no remuneration is voted to the assignee by the creditors, or the inspectors, the amount shall be fixed by the said Judge. 50 V. 19, s. 9.

12.—(1) No assignment made for the general benefit of creditors under this Act shall be within the operation of The Act respecting Mortgages and Sales of Personal Property; but a notice of the assignment shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be published at least once in the Ontario Gazette and in one newspaper at the least, having a general circulation in the county in which the property assigned is situate, not less than twice. 48 V. c. 26, s. 12 (1); 49 V. c. 25, s. 5.

Notice of assignment to be published.
Rev. Stat.
c. 125.

Assignment to be registered.

(2) A counterpart or copy of every such assignment shall also within five days from the execution thereof be registered, (together with an affidavit of a witness thereto of the due execution of the assignment or of the due execution of the assignment of which the copy filed purports to be a copy), in the office of the clerk of the County Court of the County or union of Counties where the assignor, if a resident in Ontario, resides at the time of the execution thereof, or if he is not a resident then in the office of the clerk of the County Court of the county or union of counties where the personal property so assigned is or where the principal part thereof (in case the same includes property in more counties than one) is at the time of the execution of the assignment; and such clerks shall file all such instruments presented to them respectively for that purpose, and shall endorse thereon the time of receiving the same in their respective offices, and the same shall be kept there for the inspection of all persons interested therein. The said clerks respectively shall number and enter such assignments, and be entitled to the same fees for services in the same manner as if such assignments had been registered under The Act respecting Mortgages and Sales of Personal Property. 48 V. c. 26, s. 12 (2).

Rev. Stat.
c. 125.

Rev. Stat.
c. 125.

(3) In provisional judicial districts, and territorial districts, and in the temporary judicial district of Nipissing, the counterpart or copy of the assignment shall be filed in the same office and within the same time respectively, as mortgages and other instruments are directed to be filed in such districts, under the provisions of sections 21, 22 and 23, of The Act respecting Mortgages and Sales of Personal Property, and the clerk shall perform the same duties and have the same fees as clerks acting under the preceding sub-section. 49 V. c. 25, s. 3.

Penalty for neglecting publication.

13.—(1) If the said notice is not published in the regular number of the Ontario Gazette, and of such newspaper as aforesaid, which shall respectively be issued first after five days from the execution of the assignment by the assignor, or if the assignment is not registered as aforesaid within five days from the execution thereof, the assignor shall be liable to a penalty of $25 for each and every day which shall pass after the issue of the number of the newspaper in which the notice should have appeared until the same shall have been published; and a like penalty for each and every day which shall pass after the expiration of five days from the execution of the assignment by the assignor until the same shall have been registered.

(2) The assignee is to be subject to a like penalty for each and every day which shall pass after the expiration of five days from the delivery of the assignment to him, or of five days after his assent thereto, the burden of proving the time of such delivery or assent being upon the assignee.

(3) Such penalties may be recovered summarily before a Judge of the High Court, or of the County Court of the county in which the assignment ought to be published or registered; one-half of the penalty shall go to the party suing, and the other half for the benefit of the estate of the assignor. 48 V. c. 26, s. 13.

(4) In case of an assignment to the sheriff, he shall not be liable for any of the penalties imposed in this section, unless he has been paid or tendered the cost of advertising and registering the assignment, nor shall he be compelled to act under assignment until his costs in that behalf are paid or tendered to him. 50 V. c. 19, s. 10.

Liability of sheriff.

14. In case the assignment be not registered, and notice thereof published, an application may be made by any one interested in the assignment to a Judge of the High Court, or of the County Court aforesaid, to compel the publication and registration thereof; and the Judge shall make his order in that behalf, and with or without costs, or upon the payment of costs by such person as he may in his discretion direct to pay the same. 48 V. c. 26, s. 14.

Compelling publication
and
registration.

15. The omission to publish or register as aforesaid, or any irregularity in the publication or registration, shall not invalidate the assignment. 48 V. c. 26, s. 15.

Assignment not invalidated by omission to publish, etc.

16. It shall be the duty of the assignee to immediately inform himself, by reference to the debtor and his records of account, of the names and residences of the debtor's creditors, and within five days from the date of assignment to convene a meeting of the creditors for the appointment of inspectors and the giving of directions with reference to the disposal of the estate, by mailing prepaid and registered to every creditor known to him, a circular calling a meeting of creditors to be held in his office or other convenient place to be named in the notices not later than twelve days after the mailing of such notice, and by advertisement in the Ontario Gazette; and all other meetings to be held shall be called in like manner. 48 V. c. 26, s. 16.

Assignee to call meeting of creditors

17.—(1) In case of a request in writing signed by a majority of the creditors having claims duly proved of $100 and upwards, computed according to the provisions of section 19 of this Act, it shall be the duty of the assignee within two days after receiving such request, to call a meeting of the creditors at a time not later than twelve days after the assignee receives the request. In case of default the assignee shall be liable to a penalty of $25 for every day after the expiration of the time limited for the calling of the meeting until the meeting is called. 50 V. c. 19, s. 8.

Meeting of creditors by request of majority thereof.

Judge to give directions in case creditors
do not attend.

(2) In case a sufficient number of creditors do not attend the meeting mentioned in section 16 of this Act, or fail to give directions with reference to the disposal of the estate, the Judge of the County Court may give all necessary directions in that behalf. 50 V. c. 19, s. 11.

Voting at meeting.

18. At any meeting of creditors the creditors may vote in person, or by proxy authorized in writing, but no creditor whose vote is disputed shall be entitled to vote until he has filed with the assignee an affidavit in proof of his claim stating the amount and nature thereof. 48 V. c. 26, s. 17.

Scale of votes.

19.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 6, all questions discussed at meetings of creditors shall be decided by the majority of votes, and for such purpose the votes of creditors shall be calculated as follows:

For every claim of or over $100, and not exceeding $200..	1 vote.
“ “ “ $200 “ “ $500..	2 votes.
“ “ “ $500 “ “ $1000..	3 votes.
“ additional $1,000, or fraction thereof....	1 vote.

(2) No person shall be entitled to vote on a claim acquired after the assignment unless the entire claim is acquired, but this shall not apply to persons acquiring notes, bills or other securities upon which they are liable.

(3) In case of a tie the assignee, or if there are two assignees, then the assignee appointed by the creditors, or by the Judge, if none has been appointed by the creditors, shall have a casting vote. 48 V. c. 26, s. 18 (1-3).

(4) Every creditor in his proof of claim shall state whether he holds any security for his claim or any part thereof; and if such security is on the estate of the debtor, or on the estate of a third party for whom such debtor is only secondarily liable, he shall put a specified value thereon and the assignee under the authority of the creditors may either consent to the right of the creditor to rank for the claim after deducting such valuation, or he may require from the creditor an assignment of the security at an advance of ten per cent. upon the specified value to be paid out of the estate as soon as the assignee has realized such security; and in such case the difference between the value at which the security is retained and the amount of the gross claim of the creditor shall be the amount for which he shall rank and vote in respect of the estate. 48 V. c. 26, s. 18 (4); 50 V. c. 19, s. 5.

(5) If a creditor holds a claim based upon negotiable instruments upon which the debtor is only indirectly or secondarily liable, and which is not mature or exigible, such creditor shall be considered to hold security within the meaning of this section, and shall put a value on the liability of the party primarily liable thereon as being his security for the payment thereof; but after the maturity of such liability and its non-payment, he shall be entitled to amend and revalue his claim 48 V. c. 26, s. 18 (5).

20.—(1) Every person claiming to be entitled to rank on the estate assigned shall furnish to the assignee particulars of his claim proved by affidavit and such vouchers as the nature of the case admits of. 48 V. c. 26, s. 19 (1). Proof of claim.

(2) In case a person claiming to be entitled to rank on the estate assigned, does not within a reasonable time after receiving notice of the assignment and of the name and address of the assignee, furnish to the assignee satisfactory proofs of his claim as provided by this and the preceding sections of this Act, the Judge of the County Court of the county wherein the debtor at the time of making the assignment resided or carried on business, may, upon a summary application by the assignee or by any other person interested in the debtor's estate (of which application at least three days' notice shall be given to the person alleged to have made default in proving a claim as aforesaid), order that unless the claim be proved to the satisfaction of the Judge within a time to be limited by the order, the person so making default shall no longer be deemed a creditor of the estate assigned, and shall be wholly barred of any right to share in the proceeds thereof; and if the claim is not so proved within the time so limited, or within such further time as the said Judge may by subsequent order allow, the same shall be wholly barred, and the assignee shall be at liberty to distribute the proceeds of the estate as if no such claim existed, but without prejudice to the liability of the debtor therefor. 50 V. c. 19, s. 6, part.

(3) The preceding sub-section is not intended to interfere with the protection afforded to assignees, by section 36 of The Act respecting Trustees and Executors, and the Administration of Estates. 50 V. c. 19, s. 6, part. Rev. Stat. c. 110.

(4) A person whose claim has not accrued due shall nevertheless be entitled to prove under the assignment and vote at meetings of creditors, but in ascertaining the amount of any such claim a deduction for interest shall be made for the time which has to run until the claim becomes due. 48 V. c. 26, s. 19 (2).

(5) At any time after the assignee receives from any person claiming to be entitled to rank on the estate, proof of his claim, notice of contestation of the claim may be served by the assignee upon the claimant. Within thirty days after the receipt of the notice, or such further time as a Judge of the County Court of the county in which the assignment is registered may on application allow, an action shall be brought by the claimant against the assignee to establish the claim, and a copy of the writ in the action served on the assignee; and in default of such action being brought and writ served within the time aforesaid, the claim to rank on the estate shall be forever barred.

- (a) The notice by the assignee shall contain the name and place of business of one of the solicitors of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, upon whom service of the writ may be made; and service upon such solicitor shall be deemed sufficient service of the writ. 50 V. c. 19, s. 7.

Accounts to be prepared by assignee.

21. Upon the expiration of one month from the first meeting of creditors, or as soon as may be after the expiration of such period and afterwards from time to time at intervals of not more than three months, the assignee shall prepare and keep constantly accessible to the creditors accounts and statements of his doings as such assignee, and of the position of the estate; and he shall declare dividends of the estate whenever the amount of money in his hands will justify a division thereof, and also whenever he is required by the inspectors. 49 V. c. 25, s. 6.

Notice of dividend sheet.

22. So soon as a dividend sheet is prepared, notice thereof shall be given by letter posted to each creditor, inclosing an abstract of receipts and disbursements, shewing what interest has been received by him for moneys in his hands, together with a copy of the dividend sheet, noting thereon the claims objected to, and stating whether any reservation has or has not been made therefor; and after the expiry of eight days from the day of mailing such notice, abstract and dividend sheet as aforesaid, dividends on all claims not objected to within that period shall be paid. 49 V. c. 25, s. 7.

Set off.

23. The law of set-off shall apply to all claims made against the estate and also to all actions instituted by the assignee for the recovery of debts due to the assignor, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the assignor were plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be, except in so far as any claim for set-off shall be affected by the provisions of this or any other Act respecting frauds or fraudulent preferences. 48 V. c. 26, s. 20.

Affidavits.

24. Any affidavit authorized, or required, under this Act may be sworn before any person authorized to administer affidavits in the High Court, or before a Justice of the Peace, or, if sworn out of Ontario, before a Notary Public. 48 V. c. 26, s. 21.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

REGISTRATION OF CHATTEL MORTGAGES AND SALES OF GOODS
WHERE POSSESSION IS UNCHANGED.

1. Every mortgage, or conveyance intended to operate as a mortgage, of goods and chattels, made in Ontario, which is not accompanied by an immediate delivery, and an actual and continued change of possession of the things mortgaged, or a true copy thereof, shall, within five days from the execution thereof be registered as hereinafter provided, together with the affidavit of a witness thereto, of the due execution of such mortgage or conveyance, or of the due execution of the mortgage or conveyance of which the copy filed purports to be a copy, and also with the affidavit of the mortgagee or of one of several mortgagees, or of the agent of the mortgagee or mortgagees, if such agent is aware of all the circumstances connected therewith and is properly authorized in writing to take such mortgage (in which case a copy of such authority shall be registered therewith.) R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 1.

2. Such last mentioned affidavit, whether of the mortgagee or his agent, shall state that the mortgagor therein named is justly and truly indebted to the mortgagee in the sum mentioned Mortgages of goods not attended with change of possession, shall be registered, or else be void as against creditors, etc., of the mortgagor, with an affidavit, etc.

Contents of affidavit.

in the mortgage, that it was executed in good faith and for the express purpose of securing the payment of money justly due or accruing due and not for the purpose of protecting the goods and chattels mentioned therein against the creditors of the mortgagor, or of preventing the creditors of such mortgagor from obtaining payment of any claim against him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 2.

When mortgage to take effect.

3. Every such mortgage or conveyance shall operate and take effect upon, from and after the day and time of the execution thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 3.

Unless registered, mortgage void.

4. In case such mortgage or conveyance and affidavits are not registered as hereinbefore provided, the mortgage or conveyance shall be absolutely null and void as against creditors of the mortgagor, and against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith-for valuable consideration. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 4.

Sales of goods not attended with delivery shall be registered, or else be void as against creditors, etc., of the vendor.

5. Every sale of goods and chattels, not accompanied by an immediate delivery and followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the goods and chattels sold, shall be in writing, and such writing shall be a conveyance under the provisions of this Act, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit of a witness thereto of the due execution thereof, and an affidavit of the bargainee, or his agent duly authorized in writing to take the conveyance a copy of which authority shall be attached to the conveyance, that the sale is bona fide and for good consideration, as set forth in the said conveyance, and not for the purpose of holding or enabling the bargainee to hold the goods mentioned therein against the creditors of the bargainor, and the conveyance and affidavits shall be registered as hereinafter provided, within five days from the executing thereof, otherwise the sale shall be absolutely void as against the creditors of the bargainor and as against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 5.

Mortgages of goods to secure advances or to indemnify endorsers, etc., to be valid if duly registered.

6. In case of an agreement in writing for future advances for the purpose of enabling the borrower to enter into and carry on business with such advances, the time of repayment thereof not being longer than one year from the making of the agreement, and in case of a mortgage of goods and chattels for securing the mortgagee repayment of such advances, or in case of a mortgage of goods and chattels for securing the mortgagee against the endorsement of any bills or promissory notes or any other liability by him incurred for the mortgagor, not extending for a longer period than one year from the date of the mortgage, and in case the mortgage is executed in good faith, and sets forth fully by recital or otherwise, the terms, nature and effect of the agreement, and the amount of liability intended to be created, and in case the mortgage is accompanied by the affidavit of a witness thereto of the due execution thereof, and by the affidavit of the mortgagee, or in case the agreement has been entered into and the mortgage taken by an agent duly authorized in writing to make such agreement and to take such mortgage, and if the agent is aware of the circumstances connected therewith, then, if accompanied by the affidavit of such agent, such affidavit, whether of the mortgagee or his agent, stating that the mortgage truly sets forth the agreement entered into between the parties thereto, and truly states the extent of the liability intended to be created by the agreement and covered by such mortgage, and that the mortgage is executed in good faith and for the express purpose of securing the mortgagee repayment of his advances or against the payment of the amount of his liability for the mortgagor, as the case may be, and not for the purpose of securing the goods and chattels mentioned therein against the creditors of the mortgagor, nor to prevent such creditors from recovering any claims which they may have against the mortgagor, and in case the mortgage is registered as hereinafter provided, the same shall be as valid and binding as mortgages mentioned in the preceding sections of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 6.

7. The affidavit of bona fides required by the preceding two sections may be made by one of two or more bargainees or mortgagees. 41 V. c. 8, s. 12, part. Affidavit under ss. 5 & 6.

8. The instruments mentioned in the preceding sections shall be registered in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of the county or union of counties where the property so mortgaged or sold is at the time of the execution of such instrument; and such clerks shall file all such instruments presented to them respectively for that purpose, and shall endorse thereon the time of receiving the same in their respective offices, and the same shall be kept there for the inspection of all persons interested therein, or intending or desiring to acquire any interest in all or any portion of the property covered thereby. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 7; 43 V. c. 15, s. 1. Chattel mortgages to be registered in the office of County Clerk.

[As to registration of Chattel Mortgages in Haliburton, See Cap. 6, s. 23.]

9. The said clerks respectively shall number every such instrument or copy filed in their offices, and shall enter in alphabetical order in books to be provided by them, the names of all the parties to such instruments, with the numbers endorsed thereon opposite to each name, and such entry shall be repeated alphabetically under the name of every party thereto. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 8. Clerk to enter the same.

10. In the event of the permanent removal of goods and chattels mortgaged as aforesaid from the county or union of counties in which they were at the time of the execution of the mortgage, to another county or union of counties before the How to proceed if goods mortgaged are removed to another County.

payment and discharge of the mortgage, a certified copy of the mortgage, under the hand of the clerk of the County Court in whose office it was first registered, and under the seal of the Court, and of the affidavits and documents and instruments relating thereto filed in such office, shall be filed with the clerk of the County Court of the county or union of counties to which the goods and chattels are removed, within two months from such removal, otherwise the said goods and chattels shall be liable to seizure and sale under execution, and in such case the mortgage shall be null and void as against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration as if never executed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 9.

RENEWAL OF MORTGAGES.

Statement to be filed yearly or mortgage invalidated as against creditors.

11. Every mortgage, or copy thereof, filed in pursuance of this Act, shall cease to be valid, as against the creditors of the persons making the same and against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration, after the expiration of one year from the filing thereof, unless within thirty days next preceding the expiration of the said term of one year, a statement exhibiting the interest of the mortgagee, his executors, administrators or other assigns, in the property claimed by virtue thereof, and shewing the amount still due for principal and interest thereon, and shewing all payments made on account thereof, is again filed in the office of the clerk of the County Court of the county, or union of counties, wherein the goods and chattels are then situate, with an affidavit of the mortgagee, or one of several mortgagees, or of the assignee or one of several assignees, or of the agent of the mortgagee or assignee, or mortgagees or assignees (as the case may be,) duly authorized in writing, for that purpose, (a copy of which authority shall be filed therewith,) that the statement is true, and that the mortgage has not been kept on foot for any fraudulent purpose. 43 V. c. 15, s. 2.

Form of statement and affidavit.

12. The statement and affidavit mentioned in the next preceding section may be in the form given in the schedule B to this Act, or to the like effect. 43 V. c. 15, s. 3.

Mode of filing and entering affidavit and statement.

13. The statement and affidavit shall be deemed one instrument and be filed and entered in like manner as the instruments in this Act mentioned are, by section 9, required to be filed and entered, and the like fees shall be payable for filing and entering the same as are now payable for filing and entering such instruments. 43 V. c. 15, s. 4.

Yearly statement to be filed.

14. Another statement in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of this Act, duly verified as required by that section, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the County Court of the county wherein the goods and chattels described in the mortgage are then situate, within thirty days next preceding the expiration of the term of one year from the day of the filing of the statement required by the said section 11, or such mortgage, or copy thereof, shall cease to be valid as against the creditors of the persons making the same, and as against purchasers and mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration, and so on from year to year, that is to say, another statement as aforesaid, duly verified, shall be filed within thirty days next preceding the expiration of one year from the day of the filing of the former statement, or such mortgage, or copy thereof, shall cease to be valid as aforesaid. 44 V. c. 12, s. 1.

15. The affidavit required by section 11 may be made by any next of kin, executor or administrator of any deceased mortgagee, or by any assignee claiming by or through any mortgagee, or any next of kin, executor or administrator of any such assignee; but if the affidavit is made by any assignee, next of kin, executor or administrator of any such assignee, the assignment, or the several assignments through which the assignee claims shall be filed in the office in which the mortgage is filed, at or before the time of such refileing by the assignee, next of kin, executor or administrator of the assignee. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 11.

Affidavits, by whom to be made.

EVIDENCE OF REGISTRATION.

16. A copy of such original instrument or of a copy thereof, so filed as aforesaid, including any statement made in pursuance of this Act, certified by the clerk in whose office the same has been filed, under the seal of the Court shall be received in evidence in all Courts, but only of the fact that the instruments or copy and statement were received and filed according to the endorsement of the clerk thereon, and of no other fact; and in all cases the original endorsement by the clerk made in pursuance of this Act, upon any such instrument or copy, shall be received in evidence only of the fact stated in the endorsement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 12.

The Clerk's certificate to be evidence of registration.

DISCHARGE OF MORTGAGES.

17. Where any mortgage of goods and chattels is registered under the provisions of this Act, such mortgage may be discharged, by the filing, in the office in which the same is registered, of a certificate signed by the mortgagee, his executors or administrators, in the form given in the Schedule A hereto, or to the like effect. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 13.

Certificates for discharging chattel mortgages.

18. The officer with whom the chattel mortgage is filed, upon receiving such certificate, duly proved by the affidavit of a subscribing witness, shall, at each place where the number of the mortgage has been entered, with the name of any of the parties thereto, in the book kept under section 9 of this Act, or wherever otherwise in the said book the said mortgage has been entered, write the words, "Discharged by certificate number (stating the number of the certificate)," and to the said entry the officer shall affix his name, and he shall also endorse the fact of the discharge upon the instrument discharged, and shall affix his name to the endorsement. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 14.

Entries or renewal.

19. Where a mortgage has been renewed under section 11 of this Act, the endorsement or entries required by the preceding section to be made need only be made upon the statement and affidavit filed on the last renewal, and at the entries of the statement and affidavit in the said book. 43 V. c. 15, s. 5.

Entry of assignment of mortgages.

20. In case a registered chattel mortgage has been assigned the assignment may, upon proof by the affidavit of a subscribing witness, be numbered and entered in the alphabetical chattel mortgage book, in the same manner as a chattel mortgage, and the proceedings authorized by the next preceding three sections of this Act may and shall be had, upon a certificate of the assignee, proved in manner aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 16.

MORTGAGES AND SALES OF CHATTELS IN UNORGANIZED DISTRICTS.

Registration of chattel mortgages in Provisional Judicial Districts.

21. Where the personal property mortgaged or sold is within a Provisional Judicial District, the provisions of this Act shall apply to such instrument with the substitution of "the clerk of the District Court" for "the clerk of the County Court;" and with the substitution of "ten days" for "five days" as the time within which the instrument or a copy thereof shall be registered; but this section shall not apply to any portion of a Territorial District which forms part of a Provisional Judicial District. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 17; 43 V. c. 15, s. 7.

In Territorial Districts.

22. Where the personal property mortgaged or sold is within a Territorial District, the provisions of this Act shall apply to such instrument, with the substitution of "the clerk of the first Division Court of the District" for the "clerk of the County Court," and with the substitution of "ten days" for "five days," as the time within which the instrument or a copy thereof shall be registered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 18; 43 V. c. 15, s. 8.

In Temporary Judicial District of Nipissing.

23. Where the personal property mortgaged or sold is within the Temporary Judicial District of Nipissing the provisions of this Act shall apply to such instrument, with the substitution of "the clerk of the County Court of the County of Renfrew" for "the clerk of the County Court," and with the substitution of "twenty days" for "five days," as the time within which the instrument or a copy thereof shall be registered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 19; 43 V. c. 15, s. 9.

FEES.

24. For services under this Act the clerks aforesaid shall be entitled to receive the following fees: Fees for services.

1. For filing each instrument and affidavit, and for entering the same in a book as aforesaid, fifty cents.

2. For filing assignment of each instrument and for making all proper endorsements in connection therewith, fifty cents. 44 V. c. 8, s. 2; 48 V. c. 27, s. 2; 49 V. c. 16, s. 43.

3. For filing certificate of discharge of each instrument and for making all proper entries and endorsements connected therewith, twenty-five cents;

4. For searching for each paper, ten cents; and

5. For copies of any document with certificate prepared, filed under this Act, ten cents for every hundred words. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 22, (3-5); 48 V. c. 27, s. 2.

MISCELLANEOUS.

25. Where, under any of the provisions of this Act the time for registering or filing any mortgage, bill of sale, instrument, document, affidavit or other paper expires on a Sunday or other day on which the office in which the registering or filing is to be made or done is closed, and by reason thereof the filing or registering cannot be made or done on that day, the registering or filing shall, so far as regards the time of doing or making the same, be held to be duly done or made if done or made on the day on which the office shall next be open. 48 V. c. 27, s. 1. Registration where time limited expires on a day on which offices are closed.

26. An authority for the purpose of taking or renewing a mortgage or conveyance under the provisions of this Act may be a general one to take and renew all or any mortgages or conveyances to the mortgagee or bargainee. 43 V. c. 15, s. 6. An authority to take or renew mortgages may be a general one.

27. All the instruments mentioned in this Act, whether for the sale or mortgage of goods and chattels, shall contain such sufficient and full description thereof that the same may be thereby readily and easily known and distinguished. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 23. The property to be well described.

Who to administer the affidavits.

28. All affidavits and affirmations required by this Act shall be taken and administered by any Judge, Notary Public, or Commissioner or other person in or out of the Province authorized to take affidavits in and for the High Court or by a Justice of the Peace, and the sum of twenty cents shall be paid for every oath thus administered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 24; 41 V. c. 8, s. 12 (2); 48 V. c. 16, s. 1.

Act not to apply to mortgages of vessels duly registered.

29. This Act does not apply to mortgages of vessels registered under the provisions of any Act in that behalf. R. S. O. 1877, c. 119, s. 25.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

- Short title: 1. This Act may be cited as "The Mechanics' Lien Act." R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 1.
- Interpretation. 2. Where the following words occur in this Act, or in the schedules thereto, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:—
- "Contractor." 1. "Contractor" shall mean a person contracting with or employed directly by the owner for the doing of work or placing or furnishing of machinery or materials for any of the purposes mentioned in this Act;
- "Sub-contractor." 2. "Sub-contractor" shall mean a person not contracting with or employed directly by the owner for the purposes aforesaid, but contracting with or employed by the "Contractor," or under him by another "Sub-contractor;"
- "Owner." 3. "Owner" shall extend to and include a person having any estate or interest in the lands upon or in respect of which the work is done, or materials or machinery are placed or furnished, at whose request and upon whose credit or on whose behalf or with whose privity or consent or for whose direct benefit any such work is done, or materials or machinery placed or furnished, and all persons claiming under him, whose rights are acquired after the work in respect of which the lien is claimed is commenced, or the materials or machinery furnished have been commenced to be furnished. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 2.

3. No agreement shall be held to deprive anyone otherwise entitled to a lien under this Act, and not a party to the agreement, of the benefit of the lien, but the lien shall attach, notwithstanding such agreement. 47 V. c. 18, s. 1, part. Persons not deprived of lien by agreement unless a party thereto.

4. Unless he signs an express agreement to the contrary, every mechanic, machinist, builder, miner, labourer, contractor or other person, doing work upon, or furnishing materials to be used in, the construction, alteration or repair of any building or erection, or erecting, furnishing or placing machinery of any kind in, upon or in connection with any building, erection or mine, shall, by virtue of being so employed or furnishing, have a lien for the price of the work, machinery or materials, upon the building, erection or mine, and the lands occupied thereby or enjoyed therewith; limited in amount to the sum justly due to the person entitled to the lien. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 3; 47 V. c. 18, s. 1, part. Mechanics and others to have liens for work done, etc.

5.—The lien shall attach upon the estate and interest of the owner, as defined by this Act, in the building, erection or mine upon or in respect of which the work is done or the materials or machinery placed or furnished, and the land occupied thereby or enjoyed therewith. Upon what property the lien shall attach.

(2) In cases where the estate or interest charged by the lien is leasehold, the fee simple may also, with the consent of the owner thereof, be subject to said charge, provided such consent is testified by the signature of such owner upon the claim of lien at the time of the registering thereof, and duly verified. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 6; 47 V. c. 18, s. 5. When the estate charged is leasehold, the fee may be charged in certain cases.

(3) In case the land upon or in respect of which any work as aforesaid is executed, or labour performed, or upon which materials or machinery are placed, is incumbered by a prior mortgage or other charge, and the selling value of the land is increased by the construction, alteration or repairs of the building, or by the erection or placing of the materials or machinery, the lien under this Act shall be entitled to rank upon the increased value in priority to the mortgage or other charge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 7; 45 V. c. 15, s. 13. Mortgaged land.

6.—(1) Without prejudice to any lien which he may have under the preceding sections, every mechanic, labourer, or other person, who performs labour for wages upon the construction, alteration, or repairs of any building or erection, or in erecting, Lien for 30 days' wages.

or placing machinery of any kind in, upon, or in connection with, any building, erection, or mine, shall to the extent of the interest of the owner have, upon the building, erection, or mine, and the land occupied thereby or enjoyed therewith, a lien for such wages, not exceeding the wages of thirty days, or a balance equal to his wages for thirty days.

Property
affected.

(2) The lien for wages given by this section shall attach when the labour is in respect of a building, erection or mine on property belonging to the wife of the person at whose instance the work is done upon the estate or interest of the wife in such property as well as upon that of her husband. 45 V. c. 15, ss. 2, 3.

Owner may retain 10 per cent. of contract price.

7. In all cases, the owner shall, in the absence of a stipulation to the contrary, be entitled to retain, for a period of thirty days after the completion of the contract, ten per centum of the price to be paid to the contractor. 45 V. c. 15, s. 5.

Claim by sub-contractor limited.

8. In case the lien is claimed by a sub-contractor, the amount which may be claimed in respect thereof shall be limited to the amount payable to the contractor or sub-contractor (as the case may be) for whom the work has been done, or the materials or machinery have been furnished or placed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 6.

Certain payments to discharge the lien.

9.—(1) All payments, up to ninety per centum of the price to be paid for the work, machinery or materials, as defined by section 4 of this Act, made in good faith by the owner to the contractor, or by the contractor to the sub-contractor, or by one sub-contractor to another sub-contractor, before notice in writing by the person claiming the lien has been given to such owner, contractor or sub-contractor (as the case may be), of the claim of such person, shall operate as a discharge pro tanto of the lien created by this Act, but this section shall not apply to any payment made for the purpose of defeating or impairing a claim to a lien existing or arising under this Act. 41 V. c. 17, s. 1.

Lien to extent of 10 per cent.
when a charge.

(2) A lien shall, in addition to all other rights or remedies given by this Act, also, operate as a charge to the extent of ten per centum of the price to be paid by the owner, for the work, machinery or materials as defined by section 4 of this Act up to ten days after the completion of the work, or of the delivery of the materials in respect of which such lien exists, and no longer, unless notice in writing be given as herein provided. 41 V. c. 17, s. 2.

Priority of lien for 30 days' wages.

(3) A lien for wages for thirty days or for a balance equal to the wages for thirty days, shall, to the extent of the said ten per cent. of the price to be paid to the contractor, have priority over all other liens under this Act, and over any claim by the owner against the contractor for, or in consequence of, the failure of the latter to complete his contract. 45 V. c. 15, s. 4.

10. Save as herein provided, the lien shall not attach so as to make the owner liable to a greater sum than the sum payable by the owner to the contractor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 6, part; 45 V. c. 15, s. 4. Extent of owner's liability.

11. All persons furnishing material to or doing labour for the person having a lien under this Act, in respect of the subject of such lien, who notify the owner of the premises sought to be affected thereby, within thirty days after such material is furnished or labour performed, of an unpaid account or demand against such lien-holder, for such material or labour, shall be entitled, subject to the provisions of sections 6 and 9, to a charge therefor pro rata upon any amount payable by such owner under said lien; and if the owner thereupon pays the amount of such charge to the person furnishing material and doing labour as aforesaid, such payment shall be deemed a satisfaction pro tanto of such lien. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 8. Notice to owner of claims against lien-holders.

12. In case of a dispute as to the validity or amount of an unpaid account or demand, of which notice is given to the owner under the preceding section, the same shall be first determined by action in the proper Court in that behalf, or by arbitration, in manner mentioned in section 14 at the option of the person having the unpaid account or demand against the lien-holder; and pending the proceedings to determine the dispute, so much of the amount of the lien as is in question therein may be withheld from the person claiming the lien. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 9. Disputes as to claims against lien-holders.

13. In case the person primarily liable to the person giving such notice as mentioned in section 11, fails to pay the amount awarded within ten days after the award is made, the owner, contractor or sub-contractor may pay the same out of any moneys due by him to the person primarily liable as aforesaid, on account of the work done or materials or machinery furnished or placed in respect of which the debt arose; and such payment if made after an award (or if made without any arbitration having been previously had or dispute existing, then, if the debt in fact existed, and to the extent thereof) shall operate as a discharge pro tanto of the moneys so due as aforesaid to the person primarily liable. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 10. Failure to pay amount awarded.

14.—(1) In case a claim is made by a sub-contractor in respect of a lien to which he is entitled, and a dispute arises as to the amount due or payable in respect thereof, the same shall be settled by arbitration. Disputed claims of sub-contractors to be referred to arbitration.

Appointment of arbitrators. (2) One arbitrator shall be appointed by the person making the claim, one by the person by whom he was employed, and the third arbitrator shall be appointed by the two so chosen.

Decision to be final. (3) The decision of the arbitrators or a majority of them shall be final and conclusive. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 18.

Refusal to appoint arbitrator. (4) In case either of the parties interested in any such dispute refuses or neglects within three days after notice in writing requiring him to do so, to appoint an arbitrator, or if the arbitrators appointed fail to agree upon a third, the appointment may be made by a County Judge of the county in which the lands in respect of which the lien is claimed are situate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 19.

Property affected by the lien not to be removed. 15. During the continuance of a lien, no portion of the property or machinery affected thereby, shall be removed to the prejudice of the lien; and any attempt at such removal may be restrained by application to the County Court or the Judge thereof, or the High Court respectively, according as the claim is under or over the sum of $200. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 22.

Claim may be registered. 16.—(1) A claim of lien applicable to the case, may be registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the land is situate, and shall state—

- (a) The name and residence of the claimant and of the owner of the property to be charged, and of the person for whom and upon whose credit the work is done or materials or machinery furnished, and the time or period within which the same was, or was to be, done or furnished;
- (b) The work done or materials or machinery furnished;
- (c) The sum claimed as due, or to become due;
- (d) The description of the land to be charged;
- (e) The date of expiry of the period of credit agreed to by the lien-holder for payment for his work, materials or machinery, where credit has been given.

Affidavit of verification may be made by agent or assignee. (2) The claim may be in one of the forms given in the schedule in this Act, and shall be verified by the affidavit of the claimant, or of his agent or assignee having full knowledge of the matters required to be verified, and the affidavit of an agent or assignee shall state he has such knowledge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 4 (1, 2); 47 V. c. 18, ss. 2, 3.

Claims for wages may be combined. 17. A claim for wages may include the claims of any number of mechanics, labourers, or other persons aforesaid, who may choose to unite therein. In such case each claimant shall verify his claim by his affidavit, but need not repeat the facts set out in the claim; and an affidavit substantially in accordance with Form 4 in the schedule to this Act shall be sufficient. 45 V. c. 15, ss. 8, 10.

18.—(1) The registrar, upon payment of his fee, shall register the claim, so that the same may appear as an incumbrance against the land therein described. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 5; 47 V. c. 18, s. 4, part. Registration of claims.

(2) The fee for registration shall be twenty-five cents; if several persons join in one claim, the registrar shall have a further fee of ten cents for every person after the first. 45 V. c. 15, s. 11. Fee.

(3) The registrar shall not be bound to copy in any registry book any claim or affidavit, but he shall number each claim, and shall insert in the alphabetical and abstract indexes the like particulars as in other cases: he may describe the nature of the instrument as "Mechanics' Lien." 45 V. c. 15, s. 11. Mode of registration.

19. Where a claim is so registered, the person entitled to the lien shall be deemed a purchaser pro tanto, and within the provisions of The Registry Act, but except as herein otherwise provided, The Registry Act shall not apply to any lien arising under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, ss. 4 (3), 26; 47 V. c. 18, ss. 2, 3. Registry Act to apply.
Rev. Stat. c. 114.

20.—(1) Where the lien is for wages, under sections 6 or 9, the claim may be registered, Time for registration of claim for wages.

(a) At any time within thirty days after the last day's labour for which the wages are payable, or

(b) At any time within thirty days after the completion of the construction, alteration or repair of the building or erection, or after the erecting or placing of the machinery, in or towards which, respectively, the labour was performed and the wages earned, but so that the whole period shall not exceed sixty days from the last days labour aforesaid.

(2) Such lien shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of sections 6 and 9, after the said respective periods, unless the same is duly registered before the expiration of the said periods so limited. 45 V. c. 15, s. 6.

(3) Such lien shall have the same priority for all purposes after as before registration. 50 V. c. 20, s. 1.

21. In other cases the claim of lien may be registered before or during the progress of the work, or within thirty days from the completion thereof, or from the supplying or placing the machinery. 45 V. c. 15, s. 7. Time for registering claim not arising under s. 6.

22. Every lien which has not been duly registered under the provisions of this Act shall absolutely cease to exist on the expiration of the time hereinbefore limited for the registration thereof, unless in the meantime proceedings are instituted to When unregistered lien shall cease.

realize the claim under the provisions of this Act, and a certificate thereof (which may be granted by the Court or Judge before whom or in which the proceedings are instituted), is duly registered in the registry office of the registry division wherein the lands in respect of which the lien is claimed are situate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 20.

When registered lien shall cease.

23. Every lien which has been duly registered under the provisions of this Act shall absolutely cease to exist after the expiration of ninety days after the work has been completed, or materials or machinery furnished, or wages earned, or the expiry of the period of credit, where such period is mentioned in the claim of lien filed, unless in the meantime proceedings are instituted to realize the claim under the provisions of this Act, and a certificate thereof (which may be granted by the Court or Judge before whom or in which the proceedings are instituted), is duly registered in the registry office of the registry division wherein the lands in respect of which the lien is claimed are situate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 21.

When lien to cease.

24. If there is no period of credit, or if the date of expiry of the period of credit is not stated in the claim so filed, the lien shall cease to exist upon the expiration of ninety days after the work has been completed or materials or machinery furnished, unless in the meantime proceedings shall have been instituted pursuant to section 23 of this Act. 47 V. c. 18, s. 2.

Death of lien-holder.

25. In the event of the death of a lien-holder his right of lien shall pass to his personal representatives: and the right of a lien-holder may be assigned by any instrument in writing. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 16.

Discharge of liens.

26. A lien may be discharged by a receipt signed by the claimant, or his agent duly authorized in writing, acknowledging payment, and verified by affidavit and filed; such receipt shall be numbered and entered by the registrar, like other instruments, but need not be copied in any book; the fees shall be the same as for registering a claim or lien. 45 V. c. 15, s. 15; 47 V. c. 18, s. 4.

Cost of registering discharge.

27. Where there is a contract for the execution of the work as hereinbefore mentioned, the registration of all discharges of liens shall be at the cost of the contractor, unless a Court or Judge otherwise orders. 45 V. c. 15, s. 16; 47 V. c. 18, s. 4.

Enforcement of lien in Division and County Court.

28.—(1) Where the amount of the claims in respect of any lien is within the jurisdiction of the County or Division Courts respectively, proceedings to recover the same, according to the usual procedure of the said Court by judgment and execution may be taken in the proper Division Court or in the County Court of the county in which the land charged is situate; or proceedings may be taken before the Judge of the said Courts, who may proceed in a summary manner by summons and order, and may take accounts and make requisite enquiries, and in default of payment may direct the sale of the estate and interest charged and such further proceedings may be taken as the Judge directs.

(2) Any conveyance under the seal of the County Court Judge shall be effectual to pass the estate or interest sold. Conveyance by County Court Judge.

(3) The fees and costs in all proceedings taken under this section shall be such as are payable in respect of the like or similar matters according to the ordinary procedure of the said Courts respectively. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 12, Fees.

29. In cases other than those specified in the preceding section the lien may be realized in the High Court according to the ordinary procedure of that Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 13. Enforcing lien in High Court.

30.—(1) Any number of lien-holders may join in one action and any action brought by a lien-holder shall be taken to be brought on behalf of all the lien-holders of the same class who shall have registered their liens before or within 30 days after the commencement of the action, or who shall within the said 30 days file in the proper office of the Court from which the writ issued a statement, entitled in or referring to the said action, of their respective claims. Action by lien-holder to be for joint benefit.

(2) In the event of the death of the plaintiff, or his refusal or neglect to proceed, any other lien-holder of the same class who has registered his lien or filed his claim in the manner and within the time above limited for that purpose may be allowed to prosecute the action on such terms as may be deemed just and reasonable. 47 V. c. 18, s. 6. Prosecution of claim when plaintiff dies, etc.

(3) In case of a sale of the estate and interest charged with the lien, the Court or Judge may direct the sale to take place at any time after one month from the recovery of judgment, and it shall not be necessary to delay the sale for a longer period than is requisite to give reasonable notice thereof. 45 V. c. 15, s. 12. Time when sale may be made.

(4) The said Court or Judge may also direct the sale of any machinery and authorize its removal. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 14. The Court may order sale.

(5) Where judgment is given in favour of a lien, the Court or Judge may add to the judgment the costs of and incidental to registering the lien, as well as the costs of the action. 45 V. c. 15, s. 14. Costs.

(6) Where there are several liens under this Act against the same property, each class of the lien-holders shall, subject to the provisions of sections 5, 9 and 11, rank pari passu for their several amounts, and the proceeds at any sale shall Several liens.

subject as aforesaid, be distributed amongst them pro rata, according to their several classes and rights, and they shall respectively be entitled to execution for any balance due to them respectively after said distribution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 17.

Security may be given in lieu of lien.

(7) Upon applications to the County Court, in claims under $200, and to the High Court in other cases, the Court or Judge may receive security or payment into Court in lieu of the amount of the claim, and may thereupon vacate the registry of the lien.

Registry may be annulled.

(8) The Court or Judge may annul the said registry upon any other ground. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 23.

Wrongful claim or refusal to discharge, costs.

(9) In any of the cases mentioned in sub-sections 7 and 8 the Court or Judge may proceed to hear and determine the matter of the said lien, and make such order as seems just, and in case the person claiming to be entitled to such lien has wrongfully refused to sign a discharge thereof, or without just cause claims a larger sum than is found by such Court or Judge to be due, the Court or Judge may order and adjudge him to pay costs to the other party. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 24; 47 V. c. 18, s. 7.

When materials used in the construction of buildings are not to be subject to execution.

31. Where any mechanic, artisan, machinist, builder, miner, contractor or any other person, has furnished or procured materials for use in the construction, alteration or repair of any building, erection or mine, at the request of and for some other person, such materials shall not be subject to execution or other process, to enforce any debt (other than for the purchase thereof) due by the person furnishing or procuring such materials, and whether the same have or have not been in whole or in part worked into or made part of such building or erection. R. S. O. 1877, c. 120, s. 25.

Mechanics entitled to lien on a chattel may sell the chattel if (after three months) payment is not made.

32.—(1) Every mechanic or other person who has bestowed money or skill and materials upon any chattel or thing in the alteration and improvement in its properties or for the purpose of imparting an additional value to it so as thereby to be entitled to a lien upon such chattel or thing for the amount or value of the money or skill and materials bestowed, shall, while such lien exists but not afterwards, in case the amount to which he is entitled remains unpaid for three months after the same ought to have been paid, have the right in addition to all other remedies provided by law, to sell the chattel or thing in respect of which the lien exists, on giving one week's notice by advertisement in a newspaper published in the municipality in which the work was done, or in case there is no newspaper published in such municipality, then in a newspaper published nearest thereto, stating the name of the person indebted, the amount of the debt, a description of the chattel or thing to be sold, the time and place of sale, and the name of the auctioneer, and leaving a like notice in writing at the last or known place of residence (if any) of the owner, if he be a resident of such municipality.

(2) Such mechanic or other person shall apply the proceeds of the sale in payment of the amount due to him and the costs of advertising and sale, and shall upon application pay over any surplus to the person entitled thereto. 41 V. c. 17, s. 3.

CHAPTER 127.

An Act respecting Wages.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. Whenever an assignment is made of any real or personal property for the general benefit of creditors, the assignee shall pay in priority to the claims of the ordinary or general creditors of the person making the same, the wages or salary of all persons in the employment of such person at the time of the making of such assignment, or within one month before the making thereof, not exceeding three months' wages or salary, and such persons shall be entitled to rank as ordinary or general creditors for the residue, if any, of their claims. 48 V. c. 29, s. 1. Wages or salaries to have priority in assignments for benefit of creditors.

2. In distributing the assets of a company under the provisions of The Joint Stock Companies' Winding up Act, the liquidator shall pay in priority to the claims of the ordinary or general creditors of the company the wages or salary of all persons in the employment of the company at the time of the making of the winding-up order, or within one month before the making thereof, not exceeding three months' wages or salary, and such persons shall be entitled to rank as ordinary or general creditors of the company for the residue, if any, of their claims. 48 V. c. 29, s. 2. Wages or salaries to have priority in winding up proceedings under Rev. Stat. c. 183.

3. All persons in the employment of an execution debtor at the time of the entry of the notice mentioned in section 4 of The Creditors' Relief Act, or within one month before such entry, who shall become entitled to share in the distribution of money levied out of the property of a debtor within the meaning of the said Act, shall be entitled to be paid out of such money the wages or salary due to them by the execution debtor, not exceeding three months' wages or salary, in priority to the claims of the other creditors of the execution debtor, and shall be entitled to share pro rata with such other creditors as to the residue, if any, of their claims. 48 V. c. 29, s. 3. Rights of persons entitled to share in distribution of property of execution debtors. Rev. Stat. c. 65, s. 4.

4. This Act shall apply to wages or salary whether the employment in respect of which the same shall be payable, be, by the day, by the week, by the job or piece or otherwise. 48 V. c. 29, s. 4. Wages or salary affected by this Act.

5. This Act is not intended to apply to an assignment made under the provisions of any Act of the Parliament of Canada relating to or respecting bankruptcy or insolvency. 48 V. c. 29, s. 5. Application of Act.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

- Interpretation.
1. Where the following words occur in this Act they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:—
- “Person.” 1. “Person” shall include a body corporate or company as well as an individual;
- “Goods.” 2. “Goods” shall include all personal property of whatever nature or kind soever;
- “Shipped.” 3. “Shipped” shall mean the carriage of goods, whether by land or by water;
- “Document of title.” 4. “Document of title” shall include every bill of lading, warehouse-keeper’s or wharfinger’s receipt or order for delivery of goods, every bill of inspection of pot or pearl ashes and every other document used in the ordinary course of business, as proof of the possession or control of goods, or authorizing or purporting to authorize either by endorsement or by delivery, the possessor of such document to transfer or receive goods thereby represented. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 1.
- When and to what extent agents to be deemed
owner.
2. Any agent entrusted with the possession of goods or of the documents of title thereto, shall be deemed the owner thereof for the following purposes, that is to say:

1. To make a sale or contract, as in section 5 mentioned;
2. To entitle the consignee of goods consigned by such agent to a lien thereon for any money or negotiable security advanced or given by him to or for the use of such agent, or received by the agent for the use of the consignee, in like manner as if such agent were the true owner of the goods;

3. To give validity to any contract or agreement by way of pledge, lien or security bona fide made with such agent, as well for an original loan, advance or payment made upon the security of the goods or documents, as for any further or continuing advance in respect thereof; and

4. To make such contract binding upon the owner of the goods and on all other persons interested therein, notwithstanding the person claiming such pledge or lien had notice that he was contracting only with an agent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 2.

3. Every agent in possession of goods or documents of title as aforesaid shall, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to have been entrusted therewith by the owner, unless the contrary is shewn in evidence. Agent in possession to be deemed entrusted. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 3.

4. Any agent entrusted as aforesaid and possessed of any document of title, whether derived immediately from the owner of the goods or obtained by reason of the agent having been entrusted with the possession of the goods or of any document of title thereto, shall be deemed to be entrusted with the possession of the goods represented by such document of title. Agent possessed of document of title to be deemed entrusted with goods represented by it. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 4.

5. Any person may contract for the purchase of goods with any agent entrusted with the possession thereof, or to whom the same may be consigned, and may receive and pay for the same to such agent; and such contract and payment shall be binding upon the owner of the goods notwithstanding the purchaser has notice that he is contracting only with an agent. What contracts for purchase to be valid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 5.

6. In case any person has a valid lien and security on any goods or document of title or negotiable security in respect of a previous advance upon a contract with an agent—and in case he delivers up the same to such agent upon a contract for the pledge, lien or security of other goods or of another document or security by such agent delivered to him in exchange, to be held upon the same lien as the goods, document or security so delivered up—then such new contract, if bona fide, shall be deemed a valid contract made in consideration of a present advance of money within this Act, but the lien acquired under such new contract on the goods, document or security deposited What contracts for lien valid.

in exchange shall not exceed the value of the goods, document or security so delivered up and exchanged. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 6.

Pledge of document of title to be deemed pledge of goods represented by it.

7. All contracts pledging or giving a lien upon any such document of title shall be deemed a pledge of and lien upon the goods to which it relates, and the agent shall be deemed the possessor of the goods or documents of title, whether the same are in his actual custody or are held by any other person for him or subject to his control. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 7.

Antecedent debt not to authorize lien.

8. No antecedent debt owing from any agent entrusted as aforesaid, shall authorize any lien or pledge in respect of such debt, nor shall it authorize such agent to deviate from any express orders or authority received from his principal. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 8.

Contracts must be bona fide.

9. Such contracts only shall be valid as are herein mentioned, and such loans, advances and exchanges only shall be valid as are made bona fide and without notice that the agent making the same has no authority so to do, or that he is acting mala fide against the owner of the goods. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 9.

Bona fide transactions with agents to bind owners.

10. All bona fide loans, advances and exchanges as aforesaid though made with notice of the agent not being the owner, but without notice of his acting without authority, shall bind the owner and all other persons interested in the goods, document or security, as the case may be. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 10.

Bona fide loans or advances when deemed authorized.

11. Where any loan or advance is bona fide made to an agent entrusted with and in possession of goods or documents of title as aforesaid on the faith of any contract in writing to consign, deposit, transfer or deliver such goods or documents of title, and the same are actually received by the person making the loan or advance, either at the time of the contract or at a time subsequent thereto, without notice that the agent is not authorized to make the pledge or security, such loan or advance shall be deemed a loan or advance upon the security of the goods or documents of title within this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 11.

What contracts to be considered to be made with agent.

12. Every contract, whether made directly with the agent as aforesaid or with any clerk or other person on his behalf, shall be deemed a contract with such agent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 12.

Payments when deemed advances.

13. Every payment, whether made by money, bills of exchange or other negotiable security, shall be deemed an advance within this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 13.

14. Nothing herein contained shall lessen, alter or affect the civil responsibility of any agent for the breach of any duty or contract or the non-fulfilment of his orders or authority, in respect of any such contract, agreement, lien or pledge as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 14.

Other liability of agents not to be affected.

[See R. S. C., Cap. 164, ss. 63, 71.]

15. The conviction of any agent for a contravention of the Act of Canada respecting larceny and other similar offences shall not be received in evidence in any action against him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 15.

Conviction not admissible in evidence.

16. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the owner from redeeming any goods or documents of title pledged as aforesaid, at any time before the same have been sold, upon repayment of the amount of the lien thereon or restoration of the securities in respect of which the lien exists, and upon payment or satisfaction to the agent of any sum of money for or in respect of which such agent is entitled to retain the goods or documents, by way of lien against such owner; or shall prevent the owner from recovering from the person with whom any goods or documents have been pledged, or who has any lien thereon, any balance or sum of money remaining in his hands as the produce of the sale of the goods, after deducting the amount of the lien under the contract. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 16.

Owners may redeem goods pledged.

17. In case of the bankruptcy of any such agent, and in case the owner of the goods redeems the same, he shall, in respect of the sum paid by him on account of the agent for such redemption, be held to have paid the same for the use of such agent before his bankruptcy, or in case the goods have not been so redeemed, the owner shall be deemed a creditor of the agent for the value of the goods so pledged at the time of the pledge, and may in either case prove for or set-off the sum so paid, or the value of such goods, as the case may be. R. S. O. 1877, c. 121, s. 17.

Remedy of the owner against the estate of bankrupt agent.

CHAPTER 129.

An Act respecting Limited Partnerships.

LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS MAY BE FORMED, s. 1.	CERTIFICATES OF RENEWAL, s. 9.
GENERAL AND SPECIAL PARTNERS, ss. 2-4.	ALTERATIONS, WHEN DEEMED A DISSOLUTION, s. 10.
CERTIFICATE OF PARTNERSHIP. Contents and form, ss. 5, 6.	PARTNERSHIP NAME, s. 11.
To be filed in County Court, s. 7.	LIABILITIES OF GENERAL AND SPECIAL PARTNERS, ss. 12-17.
Partnership not formed until filed, s. 8.	NO PREMATURE DISSOLUTION WITHOUT NOTICE, s. 18.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Limited partnerships may be formed.

1. Limited partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical or manufacturing business within the Province of Ontario, may be formed by two or more persons, upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities hereinafter mentioned, but the provisions of this Act shall not be construed to authorize any such partnership for the purpose of banking or making insurance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 1.

Of whom to consist.

2. Such partnerships may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called general partners, and of one or more persons who contribute in actual cash payments a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called special partners. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 2.

General and special partners.

3. General partners shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners are by law, but special partners shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the amounts by them contributed to the capital. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 3.

General partners only to transact business, etc.

4. The general partners only shall be authorized to transact business and sign for the partnership, and to bind the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 4.

General to sign.

5. The persons desirous of forming such partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate which shall contain—

1. The name or firm under which the partnership is to be conducted; Contents of.
2. The general nature of the business intended to be transacted;
3. The names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners, and their usual places of residence;
4. The amount of capital stock which each special partner has contributed;
5. The period at which the partnership is to commence and the period at which it will terminate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 5.
6. The certificate shall be in the words or to the effect of the Form of form given in the schedule to this Act, and shall be signed by the several persons forming the partnership, before a Notary Public, who shall duly certify the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 6.
7. The certificate so signed and certified shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the County Court of the county, in which the principal place of business of the partnership is situate, and shall be recorded by him at full length in a book to be for that purpose kept and open to public inspection. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 7. Where to be filed.
8. No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate has been made, certified, filed and recorded as above directed; and if any false statement is made in such certificate, all the persons interested in the partnership shall be liable for all the engagements thereof as general partners. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 8. Partnership not formed until filed.
9. Every renewal or continuance of a partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration, shall be certified, filed and recorded in the manner herein required for its original formation; and every partnership otherwise renewed or continued, shall be deemed a general partnership. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 9. Certificates of continuance.
10. Every alteration made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership, and every such partnership in any manner carried on after any such alteration has been made, shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership, according to the provisions of the next preceding section. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 10. What alterations to be deemed a dissolution.

Partnership
name.

11. The business of the partnership shall be conducted under a name or firm in which the names of the general partners, or some or one of them, only shall be used; and if the name of a special partner is used in such firm with his privity, he shall be deemed a general partner. R. S. O. 1877. c. 122, s. 11.

Liability of general partners to actions.

12. Actions in relation to the business of the partnership may be brought and conducted by and against the general partners in the same manner as if there were no special partner. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 12.

Restrictions upon stock of special partners.

13. No part of the sum which a special partner has contributed to the capital stock shall be withdrawn by him, or paid or transferred to him in the shape of dividends, profits or otherwise, at any time during the continuance of the partnership; but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him, if the payment of such interest does not reduce the original amount of the capital; and if after the payment of such interest, any profits remain to be divided, he may also receive his portion of such profits. R. S. O. 1877. c. 122, s. 13.

When liable to refund.

14. If it appears that by the payment of interest or profits to a special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall be bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of the deficient capital, with interest. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 14.

Privileges of special partners.

15. A special partner may from time to time examine into the state and progress of the partnership concerns, and may advise as to their management; but he shall not transact any business on account of the partnership, nor be employed for that purpose as agent, attorney or otherwise; and if he interferes contrary to these provisions, he shall be deemed a general partner. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 15.

General partners liable to account.

16. The general partners shall be liable to account to each other and to the special partners for their management of the concern in like manner as other partners. R. S. O. 1877. c. 122, s. 16.

Other creditors preferred to special partners.

17. In case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the partnership, no special partner shall, under any circumstances, be allowed to claim as a creditor until the claims of all the other creditors of the partnership have been satisfied. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 17.

No premature dissolution without notice, etc.

18. No dissolution of such partnership by the acts of the parties shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation or in the certificate of its renewal.

until a notice of such dissolution has been filed in the office in which the original certificate was recorded, and has been published once in each week, for three weeks, in a newspaper published in the county or district where the partnership has its principal place of business, and for the same time in the Ontario Gazette. R. S. O. 1877, c. 122, s. 18.

	ACT NOT TO APPLY TO CHEESE MANUFACTURING COMPANIES, s. 18.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Persons in partnership to deliver a declaration to the Registrar. 1.—(1) All persons associated in partnership for trading, manufacturing or mining purposes, shall cause to be delivered to the registrar of the registry division in which they carry or intend to carry on business, a declaration in writing, signed by the several members of such co-partnership.

When some of the parties are absent. (2) If, however, any of the said members are absent from the place where they carry or intend to carry on business, at the time of making the declaration, then the declaration shall be signed by the members present in their own names, and also for their absent co-members, under their special authority to that effect, and such special authority shall be at the same time filed with the registrar and annexed to the declaration. R. S. O. 1877, c. 123, s. 1.

Requisites of declaration. 2. The declaration shall be in the form or to the effect of Schedule A to this Act, and shall contain the names, surnames, additions and residences of each and every partner as aforesaid, and the name, style or firm under which they carry on or intend to carry on such business and shall state also the time during which the partnership has existed or is to exist, and declare that the persons therein named are the only members of such co-partnership. R. S. O. 1877, c. 123, s. 2.

3. The declaration shall be filed within six months next after the formation of the partnership. R. S. O. 1877, c. 123, s. 3. Time of filing declaration.

4. A similar declaration shall in like manner be filed when and so often as any change or alteration takes place in the membership of the partnership, or in the name, style or firm under which they intend to carry on business, or in the place of residence of each member of the firm; and every new declaration shall state the alteration in the partnership. R. S. O. 1877, c. 123, s. 4. Declaration where change in partnership.

5. The allegations made in the declarations aforesaid shall not be controvertible as against any party by any person who has signed the same, nor as against any party not being a member of the partnership by any person who has signed the same, or who was really a member of the partnership therein mentioned at the time the declarations were respectively made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 123, s. 5. Allegations in the declaration not to be controvertible against certain parties.

6. Until a new declaration is made and filed by him, or by his co-partners or any of them as aforesaid, no such signer shall be deemed to have ceased to be a partner; but nothing herein contained shall exempt from liability any person who, being a partner, fails to declare the same as already provided, and such person may, notwithstanding such omission, be sued jointly with the partners mentioned in the declaration, or they may be sued alone, and if judgment is recovered against them, any other partner or partners may be sued jointly or severally in an action on the original cause of action upon which the judgment was rendered; nor shall anything in this Act be construed to affect the rights of any partners with regard to each other, except that no declaration as aforesaid shall be controverted by any signer thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 123, s. 6. Persons signing declaration to be deemed partners till new declaration is filed. Liability of partners failing to declare the same. Rights of partners between themselves.

7. Upon the dissolution of a partnership, any or all of the persons who composed the partnership may sign a declaration certifying the dissolution of the partnership: such declaration may be in the form of Schedule B to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 123, s. 7. Declaration of dissolution of partnership may be registered.

8.—(1) If any persons are associated as partners for the purpose of trade, and no declaration is filed under this Act with regard to such partnership, then any action which might be brought against all the members of the partnership may also be brought against any one or more of them, as carrying on or as having carried on business jointly with others, without naming such others in the writ or declaration under the name and style of their said co-partnership firm: and if judgment be recovered against him or them, any other partner or partners may be sued jointly or severally on the original cause of action on which such judgment is rendered; How actions may be brought against partners in trade not filing declaration;

when the action is founded on any obligation in writing.

(2) If any such action be founded on any obligation or instrument in writing in which all or any of the partners bound by it are named, then all the partners named therein shall be made parties to such action; and a judgment rendered against any member of such existing co-partnership for a partnership debt or liability, may be executed by process of execution against all and every the partnership stock, property, and effects, in the same manner, and to the same extent as if such judgment had been rendered against such co-partnership. R. S. O. 1877, c. 123, s. 8.

A person designating his business name as a firm to file a declaration.

9. Every person who is engaged in business for trading, manufacturing, or mining purposes, and who is not associated in partnership with any other person or persons, but who uses as his business style some name or designation other than his own name, or who in such style uses his own name with the addition of "and Company," or some other word or phrase indicating a plurality of members in the firm, shall cause to be delivered to the registrar of the registry division in which such person carries on or intends to carry on business, a declaration in writing, signed by such person. PERSONS WHOSE CONSENT TO THE MARRIAGE OF A MINOR MUST BE OBTAINED, s. 13.	MARRIAGES OF “DISCIPLES OF CHRIST,” s. 21,
FEES FOR LICENSES, s. 14.	LICENSE, &C., TO PROTECT MINISTER FROM DAMAGES IF HE IS UNAWARE OF ANY IMPEDIMENT, s. 22.
MARRIAGE NEED NOT BE IN A CHURCH NOR WITHIN PARTICULAR HOURS, s. 15.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

1. The ministers and clergymen of every church and religious denomination duly ordained or appointed according to the rites and ceremonies of the churches or denominations to which they respectively belong, and resident in Ontario, may, by virtue of such ordination or appointment, and according to the rites and usages of such churches or denominations respectively, solemnize the ceremony of marriage between any two persons not under a legal disqualification to contract such marriage. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 1.

Minister of any denomination may solemnize marriage.

No minister to solemnize marriage unless authorized by license or certificate or after publication of banns.

2. No minister or clergyman shall celebrate the ceremony of marriage between any two persons, unless duly authorized so to do by license under the hand and seal of the Lieutenant-Governor, or his Deputy duly authorized in that behalf, or by a certificate under this Act, or unless the intention of the two persons to intermarry has been proclaimed once, openly, and in an audible voice, either in the church, chapel or meeting-house in which one of the parties has been in the habit of attending worship, or in some church, chapel, meeting-house, or place of public worship of the congregation or religious community with which the minister or clergyman who performs the ceremony is connected, in the local municipality, parish, circuit or pastoral charge, where one of the parties has, for the space of fifteen days immediately preceding, had his or her usual place of abode; such proclamation to be on a Sunday, immediately before the service begins, or immediately after it ends, or at some intermediate part of the service. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 2. See Cap. 12, s. 2.

Certificate instead of license.

3. A certificate in the form given in Schedule A or Schedule B to this Act (according to the circumstances of the case) may at the option of the applicant, be substituted for a marriage license; and such certificate shall have the same legal effect as a license. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 3.

Licenses and certificates to be issued by Prov. Sec.

4. Such licenses or certificates shall be issued from the office of the Provincial Secretary, and shall be furnished to persons requiring the same by such persons as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may name for that purpose. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 4.

Licenses signed by official persons valid notwithstanding their offices vacated.

5. Every license executed under the hand and seal of the Lieutenant-Governor, or his Deputy duly authorized in that behalf, and every certificate signed by the Provincial Secretary or Assistant Provincial Secretary, for the purpose of solemnizing a marriage, shall be and remain valid, notwithstanding that the Lieutenant-Governor or Deputy, or Provincial Secretary, or Assistant Provincial Secretary has ceased to hold office before the time of the issue of the license or certificate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 5. See Cap. 12, s. 2.

Unauthorized persons issuing licenses to be subject to a fine.

6. If any person issues any license or certificate for the solemnization of marriage without being authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council in that behalf, unless under the authority in the next section contained, he shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $100 for every license or certificate so issued. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 6.

Deputy issues may be appointed.

7.—(1) Any issuer of marriage licenses or certificates may, with the approval, in writing, of the mayor or reeve of the city, town, township or incorporated village wherein he resides, from time to time, when prevented from acting by illness or unavoidable accident, or where his temporary absence is contemplated, appoint, by writing under his hand, a deputy to act for him.

(2) The said deputy shall, while so acting at the residence or office or place of business of the said issuer for whom the deputy acts possess the powers and privileges (as to administering necessary oaths and otherwise) of the issuer appointing him. Powers.

(3) The issuer shall, upon appointing a deputy, forthwith transmit to the Provincial Secretary a notice of the appointment, and of the cause thereof, and of the name and official position of the person by whom the appointment has been approved, and the Lieutenant-Governor may at any time annul the appointment. Appointment of Deputy to be certified to Prov. Sec.

(4) In case it is necessary on account of illness, unavoidable accident, or contemplated temporary absence of an issuer of marriage licenses, to appoint a deputy, and there is no mayor or reeve to give the consent required by the provisions of sub-section 1 of this section, such issuer of marriage licenses may, in the manner in other respects required by said sub-section, but without such consent, appoint such deputy; and the licenses or certificates issued by such deputy shall be deemed to authorize the solemnization of marriages at the same places as licenses or certificates issued by the principal for whom such deputy acts; and no irregularity in the appointment of a deputy issuer shall affect the validity of a license or certificate by him issued. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 7. Where no Mayor, etc.

8. Every deputy so appointed shall sign each license and certificate issued by him, with the name of his principal as well as his own name, in the following manner—"A. B., Issuer of Marriage Licenses, per C. D., Deputy Issuer," or to the like effect; but no irregularity in the issue of a license or certificate issued by an issuer or deputy issuer to any person or persons obtaining the same, or acting thereon in good faith, shall invalidate a marriage solemnized in pursuance thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 8. How Deputies to sign licenses.

9. Every issuer of licenses or certificates aforesaid, or any other person having unissued licenses or certificates in his possession, power, custody or control, shall whenever required so to do, transmit to the Provincial Secretary every such license or certificate; and the property in all unissued licenses and certificates shall be and remain in Her Majesty. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 9. Unissued licenses to be returned when required.

10. All expenses incident to providing licenses and certificates, shall be paid by the issuer of the licenses and certificates. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 10. Expense of providing licenses.

Affidavit of party before license or certificate is granted.

11.—(1) Before any license or certificate is granted by any issuer or deputy issuer, one of the parties to the intended marriage shall personally make an affidavit which shall state

- (a) In what county or district it is intended that the marriage shall be solemnized, and in what town, village or place in the county or district, and
- (b) That he or she believes that there is no affinity, consanguinity, precontract, or other lawful cause, or legal impediment, to bar or hinder the solemnization of the marriage ;
- (c) That one of the parties has for the space of fifteen days immediately preceding the issue of the license or certificate had his or her usual place of abode within the county or judicial district in which (for either municipal or judicial purposes) the local municipality in which the marriage is to be solemnized lies ;

Or (if the county or district in which it is intended that the marriage shall be solemnized is not that in which either of the parties has, for the space of fifteen days immediately preceding the issue of the license or certificate, had his or her usual place of abode), that the reason of procuring the marriage to be solemnized in such place is not in order to evade due publicity or for any other improper purpose.

(2) In case either of the parties, not being a widower or widow, is under the age of twenty-one years, the affidavit shall further state that the consent of the person whose consent to the marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto.

(3) If there is no person having authority to give such consent then, upon oath made to that effect by the party requiring the license or certificate, it shall be lawful to grant the license or certificate notwithstanding the want of any such consent.

(4) The affidavit may be in the form set forth in Schedule C to this Act, and may be made before the issuer of licenses or his deputy. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 11.

Issuer having personal knowledge or reason to suspect that affidavit is untrue.

12. In case the person having authority to issue the license or certificate has personal knowledge that the facts are not as section 11 of this Act requires, he shall not issue the license or certificate ; and if he has any reason to believe or suspect that the facts are not as aforesaid, he shall, before issuing the license or certificate, require further evidence to his satisfaction in addition to the said affidavit or deposition. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 12.

Persons whose consent to marriage of a minor is to be obtained.

13. The father, if living, of any party under twenty-one years of age (not being a widower or widow), or if the father is dead the guardian or guardians of the person of the party so under age, lawfully appointed, or one of the guardians, if there are more than one ; or in case there is no such guardian, then the mother of the minor, if the mother is unmarried, shall have authority to give consent to the marriage. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 13.

14. No fee shall be payable for any license or certificate, except the sum of $2, which the issuer of the license or certificate shall be entitled to retain for his own use ; but the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time reduce, the sum so payable. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 14.

15. It shall not be a valid objection to the legality of a marriage that the same was not solemnized in a consecrated church or chapel, or within any particular hours. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 15.

No valid objection that marriage was not solemnized in a church, etc.

16. Every clergyman or minister, who celebrates a marriage, shall, if required at the time of the marriage by either of the parties thereto, give a certificate of the marriage under his hand, specifying the names of the persons married, the time of the marriage, and the names of two or more persons who witnessed it, and specifying also whether the marriage was solemnized pursuant to license or certificate under this Act, or after publication of banns ; and the clergyman or minister may demand twenty-five cents for the certificate given by him from the person requiring it. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 16.

Ministers to give certificate if required.

Fee for certificate.

17. Every clergyman or minister shall, immediately after he has solemnized a marriage, enter in a book, to be kept by him for the purpose, a true record of the marriage ; which record shall specify all the particulars, given in Schedule B to The Act respecting the Registration of Births, Marriages and Deaths. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 17.

Ministers to enter marriages in a book, etc.
Form of record.
Rev. Stat. c. 40.

18. The Clerk of the Peace of every county shall, at the expense of the county from time to time on demand, furnish all clergymen or ministers with the books to be kept ; and such books shall have columns and headings printed on every page according to the form of said Schedule B ; and the books shall be of such size and form as to admit of the necessary entries being conveniently made therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 18.

Clerks of the Peace to furnish books and printed forms at the expense of the County.

19. The book by whomsoever furnished shall be the property of the church or denomination to which the clergyman or minister, clerk or secretary belongs at the time of the first marriage which he records therein. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 19.

Said books, etc., to be property of the church to which clergyman belongs.

20. Every marriage duly solemnized between members of the Religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, according to the rites and usages thereof, shall be valid ; and all the duties imposed by this Act, or by The Act respecting the Registration of Births, Marriages and Deaths, upon a minister Quakers' marriages declared valid.

Rev. Stat. c. 40.

and clergyman, shall with regard to such marriage, be performed by the clerk or secretary of the Society, or of the meeting at which the marriage is solemnized. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 20.

Marriages of "Disciples of Christ."

21.—(1) This Act shall be deemed to apply to the churches or congregations of religious people commonly called or known congregationally as "Congregations of God," or of Christ, and individually as "Disciples of Christ;" and any elder, evangelist or missionary, for the time being, of any such church or congregation, who, from time to time is chosen by any such congregation, for the purpose of the solemnization of marriages, shall be deemed to have, for the time being, the authority of a minister or a clergyman under this Act, and within the meaning thereof. 46 V. c. 11, s. 2.

Rev. Stat. c. 40. (2) All the duties imposed upon and rights given to ministers and clergymen by this Act, or by The Act respecting the Registration of Births, Marriages and Deaths, are hereby imposed upon and given to such elders, evangelists, or missionaries, as aforesaid. 46 V. c. 11, s. 3.

License to protect minister from damages where he is unaware of the impediment.

22. No minister who performs a marriage ceremony after banns published, or after a license or a certificate under this Act issued, shall be subject to any action or liability for damages or otherwise by reason of there having been any legal impediment to the marriage, unless, at the time when he performed the ceremony, he was aware of the impediment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 124, s. 21.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Married Women's Property Act." 47 V. c. 19, s. 1. Short title.

2. In this Act the word "contract" shall include the acceptance of any trust, or of the office of executrix or administratrix, and the provisions of this Act as to liabilities of married women shall extend to all liabilities by reason of any breach of trust or devastavit committed by a married woman being a trustee or executrix or administratrix either before or after her marriage, and her husband shall not be subject to such liabilities unless he has acted or intermeddled in the trust or administration, and the word "property" shall include a thing in action. 47 V. c. 19, s. 21. Interpretation "Contract."

"Property."

3.—(1) A married woman shall be capable of acquiring, holding, and disposing by will or otherwise, of any real or personal property as her separate property, in the same manner as if she were a feme sole, without the intervention of any trustee. Married woman to be capable of holding property as a feme sole.

(2) A married woman shall be capable of entering into and rendering herself liable in respect of and to the extent of her separate property on any contract, and of suing and being sued, in all respects as if she were a feme sole, and her husband need not be joined with her as plaintiff or defendant, or be made a party to any action or other legal proceeding brought by or taken against her; and any damages or costs recovered by her in any such action or proceeding shall be her separate property; and any damages or costs recovered against her in any such action or proceeding shall be payable out of her separate property, and not otherwise.

(3) Every contract entered into by a married woman shall be deemed to be a contract entered into by her with respect to and to bind her separate property, unless the contrary is shewn.

(4) Every contract entered into by a married woman with respect to and to bind her separate property, shall bind, not only the separate property which she is possessed of or entitled to at the date of the contract, but also all separate property which she may thereafter acquire. 47 V. c. 19, s. 2.

4.—(1) Every woman married on or before the 4th day of May, 1859, without any marriage contract or settlement, shall and may, from and after the said day, notwithstanding her coverture, have, hold and enjoy all her real estate not on or before the said 4th day of May taken possession of by her husband, by himself or his tenants, and all her personal property not on or before said day reduced into the possession of A woman married on or before 4th May, 1859, may hold property not then reduced to possession of her husband.

her husband, whether belonging to her before marriage or in any way acquired by her after marriage, free from his debts and obligations contracted after the said 4th day of May, and from his control or disposition without her consent, in as full and ample a manner as if she were sole and unmarried.

A woman married between 4th May, 1859, and 2nd Mar., 1872, may hold her real property free from the debts or control of her husband.

(2) Every woman married between the 5th day of May, 1859, and the 2nd day of March, 1872 (both inclusive), without any marriage contract or settlement, shall and may, notwithstanding her coverture, have, hold and enjoy all her real property, whether belonging to her before marriage or acquired by her by inheritance, devise or gift, or as heir-at-law to an intestate, or in any other way after marriage, free from the debts and obligations of her husband, and free from his control or disposition, without her consent, in as full and ample a manner as if she continued sole and unmarried; but this section shall not extend to any property received by a married woman from her husband during coverture.

Proviso.

A woman married after 2nd March, 1872, may hold her real property free from any estate or claim of her husband during her life.

(3) The real estate of any woman married after the 2nd day of March, 1872, whether owned by her at the time of her marriage, or acquired in any manner during her coverture, and the rents, issues and profits thereof respectively, shall, without prejudice and subject to the trusts of any settlement affecting the same, be held and enjoyed by her for her separate use, free from any estate therein of her husband during her lifetime, and from his debts and obligations, and from any claim or estate by him, as tenant by the curtesy; and her receipts alone shall be a discharge for any rents, issues and profits of the same; but nothing herein contained shall prejudice the right of the husband as tenant by the curtesy in any real estate of the wife which she has not disposed of inter vivos, or by will.

A woman married since 4th May, 1859, may hold her personal property free from the debts or control of her husband.

(4) Every woman married since the 4th day of May, 1859, without any marriage contract or settlement, shall and may, notwithstanding her coverture, have, hold and enjoy all her personal property, whether belonging to her before marriage or acquired by her by inheritance, bequest or gift, or as next of kin to an intestate, or in any other way after marriage, free from the debts and obligations of her husband, and free from his control or disposition, without her consent, in as full and ample a manner as if she continued sole and unmarried; but this sub-section shall not extend to any property received by a married woman from her husband during coverture. R.S.O. 1877, c. 125, ss. 2-5; 47 V. c. 19, s. 22; 50 V. c. 7, s. 21.

Proviso.

Estimate of married women.

5.—(1) Every married woman, whether married before or after the passing of this Act, shall be entitled to have and hold as her separate property, and to dispose of as her separate property, the wages, earnings, money and property, gained or acquired by her in any employment, trade or occupation in which she is engaged or carries on, and in which her husband has no proprietary interest, or gained or acquired by the exercise of any literary, artistic or scientific skill. 50 V. c. 7, s. 22.

(2) Every woman married on or after the first day of July, 1884, shall also be entitled to have and hold and to dispose of as her separate property all other real and personal property belonging to her at the time of marriage, or acquired by or devolving upon her after marriage. 47 V. c. 19, s. 3.

Property of a woman married on or after 1st July, 1884, to be held by her as jure sole.

6. The execution of a general power by will by a married woman shall have the effect of making the property appointed liable for her debts and other liabilities in the same manner as her separate estate is made liable under this Act. 47 V. c. 19, s. 4.

Execution of general power.

7. Every woman married before the first day of July, 1884, shall be entitled to have and to hold and to dispose of in manner aforesaid as her separate property, all real and personal property, her title to which, whether vested or contingent, and whether in possession, reversion, or remainder, shall accrue on or after the said first day of July, including any wages, earnings, money, and property so gained or acquired by her as aforesaid. 47 V. c. 19, s. 5.

Property acquired after 1st July, 1884, by a woman married before that date to be held by her as a jure sole.

8. Notwithstanding that a married woman is restrained from anticipation, the Court may, if it thinks fit, where it appears to the Court to be for her benefit, by judgment or order, with her consent, bind her interest in any property. 49 V. c. 20, s. 18.

Power for court to bind interest of married women. Imp. 44 & 45 V. c. 41, s. 39.

9. All deposits, all sums forming part of public stocks or funds, which on the first day of July, 1884, were standing in the sole name of a married woman, and all shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock, or other interests of or in any corporation, company, or public body, municipal, commercial, or otherwise, or of, or in any industrial, provident, friendly, benefit, building, or loan society, which, on the first day of July, 1884, were standing in her name, shall be deemed, unless and until the contrary be shewn, to be the separate property of such married woman; and the fact that any such deposit, sum forming part of public stocks, funds, or of any share, stock, debenture, debenture stock, or other interest as aforesaid, is standing in the sole name of a married woman, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence that she is beneficially entitled thereto for her separate use, so as to authorize and empower her to receive or transfer the same, and to receive the dividends, interests, and profits thereof, without the concurrence of her husband, and to indemnify all public officers, and all directors, managers, and trustees of every such corporation, company, public body, or society as aforesaid, in respect thereof. 47 V. c. 19, s. 6.

As to stock, etc., to which a married woman is entitled.

10. All such particulars mentioned in the preceding section which after the first day of July, 1884, were placed, or transferred in or into, or made to stand, in the sole name of any married woman shall be deemed, unless and until the contrary be shewn, to be her separate property, in respect of which, so far as any liability may be incident thereto, her separate estate shall alone be liable, whether the same shall be so expressed in the document whereby her title to the same is created or certified, or in the books or register wherein her title is entered or recorded or not; Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall require or authorize any corporation or joint stock company to admit any married woman to be a holder of any shares or stock therein to which any liability may be incident contrary to the provisions of any statute, charter, by-law, articles of association, or deed of settlement regulating such corporation or company. 47 V. c. 19, s. 7.

As to stock, etc., to which a married woman is entitled.

Proviso.

Investments in joint names of married women and others.

11. All the provisions hereinbefore contained as to such particulars mentioned in section 9, which on the first day of July, 1884, were standing in the sole name of a married woman, or which after that time shall be placed or transferred to or into or made to stand in the sole name of a married woman, shall respectively extend and apply, so far as relates to the estate, right, title, or interest of the married woman, to any of the particulars aforesaid which, on the 25th day of March, 1884, were standing in, or which shall be placed, or transferred to or into, or made to stand in, the name of any married woman jointly with any person or persons other than her husband. 47 V. c. 19, s. 8.

As to stock, etc., standing in the joint names of a married woman and others.

12. It shall not be necessary for the husband of any married woman, in respect of her interest, to join in the transfer of any such particulars named in section 9, which shall after the 25th day of March, 1884, be standing in the sole name of any married woman, or in the joint names of such married woman, and any other person or persons not being her husband. 47 V. c. 19, s. 9.

Fraudulent investments with money of husband.

13. If any investment in any of the particulars set forth in section 9 shall have been made by a married woman by means of moneys of her husband, without his consent, the Court may, upon an application under section 18 of this Act, order such investment, and the dividends thereof, or any part thereof, to be transferred and paid respectively to the husband; and nothing in this Act contained shall give validity as against creditors of the husband, to any gift, by a husband to his wife, of any property, in fraud of his creditors, or to any deposit or other investment of moneys of the husband made by or in the name of his wife in fraud of his creditors; but any property or moneys so deposited or invested may be followed as if this Act had not been passed. 47 V. c. 19, s. 10.

Remedies of married woman for protection and security of separate property.

14. Every woman, whether married before or after this Act, shall have in her own name against all persons whomsoever, including her husband, the same remedies for the protection and security of her own separate property, as if such property belonged to her as a feme sole, but, except as aforesaid, no husband or wife shall be entitled to sue the other for a tort. In any proceeding under this section it shall be sufficient to allege such property to be her property; and in any proceeding under this section a husband or wife shall be competent to give evidence against each other. 47 V. c. 19, s. 11.

15. A woman after her marriage shall continue to be liable in respect and to the extent of her separate property for all debts contracted, and all contracts entered into or wrongs committed by her before her marriage; and she may be sued for any such debt and for any liability in damages or otherwise under any such contract, or in respect of any such wrong; and all sums recovered against her in respect thereof, or for any costs relating thereto, shall be payable out of her separate property; and, as between her and her husband, unless there be any contract between them to the contrary, her separate property shall be deemed to be primarily liable for all such debts, contracts or wrongs, and for all damages or costs recovered in respect thereof: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall operate to increase or diminish the liability of any woman married before the commencement of this Act for any such debt, contract or wrong, as aforesaid. 47 V. c. 19, s. 12.

Wife's ante-nuptial debts and liabilities.

Proviso.

16. A husband shall be liable for the debts of his wife contracted, and for all contracts entered into and wrongs committed by her, before marriage, and for wrongs committed by her after marriage, to the extent of all property whatsoever belonging to his wife which he shall have acquired or become entitled to from or through his wife, after deducting therefrom any payments made by him, and any sums for which judgment may have been bona fide recovered against him in any legal proceeding, in respect of any such debts, contracts or wrongs, for or in respect of which his wife is liable; but he shall not be liable for the same any further or otherwise; and any Court in which a husband shall be sued for any such debt or liability shall have power to direct any inquiry or proceedings which it may think proper for the purpose of ascertaining the nature, amount or value of such property: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall operate to increase or diminish the liability of any husband married before the first day of July, 1884, for or in respect of any such debt or other liability of his wife as aforesaid. 47 V. c. 19, s. 13.

Husband to be liable for his wife's debts and other liabilities to a certain extent.

Proviso.

17. A husband and wife may be jointly sued in respect of any such debt or other liability (whether for contract or for any wrong) contracted or incurred by the wife as aforesaid if the plaintiff in the action shall seek to establish his claim either wholly or in part, against both of them; and if in any such action, or in any action brought in respect of any such debt or liability against the husband alone, it is not found that the husband is liable in respect of any property of the wife so acquired by him or to which he shall have become so entitled as aforesaid, he shall have judgment for his costs of defence, whatever may be the result of the action against the wife if jointly sued with him; and in any such action against husband and wife jointly, if it appears that the husband is liable for the debt or damages recovered, or any part thereof, the judgment to the extent of the amount for which the husband is liable shall be a joint judgment against the husband personally and against the wife as to her separate property; and as to the residue, if any, of such debt and damages, the judgment shall be a separate judgment against the wife as to her separate property only. 47 V. c. 19, s. 14.

Suits for wife's liabilities.

Questions between husband and wife as to property to be decided in a summary way.

18.—(1) In any question between husband and wife as to the title to or possession of property, either party, or any corporation, company, public body, or society in whose books any stocks, funds or shares of either party are standing, may apply by summons or otherwise, in a summary way, to a Judge of the High Court, or (at the option of the applicant, irrespectively of the value of the property in dispute) to the Judge of the County Court of the county in which either party resides, and the Judge may make such order with respect to the property in dispute, and as to the costs of and consequent on the application, as he thinks fit; or may direct such application to stand over from time to time, and any inquiry touching the matters in question to be made in such manner as he shall think fit.

(2) Any order of a Judge of the High Court, made under the provisions of this section, shall be subject to appeal in the same way as an order made by the same Judge in an action in the said Court.

(3) Any order of a County Court, under the provisions of this section, shall be subject to appeal in the same way as any other order made by the same Court.

(4) All proceedings in a County Court, under this section, in which, by reason of the character or value of the property in dispute, such Court would not have had jurisdiction if this Act had not passed, may, at the option of the defendant or respondent to such proceedings, be removed as of right into the High Court, by writ of certiorari, or otherwise, as may be prescribed by any rule of the Supreme Court of Ontario; but any order made or act done in the course of the proceedings, prior to the removal, shall be valid, unless order is made to the contrary by the High Court.

(5) The Judge of the High Court, or County Court, if either party so require, may hear any such application in his private room.

(6) Any such corporation, company, public body, or society, as aforesaid, shall, in the matter of any such application, for the purposes of costs or otherwise, be treated as a stakeholder only. 47 V. c. 19, s. 15.

Married woman as an executrix or trustee.

19. A married woman, who is an executrix or administratrix, alone or jointly with any other person or persons, of the estate of any deceased person, or a trustee alone or jointly as aforesaid, of property subject to any trust, may sue or be sued, and may transfer or join in transferring, in that character, any such particulars as mentioned in section 9, without her husband, as if she were a feme sole. 47 V. c. 19, s. 16.

20. Nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with or affect any settlement or agreement for a settlement made or to be made, whether before or after marriage, respecting the property of any married woman, or shall interfere with or render inoperative any restriction against anticipation at present attached or to be hereafter attached to the enjoyment of any property or income by a woman under any settlement, agreement for a settlement, will, or other instrument; but no restriction against anticipation contained in any settlement or agreement for a settlement of a woman's own property to be made or entered into by herself shall have any validity against debts contracted by her before marriage, and no settlement or agreement for a settlement shall have any greater force or validity against creditors of such woman than a like settlement or agreement for a settlement made or entered into by a man would have against his creditors. 47 V. c. 19, s. 17.

21.—(1) Any married woman having a decree for alimony against her husband, or any married woman who lives apart from her husband, having been obliged to leave him from cruelty or other cause which by law justifies her leaving him and renders him liable for her support, or any married woman whose husband is a lunatic with or without lucid intervals, or any married woman whose husband is undergoing sentence of imprisonment in the Provincial Penitentiary or in any gaol for a criminal offence, or any married woman whose husband from habitual drunkenness, profligacy, or other cause, neglects or refuses to provide for her support and that of his family, or any married woman whose husband has never been in this Province, or any married woman who is deserted or abandoned by her husband, may obtain an order of protection, entitling her, notwithstanding her coverture, to have and to enjoy all the earnings of her minor children, and any acquisitions therefrom, free from the debts and obligations of her husband and from his control or dispositions, and without his consent, in as full and ample a manner as if she continued sole and unmarried.

(2) The married woman may at any time apply, or the husband or any of the husband's creditors may at any time on notice to the married woman, apply for the discharge of the order of protection; and if an order for such discharge is made the same may be registered or filed like the original order.

(3) Either order may issue in duplicate, and where the married woman resides in a city or town in which there is a police magistrate, the order for protection or any order discharging the same shall be made by the police magistrate, and shall be registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the city or town is situate.

(4) Where the married woman does not reside in a city or town in which there is a police magistrate, the order shall be made by the Judge or one of the Judges, or the acting or deputy Judge of the Division Courts or a Division Court of the county in which the married woman resides; and instead of being registered, shall be filed for public inspection with the clerk of the Division Court of the division within which the married woman resides.

Hearing may be public or private.

(5) The hearing of an application for an order of protection, or for an order discharging the same may be public or private, at the discretion of the Judge or police magistrate.

Order not to have effect until registered.

Evidence of order, etc.

(6) The order for protection shall have no effect until it is registered or filed, and the registrar or clerk shall immediately on receiving the order endorse thereon the day of registering or filing the same; and a certificate of the registering or filing and date, signed by the registrar or clerk for the time being, shall be prima facie evidence of such registering or filing and date; and a copy of the order which is registered or filed certified under the hand of the registrar or clerk to be a true copy thereof, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of the order without proof of the signature of the registrar or clerk, and without further proof of the order itself, or of the making or validity thereof.

From what time the order discharging protection shall take effect.

(7) The order for discharging an order of protection shall not in any case be retroactive, but shall take effect from the time it is made, and the order for protection shall protect the earnings of the minor children of the married woman until an order is made discharging such order of protection, and the married woman shall continue to hold and enjoy to her separate use whatever, during the interval between the registering or filing of the order of protection and the making of the order discharging the same, she may have acquired by the earnings of her minor children. 47 V. c. 19, s. 18.

Legal representative of married woman.

22. For the purposes of this Act the legal personal representative of any married woman shall, in respect of her separate estate, have the same rights and liabilities and be subject to the same jurisdiction as she would be if she were living. 47 V. c. 19, s. 19.

Separate personal property of wife dying intestate, how to be distributed.

23. The separate personal property of a married woman dying intestate shall be distributed in the same proportions between her husband and her children as the personal property of a husband dying intestate is to be distributed between his wife and children; and if there be no child or children living at the death of the wife so dying intestate, then such property shall pass and be distributed as if this Act had not passed. 47 V. c. 19, s. 20.

Married women's rights prior to 1st July, 1884, not affected.
47 V. c. 19.

24. This Act shall not be construed to deprive a woman married prior to the commencement of The Married Women's Property Act, 1884, of any right or privilege which she had at the time of the commencement of the Act, or would afterwards have if that Act had not been passed. 50 V. c. 7, s. 21.

CHAPTER 133.

An Act respecting Dower.

DOWER OUT OF EQUITABLE ESTATES, s. 1.	PROVISIONS FOR CONVEYING FREE FROM DOWER WHERE WIFE DIS-ENTITLED OR A LUNATIC, ss. 9, 10.
DOWER WHERE HUSBAND HAD A RIGHT OF ENTRY, s. 2.	JUDGE'S ORDERS AS TO DOWER, ss. 11, 12.
DOWER NOT RECOVERABLE OUT OF WILD LANDS, s. 3.	APPLICATION OF SECTS. 9-12, s. 13.
DOWER ad ostium ecclesie and ex assensu patris ABOLISHED, s. 4.	REGISTRATION OF ORDERS, ss. 14-16.
EFFECT OF BAR OF DOWER IN MORTGAGES, ss. 5-8.	INDORSEMENT OF ORDERS ON DEED, ss. 15-17.
	DEEDS BARRING DOWER BEFORE 2ND MARCH, 1877, CONFIRMED, s. 18.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. Where a husband dies beneficially entitled to any land for an interest which does not entitle his widow to dower at common law, and such interest, whether wholly equitable or partly legal and partly equitable, is an estate of inheritance in possession, or equal to an estate of inheritance in possession, (other than an estate in joint tenancy), then his widow shall be entitled to dower out of the same land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, s. 1.

2. Where a husband has been entitled to a right of entry or action in any land, and his widow would be entitled to dower out of the same if he had recovered possession thereof, she shall be entitled to dower out of the same although her husband did not recover possession thereof; but such dower shall be sued for or obtained within the period during which such right of entry or action might be enforced. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, s. 2.

3. Dower shall not be recoverable out of any separate and distinct lot, tract or parcel of land, which, at the time of the alienation by the husband or at the time of his death, if he died seised thereof, was in a state of nature, and unimproved by clearing, fencing or otherwise for the purposes of cultivation or occupation; but this shall not restrict or diminish the right to have woodland assigned to the dowress under section 12 of The Dower Procedure Act, from which it shall be lawful for her to take firewood necessary for her own use, and timber for fencing the other portions of land assigned to her of the same lot, tract or parcel. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, s. 3.

Certain dower abolished.

4. No widow shall be entitled to dower ad ostium ecclesie, or dower ex assensu patris. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, s. 4.

Effect of bar of dower in mortgages.

5. No bar of dower contained in any mortgage, or other instrument intended to have the effect of a mortgage or other security, upon real estate, shall operate to bar such dower to any greater extent than shall be necessary to give full effect to the rights of the mortgagee or grantee under such instrument. 42 V. c. 22, s. 1.

Wife entitled to dower in surplus of purchase money arising from sale under mortgage.

6. In the event of a sale of the land comprised in such mortgage or other instrument, under any power of sale contained therein or under any legal process, the wife of the mortgagor or grantor who shall have so barred her dower in such lands, shall be entitled to dower in any surplus of the purchase money arising from such sale, which may remain after satisfaction of the claim of the mortgagee or grantee, to the same extent as she would have been entitled to dower in the land from which such surplus purchase money shall be derived had the same not been sold. 42 V. c. 22, s. 2.

Payment of money into Court.

7.—(1) A mortgagee or other person holding any money out of which a married woman shall be dowable under the preceding two sections of this Act may pay the same into the High Court to the credit of such married woman and the other persons interested therein.

Order for securing right of dower.

(2) The High Court or a Judge thereof, may on a summary application by petition or motion, make such order for securing the right of dower of any married woman, in any money out of which she shall be dowable, as may be just. 42 V. c. 22, s. 3.

Widow's election.

8. A widow shall not be entitled to take her interest in money under the preceding two sections of this Act, and in addition thereto a share of the money as personal estate. 42 V. c. 22, s. 4.

Application in order to mortgage or sell free from dower where wife disentitled.

9.—(1) Where the wife of an owner of land has been living apart from him for two years under such circumstances as by law disentitle her to alimony, and such owner is desirous of selling or mortgaging the land free from dower, he may apply to a Judge of the High Court, and, if the Judge approves, he may, by an order to be made by him in a summary way, upon such evidence as to the Judge seems meet, and either ex parte or upon notice (to be served personally unless the Judge otherwise directs), dispense with the concurrence of the wife for the purpose of barring her dower, and he shall (unless the wife has been so living apart from her husband under such circumstances as disentitle her to dower) ascertain and state in the order the value of such dower, and order such amount to remain a charge upon the property, or to be secured otherwise for the wife's benefit, or to be paid and applied for her benefit as he deems best; and thereupon a conveyance or mortgage by the husband, expressed to be free from his wife's dower, shall, subject to any terms mentioned in the order, be sufficient to bar her right thereto, as if she had duly executed a deed jointly with her husband for that purpose. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, s. 10 (1); 41 V. c. 8, s. 13; 44 V. c. 14, s. 1.

(2) This section shall apply to any case in which an agreement for sale had been made, and a conveyance executed by the husband before the 5th day of March, 1880, and part of the purchase money retained by the purchaser on account of dower, or an indemnity given against such dower. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, s. 9, part; 43 V. c. 14, s. 4.

10. —(1) Where an owner of land whose wife is a lunatic, or of unsound mind, and confined as such in a Lunatic Asylum, is desirous of selling or mortgaging the land free from dower, he may apply in that behalf to the Judge of the County Court of the county in which he resides or to a Judge of the High Court, and if the Judge approves, he may, by an order to be made by him in a summary way, upon such evidence as to the Judge seems meet, and either ex parte or upon such notice as he may deem requisite, dispense with the concurrence of the wife for the purpose of barring her dower, and also he shall ascertain and state in the order the value of such dower, and order such amount to remain a charge upon the property, or to be secured otherwise for the wife's benefit, or to be paid and applied for her benefit as he deems best, and thereupon a conveyance or mortgage by the husband, expressed to be free from his wife's dower, shall, subject to the terms and conditions mentioned in the order, be sufficient to bar her right thereto, as if she were of sound mind, and had duly executed a deed jointly with her husband for that purpose.

Dower, or conveyance when wife is a lunatic confined in an asylum.

Dower, to be ascertained and to be charge on land or secured for wife's benefit.

(2) On every such application the Judge shall be entitled to his own use to a fee of $5, and no other fee or charge of any kind shall be payable in respect thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, s. 8 (1, 2); 44 V., c. 14, s. 3.

(3) This section shall apply to any case in which an agreement for sale has been made and a conveyance has been executed by the husband, and any part of the purchase money has been retained by the purchaser on account of dower, and to any case in which an indemnity has been given against the dower of the wife. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, s. 9, part; 43 V. c. 14, s. 4.

Similar application to ascertain dower in certain other cases.

11. In case the gaol surgeon of any county or district in which a married woman resides, and another medical practitioner to be named by the Judge, shall each certify (Form A) that he has personally examined such married woman and that he is of opinion that she is insane, and the Judge of the County Judge's order as to dower where wife is lunatic but not confined in an asylum.

Court of the county in which such married woman resides, or a Judge of the High Court, also certifies (Form B) that he has personally examined such married woman, and that from such examination and from the evidence adduced before him, if such Judge thinks it expedient to hear evidence, he is of opinion that such married woman is insane, the said Judge may make the like order as by the preceding section of this Act, is authorized in the case of a married woman of unsound mind who is confined in an asylum for the insane. The examination and certificates required by this section must all be made and granted within a period of one month, or such certificates shall not be acted upon by the said Judge, and the application shall not be entertained unless it is made within one month of the day upon which the last of such examinations took place. 44 V. c. 14, s. 2.

Subsequent orders by judge as to other sales or mortgages.

12. In case a Judge makes an order under any of the preceding three sections of this Act, with reference to any parcel of land, he may afterwards make orders in respect of other sales or mortgages, either on the like evidence as is required for the first application, or on any other evidence which may satisfy him, of the continued insanity of the married woman. 44 V. c. 14, s. 4.

Application of ss. 9, 10, 11 and 12.

13. Sections 9, 10, 11 and 12 of this Act shall apply to any case where any person owns, or has the right to sell or mortgage (whether as trustee or otherwise), land which is subject to dower, whether such dower is inchoate or complete, and whether the person applying is or is not the husband of the dowress. 46 V. c. 12, s. 1.

Registration of order.

14. The order may be in duplicate or in as many parts as are necessary, and shall be signed by the Judge, and may be registered in the registry office of the registry division wherein the lands to which the same relates are situate, upon its production and deposit, without any proof thereof; and such registration may take place either before or after the execution of the deed made in pursuance of such order. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, ss. 8 (3), 10 (2); c. 127, s. 6; 44 V., c. 14, s. 6.

Order may be indorsed on deed.

15. The order may, if desired, be indorsed or written upon the deed to which the same relates, in which case it shall be registered as part of the deed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, ss. 8 (3), 10 (2); c. 127, s. 7; 44 V., c. 14, s. 6.

Fee for registration of order.

16. For the registration of the order including all necessary entries and certificates, the registrar shall be entitled to a fee of $1, unless the order is indorsed or written upon the deed in which case no fee shall be payable in respect of the registration thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, ss. 8 (3), 10 (2); c. 127, s. 8; 44 V., c. 14, s. 6.

17. If the order is indorsed or written upon the deed to be made in pursuance thereof, the real estate to which the same relates may be described in the order by reference to the description contained in the deed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 126, ss. 8 (3), 10 (2); c. 127, s. 10; 44 V. c. 14, s. 6.

Description of land in order when order indorsed on deed.

18. Where a husband has before the second day of March, 1877, duly conveyed land of which he was owner, any deed or conveyance executed before the said day by his wife for the purpose of barring her dower, to which deed or conveyance her husband is not a party, is and shall be taken and adjudged to be valid and effectual to have barred her dower in the lands in which such deed or conveyance professed to bar dower, notwithstanding the absence or want of a certificate touching her consent to be barred of her dower, and notwithstanding any irregularity, informality, or defect in the certificate (if any), and notwithstanding that such deed or conveyance may not have been executed, acknowledged or certified, as required by any Act on or before the said day in force, respecting the barring of dower. CHAPTER 134.

An Act to facilitate the conveyance of Real Estate by Married Women.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario
enacts as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Married Woman's Real Estate Act." R. S. O. 1877, c. 127, s. 1.

Interpretation

2. In the construction of this Act

"Real estate."

1. "Real estate" shall extend to lands, chattels real, rents and hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, and to any undivided share thereof; to any estate, right or interest therein, whether legal or equitable; to any charge, lien or incumbrance in, upon, or affecting real estate, to money subject to be invested in real estate; and to any interest, charge, lien or incumbrance in, upon, or affecting such money as aforesaid.

"Judge."

2. "Judge" shall mean a Judge of the High Court or a Judge or a Junior or Deputy Judge of a County Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 127, s. 2.

A married woman may convey real estate.

3. Every married woman being of the full age of twenty-one years, may, by deed, convey her real estate, and convey release, surrender, disclaim, or extinguish any interest therein, and may also, by deed, release or extinguish any power which may be vested in, or limited or reserved to her in regard to real estate; and may also, by deed, bar her dower, and any right or inclosed right of dower in any real estate; and may also, by deed, appoint an attorney or attorneys for the purposes aforesaid and every of them as fully and effectually as she could do if she were a feme sole. R. S. O. 1877, c. 127, s. 3; 47 V. c. 19, s. 22.

4. Every conveyance before the 29th day of March, 1873, executed by a married woman of or affecting her real estate, in which her husband was a party, is, and shall be taken and adjudged to be valid and effectual to have passed the estate which such conveyance professed to pass of such married woman in the said real estate, notwithstanding the absence or want of a certificate of her consent to convey the same; and notwithstanding any irregularity, informality, or defect in the certificate (if any); and notwithstanding that such conveyance may not have been executed, acknowledged or certified as required by any Act at or before the said date in force respecting the conveyance of real estate by married women, or may not have been executed by the married woman in presence of her husband, or on the same day on which or at the same place at which such conveyance was executed by her husband. R. S. O. 1877, c. 127, s. 13.

Defective conveyances to be valid.

5. Nothing in the preceding sections contained shall render valid any conveyance to the prejudice of any title, subsequently to the execution of such conveyance and before the said date acquired from the married woman by deed duly executed and certified as by law required, unless the actual possession or enjoyment of the real estate conveyed or intended to be conveyed by the prior conveyance has been had at any time subsequent thereto by the grantee therein, or those claiming by, from or under him, and he or they have been in such actual possession or enjoyment, continuously for the period of three years before the said date, and he or they were at the said date in the actual possession or enjoyment thereof; and nothing in this Act contained shall render valid any conveyance from the married woman which was not executed in good faith, or any conveyance of land of which the married woman or those claiming under her, is or are in the actual possession or enjoyment contrary to the terms of such conveyance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 127, s. 14.

Certain titles not to be prejudiced.

6. Every conveyance made since the 29th day of March, 1873, or which shall hereafter be made by a married woman of or affecting her real estate which her husband signed or executed or shall sign or execute is and shall be taken and adjudged to be valid and effectual, to have passed or to pass the estate which such conveyance professed or shall profess to pass of such married woman in said real estate. 50 V. c. 7, s. 23.

Validity of conveyances made since March 29th, 1873.

Certain titles not to be prejudiced.

7. Nothing in the preceding section contained shall render valid any conveyance to the prejudice of any title lawfully acquired from any married woman prior to the 23rd day of April, 1887, nor render valid any conveyance from the married woman not executed in good faith or any conveyance of any land, of which the married woman, or those claiming under her, was or were on the said day in actual possession or enjoyment contrary to the terms of such conveyance, or affect any action or proceeding then pending. 50 V. c. 7, s. 24.

Preceding two sections not to affect construction of any statute.

8. Neither of the preceding two sections shall be deemed to declare or imply any construction of any statute heretofore passed, as affecting the matters mentioned in the said sections or either of them, or any other matters relating to the rights or powers of married women. 50 V. c. 7, s. 25.

CHAPTER 135.

An Act respecting Compensation to the Families of Persons killed by Accident, and in Duels.

HER MAJESTY by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Interpretation.

1. Where the words following occur in this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:

“Parent.”

1. “Parent” shall include father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, stepfather and stepmother; and “Child.”

2. “Child” shall include son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, stepson and stepdaughter. R. S. O. 1877, c. 128, s. 1.

Action given to recover damages for the death of any person caused by any wrongful act, neglect, or default.

2. Where the death of a person has been caused by such wrongful act, neglect or default, as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, in such case the person who would have been liable if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death has been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to felony. R. S. O. 1877, c. 128, s. 2.

3. Every such action shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent and child of the person whose death has been so caused, and shall be brought by and in the name of the executor or administrator of the person deceased, and in every such action the Judge or jury may give such damages as he or they think proportioned to the injury resulting from such death to the parties respectively for whom and for whose benefit such action has been brought; and the amount so recovered, after deducting the costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided amongst the before mentioned parties in such shares as the Judge or jury find and direct. R. S. O. 1877, c. 128, s. 3.

For whose benefit and in whose name such action shall be brought. What damages may be given.

4. Where the death of a person has been caused by any wound or injury received in a duel, which wound or injury has been inflicted by the use of any description of fire-arms or other deadly weapon whatsoever, in such case the person inflicting such wound or injury, and all persons present aiding or abetting the parties in such duel as seconds or assistants therein, may be proceeded against under this Act, although no action for damages could have been brought by the person whose death was so caused had death not ensued from the infliction of such wound or injury. R. S. O. 1877, c. 128, s. 4.

Action may be brought against principals, seconds and abettors in duels.

5. Not more than one action shall lie for and in respect of the same subject matter of complaint; and every such action shall be commenced within twelve months after the death of the deceased person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 128, s. 5.

One action only to lie for the same cause. Limitation thereof.

6. In every such action the plaintiff shall, in his statement of claim, set forth or deliver therewith full particulars of the persons for whom and on whose behalf such action is brought. R. S. O. 1877, c. 128, s. 6.

Plaintiff to deliver particulars.

7. If, and so often as it shall happen at any time or times hereafter in any of the cases intended and provided for by this Act, that there shall be no executor or administrator of the person so deceased, or that there being such executor or administrator, no such action as in this Act mentioned, shall, within six months after the death of such deceased person, have been brought by and in the name of his or her executor or administrator, then and in every such case, such action may be brought by and in the name or names of all or any of the persons (if more than one) for whose benefit such action would have been, if it had been brought by and in the name of such executor or administrator; and every action so to be brought, shall be for the benefit of the same person or persons, and shall be subject to the same regulations and procedure, as nearly as may be, as if it were brought by and in the name of such executor or administrator. 49 V. c. 26, s. 1.

Where no action brought within six months by executors of person killed, then action may be brought by persons beneficially interested in result of action.

Money paid into court may be paid in one sum without regard to its division into shares. If not accepted defendant entitled to verdict on issue as to sufficiency if judge or jury think it sufficient.

8. And whereas by section 3 it is provided that the Judge or jury may give such damages as they may think proportioned to the injury resulting from such death to the parties respectively for whom and whose benefit such action shall be brought, and the amount so recovered, after deducting the costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided between the before mentioned parties in such shares as the Judge or jury shall by their verdict direct; be it enacted and declared, that it shall be sufficient, if the defendant is advised to pay money into Court, that he pay it as a compensation in one sum to all persons entitled under this Act for his wrongful act, neglect or default, without specifying the shares into which it is to be divided by the Judge or jury; and if the said sum be not accepted, and an issue is taken by the plaintiff as to its sufficiency, and the Judge or jury shall think the same sufficient, the defendant shall be entitled to the verdict upon that issue. 49 V. c. 26, s. 2.

Apportionment.

9. In all cases where the compensation is not apportioned as hereinbefore provided, it shall be referred to a Judge to apportion the same among the parties entitled and to provide for the costs thereof as he may think meet. 50 V. c. 8, Sched

	PERSON ENTITLED TO BENEFIT OF POLICY FOR PURPOSE OF SECT. 23, s. 25.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

1. The provisions of this Act shall apply to every lawful contract of insurance now in force or hereafter effected which is based on the expectation of human life, and shall include life insurance on the endowment plan as well as every other, and shall also extend to the said contracts of insurance where any declaration indorsed thereon or attached thereto, though made before the 25th day of March, 1884, would have been or be within the operation and provisions of this Act, if the same had been made subsequent to the said date. 47 V. c. 20, s. 1 ; 48 V. c. 28, s. 6. Application of Act.

2. It is hereby declared to have been lawful for any person on or before the 18th day of September, 1866, to endorse upon or attach to any policy of insurance on his life effected and issued before the 18th day of September, 1865, whether the policy was issued before or after marriage, a written declaration that the insurance was for the benefit of his wife, or of Insurances effected before 18th September, 1865, might within one year be declared in favour of wife or children.

his wife and children, or of his wife and some or one of his children, or of his children only, or of some or one of them, and to apportion the amount of the insurance money as he deemed proper where the insurance was declared to be for the benefit of more than one. 47 V. c. 20, s. 2.

Persons may insure for the benefit of wives or children.

3. Any person may insure his life for the whole term thereof, or for any definite period, for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children, or of his wife and some or one of his children, or of his children only or of some or one of them, and, where the insurance is effected for the benefit of more than one, he may apportion the amount of the insurance money as he may deem proper. 47 V. c. 20, s. 3.

How insurance may be effected.

4. The insurance may be effected either in the name of the person whose life is insured, or in the name of his wife, or of any other person (with the assent of such other person) as trustee. 47 V. c. 20, s. 4.

Insured may declare policy for the benefit of wife and children.

5. In case a policy of insurance effected by a married man on his life is expressed upon the face of it to be for the benefit of his wife or of his wife and children or any of them, or in case he has heretofore endorsed, or may hereafter endorse, or by any writing identifying the policy by its number or otherwise, has made or may hereafter make a declaration that the policy is for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children or any of them, such policy shall enure, and be deemed a trust for the benefit of his wife for her separate use, and of his children or any of them, according to the intent so expressed or declared, and so long as any object of the trust remains the money payable under the policy shall not be subject to the control of the husband or his creditors, or form part of his estate when the sum secured by the policy becomes payable; but this shall not be held to interfere with any pledge of the policy to any person prior to such declaration. 47 V. c. 20, s. 5.

Insured may make and alter apportionment.

6.—(1) The insured may by an instrument in writing attached to or endorsed on, or identifying the policy by its number or otherwise, vary an apportionment previously made, so as to extend the benefits of the policy to the wife or the children, or to one or more of them, although the policy is expressed to be for the benefit of the wife alone, or for the child or children alone, or although a prior declaration was so restricted; and he may also apportion the insurance money among the persons intended to be benefited; and may, from time to time, by an instrument in writing attached to or endorsed on the policy or referring to the same, alter the apportionment as he deems proper; he may also, by his will, make or alter the apportionment of the insurance money; and an apportionment made by his will shall prevail over any other made before the date of the will, except so far as such other apportionment has been acted on before notice of the apportionment by the will.

(2) This section applies to policies heretofore issued, as well as to future policies. 50 V. c. 7, s. 14.

7.—(1) Where no apportionment is made, all persons entitled to be benefited by the insurance shall be held to share equally in the same; and where it is stated in the policy or declaration that the insurance is for the benefit of the wife and children generally, or of the children generally, without specifying the names of the children, the word "children" shall be held to mean all the children of the insured living at the maturity of the policy, whether by his then or any former wife, and the wife to benefit by the policy shall be the wife living at the maturity thereof: Where no apportionment is made.

(2) Any such policy may be surrendered or assigned,

(a) Where the policy is for the benefit of children only, and the children surviving are all of the full age of twenty-one years, if the person insured and all such surviving children agree to so surrender or assign; or

(b) Where the policy is for the benefit of both a wife and children, and the surviving children are all of the full age of twenty-one years, if the person insured, and his then wife (if any) and all such surviving children agree to so surrender or assign; or

(c) Where the policy is for the benefit of a wife only, or of a wife and children, and there are no children living, if the person insured and his then wife agree to so surrender or assign. 47 V. c. 20, s. 7; 48 V. c. 28, s. 1.

8. Where an apportionment, as in sections 2, 3 and 6 provided for, has been made, if one or more of the persons in whose favour the apportionment has been made die in the lifetime of the insured, the insured may, by an instrument in writing, attached to or endorsed on or otherwise referring to and identifying the policy of insurance, declare that the share formerly apportioned to the person so dying shall be for the benefit of such other person or persons as he may name in that behalf, not being other than the wife and children of the insured or one or more of them; and in default of any such declaration, the share of the person so dying shall be the property of the insured, and may be dealt with and disposed of by him as he may see fit, and shall at his death form part of his estate. 47 V. c. 20, s. 8; 48 V. c. 28, s. 5. Provision as to share of any beneficiary dying where apportionment made.

9. Where no apportionment as in sections 2, 3 and 6 provided for has been made, if one or more of the persons entitled to the benefit of the insurance die in the lifetime of the insured, and no apportionment is subsequently made by the insured, the insurance shall be for the benefit of the survivor, Provision in case of death of persons entitled where no apportionment made.

Apportionment after death of all persons entitled.

or of the survivors of such persons in equal shares if more than one; and if all the persons so entitled die in the lifetime of the insured, the policy and the insurance money shall form part of the estate of the insured; or after the death of all the persons entitled to such benefit, the insured may by an instrument executed as aforesaid make a declaration that the policy shall be for the benefit of his then or any future wife or children, or some or one of them. 47 V. c. 20, s. 9; 48 V. c. 28, s. 5.

Insurance money not liable to creditors.

10.—(1) When the insurance money becomes due and payable it shall be paid according to the terms of the policy or of any declaration or instrument as aforesaid, as the case may be, free from the claims of any creditors of the insured, except as herein provided.

(2) Where the insurance money or part thereof is for the benefit, in whole or in part, of the children of the insured, and the children are mentioned as a class and not by their individual names, the money shall not be payable to the children until reasonable proof is furnished to the company of the number, names and ages of the children entitled. 47 V. c. 20, s. 10.

Appointment of trustees.

11. The insured may, by the policy or by his will or by any writing under his hand, appoint a trustee or trustees of the money payable under the policy, and may from time to time revoke such appointment in like manner, and appoint a new trustee or new trustees and make provision for the appointment of a new trustee or new trustees, and for the investment of the moneys payable under the policy. Payment made to such trustee or trustees shall discharge the company. 47 V. c. 20, s. 11.

Where no trustee payment of shares of infants.

12. If no trustee is named in the policy, or appointed as mentioned in section 11, to receive the shares to which infants are entitled, their shares may be paid to the executors of the last will and testament of the insured, or to a guardian of the infants duly appointed by one of the Surrogate Courts of this Province or by the High Court, or to a trustee appointed by the last named Court, upon the application of the wife, or of the infants or their guardian; and such payment shall be a good discharge to the insurance company. 47 V. c. 20, s. 12.

Investment of shares of infants.

13. Any trustee named as provided for in the last preceding two sections, and any executor or guardian may invest the money received in government securities or municipal debentures or in mortgages of real estate, or in any other manner authorized by the will of the insured, or by section 30 of The Act respecting Trustees and Executors and the Administration of Estates, and may from time to time alter, vary and transpose the investments, and apply all or any part of the annual income arising from the share or presumptive share of each of the children, in or towards his or her maintenance and education, in such manner as the trustee, executor or guardian thinks fit, and may also advance to and for any of the children, notwithstanding his or her minority, the whole or any part of the share of the child of and in the money, for the advancement or preferment in the world, or on the marriage, of such child. 47 V. c. 20, s. 13.

14 A guardian appointed under section 12 shall give security to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge for the faithful performance of his duty as guardian, and for the proper application of the money which he may receive. Where the amount of the insurance money payable to a guardian of infants does not exceed $400, and probate is sought in respect of a will for the sole purpose of obtaining insurance money to an amount not exceeding $400, the fees payable on the appointment of such guardian or executor shall be $4 and no more, and such fees shall be regulated in the manner prescribed by section 69 of The Surrogate Courts Act. 47 V. c. 20, s. 14. Security by guardian.
Fees where insurance not more than $400.
Rev.Stat.c.50

15.—(1) If there is no trustee, executor or guardian competent to receive the share of any infant in the insurance money, and the insurance company admit the claim or any part thereof, the company at any time after the expiration of two months from the date of their admission of the claim or part thereof, may obtain an order from the High Court for the payment of the share of the infant into Court; and in such case the costs of the application shall be paid out of the share (unless the Court otherwise directs), and the residue shall be paid into Court pursuant to the order; and such payment shall be a sufficient discharge to the company for the money paid; and the money shall be dealt with as the Court may direct. 47 V. c. 20, s. 15. Power to company to pay money into court.

(2) If the company does not within four months from the time the claim is admitted, either pay the same to some person competent to receive the money under this Act, or pay the same into the High Court, the said Court may upon application made by some one competent to receive the said money, or by some other person, on behalf of the infant, order the insurance money, or any part thereof, to be paid to any trustee, executor or guardian competent to receive the same, or to be paid into Court to be dealt with as the Court may direct, and any such payment shall be a good discharge to the company.

(3) The Court may order the costs of the application, and any costs incidental to establishing the authority of the party applying for the order, to be paid out of such moneys, or by the company, or otherwise, as may seem just, and the Court may also order the costs of, and incidental to, obtaining out of Court moneys voluntarily paid in by a company, to be paid out of such moneys. 48 V. c. 28, s. 3.

Power to surrender policy.

16. If a person who has heretofore effected, or who hereafter effects, an insurance for the purposes contemplated by this Act, whether the purpose appears by the terms of the policy or by endorsement thereon, or by an instrument referring to and identifying the policy, finds himself unable to continue to meet the premiums, he may surrender the policy to the company, and accept in lieu thereof a paid-up policy for such sum as the premiums paid would represent, payable at death or at the endowment age or otherwise (as the case may be), in the same manner as the money insured by the original policy if not surrendered would have been payable; and the company may accept the surrender and grant the paid-up policy, notwithstanding any declaration or direction in favour of the wife and children, or any or either of them. 47 V. c. 20, s. 16.

Power to borrow on the policy.

17. The person insured may, from time to time, borrow from the company insuring, or from any other company or person, on the security of the policy, such sums as may be necessary and shall be applied to keep the policy in force, and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed on; and the sums so borrowed, together with such lawful interest thereon as may be agreed, shall, so long as the policy remains in force, be a first lien on the policy and on all moneys payable thereunder, notwithstanding any declaration or direction in favour of the wife and children, or any or either of them. 47 V. c. 20, s. 17.

Insured may direct application of bonuses and profits.

18. Any person insured under the provisions of this Act, may, in writing, require the insurance company to pay the bonuses or profits accruing under the policy, or portions of the same, to the insured; or to apply the same in reduction of the annual premiums payable by the insured, in such way as he may direct; or to add the said bonuses or profits to the policy; and the company shall pay or apply such bonuses or profits as the insured directs and according to the rates and rules established by the company; provided always, that the company shall not be obliged to pay or apply such bonuses or profits in any other manner than stipulated in the policy or the application therefor. This section applies to policies made before the 4th day of March, 1881, and to bonuses and profits then declared in respect of such policies, as well as to policies thereafter made and hereafter to be made. 47 V. c. 20, s. 18.

Proviso.

As to actions for insurance money.

19. In case of several actions being brought for insurance money, the Court is to consolidate or otherwise deal therewith so that there shall be but one action for and in respect of the shares of all the persons entitled under a policy. If an action is brought for the share of one or more infants entitled, all the other infants entitled, or the trustees, executors or guardians entitled to receive payment of the shares of such other infants, shall be made parties to the action, and the rights of all the infants shall be dealt with and determined in one action. The persons entitled to receive the shares of the infants may join with any adult persons claiming shares in the policy. In all actions where several persons are interested in the money, the Court or Judge shall apportion among the parties entitled any sum directed to be paid, and shall give all necessary directions and relief. 47 V. c. 20, s. 19.

20. The provisions of sections 12, 15 and 19 of this Act shall extend, and are hereby declared to have been intended to extend, and apply to cases where the insured died before the 25th day of March, 1884, as well as to cases arising subsequent thereto. 48 V. c. 28, s. 4.

Application of ss. 12, 15 and 19.

21. No declaration, or apportionment affecting the insurance money, or any portion thereof, nor any appointment or revocation of a trustee made after the 25th day of March, 1884, shall be of any force or effect as respects the company, until the instrument or a duplicate or copy thereof, is deposited with the company. Where a declaration or endorsement has been heretofore made and notice has not been given, the company may, until they receive notice thereof, deal with the insured or his executors, administrators or assigns, in respect of the policy, in the same manner and with the like effect as if the declaration or endorsement had not been made. 47 V. c. 20, s. 20.

Notice of declaration, etc., required.

22. If the policy was effected and premiums paid by the insured with intent to defraud his creditors, the creditors shall be entitled to receive out of the sum secured an amount equal to the premiums so paid. 47 V. c. 20, s. 21.

Fraud in payment of premiums.

23. Nothing contained in this Act shall be held or construed to restrict or interfere with the right of any person to effect or assign a policy for the benefit of his wife or children or some or one of them, in any other mode allowed by law. 47 V. c. 20, s. 22.

Act not to affect other modes of assignment.

24. Where all the persons entitled to be benefited under any policy are of full age, they and the person insured may surrender the policy, or assign the same, either absolutely or by way of security. 47 V. c. 20, s. 23.

Power of insured and adults to deal with policy.

25. Where the declaration endorsed upon or attached to any policy of insurance to which this Act applies, whether such declaration has heretofore been or shall hereafter be made, provides that the policy shall be for the benefit of a person, and in the event of the death of such person for the benefit of another person, such first mentioned person shall, if living, be deemed for the purposes of section 24 of this Act, the person entitled to be benefited under such policy. 48 V. c. 28, s. 2.

Who deemed person entitled to benefit of policy for purpose of s. 24.

 s. 23.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts
 as follows:—

CUSTODY OF INFANTS.

Court may make order as to custody of and right of access to infants.

1.—(1) The High Court or Surrogate Court, or any Judge of either Court, may, upon the application of the mother of an infant (who may so apply without next friend) make such order as the Court or Judge sees fit regarding the custody of the infant, and the right of access thereto of either parent, having regard to the welfare of the infant, and to the conduct of the parents, and to the wishes as well of the mother as of the father, and may afterwards alter, vary or discharge the order on the application of either parent, or, after the death of either parent, or any guardian under the Act, and in every case may make such order respecting the costs of the mother and the liability of the father for the same, or otherwise as to costs as the Court or Judge may think just.

Order as to maintenance.

(2) The Court or Judge may also make order for the maintenance of the infant by payment by the father thereof, or by payment out of any estate to which the infant is entitled, of such sum or sums of money from time to time as according to the pecuniary circumstances of the father or the value of the estate the Court or Judge thinks just and reasonable. 50 V. c. 21, s. 1.

2. No order directing that the mother shall have the custody of or access to an infant shall be made by virtue of this Act, in favour of a mother against whom adultery has been established by judgment in an action for criminal conversation at the suit of her husband against any person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 130, s. 4.

Order not to be made in favour of mother guilty of adultery.

INFANT'S REAL ESTATE.

3.—(1) Where an infant is seised or possessed of or entitled to any real estate in fee or for a term of years, or otherwise howsoever, in Ontario, and the High Court is of opinion that a sale, lease or other disposition of the same, or of a part thereof, is necessary or proper for the maintenance or education of the infant, or that, by reason of any part of the property being exposed to waste and dilapidation, or to depreciation from any other cause, his interest requires or will be substantially promoted by such disposition, the Court may order the sale, or the letting for a term of years, or other disposition of such real estate, or any part thereof, to be made under the direction of the Court or one of its officers, or by the guardian of the infant, or by a person appointed by the Court for the purpose, in such manner and with such restrictions as to the Court may seem expedient, and may order the infant to convey the estate as the Court thinks proper. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 76.

A sale of the estate of infants may be made.

(2) But no sale, lease, or other disposition shall be made against the provisions of a will or conveyance by which the estate has been devised or granted to the infant or for his use. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 77.

No sale contrary to devise.

4. The application shall be in the name of the infant by his next friend, or by his guardian; but shall not be made without the consent of the infant if he is of the age of fourteen years or upwards. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 78.

The application to be by next friend or guardian.

5. Where the Court deems it convenient that a conveyance should be executed by some person in the place of an infant, the Court may direct some other person in the place of the infant to convey the estate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 79.

When a substitute person has been appointed to convey.

6. Every such conveyance, whether executed by the infant or some person appointed to execute the same in his place, shall be as effectual as if the infant had executed the same, and had been of the age of twenty-one years at the time. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 80.

Deeds executed in behalf of infants to be valid.

The Court to direct the application of proceeds.

7. The moneys arising from such sale, lease or other disposition shall be laid out, applied and disposed of in such manner as the Court directs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 81.

Quality of surplus moneys upon sale of real estate.

8. On any sale or other disposition so made, the money raised, or the surplus thereof, shall be of the same nature and character as the estate sold or disposed of; and the heirs next of kin, or other representatives of the infant, shall have the like interest in any surplus which may remain of the money at the decease of the infant, as they would have had in the estate sold or disposed of, if no sale or other disposition had been made thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 82.

In cases of dower a composition may be made.

9. If any real estate of an infant is subject to dower, and the person entitled to dower consents in writing to accept in lieu of dower any gross sum which the Court thinks reasonable, or the permanent investment of a reasonable sum in such manner that the interest thereof be made payable to the person entitled to dower during her life, the Court or Judge may direct the payment of such sum in gross, out of the purchase money to the person entitled to dower, as may be deemed upon the principles applicable to life annuities a reasonable satisfaction for such estate; or may direct the payment to the person entitled to dower of an annual sum, or of the income or interest to be derived from the purchase money, or any part thereof, as may seem just, and for that purpose may make such order for the investment or other disposition of the purchase money, or any part thereof, as may be necessary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 83; 42 V. c. 22, s. 5 (3).

APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIANS.

To what Court the right of appointing guardians shall belong.

10. The Surrogate Court for the county within which an infant resides may appoint the father of the infant to be guardian; or may with the consent of the father appoint some other suitable person or persons; but if the infant is of the age of fourteen years or over, neither of such appointments shall be made without the consent of the infant; or, if the infant have no father living or any legal guardian authorized by law to take the care of his person and the charge of his estate, the said Court may appoint a guardian or guardians of the infant; and letters of guardianship granted by a Surrogate Court shall have force and effect in all parts of Ontario; and an official certificate of the grant may be obtained as in the case of letters of administration; and a return of every appointment and removal of a guardian shall be made by registrars respectively to the Surrogate Clerk in like manner as is required by The Surrogate Courts Act in the case of grants of probate or administration; but this section shall not be construed as depriving the High Court of jurisdiction in such matters. R. S. O. 1877, c. 132, s. 1; 44 V. c. 10, ss. 10, 12.

 R. S. O. 1877, c. 132, s. 2.

12. The Judge shall take from every guardian appointed under sections 10 and 11, a bond in the name of the infant, in such penal sum and with such securities as the Judge directs and approves, having regard to the circumstances of the case, and such bond shall be conditioned that the said guardian will faithfully perform the said trust, and that he, or his executors or administrators, will, when the said ward becomes of the full age of twenty-one years, or whenever the said guardianship is determined, or sooner if thereto required by the said Surrogate Court, render to his ward, or to his executors or administrators, a true and just account of all goods, moneys, interest, rents, profits or other estate of the ward, which shall have come into the hands of the guardian, and will thereupon without delay deliver and pay over to the said ward, or to his executors or administrators, the estate or the sum or balance of money which may be in the hands of the said guardian belonging to the ward, deducting therefrom and retaining a reasonable sum for the expenses and charges of the guardian, and the bond shall be recorded by the registrar of the Court in the books of his office. Such guardians to give security by bond. Condition of bond. Bond to be recorded.
 R. S. O. 1877, c. 132, s. 3; 44 V. c. 16, s. 11.

13.—(1) On the death of the father of an infant, the mother, if surviving, shall be the guardian of the infant, either alone, when no guardian has been appointed by the father, or jointly with any guardian appointed by the father. On death of father, mother to be guardian, alone, or jointly with others.

(2) Where no guardian has been appointed by the father, or if the guardian or guardians appointed by the father is or are dead, or refuses or refuse to act, the High Court or Surrogate Court, or any Judge of either Court, may from time to time appoint a guardian or guardians to act jointly with the mother, as such Court or Judge shall see fit. 50 V. c. 21, s. 2.

14.—(1) The mother of an infant may, by deed or will, appoint any person or persons to be guardian or guardians of the infant after the death of herself and the father of the infant (if the infant be then unmarried), and where guardians are appointed by both parents they shall act jointly. Mother may appoint guardian, in certain cases.

(2) The mother of an infant may, by deed or will, provisionally nominate some fit person or persons to act as guardian or guardians of the infant after her death jointly with the father of the infant, and the Court or a Judge after her death, if it be shewn to the satisfaction of the Court or a Judge that the father is for any reason unfitted to be the sole guardian of his children, may confirm the appointment of such guardian or guardians, who shall thereupon be empowered to act as aforesaid, or make such other order in respect of the guardianship as the Court or Judge shall think right. 50 V. c. 21, s. 3.

Direction by Court on matters affecting infant.

15. In the event of guardians being unable to agree among themselves or with the father upon a question affecting the welfare of an infant, any of them or the father may apply to the Court for its direction, and the Court, or Judge, may make such orders regarding the matter in difference as to the Court or Judge seems proper. 50 V. c. 21 s. 4.

Removal of guardians.

16. Testamentary guardians and trustees, and guardians appointed or constituted by virtue of this Act shall be removable by the Court or Judge, for the same causes as other guardians and trustees. 50 V. c. 21, s. 6.

Surrogate Court or Judge, meaning of.

17. The Surrogate Court or Judge referred to in sections 1, 13, 14, 15 and 16, is the Surrogate Court or Judge of the county where the infant or respondents, or any of them, reside. 50 V. c. 21, s. 7.

Authority of Guardians.

Guardians' authority.

18. The guardian of any infant appointed or constituted under or by virtue of this Act during the continuance of his guardianship, (unless where the authority of a guardian appointed or constituted under sections 13 or 14 is otherwise limited)

To act for ward.

1. Shall have authority to act for and on behalf of the said ward;

To appear in actions.

2. May appear in any Court and prosecute or defend any action in his or her name;

To manage real and personal estate, etc.

3. Shall have the charge and management of his or her estate, real and personal, and the care of his or her person and education;

Bind ward an apprentice.

4. And in case the infant is under the age of fourteen years, may, with the approbation of two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace and the consent of the ward (or in case the infant is not under the age of fourteen years, then with the consent of the ward only), place and bind him or her an apprentice to any lawful trade, profession or employment; the apprenticeship, in case of males, not extending beyond the age of twenty-one years, and in case of females, not beyond the age of eighteen years, or the marriage of the ward within that age. R. S. O. 1877, c. 132, s. 4; 44 V. c. 16, s. 2; 50 V. c. 21, s. 5.

Limitation of apprenticeship.

POWERS AND PRACTICE OF SURROGATE COURTS.

19. In all matters and applications touching or relating to the appointment, control or removal of guardians, and the security to be given, the custody, control of or right of access to an infant, and otherwise, the several Surrogate Courts shall have the like powers, jurisdiction and authority for the examination of witnesses, the production of deeds and writings, and generally for the enforcing of all orders, and judgments made or given as are given to them by The Surrogate Courts' Act in matters testamentary; and all orders and judgments may be appealed from to the Court of Appeal or a Judge thereof in the manner provided in said Act for appeals in matters testamentary. R. S. O. c. 132, s. 6; 50 V. c. 21, s. 3.

In matters of guardianship, control or removal of guardians, and the security to be given, the custody, control of or right of access to an infant, and otherwise, the several Surrogate Courts shall have the like powers, jurisdiction and authority for the examination of witnesses, the production of deeds and writings, and generally for the enforcing of all orders, and judgments made or given as are given to them by The Surrogate Courts' Act in matters testamentary; and all orders and judgments may be appealed from to the Court of Appeal or a Judge thereof in the manner provided in said Act for appeals in matters testamentary.

Rev. Stat. c. 50.

20. The practice and procedure shall, except where otherwise provided for by Rules or Orders under The Surrogate Courts' Act, conform, as nearly as the circumstances of the case will admit, to the practice and procedure prescribed by the said Act, and all the powers given by the several sections of that Act, to the Judges appointed or to be appointed as contained in sections 76 and 78 of said Act, may from time to time be exercised by them, for the purpose of simplifying and expediting the proceedings, and for fixing and regulating the fees to be taken by officers and by solicitors and counsel respectively for business and proceedings done and taken under this Act in the several Surrogate Courts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 132, s. 7.

Procedure under this Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 50.

21. The attendance of any person to testify on oath respecting any matter in any proceeding under this Act may be enforced by order made for that purpose, and on the service of a copy thereof and the payment of expenses as a witness, in the same manner as in an action, or affidavits respecting such matter may be received. R. S. O. 1877, c. 132, s. 11.

Court or Judge may enforce the attendance of witnesses.

22. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to change the law as to the authority of the father in respect of the religious faith in which his child is to be educated. R. S. O. 1877, c. 132, s. 13.

Religious education.

23. Sections 1, 13, 14, 15 and 16 of this Act shall not apply to any children as to whom any application has been made to any Court or Judge with respect to their custody or maintenance, before the 23rd day of April, 1887, and whether or not such application was then pending. 50 V. c. 21, s. 9.

Application not to apply to children as to whom any application has been made to any Court or Judge with respect to their custody or maintenance, before the 23rd day of April, 1887, and whether or not such application was then pending.

CHAPTER 138.

An Act respecting the Support of Illegitimate Children.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

The father of an illegitimate child liable for necessities.

1. Any person who furnishes food, clothing, lodging or other necessities, to any child born not in lawful wedlock, may maintain an action for the value thereof against the father of the child, if the child was a minor at the time the necessities were furnished, and was not then residing with his or her reputed father and maintained by him as a member of his family. R. S. O. 1877, c. 131, s. 1.

When other testimony than that of the mother requisite.

2. Where the person suing for the value of the necessities is the mother of the child, or a person to whom the mother has become accountable for the necessities, the fact of the defendant being the father shall be proved by other testimony than that of the mother. R. S. O. 1877, c. 131, s. 2.

No action maintainable unless the mother makes affidavit before the birth of the child or within six months after.

3. No action shall be sustained under the last two sections, unless it is shewn upon the trial thereof, that while the mother of the child was pregnant, or within six months after the birth of her child, she did voluntarily make an affidavit in writing, before some one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county or city in which she resides, declaring that the person afterwards charged in the action is really the father of the child, nor unless she deposited the affidavit, within the time aforesaid, in the office of the clerk of the peace of the county, or the clerk of the council of the city, as the case may be. R. S. O. 1877, c. 131, s. 3.

Such affidavit not to be evidence.

4. The affidavit shall not be evidence of the fact of the defendant being the father of the child. R. S. O. 1877, c. 131, s. 4.

Other remedies not to be affected.

5. This Act shall not take away or abridge any right of action or remedy which, without this Act, might have been maintained against the father of an illegitimate child. R. S. O. 1877, c. 131, s. 5.

APPEALS, ss. 14-17.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

SLAVERY PROHIBITED.

1. The Lieutenant-Governor shall not grant a license for the importation of any negro or other person to be subjected to the condition of a slave, or to a bounden involuntary service for life, into any part of the Province of Ontario; nor shall any negro, or other person, who comes or is brought into this Province, be subject to the condition of a slave, or to such service as aforesaid within the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 1.

Slavery prohibited.

MASTER AND SERVANT.

2. No voluntary contract of service or indentures entered into by any parties shall be binding on them, or either of them, for a longer time than a term of nine years from the day of the date of such contract. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 2.

No voluntary contract of service or indentures to be binding longer than nine years.

Agreements by which workmen, etc., may share in the profits of the business.

3. It shall be lawful in any trade, calling, business, or employment, for an agreement to be entered into between the workman, servant, or other person employed, and the master or employer, by which agreement a defined share in the annual or other net profits or proceeds of the trade or business carried on by such master or employer, may be allotted and paid to such workman, servant or person employed, in lieu of or in addition to his salary, wages, or other remuneration; and such agreement shall not create any relation in the nature of partnership, or any rights or liabilities of co-partners, any rule of law to the contrary notwithstanding: and any person in whose favour such agreement is made, shall have no right to examine into the accounts, or interfere in any way in the management or concerns of the trade, calling, or business in which he is employed under the said agreement or otherwise; and any periodical or other statement or return by the employer, of the net profits or proceeds of the said trade, calling, business, or employment, on which he declares and appropriates the share of profits payable under the said agreement, shall be final and conclusive between the parties thereto and all persons claiming under them respectively, and shall not be impeachable upon any ground whatever. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 3.

Certain agreements within this Act.

4. Every agreement of the nature mentioned in the last preceding section shall be deemed to be within the provisions of this Act, unless it purports to be excepted therefrom, or this may otherwise be inferred. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 4.

Verbal as well as written agreements between master and servant to be binding.

5. All agreements or bargains, verbal or written, between masters and journeymen, or skilled labourers, in any trade, calling or craft, or between masters and servants or labourers, for the performance of any duties or service of whatsoever nature, shall, whether the performance has been entered upon or not, be binding on each party for the due fulfilment thereof; but a verbal agreement shall not exceed the term of one year. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 5.

Tavern keepers, etc., not to keep wearing apparel of servant in pledge for any amount above $5.

6. No tavern keeper or boarding-house keeper shall keep the wearing apparel of any servant or labourer in pledge for any expenses incurred to a greater amount than $6, and on payment or tender of such sum, or of any less sum due, such wearing apparel shall be immediately given up, whatever be the amount due by such servant or labourer; but this is not to apply to other property of the servant or labourer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 6.

How certain differences between master and servant are to be decided.

7. If after the termination of an engagement between master and servant, any dispute arises between them in respect of the term of such engagement or of any matter appertaining to it, the Justice or Justices of the Peace who receive the complaint shall be bound to decide the matter, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and as though the engagement between the parties still subsisted : but proceedings must be taken ^{Proviso.} within one month after the engagement has ceased. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 7.

8.—(1) Any agreement or bargain, verbal or written, express ^{Agreements made with} or implied, which may hereafter be made between any person and any other person not a resident of Canada, for the performance of labour or service, or having reference to the performance of labour or service by such other person in the Province of Ontario, and made as aforesaid, previous to the migration or coming into Canada, of such other person whose labour or service is contracted for, shall be void and of no effect, as against the person only so migrating or coming.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent any person from engaging under ^{Exception.} contract or agreement skilled workmen, not resident in Canada, to perform labour in Ontario in or upon any new industry not at present established in Ontario, or any industry at present established if skilled labour for the purpose of the industry cannot be otherwise obtained; nor shall the provisions of this section apply to teachers, professional actors, artists, lecturers, or singers. 49 V. c. 27, ss. 1, 2.

SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS BEFORE JUSTICES.

9. Any one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace may receive the complaints upon oath of parties complaining of any contravention of the preceding provisions of this Act, and may cause all parties concerned to appear before him or them, and shall hear and determine the complaint in a summary and expeditious manner. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 9.

10. Where the Justice takes the evidence of the complainant in support of his or her claim, the said Justice shall ^{What evidence may be taken} be bound to take the evidence of the defendant also, if tendered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 10.

11. Complaints against any person under this Act may be prosecuted and determined in any county in which the person complained against is found. ^{Complaints may be in any county.} R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 11.

12. Any one or more of the Justices, upon oath of such servant or labourer against his master or employer concerning any non-payment of wages, may summon the master or employer to appear before him or them at a reasonable time to be stated in the summons, and he or they or some other Justice or Justices shall, upon proof on oath of the personal service of the summons, examine into the matter of the complaint, whether the master or employer appears or not, and upon due proof of the cause of complaint, the Justice or Justices may discharge the servant or labourer from the service or employ- ^{Complaints by servants for non-payment of wages.}

ment of the master, and may direct the payment to him of any wages found to be due, not exceeding the sum of $40, and the Justice or Justices shall make such order for payment of the said wages as to him or them seems just and reasonable, with costs, and in case of the non-payment of the same together with the costs for the space of twenty-one days after such order has been made, the Justice or Justices shall issue his or their warrant of distress for the levying of the wages, together with the costs of conviction and of the distress, R. S. O., 1877, c. 133, s. 12.

Time within which proceedings may be taken.

Work done in Ontario under agreement made out of Ontario.

13. Proceedings may be taken under this Act within one month after the engagement or employment has ceased, or within one month after the last instalment of wages under the agreement of hiring has become due, whichever shall last happen; and proceedings under section 12 may be had for non-payment of wages in respect of service or labour performed in Ontario upon a verbal agreement or bargain made out of Ontario. 47 V. c. 21, s. 1.

APPEALS.

Mode of appeal.

14. All appeals from or against any conviction or order for the payment of wages, or any order of dismissal from service or employment or against any decision of any Justice or Justices under this Act shall, be made to the Division Court, holden in the division in which the cause of action arose, or in which the party complained against, or one of them, resided at the time of the making of the complaint; and in case of dismissal of the appeal or affirmance of the conviction, order or decision, the Court appealed to shall order and adjudge the offender to be punished according to the conviction, or shall enforce the order for payment of wages or of dismissal, as the case may be, and for the payment of the costs awarded, and shall, if necessary, issue process for carrying such judgment into effect. R. S. O. 1877, c. 133, s. 13; 43 V. c. 8, s. 50.

Notice of appeal.

15. The person proposing to appeal shall give to the opposite party a notice in writing of his appeal, and of the cause or matter thereof, within four days after such conviction, order, decision or judgment, and eight days, at least, before the holding of the Court at which the appeal is to be heard, and shall also, within the four days, enter into a bond to the opposite party with two sufficient sureties—to be approved of by the clerk of the Court—in the penal sum of $100, conditioned personally to appear at the said Court and try the appeal and to abide the judgment of the Court thereon, and to pay such costs as shall be by the Court awarded, and upon the notice being served and bond executed and filed with the clerk, all proceedings on the order, conviction or decision appealed against shall be stayed until the determination of the appeal.

43 V. c. 8, s. 51.

16. The clerk shall, on the bond and notice of appeal with an affidavit of service thereof being filed in his office, enter the cause in his procedure book, and the appeal may be tried with a jury if the appellant file with the clerk at the time of filing the bond a notice requiring a jury, or if the respondent, within four days after the service of the notice of appeal upon him, file a notice with the clerk, requiring a jury, and if the proper fees are, in either case, deposited with the clerk; otherwise the Judge may try the appeal without a jury or may summon a jury from the body of the Court as to him seems meet.
43 V. c. 8, s. 52.

17. In case of the dismissal of the appeal or affirmance of the conviction, order or decision, the Judge may order and adjudge the offender to be punished according to the conviction or order, or he may direct the enforcement of the order for payment of wages or of dismissal, as the case may be, with the payment of the costs awarded, and any order or orders made by him in the premises shall be enforced and carried into execution by the officers of the Court. The Judge may direct execution to issue for the levying of any moneys or costs awarded or ordered to be paid, and in the event of any such moneys or costs being payable by the appellant, which have not been levied under execution against the goods of the appellant, the Judge may order the bond to be delivered up to the respondent, who shall be entitled to recover the amount due him with costs in any Division Court having jurisdiction.
43 V. c. 8, s. 53.

Case to be entered by clerk.

Proceedings in case of appeal dismissed or affirmed.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as "The Trades Arbitration Act."
R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 1.

Board of Arbitration. 2. Any number of masters and workmen resident and actually engaged at the time of filing the memorandum hereinafter mentioned in carrying on or working at any particular trade, occupation, or employment, in any city, town, township or village in this Province, may at a meeting specially convened for that purpose, agree to form a Board under this Act for the friendly settlement of differences between masters and workmen. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 2.

Memorandum to be signed. 3.—(1) The masters and workmen shall jointly sign a memorandum, whereby it is mutually agreed to establish such Board.

(2) The memorandum shall set forth the number of the members of the Board, and also the names, occupation and residence of the signers of the memorandum, and shall be in the form of the Schedule to this Act, or to a similar effect. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 3.

4. Upon the filing of the memorandum, with affidavits verifying the signatures thereto, in the registry office of the registry division within which the masters and workmen reside, the Board shall be deemed to be lawfully established. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 4. Registration of memorandum.

5. The registrar shall retain the memorandum and enter a copy of the same in a book to be kept for that purpose; for which and the filing of the memorandum he shall be entitled to receive the sum of $2 and no more. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 5. Fee.

6. No defect in the form of the memorandum, or in the filing and registration thereof shall invalidate the efficiency of any of the proceedings to be taken thereunder under the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 6. Defects of form in registration.

7. The Board shall consist of not less than two masters and two workmen, nor more than ten masters and ten workmen and a chairman, and the number to constitute the Board other than the chairman shall be inserted in the memorandum; but no member of the Board shall adjudicate in any case in which he or any relation of his is one of the parties. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 7. Board, how composed.

8. The persons who have signed the memorandum are hereby authorized to proceed to the appointment of the Board within sixty days after the registry of the memorandum, the masters appointing their portion of the Board from among themselves, and the workmen their portion from among themselves; and the Board shall remain in office until the appointment of a new Board in its stead. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 8. Appointment of Board.

9. The Board shall have power to appoint their own chairman and two clerks, one for the masters and the other for the workmen's portion thereof; and shall have power to hear and determine all questions of dispute and differences between the masters and workmen, being signers of the memorandum, or who may at any time become parties thereto, by a written notice to the chairman or clerks of the Board, which disputes and differences may be submitted to them by both parties in difference. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 9. Powers of Board.

10. The Board shall also have and exercise all the powers conferred upon arbitrators by The Act respecting arbitrations and References. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 10. Board to have powers given by Rev. Stat. c. 53.

11. Any award the Board may make in any case of disputes or differences so submitted to them shall be final and conclusive between the parties thereto, without being subject to review or challenge by any Court or authority whatsoever, R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 11.

Enforcing award.

12. The award may be enforced upon summary application to the Judge of the County Court of the county in which the Board is formed; and the Judge is hereby authorized to enforce the award by the order of the Court and process of execution to be issued thereupon. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 12.

Evidence of award.

13. Any award, in writing, under the hand of the chairman of the Board, shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the validity of the award to authorize such proceedings of said Judge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 13.

Quorum.

14. A quorum of not less than three (one being a master and another a workman, and the third the chairman), may constitute a Board for the hearing and adjudication of cases of dispute, and may accordingly make their award. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 14.

Committee of reconciliation.

15. A committee of the Board, to be denominated the Committee of Reconciliation, shall be appointed by the Board, consisting of one master and one workman, who shall sit at such times as shall be appointed, and be renewed from time to time as occasion may require; and all cases or questions of dispute which are submitted to the Board by both parties thereto, shall in the first instance be referred to the committee, who shall endeavour to reconcile the parties in difference; when such reconciliation is not effected, the matter in dispute shall be remitted to the Board to be disposed of as a contested matter. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 15.

Chairman.

16. The chairman of the Board shall be some person unconnected with trade, and shall preside at the meetings of the Board, and shall be appointed at the first meeting; and when the votes of the Board are equal, the chairman for the time being shall have the casting vote. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 16.

When parties may employ counsel.

17. No counsel or solicitor, shall be allowed to attend on any hearing before the Board or the Committee of Reconciliation, unless consented to by both parties. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 17.

Duration of Board.

18. On the first Monday in November, in the year after the appointment of the first Board, and on the first Monday in November in each succeeding year, a Board and chairman shall be appointed, who shall remain in office until the appointment of a new Board; and in case of vacancies arising between the fixed days of election in each year, caused by the death or removal of any member of the Board, or of the chairman, an election shall take place within fourteen days, and another member shall be elected to fill up the said vacancy from the class to which the member who has died or removed belonged, or a chairman shall be appointed, as the case may be, and the member or chairman so elected shall serve for the remainder of the year. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 18. Vacancies.

19. The masters shall appoint their portion of the Board, and the workmen their portion of the Board. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 19. Composition of Board.

20. For the purposes of this Act, the following persons being twenty-one years of age, and belonging to the particular trade to which the registered memorandum applies, shall be entitled to be registered as voters for the election of the Board, and shall be qualified to be elected members of the Board : Qualification of Voters.

1. Every master who has been engaged in carrying on the said trade within the limits of the city, town, township, or village wherein the Board is formed, for three months previous to the first day of November in any one year.

2. Every workman who has served the regular term of apprenticeship required in such trade or calling, and has been working at his said trade for a like period within the same limits, and has signed the memorandum, or has given notice to the chairman or clerks of his assent thereto. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 20.

21. (1) The clerk of each division of the Board shall respectively keep a register of every person claiming to have his name inscribed on the register as a voter for the Board, as master or workman respectively and distinct from each other. Registration of Voters.

(2) The register shall contain the name and abode of each person engaged in the particular trade or occupation set forth in the registered memorandum.

(3) The clerk shall, upon payment of a fee of ten cents made to him register the same immediately, or be liable to be fined for neglect.

(4) The Board is hereby empowered to fix and determine the amount of such fine, but not to exceed the sum of $5. and such fines shall be applied to the funds of the said Board. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 21.

22. In case it appears to the masters' or workmen's division of the Board respectively that any person ought not to be so registered as master or workman respectively, such division shall order the name of such person to be struck off such register. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 22. Removal of name from register.

Returning Officers.

23. The clerk of each division of the Board shall be the returning officer, and for the election of the masters' and workmen's portion thereof respectively, he shall convene meetings of masters and meetings of workmen respectively by advertisement or circular notice fourteen clear days previous to the first day of November. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 23.

Elections.

24. Each class shall at such meetings proceed to nominate and elect members to the Board for the year next ensuing. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 24.

Mode of election.

25. The votes shall be taken by show of hands or division of members, and in such place as each division of the Board may respectively authorize, and the clerk shall declare to the meeting the names of the candidates who are elected, and the same shall be final and conclusive. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 25.

Declaration of elections.

26. The clerk shall, within seven days after the day of nomination, declare the number of votes given to each candidate, and those having received the largest number of votes shall be declared duly elected. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 26.

Fees, by-laws" officers, etc.

27. Every Board constituted under this Act shall from time to time make out a list of fees which shall be charged for any proceeding and other expenses under this Act; and shall appoint such officers as may be necessary, and make such by-laws, rules and regulations for their guidance, and for the taking and scrutiny of the votes given for the election of members of the Board; and also for the despatch of business, as they may deem necessary; such by-laws, rules, regulations and fees not being contrary to law. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 27.

Board not to have power to establish rate of wages.

28. Nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the said Board to establish a rate of wages or price of labour or workmanship, at which the workmen shall in future be paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 28.

Persons not affected by this Act.

29. This Act shall not be construed to extend to domestic servants, or servants in husbandry. R. S. O. 1877, c. 134, s. 29.

s. 7.	FORMS AND RULES, s. 15.
DEFENCES IN ACTIONS FOR COMPEN-	APPLICATION LIMITED AS TO RAILWAY
SATION, s. 8.	COMPANIES, s. 16.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be known and cited as "The Workmen's Compensation for Injuries Act." 49 V. c. 28, s. 1.

Interpretation.

2. Where the following words occur in this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears :—

"Person who has superintendence entrusted to him."

1. "Person who has superintendence entrusted to him" means a person whose sole or principal duty is that of superintendence, and who is not ordinarily engaged in manual labour.

"Employer."

2. "Employer" includes a body of persons corporate or unincorporate.

"Workman."

3. "Workman" does not include a domestic or menial servant, but, save as aforesaid, means any railway servant, and any person who being a labourer, servant in husbandry, journeyman, artificer, handicraftsman, miner, or otherwise engaged in manual labour, whether under the age of twenty-one years, or above that age, has entered into or works under a contract with an employer, whether the contract be made before or after the passing of this Act, be express or implied, oral or in writing, and be a contract of service or a contract personally to execute any work or labour.

"Packing."

4. "Packing" shall mean a packing of wood or metal, or some other equally substantial and solid material, of not less than two inches in thickness, and which, where filled in, shall extend to within one and a-half inches of the crown of the rails in use on any railway, shall be neatly fitted so as to come against the web of such rails, and shall be well and solidly fastened to the ties on which such rails are laid. 49 V. c. 28, s. 2.

3. Where personal injury is caused to a workman—

When workman to have claim against employer.

1. By reason of any defect in the condition of the ways, works, machinery or plant connected with or used in the business of the employer; or

2. By reason of the negligence of any person in the service of the employer who has any superintendence entrusted to him whilst in the exercise of such superintendence; or

3. By reason of the negligence of any person in the service of the employer to whose orders or directions the workman at the time of the injury was bound to conform and did conform, where such injury resulted from his having so conformed; or

4. By reason of the act or omission of any person in the service of the employer done or made in obedience to the rules or by-laws of the employer, or in obedience to particular instructions given by any person delegated with the authority of the employer in that behalf; or

5. By reason of the negligence of any person in the service of the employer who has the charge or control of any signal-points, locomotive, engine, or train upon a railway;

the workman, or, in case the injury results in death, the legal personal representatives of the workman, and any persons entitled in case of death, shall have the same right of compensation and remedies against the employer as if the workman had not been a workman of, nor in the service of the employer, nor engaged in his work. 49 V. c. 28, s. 3.

4. Where within this Province personal injury is caused to a workman employed on or about any railway, Injuries by railways.

1. By reason of the lower beams or members of the superstructure of any highway, or other overhead bridge, or any other erection or structure over said railway, not being of a sufficient height from the surface of the rails to admit of an open and clear headway of at least seven feet between the top of the highest freight cars then running on such railway, and the bottom of such lower beams or members; or,

2. By reason of the space between the rails in any railway frog, extending from the point of such frog backward to where the heads of such rails are not less than five inches apart, not being filled in with packing; or,
3. By reason of the space between any wing-rail and any railway frog, and between any guard-rail and any other rail fixed and used alongside thereof as aforesaid, and between all wing-rails where no other rail intervenes, (save only where the space between the heads of any such wing-rail and railway frog as aforesaid, or between the heads of any such guard-rail and any other rail fixed and used alongside thereof as aforesaid, or between the heads of any such wing-rails where no other rail intervenes as aforesaid, is either less than one and three-quarters of an inch or more than five inches in width), not being at all times during every month of April, May, June, July, August, September and October, filled in with packing;

such injury shall be deemed and taken to have been caused by reason of a defect within the meaning of sub-section 1 of section 3 of this Act. But nothing in this section contained shall be taken or construed, as in any respect, or for any purpose restricting the meaning of said sub-section. 49 V. c. 28, s. 4.

Exceptions to preceding provisions

5. A workman shall not be entitled under this Act to any right of compensation or remedy against the employer in any of the following cases, that is to say:

1. Under sub-section 1 of section 3, unless the defect therein mentioned arose from or had not been discovered or remedied owing to the negligence of the employer or of some person in the service of the employer, and entrusted by him with the duty of seeing that the ways, works, machinery or plant were in proper condition.

2. Under sub-section 4 of section 3, unless the injury resulted from some impropriety or defect in the rules, by-laws, or instructions therein mentioned; provided, that where a rule or by-law has been approved, or has been accepted as a proper rule or by-law, either by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or under and pursuant to any provision in that behalf of any Act of the Legislature of Ontario, or of the Parliament of Canada, it shall not be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be an improper or defective rule or by-law.

3. In any case where the workman knew of the defect or negligence which caused his injury, and failed within a reasonable time to give or cause to be given information thereof to the employer or some person superior to himself in the service of the employer, unless he was aware that the employer or such superior already knew of the said defect or negligence. 49 V. c. 28, s. 5.

6. The amount of compensation recoverable under this Act shall not exceed such sum as may be found to be equivalent to the estimated earnings, during the three years preceding the injury of a person in the same grade employed during those years in the like employment within this Province; and such compensation shall not be subject to any deduction or abatement, by reason, or on account, or in respect of any matter or thing whatsoever, save such as is specially provided for in section 9 of this Act. 49 V. c. 28, s. 6.

Limit of amount of compensation.

7. An action for the recovery under this Act of compensation for an injury shall not be maintainable unless notice that injury has been sustained is given within twelve weeks, and the action is commenced within six months from the occurrence of the accident causing the injury, or in case of death within twelve months from the time of death; provided always that in case of death the want of such notice shall be no bar to the maintenance of such action, if the Judge shall be of opinion that there was reasonable excuse for such want of notice. 49 V. c. 28, s. 7.

Limit of time for recovery of compensation.

8. No contract or agreement made or entered into by a workman shall be a bar or constitute any defence to an action for the recovery under this Act of compensation for any injury, Contract by workman when to constitute a defence to action for compensation.

1. Unless for such workman entering into or making such contract or agreement there was other consideration than that of his being taken into or continued in the employment of the defendant; nor

2. Unless such other consideration was in the opinion of the Court or Judge before whom such action is tried, ample and adequate; nor

3. Unless, in the opinion of the Court or Judge, such contract or agreement, in view of such other consideration was not on the part of the workman, improvident, but was just and reasonable; and the burthen of proof in respect of such other consideration, and of the same being ample and adequate, as aforesaid, and that the contract was just and reasonable and was not improvident as aforesaid, shall, in all cases, rest upon the defendant; provided always that notwithstanding anything in this section contained, no contract or agreement whatsoever made or entered into by a workman shall be a bar or constitute any defence to an action for the recovery under this Act of compensation for any injury happening or caused by reason of any of the matters mentioned in section 4 of this Act. 49 V. c. 28, s. 8.

Money payable under penalty to be deducted from compensation.

9. There shall be deducted from any compensation awarded to any workman or representatives of a workman, or persons claiming by, under, or through a workman in respect of any cause of action arising under this Act, any penalty or damages, or part of a penalty or damages which may in pursuance of any other Act, either of the Parliament of Canada, or of the Legislature of Ontario, have been paid to such workman, representatives or persons in respect of the same cause of action; and where an action has been brought under this Act by any workman, or the representatives of any workman, or any persons claiming by, under, or through such workman, for compensation in respect of any cause of action arising under this Act, and payment has not previously been made of any penalty or damages, or part of a penalty or damages under any such Act, either of the said Parliament, or of the said Legislature, in respect of the same cause of action, such workman, representatives or persons shall not, so far as the said Legislature has power so to enact, be entitled thereafter to receive in respect of the same cause of action, any such penalty or damages, or part of a penalty or damages, under any such last-mentioned Act. 49 V. c. 28, s. 9.

Form and service of notice of injury.

10.—(1) Notice in respect of an injury under this Act shall give the name and address of the person injured, and shall state in ordinary language the cause of the injury and the date at which it was sustained, and shall be served on the employer, or if there is more than one employer, upon one of such employers.

(2) The notice may be served by delivering the same to or at the residence or place of business of the person on whom it is to be served.

(3) The notice may also be served by post, by a registered letter addressed to the person on whom it is to be served at his last known place of residence or place of business, and if served by post shall be deemed to have been served at the time when a letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of post, and in proving the service of such notice it shall be sufficient to prove that the notice was properly addressed and registered.

(4) Where the employer is a body of persons corporate or unincorporate the notice shall be served by delivering the same at or by sending it by post in a registered letter addressed to the office, or if there be more than one office, any one of the offices of such body.

(5) A notice under this section shall not be deemed invalid by reason of any defect or inaccuracy therein, unless the Judge who tries the action arising from the injury mentioned in the notice shall be of opinion that the defendant in the action is prejudiced in his defence by such defect or inaccuracy, and that the defect or inaccuracy was for the purpose of misleading.

(6) A notice under this section shall be deemed sufficient if in the form or to the effect following:—

To A. B., of (here insert employer's address) or To the Company, (or as the case may be.)

Take notice, that on the day of 188 C. D., of (insert address of injured person) a workman in your employment sustained personal injury, (add, of which he died, if such be the case,) and that such injury was caused by (state shortly the cause of injury, e.g., the fall of a beam.)

(Date.)

Yours, etc.,

49 V. c. 28, s. 10.

11. In an action brought under this Act the particulars of demand or statement of claim shall state in ordinary language the cause of the injury, and the date at which it was sustained, and the amount of compensation claimed; and where the action is brought by more than one plaintiff, the amount of compensation claimed by each plaintiff, and where the injury of which the plaintiff complains shall have arisen by reason of the negligence, act, or omission of any person in the service of the defendant, the particulars shall give the name and description of such person. 49 V. c. 28, s. 11. Particulars of demand.

12.—(1) Upon the trial of an action for recovery of compensation under this Act before a Judge without a jury, one or more assessors may be appointed by the Court or Judge for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of compensation, and the remuneration (if any) to be paid to such assessors shall be fixed and determined by the Judge at the trial. Appointment of assessors.

(2) Any person who shall, as hereinafter provided, be appointed to act as an assessor in such action, shall be qualified so to act.

(3) In such action, a party who desires assessors to be appointed shall, ten clear days at least before the day for holding the Court at which the action is to be tried, file an application stating the number of assessors he proposes to be appointed, and the names, addresses and occupations of the persons who may have expressed their willingness in writing to act as assessors. If the applicant has obtained the consent of the other party to the persons named being appointed, he shall file such consent with his application.

(4) Where the application for the appointment of assessors has been made by one party to an action only, he shall, eight clear days at least before the day for holding the Court at which the action is to be tried, serve a copy of the application, so filed, upon the other party, who may then either file an application for assessors, or file objections to one or more of the persons proposed.

(5) An application for the appointment of assessors may be in the form following, or to the like effect, namely :—

In the (describing the Court)

“ The Workmen’s Compensation for Injuries Act.”

BETWEEN,

Plaintiff,
Defendant.

The plaintiff (or defendant) applies to have an assessor (or assessors) appointed to assist the Court in ascertaining the amount of compensation to be awarded to the plaintiff, should the judgment be in his favour, and he submits the names of the following persons, who have expressed their willingness in writing to act as assessors should they be appointed.

(Here set out the names, addresses and occupations of the persons above referred to.)

(If the other party consents to the appointment add the following):—

The defendant (or plaintiff) consents to the appointment of any of the persons above named to act as assessors in this action, as appears by his consent thereto filed herewith.

Dated this day of

A. B.

The above named plaintiff, (or as the case may be.)

(6) Where separate applications are filed by the parties, no objection to the persons proposed shall be made by either party, but the Court or Judge may appoint from the persons named in each application one or more assessor or assessors, provided that the same number of assessors be appointed from the names given in such applications respectively.

(7) In such action brought in a Division Court the applications for the appointment of assessors, together with any objections made to the persons proposed, shall be forwarded by the clerk of the Court to the Judge.

(8) Where application for the appointment of assessors is granted, the Court or Judge shall appoint such of the persons proposed for assessors as by the Court or Judge may be deemed fit, subject to the provisions contained in this Act.

(9) In such action where an application for the appointment of assessors has been filed, the Court or Judge may, at any time prior to the trial thereof, nominate one or more additional persons to act as assessors in the action. Where no application for assessors has been made, the Court or Judge may appoint one or more persons to act as assessor or assessors in the action before or on the trial of the action.

(10) If at the time and place appointed for the trial all or any of the assessors appointed shall not attend, the Court or Judge may either proceed to try the action with the assistance of such of the assessors, if any, as shall attend, or may adjourn the trial generally, or upon any terms which the Court or Judge may think fit, or may appoint any person who may be available and who is willing to act, and who is not objected to, or who, if objected to is objected to on some insufficient ground, or the Court or Judge may try the action without assessors.

(11) Every person requiring the Court or Judge to be assisted by assessors shall at the time of filing his application deposit therewith the sum of $4 for every assessor proposed, and such payments shall be considered as costs in the action, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or Judge: Provided, that where a person proposed as an assessor shall have in writing agreed and consented that he will not require his remuneration to be so deposited, no deposit in respect of such person shall be required.

(12) Where an action shall be tried by the Court or Judge with the assistance of assessors in addition to or independently of any assessors proposed by the parties, the remuneration of such assessors shall be borne by the parties, or either of them, as the Judge or Court shall direct.

(13) If after an assessor has been appointed the action shall not be tried, the Court or Judge shall have power to make an allowance to him in respect of any expense or trouble which he may have incurred by reason of his appointment, and direct the payment to be made out of any sum deposited for his remuneration.

(14) The assessors shall sit with and assist the Court or Judge when required with their opinion and special knowledge for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of compensation, if any, which the plaintiff shall be entitled to recover. 49 V. c. 28, s. 12.

13.—(1) Where several actions shall be brought under this Act against a defendant in the same Court in respect of the same negligence, act or omission, the defendant shall be at liberty to apply to the Judge that the said actions shall be consolidated. Consolidation of actions.

(2) Applications for consolidation of actions shall be made upon notice to the plaintiffs affected by such consolidation.

(3) In case several actions shall be brought under this Act against a defendant in the same Court in respect of the same negligence, act or omission, the defendant may, on filing an undertaking to be bound so far as his liability for such negligence, act or omission is concerned by the decision in such one of the said actions as may be selected by the Court or Judge, apply to the Court or Judge for an order to stay the proceedings in the actions other than in the one so selected, until judgment is given in such selected action.

(4) Applications for stay of proceedings shall be made upon notice to the plaintiffs affected by stay of proceedings or ex parte.

(5) Upon the hearing of an application for consolidation of actions or for stay of proceedings, the Court or Judge shall have power to impose such terms and conditions and make such order in the matter as may be just.

(6) If an order shall be made by a Court or Judge upon an ex parte application to stay proceedings, it shall be competent to the plaintiffs affected by the order to apply to the Court or Judge (as the case may be) upon notice or ex parte, to vary or discharge the order so made, and upon such last mentioned application such order shall be made as the Court or Judge shall think fit, and the Court or Judge shall have power to dispose of the costs occasioned by such order as may be deemed right.

(7) In case a verdict in the selected action shall be given against the defendant, the plaintiffs in the actions stayed shall be at liberty to proceed for the purpose of ascertaining and recovering their damages and costs.

(8) A defendant may by notice to the opposite party to be given or served at least six days before the day appointed for the trial of the action, admit the truth of any statement of his liability for any alleged negligence, act or omission as set forth or contained in the plaintiff's statement or particulars of claim in the action, and after such notice given the plaintiff shall not be allowed any expense thereafter incurred for the purpose of proving the matters so admitted.

(9) Where two or more persons are joined as plaintiffs under sub-section 1 of this section, and the negligence, act or omission which is the cause of action shall be proved, the judgment shall be for all the plaintiffs, but the amount of compensation, if any, that each plaintiff is entitled to shall be separately found and set forth in the judgment, and the amount of costs awarded in the action shall be ordered to be paid to such person, and in such manner as the Court or Judge may think fit; should the defendant fail to pay the several amounts of compensation and the costs awarded in the action, execution may issue as in an ordinary action, and should the proceeds of the execution be insufficient, after deducting all costs, to pay the whole of the amounts awarded, a dividend shall be paid to each plaintiff, calculated upon the proportion of the amount which shall have been awarded to the respective plaintiffs to the total amount realized after the deduction of all the costs of the action as aforesaid. 49 V. c. 28, s. 13.

Computation of time.

14. Where the time for doing any act, taking any proceeding, or giving any notice under or required by this Act expires on a Sunday such act, or proceeding, or notice shall, so far as regards the time of doing, taking or giving the same, be held to be duly and sufficiently done, taken or given, if done, taken or given, on the day next following such Sunday.

Forms and costs.

15. In an action brought in any Court to recover compensation under this Act, the forms and methods, and the rules and orders in force in Court shall, subject to and save as otherwise provided by the terms and provisions of this Act, apply to and regulate all matters of pleading, practice and procedure in such action, and notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the forms and method, and the pleadings, practice and procedure in any such action shall conform to and be regulated by any rules or orders in that behalf hereafter lawfully and duly made or prescribed with respect to actions brought in any such Court. 49 V. c. 28, s. 15.

16. Whereas certain railway companies, some of which carry on operations partly within the Province and partly without, have, in accordance with the provisions of certain Acts of the Parliament of Canada, established insurance and provident societies or associations to provide and secure, in case of sickness, accident or death, aid to such of the employees of the companies as are members of such societies or associations; and whereas it is desirable that nothing in this Act contained should have the effect of impairing the advantages derivable from any such association, or of making its operations less beneficial to the workmen employed by such companies; and whereas with a view to enactment of any safe and proper provisions which may be necessary in the premises, it is desirable that time should be afforded for further and more complete inquiry in that behalf: Therefore, it is hereby enacted that, where any railway company or employer has, in accordance with the provisions of any Act of the Parliament of Canada, or otherwise, established an insurance and provident society or association, of which at least two-thirds of the employees of said company or employer shall have become members, and which society or association, shall provide for its members aid in case of sickness, accident or death, to at least the extent and amount provided and secured in that respect by the insurance and provident society or association now established by the Grand Trunk Railway Company of Canada, in accordance with the provisions of certain Acts of the Parliament of Canada, then and in every such case this Act shall not, until after the first day of April, 1888, apply to any such railway company or employer: Provided, however, that notwithstanding anything in this section contained, this Act shall be held to apply to every such railway company and employer in respect of any personal injury caused to a workman by reason of any of the matters mentioned in section 4 of this Act, and in respect of any action for the recovery of compensation for any such last mentioned injury: Provided, moreover, that notwithstanding anything in this section contained, this Act shall be held to apply to every railway company and employer in respect of any personal injury within the meaning of this Act, caused to a workman who is not a member of the insurance and provident society or association so established by the company or employer as aforesaid, and in respect of any action for the recovery of compensation for any such last mentioned injury. 49 V. c. 28, s. 17; 50 V. c. 22, ss. 1, 2.

POWERS OF CHARITABLE SOCIETIES, s. 29.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

INTERPRETATION*.

Meaning of the word "master."

1. The word "Master," when it occurs in this Act, shall include any person or number of persons, male or female, carrying on business singly or in co-partnership, and any body corporate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 1.

GUARDIANS TO MINORS.

Power of parents, charitable societies, etc., to appoint guardians to minors.

2. Any parent, guardian, or any other person having the care or charge of a minor, or any charitable society authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor to exercise the powers conferred by this Act, and having the care or charge of a minor, may, with the minor's consent, if the minor is a male not under the age of fourteen years, or is a female not under the age of twelve years, and without such consent if he or she is under such age, constitute, by indenture, to be the guardian of the child, any respectable trustworthy person who is willing to assume, and by indenture or other instrument in writing does assume, the duty of a parent towards the child; but the parent shall remain liable for the performance of any duty imposed by law in case the guardian fails in the performance thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 2.

3. The guardian shall thereupon possess the same authority over the child as he or she would have were the ward his or her own child, and shall be bound to perform the duties of a parent toward such ward. Authority of guardians. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 3.

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF MINORS.

4. No minor who has been abandoned by his or her parent or guardian, or who is dependent upon charity for support shall be removed from any public or private charitable institution, or from the custody or control of any private person who is charitably taking care of the minor, by the father or mother, or guardian of the minor against the will of the head of such public or private charitable institution, or of such private person, without an order for such removal from a Judge of the High Court or from the Judge of the County Court of the county, or mayor or police magistrate of the city or town where the minor is; and the Judge or other person hereby empowered to make an order for removal, may refuse to grant an order for the removal of the minor, unless he is satisfied that the removal will tend to the advantage and benefit of the minor. Parents and guardians of certain minors not to control their custody in certain cases except on order. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 4.

5. Where a minor over the age of sixteen years, who has no parent or legal guardian, or who does not reside with his parent or guardian, enters into an engagement written or verbal to perform any service or work, he shall be liable upon the same, and shall have the benefit thereof, as if he had been of legal age. Minors may bind themselves to labour in certain cases. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 5.

APPRENTICING MINORS.

6. A parent, guardian, or other person having the care or charge of a minor, or any charitable society being authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to exercise the powers conferred by this Act, and having the care or charge of a minor, the minor being a male and not under the age of fourteen years, may, with the consent of the minor, put and bind him as an apprentice by indenture to any respectable and trustworthy master mechanic, farmer, or other person carrying on a trade or calling, for a term not to extend beyond the minority of the apprentice; or in case of a female not under the age of twelve years, may, with her consent, bind the minor to any respectable and trustworthy person carrying on any trade or calling, or to domestic service with any respectable and trustworthy person for any term not to extend beyond the age of eighteen years. Power of parents, charitable societies, etc., to bind minors. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 6.

7. Where the father of an infant child abandons and leaves the child with the mother, the mother, with the approbation of two Justices of the Peace, may bind the child as an apprentice to any person mentioned in the last section, until the child The like power given to the mother when the father abandons his infant children.

attains the age of twenty-one years in the case of a male; and eighteen in the case of a female; and an indenture to that effect under the hand and seal of the mother and countersigned by such Justices shall be valid; but no child, having attained the age of fourteen years, shall be so apprenticed, unless he or she consents. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 7.

Certain minors may be apprenticed with consent.

8.—(1) In a city or town, the mayor, Judge of the County Court or Police Magistrate, and in a county, the Judge of the County Court of the county may put and bind for the like period to any person mentioned in the several sections of this Act, with the consent of such person and of the minor, any minor who is an orphan or has been deserted by his or her parents or guardian, or whose parents or guardian have been for the time committed to a common gaol or house of correction, or any minor who is dependent upon public charity for support; and such apprentice and the master of such apprentice shall be held in the same manner as if the apprentice had been bound by his or her parent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 8.

When consent of minor not required.

(2) In the case of a minor, if a male under the age of fourteen years, or if a female under the age of twelve years, who has been deserted by his or her parents or guardian, or whose parents or guardian have been for the time committed to a common gaol or house of correction, or who is dependent upon public charity for support, the consent of such minor shall not be necessary for the purposes of this section. 49 V. c. 16, s. 31.

Wages of minors.

9. All wages reserved by any indenture or otherwise to be paid for the service of any minor, shall, if not payable to the parent, be either payable to the minor or to some person for the benefit of the minor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 9.

If the master dies, apprentice to be transferred to his successor in the business.

10. If the master of the apprentice dies, the apprentice if a male, shall by act of law, be transferred to the person (if any) who continues the establishment of the deceased; and such person shall hold the apprentice upon the same terms as the deceased, if alive would have done. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 10.

Apprentices
may be transferred.

11. A master may transfer his apprentice, with his consent to any person who is competent to receive or take an apprentice and who carries on the same kind of business. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 11.

Duties of masters to wards apprentices.

12. Every master shall provide his apprentice, during the term of his apprenticeship with suitable board, lodging and clothing, or such equivalent therefor as is mentioned in the indenture, and shall also properly teach and instruct him, or cause him to be taught and instructed in his trade or calling. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 12.

13. Every apprentice shall during the term of his apprenticeship faithfully serve his master, shall obey all his lawful and reasonable commands, and shall not absent himself from his service, day or night, without his consent. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 13.

Duty of apprentices.

COMPLAINTS.

14. A Judge of the County Court or a Police Magistrate upon complaint made by a minor bound as aforesaid, or by any person on his or her behalf, or by the person to whom an apprentice is bound, may alter the mode in which payment of wages is to be made, by directing payment to the apprentice, or to some other person, in lieu of the manner set out in the indenture; or may upon proof of gross misconduct or neglect of duty annul the indenture of apprenticeship or of service, and may compel the person in whose possession, power, custody or control the indenture is, to produce and deliver the same in Court, in order to have the indenture cancelled, or to have the order varying the said indenture endorsed thereon, as the case may require. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 14.

Alteration in mode of payment of wages upon application for the purpose.

Indenture may be annulled for misconduct of master.

15. A County Court Judge or Police Magistrate may after allowing a reasonable time for production and delivery, issue a warrant for the imprisonment of the person in default, for any term not exceeding six months, unless the indenture or instrument is previously produced and delivered for the purpose aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 15.

Committal for refusing to produce indenture.

16. A Judge of the County Court or Police Magistrate upon complaint of any minor over whom a person has been appointed guardian under section 2 of this Act, or of any person on behalf of the minor, and upon proof of gross misconduct or neglect of duty on the part of the guardian may emancipate the minor from the authority of the said guardian. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 16.

Emancipation from authority of guardian.

17. A Judge of the County Court in any case, and a Police Magistrate in case the apprenticing of a child or the appointment of a guardian under this Act has not been by the parent of the child, may on the application of either the parent or child, cancel the indenture of apprenticeship, if satisfied that the same was injudiciously or improperly entered into; or cancel the appointment of a guardian, and restore the child to the parent, if satisfied that the parent is a fit and proper person to take charge of the child; and in case such cancellation of the guardianship is on the application of the parent, the authority of the parent shall revive as if no guardian had been appointed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 17.

Cancellation of indenture of apprenticeship or appointment of guardian.

18. In case an apprentice absents himself from his master's service or employment before the time of his apprenticeship expires, he may at any time thereafter, if found in Ontario, be compelled to serve his master for so long a time as he so absented himself, unless he makes satisfaction to his master for the loss sustained by such absence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 18.

Liability of apprentice deserting his master's service.

How complaints may be heard.

19.—(1) In case an apprentice refuses to serve as above required or to make such satisfaction to his master, or to obey the lawful commands of his master, or in any other way refuses or neglects to perform his duty to his master, and if the master, or his overseer or agent, complains on oath to a Justice of the Peace or Police Magistrate, either in the county, city or town where the master resides, or in any county, city or town where the absconding apprentice is found, such Justice or Police Magistrate may cause the apprentice to be summoned to appear or be apprehended and brought before him, or before some other Justice of the Peace; and such Justice, upon hearing the complaint, shall determine what satisfaction shall be made by the apprentice to the master.

Committal of apprentice in certain cases, etc.

(2) In case the apprentice does not give or make such satisfaction immediately, or in case the satisfaction is of such a nature as not to admit of immediate performance, if he does not give sufficient security to make such satisfaction, then the Justice or Police Magistrate may commit the apprentice to the common gaol or house of correction of the county, city or town, for any time not exceeding three months; and such imprisonment shall not release the apprentice from the obligation to make up the lost time to the master. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 19.

Limitation of proceedings against absconding apprentice.

20. Where the apprentice has not left Ontario, or having left Ontario, has returned thereto, the master shall not proceed against the apprentice under this Act, except within three years next after the expiration of the term for which the apprentice contracted to serve, or next after his return, as the case may be. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 20.

Penalty for employing or harbouring absconding apprentices.

21. Any person who knowingly harbours or employs an absconding apprentice, shall pay to the master of the apprentice the full value of the apprentice's labour; and such value shall be what the master would have received from the labour and service of the apprentice if he had continued faithfully in his master's service; and the master may recover the same in any Court having jurisdiction where the apprentice has been employed, or where the master resides. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 21.

Indenture may be avoided if apprentice becomes insane, a convict, or absconds.

22. If an apprentice becomes insane, or is convicted of a felony, or is sentenced to the Central Prison, Provincial Reformatory, or to the Penitentiary, or absconds, his master may within one month thence next ensuing, but not afterwards, avoid the indenture of apprenticeship, from the time he gives notice in writing of his intention to do so to the other parties to the indenture, either by serving them with the notice or a copy thereof, or by inserting the same in the Ontario Gazette, or in a newspaper of the county or city where the master's establishment is situated. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 22.

23. The Court of General Sessions of the Peace shall have a concurrent primary jurisdiction over offences committed against this Act, and shall also have authority to make any order which under this Act may be made by a Judge of the County Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 23.

Act not to affect jurisdiction of General Sessions.

24. The Court of General Sessions, Judge, Police Magistrate or Justice, may, on any complaint or other proceeding under this Act make such order as to payment of costs as appears just. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 24.

Costs.

25. All fines imposed and collected under this Act shall be paid to the treasurer of the local municipality, where the offence was committed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 25.

Application of fines.

APPEALS.

26. Either party may, except as to matters provided for in the next section, appeal to the Court of General Sessions from the decision of a Justice or Police Magistrate, under this Act, in manner provided for in cases of summary conviction; and the said Court, when called upon to adjudicate upon an appeal in any matter under this Act, may make the like order as it might have made, had the complaint been brought before it in the first instance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 26.

Appeal to General Sessions.

27.—(1) There shall be an appeal to a Judge of the High Court in Chambers from any order made by a Court of General Sessions, County Court Judge, or a Police Magistrate, cancelling or varying an indenture of apprenticeship, or cancelling the appointment of a guardian; which appeal shall be by summary petition, a copy whereof shall be served upon the opposite party within ten days from the day upon which judgment is rendered, unless a Judge of the High Court, or the Master in Chambers allows further time; and the petition shall be returnable upon the tenth day after the day of service thereof.

Appeal to a Judge in Chambers.

Proceedings on appeal.

(2) The Judge, or Master in Chambers aforesaid, in granting further time may impose such terms as to further evidence, costs and otherwise as he sees fit; but the adjudication on the appeal shall be by the Judge only. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 27.

28. The Judge, upon consideration of the evidence taken upon the hearing, (a certified copy whereof shall be produced before him,) and such further evidence aforesaid (if any) may make such order in the premises, and as to costs and other-

Order of Judge;

further evidence.

wise, as he may consider fitting; or before adjudication upon the appeal, he may in his discretion permit further evidence, either written or oral, to be adduced upon such terms as he considers just. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 28.

POWERS OF CHARITABLE SOCIETIES.

Charitable societies may be authorized to exercise powers under this Act.

29. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may authorize any charitable society, incorporated or unincorporated, to exercise for a limited time or otherwise, the powers conferred by this Act, and may revoke or suspend any Order in Council made for that purpose; and after such revocation such Society shall not possess the authority to exercise such powers unless and until again authorized by Order in Council. R. S. O. 1877, c. 135, s. 29.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

INTERPRETATION.

1. Where the words following occur in the five following Interpretation sections of this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears :

"Rents."

1. "Rents" shall include rent-service, rent-charge and rent-seck, and all periodical payments or renderings in lieu of or in nature of rent ;

"Annuities."

2. "Annuities" shall include salaries and pensions ; and

"Dividends."

3. "Dividends" shall include (besides dividends, strictly so called) all payments made by the name of dividend, bonus or otherwise out of the revenues of trading or other public companies, divisible between all or any of the members of such respective companies, whether such payments are usually made or declared at any fixed times or otherwise ; and all such divisible revenue shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have accrued by equal daily increment, during and within the period for or in respect of which the payment of the same revenue is declared or expressed to be made ; but the said word "dividend" shall not include payments in the nature of a return or reimbursement of capital. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 1.

Imp. Act
33-34 V. c.
35, s. 5.

APPORTIONMENT OF RENT.

Rents, etc., to accrue from day to day, and be apportionable in respect of time.

Imp. Act
33-34 V. c.
35, s. 2.

2. All rents, annuities, dividends, and other periodical payments in the nature of income (whether reserved or made payable under an instrument in writing or otherwise), shall like interest on money lent, be considered as accruing from day to day, and shall be apportionable in respect of time accordingly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 2.

Apportioned part of rent, etc., to be payable when the next entire portion becomes due.

Imp. Act
33-34 V. c.
35, s. 3.

3. The apportioned part of such rent, annuity, dividend or other payment shall be payable or recoverable in the case of a continuing rent, annuity or other such payment when the entire portion, of which such apportioned part forms part, becomes due and payable, and not before ; and in the case of a rent, annuity or other such payment determined by re-entry, death or otherwise, when the next entire portion of the same would have been payable if the same had not so determined, and not before. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 3.

Persons shall have the same remedies for recovering apportioned parts as for entire portion.

Imp. Act 33
34 V. c. 35,
s. 4.

4.—(1) All persons and their respective heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, and also the executors, administrators and assigns, respectively, of persons whose interests determine with their own deaths, shall have such or the same remedies for recovering such apportioned parts as aforesaid, when payable (allowing proportionate parts of all just allowances) as they respectively would have had for recovering such entire portions as aforesaid, if entitled thereto respectively :

Proviso as to rents reserved in certain cases.

(2) But persons liable to pay rents reserved out of or charged on lands or other hereditaments of any tenure, and the same lands or other hereditaments shall not be resorted to for any such apportioned part forming part of an entire or continuing rent as aforesaid specifically, but the entire or continuing rent, including such apportioned part, shall be recovered and received by the heir or other person, who, if the rent had not been apportionable under this Act, or otherwise, would have been entitled to such entire or continuing rent, and such apportioned part shall be recoverable by action from such heir or other person by the executors or other persons entitled under this Act to the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 4.

5. Nothing in the preceding provisions of this Act contained shall render apportionable any annual sums made payable in policies of assurance of any description. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 5.

Act not to apply to policies of assurance.
Imp. Act 33-34 V. c. 35, s. 6.

6. The preceding provisions of this Act shall not extend to any case in which it is expressly stipulated that no apportionment shall take place. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 6.

Nor where stipulation made to the contrary.
33-34 V. c. 35, s. 7.

APPORTIONMENT OF CONDITION OF RE-ENTRY.

7. Where the reversion upon a lease is severed and the rent or other reservation is legally apportioned, the assignee of each part of the reversion shall, in respect of the apportioned rent or other reservation allotted or belonging to him, have and be entitled to the benefit of all conditions or powers of re-entry for non-payment of the original rent or other reservation, in like manner as if such conditions or powers had been reserved to him as incident to his part of the reversion in respect of the apportioned rent or other reservation allotted or belonging to him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 7.

Apportionment of condition of re-entry in certain cases.
Imp. Act 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 3.

MERGER, ETC., OF REVERSIONS.

8. Where the reversion expectant on a lease of land merges or is surrendered, the estate, which for the time being confers, as against the tenant under the same lease, the next vested right to the same land, shall, to the extent of and for preserving such incidents to and obligations on the same reversion as but for the surrender or merger thereof would have subsisted, be deemed the reversion expectant on the same lease. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 8.

Effect of surrender or merger of reversion expectant on a lease in certain cases.
See Imp. Act 8 & 9 V. c. 106, s. 9.

RIGHT OF RE-ENTRY.

9. In every demise made or entered into after the 25th day of March, 1886, whether by parol or in writing, unless it shall be otherwise agreed, there shall be deemed to be included an agreement that if the rent reserved, or any part thereof, shall remain unpaid for fifteen days after any of the days on which the same ought to have been paid, although no formal demand shall have been made thereof, it shall be lawful for the landlord, at any time thereafter into and upon the demised premises, or any part thereof in the name of the whole, to re-enter and the same to have again, repossess, and enjoy as of his former estate. 49 V. c. 29, s. 1.

Right of entry.

ASSIGNMENTS BY PERSONS UNDER DISABILITY.

Assignments
by persons under disability.

10. Where any person being under the age of twenty-one years, or a lunatic, or a person of unsound mind, shall be seised of the reversion of land subject to a lease, and such lease shall contain a covenant not to assign or sublet without leave, the guardian of such infant or the committee of such lunatic, or person of unsound mind may, with the approbation of the Judge of the Surrogate Court of the county in which the land is situate, consent to any assignment or transfer of such leasehold interest, in the same manner and with the like effect as if the consent were given by a lessor under no disability. 49 V. c. 29, s. 2.

FORFEITURE OF LEASES.

Restrictions on and relief against forfeiture of leases.
Imp. Act, 44
& 45 V. c. 41,
s. 14.

11.—(1) A right of re-entry or forfeiture under any proviso or stipulation in a lease, for a breach of any covenant or condition in the lease, shall not be enforceable, by action or otherwise, unless and until the lessor serves on the lessee a notice specifying the particular breach complained of, and if the breach is capable of remedy, requiring the lessee to remedy the breach, and, in any case, requiring the lessee to make compensation in money for the breach, and the lessee fails, within a reasonable time thereafter, to remedy the breach, if it is capable of remedy, and to make reasonable compensation in money, to the satisfaction of the lessor for the breach.

(2) Where a lessor is proceeding by action or otherwise, to enforce such a right of re-entry or forfeiture, the lessee may, in the lessor's action, if any, or in any action brought by himself, apply to the Court for relief; and the Court may grant or refuse relief, as the Court, having regard to the proceedings and conduct of the parties under the foregoing provisions of this section and to all the other circumstances, thinks fit; and in case of relief may grant it on such terms, if any, as to costs, expenses, damages, compensation, penalty, or otherwise, including the granting of an injunction to restrain any like breach in the future, as the Court in the circumstances of each case thinks fit.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a lease includes an original or derivative under-lease, also a grant at a fee farm rent, or securing a rent by condition; and a lessee includes an original or derivative under-lessee, and the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of a lessee, also a grantee under such a grant as aforesaid, his heirs and assigns: and a lessor includes an original or derivative under-lessor, and the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of a lessor, also a grantor as aforesaid, and his heirs and assigns.

(4) This section applies, although the proviso or stipulation under which the right of re-entry or forfeiture accrues is inserted in the lease, in pursuance of the directions of any Act of Parliament or of this Legislature.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a lease limited to continue as long only as the lessee abstains from committing a breach of covenant shall be and take effect as a lease to continue for any longer term for which it could subsist, but determinable by a proviso for re-entry on such a breach.

(6) This section does not extend—

(a) To a covenant or condition, against the assigning, underletting, parting with the possession, or disposing of the land leased; or to a condition for forfeiture on the bankruptcy of the lessee, or on the taking in execution of the lessee's interest; or

(b) In case of a mining lease, to a covenant or condition for allowing the lessor to have access to or inspect books, accounts, records, weighing machines or other things, or to enter or inspect the mine or the workings thereof. 49 V. c. 20, s. 16 (1-6).

A "mining lease" is a lease for mining purposes, that is, the searching for, working, getting, making merchantable, carrying away, or disposing of mines and minerals, or purposes connected therewith, and includes a grant or license for mining purposes. 49 V. c. 20, s. 3 (7).

(7) This section shall not affect the law relating to re-entry or forfeiture or relief in cases of non-payment of rent.

(8) This section applies to leases made either before or after the 25th day of March, 1886, and shall have effect notwithstanding any stipulation to the contrary. 49 V. c. 20, s. 16 (7, 8).

LICENSES.

12. Where a license to do any act which, without such license, would create a forfeiture, or give a right to re-enter, under a condition or power reserved in a lease heretofore granted, or to be hereafter granted, has been, at any time since the 18th day of September, 1865, given to a lessee or his assigns, every such license shall, unless otherwise expressed, extend only to the permission actually given, or to any specific breach of any proviso or covenant made or to be made, or to the actual assignment, under-lease or other matter thereby specifically authorized to be done, but not so as to prevent a proceeding for any subsequent breach (unless otherwise specified in such license); and all rights under covenants and powers of forfeiture and re-entry in the lease contained shall remain in full force and virtue, and shall be available as against any subsequent breach of covenant or condition, assignment, under-lease, or other matter not specifically authorized or made punishable by such license, in the same manner as if no such license had been given; and the condition or right of re-entry shall be and remain in all respects as if such license had not been given, except in respect of the particular matter authorized to be done. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 9.

Restriction on effect of license under power contained in lease, etc. Imp. Act 22-23 V. c. 35, s. 1.

Restricted operation of partial licenses.
Imp. Act 22
23 V. c. 35,
s. 2.

13. Where in a lease heretofore granted or to be hereafter granted, there is a power or condition of re-entry on assigning or underletting or doing any other specified act without license, and at any time since the 18th day of September, 1865, a license has been or is given to one of several lessees or co-owners to assign or underlet his share or interest, or to do any other act prohibited to be done without license, or has been or is given to a lessee or owner, or any one of several lessees or owners, to assign or underlet part only of the property, or to do any other such act as aforesaid in respect of part only of such property, such license shall not operate to destroy or extinguish the right of re-entry in case of any breach of the covenant or condition by the co-lessee or co-lessees or owner or owners of the other shares or interests in the property, or by the lessee or owner of the rest of the property (as the case may be), over or in respect of such shares or interests or remaining property, but such right of re-entry shall remain in full force over or in respect of the shares or interests or property not the subject of such license. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 10.

WAIVER OF COVENANT.

Waiver not to extend further than to the particular instance mentioned.

14. Where an actual waiver of the benefit of a covenant or condition in a lease, on the part of a lessor, or his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, is proved to have taken place after the 18th day September, 1865, in any one particular instance, such actual waiver shall not be assumed or deemed to extend to any instance or any breach of covenant or condition other than that to which such waiver specially relates, nor to be a general waiver of the benefit of any such covenant or condition, unless an intention to that effect appears. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 11.

LENGTH OF NOTICES TO QUIT.

Notice to quit in case of weekly or monthly tenancies.

15. In the case of tenancies from week to week and from month to month, a week's notice to quit and a month's notice to quit, respectively, ending with the week or the month, as the case may be, shall be deemed sufficient notice to determine, respectively, a weekly or monthly tenancy. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 15.

TENANTS TO NOTIFY LANDLORDS.

16. Every tenant to whom a writ in an action for the recovery of land has been delivered, or to whose knowledge it comes, shall forthwith give notice thereof to his landlord, or to his bailiff or receiver, and if he omits so to do, he shall forfeit to the person of whom he holds, the value of three years' improved or rack rent of the premises demised or holden in the possession of such tenant, to be recovered by action in any Court having jurisdiction for the amount. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 58.

Penalty on tenant receiving writ for recovery of land and not notifying his landlord.

RECOVERY OF PREMISES BY LANDLORDS.

Where a half-year's rent in arrear.

17. In all cases between landlord and tenant, as often as it happens that one-half year's rent is in arrear, and the landlord or lessor to whom the same is due has the right by law to re-enter for non-payment thereof, such landlord or lessor may, without any formal demand or re-entry, serve a writ for the recovery of the demised premises; or in case the same cannot be legally served, or no tenant is in actual possession of the premises, then the landlord or lessor may affix a copy thereof upon the door of any demised messuage; or in case the action is not for the recovery of any messuage, then upon some notorious place of the lands, tenements or hereditaments comprised in the writ; and such affixing shall be good service thereof, and shall stand instead of a demand and re-entry. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 59.

Landlord having power to re-enter for non-payment of rent, may recover possession.

18. In case of judgment against the defendant for non-appearance, if it is shewn by affidavit to the Court, or is proved upon the trial in case the defendant appears, that half a year's rent was due before the writ was served, and that no sufficient distress was to be found on the demised premises countervailing the arrears then due, and that the lessor had power to re-enter, the lessor shall recover judgment and have execution in the same manner as if the rent in arrear had been demanded, and re-entry made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 60.

How such right shall be exercised.

19. In case the lessee or his assignee, or other person claiming or deriving title under the lease, permits and suffers judgment to be had on such trial and execution to be executed thereon, without paying the rent and arrears together with full costs, and without proceeding for equitable relief within six months after execution executed, then and in every such case the lessee and his assignee and all other persons claiming and deriving under the lease, shall be barred and foreclosed from all relief or remedy other than by proceedings by way of appeal from the judgment, and the landlord or lessor shall from thenceforth hold the demised premises discharged from the lease. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 61.

Consequences of the exercise of such right.

As to mortgagees of lease.

20. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall bar the right of any mortgagee of such lease or any part thereof who is not in possession, if the mortgagee, within six months after such judgment obtained and execution executed, pays all rent in arrear, and all costs and damages sustained by the lessor or person entitled to the remainder or reversion, and performs all covenants and agreements which on the part and behalf of the first lessee are to be, or ought to be performed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 62.

Proceedings if the tenant ejected seeks equitable relief.

21. In case the lessee, his assignee or other person claiming any right, title or interest of, in or to the lease, proceeds for equitable relief within the time aforesaid, such person shall not be entitled to a stay of the proceedings, unless within forty days next after an application for a stay of the proceedings he brings into Court and lodges with the proper officer such sum of money as the lessor or landlord swears to be due and in arrear over and above all just allowances, and also the costs taxed in the said action, there to remain until the hearing of the application for equitable relief, or to be paid out to the lessor or landlord on good security, subject to the judgment or order of the Court; and in case such proceedings for equitable relief are taken within the time aforesaid, and after execution has been executed, the lessor or landlord shall be accountable only for so much as he really and bona fide, without fraud, deceit or wilful neglect, has made of the demised premises from the time of his entering into the actual possession thereof, and if what he has so made is less than the rent reserved on the lease, then the lessee or his assignee, before being restored to his possession, shall pay the lessor or landlord what the money so by him made fell short of the reserved rent for the time the lessor or landlord held the lands. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 63.

Discontinuance if tenant pays arrears of rent and costs before trial, etc.

22. If the tenant or his assignee at any time before the trial in the action pays or tenders to the lessor or landlord, or to his solicitor in the cause, or pays into Court all the rent and arrears together with the costs, all further proceedings in the action shall cease; and if the lessee or his assigns, upon such proceeding as aforesaid, obtains equitable relief he and they shall have, hold and enjoy the demised lands according to the lease thereof made, without any new lease. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 64.

Where lease is determined and tenant refuses to go out.

Proceedings when the time for which any tenant holds the lands leased has expired, and the tenant refuses to deliver possession after notice.

23. In case (1,) the term or interest of any tenant of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, holding the same under a lease or agreement in writing for any term or number of years certain, or from year to year, expires or is determined either by the landlord or tenant by regular notice to quit; and (2,) in case a lawful demand of possession in writing, made and signed by the landlord or his agent, is served personally upon the tenant or any person holding or claiming under him, or is left at the dwelling house or usual place of abode of such tenant or person; and (3,) in case such tenant or person refuses to deliver up possession accordingly, and the landlord thereupon proceeds by action for recovery of possession, he may, at the foot of the writ of summons, address a notice to such tenant or person, requiring him to find such security, if ordered by the Court or a Judge, and for such purposes as are hereinafter next specified. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 65.

24. Upon the appearance of the party, or in case of non-appearance then on making and filing an affidavit of service of the writ and notice, and on the landlord's producing the lease or agreement, or some counterpart or duplicate thereof, and proving the execution of the same by affidavit, and upon affidavit that the premises have been actually enjoyed under such lease or agreement, and that the interest of the tenant has expired, or been determined by regular notice to quit (as the case may be), and that possession has been lawfully demanded in manner aforesaid, the landlord may apply to the Court or a Judge for a rule or summons for such tenant or person to shew cause, within a time to be fixed by the Court or Judge on a consideration of the situation of the premises, why such tenant or person should not enter into a bond by himself and two sufficient sureties, in a reasonable sum, conditioned to pay the costs and damages which may be recovered by the plaintiff in the action, and the Court or Judge, upon cause shewn or upon affidavit of the service of the rule or summons in case no cause is shewn, may make the same absolute in whole or in part, and order such tenant or person within a time to be fixed, upon a consideration of all the circumstances, to give such bond to the plaintiff with such conditions and in such manner as may be specified in the said rule or summons, or the part of the same so made absolute. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 66.

Circumstances under which landlord may give notice to tenant to find security.

25. In case the party neglects or refuses to comply with such rule or order, and gives no ground to induce the Court or Judge to enlarge the time for obeying the same, then the lessor or landlord, upon filing an affidavit that such rule or order has been made and served and not complied with, may sign judgment for the recovery of possession and costs of suit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 67.

If not given when ordered, judgment may be signed.

26. No action or other proceeding shall be commenced upon the bond after six months from the time when the possession of the premises or any part thereof has been actually delivered to the landlord. R. S. O. 1877, c. 51, s. 69:

Limitation of actions upon bond.

EXEMPTIONS FROM DISTRESS.

27.—(1) The goods and chattels exempt from seizure under execution, shall not be liable to seizure by distress by a landlord for rent in respect of a tenancy created after the first day of Goods exempt from execution to be exempt from distress.

October, 1887, except as hereinafter provided; nor shall such goods be liable to seizure by distress by a collector of taxes accruing after the said first day of October, 1887, unless they are the property of the person actually assessed for the premises, and whose name also appears upon the collector's roll for the year as liable therefor.

(2) The person claiming such exemption shall select and point out the goods and chattels as to which he claims exemption. 50 V. c. 23, s. 1.

Goods on premises not property of tenant to be exempt.

28.—(1) A landlord shall not distrain for rent on the goods and chattels the property of any person except the tenant or person who is liable for the rent, although the same are found on the premises; but this restriction shall not apply in favour of a person claiming title under or by virtue of an execution against the tenant, or in favour of any person whose title is derived by purchase, gift, transfer, or assignment from the tenant, whether absolute or in trust, or by way of mortgage or otherwise, nor to goods on the premises in the possession of the tenant under a contract for purchase, or by which he may or is to become the owner thereof upon performance of any condition, nor where goods have been exchanged between two tenants or persons by the one borrowing or hiring from the other for the purpose of defeating the claim of or the right of distress by the landlord; nor shall the restriction apply where the property is claimed by the wife, husband, daughter, son, daughter-in-law, or son-in-law of the tenant, or by any other relative of his, in case such other relative lives on the premises as a member of the tenant's family.

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall exempt from seizure by distress goods or merchandise in a store or shop managed or controlled by an agent or clerk for the owner of such goods or merchandise when such clerk or agent is also the tenant and in default and the rent is due in respect of the store or shop and premises rented therewith and thereto belonging, when such goods would have been liable to seizure but for this Act.

(3) The word "tenant" in this section shall extend to and include the sub-tenant and the assigns of the tenant and any person in actual occupation of the premises under or with the assent of the tenant during the currency of the lease, or while the rent is due or in arrear, whether he has or has not attained to or become the tenant of the landlord.

(4) In case of an assignment for the general benefit of creditors the preferential lien of the landlord for rent is restricted to the arrears of rent due during the period of one year last previous to the execution of such assignment, and from thence so long as the assignee shall retain the premises leased. 50 V. c. 23, s. 2.

29.—(1) A tenant may set-off against the rent due a debt Right of set-off. due to him by the landlord.

(2) The set-off may be by a notice in the form or to the effect following, and may be given before or after the seizure :

Take notice, that I wish to set-off against rent due by me to you, the debt which you owe to me on your promissory note for _____, dated _____ (or for eight months' wages at $20 per month, $160,) (or as the case may be).

In case of such notice the landlord shall only be entitled to distrain for the balance of rent after deducting any debt justly due by him to the tenant. 50 V. c. 23, s. 3.

30.—(1) A tenant who is in default for non-payment of rent and claims the benefit of the exemption to which he is entitled under this Act, must give up possession of the premises forthwith, or be ready and offer to do so. Tenant claiming exemption must surrender premises.

(2) The offer may be made to the landlord or to his agent; and the person authorized to seize and sell the goods and chattels, or having the custody thereof for the landlord, shall be considered an agent of the landlord for the purpose of the offer and surrender to the landlord of the possession.

(3) The surrender of possession in pursuance of the landlord's notice shall be a determination of the tenancy.

(4) Where a landlord desires to seize the exempted goods, he shall, after default has been made in the payment of rent and before or at the time of seizure serve the tenant with a notice which shall inform the tenant what amount is claimed for rent in arrear, and that in default of payment, if he gives up possession of the premises to the landlord after service of the notice, he will be entitled to claim exemption for such of his goods and chattels as are exempt from seizure under execution, but that if he neither pays the rent nor gives up possession his goods and chattels will be liable to seizure, and will be sold to pay the rent in arrear and costs.

(5) The notice may be in the following form or to the like effect :

Take notice that I claim $ _____ for rent due to me in respect of the premises which you hold as my tenant, namely, (here briefly describe them); and unless the said rent is paid, I demand from you immediate possession of the said premises; and I am ready to leave in your possession such of your goods and chattels as in that case only you are entitled to claim exemption for.

Take notice further, that if you neither pay the said rent nor give me up possession of the said premises after the service of this notice, I am by law entitled to seize and sell, and I intend to seize and sell all your goods and chattels, or such part thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the said rent and costs.

This notice is given under the Act of the Legislature of Ontario, respecting the Law of Landlord and Tenant.

Dated this _____ day of _____ A.D.

(Signed) A.B. (landlord).

To C.D. (tenant.)

(6) Service of papers under this Act shall be made either personally or by leaving the same with some grown person being in and apparently residing on the premises occupied by the person to be served.

(7) If the tenant cannot be found and his place of abode is either not known, or admission thereto cannot be obtained, the posting up of the paper on some conspicuous part of the premises, shall be deemed good service.

(8) No proceeding under this section shall be deemed defective or rendered invalid by any objection of form. 50 V. c. 23, s. 4.

Where a landlord has by law a right to enter for non-payment of rent, it shall not be necessary to demand the rent on the day when due, or with the strictness required at common law, and a demand of rent shall suffice notwithstanding more or less than the amount really due is demanded, and notwithstanding other requisites of the common law are not complied with: provided that, unless the premises are vacant, the demand be made fifteen days at least before entry; such demand to be made on the tenant personally anywhere, or on his wife or some other grown up member of his family on the premises. 50 V. c. 23, s. 5.

SALE OF GROWING CROPS.

Sale of growing crops.

32. When growing or standing crops, which may be seized and sold under execution, are seized for rent, they may, at the option of the landlord or upon the request of the tenant, be advertised and sold in the same manner as other goods, and it shall not be necessary for the landlord to reap, thresh, gather or otherwise market the same. 50 V. c. 23, s. 6.

Liability of purchaser of growing crops.

33. Any person purchasing a growing crop at such sale, shall be liable for the rent of the lands upon which the same is growing at the time of the sale, and until the crop shall be removed, unless the same has been paid or has been collected by the landlord, or has been otherwise satisfied, and the rent shall, as nearly as may be, be the same as that which the tenant whose goods were sold was to pay, having regard to the quantity of land and to the time which the purchaser shall occupy it. 50 V. c. 23, s. 7.

COSTS.

Costs in respect of seizure of exempted goods.

34. No costs shall be levied for or in respect of the seizure upon exempted goods when they may not be lawfully sold, and when sold no greater sum in all than $2, and actual and necessary payments for possession money, shall be levied or retained for or in respect of costs and expenses of sale of such exempted goods. 50 V. c. 23, s. 8.

35. When the sum to be levied by distress for rent or for Scale of fees. any penalty exceeds the sum of $80 no further charges shall be made for or in respect of costs or expenses by any person making the distress or employed in doing any act in the course of such distress than such as are set forth in Schedule A of the Rev. Stat. c. 63. Act entitled An Act respecting the Costs of Distress, than the following, that is to say :

- (a) The actual expenses or outlay reasonably incurred in removing the goods distrained or part thereof when such removal is necessary :
- (b) Advertisement when necessarily published in a newspaper, $2.50 ; but not exceeding $5.00.
- (c) If any printed advertisement otherwise than in a newspaper, $1.00 ; but not to exceed $3.00.
- (d) The sum of $1.00 per day for man keeping possession, in lieu of 75 cents per day.
- (e) Where the amount due shall be satisfied in whole or in part, after seizure and before sale, the bailiff or person seizing shall be entitled to charge and receive but three per cent on the amount realized, in lieu of five per cent, and no more. 50 V. c. 23, s. 9.

36. Any person who offends against the preceding two sections of this Act shall be liable to the penalties provided by section 2 of The Act respecting the Costs of Distress, and such proceedings may be had and taken for the punishment of the offender and the imposition and collection of such penalties as are provided by section 2 and subsequent sections of said last-mentioned Act. Section 34 to 42 inclusive of this Act shall be read with and as part of the said Act. 50 V. c. 23, s. 10. Penalties. Rev. Stat. c. 63.

37. The person whose goods are distrained or the person authorizing the distress, or any other person interested, may, upon giving two days' notice in writing, have the costs of the bailiff or other person making the distress and the disbursements charged taxed by the clerk of the Division Court within whose division the distress has been made. 50 V. c. 23, s. 11. Taxation of costs.

38. The bailiff or person so making the said distress shall furnish the clerk with a copy of his costs, charges and disbursements for taxation at the time mentioned in the notice, or at such other time as the clerk may direct, and in default of his so doing he shall not be entitled to any costs, charges or disbursements whatever. 50 V. c. 23, s. 12. Persons making distress to give bill of costs to clerk for taxation.

39. The clerk upon such taxation shall, amongst other things, consider the reasonableness of any charges for removal, keeping possession, and for advertising, or any sums alleged to Duty of clerk on taxation.

have been paid therefor, and may examine either party on oath, touching the same. The person requiring the taxation shall pay the clerk a fee of twenty-five cents therefor. 50 V. c. 23, s. 13.

Revision of taxation.

40. Where that portion of the bill or charges in dispute amounts to the sum of $10, either party may, on giving two days' notice, have the taxation revised by the clerk of the County Court. He shall be paid a fee of fifty cents for such revision by the person appealing, and it may, in the discretion of the clerk, be deducted from or added to the bill as finally taxed by him. 50 V. c. 23, s. 14.

Taxation not conclusive on proceedings
under Rev.
Stat. c. 63, s. 2.

41. In any proceedings taken under section 2 of The Act respecting the Costs of Distress, the taxation shall not be received as conclusive evidence. 50 V. c. 23, s. 15.

APPLICATION OF CERTAIN SECTIONS.

Application of ss. 27-30 and 34.

42. Sections 27, 28, 29, 30 and 34, shall apply only to tenancies created on or after the first day of October, 1897. 50 V. c. 23, s. 16.

COPY OF CHARGES TO BE GIVEN ON MAKING DISTRESS.

Persons levying distress to give copy of charges to party dis-trained.

43. Every person who makes and levies any distress shall give a copy of demand, and of all the costs and charges of the distress, signed by him, to the person on whose goods and chattels the distress is levied. R. S. O. 1877, c. 136, s. 16. See also Cap. 63, s. 11.

PROTECTION OF GOODS OF LODGERS FROM DISTRESS.

Declaration
by boarder or lodger that immediate tenant has no property in goods dis-trained.

44. If a superior landlord shall levy or authorize to be levied a distress on any furniture, goods or chattels of any boarder or lodger for arrears of rent due to the superior landlord by his immediate tenant, the boarder or lodger may serve the superior landlord, or the bailiff or other person employed by him to levy the distress, with a declaration in writing, made by the boarder or lodger, setting forth that the immediate tenant has no right of property or beneficial interest in the furniture, goods or chattels so distrained or threatened to be distrained upon, and that such furniture, goods or chattels are the property or in the lawful possession of such boarder or lodger; and also setting forth whether any and what amount by way of rent, board or otherwise is due from the boarder or lodger to the said immediate tenant; and the boarder or lodger may pay to the superior landlord, or to the bailiff or other person employed by him as aforesaid, the amount, if any, so due as last aforesaid, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to discharge the claim of the superior landlord: and to such declaration shall be annexed a correct inventory, subscribed by the boarder or lodger, of the furniture, goods and chattels referred to in the declaration. 43 V. c. 16, s. 1.

45. If a superior landlord, or a bailiff or other person employed by him, after being served with the before mentioned declaration and inventory, and after the boarder or lodger shall have paid or tendered to the superior landlord, bailiff or other person, the amount, if any, which, by the last preceding section, the boarder or lodger is authorized to pay, shall levy or proceed with a distress on the furniture, goods or chattels of the boarder or lodger, the superior landlord, bailiff or other person shall be deemed guilty of an illegal distress, and the boarder or lodger may replevy such furniture, goods or chattels in any court of competent jurisdiction and the superior landlord shall also be liable to an action at the suit of the boarder or lodger, in which action the truth of the declaration and inventory may likewise be inquired into. 43 V. c. 16, s. 2. Penalty.

46. Any payment made by a boarder or lodger pursuant to section 44 of this Act shall be deemed a valid payment on account of the amount due from him to the immediate tenant mentioned in the said section. 43 V. c. 16, s. 3. Payments by boarder or lodger to superior landlord.

47. The declaration hereinbefore referred to shall be made under and in accordance with The Act respecting Extra-judicial Oaths. 43 V. c. 16, s. 4. Declaration how made. R. S. C. c. 141.

An Act respecting Overholding Tenants.

INTERPRETATION, s. 1.	COSTS, s. 7.
APPLICATION AGAINST OVERHOLDING	WITNESSES, s. 8.
TENANT, s. 2.	OTHER REMEDIES SAVED, s. 9.
PROCEEDINGS BEFORE COUNTY JUDGE,	ENTITLING AND SERVICE OF PAPERS,
ss. 3-5.	ss. 10, 11.
REMOVAL TO HIGH COURT, s. 6.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the of the Province of Ontario enacts as follows :—

Interpretation 1. In the construction of this Act—

“Tenant.” 1 “Tenant” shall mean and include an occupant, a sub-tenant, under-tenant, and his and their assigns and legal representatives ;

Landlord.” 2 “Landlord” shall mean and include the lessor, owner, the person giving or permitting the occupation of the premises, in question and the person entitled to the possession thereof, and his and their heirs and assigns and legal representatives.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 1.

Application to be made to the County Judge against overholding tenant upon affidavit. 2. In case a tenant, after his lease or right of occupation whether created by writing or by verbal agreement, has expired, or been determined, either by the landlord or the tenant, by a notice to quit or notice pursuant to a proviso in any lease or agreement in that behalf, or has been determined by any other act whereby a tenancy or right of occupancy may be determined or put an end to, wrongfully refuses, upon demand made in writing, to go out of possession of the land demised to him, or which he has been permitted to occupy, his landlord, or the agent of his landlord, may apply to the County Judge of the county, or union of counties, in which the land lies, and wherever such Judge then is, setting forth, on affidavit, the terms of the demise or right of occupation, if verbal, and annexing a copy of the instrument creating or containing such demise or right of occupation, if in writing, (or if a copy cannot be so annexed by reason of the said writing being mislaid, lost or destroyed, or being in the possession of the tenant, or from any other cause, then annexing a statement setting forth the terms of the demise or occupation, and the reason why a copy of the said writing cannot be annexed,) and also annexing a copy of the demand made for the delivering up of possession, and stating also the refusal of the tenant to go out of possession, and the reasons given for his refusal if any were given, adding such explanation in regard to the ground of the refusal as the truth of the case may require; and this section shall extend and be construed to apply to tenancies from week to week, from month to month, from year to year, and tenancies at will, as well as to all other terms, tenancies, holdings or occupations. R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 2.

3. If, upon such affidavit, it appears to the Judge that the tenant wrongfully holds, without colour of right, and that the landlord is entitled to possession, such Judge shall appoint a time and place at which he will inquire and determine whether the person complained of was tenant to the complainant for a term or period which has expired, or has been determined by a notice to quit or otherwise, and whether the tenant, without any colour of right, holds the possession against the right of the landlord, and whether the tenant does wrongfully refuse to go out of possession, having no right to continue in possession, or how otherwise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 3.

4. Notice in writing of the time and place so appointed for holding such inquiry, shall be served by the landlord, upon the tenant or left at his place of abode, at least three days before the day so appointed, if the place so appointed is not more than twenty miles from the tenant's place of abode, and one day in addition for every twenty miles above the first twenty, reckoning any broken number above the first twenty as twenty miles, to which notice shall be annexed a copy of the affidavit on which the appointment was obtained, and of the papers attached thereto. R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 4.

5. If at the time and place appointed, as aforesaid, the tenant, having been duly notified, as above provided, fails to appear, the Judge, if it appears to him that the tenant holds without colour of right, may order a writ to issue to the sheriff, in the Queen's name, commanding him forthwith to place the landlord in possession of the premises in question; but if the tenant appears at such time and place, the Judge shall, in a summary manner, hear the parties, and examine into the matter, and shall administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses adduced by either party, and shall examine them; and if after such hearing and examination it appears to the Judge that the case is clearly one coming under the true intent and meaning of section 2 of this Act, and that the tenant holds without colour of right against the right of the landlord, then he shall order the issue of such writ, as aforesaid, otherwise he shall dismiss the case; and the proceedings in any such case, shall form part of the Judge may appoint time and place for inquiry.

Notice thereof to be served on the tenant.

Proceedings in default of appearance.

In case of appearance.

Proceedings to form part of the records of the Court. records of the County Court; and the said writ may be in the words or to the effect of Form 1 or Form 2, in the Schedule to this Act, according as the tenant is ordered to pay costs or otherwise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 5.

Removal on certiorari.

6. Where such writ has been issued, the High Court may on motion, within three months after the issue of the writ, command the County Judge to send up the proceedings and evidence in the case to the Court, certified under his hand, and may examine into the proceedings, and, if they find cause, may set aside the same, and may if necessary, order a writ to issue to the sheriff, commanding him to restore the tenant to his possession, in order that the question of right, if any appears, may be tried, as in ordinary actions for the recovery of land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 6.

Writ of restitution.

Judges of High Court may make rules as to costs.

7. The Judges of the High Court may from time to time, make such rules respecting costs, in cases under this Act, as to them seem just; and the County Judge before whom any such case is brought may, in his discretion, award costs therein, according to any such rule then in force, and if no such rule is in force, reasonable costs, in his discretion, to the party entitled thereto; and in case the party complaining is ordered to pay costs, execution may issue therefor, out of the County Court as in other cases in the County Court, where an order is made for the payment of costs. R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 7.

Execution.

Summoning witnesses.

8. The County Judge may cause any person to be summoned as a witness to attend before him in any such case, in like manner as witnesses are summoned in other cases in the County Court, and under like penalties for non-attendance, or refusing to answer in such case. R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 8.

Other remedies of landlords.

Rev. Stat. c. 143, ss. 23-25.

9. Nothing herein contained shall in any way affect the powers of any Judge or Judges of the High Court under sections 23, 24 and 25, of The Act respecting the Law of Landlord and Tenant, or shall prejudice or affect any other right or right of action or remedy which landlords may possess in any of the cases herein provided for. R. S. O. c. 137, s. 9.

Proceedings, how entitled.

10. The proceedings under this Act shall be entitled in the County Court of the county or union of counties in which the premises in question are situate, and shall be styled:

"In the matter of (giving the name of the party complaining), Landlord, against (giving the name of the party complained against) Tenant."

R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 10.

Service of papers.

11. Service of all papers and proceedings under this Act shall be deemed to have been properly effected if made as required by law, in respect of writs and other proceedings in actions for the recovery of land. R. S. O. 1877, c. 137, s. 11.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

LAW SOCIETY CONTINUED.

1. The Law Society of Upper Canada shall continue as at present constituted, subject to the provisions of this Act, and to the by-laws, resolutions, rules and regulations of the said Society in force at the time this Act takes effect, except so far as the same are inconsistent with this Act, until altered by the Benchers of said Society pursuant to this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 1. Law Society continued.

2. The Treasurer and Benchers of the said Society, heretofore incorporated, and their successors, shall continue to be a body corporate and politic, by the name of the Law Society of Upper Canada, and without license of mortmain may purchase, take, possess, and after acquiring the same, sell, lease or depart with any lands, tenements or hereditaments for the purposes of the said Society, but for no other purpose, and may execute all other matters pertaining to them to do. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 2. Corporation continued.

VISITORS.

3. The Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature shall be Visitors of the Society. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 3. Visitors.

BENCHERS.

Ex-officio
Benchers.

4. The Attorney-General of Canada for the time being and every person who has held that office, if a member of the Bar of Ontario, and the Attorney-General for the time being of Ontario, and all members of the Bar of Ontario, who have at any time held the office of Attorney-General of Ontario, or of Attorney-General or Solicitor-General for that part of the late Province of Canada, formerly called Upper Canada, and any retired Judge of the Supreme Court shall respectively, ex-officio, be Benchers of the Society. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 4.

Elective
Benchers.

5. The Benchers of the Law Society, exclusive of ex-officio members, shall be thirty in number, to be elected as herein-after provided. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 5.

Appointment
of scrutineers

6.—(1) The Benchers shall, during the Term next preceding an election, appoint (with their assent) two persons, who, with the Treasurer, shall act as scrutineers at the election; and the said Benchers shall also, during the said preceding Term, appoint a third person, who shall act for and as the Treasurer, in case he should be absent during the meeting of the scrutineers to count the votes. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 6.

(2) The first two mentioned scrutineers, shall be members of the Law Society, but shall not be eligible for election to the office of Bencher, and their names shall be printed on the voting paper to be sent by the Secretary of the Society to each voter. 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

Election, when to be held.

7. An election shall be held on the first Thursday after the first Wednesday in April, 1891, and the subsequent elections shall be held on the first Thursday after the first Wednesday in April of every fifth year thereafter; but in case the scrutineers are unable to complete the scrutiny upon such day, the same shall be continued from day to day until the election is declared. In case any scrutineer is absent during the scrutiny the others may nevertheless proceed therewith. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 7.

Who may vote.

8. Each member of the Bar, not hereinafter declared ineligible as an elector, may vote for thirty persons. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 8.

Votes to be given by voting papers.

9. The votes shall be given by closed voting papers, in the form in the Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect, being delivered to the Secretary of the Law Society on the first Wednesday of April of the year proper for the election, or during the Monday and Tuesday immediately preceding. Any voting papers received by the said Secretary by post during said days, or during the preceding week, shall be deemed delivered to him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 9.

10. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to send to each member of the Bar whose name is on the alphabetical list or register mentioned in section 17, where his residence is known to the Secretary, one copy of the said form of voting paper applicable to the election then next to be held. Such form shall be sent in such manner and at such time before the holding of the election as may be directed by rule of the Benchers in convocation. 50 V. c. 8, Sched. Form of voting paper to be sent to voters.

11. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to send with the said form of voting paper, a list of those persons then already Benchers of the Law Society ex officio, and of those whose term of office is about to expire. 50 V. c. 8, Sched. List of Benchers to be sent with voting paper.

12. The said voting papers shall, upon the Thursday following, be opened by the Secretary of the Law Society in the presence of the scrutineers, who shall scrutinize and count the votes, and keep a record thereof in a proper book to be provided by the said Society. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 10. Scrutiny.

13. The thirty persons who have the highest number of votes shall be Benchers of the said Law Society for the next term of five years. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 11. Persons receiving the most votes to be elected.

14. Any person entitled to vote at such election shall be entitled to be present at the opening of the said voting papers. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 12. Who may be present at opening of voting papers.

15. In case of an equality of votes between two or more persons, which leaves the election of one or more Benchers undecided, then the said scrutineers shall forthwith put into a ballot-box a number of papers, with the names of the candidates having such equality of votes written thereon, one for each candidate, and the Secretary of the Society shall draw by chance from the ballot-box, in the presence of the scrutineers, one or more of such papers sufficient to make up the required number, and the persons whose names are upon the papers so drawn shall be the Benchers. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 13. Equality of votes.

16. No person shall be entitled to vote at an election unless all his bar fees to the Law Society have been paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 14. Voters to pay their bar fees.

17.—(1) The Secretary of the Law Society shall, on the first day of the Term previous to the time for any election, make out List of voters.

an alphabetical list or register of the members of the Bar who are entitled to vote at the succeeding election, and such register may be examined by any member of the said Society at all reasonable times, at the office of the said Secretary.

Complaints of errors in the list to be made to the Secretary, with an appeal to the scrutineers.

(2) In case any member of the Society complains to the Secretary, in writing, of the improper omission or insertion of any name in the list, it shall be the duty of the Secretary forthwith to examine into the complaint and rectify the error if any there be; and in case any person is dissatisfied with the decision of the Secretary, he may appeal to the persons who have been appointed to act as scrutineers for the next election thereafter, and the decision of the scrutineers shall be final, and such list shall remain or be altered in accordance with their decision.

Persons called to the bar in Term previous to be added to list.

(3) The Secretary shall add to the list the names of all persons who have been called to the Bar during the Term previous to the election; and no alteration shall be made to the list except as is provided in this section; and the list, as it stands revised upon the last Monday of the said last-mentioned Term, shall be the register of persons entitled to vote at the next election.

(4) No person whose name is not inserted in the said list shall be entitled to vote at the election. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 15.

Qualifications of Benchers.

18. No person shall be eligible as a Bencher at any election, who is not qualified to vote at the election. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 16.

Retiring benchers eligible.

19. At all elections retiring Benchers shall be eligible for re-election. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 17.

Void votes.

20. Any votes cast for any person who is ineligible to be a Bencher, or who is a Bencher ex officio shall be null and void; and the election shall be declared as if such votes had not been cast. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 18.

Voting for more than thirty members.

21. In the event of an elector placing more than thirty names on his voting paper, the first thirty only shall be counted, notwithstanding any of the thirty persons so named may be ineligible for election from any cause whatever. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 19.

Declaration of election.

22. Upon the completion of the scrutiny the Secretary shall forthwith declare the result of the election and report the same to the Society, and shall cause the names to be published in the next two issues of the Ontario Gazette. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 20.

23. The Benchers of the Society may make such regulations as they consider expedient, not contrary to the provisions of this Act, for regulating the procedure under the preceding sections of this Act, and for the remuneration of the scrutineers. Regulations for elections and remuneration to scrutineers.
R. S. O. 1877, 138, s. 21.

24. The voting papers belonging to any election shall not be destroyed until after all petitions in respect to such election have been decided, but the same shall together with all other papers in connection with the said election be retained by the Secretary. Voting papers to be kept.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 22.

25. No person shall sign the name of any other person to a voting paper, under this Act, or alter, or add to or falsify, or fill up any blank in a voting paper signed by another person, or deliver or cause to be delivered, or send or cause to be sent, by post or otherwise, to the Secretary, a false voting paper, or a voting paper which has been added to, or falsified or in which a blank has been filled up after the same was signed. False voting.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 23.

26. In the event of there being no Secretary for the time being of the Law Society at the time at which any election under this Act is to be held, or in the event of the Secretary being unable from illness or other unavoidable cause to act at the elections, then and in such case the Treasurer for the time being of the Law Society shall appoint under his hand some other person to act as Secretary, and the person so appointed shall perform all the duties of the Secretary, as prescribed by this Act. Absence of Secretary.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 24.

27. The persons so elected Benchers as aforesaid shall take office on the first day of Easter Term following their election, and shall hold office until the beginning of the fifth Easter Term after they have entered on their said office, or till the election of their successors. Term of office of Benchers.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 25.

28. The seat of a Bencher, who has failed to attend the meetings of the Benchers for three consecutive Terms, shall at the expiration of the said period become vacant. Vacation of seat for non-attendance.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 26.

29. The majority of the Benchers present at any meeting in the first Easter Term after their election, may appoint a committee of their number to enter upon any inquiry with respect to the due election of any of the said Benchers whose election or elections may be petitioned against by any member of the Bar who voted at the election of such Bencher or Benchers, and, after such inquiry, to report such Bencher or Benchers as duly or not duly elected or qualified according to the Committee on election petitions.

fact, and, if necessary, to report the name or names of the next in order of votes of the duly qualified members of the Bar, in lieu of the person or persons petitioned against and reported not duly elected or qualified; and on the confirmation of the report by the majority of Benchers (other than those petitioned against) present at any meeting for that purpose, the person or persons so reported, in lieu of those petitioned against as aforesaid shall be taken and deemed to be the duly elected and qualified Bencher or Benchers. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 27.

Time for filing election petitions.

30. No petition against the return of a Bencher shall be entertained unless the petition is filed with the Secretary of the Law Society at least ten days before the first day of Easter Term next succeeding the election, and shall contain a statement of the grounds on which the election is disputed, and unless a copy of the petition is served upon the Bencher whose election is disputed at least ten days before the first day of the said Easter Term; and no grounds not mentioned in the petition shall be gone into on the hearing of the petition. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 28.

Contents of petitions.

Hearing of petitions.

31. On such notice being duly filed as aforesaid, the Benchers shall during the first week of the Easter Term succeeding the election, appoint a day for the hearing of the petition, and give notice of such day to the petitioner and to the person whose return is disputed; but all such petitions shall be finally disposed of during the said Easter Term. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 29.

Petitioners to deposit $100 with Secretary for costs.

32. Any person petitioning against the return of a Bencher shall deposit with the Secretary of the Law Society the sum of $100 to meet any costs which such Bencher may be put to in the opinion of the committee before which the petition is heard; and the committee shall have power in the event of such petition being dismissed, to award such sum to be paid to the Bencher petitioned against as in their opinion is just; and shall have power in their discretion in the event of such Bencher being decided to be not duly elected or qualified, to award costs to the petitioner; and the costs so awarded shall be recoverable in any Court of competent jurisdiction. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 31.

Power of committee as to costs.

Election of Treasurer.

Duration of his office.

33. The Benchers shall, on the first meeting after their election, proceed to elect one of their body as Treasurer, who shall be the President of the Society; and such Treasurer shall hold office until the appointment of his successor; and the election of Treasurer shall take place on the first Saturday of Easter Term in every year; provided that the retiring Treasurer shall be eligible for re-election. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 32.

34. In case of the failure in any instance to elect the requisite number of duly qualified Benchers, according to the provisions of this Act, or in case of any vacancy caused by the death or resignation of any Bencher, or by any other cause, then it shall be the duty of the remaining Benchers, with all convenient speed, at a meeting to be specially called for the purpose, and to be held during the next Term thereafter, to supply the deficiency in the number of Benchers failed to be elected as aforesaid, or caused by any of the means aforesaid, by appointing to such vacant place or places, as the same may occur, any person or persons duly qualified under the provisions of this Act to be elected as a Bencher or Benchers; and the person or persons so elected shall hold office for the residue of the period for which the other Benchers have been elected. person duly qualified to be so admitted, according to the provisions of law and the rules of the Society. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 37.

Admission of students and barristers.

40. The Benchers may from time to time make all necessary rules, regulations and by-laws and dispense therewith from time to time to meet the special circumstances of any special case respecting the admission of students-at-law, the periods and conditions of study, the call or admission of Barristers to practise the law, and all other matters relating to the discipline and honour of the Bar. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 38.

The Law Society to make rules for the examination of candidates for admission as Solicitor.

41. The Benchers with the approbation of the Visitors shall from time to time make such rules as they consider necessary for conducting the examination of persons applying to be admitted as Solicitors, as well touching the articles and service, and the several certificates required by law to be produced by them before their admission, as to the fitness and capacity of such persons to act as Solicitors; and the Society may from time to time nominate and appoint Examiners for conducting such examinations. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 39. See also Cap. 147, s. 9.

When Law Society may suspend decision.

42. In any of the foregoing cases where it appears to the Benchers expedient for purposes of further inquiry or investigation, they may suspend, for a period not exceeding twelve months, their final decision in respect to the granting or refusal of the certificate. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 40.

Articled clerks and admission of solicitors.

43. The Benchers from time to time may also make all necessary rules, regulations and by-laws and dispense therewith from time to time, to meet the special circumstances of any special case respecting the service of articled clerks, the period and conditions of such service, and the admission of Solicitors to practise in the Courts, and all other matters relating to the discipline and practice of such Solicitors and articled clerks. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 41.

Powers of Benchers to disbar or expel in case of misconduct.

44. Whenever a person, being a Barrister or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Ontario, or a Student-at-Law, or Solicitor's Clerk serving under articles, has been or may hereafter, be found by the Benchers of the Law Society, after due inquiry by a committee of their number or otherwise, guilty of professional misconduct, or of conduct unbecoming a Barrister, Solicitor, Student-at-Law, or articled Clerk, it shall be lawful for the said Benchers in Convocation to disbar any such Barrister, and to resolve that any such Solicitor is unworthy to practise as such Solicitor; to expel from the society, and the membership thereof, such Student or articled Clerk, and to strike his name from the books of the Society; and to refuse either absolutely or for a limited period to admit such articled Clerk to the usual examinations, or to grant him the certificate of fitness necessary to enable him to be admitted to practice. 44 V. c. 17, s. 1.

45. Upon a Barrister being disbarred as aforesaid, all his rights and privileges as a Barrister-at-Law shall thenceforth cease and determine, and notice of his being disbarred shall forthwith be given by the Secretary of the Law Society to the High Court. 44 V. c. 17, s. 2.

Barrister's privileges to cease when he is disbarred.

46. Upon its being resolved by Convocation that a Solicitor is unworthy to practise, a copy of the resolution shall forthwith be communicated to the High Court, and thereupon, without any formal motion, an order of the said Court may be drawn up, striking such Solicitor off the rolls: Provided that such Solicitor may at any time afterwards apply to the said Court to be restored to practice, as heretofore. 44 V. c. 17, s. 3.

47. Any powers which the Visitors of the Law Society may have in the said matters of discipline, are hereby vested in the Benchers of the Law Society, and the powers by the preceding three sections of this Act given to the said Benchers may be exercised by them without reference to, or concurrence in, by the Visitors. 44 V. c. 17, s. 4.

Powers of visitors as to discipline vested in the Benchers.

LAW BENEVOLENT FUND.

48. The Benchers may by by-law establish a fund for the benefit of the widows and orphans of Barristers, and Solicitors, and of persons who have been such, to be called "The Law Benevolent fund," and may make all necessary rules and regulations for the management and investment of the said fund, and the terms of subscription and appropriation thereof, and the conditions under which the widows and orphans of such persons shall be entitled to share in the said fund. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 43.

Widow's and orphan's fund.

REPORTERS.

49.—(1) The Benchers may from time to time appoint such persons, being members of the Law Society, of the degree of Barrister-at-Law, as they may think proper, to be editors and reporters of the decisions of the Court of Appeal and the High Court.

Reporters to be appointed by the Benchers.

(2) Such persons shall hold office at the pleasure of the said Benchers, and shall be amenable to them in Convocation for the correct and faithful discharge of their respective duties, according to such regulations as the said Benchers may from time to time make in respect thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 44.

Benchers to make regulations regarding the reports.

50. The Benchers shall make regulations for printing and publishing the reports of the said decisions, and the distribution of the reports, and the price and mode of issuing thereof, and all such other regulations in respect thereto, as they may at any time consider necessary; and any profits arising from the reports shall form part of the general funds of the Law Society. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 45.

Salaries of reporters.

51. The Benchers shall from time to time determine the salaries to be allowed to the editors and reporters, and shall pay the same out of the general funds of the Society. R. S. O. 1877, c. 138, s. 46.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

Appropriation of certain fees.

52. The fees payable by Barristers, as term fees, and on call to the Bar, and by Solicitors on admission as Solicitors, and for the annual certificate to practise, and by Students and articled Clerks on admission as such, and on examinations and attendance on lectures and readings, shall be paid into the general funds of the Law Society, and shall be such as the Law Society by rule from time to time prescribes. Articled clerks. Rev. Stat. c. 145.

1. Whenever any person has been bound by contract, in writing, to serve as a clerk to a Solicitor, such contract with the affidavit of execution thereof annexed thereto, shall within three months next after the execution of the contract be filed with the Registrar of the Common Pleas Division of the High Court, who shall endorse and sign upon the contract and affidavit a memorandum of the day of filing thereof, and every assignment of such contract, together with an affidavit of the execution thereof annexed thereto, shall be filed in like manner within the like period of three months next after the execution thereof. Every such affidavit shall state the date of the execution of the articles or assignment, as the case may be, by the parties thereto respectively.

Provision in case affidavit not filed in three months.

2. In case the contract or assignment (as the case may be) with the affidavit of execution annexed thereto, is not filed within three months after the date of the contract or assignment, the same may nevertheless be filed with either of the officers before mentioned, but the service of the clerk shall be reckoned only from the date of the filing, unless the Law Society in its discretion for special reasons in any particular case otherwise orders.

Practising solicitors may have four articulated clerks, and no more.

3. Every person authorized to practise as a Solicitor may have under contract in writing four clerks at one time, and no more; and no Solicitor shall have any clerk bound as aforesaid, after the Solicitor has discontinued practising as, or carrying on the business of, a Solicitor, nor whilst the Solicitor is employed as a writer or clerk by any other Solicitor; and the service by an articulated clerk to a Solicitor under any such circumstances, shall not be deemed good service under the articles.

Court may order articles to be discharged or assigned in certain cases.

4. In case any Solicitor, before the determination of the contract of a clerk bound to him as aforesaid, has become bankrupt, or taken the benefit of any Act for the relief of insolvent debtors, or having been imprisoned for debt has remained in prison for the space of twenty-one days, the High Court may, upon the application of the clerk, order the contract to be discharged or assigned to such person, upon such terms, and in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

Case of death of the solicitor to whom clerk articulated provided for.

5. If a Solicitor, to whom a clerk has been so bound, dies before the expiration of the term for which the clerk became bound, or if he discontinues practice as a Solicitor, or if the contract is by the consent of the parties cancelled, or in case the clerk is legally discharged before the expiration of the term by any rule or order of the Court, the clerk may be bound by another contract in writing, to serve as clerk to any other practising Solicitor during the residue of his said term: and in case an affidavit is duly made and filed of the execution of such last mentioned contract within the time and in the manner hereinbefore directed, and subject to the like regulations with respect to the original contract and the affidavit of its execution, due service under such second or subsequent contract shall be deemed sufficient. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 4.

- (b) He has after the expiration of such term of service been examined and sworn in the manner hereinafter directed; nor unless
- (c.) He has, at least fourteen days next before the first day of the Term in which he seeks admission, left with the Secretary of the Law Society his contract of service, and any assignment thereof and affidavits of the execution of the same respectively, and his own affidavit of due service thereunder, and a certificate of the Solicitor to whom he was bound, or his agent as aforesaid, of such due service, and (in the case of a person who has been called to the Bar or taken a degree as hereinbefore mentioned), a certificate of his having been so called to the Bar or taken such degree or a duly authenticated certified copy of such certificate.

(2) The affidavits shall be in the form approved of by the Visitors of the Law Society, and shall by the applicant be delivered to the Law Society upon his application to be examined. Form of affidavit to be delivered to the Society.

(3) In case the contract of service, assignment (if any) affidavits and certificate of due service, or any of them, cannot be produced, then, on application to be made to the Law Society, by a petition verified by affidavit, to be left with the Secretary of the Society, at least fourteen days next before the first day of the Term on which the applicant seeks admission, the Society on being satisfied of such fact may, in its discretion, dispense with the production of such contract, assignment affidavits and certificate of due service, or any of them, and may, notwithstanding such non-production, grant the certificates provided for in section 10 of this Act. Provision in case the contract, etc., cannot be produced.

(4) The Benchers of the Law Society may allow any clerk under articles to a practising Solicitor, as part of his term of service, all and every period of time that such clerk may have been employed in the Militia Service when the Militia are called out for actual service. Time of clerk on militia service may be allowed.

Oath to be taken by candidates for admission.

(5) No candidate shall be admitted unless he makes and subscribes the oath or affirmation following :

“I, A. B., do swear (or solemnly affirm as the case may be) that I will truly and honestly demean myself in the practice of a Solicitor according to the best of my knowledge and ability ; So help me God.”

R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 5.

EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations of articled clerk.

Rev. Stat. c. 145.

7. Subject to any rules, regulations, and by-laws made by the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada, under The Act respecting the Law Society of Upper Canada, the following enactments are made with respect to the examination of articled clerks and candidates for admission as Solicitors :

Preliminary examination for articled clerks.

1. The Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada may by regulation require that articled clerks shall pass a preliminary examination ; and the term of service under articles to entitle each articled clerk to be admitted as a Solicitor shall date only from the passing of such examination.

Persons mentioned in sub-sections 1 and 2 of sec. 2 of this Act to pass two examinations.

2. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, no persons being of either of the classes of persons mentioned in sub-sections 1 and 2 of section 2 of this Act shall be admitted or enrolled as a Solicitor, unless he has at some time during the year next but two before the time of his final examination, and at some time not less than one year thereafter and during the year next but one before the time of his final examination, passed examinations to the satisfaction of the said Benchers.

Provision in case of illness or inability from unavoidable causes.

3. In case any person is prevented by illness or other unavoidable cause, from presenting himself for, or fails to pass either of the examinations by this section required, within the time specified, the Benchers may, in their discretion, permit such person to pass such examination at other times ; but not less than nine months shall elapse between the first and the second of such examinations, and not less than nine months shall elapse between the second of such examinations and the final examination. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 6.

Provisions respecting candidates of the classes in sub-sections 3, 4, and 5 of section 2 supra.

8. Subject to the rules and regulations of the Law Society of Upper Canada, as aforesaid, no candidate for admission being of the class of persons respectively mentioned in sub-sections 3, 4 and 5 of section 2 of this Act, shall be admitted unless,

1. He publishes in the Ontario Gazette, at least two months previously, notice of his intention to apply for admission.

2. Nor (except in the case of a person called to the Bar of Ontario), unless such candidate, at least fourteen days before the first day of such Term, leaves with the Secretary of the Law Society :

(a) In the case of a Barrister not being a Barrister of Ontario—a certificate under the seal of the Society, or Inn of Court in England, Scotland or Ireland, of which he is a member, duly attested under the proper hand of the proper officer thereof, that he has been duly called to the Bar, and was at the date of such certificate on the books of such Society or Inn of Court; and also an affidavit of the applicant to the satisfaction of the Benchers of the Law Society, that since his admission to the Bar, no application to any Society or Inn of Court has been made against such person to disbar him or otherwise to disqualify him from further practice for misconduct in such his capacity of Barrister;

(b) And in the case of an Attorney or Solicitor,—a certificate under the seal of the proper Court or Courts, duly attested under the hand of the proper officer thereof, that he was duly admitted and enrolled as such Attorney or Solicitor, and was at the date of such certificate on the Roll of Attorneys or Solicitors of such Court or Courts; and also, an affidavit of the applicant, that since his admission as aforesaid no application to any such Court or Courts (as the case may be) has been made against such person to strike him off the Roll of any such Court, or otherwise to disqualify him in the capacity of Attorney or Solicitor;

(3) The certificates respectively shall bear date within three months of the first day of the Term during which the application is made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 7.

9. The Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada with the approbation of the Visitors shall from time to time make such rules as they consider necessary for conducting the examination of persons applying to be admitted as Solicitors, as well touching the articles and service, and the several certificates required by law to be produced by them before their admission, as touching the fitness and capacity of such persons to act as Solicitors; and the Society may from time to time nominate and appoint examiners for conducting such examinations. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 8. See also Cap. 145, s. 41.

10. The Benchers of the Law Society, upon proof to their satisfaction of the requisites of this Act having been complied with, shall examine and enquire by such ways and means as they think proper, touching the fitness and capacity of any applicant for admission to act as a Solicitor; and if satisfied by such examination, or by the certificate of the examiners mentioned in section 9 of this Act, that such person is duly qualified, fit, and competent to act as a Solicitor, the Society shall give a certificate under the corporate seal of the said admitted to be delivered to Secretary annually.

The Law Society to make rules for the examination of candidates.

13. The Registrar of one of the Divisions of the High Court, shall annually, during the Vacation after Trinity Term, deliver to the Secretary or at his office in Osgoode Hall, certified under his hand and the seal of the said High Court a copy of so much of the Roll as contains the names of solicitors admitted to practice subsequently to the last return made to the said Secretary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 13.

Secretary to enter certified copies of Roll in a book.

14. The Secretary shall enter all such certified copies in a book to be kept in his office for that purpose, affixing to each name a number following in consecutive order the numbers affixed to the names previously entered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 14.

15. The Secretary shall, in another book to be kept in his office for that purpose, enter all the names contained in the copies so transmitted to him, alphabetically arranged, with a reference to the number of each name on the Roll; and shall, annually on or before the first day of February, put up in his office and also in the office of each of the Registrars of the High Court an alphabetical list certified by him, under his hand, of all Solicitors who have taken out their certificates for the current year, and shall from time to time add to the list put up in his own office the name of each Solicitor who takes out a certificate at a subsequent period of the year, noting thereon the time when the certificate was taken out. R. S. O. 1877 c. 140, s. 15.

Secretary to enter on the Roll and annually post in the office of each Registrar an alphabetical list of Solicitors.

16.—(1) Every practising Solicitor shall obtain from the Secretary of the Law Society, annually, before the last day of Michaelmas Term, a certificate under the seal of the said Society stating that he is a practising Solicitor in the High Court.

Annual certificate to be obtained by Solicitors.

(2) Such certificates shall be issued by the secretary of the Law Society, under the seal of the Society, according to the list of names appearing in the copy of the roll of Solicitors certified to the said Secretary under section 13 of this Act.

(3) Upon the payment of all fees and dues payable by such Solicitor to the said Society, the Secretary shall write his name on the margin of the certificate, with the date thereof, and the certificate shall be taken as issued only from such date.

(4) The Law Society shall determine what fees shall be payable for certificates. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 16.

17. No certificate shall be issued to any Solicitor, who is indebted to the Society, for any Term or other fee payable to the Society, nor until the annual fee for each certificate prescribed by the rules of the Society is paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 17.

Fees to be paid before certificate granted.

18. No Solicitor, admitted as aforesaid, need take out any such certificate until the Michaelmas Term next following his admission. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 18.

Certificate need not be taken out till Michaelmas Term after admission.

19.—(1) If a Solicitor omits to take out such annual certificate in Michaelmas Term, he shall not be entitled thereto until he pays to the Law Society not only the certificate fee, so appointed as aforesaid, together with any other fees or dues which he owes to the Society, but also an additional sum by way of penalty, as follows:

Fine for neglect to take out certificate.

(2) If such certificate is not taken out before the first day of Hilary Term, the further sum of $6: if not before the Solicitors, etc., practising without certificate to forfeit $40.

20. If a Solicitor, or any member of a firm of Solicitors, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his firm, practises in the High Court, without such certificate being taken out by him, and by each member of his firm, he shall forfeit the sum of $40, which forfeiture shall be paid to the Law Society for the uses thereof, and may be recovered in the High Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 20.

Penalty for practising without a certificate.

21. If a Solicitor practises in the High Court or in a County Court without such certificate in each and any year of his practice he shall be liable to be suspended by order of the High Court from practice for such offence, for a period of not less than three nor more than six months, and to continue so suspended until the fee upon his certificate for the year in which he so practised without certificate, is, together with a penalty of $40, paid to the Law Society. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 21.†

Registrars,
etc., at beginning of year, to make out list of solicitors, who have practised during the preceding year.

22.—(1) Each of the Registrars of the High Court and each Deputy Clerk of the Crown and Pleas, and each Deputy Registrar, when the said offices are not held by the same person, shall, at the commencement of each year, make out a list of the names of every Solicitor who by the papers or proceedings filed or had in their respective offices appears to have practised as such Solicitor at any time during the preceding year ending with the thirty-first day of December.

And deliver the same to the Secretary.

(2) Each of the said officers shall, on or before the first day of Hilary Term in the year next to that for which they are made up, deliver or hand such lists to the Secretary at Osgoode Hall, certified under their respective hands and seals. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, ss. 22, 23.

Solicitors in prison not to practise.

23. In case a Solicitor is a prisoner in any gaol or prison he shall not during his confinement therein, or within the limits thereof, commence, prosecute or defend as such Solicitor any action in any Court, nor act in any matter in bankruptcy or insolvency; and any Solicitor so practising, and any Solicitor permitting or empowering him so to practise in his name, shall be guilty of a contempt of the Court in which any such proceedings take place, and (upon the application of any person complaining thereof) shall be punishable by such Court accordingly; and such Solicitor shall be incapable of maintaining any action for the recovery of any fee, reward or disbursement for or in respect of any matter or thing done by him, whilst a prisoner as aforesaid, in his own name or in the name of any other Solicitor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 24.

24. In case a Solicitor wilfully and knowingly acts as the professional agent of any person not duly qualified to act as a Solicitor, or suffers his name to be used in any such agency on account of or for the profit of an unqualified person, or sends any process to such person, or does any other act to enable such person to practise in any respect as a Solicitor, knowing him not to be duly qualified, and in case complaint is made thereof in a summary way to the High Court, and proof is made upon oath to the satisfaction of the Court, the Solicitor so offending may, in the discretion of the Court, be struck off the Roll and disabled from practising as such Solicitor; and the Court may also commit such unqualified person so having practised as aforesaid to any common gaol or prison for any term not exceeding one year. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 25.

Solicitors not to act as agents of unqualified persons.

25. The High Court may strike the name of any Solicitor off the Roll of Solicitors of the Court, for default by him in payment of moneys received by him as a Solicitor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 26.

Court may strike Solicitors off the Roll.

26. In case any person, unless himself a plaintiff or defendant in the proceeding, commences, prosecutes or defends in his own name, or that of any other person, any action or proceeding without being admitted and enrolled as aforesaid, he shall be incapable of recovering any fee, reward or disbursements on account thereof; and such offence shall be a contempt of the Court in which such proceeding has been commenced, carried on or defended, and punishable accordingly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 27.

Penalty on Solicitors practising without being admitted.

27. No Solicitor shall practise in any Court in Ontario, either in his own name or by his partner, deputy or agent, or in the name of any other person, or otherwise, directly or indirectly, while he holds, possesses, practises, carries on or conducts any of the offices of Registrar of the Court of Appeal, Registrar of any Division of the High Court, Deputy Clerk of the Crown and Pleas, Clerk of a County Court, or Clerk of a Division Court, and every such person so practising, shall be subject to the forfeiture of such office, and shall, in addition thereto, be subject to a penalty of $2,000 to be recovered in an action in the High Court, to the use of Her Majesty; but nothing herein contained shall extend to any Local Master or Deputy Registrar of the High Court, who is not a Deputy Clerk of the Crown and Pleas. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 28.

Practice prohibited while holding certain offices.

No solicitor to practise while engaged as a merchant.

28. No Solicitor shall practise in any of the Courts of Ontario during the time he is engaged in the business of a merchant, or connected by partnership, public or private, in purchasing or vending merchandise in the way of trade as a merchant, nor until twelve months after he has ceased to be such merchant or to be so engaged, or to be connected as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 29.

TIME LIMITED FOR STRIKING A SOLICITOR OFF THE ROLL.

Except in cases of fraud, solicitors not to be struck off Roll for defect in articles, unless application made in 12 months from admission.

29. Except in case of fraud, no person admitted and enrolled shall be struck off the Roll on account of any defect in the articles of clerkship, or in the registry thereof, or in his service thereunder, or in his admission and enrolment, unless application for striking him off the Roll is made within twelve months next after his admission and enrolment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 30.

PROCEEDINGS IF STRUCK OFF THE ROLL.

When solicitor struck off Roll, Registrar to certify same to Secretary of the Society.

30. Where a Solicitor is struck off the Roll of the High Court, the Registrar of the Division of the High Court in which the order is made shall certify the same under his hand and the seal of the Court to the Secretary of the Law Society, stating whether such Solicitor was struck off at his own request or otherwise, and the Secretary shall attach the certificate to the certified copy of the Roll on which the name of such person stands, and shall, in the book to be kept by him as aforesaid, make a note opposite the name of such person of his having been struck off such Roll. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 31.

SOLICITOR'S COSTS.

Solicitors to deliver their bill one month before bringing action for costs.

31. No action shall be brought for the recovery of fees, charges or disbursements, for business done by a Solicitor as such, until one month after a bill thereof, subscribed with the proper hand of such Solicitor, his executor, administrator or assignee (or, in the case of a partnership, by one of the partners, either with his own name, or with the name or style of such partnership), has been delivered to the party to be charged therewith, or sent by the post to, or left for him at his counting-house; office of business, dwelling-house, or last known place of abode, or has been enclosed in or accompanied by a letter subscribed in like manner, referring to such bill. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 32.

Taxation of costs.

32. Upon the application of the party chargeable by such bill within the month the High Court or a Judge thereof, or a Judge of a County Court shall, without money being brought into Court, refer the bill and the demand thereon to be taxed by the proper officer of any of the Courts in the County in which any of the business charged for in the bill was done, and the Court or Judge making such reference shall restrain the bringing any action for such demand pending the reference. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 33.

33. In case no application is made within the month, then the Court or Judge upon the application of either party may order a reference with such directions and conditions as he may deem proper; and may upon such terms as may be thought just restrain any action for such demand pending the reference. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 34.

34. No such reference shall be directed upon application made by the party chargeable with such bill after a verdict has been obtained or a writ of inquiry executed, or after twelve months from the time such bill was delivered, sent or left as aforesaid, except under special circumstances, to be proved to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge to whom the application for the reference is made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 35.

35. In case either party to such reference, having due notice, refuses or neglects to attend the taxation, the officer to whom the reference is made may tax the bill ex parte; and in case the reference is made upon the application of either party and the party chargeable with the bill attends the taxation, the costs of the reference shall be paid according to the event of the taxation, except that if a sixth part is taxed off, the costs shall be paid by the party by whom or on whose behalf such bill was delivered; and if less than a sixth part is taxed off, then by the party chargeable with such bill, if he applied for or attended the taxation. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 36.

36. Every order for such reference shall direct the officer to whom the reference is made, to tax the costs of the reference, and to certify what, upon the reference, he finds to be due to or from either party in respect of such bill and of the costs of the reference, if payable. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 37.

37. Such officer may certify specially any circumstances relating to the bill or taxation, and the Court or Judge may thereupon make such order as may be deemed right respecting the payment of the costs of the taxation. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 38.

38. In case the reference is made when the same is not authorized except under special circumstances, as hereinbefore provided, the Court or Judge, in making the same, may give any special directions relative to the costs of the reference. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 39.

39. Where no bill has been delivered, sent or left as aforesaid, and where the bill if delivered, sent or left, might have been referred as aforesaid, any such Court or Judge may order the delivery of a bill, and may also order the delivery up of Court or Judge may order bill to be referred on application of either party.

No reference to be made on application of party chargeable after verdict or after 12 months from delivery of bill.

If parties refuse to attend officer may tax bill ex parte.

Costs of taxation; how payable.

Order to direct officer to tax costs of reference and to certify what he finds due on taxation.

Officer may make special certificate. Costs on taxation in such case.

Special directions relative to costs of reference may be given.

Where no bill delivered, Court or Judge may order delivery of bill and of papers.

deeds or papers in the possession, custody or power of the Solicitor, his assignee or representatives, in the same manner as has heretofore been done in cases where any such business had been transacted in the Court in which such order was made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 40.

Not necessary in first instance in action on bill to prove contents of bill delivered.

40. In proving a compliance with this Act it shall not be necessary in the first instance to prove the contents of the bill delivered, sent or left, but it shall be sufficient to prove that a bill of fees, charges or disbursements subscribed in the manner aforesaid, or enclosed in or accompanied by such letter as aforesaid, was delivered, sent or left in manner aforesaid; but the other party may shew that the bill so delivered, sent or left, was not such a bill as constituted a bona fide compliance with this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 41.

Judge may allow actions for costs within the month if departure from Ontario apprehended.

41. A Judge of the High Court or a County Judge, on proof to his satisfaction that there is probable cause for believing that the party chargeable is about to quit Ontario, may authorize a Solicitor to commence an action for the recovery of his fees, charges or disbursements against the party chargeable therewith, although one month has not expired since the delivery of a bill as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 42.

Where a party not being the principal pays a bill of costs, a taxation may be allowed afterwards.

42. Where any person not being chargeable as the principal party is liable to pay or has paid any bill either to the Solicitor, his assignee, or representative, or to the principal party entitled thereto, the person so paying, his assignee or representative, may make the like application for a reference thereof to taxation as the party chargeable therewith might himself have made, and in like manner, and the same proceedings shall be had thereupon, as if the application had been made by the party so chargeable. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 43.

When special circumstances may be considered.

43. In case such application is made when, under the provisions hereinbefore contained, a reference is not authorized to be made except under special circumstances, the Court or Judge to whom the application is made, may take into consideration any additional special circumstances applicable to the person making it, although such circumstances might not be applicable to the party chargeable with the bill, if he was the party making the application. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 44.

Court or Judge may order the delivery of a copy of the bill.

44. For the purpose of such reference upon the application of the person not being the party chargeable, or of a party interested as aforesaid, the Court or Judge may order the Solicitor, his assignee or representative, to deliver to the party making the application a copy of the bill upon payment of the costs of the copy. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 45.

45. No bill previously taxed shall be again referred, unless under the special circumstances of the case the Court or Judge to whom the application is made thinks fit to direct a re-taxation thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 46.

When a bill taxed may be re-taxed.

46. The payment of any such bill as aforesaid shall in no case preclude the Court or Judge to whom application is made from referring such bill for taxation, if the application is made within twelve months after payment, and if the special circumstances of the case in the opinion of the Court or Judge appear to require the same, upon such terms and subject to such directions as to the Court or Judge seem right. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 47.

Payment not to preclude taxation if applied for within a year.

47. In all cases in which a bill is referred to be taxed, the officer to whom the reference is made, may request the proper officer of any other Court, to assist him in taxing any part of such bill, and the officer, so requested, shall thereupon tax the same, and shall have the same powers, and may receive the same fees in respect thereof, as upon a reference to him by the Court of which he is an officer, and he shall return the bill, with his opinion thereon, to the officer who so requests him to tax the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 48.

A taxing officer may require the assistance of the officer of any other Court.

48. All applications made to refer any bill to be taxed, or for the delivery of a bill, or for the delivering up of deeds, documents and papers, shall be made In the matter of (such Solicitor); and upon the taxation of any such bill, the certificate of the officer by whom the bill is taxed shall, unless set aside or altered by order of a Judge, or by decree or order of Court, be final and conclusive as to the amount thereof, and payment of the amount certified to be due and directed to be paid may be enforced according to the practice of the Court in which the reference has been made. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 49.

How applications against solicitors to be entitled.

JUDGES MAY MAKE RULES.

49. The Judges of the Supreme Court may, from time to time in accordance with the provisions of The Jurisdiction Act, make such General Rules or Regulations, other than the Rules or Regulations hereinbefore referred to, as to them seem necessary and meet for carrying out the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 50.

Judges of Supreme Court to make rules, etc. Rev. Stat. c. 44.

50.—(1) Any such general rule may, as regards the mode of remuneration, prescribe that it shall be according to a scale of rates of commission or per-centage, varying or not in different classes of business; or by a gross sum; or by a fixed sum for each document prepared or perused, without regard to length; or in any other mode, or partly in one mode and partly in another, or others; and may, as regards the amount of the remuneration,

Imp. Act,
44 & 45 V. c.
44, s. 8.

51.—(1) With respect to any business to which the preceding section relates, whether any general rule under this Act is in operation or not, it shall be competent (subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned) for a Solicitor to make an agreement with his client, and for a client to make an agreement with his Solicitor, before or after or in the course of the transaction of such business, for the remuneration of the Solicitor, to such amount and in such manner as the Solicitor and the client think fit, either by a gross sum, or by commission or per-centage, or by salary, or otherwise; and it shall be competent for the Solicitor to accept from the client, and for the client to give to the Solicitor, remuneration accordingly.

(2) The agreement shall be in writing, signed by the person to be bound thereby or by his agent in that behalf.

(3) The agreement may, if the Solicitor and the client think fit, be made on the terms that the amount of the remuneration therein stipulated for either shall include or shall not include all or any disbursements made by the Solicitor in respect of searches, plans, travelling fees, or other matters.

Unfair or unreasonable agreement not to bind the client.

(4) The agreement may be sued and recovered on, or impeached and set aside, in the like manner and on the like grounds as an agreement not relating to the remuneration of a Solicitor; and if, under any order for taxation of costs, such agreement being relied upon by the Solicitor shall be objected to by the client as unfair and unreasonable, the taxing master or officer of the Court may inquire into the facts, and certify the same to the Court; and if, upon such certificate, it shall appear to the Court or Judge that just cause has been shewn either for cancelling the agreement, or for reducing the amount payable under the same, the Court or Judge shall have power to order such cancellation or reduction, and to give all such directions necessary or proper for the purpose of carrying the order into effect, or otherwise consequential thereon, as to the Court or Judge may seem fit.

(5) "Client," for the purposes of this section, includes any person who, as a principal, or on behalf of another or as trustee or executor or in any other capacity, has power, express or implied, to retain or employ, and retains or employs, or is about to retain or employ, a Solicitor, and any person for the time being liable to pay to a Solicitor for his services any costs, remuneration, charges, expenses, or disbursements. ^{Imp. Act, 44 & 45 V. c. 44, s. 1.} 49 V. c. 20, s. 23.

52. In the absence of any general rule and so far as any such general rules do not apply the taxing officer in taxing any bill for preparing and executing any deed under Chapters 105, 106 and 107, of these Revised Statutes, in estimating the proper sum to be charged therefor, shall consider not the length of such deed, but the skill and labour employed and responsibility incurred in the preparation thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 102, s. 5.

PRESENT PRACTICE AS TO ADMISSIONS NOT ALTERED.

53. Nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with the present practice as to the admission of Solicitors, nor with the jurisdiction over them as officers of Court. ^{Act not to affect practice as to admission.} R. S. O. 1877, c. 140, s. 51.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts
as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as “The Ontario Medical Act.”
R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 1.

2. The medical profession of Ontario heretofore incorporated under the name and style of "The College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario," shall be and shall be deemed to have been from the date of its first establishment a body corporate by the name aforesaid, having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire, hold and dispose of chattel property and real estate for the purposes of this Act, and to sue and be sued in the manner usual with such corporations. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 2.

3. Every person registered according to the provisions of the Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of Her Majesty, and chaptered 34, of the Act passed in the thirty-second year of the reign of Her said Majesty, and chaptered 45, of the Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of Her said Majesty and chaptered 30, of chapter 142 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1877, and of the Acts amending the same, shall be a member of the said College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 3.

4. Every person hereafter registered under the provisions of this Act shall also be a member of the said College. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 4.

5. There shall be a council of the said College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario to be appointed in the manner herein after provided for in this Act, and hereinafter referred to as "The Council." R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 5.

6. The council shall be composed of the following persons:—

Firstly. One member to be chosen from each of the Universities, Colleges and bodies hereinafter designated, to wit: The University of Toronto, the Queen's University and College of Kingston, the University of Victoria College, the University of Trinity College, the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, Kingston, the Toronto School of Medicine, Trinity Medical School, the Ottawa University, Regiopolis College, the Western University, and of every other University, College or body in the Province now by law authorized, or which may be hereafter authorized to grant degrees in medicine and surgery, and which establishes and maintains to the satisfaction of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, a Medical Faculty in connection therewith.

2. No teacher, professor or lecturer of any of the before-mentioned Colleges or bodies shall hold a seat in the council except as a representative of the College or body to which he belongs:

3. All members of the council, representing the Colleges or bodies aforesaid, shall be practitioners duly registered under this Act or the Acts mentioned in section 3 of this Act.

Representatives of Homœopathy.

Secondly. Five members to be duly elected by the licensed practitioners in homœopathy who have been registered under this Act, or under the provisions in that behalf of any of the Acts mentioned in section 3 of this Act;

Elected members.

Thirdly. Twelve members to be elected in the manner hereinafter provided from amongst and by the registered members of the profession other than those mentioned in the preceding sub-sections of this section.

Elections, how to be conducted.

2. The twelve members to be elected as aforesaid shall be residents of the several territorial divisions for which they are elected; and one member shall be so elected from each of the territorial divisions mentioned in Schedule A to this Act by the registered practitioners of medicine resident in such division; and the manner of holding such election shall, with respect to the time thereof and the taking the votes therefor, be determined by a by-law to be passed by the council; and in default of such by-law being made, then the Lieutenant-Governor shall prescribe the time and manner of holding such election. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 6; 50 V. c. 24, s. 1.

Membership for five years.

7.—(1) The members of the council shall be elected or appointed as the case may be, for a period of five years; but any member may resign his appointment at any time by letter addressed to the president or registrar of the council; and upon the death or resignation of any member of the council, it shall be the duty of the registrar forthwith to notify the College or body wherein the vacancy has occurred, of the death or resignation; and such College or body shall have the power to nominate another duly qualified person to fill the vacancy; or if the vacancy be caused by the death or resignation of any member elected from a territorial division, the registrar shall forthwith cause a new election to be held in such territorial division in such manner as may be provided for by by-law of the council; and the election shall be conducted in accordance with the by-laws and regulations of the council, but it shall be lawful for the council during such vacancy to exercise the powers hereinafter mentioned.

Vacancies in Homœopathic members of the Council.

(2) In the event of the death or resignation of any member of the council representing the practitioners of the homœopathic system of medicine, it shall be lawful for the remaining representatives of the homœopathic system in the council to fill such vacancy by selecting from amongst the duly registered practitioners in homœopathy a person to fill the said vacancy. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 7.

Persons entitled to vote.

8. The persons entitled to vote under this Act at any election shall be all duly registered practitioners. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 8.

Transfer to different voters' list.

9.—(1) Any member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, may have his name transferred from one class of voters to any other class on his presenting to the registrar a certificate duly signed by the member or members of the Board of Examiners appointed by the council to examine candidates on the subjects specified in this Act, as peculiar to each School of Medicine, testifying that the member so applying to have his name so transferred has shewn a sufficient knowledge of the system of medicine he desires to connect himself with, to entitle him to be admitted to the class he desires, and being so admitted he shall be entitled to vote in that class only.

(2) No member shall be entitled to return to the class from which he has been so transferred without the sanction of the council; but no member shall at any time be entitled to vote in more than one class of the voters who, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, vote in the election of the members of the council; and there shall be payable to the registrar for such transfer the same charge as is usual for the registration of an additional qualification, namely $2. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 9.

10. In case of any doubt or dispute as to the legality of the election of any member of the council, it shall be lawful for the council to hold an inquiry and decide who is the legally elected member of the council; and the person whom they decide to have been elected shall be and be deemed to be the member legally elected; and if the election is found to have been illegal the council shall have power to order a new election. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 10. Disputed elections, how dealt with.

11.—(1) The council may make such rules and regulations as to the times and places of meetings of the council, and the mode of summoning the same, as to the council seems expedient; which rules and regulations shall remain in force till altered at any subsequent meeting; and in the absence of any rule or regulation as to the summoning of meetings of the council it shall be lawful for the president thereof or, in the event of his absence or death, for the registrar to summon the same at such time and place as to him seems fit, by circular letter to be mailed to each member. Meetings of the Council.

(2) In the event of the absence of the president from any meeting, the vice-president or, in his absence, some other member to be chosen from among the members present shall act as president. Absence of President.

(3) All the acts of the council shall be decided by the majority of the members present, not being less than nine in number. Majority.

(4) At all meetings the president for the time being shall have a casting vote. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 11. Voting.

12. There shall be paid to the members of the council such fees for attendance, and such reasonable travelling expenses, as may from time to time be fixed by by-law passed by the said council. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 12. Payment to members of the Council.

Appointment of officers.

Salaries.

Executive Committee.

13. The council shall annually appoint a president, vice-president, registrar, treasurer, and such other officers as may from time to time be necessary for the working of this Act, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the council; and the said council shall have power to fix by by-law, or from time to time, the salaries or fees to be paid to such officers, and to the Board of Examiners hereinafter appointed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 13.

14. The council shall appoint annually from among its members an "Executive Committee," to take cognizance of and action upon all such matters as may be delegated to it by the council or as may require immediate interference or attention between the adjournment of the council and its next meeting; and all such acts shall be valid only till the next ensuing meeting of the council: but the committee shall have no power to alter, repeal or suspend any by-law of the council, R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 14.

DIVISION ASSOCIATIONS.

Territorial division medical associations.

15. In each of the territorial divisions described in Schedule A of this Act there may be established a "Territorial Division Medical Association," which may be called "The Division Association" of such division; every member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, resident within the said territorial division, shall be a member; and the representative in the council shall be ex officio chairman of such Division Association. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 15.

Tariff of fees.

16. The said Division Association may from time to time submit to the council a tariff or tariffs of professional fees, suitable to their division, or to separate portions of their division; and upon the said tariff or tariffs of fees receiving the approval of the council, signified by the seal of the College and by the signature of the president thereof, being appended thereto, such tariff or tariffs shall be held to be a scale of reasonable charges within the meaning of section 39 of this Act for the division or section of a division where the member making the charge resides. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 16.

MEDICAL EDUCATION.

Matriculation
examiners.

17.—(1) The council shall have power and authority to appoint an examiner or examiners for the admission of all students to the matriculation or preliminary examination, and to make by-laws and regulations for determining the admission and enrolment of students: but any change in the curriculum of studies fixed by the council shall not come into effect until one year after such change is made.

Homœopath-ists.

(2) Until a Homœopathic Medical College for teaching purposes is established in Ontario, candidates wishing to be registered as Homœopathists shall pass the matriculation examination established by this Act, as the preliminary examination for all students in Medicine, and shall present evidence of having spent the full period of study required by the curriculum of the council, under the supervision of a duly registered homœopathic practitioner.

(3) Such candidates must also have complied with the full curriculum of studies, prescribed from time to time by the council for all medical students, but the full time of attendance upon lectures and hospitals required by the curriculum of the council may be spent in such Homœopathic Medical Colleges in the United States or Europe as may be recognized by a majority of the homœopathic members of the Council: but in all Homœopathic Colleges, where the winter course of lectures is only of four months' duration, certified tickets of attendance on one such course shall be held to be equivalent to two-thirds of one six months' course, as required by the Council; and when such teaching body has been established in Ontario it shall be optional for such candidates to pursue in part or in full the required curriculum in Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 17.

18. The council shall from time to time, as it may deem expedient, enact by-laws as to the terms upon which it will receive the matriculation and other certificates of Colleges and other institutions not in the Province of Ontario. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 18. Council to make by-laws.

19. Any graduate or any student having matriculated in Arts in any University in Her Majesty's Dominions, shall not be required to pass the preliminary examination. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 19. Graduates and matriculants of universities in Her Majesty's dominions.

20. The council shall have power and authority to fix and determine from time to time a curriculum of studies to be pursued by the students, and such curriculum of studies shall be observed and taught by all Colleges referred to in section 6 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 20. Curriculum of studies.

MEDICAL REGISTRATION.

21. The council shall cause to be kept by an officer appointed by them, and to be called the registrar, a book or register, in which shall be entered the name of every person registered according to the provisions of this Act or the Acts mentioned in section 3 of this Act; and, from time to time the names of all persons who have complied with the enactments hereinafter contained, and with the rules and regulations made or to be made by the council respecting the qualifications to be required from practitioners of medicine, surgery and midwifery in this Province; and those persons only whose names are inscribed in the book or register above mentioned, shall be Registration.

Inspection of register.

deemed to be qualified and licensed to practise medicine¹ surgery or midwifery in this Province, except as herein-after provided, and such book or register shall at all times be open, and subject to inspection by any duly registered practitioner in Ontario, or by any other person. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 21.

Duty of Registrar.

22. It shall be the duty of the registrar to keep his register correct, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the rules, orders and regulations of the council, and he shall from time to time make the necessary alterations in the addresses or qualifications of the persons registered under this Act, and the said registrar shall perform such other duties as may be imposed upon him by the council. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142 s. 22.

As to registration of persons from Great Britain and Ireland.

23.—(1) It shall be optional for the council to admit to registration all such persons as are duly registered in the medical register of Great Britain, or are otherwise authorized to practise medicine, surgery and midwifery in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, upon such terms as the Council may deem expedient.

Person in practice before 1850.

(2) Any person who was actually practising medicine, surgery or midwifery or any of them in Ontario, prior to the 1st of January, 1850, and who has attended one course of lectures at any recognized medical school, shall, upon such proof as the Council may require, be entitled to registration under this Act.

Homœopaths in practice before 1850.

(3) Any person who was actually practising medicine, surgery or midwifery according to the principles of Homœopathy before the 1st day of January, 1850, and for the six years preceding the 24th day of March, 1874, in Ontario, may in the discretion of the representatives of the homœopathic system of medicine be admitted to registration under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 23.

Qualification for, and mode of registry.

24. Every person who possesses any one or more of the qualifications described in Schedule B to this Act, dated prior to the 23rd day of July, 1870, shall, on payment of a fee to be fixed by by-law of the council, not exceeding $10, be entitled to be registered on producing to the registrar the document conferring or evidencing the qualification or each of the qualifications in respect whereof he seeks to be so registered, or upon transmitting by post to the registrar, information of his name and address, and evidence of the qualification or qualifications in respect whereof he seeks to be registered, and of the time or times at which the same was or were respectively attained: but no one registered under the Acts mentioned in section 3 of this Act shall be liable to pay any fee for being registered under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 24.

25. Every person desirous of being registered under the provisions of this Act, and who had not become possessed of any one of the qualifications in Schedule B mentioned, before the 23rd day of July, 1870, shall, before being entitled to registration, present himself for examination as to his knowledge and skill for the efficient practice of his profession before the Board of Examiners, mentioned in section 28; and upon passing the examination required, and proving to the satisfaction of the Board of Examiners that he has complied with the rules and regulations made by the council, and on the payment of such fees as the council may by general by-law establish, such person shall be entitled to be registered, and, in virtue of such registration, to practise medicine, surgery and midwifery in this Province. Examination before registration, when necessary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 25.

26. When and as soon as it appears that there has been established a "Central Examining Board," similar to that constituted by this Act, or an institution duly recognized by the Legislature of any of the Provinces forming the Dominion of Canada, other than Ontario, as the sole examining body for the purpose of granting certificates of qualification, and wherein the curriculum is equal to that established in Ontario, the holder of any such certificate shall upon due proof be entitled to registration by the Council of Ontario, if the same privilege is accorded by such Examining Board or Institution to those holding certificates in Ontario. Registration of persons from other Provinces of the Dominion. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 26.

27. Each member of the College shall pay to the registrar or to any person deputed by the registrar to receive it, such annual fee as may be determined by by-law of the council not being less than $1 nor more than $2, towards the general expenses of the College, which last mentioned fee shall be payable on the first day of January in the year in which the same is imposed; and such fee shall be deemed to be a debt due by each member to the College, and shall be recoverable with costs of suit in the name of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, in the Division Court where the member resides. Annual assessment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 27.

28. At the annual meeting of the council in each year, there shall be elected by the members of the council a "Board of Examiners," whose duty it shall be to examine, at least once in each year, all candidates for registration in accordance with the by-laws, rules and regulations of the council; such examinations to be held at Toronto or Kingston at such times and in such manner as the council may by by-law direct. Board of Examiners. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 28.

29. The Board of Examiners appointed under the preceding section shall be composed as follows:—one member from each of the teaching bodies now existing, referred to in section 6 of this Act, and one from every other School of Medicine Examiners, how appointed.

which may be hereafter organized in connection with any University or College which is empowered by law to grant medical or surgical diplomas; and a number not exceeding five members to be chosen from among those members of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, who are unconnected with any of the above teaching bodies. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 29.

Examinations
of Homœopaths.

30. Every candidate who, at the time of his examination, signifies his wish to be registered as a homœopathic practitioner, shall not be required to pass an examination in either materia medica, or therapeutics, or in the theory or practice of physic, or in surgery or midwifery, except the operative practical parts thereof, before any examiners other than those approved of by the representatives in the council of the homœopathic system. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 30.

Power of Council to make rules,
etc.

31. The council shall from time to time as occasion may require, make orders, regulations, or by-laws for regulating the registers to be kept under this Act, and the fees to be paid for registration, and shall from time to time make rules and regulations for the guidance of the Board of Examiners, and may prescribe the subjects and modes of the examinations, the time and place of holding the same, and generally may make all such rules and regulations in respect of such examinations not contrary to the provisions of this Act, as they may deem expedient and necessary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 31.

Additional
or degree.

32. Every person registered under this Act who obtains any higher degree or any qualification other than the qualification in respect of which he has been registered, shall, on the payment of such fees as the council may appoint, be entitled to have such higher degree or additional qualification inserted in the register in substitution for, or in addition to, the qualification previously registered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 32.

Registrar to be satisfied as to qualification.

Appeal to the Council.

33.—(1) No qualification shall be entered on the register either on the first registration or by way of addition to a registered name unless the registrar is satisfied by proper evidence that the person claiming is entitled to it; and any appeal from the decision of the registrar may be decided by the council; and any entry proved to the satisfaction of the council to have been fraudulently or incorrectly made, may be erased from the register by an order in writing of the council.

(2) In the event of the registrar being dissatisfied with the evidence adduced by the person claiming to be registered, he shall have the power, subject to an appeal to the council, of refusing registration until the person claiming to be registered has furnished such evidence duly attested by oath or affirmation, before the Judge of the County Court of any county. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 33.

34.—(1) Where any registered medical practitioner has either before or after the passing of this Act, and either before or after he is so registered been convicted either in Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere of an offence, which if committed in Canada, would be a felony or misdemeanour, or been guilty of any infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, such practitioner shall be liable to have his name erased from the register. Erasing names from register.

(2) The council may, and upon the application of any four registered medical practitioners, shall cause enquiry to be made into the case of a person alleged to be liable to have his name erased under this section and on proof of such conviction or of such infamous or disgraceful conduct, shall cause the name of such person to be erased from the register: provided, that the name of a person shall not be erased under this section on account of his adopting, or refraining from adopting the practice of any particular theory of medicine or surgery, nor on account of a conviction for a political offence out of Her Majesty's dominions, nor on account of a conviction for an offence which though within the provisions of this section ought not, either from the trivial nature of the offence, or from the circumstances under which it was committed, to disqualify a person from practising medicine or surgery.

(3) The council may order to be paid out of any funds at their disposal such costs as to them may seem just to any person against whom any complaint has been made which when finally determined, is found to have been frivolous and vexatious. 50 V. c. 24, s. 3.

35.—(1) Where the council direct the erasure from the register of the name of any person, or of any other entry, the name of that person or that entry shall not be again entered on the register, except by the direction of the council, or by the order of a Judge or of a Court of competent jurisdiction. Restoring names to register.

(2) If the council think fit in any case, they may direct the registrar to restore to the register any name or entry erased therefrom either without fee or on payment of such fee, not exceeding the registration fee, as the council may, from time to time, fix, and the registrar shall restore the same accordingly. 50 V. c. 24, s. 4.

36.—(1) The council shall for the purpose of exercising in any case the powers of erasing from and of restoring to the register the name of any person or any entry, ascertain the facts of such case by a committee of their own body not exceeding five in number, of whom the quorum shall be not less than three, and a written report of the committee may be acted upon as to the facts therein stated for the purpose of the exercise of the said powers by the council. Committee for erasing and restoring names.

(2) The council shall from time to time appoint, and shall always maintain a committee for the purposes of this section, and subject to the provisions of this section, may from time to time determine the constitution, and the number and tenure of office of the members of the committee.

(3) The committee shall meet, from time to time, for the despatch of business and subject to the provisions of this section, and of any regulations from time to time made by the council, may regulate the summoning, notice, place, management and adjournment of such meetings, the appointment of a chairman, the mode of deciding questions, and generally the transaction and management of business including the quorum, and if there is a quorum the committee may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body. In case of any vacancy the committee may appoint a member of the council to fill the vacancy until the next meeting of the council.

(4) A committee under this section may, for the purpose of the execution of their duties under this Act, employ, at the expense of the council such legal, or other assessor or assistant as the committee may think necessary or proper; and the person whose conduct is the subject of enquiry shall also have the right to be represented by counsel; provided that all meetings of any such committee when held for taking evidence or otherwise ascertaining the facts shall be held within the county where the member complained of resides or the alleged offence has been committed.

(5) At least two weeks before the first meeting of the committee to be held for taking the evidence or otherwise ascertaining the facts, a notice shall be served upon the person whose conduct is the subject of enquiry, and such notice shall embody a copy of the charges made against him or a statement of the subject matter of the enquiry, and shall also specify the time and place of such meeting; the testimony of witnesses shall be taken under oath, which the chairman or acting chairman of the committee is hereby authorized to administer, and there shall be full right to cross-examine all witnesses called and to call evidence in defence and reply; in the event of the non-attendance of the person whose conduct is the subject of such enquiry, the committee may, upon proof of personal service of the notice aforesaid in accordance with the provisions of this section, which proof of service may be by statutory declaration, proceed with the subject matter of the enquiry in his absence and make their report of the facts without further notice to such person. 50 V. c. 24, s. 5.

committee.

37. No action shall be brought against the council or the committee for anything done bona fide under this Act, notwithstanding any want of form in the proceedings, but any person whose name has been ordered to be erased from the register may appeal from the decision of the council to any

Judge of the High Court, at any time within six months from the date of the order for such erasure, and the Judge may, upon the hearing of the appeal, make such order as to the restoration of the name so erased or confirming such erasure, or for further enquiries by the committee or council into the facts of the case, and as to costs as to such Judge shall seem right in the premises. 50 V. c. 24, s. 6.

38. The appeal may be by summons served upon the registrar to shew cause, and shall be founded upon a copy of the proceedings before the committee—the evidence taken, the committee's report and the order of the council in the matter—certified by the registrar, and the registrar shall, upon the request of any person desiring to appeal, furnish to any such person a certified copy of all proceedings, reports, orders and papers, upon which the committee have acted in making the order complained of. 50 V. c. 24, s. 7.

Rights of Registered Practitioners.

39. Every person registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be entitled according to his qualification or qualifications to practise medicine, surgery or midwifery, or any of them as the case may be, in the Province of Ontario, and to demand and recover in any Court with full costs of suit, reasonable charges for professional aid, advice and visits and the cost of any medicine or other medical or surgical appliances rendered or supplied by him to his patients. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 35.

Rights of registered persons.

40. No duly registered member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, shall be liable to any action for negligence or malpractice, by reason of professional services requested or rendered, unless such action be commenced within one year from the date when in the matter complained of such professional services terminated. 50 V. c. 24, s. 2.

Limitation of actions for negligence.

Publication of Register.

41.—(1) The registrar of the council shall from time to time under the direction of the council cause to be printed and published a correct register of the names in alphabetical order according to the surnames, with the respective residences in the form set forth in Schedule C to this Act, or to the like effect, together with the medical titles, diplomas and qualifications conferred by any College or body with the dates thereof, of all persons appearing on the register as existing on the day of publication; and such register shall be called "The Ontario Medical Register;" and a copy of such register for the time being purporting to be so printed and published as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence in all Courts, and before all Justices of the Peace, and others, that the persons therein specified are registered according to the provisions of this Act, and, subject to the provisions of sub-section 2 of this section, the absence of the name of any person from such copy shall be prima facie evidence that such person is not registered according to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In the case of any person whose name does not appear in such copy, a certified copy under the hand of the registrar of the council, of the entry of the name of such person on the register, shall be evidence that such person is registered under the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 36.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

Those entitled to register, and neglecting to do so.

42. Any person entitled to be registered under this Act, but who neglects or omits to be so registered, shall not be entitled to any of the rights or privileges conferred by registration under the provisions of this Act, so long as such neglect or omission continues, and he shall be liable to all the penalties imposed by this Act, or by any other Act in force against unqualified or unregistered practitioners. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 37.

Penalty on Registrar for falsification.

43. If the registrar makes or causes to be made any wilful falsification in any matter relating to the register, he shall incur a penalty of $50, and shall be disqualified from again holding that position, R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 38.

Penalty for false registration.

44.—(1) If any person procures or causes to be procured his registration under this Act, by means of any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, either verbally or in writing, it shall be lawful for the registrar, upon the receipt of sufficient evidence of the falsity or fraudulent character of said representation or declaration, to represent the matter to the council, and upon the written order of the president, attested by the seal of the College, to erase the name of such person from the register, and to make known the fact and cause of the erasure by notice to be published in the Ontario Gazette; and after such notice has appeared the person whose name has been erased as aforesaid shall cease to be a member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, and shall cease to enjoy any of the privileges conferred by registration under this Act at any future time, without the express sanction of the Council.

(2) If any person wilfully procures or attempts to procure himself to be registered under this Act, by making any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, either verbally or in writing, he shall on conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace incur a penalty not exceeding $100; and every person knowingly aiding and assisting him therein shall on conviction thereof incur a penalty of not less than $20 nor more than $50 for each such offence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 39.

45. It shall not be lawful for any person not registered to practise medicine, surgery or midwifery for hire, gain, or hope of reward; and if any person not registered pursuant to this Act, for hire, gain or hope of reward practises or professes to practise medicine, surgery or midwifery or advertises to give advice in medicine, surgery or midwifery, he shall upon a summary conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace, for any and every such offence, pay a penalty not exceeding $100 nor less than $25. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 40.

Penalty for practising without registration.

46. Any person who wilfully or falsely pretends to be a Physician, Doctor of Medicine, Surgeon, or general practitioner, or assumes any title, addition or description other than he actually possesses and is legally entitled to, shall be liable on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace to a penalty not exceeding $50, nor less than $10. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142 s. 41.

Penalty for falsely pretending, etc.

47. Any person not registered pursuant to this Act who takes or uses any name, title, addition or description implying or calculated to lead people to infer, that he is registered under this Act, or that he is recognized by law as a Physician, Surgeon, Accoucheur, or a Licentiate in Medicine, Surgery or Midwifery, shall be liable upon a summary conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace to pay any penalty not exceeding $100 nor less than $25. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 42.

Penalty for using title implying registration.

48. No person shall be entitled to recover any charge in any Court for any medical or surgical advice, or for attendance, or for the performance of any operation, or for any medicine which he may have prescribed or supplied, unless he is registered under this Act: but this section shall not extend to the sale of any drug or medicine by any duly licensed chemist or druggist. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 43.

None entitled to recover charges unless registered.

49. No person shall be appointed as medical officer, physician or surgeon in any branch of the public service of this Province, or in any hospital or other charitable institution not supported wholly by voluntary contributions, unless he is registered under the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 44.

Public appointments only conferred on registered persons.

50. No certificate required by any Act now in force, or that may hereafter be passed, from any physician or surgeon or medical practitioner, shall be valid unless the person signing the same is registered under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 45.

Certificates by unregistered persons invalid.

51. Any prosecutions under this Act may be brought or heard before any one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction where any such offence has been committed; and the Justice or Justices may award payment of costs in addition to the penalty; and in case the penalty and costs awarded by him or them are not upon conviction forthwith paid, may commit the offender to the Common Gaol, there to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month, unless the penalty and costs are sooner paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 46.

Security on appeals.

52. Any person convicted under this Act who gives notice of appeal against the decision of the convicting Justice, shall be required before being released from custody to give to the Justice satisfactory security for the amount of the penalty, costs of conviction and appeal. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 48.

Onus pro-bandi.

53. In any trial under this Act the burden of proof as to registration shall be upon the person charged. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 49.

Evidence of registry and signature of Registrar.

54. In all cases where proof of registration under this Act is required to be made, the production of a printed or other copy of the register, certified under the hand of the registrar of the council for the time being shall be sufficient evidence of all persons who are registered practitioners, in lieu of the production of the original register; and any certificate upon such printed or other copy of the register, purporting to be signed by any person in his capacity of registrar of the council under this Act shall be prima facie evidence that such person is the registrar, without any proof of his signature or of his being in fact the registrar. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 50.

Limitation of prosecutions.

55. Every prosecution under this Act shall be commenced within one year from the date of the alleged offence. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 51.

Stay of proceedings.

56. The council by an order signed by the president having the seal of the College appended thereto, may stay proceedings in any prosecution under this Act where it is deemed expedient. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 52.

To whom penalties paid.

57.—(1) All penalties recoverable under this Act shall be paid to the convicting Justice and by him paid to the registrar of the college, and shall form part of the funds thereof.

Prosecutor.

(2) Any person may be prosecutor or complainant under this Act, and the council may allot such portion of the penalties recovered as may be expedient towards the payment of such prosecutor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 53.

Council funds.

58. All moneys forming part of the council funds shall be paid to the treasurer, and may be applied to carry this Act into execution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 142, s. 54.

An Act respecting the Study of Anatomy.

WHAT BODIES MAY BE DELIVERED FOR DISSECTION, s. 1.	REGISTER TO BE KEPT BY SUPERINTENDENTS OF PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS, s. 11.
BODY MAY BE CLAIMED BY FRIENDS, s. 2.	SECURITY TO BE GIVEN BY MEDICAL SCHOOLS, s. 13.
TO WHOM BODIES TO BE DELIVERED, s. 3.	PENALTIES :
INSPECTORS OF ANATOMY—APPOINTMENT AND DUTIES, ss. 4, 5.	Neglect of duty by inspectors, etc., s. 14.
Fees, s. 12.	Removal of bodies from Province, s. 15.
DISTRIBUTION TO DIFFERENT MEDICAL SCHOOLS, s. 6.	Recovery of, s. 16.
NOTICE TO INSPECTOR BY CORONER, ETC., ss. 7-10.	BURIALS BY MUNICIPALITIES, s. 17.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

1. In all localities coming under the provisions of this Act the body of any person found dead, publicly exposed, or sent to a public morgue, or who immediately before death had been supported in and by any public institution, shall be delivered to persons qualified as hereinafter mentioned, unless such body be within forty-eight hours after death claimed by relations or bona fide friends, or being a lunatic, dies in any Provincial Asylum for the insane ; provided nevertheless, that the authorities in whose care any body may be, shall not deliver the same to any person other than a known relative unless such person shall pay to the said authorities the sum of $5 to defray the funeral expenses of the body so claimed, the said sum to be paid over to the undertaker by the said authorities when satisfied that the body has been properly interred. 48 V. c. 31, s. 2.

Certain bodies may be delivered for study of anatomy.

Proviso.

2. Any medical school obtaining a body as provided by the preceding section shall keep and preserve the same for a period of not less than five days, and in the event of a relative or bona fide friend claiming the body within a period of five days from the receipt thereof by the medical school, the medical school shall deliver over the body to the said relative or bona fide friend upon the receipt of the reasonable costs and charges for preserving and keeping the same, not to exceed the sum of $10. 48 V. c. 31, s. 3.

Body delivered to medical school may be claimed by friends.

To whom such bodies shall be delivered.

3. The persons qualified to receive such unclaimed bodies shall be teachers of anatomy or surgery in recognized medical schools; and if there be any medical school in the locality, such school shall have the first claim to the body. 48 V. c. 31, s. 4.

Appointment of Inspector of Anatomy.

4. The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint, during pleasure, a person not being a medical practitioner, nor connected with any school of medicine, to be Inspector of Anatomy for such part of the Province, or for such city, town or other locality therein as may be named in the appointment. 48 V. c. 31, s. 5.

Duties of Inspector.

5. It shall be the duty of every inspector of anatomy—

1. To keep a register of the name, age, sex, birth place and religious denomination, if any, of each unclaimed body received by him, and the name of the school to which delivered, with date of delivery.

2. To keep a register of medical schools duly qualified to receive and desirous of receiving bodies for instruction of pupils.

3. To distribute all bodies, in rotation, to such schools in proportion to the number of persons actually engaged in the study of human anatomy in each school, as shewn by their official registers, which he shall be allowed to inspect.

4. To inspect the several authorized practical anatomy rooms in his locality at least once in every six weeks, and to direct the removal and decent interment of any remains that he deems it advisable to have interred.

5. To keep his registers open for the inspection of any medical practitioner who may desire to inspect them. 48 V. c. 31, s. 6.

Distribution to different medical schools in same city.

6. Where more than one medical school situated in the same city shall have made application for bodies, every inspector upon sending a body to either school shall notify the inspector of the city in which such school is situated, and the inspector for such city in distributing the bodies he receives from his own district shall have regard to the number of bodies each school has received from other inspectors outside, and if necessary direct them from time to time to which school they shall send bodies, so that each school shall receive from all sources in proportion to the number of persons actually engaged in the study of human anatomy in each school. 48 V. c. 31, s. 7.

Coroner to give notice to Inspector of bodies found exposed.

7. Every coroner, whether he does or does not hold an inquest on a body found publicly exposed, to which his attention has been called, and which is not claimed in accordance with section 1 of this Act, shall give notice to the inspector of anatomy of the locality, if there be one, failing which, he shall cause the body to be interred as has been customary. 48 V. c. 31, s. 8.

8. The person in charge of a public morgue shall, when a body is placed in it of a person not known to have any relatives or friends entitled to claim the body, give notice of such unclaimed body to the inspector of anatomy for the locality. 48 V. c. 31, s. 9.

Notice to be given to Inspector by person in charge of morgue.

9. The mayor of a city or town coming under the provisions of this Act shall direct notice to be given to the Inspector of Anatomy of any adult body that is brought under his notice which is unclaimed by relatives or friends, as set forth in section 1 of this Act. 48 V. c. 31, s. 10.

Notice to be given to Inspector by Mayor of city or town.

10. The superintendent of every public institution shall, upon the death of an inmate of the institution who is not known to have any relatives or friends entitled to claim the body, immediately give notice of such death to the inspector of anatomy for the locality. 48 V. c. 31, s. 11.

Notice to be given to Inspector by superintendents of public institutions.

11. Every such superintendent shall keep a register shewing the name, age, sex, birth-place and religious denomination of each person whose body is disposed of under the provisions of this Act, and the school to which such body is delivered, and shall file all documents furnished by persons claiming bodies, which register and file shall be open for inspection; and no such superintendent shall deliver any body to a medical school except on the written order of the inspector of anatomy for the locality. 48 V. c. 31, s. 12.

Register to be kept by superintendent.

12. The inspector of anatomy shall receive $5 for every body delivered under the provisions of this Act, which sum shall be paid to him by the school on delivery of the body. 48 V. c. 31, s. 13.

Fees of Inspector.

13. Any medical school wishing to avail itself of the benefits of this Act shall appear through its official head, before one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace and the inspector of anatomy, and give security in the sum of $80, with two good and sufficient sureties in the sum of $40 each, for the decent interment of the bodies after they have served the purposes required; and upon the due fulfilment of these conditions, the inspector of anatomy shall deliver to such school a written authority to open a practical anatomy room entitled to the benefits of this Act. 48 V. c. 31, s. 14.

Medical schools availing themselves of this Act to give security.

14. Any inspector of anatomy, warden of a public institution, medical practitioner, coroner or other official who neglects to discharge the duties required of him by this Act or infringes any of its provisions, shall be liable to a fine of not more than $20 for every such offence. 48 V. c. 31, s. 15.

Penalty for neglect of duty by Inspector, etc.

Removal of bodies from Province for purposes of anatomy prohibited.

15. No person shall send or take a body out of the Province of Ontario for surgical or practical anatomy purposes, and every person contravening the provisions of this section shall for each offence incur a penalty of $100, notwithstanding the provisions of section 14 of this Act. 48 V. 31, s. 16.

Recovery of penalties.

16. Every penalty imposed by this Act may be recovered with costs on summary conviction before any two Justices of the Peace or a Police Magistrate. 48 V. c. 31, s. 17.

Burials of unclaimed bodies.

17. Subject to the provisions of this Act, any unclaimed human body found dead within the limits of a city, town, incorporated village or township, shall be buried at the expense of the corporation of such city, town, village or township, but such corporation may recover such expense from the estate of the deceased. 43 V. c. 11, s. 4.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts
as follows:—

Royal College of Dental Surgeons continued, 1
31 V. c. 37.

1. "The Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario," incorporated under the Act passed in the 31st year of Her Majesty's Reign, and chaptered 37 is continued, and every person who holds a valid and unforfeited certificate of license to practise dentistry which has been granted to him by the Board of Directors of the said College, shall be a member of the said corporation. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 1.

Power to hold
real estate.

2.—(1) The said College shall have power to acquire and hold real estate not exceeding at any time in annual value $5,000, and may alienate, exchange, mortgage, incumber, lease or otherwise charge or dispose of the same, or any part thereof, as occasion may require, and may erect buildings for the purpose of accommodating lecturers on dentistry, or for a library, dental museum, or specimen room, or for other purposes, for the use of the members of the said College. 49 V. c. 30, s. 7.

(2) No such alienation, exchange, mortgage, incumbrance, lease, charge or disposition, shall be made, given or effected, except with the consent of the board of directors, which consent, shall be signified by the votes of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the board duly called for that purpose; and notice of such meeting shall be given to every member of the board, by letter mailed to his last registered address, seven days before the day appointed for such meeting, and the notice shall state the object of such meeting. The president and secretary shall have power to affix the corporate seal of the College to any instrument necessary to carry out the intention of the board. 49 V. c. 30, s. 8.

3.—(1) The board of directors of the said College shall consist of seven members, who shall hold office for two years, and of whom any four shall form a quorum. Directors to hold office for two years. Quorum.

(2) Any member of the board may at any time resign by letter directed to the secretary, and in the event of such resignation or a vacancy occurring by death or otherwise, the remaining members of the board shall elect some fit and proper person from among the licentiates to supply the vacancy. R. S. O. 1877, c. 14, s. 2. Vacancies.

4.—(1) Elections of the board of directors shall be held on the third Tuesday in July, in the city of Toronto, in every second year. Elections, when to be held.

(2) The persons qualified to vote at such election shall be those who have obtained certificates of license under the provisions of the Acts respecting Dentistry heretofore in force, or who shall hereafter obtain certificates of license under the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 3.

5. Every newly elected board of directors shall hold its first meeting at noon on the day following the election of the board, at such place in the city of Toronto as may from time to time be fixed by the retiring board. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 4. First meeting of the Board.

6.—(1) The newly elected board shall, at its first meeting elect from among its members a president, treasurer, secretary and registrar, and such other officers as may be necessary to the working of this Act and the rules and regulations of the board. Appointment of President and other officers.

(2) The board shall from time to time, in the event of the president being absent, from any cause whatever, elect, from among its members, a person to preside at its meetings, who shall have the same powers, and exercise the same functions as the president. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 5.

Remuneration.

7. There shall be allowed and paid to each of the members of the board such fees for attendances (in no case to exceed $5 per day), and such reasonable travelling expenses as may from time to time be allowed by the board. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 6.

Funds payable to the Treasurer.

8. All moneys under the control of the board shall be paid to the treasurer, and shall be applied to the carrying of this Act into execution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 7.

Establishment of a School of Dentistry.

9. The board shall have power and authority to make arrangements for the establishment of a school of dentistry in the city of Toronto. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 8.

Examinations.

10. The board shall have power and authority to appoint one or more examiners for the matriculation or preliminary examination of all students entering the profession, or may accept in lieu of such matriculation or preliminary examination evidence that any student has passed any other satisfactory examination. Such examination shall be passed prior to entering into articles of indenture with a licentiate of dentistry, and the commencement of study shall date from the signing of said articles. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 9; 49 V. c. 30, s. 1.

Curriculum.

11. The board shall also have power and authority to fix and determine, from time to time, a curriculum of studies to be pursued by students, and to fix and determine the period for which every student shall be articulated and employed under some duly licensed practitioner, and the examination necessary to be passed before the board, and the fees to be paid into the hands of the treasurer of the board, before receiving a certificate of license to practise the profession of dentistry. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 10.

Arrangements for education of students.

12. The Royal College of Dental Surgeons, of Ontario, may, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council make arrangements with any University or College in Ontario, for the attendance of students of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons at such lectures or classes in any such University or College, as may come within the course or subjects of instruction prescribed by the rules, by-laws, and regulations of the said, the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario, and may, subject as aforesaid, agree with any such University or College, for the use of any library, museum, or property belonging to, or under the control of, such University or College, and may affiliate with any such University or College, and may enter into all arrangements necessary for such end, upon such terms as may be agreed upon. 49 V. c. 30, s. 9.

Authority to examine candidates and grant licenses.

13. The board of directors of the College shall also have authority to examine candidates and grant certificates of license to practise Dental Surgery in this Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 11.

14. With a view to encourage the attainment of a higher standard of education among the licentiates of the College the board may by by-law provide that any licentiate in dentistry, being a member of the College of not less than five years' standing, shall receive the title of "Master of Dental Surgery" of said College, upon passing such examinations and complying with such regulations as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 12.

15.—(1) The board shall from time to time make such rules regulations and by-laws as may be necessary for the proper and better guidance, government, discipline and regulation of the said board and said profession of dentistry, and the carrying out of this Act, which said rules, regulations and by-laws shall be published for two consecutive weeks in the Ontario Gazette.

(2) Any or all of such rules, regulations and by-laws shall be liable to be cancelled and annulled by an order of the Lieutenant-Governor of this Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 13; 49 V. c. 30, s. 2.

16. All persons being British subjects by birth or naturalization, who were engaged on the 4th day of March, 1868, in the practice of the profession of dentistry, or who, not having been residents of Ontario, have had three years experience in the practice of dentistry shall be entitled to the certificate of "Licentiate of Dental Surgery," upon furnishing to the Board satisfactory proof of their having been so engaged, or having had such experience, and upon passing the required examination, and upon payment of the fees authorized and fixed by the board, (of the payment of which the treasurer's receipt shall be sufficient evidence); and all persons being British subjects by birth or naturalization, who were constantly engaged for five years and upwards in established office practice, next preceding the said 4th day of March, 1868, in the practice of the profession of dentistry in the Province of Ontario shall upon proof as aforesaid, and upon payment of the fees aforesaid, be entitled to such certificate without passing any examination. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 14.

17. The board shall hold one meeting in each year in the city of Toronto, at such place as may from time to time be fixed by the Board, for the purpose of examining students, granting certificates of license, and doing such other business as may properly come before them. The said meetings shall be held on the first Tuesday in March or such other time as the board may by by-law appoint and shall continue from day to day until the business before the board is finished: but no such meeting shall continue for more than one week. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 15; 49 V. c. 30, s. 3.

Fees payable before examination.

18. Every person desirous of being examined by the board touching his qualifications for the practice of the profession of dentistry, shall at least one month before the sittings of the board, pay into the hands of the treasurer the required fees, and enclose and deliver to the secretary the treasurer's receipt for the same, together with satisfactory evidence of his apprenticeship, integrity and good morals; and it shall be the duty of the board to hold a sitting for the purpose hereinbefore mentioned on the first Tuesday in March next ensuing the said payment and delivery or on such other day as shall be appointed by the board as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 16; 49 V. c. 30, s. 4.

Certificate of License.

19. If the board is satisfied by the examination that the person is duly qualified to practise the profession of dentistry, and is further satisfied that he is a person of integrity and good moral character, it shall, subject to such rules, regulations and by-laws, grant him a certificate of license and the title of "Licentiate of Dental Surgery," which certificate and title shall entitle him to all the rights and privileges conferred by this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 17.

Designation and title.

Certificate to be under the corporate seal.
Evidence.

20. Every certificate of license shall be sealed with the corporate seal of the College and signed by the president and secretary of the board; and the production of such certificate of license shall be prima facie evidence in all Courts and upon all proceedings of whatever kind, of its execution and contents. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 18.

Return of licenses
granted.

21. The secretary of the said board shall, on or before the fifteenth day of January, in each year, enclose to the Provincial Secretary a certified list of the names of all persons to whom certificates of license have been granted during the then next preceding year. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 19.

No person to practise without certificate,

22.—(1) No person who is not a member of the said the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario, shall practise the profession of dentistry, or perform any dental operation upon, or prescribe any dental treatment for any patient, for hire, gain, or hope of reward, whether by way of fees, salary, rent, per centage of receipts or in any other form whatever. or shall pretend to hold, or take or use any name, title, addition or description implying that he holds a certificate of license to practise dentistry, or that he is a member of the said the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario, or shall falsely represent, or use any title representing that he is a graduate of any Dental College.

or without authority assume certain titles.

Penalty.

(2) Every person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act, shall for each such offence incur a penalty of $20. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 20; 49 V. c. 30, ss. 5, 10.

(3) Provided that this section shall not prevent any duly indentured and registered student of dentistry from receiving clinical instruction and practice under the personal supervision of a member of the College. 49 V. c. 30, s. 5.

23. Every penalty imposed by this Act may be recovered with full costs of prosecution on summary conviction before any one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county in which the offence is committed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 21. Penalties how recoverable.

24. Except where it is herein otherwise provided, the procedure upon any such prosecution shall be that prescribed by The Act respecting Summary Convictions before Justices of the Peace and Appeals to General Sessions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 22. Procedure upon prosecutions. Rev. Stat. c. 74.

25. The penalty and costs imposed upon any such conviction shall be forthwith paid over to the convicting Justice, and the penalty shall be by him paid over to the secretary of the said College; and in case the said penalty and costs are not paid forthwith, the said Justice may issue his warrant to commit the defendant to the common gaol of the county, there to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month, unless the penalty and costs are sooner paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 23. Application of penalty.

26. The penalty imposed by section 22 of this Act may be recovered with full costs of suit in the name of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario, in the proper Division Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 24. Penalty may be recovered in name of the College.

27. On any prosecution or action under this Act, the burden of proof that the defendant is entitled to practise the profession of dentistry as aforesaid, or to use the title assumed by him, or that he is a graduate of the Dental College of which he professes to be a graduate (as the case may be), shall be upon the defendant. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 25. In prosecutions burden of proof to be on defendant.

28. No person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any amending Act, shall be entitled to sue or recover in any Court for any work done, or materials provided by him, in the ordinary and customary work of a Dentist. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 26; 49 V. c. 30, s. 6. Persons contravening Act, not to recover for work done.

29. Nothing in this Act shall affect or interfere with the rights and privileges conferred upon legally qualified medical practitioners by the Acts relating to the practice of medicine and surgery in this Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 144, s. 27. This Act not to interfere with registered medical practitioners.

PHARMACEUTICAL COUNCIL.

Council of whom composed.

4. There shall be a council of the College, to be called the Pharmaceutical Council, which shall consist of thirteen members, who shall be elected as hereinafter provided, and shall hold office for two years, and the council shall, subject to the laws thereof, have sole control of the real and personal property of the College, and have authority to grant certificates of competency to conduct the business of a chemist or druggist and to be registered subject to the provisions of this Act.
47 V. c. 22, s. 4.

5. A member of the council may at any time resign by letter directed to the registrar of the College; and in the event of a vacancy occurring, the remaining members of the council shall fill up such vacancy from the members of the College. 47 V. c. 22, s. 5. Resignation of members, and vacancy how filled.

6. An election of members of the council shall be held on the first Wednesday in July in every second year, and the persons qualified to vote at the election, shall be such persons as are members of the said College. 47 V. c. 22, s. 6. Subsequent elections.

7. The council shall, at their first meeting, elect from among themselves a president and vice-president, and shall appoint a registrar and such other officers as the council may consider necessary. 47 V. c. 22, s. 7. Election of President and officers.

CERTIFICATES OF COMPETENCY.

8. The council shall hold at least two sittings in every year, on the first Wednesday in February and first Wednesday in August, for the purpose of granting certificates of competency, at such places as they may by resolution appoint, of which due notice shall be given for at least one month in the Ontario Gazette, and in at least two newspapers published in the city of Toronto. 47 V. c. 22, s. 8. Sittings of the Council. For granting certificates.

9. The council of the said College shall, subject to the supervision and disallowance thereof by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, have authority to prescribe the subjects upon which candidates for certificates of competency shall be examined, to establish a scale of fees not to exceed $10, to be paid by persons applying for examination; and to make by-laws, rules and orders for the regulation of their own meetings and proceedings and those of the College; and for the remuneration and appointment of examiners and officers of the College; and for the payment of remuneration or indemnity to the members of the council in attending its sittings, or in attending upon the business of the College, and in respect to any other matters which may be requisite for the carrying out of this Act; provided always, that no more than five cents per mile for travelling expenses, or more than $4 per day for such days only as he shall be in actual attendance upon the business of the College, including going to and returning from such sitting, be allowed to any member for such expenses and remuneration. 47 V. c. 22, s. 9. Powers of the Council as to subjects of examination, etc. Provision.

10. The examinations of the College may be conducted by the members of the council, or by persons appointed by them. 47 V. c. 22, s. 10. Who may examine.

WHO MAY APPLY FOR CERTIFICATES.

Qualification of candidates or certificates of competency.

11. Subject to the rules, regulations and by-laws of the Ontario College of Pharmacy, the following persons and no others may be admitted as candidates for certificates of competency :

(a) Any person who shall furnish to the council of the College satisfactory evidence of having, in pursuance of a binding contract in writing for that purpose, served as an apprentice to a regularly qualified pharmaceutical chemist for a term of not less than three years ;

(b) In case any person who has apprenticed himself as aforesaid, shall by reason of the death, failure in business, or removal of his employer, or from any other cause satisfactory to the council, be unable to complete his term of apprenticeship with such employer, such person shall be at liberty, when and as often as this may happen, to enter into a new contract to complete the remainder of his unfulfilled term with any other regularly qualified pharmaceutical chemist ;

(c) Nothing in this section shall apply to any person who had, prior to the 25th day of March, 1884, begun his apprenticeship with a regularly qualified pharmaceutical chemist without such binding contract in writing. 47 V. c. 22, s. 11.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATIONS.

Qualification of persons desiring to serve apprenticeship under this Act.

12. Every person who may hereafter be desirous of becoming apprenticed as aforesaid, shall, before the term of his apprenticeship begins to run for the purpose of this Act, furnish to the registrar of the College a certificate or other evidence satisfactory to the council, shewing that prior to the commencement of his apprenticeship he had passed an examination entitling him to admission to a High School, College, Collegiate Institute, or to the fourth form of a public school for the Province of Ontario ; provided that apprentices who have commenced their apprenticeship out of the Province, shall give satisfactory evidence of having had equal qualification to the aforesaid at the time when their apprenticeship was entered upon. 47 V. c. 22, s. 12.

Proviso.

REGISTRATION.

Register to be kept of persons registered or entitled to be registered.

13. It shall be the duty of the registrar to make and keep a correct register, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, as shewn in Schedule B, of all persons who may be entitled to be registered under this Act, and to enter opposite the names of all registered persons who have died, a statement of such fact, and from time to time to make the necessary alterations in the addresses of persons registered under this Act, and to cause to be printed and published on or before the fifteenth day of June of each year, an alphabetical list of the members who were on the first day of June of that year, entitled to keep open shop as pharmaceutical chemists. 47 V. c. 22, s. 13.

14. Any person having passed such examination as aforesaid to the satisfaction of the council, shall be entered upon the roll of registered chemists and druggists, and shall become a member of the College. 47 V. c. 22, s. 14.

Entry on the roll

15. All persons approved of by the council of the College, who hold diplomas from the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, or certificates from any Pharmaceutical College in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, may be registered as members of the Ontario College of Pharmacy without the examination prescribed by this Act. 47 V. c. 22, s. 34.

Persons holding diplomas from other societies may be registered.

16. No name shall be entered in the register except of persons authorized by this Act to be registered, nor unless the registrar is satisfied by proper evidence that the person claiming is entitled to be registered; and any appeal from the decision of the registrar may be decided by the council of the College, and any entry proved to the satisfaction of the council to have been fraudulently or incorrectly made, may be erased from or amended in the register by order of the council. 47 V. c. 22, s. 16.

Who may be entered on the register.
Appeal from decision of the registrar.
Fraudulent or incorrect entries may be erased.

17. Upon any person being registered under this Act, he shall be entitled to receive a certificate in the form of Schedule D or to the like effect, under the corporate seal of the College, and signed by the registrar. 47 V. c. 22, s. 17.

Certificate to be granted on registration.

18. There shall be payable to the registrar of the College, for the uses of the College, on the first day of May of each year, by every person registered and carrying on business as a pharmaceutical chemist, the sum of $4; provided, that in case such person shall carry on business in more than one locality the further sum of $4 shall be payable by him, as aforesaid, for each additional place of business, and provided also, that all employees or assistants who manage or have charge of such additional places of business, shall be legally qualified pharmaceutical chemists. 47 V. c. 22, s. 18.

Fees.

19. Any person registered under this Act, and no other person, shall be entitled to be called a pharmaceutical chemist, and no other person except a pharmaceutical chemist, as aforesaid, or his employee or employees, shall be authorized to compound prescriptions of legally authorized medical practitioners; but no person shall be entitled to any of the privileges of a pharmaceutical chemist, or member of the College, who is in default in respect to any fees payable by him by virtue of this Act. 47 V. c. 22, s. 19.

Who alone may be styled Pharmaceutical Chemist, and dispense.

Erasing of member on conviction of offence.

20. Upon a resolution of the council of the College being passed, declaring that any person in consequence of his conviction for any offence or offences against this Act, is, in the opinion of the council, unfit to be on the register under this Act, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may direct that the name of such person shall be erased from the register, and it shall be the duty of the registrar to erase the same accordingly. 47 V. c. 22, s. 20.

Certificate to be publicly displayed.

21. Every pharmaceutical chemist carrying on business on his own account shall display his certificate in a conspicuous position in his place of business. 47 V. c. 22, s. 21.

Person retiring from business to notify registrar.

22. Every person having been registered under this Act or any former Act, as a pharmaceutical chemist, shall, on retiring from business as a chemist, give the registrar notice in writing of the same, and in default thereof he shall remain liable for his annual registration fee; provided that it shall be lawful for any such person to resume the business of chemist and druggist at any time after retiring therefrom as aforesaid, upon giving notice in writing to the registrar of the College of his intention so to do, and upon payment to him of the then current annual registration fee. 47 V. c. 22, s. 22.

PREPARATION OF COMPOUNDS.

How compounds are to be prepared.

23. All compounds named in the British Pharmacopœia shall be prepared according to the formula directed in the latest edition published "by authority" unless the College of Physicians and Surgeons of this Province select another standard, or unless the label distinctly shews that the compound is prepared according to another formula. 47 V. c. 22, s. 23.

SALE OF POISONS.

Restriction on sale of poisons, etc., and on the assumption of certain titles

24. No person shall sell or keep open shop for retailing, dispensing or compounding poisons, or sell or attempt to sell any of the articles mentioned in Schedule A to this Act, or assume or use the title of "Chemist and Druggist," or "Chemist," or "Druggist," or "Pharmacist," or "Apothecary," or "Dispensing Chemist," or "Dispensing Druggist," in any part of the Province of Ontario, unless such person is registered under this Act, and unless such person has taken out a certificate under the provisions of section 18 of this Act, for the time during which he is selling or keeping open shop for retailing, dispensing or compounding poisons, or assuming or using such title; provided, that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to prevent the sale, by persons not registered in pursuance of this Act, of Paris Green, London Purple, and other arsenical insecticides, so long as such articles are sold in well secured packages distinctly labelled with the name and address of the seller and marked "Poison," and a record of such sales is kept as required under the provisions of this Act. 47 V. c. 22, s. 24.

Provided,

25. The several articles named or described in Schedule A shall be deemed to be poisonous within the meaning of this Act, and the council of the Ontario College of Pharmacy, hereinafter mentioned, may from time to time by resolution declare, that any article in the resolution named ought to be deemed a poison within the meaning of this Act, and thereupon the said council shall submit the same for the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, and if approval is given, then such resolution and approval shall be advertised in the Ontario Gazette, and on the expiration of one month from the advertisement the article named in the resolution shall be deemed to be a poison within the meaning of this Act, and the same shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, or such of them as may be directed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 47 V. c. 22, s. 25.

26. No person shall sell any poison named in the first part of Schedule A either by wholesale or retail, unless the bottle, vessel, wrapper or cover in which the poison is contained is distinctly labelled with the name of the article and the word "Poison" and if sold by retail, then also with the name and address of the proprietor of the establishment in which such poison is sold; and no person shall sell any poison mentioned in the first part of Schedule A to any person unknown to the seller unless introduced by some person known to the seller; and on every sale of any such article the person actually selling the same shall, before delivery, make an entry in a book to be kept for that purpose, in the form set forth in Schedule C to this Act, stating the date of the sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the name and quantity of the article sold, the purpose for which it is stated by the purchaser to be required, and the name of the person, if any, who introduced him, to which entry the signature of the purchaser shall be affixed. 47 V. c. 22, s. 26.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

27. No person shall wilfully or knowingly sell any article under the pretence that it is a particular drug or medicine which it is not in fact, and any person so doing (besides any other penalties to which he may be liable) shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by section 28 of this Act. 47 V. c. 22, s. 27.

28. Any person transgressing any of the provisions of this Act, or selling any poison in violation thereof, shall for the first offence incur a penalty of $20 and costs of prosecution, and for each offence committed subsequent to such conviction, a penalty of $50 and costs of prosecution, to be recovered in a summary manner before one or more Justices of the Peace or Police Magistrate, on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, one moiety to belong to the prosecutor and the other to be paid to the registrar for the use of the College. 47 V. c. 22, s. 28.

Proof on prosecution.

29. In any prosecution under this Act it shall be incumbent upon the defendant to prove that he is entitled to sell or keep open shop for compounding medicines or retailing poisons, and to assume the title of chemist and druggist, or other title mentioned in section 24 of this Act, and the production of a certificate purporting to be under the hand of the registrar and under the seal of the College, shewing that he is so entitled, shall be prima facie evidence that he is so entitled. 47 V. c. 22, s. 29.

Price of articles sold contrary to this Act not to be recovered.

30. No person selling articles in violation of the provisions of this Act shall recover any charges in respect thereof in any Court of Justice. 47 V. c. 22, s. 30.

ACT NOT TO AFFECT MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS.

Act not to apply to medical practitioners.

31.—(1) Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to or interfere with the privileges conferred upon legally qualified medical practitioners by any of the Acts relating to the practice of medicine and surgery in this Province, and they may be registered as pharmaceutical chemists without undergoing examination; nor shall anything in this Act prevent any person whatsoever from selling goods of any kind to any person legally authorized to carry on the business of an apothecary, chemist or druggist, or the profession of a doctor of medicine, physician or surgeon, or veterinary surgeon, nor prevent the members of such professions supplying to their patients such medicine as they may require, nor interfere with the business of wholesale dealers in supplying poisons or other articles in the ordinary course of wholesale dealing.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall prevent any member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario from engaging in and carrying on the business of an apothecary, chemist or druggist, without registration under the provisions of this Act. 47 V. c. 22, s. 31.

Executors may carry on business of deceased chemist, etc.

32. Upon the decease of any person legally authorized and actually carrying on the business of chemist and druggist at the time of his death, it shall be lawful for the executor, administrator or trustee of the estate of such person to continue the business if and so long only as such business is bona fide conducted by a pharmaceutical chemist registered under this Act, provided such executor, administrator or trustee continues to pay the annual registration fee of $4. 47 V. c. 22, s. 32.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

33. It shall be competent for the council of the College to elect as honorary members such persons as may be eminent for their scientific attainments, but such honorary members shall not as such be entitled to vote at elections or carry on the business of pharmaceutical chemists. 47 V. c. 22, s. 33.

Election of honorary members.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. The expression “Commissioner of Crown Lands,” wherever it occurs in this Act, shall mean the person discharging the duties of that officer. 50 V. c. 25, s. 1. Interpretation.

LAND SURVEYORS.

Who may act as land surveyor.

2. No person shall act as a surveyor of lands within this Province unless he has been duly authorized to practise as a land surveyor according to the provisions of this Act, or had been so authorized before the passing thereof, according to the laws then in force, under a penalty of $40. 50 V. c. 25, s. 2.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

Board of examiners.

3. There shall be a board of examiners for the examination of candidates for admission to practise as land surveyors, to consist of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, the Professor of Mineralogy and Geology in University College, Toronto, and eight other competent persons to be appointed from time to time by the Lieutenant-Governor, who shall meet at the city of Toronto for the examination of candidates for admission to practise as land surveyors in Ontario. 50 V. c. 25, s. 3.

Oath of office.

4.—(1) Each member of the board, save and except the Commissioner of Crown Lands, shall take an oath of office before a Judge of the High Court or of any County Court; and any three of the members shall form a quorum.

(2) The following shall be the form of the oath of office :

I, _____ of _____ having been appointed a member of the Board of Examiners for the admission of Provincial Land Surveyors for the Province of Ontario, do sincerely promise and swear that I will faithfully discharge the duties of such office without favour, affection or partiality : So help me God.

Sworn before me, at _____ this _____ day of _____ 18 _____

}

50 V. c. 25, s. 4.

Secretary
to the board.

5. The said board, or a majority thereof, shall from time to time appoint a fit and proper person to be secretary of the board, who shall attend the sittings thereof, and keep a record of its proceedings. 50 V. c. 25, s. 5.

Meetings when and where to be held.

6. The said board shall meet at the office of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, on the first Monday in each of the months of April and November, in every year, unless such Monday be a holiday (in which case they shall meet on the day next thereafter not being a holiday), and may adjourn such meeting from time to time if they deem it necessary. 50 V. c. 25, s. 6.

APPRENTICES.

7. No person shall be admitted as an apprentice with any provincial land surveyor unless he has previously passed an examination before the board of examiners as to his penmanship and orthography, fractions, decimals, square-root, logarithms, algebra (including equations to the first degree), Euclid (first four books), plane trigonometry, the rules for spherical trigonometry, mensuration of superficies, the use of ruling pen and construction of plain and comparative scales, and has obtained a certificate of such examination and of his proficiency from the board. 50 V. c. 25, s. 7.

Qualification for admission as an apprentice, and examination of applicants.

8. Before being so examined he shall pay into the fee fund the sum of $10 as the fee due by him on the examination, and a further sum of $2 to the secretary for the said certificate. 50 V. c. 25, s. 8.

Examination fee.

9. Applicants for examination previous to apprenticeship, shall give one month's notice to the secretary of the board of their intention to present themselves for examination, and pay to the secretary a fee of $1 for receiving and entering such notice. 50 V. c. 25, s. 9.

Notice to be given by applicants.

QUALIFICATION FOR ADMISSION TO PRACTISE.

10. Except as hereinafter provided no person shall be admitted to practise as a land surveyor in and for Ontario until he has attained the full age of 21 years, and has passed an examination before the board of examiners in the following subjects, viz., geometry, including the first six books of Euclid, (with the exception of the last thirteen propositions of the fifth book) algebra, including progressions, plane and spherical trigonometry, mensuration of superficies, laying out and dividing of land, descriptions by metes and bounds for deeds and other documents, the use and adjustment of surveying and levelling instruments, the laying out of curves, practical astronomy, including finding of time, latitude, longitude, azimuth, variation of the compass, and drawing meridian lines, the Acts relating to the survey of lands in Ontario, the general mining Act, the registry Act, so far as it refers to plans, the municipal Acts, so far as they relate to roads, surveys and drainage, the ditches and watercourses Act, the theory and practice of levelling, the principles of evidence, drawing of affidavits, taking of field notes and preparing plans, the rudiments of geology and mineralogy, and the sufficiency of his surveying instruments, and has served regularly and faithfully, for three successive years, under an instrument in writing duly executed before two witnesses, as apprentice to a land surveyor for Ontario, duly admitted and practising therein as such, nor until he has received from the said land surveyor a certificate of his having so served during the said period, or proves to the satisfaction of the board that he has so served. 50 V. c. 25, s. 10.

Qualification for admission to practise.

Admission of persons previously admitted in any part of Her Majesty's dominions.

11. It shall not be necessary for a land surveyor, duly admitted to practise in any of Her Majesty's dominions other than this Province, to serve under an instrument in writing during three years as aforesaid, but it shall only be necessary for any such person admitted in the Province of Quebec so to serve during six months of actual practice in the field with a land surveyor duly admitted and practising in this Province, and for any other such person so to serve during twelve successive months of actual practice, after which, on complying with all the other requirements hereof, he may undergo the examination by this Act prescribed. 50 V. c. 25, s. 11.

The case of persons who have received university degrees or diplomas as engineers or land surveyors.

12.—(1) A person who has followed a regular course of study in all the branches of education required by law for final admission as a land surveyor, through the regular sessions for at least two years in any university of the Province, or in McGill University, in the city of Montreal in the Province of Quebec, wherein there is organized a complete course of instruction, practical as well as theoretical, in civil engineering, natural philosophy, geology, and other branches of education required by law for admission as a land surveyor, and who has thereupon received from such university, after due examination, a degree or diploma of qualification as a civil engineer and land surveyor, may, after having passed the preliminary examination hereinbefore required for admission to apprenticeship with a land surveyor, be received as an apprentice by any practising land surveyor, and shall thereupon be only holden to serve as such apprentice during twelve successive months of actual service, or if he has passed through such university course of study in less time than two full years, then for such time of actual service as, with the period spent by him in such university course of study, suffices to make up the full time of three years.

Case of persons who have studied at School of Practical Science.

(2) A person who has followed a regular course of study at the Ontario School of Practical Science in the subjects of drawing, surveying and levelling, and geodesy and practical astronomy, and who has thereupon received, after due examination a certificate of having passed one session, two sessions or three sessions, as the case may be, in the study of the aforesaid subjects may, after having passed the preliminary examination hereinbefore required for admission to apprenticeship with a land surveyor, be received as an apprentice by any practising land surveyor, and shall thereupon, if he has received a certificate of having passed three sessions in the study of the said subjects, be only holden to serve as such apprentice during twelve successive months of actual service; or, in case he has only received a certificate of having passed only one or two sessions, as the case may be, in the study of the said subjects, then for such time of actual service as, with the period spent by him at such session or sessions, suffices to make up the full time of three years.

(3) After such actual service such person shall, subject to the other provisions of this Act, have the same right to undergo the examination required by law, and, if found qualified, to be admitted to practise as a land surveyor as if he had served the full three years' apprenticeship otherwise required by law. 50 V. c. 25, s. 12.

13. In case a Dominion land surveyor under The Dominion Lands Act applies for a commission as a land surveyor of this Province, if the board of examiners for the time being are of opinion that the qualifications required of a surveyor of Dominion lands, at the time of the commission having been granted to such surveyor under The Dominion Lands Act, were sufficiently similar to those set forth in this Act such surveyor shall be entitled to a certificate of admission as a land surveyor of this Province, without being subjected to any examination except as regards the system of survey of lands in Ontario. 50 V. c. 25, s. 13.

14. The privilege of a shortened term of apprenticeship shall also be accorded to any graduate of the Military College at Kingston, or of the Ontario School of Practical Science, and such person shall not be required to pass the preliminary examination hereinbefore required for admission to apprenticeship with a land surveyor, but shall only be bounden to serve under articles with a practising land surveyor, duly filed as required by section 17 of this Act, during twelve successive months of actual practice, after which, on complying with all the other requirements, he may undergo the examination by this Act prescribed. 50 V. c. 25, s. 14.

15. If a surveyor dies or leaves the Province, or is suspended or dismissed, his apprentice may complete his term of apprenticeship, under an instrument in writing as aforesaid, with any other surveyor duly admitted. 50 V. c. 25, s. 15.

16. A surveyor may, by an instrument in writing transfer an apprentice, with his own consent, to another practising surveyor duly admitted, with whom he may serve the remainder of the term of his apprenticeship. 50 V. c. 25, s. 16.

17. No instrument in writing under which an applicant for admission to practise as a surveyor claims to have served with some practising surveyor for the period of three years, twelve months or six months, (as the case may be), shall avail to authorize the admission of an applicant, unless the instrument, has been transmitted to the secretary of the board within two months next after the date thereof, nor unless the fee mentioned in section 25 of this Act was by the apprentice paid to the secretary of the board at the time of transmitting the indenture or articles; and the said secretary shall acknowledge by post the receipt of all such instruments or copies thereof transmitted to him, and shall carefully keep the same in his office. 50 V. c. 25, s. 17.

ADMISSION OF CANDIDATES.

Notice of examination to be given by candidates for admission.

18. Every person desiring to be examined by the board as to his qualification to be admitted as a land surveyor, shall give notice thereof in writing to the secretary of the board, at least one month previous to the meeting thereof. 50 V. c. 25, s. 18.

The board to require certificates of good conduct, &c.

19. Every person applying for admission to practise as a land surveyor shall produce to the board satisfactory certificates as to character for probity and sobriety, and before a certificate is granted shall perform such practical operations in the presence of the board, and shall answer such questions on oath (which oath any member of the board may administer) with regard to the actual practice of such applicant in the field, and with regard to his surveying instruments as the said board may require. 50 V. c. 25, s. 19.

If the examiners approve of the candidate they are to grant him a certificate.

20. If the said examiners are satisfied as to the qualifications of the candidate, and his compliance with all the requirements of this Act, they shall grant him a certificate in the form following:

"This is to certify to all whom it may concern, that A. B. of in the County of _____ has duly passed his examination before the board of examiners, and has been found qualified to fill the office and perform the duties of a Provincial Land Surveyor in and for Ontario, he having complied with all the requirements of the law in that behalf. Wherefore the said A. B. is admitted to the said office, and is by law authorized to practise as a land surveyor in Ontario.

"In witness whereof, we have signed this certificate at the City of Toronto, in the County of York, and Province of Ontario, Dominion of Canada, the _____ day of _____ 18 ____."

Signature of the Chairman, "C. D."

Signature of the Secretary, "E. F."

And such certificate shall, on his complying with the other requirements of this Act, enable him to practise as a land surveyor in and for Ontario. 50 V. c. 25, s. 20.

Licentiate to give bonds and take the oaths of allegiance and of office.

21.—(1) Each applicant, before receiving the above mentioned certificate, shall, with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the said board of examiners, enter into a bond jointly and severally in the sum of $1,000 to Her Majesty Her Heirs and Successors, conditioned for the due and faithful performance of the duties of his office.

(2) The said bond shall be deposited and kept in the manner by law prescribed with regard to bonds given for like purposes by other public officers, and shall enure to the benefit of any party sustaining damage by breach of the condition thereof; and the certificate shall be registered in the office of the Provincial Secretary. 50 V. c. 25, s. 21.

Where bonds to be deposited.

22.—(1) Each applicant, after having been granted a certificate, shall also take and subscribe the oath of allegiance, and the following oath, before the board of examiners, who are hereby empowered to administer the same :

Oaths.

"I, A. B. do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I will faithfully discharge the duties of a land surveyor, agreeably to law, without favour, affection or partiality : So help me God."

(2) The said oath of allegiance and of office shall be deposited in the office of the Provincial Secretary. 50 V. c. 25, s. 22.

23. The board of examiners may in their discretion suspend or dismiss from the practice of his profession, any land surveyor whom they find guilty of gross negligence or corruption in the execution of the duties of his office; but the board shall not take action until the complaint under oath has been filed with the board, and a copy thereof forwarded to the party accused, nor shall the board suspend or dismiss such land surveyor without having previously summoned him to appear in order to be heard in his defence, nor without having heard the evidence offered either in support of the complaint or in behalf of the surveyor inculpated. 50 V. c. 25, s. 23.

When the board may suspend licensed surveyors.

24. The Commissioner of Crown Lands shall pay to each member of the board of examiners and the secretary of the board, who attends any examination, the sum of $5 for each day's attendance, and charge the same in his account as part of the expenses of his office. 50 V. c. 25, s. 24.

Fees to be paid to the members of the board.

25. The following fees shall be paid under the provisions of this Act:

Tariff or fees.

1. To the secretary of the board of examiners, by each Apprentice, at the transmitting to such secretary the Indenture or Articles of such apprentice..... $2 00
2. To the secretary of the board by each candidate for examination with his notice thereof 1 00
3. To the secretary of the board by each applicant obtaining a certificate, as his fee thereon 2 00
4. To the secretary of the board as an admission fee by each applicant receiving a certificate, out of which the expenses attending the examination of such applicant (if any) shall be first paid, and the remainder (if any) shall be paid over to the Commissioner of Crown Lands and be accounted for like other moneys received by him 20 00

5. To every surveyor summoned to attend any court, civil or criminal, for the purpose of giving evidence in his professional capacity as a surveyor, for each day he so attends, in addition to his travelling expenses (if any), and to be taxed and paid in the manner by law provided with regard to the payment of witnesses attending such court $5 00

50 V. c. 25, s. 25.

BOUNDARY LINES.

The establishment of boundary lines regulated.

- 26. All boundary or division lines legally established, and ascertained under the authority of any Ordinance or Act heretofore in force, shall remain good, and all other acts or things legally done and performed under the authority of the said Ordinance and Acts, or any of them, and in conformity to the provisions thereof, shall remain good and valid notwithstanding the repeal of such Ordinance or Act. 50 V. c. 25, s. 26.

The standards of measure regulated.

- 27. The standard of English measure of length, compared with and corrected by the standards for such measures established in this Province, and procured by the Commissioner of Crown Lands for the purpose of comparing therewith the standards to be kept by each surveyor as hereinafter provided, shall be deposited with the secretary of the board of examiners at Toronto, and the said secretary, under such instructions as he from time to time receives from the board, shall examine, test and stamp each standard measure of length for the surveyors, bringing the same for examination as the Commissioner of Crown Lands may do and with the same effect; and for each measure so examined and stamped such secretary may demand and receive fifty cents. 50 V. c. 25, s. 27.

Surveyors to procure stamped standard measures.

- 28. Every land surveyor duly admitted and practising shall procure and shall cause to be examined, corrected and stamped or otherwise certified by the Commissioner of Crown Lands, or some one deputed by him for that purpose, or by the secretary aforesaid, a standard measure of length, under the penalty of the forfeiture of his license or certificate, and shall, previously to proceeding on any survey, verify by such standard the length of his chains and other instruments for measuring. 50 V. c. 25, s. 28.

Chain-bearers to be sworn, and nature of the oath.

- 29. Every chain-bearer shall, before he commences his chaining or measuring, take an oath or affirmation to act as such justly and exactly according to the best of his judgment and ability and to render a true account of his chaining or measuring to the surveyor by whom he has been appointed to such duty, and that he is absolutely disinterested in the survey in question, and is not related or allied to any of the parties interested in the survey within the fourth degree, according to the computation of the civil law—that is to say, within the degree of cousin-german, which oath the surveyor employing such chain-bearer is hereby authorized and required to administer; nor shall any person related or allied to any of the parties within the said degree be employed as a chain-bearer on any survey. 50 V. c. 25, s. 29.

30. A land surveyor, when engaged in the performance of the duties of his profession, may pass over, measure along and ascertain the bearings of any line or limit whatsoever, and for such purposes may pass over the lands of any person whomsoever, doing no actual damage to the property of such person. 50 V. c. 25, s. 30.

When land surveyors may pass over private lands.

31. Where a surveyor is in doubt as to the true boundary or limit of any township, concession, range, lot or tract of land which he is employed to survey, and has reason to believe that any person is possessed of any important information touching such boundary or limit, or of any writing, plan or document tending to establish the true position of such boundary or limit, then if such person does not willingly appear before and be examined by such surveyor, or does not willingly produce to him such writing, plan or document, such surveyor or the party employing him may file in the office of the County Court a præcipe for a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, as the case may require, accompanying such application by an affidavit or solemn declaration to be made before a Justice of the Peace, of the facts on which the application is founded, and the Judge may order a subpoena to issue accordingly, commanding such person to appear before the surveyor, at a time and place to be mentioned in the said subpoena and to bring with him any writing, plan or document mentioned or referred to therein. 50 V. c. 25, s. 31.

Course to be adopted by surveyors to ascertain boundary line, when doubtful, etc.

May subpoena witnesses.

32. The subpoena shall be served on the person named therein by delivering a copy thereof to him, or by leaving the same for him with some grown person of his family at his residence, exhibiting to him or to such grown person the original. 50 V. c. 25, s. 32.

Service of subpoena.

33. If the person commanded to appear by the subpoena after being paid his reasonable expenses, or having the same tendered to him, refuses or neglects to appear before the surveyor at the time and place appointed in the subpoena, or to produce the writing, plan or document (if any) therein mentioned or referred to, or to give such evidence and information as he may possess touching the boundary or limit in question, the person so summoned shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of the Court out of which the subpoena issued, and an attachment may be issued against him by the Judge of the said Court, and he may be punished accordingly, by fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the Judge. 50 V. c. 25, s. 33.

Penalty of disobeying

Stone monuments may be placed at certain points in townships,

34. Stone monuments, or monuments of other durable materials, shall be placed at the several corners, governing points or off-sets of every township already surveyed, or after this Act takes effect from time to time surveyed, and also at each end of the several concession lines of such townships; and lines drawn in the manner hereinafter prescribed from the monuments so erected, shall be taken and considered to be the permanent boundary lines of such townships and concessions respectively. 50 V. c. 25, s. 34.

Under direction of Commissioner of Crown Lands.

35. The monuments to be placed as above mentioned shall be so placed under the direction and order of the Commissioner of Crown Lands. 50 V. c. 25, s. 35.

Boundaries ascertained as aforesaid to be deemed the true ones.

36. The courses and lengths of the said boundary lines, so ascertained and established, shall on all occasions be the true courses and lengths of the boundary lines of the said townships and concessions, whether the same do or do not, on actual survey, coincide with the courses and lengths in any letters patent of grant or other instrument mentioned and expressed in respect of such boundary lines. 50 V. c. 25, s. 36.

Monuments need not be placed under ss. 34-36 except on the application of the municipal council.

37. It shall not be necessary for the Commissioner of Crown Lands to proceed to carry the provisions of the last preceding three sections of this Act into execution, until an application for that purpose has been made to the Lieutenant-Governor, by the council of the county in which the township or townships interested is situate, and such council shall cause the sum requisite to defray the expenses to be incurred, or the proportion thereof payable by the inhabitants of any township or concession, to be levied on the said inhabitants, in the same manner as any sum required for any other local purpose authorized by law may be levied. 50 V. c. 25, s. 37.

In what cases the municipal council may apply to have monuments placed.

38.—(1) And whereas in several of the townships in Ontario some of the concession lines, and side road lines, or parts of the concession lines and side road lines were not run in the original survey performed under competent authority, and the survey of some of the concession lines and side road lines, or parts of the concession lines and side road lines have been obliterated, and owing to the want of such lines the inhabitants of such concessions are subject to serious inconvenience, therefore the municipal council of the township in which such lines are situated, may, on application of one-half the resident landholders in any concession, or part of concession, or upon its own motion without such application, apply to the Lieutenant-Governor, requesting him to cause any such line or lines to be surveyed and marked by permanent stone or iron boundaries under the direction and order of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, in the manner prescribed in this Act, at the cost of the proprietors of the lands in each concession or part of a concession interested.

(2) The concession lines, where not run, or where they have been obliterated, shall be so drawn as to leave each of the adjacent concessions of a depth proportionate to that intended in the original survey. As to the adjacent concessions.

(3) The survey of the parts of those concession lines intended to be straight, and which were not run or which have been obliterated, shall be established by drawing a straight line between the two nearest points or places where such line or lines can be clearly and satisfactorily ascertained. Establishment of lines.

(4) The lines or parts of lines so surveyed and marked as aforesaid, shall thereafter be the permanent boundary lines of such concession or side roads, or parts of concessions or side roads, to all intents and purposes of law whatsoever. To be permanent boundary lines.

(5) The council shall cause to be laid before them an estimate of the sum requisite to defray the expenses to be incurred in order that the same may be levied on the said proprietors, in proportion to the quantity of land held by them respectively in such concession or part of a concession, in the same manner as any sum required for any other purposes authorized by law may be levied. 50 V. c. 25, s. 38. Expenses to be estimated and provided for.

39.—(1) Whenever the municipal council of any township, city, town or incorporated village adopts a resolution, on application of one-half the resident landholders to be affected thereby, or upon its own motion, that it is desirable to place stone or other durable monuments at the front or at the rear, or at the front and rear angles of the lots in any concession or range or block or part of a concession, or range or block in their township, city, town, or incorporated village, such municipal council may make application to the Lieutenant-Governor, in the same manner as is provided in section 38, praying him to cause a survey of such concession or range or block, or part of a concession or range or block, to be made, and such boundaries to be planted, under the authority of the Commissioner of Crown Lands. Municipal councils may cause the boundaries of lots to be ascertained and marked.

(2) The surveyor making such survey shall accordingly plant stone or other durable monuments at the front, or at the rear, or at the front and rear angles of each and every lot in such concession or range or block, or part of a concession or range or block, and the limits of each lot so ascertained and marked shall be the true limits thereof. Boundaries to be marked durable monuments.

(3) The cost of such survey shall be defrayed in the manner prescribed by section 38 of this Act. 50 V. c. 25, s. 39. How cost to be defrayed.

40. All expenses incurred in performing any survey, or placing any monument or boundary under the provisions of section 34 and the following sections, shall be paid by the county treasurer to the person or persons employed in such services, on the certificate and order of the Commissioner of Crown Lands. 50 V. c. 25, s. 40. Expenses how paid.

Boundaries placed under the authority of the Government to be deemed the true ones, etc.

41. All boundary lines of townships, cities, towns and villages, all concession lines, governing points, and all boundary lines of concessions, sections, blocks, gores and commons, and all side lines and limits of lots surveyed, and all trees marked in lieu of posts and all posts or monuments, marked, placed or planted at the front or rear angles of any lots or parcels of land, under the authority of the Executive Government of the late Province of Quebec or of Upper Canada or of Canada, or under the authority of the Executive Government of this Province, shall be the true and unalterable boundaries of all and every such townships, cities, towns, villages, concessions, sections, blocks, gores, commons, and lots or parcels of land, respectively, whether the same upon admeasurement be found to contain the exact width, or more or less than the exact width mentioned or expressed in any letters patent, grant or other instrument in respect of such township, city, town, village, concession, section, block, gore, common, lot or parcel of land. 50 V. c. 25, s. 41.

Townships, etc., to comprise all the space included within their boundaries.

42. Every township, city, town, village, concession, section, block, gore, common, lot or parcel of land, shall embrace the whole width, contained between the front posts, monuments or boundaries, planted or placed at the front angles thereof respectively, so marked, placed or planted as aforesaid, and no more nor less, any quantity or measure expressed in the original grant or patent thereof notwithstanding. 50 V. c. 25, s. 42.

As to aliquot parts of townships, etc.

43. Every patent, grant or instrument, purporting to be for any aliquot part of any concession, section, block, gore, common, lot or parcel of land in any such township, city, town or village, shall be construed to be a grant of such aliquot part of the quantity the same may contain, whether such quantity be more or less than that expressed in such patent, grant or instrument. 50 V. c. 25, s. 43.

Road allowances in cities, etc., to be public highways.

44. In every city, town or village, or any part thereof, which has been surveyed by the authority aforesaid, all allowances for any road, street, lane or common laid out in the original survey of such city, town or village, or any part thereof, shall be public highways and commons; and all posts or monuments placed or planted in the original survey of such city, town or village, or any part thereof, to designate or define any allowance for a road, street, lane, lot or common, shall be the true and unalterable boundaries of every such road, street, lane, lot and common; and all land surveyors, employed to make surveys in such city, town or village, or any part thereof, shall follow and pursue the same rules and regulations in respect of such surveys as is by law required of them when employed to make surveys in townships. 50 V. c. 25, s. 44.

45. All surveys of townships, tracts or blocks of land in this Province, granted by the Crown to companies and individuals before any surveys had been made therein, and which were afterwards surveyed by the owners thereof, shall be original surveys thereof, and shall have the same force and effect as though the said original surveys and plans thereof had been made by competent authority; and all allowances for roads or commons surveyed in such townships, tracts or blocks of land, and laid down on the plans thereof, shall be public highways and commons; and all lines run and marked in such original surveys, and all posts or monuments planted or placed in such original surveys to designate and define any allowance for road, concession, lot of land or common, shall be the true and unalterable lines and boundaries of such allowance for road, common or lot of land, and all land surveyors, when employed to make surveys in such townships, tracts or blocks of land, shall follow and pursue the same rules and regulations in respect of such townships, tracts or blocks of land, and the original surveys thereof, as they are by law required to follow and pursue in all townships, tracts or blocks of land surveyed by the authority aforesaid. 50 V. c. 25, s. 45.

As to lands granted in blocks and subsequently surveyed by the grantees.

46. The course of the boundary line of each and every concession, on that side from which the lots are numbered, shall be the course of the division or side lines throughout the several townships or concessions respectively, provided that such division or side lines were intended, in the original survey performed under such authority as aforesaid, to run on the same course the said boundary. 50 V. c. 25, s. 46.

Governing lines declared.

47. Every surveyor shall run all division or side lines, which he is called upon by the owner or owners of any lands to survey on the same course as that boundary line of the concession in which such lands are situate, from whence the lots are numbered as aforesaid, provided such division or side lines were intended, in the original survey performed under such competent authority as aforesaid, to run on the same course as the said boundary. 50 V. c. 25, s. 47.

All side lines to be run on the same course governing lines.

48. Where that end of a concession, from which the lots are numbered, is wholly bounded by a lake or river, or other natural boundary, or where it has not been run in the original survey performed under competent authority as aforesaid, or where the course of the division or side lines of the lots therein was not intended in the original survey performed as aforesaid, to be on the same course as such boundary, the said division or side lines shall be run on the same course as the boundary line at the other extremity of such concession, provided their course was intended, in the original survey performed as aforesaid, to be the same, and that such boundary line was run in the original survey. 50 V. c. 25, s. 48.

Course to be adopted where concession bounded by lakes or rivers.

Where division or side lines not intended to run parallel to the side lines at either end of a concession.

49. Where in the original survey, performed under competent authority as aforesaid, the course of the division or side lines in any concession was not intended to be on the same course as the boundary line at either end of such concession, they shall be run at such angle with the course of the boundary line at that end of the concession from which the lots are numbered, as is stated in the plan and field notes of the original survey, of record in the Department of Crown Lands, provided such line was run in the original survey as aforesaid, or with the course of the boundary line at the other extremity of the said concession, if the boundary at that end of the concession from which the lots are numbered was not run in the original survey; or if neither of the aforesaid boundaries of the concession was run in the original survey, or if the concession is wholly bounded at each end by a lake or river, or other natural boundary, then at such angle with the course of the line in front of the said concession as is stated in the plan and field notes aforesaid, or if parts of the concession line have been run on different courses as shewn on said plans and field notes, then at such angle with the course of each of these parts, as is stated in the plan and field notes aforesaid. 50 V. c. 25, s. 49.

Where a division or proof line has been run between lots, the same shall govern.

50. If any division or side line between lots, or proof line intended to be on the same course as the division or side lines between lots, was drawn in any such concession, bounded as aforesaid, in the original survey thereof, the division or side lines between the lots therein shall be on the same course as such division or side line or proof line. 50 V. c. 25, s. 50.

Where there are two of such lines, the line nearest the end of the concession, from which the lots are numbered, to govern to the next of such lines.

51. Where two or more such division or side lines or proof lines were drawn in the original survey of such concession, bounded as aforesaid, that division or side line or proof line which is nearest to the boundary of the concession from which the lots are numbered, shall govern the course of the division or side lines of all the lots in such concession between the boundary of the concession from which the lots are numbered, and the next division or side line or proof line drawn in the original survey: and such last mentioned line or proof line shall govern the course of the division or side lines of all the lots up to the next division or side line or proof line drawn in the original survey, or to the boundary of the concession towards which the lots are numbered, as the case may be. 50 V. c. 25, s. 51.

How lines to be governed in townships laid out in sections under the O.C. of the 27th March, 1829, etc.

52. In all those townships which in the original survey were divided into sections, agreeably to an Order in Council bearing date the 27th day of March, 1829, or which have since been or shall be divided into sections or blocks of one thousand acres, or thereabouts, or six hundred and forty acres or thereabouts, as the case may be, under instructions from the Commissioner of Crown Lands, the division or side lines in all concessions, in any section or block, shall be governed by the boundary lines of such section or block, in like manner as the division or side lines in townships originally surveyed before the said day, are governed by the boundary lines of the concession in which the lots are situated: Provided that in those sections or blocks the governing boundaries of which are broken by lakes or rivers in such a way that the course thereof cannot accurately be determined, a surveyor when called upon to run any side line in any concession in such section or block, shall run such side line on the astronomical course of the side lines of the lots in the township, as shewn on the original plan and field notes thereof, of record in the Department of Crown Lands. 50 V. c. 25, s. 52.

53. The front of each concession in any township, where only a single row of posts has been planted on the concession lines, and the lands have been described in whole lots, shall be that end or boundary of the concession which is nearest to the boundary of the township from which the several concessions thereof are numbered; and when the line in front of any such concession was not run in the original survey, the division or side lines of the lots in such concession shall be run from the original posts or monuments placed or planted on the front line of the concession in the rear thereof, on the same course as the governing line determined as aforesaid, to the depth of the concession, that is, to the centre of the space contained between the lines in front of the adjacent concessions, if the concessions were intended in the original survey to be of an equal depth, or, if they were not so intended, then to the proportionate depth intended in the original survey, as shewn on the plan and field notes thereof of record in the Department of Crown Lands, having due respect to any allowance for a road or roads made in the original survey; and a straight line joining the extremities of the division or side lines of any lot in such concession, drawn as aforesaid, shall be the true boundary of that end of the lot which was not run in the original survey. 50 V. c. 25, s. 53.

What shall be deemed the front of a concession in certain cases.

54. In those townships in which any concession is wholly bounded in front by a river or lake, where no posts or other boundaries were planted in the original survey on the bank of such river or lake to regulate the width in front of the lots in the broken front concessions, the division or side lines of the lots in such broken front concessions shall be drawn from the posts or other boundaries on the concession line in rear thereof, on the same course as the governing line, determined as aforesaid, to the river or lake in front. Where any concession is bounded in front at either end, in part though not wholly, by a river or lake, and no posts or other boundaries were planted in the original survey on the bank of such river or lake to regulate the widths of the lots broken by said river or lake, the division or side lines of said broken lots shall be drawn from points on the rear of the concession determined by measuring off the widths proportionately as intended in the original survey, from the intersection of the division or side line of the last whole lot of the original survey with the rear line of said concession, on the same course as the governing line, determined as aforesaid, to the river or lake in front. 50 V. c. 25, s. 54.

Fronts of concessions in certain other cases, depths of lots, &c.

55. In those townships in which the concessions have been surveyed with double fronts, that is, with posts or monuments planted on both sides of the allowances for roads between the concessions, and the lands have been described in half lots, the division or side lines shall be drawn from the posts at both ends to the centre of the concession, and each end of such concession shall be the front of its respective half of such concession, and a straight line joining the extremities of the division or side lines of any half lot in such concession, drawn as aforesaid, shall be the true boundary of that end of the half lot which has not been bounded in the original survey. 50 V. c. 25, s. 55.

Mode of drawing lines in double fronted concessions.

56. And whereas some of the double front concessions are not of the full depth, and doubts have arisen as to the manner in which the division or side lines in such concessions should be established:—Therefore, in such concessions the division or side lines shall be drawn from the posts at both ends thereof, to the centre of the concession, as provided in the last preceding section of this Act, without reference to the manner in which the lots or parts of lots in such concession have been described for patent. 50 V. c. 25, s. 56.

As to concessions in cases where alternate concession lines only have been run.

57. In those townships in which each alternate concession line has only been run in the original survey, but with double fronts as aforesaid, the division or side lines shall be drawn from the posts or monuments on each side of such alternate concession lines to the depth of a concession—that is, to the centre of the space contained between such alternate concession lines, if the concessions were intended in the original survey to be of an equal depth, or if they were not so intended, then to the proportionate depth intended in the original survey, as shewn on the plan and field-notes thereof of record in the Department of Crown Lands; and each alternate concession line as aforesaid shall be the front of each of the two concessions abutting thereon. 50 V. c. 25, s. 27.

As to lands in adjoining concessions in the same grant.

58. In cases where any Crown patent of grant, or other instrument, has been issued for several lots or parcels of land in concessions adjoining each other, the side lines or limits of the lots or parcels of land therein mentioned and expressed, shall commence at the front angles of such lots or parcels of land respectively, and shall be run as hereinbefore provided, and shall not continue on in a straight line through several concessions—that is to say, each lot or parcel of land shall be surveyed and bounded according to the provisions of this Act, independently of the other lots or parcels mentioned in the same grant or instrument. 50 V. c. 25, s. 58.

59. Every land surveyor employed to run any division line or side line between lots, or any line required to run on the same course as any division line or side line in the concession in which the land to be surveyed lies, shall, if it has not been done before, or if it has been done but the course cannot at such time be ascertained, determine by astronomical observation the true course of a straight line between the front and rear ends of the governing boundary line of the concession or section, and shall run such division line or side line as aforesaid, on the same course as such straight line, if so intended in the original survey, or at such angle therewith as is stated in the plan and field notes as aforesaid, which shall be deemed to be the true course of the said governing or boundary line for all the purposes of this Act, although such governing or boundary line as marked in the field be curved or deviate otherwise from a straight course; and the same rule shall be observed, if a line is to be run at any angle with a front line or other line which is not straight. 50 V. c. 25, s. 59.

Rule when a line is to be drawn on the same course as a governing line.

60.—(1) In all cases where a land surveyor is employed to run any side line or limits between lots, and the original post or monument from which such line should commence cannot be found, he shall obtain the best evidence that the nature of the case admits of, respecting such side line, post or limit; but if the same cannot be satisfactorily ascertained, then the surveyor shall measure the true distance between the nearest undisputed posts, limits or monuments, and divide such distance into such number of lots as the same contained in the original survey, assigning to each a breadth proportionate to that intended in the original survey, as shewn in the plan and field-notes thereof, of record in the Department of Crown Lands; and if any portion of the line in front of the concession in which such lots are situate, or boundary of the township in which such concession is situate, has been obliterated or lost, then the surveyor shall run a line between the two nearest points or places, where such line can be clearly and satisfactorily ascertained, in the manner provided in this Act, and shall plant all such intermediate posts or monuments as he may be required to plant, in the line so ascertained, having due respect to any allowance for a road or roads, common or commons, set out in the original survey; and the limits of each lot so found shall be the true limits thereof.

Cases where the original post or monument cannot be found, provided for.

(2) In double front or alternate concessions, where an original post or monument cannot be found, any original post still standing, or the position of which is satisfactorily established on the opposite side of the concession road allowance or on the centre line thereof, shall constitute the best evidence within the meaning of the preceding sub-section for the purpose of establishing the position of such missing post or monument. 50 V. c. 25, s. 60.

If side lines were drawn in original survey, the same to be adhered to.

61. In those townships in which the side lines of the lots were drawn in the original survey, every Provincial land surveyor when called upon to determine any disputed boundary in any of such townships, shall ascertain and establish the division or side lines of the lots, by running such side lines as they were run in the original survey, whether the same were in the original survey run from the front of the concession to the rear, or from the rear of the concession to the front, and shall adhere to all posts, limits or monuments, planted on the division or side lines in the original survey, as being or designating corners of lots under such original survey. 50 V. c. 25, s. 61.

As to allowances for roads or streets in cities, towns or villages laid out by private owners.

62.—(1) All allowances for roads, streets or commons, surveyed in cities, towns and villages, or any part thereof, which have been or may be surveyed and laid out by companies and individuals and laid down on the plans thereof, and upon which lots of land fronting on or adjoining such allowances for roads, streets, or commons have been or may be sold to purchasers, shall be public highways, streets, and commons; and all lines which have been or may be run, and the courses thereof given in the survey of such cities, towns and villages, or any part thereof, and laid down on the plans thereof, and all posts or monuments which have been or may be placed or planted in the first survey of such cities, towns and villages, or any part thereof, to designate or define any allowances for roads, streets, lots or commons, shall be the true and unalterable lines and boundaries thereof respectively; and all land surveyors employed to make surveys in such city, town or village, or any part thereof, shall follow and pursue the same rules and regulations in respect of such surveys as is by law required of them when employed to make surveys in townships: provided that the municipal corporation shall not be liable to keep in repair any road, street, bridge or highway laid out by any private person until established by by-law of the corporation or otherwise assumed for public use by such corporation, as provided in The Municipal Act.

Proviso.

Rev. Stat. c. 184.

City, town or village lots not to be laid out so as to interfere with any allowance for roads.

(2) No lot or lots of land in such cities, towns and villages shall be so laid out as to interfere with, obstruct, shut up, or be composed of any part of any allowance for road, common or commons, which were surveyed and reserved in the original survey of the township or townships wherein such cities, towns or villages, are or may be situate.

No private survey valid unless made by a licensed surveyor.

(3) No such private survey shall be valid unless performed by a duly authorized surveyor. 50 V. c. 25, s. 62.

63.—(1) Whenever any land is surveyed and sub-divided for the purpose of being sold or conveyed in lots by reference to a plan which has not been already registered, the person making the sub-division shall within three months from the date of the survey file with the registrar a plan of the land on a scale of not less than one inch to every four chains. The plan shall shew the number of the township, town or village lots, and range or concession as originally laid out, and all the boundary lines thereof, within the limits of the land shewn on the said plan, and where such plan is a sub-division of a lot, or lots, on a former plan, it shall shew the numbers or other distinguishing marks of the lot or lots sub-divided, and the boundary lines of such lot or lots. The plan shall also shew all roads, streets, lots and commons within the same, with the courses and widths thereof respectively, and the width and length of all lots, and the courses of all division lines between the respective lots within the same, together with such other information as is required to shew distinctly the position of the land being sub-divided.

Registration of plans when land sub-divided.

(2) Every such map or plan before being registered, shall be signed by the person or the chief officer of the corporation by whom or on whose behalf the same is filed, and shall also be certified by some Provincial land surveyor in the form of Schedule L. to The Registry Act, as follows:—

Duty of registrars thereafter.
Rev. Stat. c. 114.

I hereby certify that this plan accurately shews the manner in which the land included therein has been surveyed and sub-divided by me; and that the said plan is prepared in accordance with the provisions of The Registry Act.

and thenceforward the registrar shall keep an index of the lands described and designated by any number or letter on the map or plan, by the name by which such person, corporation or company designates the same in the manner provided by The Registry Act; and all instruments affecting the land or any part thereof, executed after the plan is filed with the registrar shall conform thereto, otherwise they shall not be registered.

Instruments must conform to plan.

(3) In the case of refusal by such person, corporation or company, his or their executors, agents, or attorneys, or successors, for two months after demand in writing for that purpose, to lodge the said plan or map when required by any person interested therein, or by the inspector, so to do, he or they shall incur a penalty of $20 for each and every calendar month the said map or plan remains unregistered, which penalty may be recovered by any person complaining, in any Division Court in the county in which such lands are situated, in like manner as a common debt.

Penalty for refusing to lodge plan.

To what land this section applies.

(4) This section shall apply as well to lands already surveyed or sub-divided as to those which may hereafter be surveyed or sub-divided, subject to the next succeeding section. 50 V. c. 25, s. 63. See also Cap. 114, s. 84.

When plan must be registered in case of lands subdivided before March 4th, 1868.

64. In sales of lands under surveys or sub-divisions made before the 4th day of March, 1868, where the survey or sub-divisions so differ from the manner in which the land was surveyed or granted by the Crown that the parcel so sold cannot be easily identified, the plan or survey shall be registered within six months after the passing of this Act, if the plan or survey is still in existence and procurable for registration and filing under the next preceding section, and if it is not, a new survey or plan shall be made by and at the joint expense of the persons who have made such surveys or sub-divisions, and of all others interested therein, by some duly authorized Provincial land surveyor, as nearly as may be according to the proper original survey or sub-division, and the same when so made shall be filed as if under the next preceding section of this Act. 50 V. c. 25, s. 64. See also Cap. 114, s. 85.

How to be made.

Plan not binding until some sale is made under it; alterations in plan.

65. In no case shall any plan or survey, although filed and registered, be binding on the person so filing or registering the same, or upon any other person, unless a sale has been made according to such plan or survey, and in all cases amendments or alterations of any such plan or survey may be ordered to be made, at the instance of the person filing or registering the same or his assigns, by the High Court, or by any Judge of the said Court, or by the Judge of the County Court of the county in which the land lies, if on application for the purpose duly made, and upon hearing all parties concerned, it be thought fit and just so to order, and upon such terms and conditions as to costs and otherwise as may be deemed expedient. An appeal shall be from any such order to the Court of Appeal.

Proviso as to streets.

(2) No part of any street or streets shall be altered or closed up, upon which any lot of land sold abuts, or which connects any such sold lot with or affords means of access therefrom to the nearest public highway.

(3) Nothing herein shall in any way interfere with the powers now possessed by municipalities in reference to highways. 50 V. c. 25, s. 65.

Copies of registered plans, to be evidence of the originals.

66. Every copy of such plan or map obtained from such registry office, and certified as correct by the registrar or deputy registrar as aforesaid shall be taken in all Courts as evidence of the original thereof and of the survey of which it purports to be a plan or map. 50 V. c. 25, s. 66.

67. Whenever any such plan or map has been so made and deposited as aforesaid the registrar shall make a record of the same, and enter the day and year on which the same is deposited in his office; and for such service the said registrar shall be entitled to charge the fees prescribed by The Registry Act, 50 V. c. 25, s. 67.

Duty of the registrar in whose office any such plan is deposited.
Rev. Stat. c. 114.

68.—(1) Where an incorporated city, town or village, or village not incorporated, comprises different parcels of land owned at the original division thereof by different persons, and the same were not jointly surveyed and one entire plan of such survey made and filed in accordance with section 63 of this Act, the municipal council of the township within which such unincorporated village is situated or of such incorporated city, town or village, shall, upon the written request of the inspector, or of any person interested, addressed to the clerk of the municipality, immediately cause a plan of such city, town or village, to be made upon the scale provided for under this Act, and to be registered in the registrar's office of the registry division within which the municipality lies, which map or plan shall have endorsed thereon the certificates of the clerk and head of the municipality and surveyor, that the same is prepared according to the directions of the municipality, and in accordance with this Act, and to the map or plan the corporate seal of the municipality shall be attached.

Plans of cities, towns or villages to be registered in certain cases.

(2) The expense attending the preparing and depositing of the map or plan shall be paid out of the general funds of the municipality, except in the case of unincorporated villages, where the same shall be paid by a special rate to be levied by assessment on all ratable property comprised in the unincorporated village, as described by metes and bounds in a by-law to be passed by the municipality for the purpose of levying such rate; and in case of the refusal of the municipality to comply with all the requirements of this section within six months next after being required in manner aforesaid so to do, the municipality shall incur the same penalty, and the same shall be recoverable in the manner provided in section 63 of this Act.

Payment of expenses

(3) Where land in a township has been or shall hereafter be sold under surveys or subdivisions, made in a manner which so differs from that in which the land was surveyed or granted by the Crown, that the parcel sold cannot be easily identified, and the map or plan has not been registered under this or any other Act in that behalf, the council of the township may, at the written request of the inspector, or of any person interested, cause a plan of such land to be made and registered in the same manner and with the same effect as in the case of an unincorporated village; and the expenses attending the preparation of and filing of the map or plan shall be paid by a special rate to be levied by assessment on the lands comprised in said map or plan, as described in a by-law to be passed by the council for the purpose of levying such rate; and the municipality shall have the like remedies for the recovering of such last mentioned expenses as it has for compelling payment of taxes.

Registration of plans of township subdivisions in certain cases.

Obligations not impaired.

(4) Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed or construed to relieve any person from any liability, duty, obligation, or penalty provided or imposed by or under any of the provisions of section 63 of this Act. 50 V. c. 25, s. 63.

Plans of surveys to be deposited with treasurer of municipality.

69. Every person who is required by this Act to lodge with the registrar a plan or map of any survey or subdivision of land made by him, or of any alteration of such survey or subdivision, shall also, within three months from the date of the survey, lodge with the treasurer of the municipality in which the land is situate a duplicate or copy of such plan or map, and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, within two months after notice in writing given by such treasurer requiring him to lodge such plan as provided by this section, every such person shall incur a penalty of $20 for each and every month during which the default shall continue. 50 V. c. 25, s. 69.

Penalty.

Surveyors to keep regular journals and field notes and furnish copies to parties interested.

70. Every land surveyor shall keep exact and regular journals and field notes of all his surveys, and file them in the order of time in which the surveys have been performed, and shall give copies thereof to the parties concerned when so required, for which he is hereby allowed the sum of $1 for each copy, if the number of words therein does not exceed four hundred words, but if the number of words exceeds four hundred, he is allowed ten cents additional for every hundred words over and above four hundred words. 50 V. c. 25, s. 70.

Surveyors may administer oaths for certain purposes.

71. For better ascertaining the original limits of any township, concession, range, lot, or tract of land, every land surveyor acting in this Province, shall and may administer an oath or oaths to each and every person whom he examines concerning any boundary, post or monument, or any original landmark, line, limit or angle of any township, concession, range, lot or tract of land which such surveyor is employed to survey. 50 V. c. 25, s. 71.

Evidence taken by surveyor to be reduced to writing and signed, etc.

72. All evidence taken by a surveyor as aforesaid shall be reduced to writing, and shall be read over to the person giving the same, and be signed by such person, or, if he cannot write, he shall acknowledge the same as correct before two witnesses, who, as well as the surveyor, shall sign the same; and such evidence shall, and any document or plan prepared and sworn to as correct before a Justice of the Peace, by a surveyor, with reference to any survey by him performed may be filed and kept in the registry office of the registry division in which the lands to which the same relates are situate, subject to be produced thereafter in evidence in any Court within Ontario; and for receiving and filing the same the Fees. registrar shall be entitled to twenty-five cents; and the expense of filing the same shall be borne by the parties in the same manner as the other expenses of the survey. 50 V. c. 25, s. 72.

[Section 31 of C. S. C. c. 77, is as follows:

31. If any person or persons, in any part of this province, interrupts, molests or hinders any land surveyor, while in the discharge of his duty as a surveyor, such person or persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being thereof lawfully convicted in any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished either by fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of such court, such imprisonment being for a period not exceeding two months, and such fine not exceeding twenty dollars, without prejudice to any civil remedy which such surveyor or any other party may have against such offender or offenders, in damages by reason of such offence. 12 V. c. 35, s. 14. See Schedule C to R. S. C. p. 2317.]

[Section 4 of C. S. U. C. c. 93, and section 107 of C. S. C. c. 77, consolidated in R. S. C. c. 168, ss. 56 and 57, are as follows:

56. Every one who knowingly and wilfully pulls down, defaces, alters or removes any mound, land mark, post or monument lawfully erected planted or placed to mark or determine the boundaries of any Province, county, city, town, township, parish, or other municipal division, is guilty of felony, and liable to seven years' imprisonment. R. S. C. c. 168, s. 56.

57. Every one who knowingly and wilfully defaces, alters or removes any mound, land mark, post or monument lawfully placed by any land surveyor to mark any limit, boundary or angle of any concession, range, lot or parcel of land, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to three months' imprisonment, or to both.

2. Nothing herein shall prevent any land surveyor in his operation from taking up posts or other boundary marks when necessary, if he carefully replaces them as they were before. R. S. C. c. 168, s. 57.]

8. NOTARIES PUBLIC.

CHAP. 153.—NOTARIES PUBLIC, p. 1418.

CHAPTER 153.

An Act respecting Notaries Public.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint Notaries.

1. The Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, appoint as he thinks fit under his hand and seal at arms, one or more Notaries Public for this Province. R. S. O. 1877, c. 141, s. 1.

Powers of Notaries.

2. Every such Notary shall have, use and exercise the power of drawing, passing, keeping and issuing all deeds and contracts, charter-parties and other mercantile transactions in this Province, and also of attesting all commercial instruments that may be brought before him for public protestation, and otherwise of acting as usual in the office of Notary, and may demand, receive and have all the rights, profits and emoluments rightfully appertaining and belonging to the said calling of Notary Public during pleasure. R. S. O. 1877, c. 141, s. 2.

Notaries to have powers of Commissioners under Rev. Stat. c. 62.

3. Every Notary Public having authority in Ontario, shall have the same powers as a commissioner appointed under The Act respecting Commissioners for taking Affidavits and Recognizances. 48 V. c. 16, s. 1.

Power to take affidavits, etc., in all Courts or in matters pending before a Judge.

4. Every Notary Public may in any part of Ontario take and receive all such affidavits and affirmations (in cases where by law affirmation is allowed) as any person desires to make in or concerning any matter or thing depending or in anywise concerning any of the proceedings in the High Court, or in the Court of Appeal, and in any County or Division Court, or concerning any application made or depending before a Judge or Judges of any of said Courts, and in or concerning any application or matter made or pending before any Judge of any Court in this Province in which, by any statute now or hereafter in force in Ontario, such Judge is authorized to make any order, although such application or matter is not made or pending in any Court. 48 V. c. 16, s. 2.

5. Every Notary Public shall be deemed an officer of the High Court and of the Court of Appeal, and all affidavits and affirmations taken shall be of the same force as if taken before a Commissioner, and may be read and made use of as other affidavits and affirmations taken in Court. 48 V. c. 16, s. 4.

6. Any Notary Public misconducting himself in respect of the powers conferred upon him by the preceding three sections of this Act or by section 41 of The Registry Act shall be subject to the same penalty or punishment as a Commissioner in and for the High Court, and any power thereby conferred upon a Notary Public may be revoked in the same way and manner and to the same extent as if such power had been conferred upon him under any of the provisions of The Act respecting Commissioners for taking Affidavits and Recognizances. 48 V. c. 16, ss. 3, 5.

7.—(1) Any person other than a barrister or solicitor duly admitted as such in this Province, desirous of being appointed as a Notary Public, shall be subject to examination in regard to his qualification for the said office, by the County Court Judge of the county in which he resides, or by such other person as may from time to time be appointed in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor; and no such person shall be appointed a Notary Public without a certificate from the said County Court Judge, or such other person, that he has examined the applicant and finds him qualified for the office, and that in his opinion a Notary Public is needed for the public convenience in the place where the applicant resides and intends to carry on business.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may from time to time make regulations for such examination and certificate; and the Judge or other person examining shall be entitled to receive from the person examined a fee of $5 for every examination. R. S. O. 1877, c. 141, s. 3.

CHAPTER 154.

An Act respecting Innkeepers.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Interpretation.

1. In the construction of this Act—

“Inn,”

1. “Inn” shall include an hotel, inn, tavern, public house or other place of refreshment, the keeper of which is now by law responsible for the goods and property of his guests; and

“Innkeeper,”

2. “Innkeeper” shall mean the keeper of any such place. R. S. O. 1877, c. 147, s. 1.

Lien on baggage, etc., for accommodation, etc., furnished, and power to sell.

2.—(1) Every innkeeper, boarding-house keeper and lodging-house keeper shall have a lien on the baggage and property of his guest, boarder or lodger, for the value or price of any food or accommodation furnished to such guest, boarder or lodger, and, in addition to all other remedies provided by law, shall have the right, in case the same remains unpaid for three months, to sell by public auction the baggage and property of such guest, boarder or lodger, on giving one week's notice by advertisement in a newspaper published in the municipality in which the inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house is situate, or in case there is no newspaper published in the municipality, in a newspaper published nearest to such inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house, of the intended sale, stating the name of the guest, boarder or lodger, the amount of his indebtedness, a description of the baggage or other property to be sold, the time and place of sale, and the name of the auctioneer; and after the sale the innkeeper, boarding-house keeper, or lodging-house keeper may apply the proceeds of the sale in payment of the amount due to him, and the costs of such advertising and sale, and shall pay over the surplus (if any) to the person entitled thereto, on application being made by him therefor. R. S. O. 1877, c. 147, s. 2.

(2) Where an innkeeper, boarding-house keeper, lodging-house-keeper or livery stable keeper, has by law a lien upon a horse or other animal for the price or value of any food or accommodation supplied to such animal, or for care or labour bestowed thereon, he shall in addition to all other remedies provided by law, have the right, in case any part of such price or value remains unpaid for the space of two weeks, to sell by public auction such horse or other animal on giving two weeks' notice by advertisement in a newspaper published in the municipality in which the inn, boarding-house, lodging-house, or livery stable is situate, or in case there is no newspaper published in the municipality, in a newspaper published nearest to such inn, boarding-house, lodging-house, or livery stable, of the intended sale, stating (if known) the name of the person or persons who brought such horse or other animal to the inn, boarding-house, lodging-house, or livery stable, the amount of the indebtedness, a description of the horse or other animal, and the name of the auctioneer; and after the sale, the innkeeper, boarding-house keeper, lodging-house keeper or livery stable keeper may apply the proceeds thereof in payment of the amount due to him in respect of food or accommodation supplied, or care or labour bestowed as aforesaid, and the costs of such advertisement and sale, and shall pay over the surplus, if any, to the person entitled thereto on application being made by him therefor. 45 V. c. 16, s. 1.

Lien on horses, etc., and power to sell.

3.—(1) No innkeeper shall be liable to make good to any guest of such innkeeper, any loss of or injury to goods or property brought to his inn (not being a horse or other live animal, or any gear appertaining thereto, or any carriage), to a greater amount than the sum of $40 except in the following cases, that is to say:

Innkeeper not liable for loss of goods and property of guest beyond $40, unless lost,

(a) Where such goods or property have been stolen, lost, or injured through the wilful act, default, or neglect of such inn-keeper, or any servant in his employ;

default,

(b) Where such goods or property have been deposited expressly for safe custody with such innkeeper.

or unless deposited with him for safe keeping.

(2) In case of such deposit, it shall be lawful for such innkeeper, if he thinks fit, to require as a condition of his liability that such goods or property shall be deposited in a box or other receptacle, fastened and sealed by the person depositing the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 147, s. 3.

4. If an innkeeper refuses to receive for safe custody, as before mentioned, any goods or property of his guest, or if such guest, through any default of such innkeeper, is unable to deposit such goods or property as aforesaid, the innkeeper shall not be entitled to the benefit of this Act in respect of such goods or property. R. S. O. 1877, c. 147, s. 4.

Liability for refusal to take charge of goods.

Notice of law,
etc., to be conspicuously exhibited.

5. Every innkeeper shall cause to be kept conspicuously posted in the office, and public rooms, and in every bedroom in his inn, a copy of section 3 of this Act, printed in plain type; and he shall be entitled to the benefit of the said section in respect of such goods or property only as are brought to his inn while such copy is so posted. LIABILITY OF EXECUTORS OF PAWN-
BROKER, s. 41.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Pawnbroker, defined.

1. Every person who takes or receives, by way of pawn, pledge or exchange, any goods for the repayment of money lent thereon, shall be deemed a pawnbroker within the meaning of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 1.

Pawnbrokers to be licensed.

2. No person shall exercise the trade of a pawnbroker within any municipality in this Province unless he shall have obtained a license therefor under the hand of the treasurer of the municipality in which he carries on or purposes to carry on such trade, nor unless he shall obtain a renewal of the same annually, but no license shall be issued or renewed, unless the same shall have been first authorized by by-law of the council of said municipality. 47 V. c. 23, s. 1.

Penalty for neglect to take out license.

3. Every person exercising such trade without having obtained a license or renewal thereof, as aforesaid, shall forfeit $50 for every pledge he takes, to be recovered with costs in the same manner as the penalty with costs imposed in section 8 of this Act may be recovered. 47 V. c. 23, s. 1.

4. The sum of $60 shall be paid for every license or renewal thereof to the treasurer, for the use of the municipality. 47 V. c. 23, s. 1. Fee for license.

5. No person shall, by virtue of one license, keep more than one house or shop, or place for taking in goods to pawn. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 5. A single license.

6. Any number of persons carrying on trade as pawnbrokers in partnership in the same house, shop or place need only take out a license for one house. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 6. Partners.

7. Every pawnbroker shall have a sign, with his name and the word "Pawnbroker" in large legible characters thereon placed over the door outside of the shop, or other place used by him for carrying on business. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 7. To exhibit a sign.

8. In case a pawnbroker neglects to have such sign so placed, he shall forfeit $40 for every shop or place made use of for one week without having the same so put up, to be recovered with costs, before any Police Magistrate or two Justices of the Peace, and if not forthwith paid upon conviction, the same may, by warrant under the hand and seal of such Police Magistrate or two Justices of the Peace, be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, and the penalty shall belong and be paid to the municipality in which the offence was committed; and all other penalties recovered under this Act shall also belong and be paid to the municipality in which the offence was committed. 47 V. c. 23, c. 2. Penalty for neglect to exhibit sign.

9. If there is not a sufficient distress, or payment is not forthwith made, the offender shall be committed to the county or district gaol, for a term not exceeding three months nor less than fourteen days, unless the penalty and reasonable charges are sooner paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 9. Committal in default of distress.

10. Every pawnbroker shall cause to be painted or printed in large legible characters the rate of profit by this Act or by the Statutes of Canada allowed to be taken, and also the various prices of the notes or memorandums to be given according to the rates hereinafter mentioned, and an account of such as are to be given gratis, and of the expense of obtaining a second note or memorandum where the former one has been lost, mislaid, destroyed or fraudulently obtained, and shall place the same in a conspicuous part of the shop or place where the business is carried on, so as to be visible to and legible by persons pledging goods. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 10. Rates to be exhibited. See R. S. C. c. 128.

Entries to be made by pawnbrowsers.

11. Every pawnbroker who takes any goods by way of pawn or pledge, whereon a sum above $1 is lent, shall, before he advances or lends the money thereon, enter in a fair and regular manner in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, a description of the goods received in pawn, pledge or exchange, and the sum lent thereon, with the day and year and name of the person by whom pawned, and the name of the street and number of the house, if numbered, where such person abides, and whether he is a lodger in or the keeper of such house, by using the letter L if a lodger, and the letter H if a housekeeper, and also the name and place of abode of the owner, according to the information of the person pawning the goods, into all which circumstances the pawnbroker shall inquire of the party before any money is advanced; and if the sum lent does not exceed $1, a similar entry shall be made within four hours after the goods have been pawned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 11.

lent.

12. Every pledge upon which there is lent above $2 shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and to be kept separate from all other pledges, and every such entry shall be numbered in the book progressively as such goods are pawned in the following manner, viz.: the first pledge that is received in pawn No. 1, the second No. 2, and so on until the end of the month, and so on in every succeeding month throughout the year, and upon every note respecting such pledge shall be written the number of entry of the pledge so entered in the book aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 12.

Note to be given to the pawnor.

13. At the time of taking any pawn, a note or memorandum, written or printed, shall be given to the person pawning, pledging or exchanging the same, containing a description of the goods pawned, pledged or exchanged, and also of the money advanced thereon, with the day of the month and year, and the names and places of abode, and numbers of the houses of the parties, and whether lodgers or housekeepers, by using the letters aforesaid, and upon such note or memorandum, or on the back thereof, shall be written or printed the name and place of abode of the pawnbroker, which note or memorandum the party pawning the goods is required to take, and unless he takes the same, the pawnbroker shall not receive and retain the pledge. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 13.

Fees therefor.

14.—(1) When the sum lent is under $1, the note aforesaid shall be given gratis;

(2) If the sum lent is $1 and under $2, the pawnbroker may take one halfpenny or five-sixths of a cent;

(3) If $2 and under $5, he may take one penny or one cent and two-thirds of a cent;

(4) If $4 and under $20, he may take two pence or three and one-third cents ;

(5) If $20 and upwards, he may take four pence or six and two-thirds cents. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 14.

15. The note shall be produced to the pawnbroker before he is obliged to re-deliver the goods, except as hereinafter provided. The note to be afterwards produced. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 15.

16. A duplicate of the note or memorandum shall be affixed to the goods pledged, and in all cases where goods pawned are redeemed, the pawnbroker shall write or endorse, or cause to be written or endorsed on every duplicate, the profit taken by him for the pledge, and shall keep the duplicate in his custody for one year next following. A duplicate to be affixed to the goods. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 16.

17. If any person knowingly and designedly pawns pledges or exchanges, or unlawfully disposes of the goods of any other person, not being employed or authorized by the owner so to do, any Justice of the Peace resident nearest to the place where the offence has been committed may grant his warrant to apprehend the offender ; and if he is thereof convicted by the oath of one witness, or by confession, before a Justice of the Peace, he shall forfeit not more than $20 nor less than $4, and also the value of the goods pawned, and if not forthwith paid, the convicting justice shall commit him to the common gaol of the district or county where the offence was committed, there to remain and be kept to hard labour for not more than three months, unless the forfeiture is sooner paid. Penalty for pawning goods of others. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 17.

18. The said forfeitures when recovered shall be applied towards making satisfaction thereout to the party injured, and defraying the costs of the prosecution, as may be adjudged reasonable by the convicting justice. Forfeitures, how applied. R. S. O. 1887, c. 148, s. 18.

19. If any person knowingly buys or takes in pawn or exchange from any journeyman mechanic, any goods of any manufacture or of any part or branch of any manufacture, either mixed or separate, or any materials plainly intended for manufacturing any goods after such goods or materials have been put into a state for any process or operation to be thereupon or therewith performed, and before such goods or materials have been finished for the purpose of wear or consumption, or any goods, materials, linen or apparel which have been entrusted to any person to wash, scour, iron, mend, manufacture, work up, finish or make up, and is convicted thereof upon confession, or on the oath of one witness, before a justice of the district or county where the offence was committed, he shall forfeit the sum lent thereon, and forthwith restore the said goods or materials to the lawful owner. Consequences of taking good in pawn from journeyman. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 19.

Proceedings
by owners of goods illegally obtained.

20. If the owner of goods of any manufacture, or part or branch of any manufacture, either mixed or separate, or of any materials plainly intended for manufacturing any goods after such goods or materials have been put into a state for any process or operation to be thereupon or therewith performed, and before such goods or materials have been finished for the purpose of wear or consumption, or of any linen or apparel which has been entrusted to any person to wash, scour, iron, mend, manufacture, work up, finish or make up as aforesaid, or of any other goods whatsoever, which have been unlawfully pawned or exchanged, makes out either on his oath or by the oath or solemn affirmation of one witness, before a justice aforesaid where such offence has been committed, that there is just cause to believe or to suspect that any person has taken to pawn or exchange any such goods without the owner's knowledge, and makes appear probable grounds for such suspicion, the justice may issue his warrant, for searching within the hours of business, the books, house, warehouse or any other place of the person so charged as suspected of having received the same without the privity of the owner; and if the occupier of such place, upon request made to him by any peace officer authorized to search, refuses to exhibit his pledge books, or to open such place as required to permit search to be made, the peace officer may break open the house, warehouse or other place on the said premises within the hours of business, and search as he may think fit for the goods suspected to be there, taking care to do no wilful damage, and no person shall oppose the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 20.

Search warrant.

Of goods found con-sealed.

21. If after such refusal and upon forced search, any goods so pawned or exchanged as aforesaid are found, and the property of the owner is made out to the satisfaction of the justice, by the oath or solemn affirmation of one witness, or by the confession of the person charged, the justice shall cause the goods to be forthwith restored to the owner, and the occupier shall be fined not less than $8 nor more than $20 to be recovered as other fines before mentioned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 21.

If goods not redeemed within a year, and pawn-broker refuses to restore.

22. In case, within one year after any goods have been pawned or pledged for securing money lent, the pawnor, or other person on his behalf, tenders to the person who lent the money the note or memorandum required to be given by this Act, and also the principal money borrowed, and the profit according to the rates of this Act, and the person who took the goods in pawn neglects or refuses, without reasonable cause, to deliver back the goods so pawned, the pawnor may make oath thereof before a justice of the district or county where the offence has been committed, and the justice shall cause such person to come before him, and shall examine on oath the parties themselves, and such other credible persons as appear before him touching the premises, and if tender of the note or memorandum, with the principal sum lent, and all profit thereon, is proved on oath to have been made within the time aforesaid, then on payment by the borrower of such principal money and the profit due thereon to the lender, and in case the lender refuses to accept thereof on tender before the justice, the justice shall thereupon, by order under his hand, direct the goods so pawned forthwith to be delivered to the pawnor, and if the lender neglects or refuses to deliver up or make satisfaction for the goods as the justice orders, the justice shall commit him to the common gaol of the district or county where the offence was committed, until he delivers up the goods according to the order, or makes satisfaction for the value thereof to the party entitled to the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 22.

23. The person who produces the note or memorandum aforesaid, and requires a delivery of the goods mentioned therein, shall be deemed the owner, so far as concerns the person who has the goods in pledge, and the pawnbroker, on receiving the principal and profit aforesaid, shall deliver the goods to the person producing the note or memorandum, and he shall be indemnified, unless he has had notice in writing from the real owner not to deliver the goods to the person producing the note or memorandum. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 23.

Holder of note to be considered
owner.

24. In case a pawnbroker has had such previous notice, or in case the note or memorandum has been lost, mislaid, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from the owner, and the goods mentioned therein are unredeemed :

Proceedings if pawnbroker notified not to deliver.

1. The pawnbroker with whom the goods have been pledged shall, at the request of the person who represents himself as the owner thereof, deliver to such person a copy of the note or memorandum, with the form of an affidavit of the particular circumstances attending the case written thereon, as the same are stated to him by the party applying for the goods ;

2. The person receiving the copy and form of affidavit shall thereupon prove his property in or right to the goods to the satisfaction of some Justice of the Peace, and shall also make oath to the affidavit, before such justice, of the truth of the particular circumstances attending the case therein mentioned ;

3. The pawnbroker shall then suffer the person proving such property to redeem the goods on leaving the copy of the note or memorandum, and the affidavit, with him, the pawnbroker ;

4. In case the money lent does not exceed $1, the pawnbroker may receive for the copy and affidavit, one penny or one and two-third cents ; if above $1, and not exceeding $4, two pence or three and a third cents ; and if above $4, five cents. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 24.

When goods
may be sold.

25. All pawned goods shall be deemed forfeited, and may be sold at the expiration of one year from the time of pawning the same, exclusive of the day on which they were pawned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 25.

At public auction.

26. When the sum lent exceeds $2 the goods shall be sold by the pawnbroker at public auction, and not otherwise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 26.

Before sale, goods to be exposed to view.

27. Before such public sale, the goods shall be exposed to public view, and a catalogue thereof published, containing the name and place of abode of the pawnbroker, a description of the goods separately, the month the goods were received in pawn, and the number of the pledge; and an advertisement giving notice of the intended sale, and containing the name and abode of the pawnbroker, and the month the goods were received in pawn, shall be inserted on two several days in some public newspaper, two days at least before the day of sale. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 27.

Penalty for not properly describing.

28. In case the goods are not described separately in the catalogue, the pawnbroker shall forfeit to the owner of the pledge not less than $8 nor more than $40, to be recovered as other fines under this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 28.

Account of sales to be kept and booked.

29. Every pawnbroker shall enter in a book, to be kept for that purpose, a just account of the sale of the goods by auction, expressing therein the day of the month the same were pledged, the name of the person who pledged, the day when and the money for which each pledge was sold, and the name and abode of the auctioneer. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 29.

Disposal of surplus.

30. In case the goods have been sold for more than was due thereon, and in case of demand within three years after the sale, the overplus shall, after deducting the necessary costs and charges of the sale and catalogues, be paid to the person by whom or on whose account the goods were pawned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 30.

Pawnor may inspect entries.

31. The person who pawned the goods, or the person for whom they were pawned, shall be permitted to inspect the entry made of the sale, on paying five cents for the inspection. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 31.

Consequence of refusal to permit inspection.

32. In case the pawnbroker refuses an inspection of the entry to the person who pawned the goods, or to his executor, administrator or assignee, upon the production of the letters testamentary, letters of administration or assignment, or in case the goods were sold for more than the sum entered in such book, or in case the pawnbroker did not make such entry, or did not bona fide sell the goods according to this Act, or refuses to pay the overplus on demand, he shall forfeit

$40, and treble the sum the goods were originally pawned for, to the person by whom or on whose account they were pawned, to be recovered as other fines under this Act; and if the forfeiture is not forthwith paid, the sum shall be levied by distress by warrant of the justice before whom the conviction is had. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 32.

33. No pawnbroker having goods in pledge shall, either by himself or any other person for him, except at a public auction, purchase such goods during the time they remain in his custody as a pledge. Pawnbrokers not to purchase goods except at public auction R. S. O. 1877, c. 148 s. 33.

34. No pawnbroker shall—

1. Purchase, receive or take any goods in pledge, from any person who appears to be under the age of fifteen years, or to be intoxicated with liquor; nor Restrictions upon pawnbrokers.

2. Purchase or take in pawn, pledge or exchange, the note or memorandum aforesaid of any other pawnbroker;

3. Employ any servant or other person under sixteen years of age to take any pledge;

4. Receive any goods by way of pawn, pledge or exchange, on any Fast or Thanksgiving Day appointed by authority, or on Sunday, nor on any other day, before eight o'clock in the morning, nor after eight o'clock in the evening, except on Saturday evenings, and the evenings preceding Good Friday and Christmas Day, at which last times the pawnbroker may keep his place of business open until ten o'clock in the evening. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 34.

35. In case it appears or is proved on oath before a Justice of the Peace, that the goods pawned were sold before the time limited, or have been embezzled or lost, or have become of less value than when pawned, through the neglect or wilful misbehaviour of the pawnbroker or his servants, the justice shall award a reasonable satisfaction to the owner in respect of such damages. If goods lost or damaged. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 35.

36. In case the sum so awarded does not amount to the principal and profit due to the pawnbroker, the pawnor may pay or tender the balance; and on so doing, the justice shall proceed as if the pawnor had paid or tendered the whole money due for principal and profit as aforesaid. Terms of redemption of such goods—tender of difference. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 36.

37. In case the satisfaction allowed is equal to or exceeds the principal and profit as aforesaid, the pawnbroker shall deliver the goods so pledged to the owner without being paid anything for the principal or profit, and also the excess, if any, under penalty of $40, to be recovered as penalties hereinbefore mentioned. When without any tender. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 37.

Pawnbroker bound to produce.

38. When the justice thinks the production of any pawn-book, note, voucher, memorandum, duplicate or other paper necessary, which is or ought to be in the hands, custody or power of any pawnbroker, he shall summon him to attend with the same, and the pawnbroker shall be bound to produce the same in the state in which it was when the pawn was received; and in case the pawnbroker neglects or refuses to attend or to produce the same in its true and perfect state, he shall, unless he shews good cause to the satisfaction of the justice, forfeit not less than $20 nor more than $40, to be levied and recovered as fines hereinbefore mentioned. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 38.

Limitation of prosecutions.

39. No pawnbroker shall be liable to any prosecution before a justice under this Act, unless information is given within twelve months next after the offence committed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 39.

What Justice may act.

40. The prosecution shall be before some neighbouring justice of the place where the offence was committed, but no person who has been convicted of fraud or felony shall prosecute or inform against any person for an offence against this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 40.

Who cannot be informers.

Act to extend to executors, administrators, etc.

41. The provisions of this Act shall extend to the executors, administrators and assigns of every deceased pawnbroker, and also to the executors, administrators and assigns of the pawnor, but such executor, administrator or assign shall not be answerable for any penalty, personally or out of his own estate, unless forfeited by his own act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 41.

No fee on Justice's summons.

42. No fee shall be taken for any summons or warrant granted by any justice under this Act, so far as the same relates to goods pawned, pledged or taken in exchange. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 42.

Stay of execution pending appeal.

43. In case of an appeal from the judgment of a justice or justices under this Act, the execution of the judgment shall be suspended, upon the person convicted entering into a recognizance, at the time of the conviction, with two sureties, in double the sum he has been adjudged to pay, to prosecute the appeal with effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the judgment and determination of the Court of General Sessions, and to pay such costs as may be awarded at the Sessions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 43.

If judgment affirmed.

44. In case the judgment is affirmed, the appellant shall immediately pay the sum adjudged to be forfeited, together with such costs as the Court awards, or in default thereof, he shall suffer the penalties inflicted by this Act upon persons who do not upon conviction pay the forfeitures hereby imposed. R. S. O. 1877, c. 148, s. 44.
